As you hold this new edition of the venerated Geneva Bible, several realities converge in your heart, your mind, and your hands. What are these realities? They include:

History and Legacy  It was the Geneva Bible that accompanied our forefathers to the new world. They made history in many ways, not the least of which was a legacy of Scriptural wisdom inspired by the Geneva Bible.

Power and Influence  As Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, knowing it to be the power of God, committed believers in Christ can, and have, changed the culture with powerful tools like the Geneva Bible’s unique translation and wisdom. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

Achievement and Celebration  The restoration of the Geneva Bible to American life is both a remarkable achievement and an event that readers can best celebrate by reading and sharing with everyone possible.

Saving Knowledge and Jesus Christ  The heart of the Bible is Christ and His glorious salvation. He is the central message of the entire Bible. The Geneva Bible leads you not only to know and love Him as the Sovereign Lord of grace but it also leads you to know and to love Him as the Sovereign Lord of history.

Joy and Hope  There is joy because of the rich Biblical theology of God’s sovereign grace. And there is thus hope for our fallen world because God’s sovereignty can move mountains, bring down strongholds, and turn hearts of stone into hearts of flesh and faith.

Opportunity and Potential  With this spiritual arsenal in your hands you are equipped to storm the strongholds with the spiritual wisdom that opened this continent to become the most blessed civilization in history. The restoration of spiritual glory—the potential to reassert our culture’s values of freedom, prosperity, education, and truth—is before you.

Scholarship and Ideas  The scholars of the past have been united in this edition with contemporary scholars. The Geneva Bible’s timeless truths, revolutionary ideas, and spiritual renewal will enable you to renew your heart, inform your mind, and direct your hands. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and mind, and may the ancient and eternal truths in these pages be the pointers on your quest to plumb the treasures of wisdom hidden in Christ.

Changing the World  Simply put, nothing has ever really changed the world except God’s power. In your hands you have been given the greatest source of the greatest ideas known to man. The Scriptures, and the wisdom of the theological minds who brought forth the Geneva Bible, will enable you to think God’s thoughts after Him because the Bible is His special revelation. Herewith is a resource that you are sure to find indispensable for the study and interpretation of creation as God would have you see it.

The Geneva Bible once changed the world. In your hands you hold something that is about to change the world—again. So use this Bible with care. Use it faithfully with faith. Then watch God once more do above and beyond all that we can ask or imagine.

The God-given vision to restore this special edition of the 1599 Geneva Bible was announced in January of 2004. Soon thereafter a team was organized to reset every word, making no changes except these few: modern spelling; proofreading to ensure word-for-word accuracy with the original 1599 edition; and designing an easy-to-read format. Over the subsequent three years of meticulous work, the production/editorial team witnessed the Providence of God in the daily details. The Lord clearly has ordained this special project and brought it to completion. Our hope is that the Geneva Bible, restored to its rightful place among frequently referenced Scriptures, will remind Christians of their rich heritage in the Protestant Reformation and inspire them to continue advancing the Gospel and Christ’s Kingdom with the same passion and conviction of the Reformers.

We would like to share with readers the editorial philosophy and restoration processes we employed as we prepared this edition of the 1599 Geneva Bible.

Unlike most contemporary Bible translations, which have unvarying contents because of copyright strictures, the Geneva Bible was never a uniform publication. Due to the relative novelty of publishing Bibles in English, as well as the sheer number of printings (approximately 150 in its first 75 years), its many editions often varied in content and presentation.

The Geneva Bible was first published in 1560, and then “in 1576 a revised form of the Geneva Bible was produced by Laurence Tomson, Secretary to Sir Francis Walsingham (then Elizabeth’s Secretary of State) and formerly lecturer in Hebrew at Geneva. This contains a few changes in the translation, the most characteristic being Tomson’s pedantic rendering of the Greek definite article by ‘that’ (e.g., Matt. 16.16, ‘Thou art that Christ’); but the chief difference is the introduction of an English translation of Theodore Beza’s summaries of doctrine and exposition of phrases, in Beza’s Latin Bible. In 1598, the annotations on the Book of Revelation by Francis Junius, a Huguenot divine, were introduced into the Geneva Bible” [Metzger, Bruce M., “Book Notes,” Theology Today, Vol 46, no 4 (January 1990): 463].

The edition we have chosen as our source is a facsimile of the work of Tomson and Junius, dated 1599; however “in 1599 alone ten editions appeared” [Dr. Roger Nicole, “The Original Geneva Bible,” T abletalk Magazine, Vol. 19, no 4 (April 1995)]. Our source copy was published by L L Brown (The 1599 Geneva Bible. Ozark, MO: LL Brown Publishing, 7th printing, 2003), with an introduction by James W. Bennett, and back matter containing the (undated) Sternhold & Hopkins Psalms. The Apocrypha and metrical Psalms, included in that edition, are omitted here, as well as the brief introductions to the Old Testament books (since they were not available for the New Testament books, we elected to omit them consistently). A “Note to the Reader” in our source copy’s front matter, lists errors that, “according to the Historical Catalogue of Printed Bibles, were in the original 1599 edition—indicating an edition printed early enough in 1599 to precede these corrections. It has been our attempt faithfully to preserve this single source, rather than consult many editions that would risk producing an inauthentic pastiche. The only exceptions are rare indiscernible sections or words; in those cases we have consulted other editions, indicated by citations in brackets.

AUTHENTICITY

Every word, as well as exact sentence structure, of the source edition is retained. We carefully have preserved the use of italics, by which the original translators indicated that they had supplied words not found in the original manuscripts. We retained capitalization of words, even at the risk of presenting anomalies to contemporary eyes. We avoided editorial tinkering in the name of stylistic consistency. Original punctuation was retained except in cases of egregious mistakes or obvious typographical errors in the source edition.

David Norton, in A Textual History of the King James Bible (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2005), describes his own editorial standards for a new edition of the KJB for Cambridge: “Very importantly, [to] not modernise wherever possible. Modernisation must not be at the expense of the text, even if the result is more difficult for the reader” (page 136). Similarly, we did not attempt to make the text readable from a modern standpoint—only to offer contemporary readers what the Geneva Bible said.

ACCESSIBILITY

“The Geneva Bible was written during a period where the English language was transforming from Middle English to Early Modern English…. English was also going through a shift in pronunciation that was caught in the printing press…. Grammar was also changing, due to influence from other languages, the printing press, and from natural simplification…. Sentence structure also changed....” [Bennett, introduction to The 1599 Geneva Bible, 2003, xv-xvii].

The English language evolved in major ways during the writing of the Geneva Bible, and since then has changed even more radically, especially in matters of typography and print. An exact facsimile reprint of the early Geneva Bible, therefore, would be largely inaccessible to the modern reader. We have therefore addressed and updated the spelling of some words, and the appearance of some old letters, for the sake of American readers’ ease of comprehension. Many times this simply meant changing an apparent f to an s; a y to an i; a v to a u; an i to a j; and so forth. For example, instead of what contemporary eyes would read as “Iefus faid vnto him,” we have typeset “Jesus said unto him.”

However, some of the spelling decisions were not as clear-cut:

Possessives We added apostrophes for possessives (which were not used in the English of that day), because these were determined not to be changes in meaning. For instance, where the source text read “God his mercy,” this edition reads “God’s mercy.”

Proper Names We have also changed the spelling of the proper names in the Bible to that of the NKJV, since this can greatly help the contemporary reader, and does not compromise the meaning of the original edition. If, however, the NKJV used a completely different word than the source text, we retained the word from the source text, since to change would be to make a different choice than the original translators made. For example, we did not substitute “Syria” for “Aram.”

Changes in Meaning What seems like a spelling difference sometimes indicates a distinction in meaning that the original translators intended. If we were unable to discern whether that was the case, we retained the language of the source text. For example, we accepted both “bewray” and “betray,” “shamefaced” and “shamefast,” “astonied” and “astonished.”

If, however, 16th-century spellings were freely interchanged with no distinction in meaning – and if that is not the case today – we adjusted the text based on current meaning. For example, the source uses “beside” and “besides” interchangeably, yet through the subsequent years of English usage there has developed a distinction in meaning between the two words; so we used “beside” for “by the side of,” and “besides” for “in addition to.” Other such examples include: “whiles” and “while,” “other” and “others,” “then” and “than.” In such instances the original word no longer gives the original meaning.

We have referred above to philological challenges and typographical errors. Occasional words or passages in the original-source Geneva Bible are beyond the realms of subtle ambiguity or theological debate. For example, in Matthew 3:16, the source Geneva reads that John saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and “lightning” upon Jesus. Because the intended word is so clearly “lighting,” we made the change; but were yet concerned to place that word in brackets, indicating that it was a change from the source edition. Also, as has been noted above, if we have been unable to read our source book and have consulted another Geneva edition, we have enclosed that text in brackets. Withal, there are very few words in brackets in this edition.

Archaic Words If a word is archaic, obsolete, colloquial, such that the meaning is now inaccessible or completely changed, we were careful to retain the original word; to completely change one word to another supersedes a spelling correction and compromises authenticity. Instead we have provided a glossary with short definitions in the back of this edition to help the modern reader. Again, to quote Norton, “The English of the KJB has many archaic words that present… challenges to the understanding, but… it is obvious that changing them is translating them” [A Textual History of the King James Bible, 138]. The Geneva Bible of 1560, being even earlier than the King James Bible of 1611, has many archaic words. The purpose of this edition is to let the reader see what they are, not to see how we decided to translate them.

Indiscernible Text There have been occasions when we simply could not discern the meaning of a word, or the intent of the original translators, either from our original source or from any other resource available to us. In those few cases, we have used ellipses to indicate omitted text.

Study Notes Study notes from the source edition frequently employ wording like “Look afore, chap. 5,29” [found in Matthew 18:8] or “as God command Levit. 23,40” [at Matthew 21:9]. We have standardized all references to Scripture using the book name abbreviations listed on the Books of the Old and New Testaments page in this volume, and using contemporary practice of separating chapter and verse with a colon. In cases like the first one above we simply use, for these examples, “See Matt. 5:29” and “as God commanded, Lev. 23:40.”

CONCLUSION

To God be the glory for allowing us to be used in the restoration of this historic work. The republication of this Bible is an indication that the Lord is a faithful, covenant-keeping God, “That thou mayest know, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepest covenant and mercy unto them that love him and keep his commandments, even to a thousand generations.” (Deut. 7:9)

Merciful Lord, we ask you to once again grant Repentance, Reformation, and Revival in your Church for the advancement of your Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

The Bible you hold in your hands, known as “The Geneva Bible,” has been the lost treasure of Christendom for almost four centuries. Nearly forgotten by the modern world, this version of the Holy Scriptures was researched, compiled, and translated into English by exiled Reformers in Geneva, Switzerland, between 1557 and 1560, and was destined to be the major component of the English-speaking people’s rise from the backwaters of history to the center of civilization. This edition of the Geneva Bible is the first completely new publication since the time of its first issue, and timed for release on the 400th anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown in what is now Virginia. The Geneva Bible surely was carried aboard their three ships that sailed from England in December of 1606. The New England Pilgrims likewise relied on the Geneva Bible for comfort and strength on their 66-day voyage aboard the Mayflower in 1620, and were even more dependent upon it as they wrote the Mayflower Compact, a document unique in world history and the first constitutional government in the western hemisphere.

Setting the Stage

England of 1557 was a society beset by contradictions, oppression, even barbarity. More than 300 men had been burned at the stake by the Catholic tyrant, “Bloody Mary” Tudor, merely for promoting the English Reformation. Many clergymen, Catholic and Protestant both, exacerbated rather than soothed the distress; semi-literate as a class, most received their parish jobs as payoffs and often were unwilling to preach, or incapable of composing sermons. The impoverished and spiritually bereft masses found solace elsewhere—sloth, dissipation, or drink—while the gentry sought after wealth, social position, and favors of royal courts.

Into this seemingly hopeless culture of corruption and error, the light of God’s written Word—in the newly translated, published, and distributed Geneva Bible—inevitably began to liberate the English-speaking people, penetrating hearts and transforming minds. It is no exaggeration to say that the Geneva Bible was the most significant catalyst of the transformation of England, Scotland, and America from slavish feudalism to the heights of Christian civilization. As the first Bible to be read by the common people in English, the Geneva Bible inspired those who championed self-government, free enterprise, education, civic virtue, protection of women and children, and godly culture. John Knox preached with power from the Geneva Bible at St. Giles Cathedral in Edinburgh, mightily influencing Scotland’s restoration from clan-dominated, semi-pagan barbarity to Christian faith and liberty. The legendary Soldier’s Pocket Bible, famous as the spiritual companion to Oliver Cromwell’s Christian soldiers in the English civil war, was composed of verses from the Geneva translation. And it was the Geneva Bible that was carried and read by the Pilgrims as they landed in the wilderness of America and extrapolated concepts of civic morality from its pages as they laid foundation-stones of the world’s first constitutional republic.

For more than 1500 years, an unfettered spread of the Gospel in the world was stymied without a reliable, written version of God’s Word in the common language of the people. Rome’s missionaries and monasteries had played their roles in civilizing the pagan tribes of Europe and establishing Christian authority. But abuse of power and perversion of truth by prelates and kings were commonplace by the Renaissance.

The providential invention of movable type, enabling not just the publication but the practical distribution of the Geneva Bible, freed God’s Book from the echoes of august cathedrals and the dead Latin language into the lives and homes, hearths and hearts, of everyday people in the English-speaking world.

History of The Geneva Bible

The Geneva translation’s revolutionary impact can be better appreciated by the realization that the Bible has only been available to laymen for 400 years. Prior to the printing of Luther’s German Bible in 1534, and the Geneva Bible in English, everyday believers, regardless of nationality, never had a Bible of their own to read, study, to “hide in their hearts.” The Church and kings kept all but clergy and Latin scholars from reading Scripture; in England it even became, by royal edict, a capital crime even to read the Bible in the “vulgar tongue” (the English language). In 1526, the English scholar William Tyndale attempted to translate the Bible into English and was forced to flee to Germany, where he met Martin Luther, and then to Belgium, all in an effort to translate the Bible and to fulfill the commitment made to a clergyman who attempted to dissuade him from his mission: “[God’s] version was to be made for all the people, even the humblest: if God spare my life, ere many years pass I will cause the boy that driveth the plow to know more of Scripture than thou [a theologian] dost.”

Fulfilling his promise, Tyndale published the first-ever mechanically printed New Testament in the English language, in 1526. Six thousand first-edition copies were smuggled to England and lit a fire that could not be extinguished. But Tyndale was hunted, captured, and imprisoned in the Belgian town of Vilvoorde. On March 6, 1536, he was strangled and burned at the stake, his last words “Lord, open the King of England’s eyes.” His prayers were answered. Tyndale’s monumental work made its way to some English pulpits, and one had been paid for by the same king who persecuted him, Henry VIII, who became a supporter of Protestant reformers.

These first English passages of Scripture, however, were pulpit Bibles, for use by the clergy; still the people had no Bibles they could afford… nor, for the most part, that they could read.

In 1553, upon the death of Henry VIII’s 16-year-old Protestant son Edward, Mary Tudor ascended the throne, soon married the Catholic King of Spain, and set about, often with violent cruelty, to stamp out the Reformation. Determined to force the English people back to Roman Catholicism, she ordered the burning of all copies of the Bible in English. She caused more than 300 reformers, pastors and Bible translators to be burned at the stake, well earning her for all of history the sobriquet Bloody Mary.

Queen Mary’s vicious crusade drove approximately 800 English scholars to the Continent (the “Marian Exile”) but God used this exodus to assemble, in Geneva, some of the finest theologians and Biblical scholars in history. Here, under the protection of John Calvin’s “little republic,” this special group of thinkers, led by William Whittingham (Calvin’s brother-in-law) and assisted by Miles Coverdale, Christopher Goodman, Anthony Gilby, John Knox, and Thomas Sampson, produced a new English Bible not beholden to any king or prelate—The Geneva Bible,—the first English Translation from the original tongues since Tyndale’s revised New Testament of 1534. The reformers sought to produce a Bible that was not based on the less-authentic Latin Vulgate promoted by Queen Mary. They researched the most recently collected Greek and Hebrew manuscripts. Whittingham’s completed revision of William Tyndale’s New Testament, including many annotations and commentaries, was published in 1557; and almost immediately work began on a revision of the entire Bible. Devoting more than two years of intense toil to the task, the result was the first Bible translation produced by a committee rather than by one individual. They drew upon painstaking translations from the original languages; Theodore Beza’s work and other continental translations, such as Luther’s; all overseen and supported by reformers like John Knox and John Calvin.

The completed Geneva Bible was published in 1560 and dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, who had succeeded her half-sister Bloody Mary to the throne and, at least for political reasons, supported a definitive break with the Church of Rome. The Geneva Bible was an instant success that captured the hearts of the people with its powerful, uncompromising prose and more than 300,000 words of annotations in the margins to aid in personal study and understanding.

This unique 2006 edition of the 1599 version of the Geneva Bible uses Tomson’s revised New Testament (a later revision of Whittingham’s New Testament of 1557) and Junius’s annotated notes on “Revelation.” The 1599 version has the most complete compilation of annotations of any of the Geneva editions. It also has a table of interpretations of proper names, which are chiefly found in the Old Testament, and a table of principle subjects contained in the Bible. The Books of Psalms were collected into English meters by Thomas Sternhold, John Hopkins, and others, to encourage their recitation in the manner of the early churches. Also included were prayers to be used by English congregations every morning and evening.

For generations after its first printing, the Geneva Bible remained the Bible of personal study in England, Scotland, and then in America. A 1579 Scottish edition of the Geneva version was the first Bible printed in Scotland; it soon became the standard of the Scottish Kirk. The Scotish Parliament required that every householder worth 300 marks, and every yeoman or Burgess worth 500 pounds, have a Bible in the “vulgar tongue” in their homes, under penalty of 10 pounds.

The Geneva Bible came to be called affectionately the “Breeches Bible.” The term derives from the reference in Genesis 3:7 to Adam and Eve clothing themselves in fig-leaf “breeches,” a decidedly English term.

So popular was the Geneva Bible that between 1560 and 1644 at least 144 editions were published, compared to but five editions of another, inferior, translation known as The Bishops Bible. The Geneva Bible lost its prominence only after the King James Authorized Version of 1611 was widely promoted by the King and Bishop Laud (later Archbishop of Canterbury and persecutor of Presbyterians), who outlawed the printing of the Geneva Bible in the realm. When the Geneva Bible disappeared, there were widespread complaints that people “could not see into the sense of Scripture for lack of the spectacles of those Genevan annotations.”

The Geneva Bible stands as one of the great achievements of Biblical scholarship. It is the Bible of “firsts.”

- It was the first English Bible to be fully translated from the original languages. The fall of Constantinople (1453) had a providential benefit, as previously unknown Greek and Hebrew manuscripts were carried to the West by Christians fleeing the Islamic onslaught. The Renaissance Period’s interest in antiquity also brought authentic documents and historical details to the attention of the Geneva scholars.

- It was the first Bible translation to be printed in easy-to-read Roman type, rather than the older “Black Face” Gothic text. The 2006 edition of the 1599 Geneva version goes a step further; while keeping the Bible text and notes accurate word-for-word with the 16th-century edition, spelling has been updated and the type reset in an even easier-to-read form.

- It was the first Bible to qualify as a study Bible, providing readers with copious notes, annotations, and commentary about the original manuscripts, clarification of ambiguous meanings, and cross references. It is a tribute to the intellectual integrity of the translators that they also used italics for the interpolated words that were not in the original languages—helpful for the English vernacular, and the first-ever use of this tool in historical or literary analysis.

- It was the first Bible to assign chapter demarcation, and to add verse numbers within chapters. These innovations facilitated the location of passages, memorization, and recitation... and the nurture of a nation of Bible readers.

- It was the first Bible to be printed in a small quarto edition, portable and affordable. This made it suitable for family use without expensive folios. Every Pilgrim family, for example, had a Geneva Bible as the convenient center of its daily life.

Impact of The Geneva Bible

The Geneva Bible significantly assisted the creation of the modern English language—the lingua franca of today’s world. William Tyndale’s linguistic genius and the poetic mastery of Miles Coverdale’s earlier translation of the Poetic Books are widely credited with sparking the English literary excellence of the 17th and 18th centuries; the Geneva Bible was the Bible of William Shakespeare, John Milton, John Bunyan, the Puritans (considered history’s greatest expositors), and the Pilgrims who sailed to America. It was the Bible that John Rolfe likely would have used in the conversion of Pocahontas at Jamestown in 1611.

The impact of the annotations and commentary in the Geneva Bible cannot be underestimated. The Calvinist notes of the Geneva Bible infuriated King James I at Hampton Court in 1604, prompting him to authorize a group of Puritan scholars to produce a version of the Bible without annotation for him; ironically, the excellent Authorized Version might never have been written were it not for King James’s antipathy toward the Geneva Bible.

The marginal notes of the Geneva Bible present a systematic Biblical worldview centered on the Sovereignty of God over all of His creation including churches and kings. This unique Biblical emphasis, though fraught with dangers beyond spiritual debates (i.e., political and social pressure), was one of John Calvin’s great contributions to the English Reformers. For example, the marginal note in the Geneva Bible for Exodus 1:19 indicated that the Hebrew midwives were correct to disobey the Egyptian rulers. King James called such interpretations “seditious.” The tyrant knew that if the people could hold him accountable to God’s Word, his days as a king ruling by “Divine Right” were numbered, but Calvin and the Reformers defended the clear meaning of Scripture against whims of king or popes. Thus did the Geneva Bible begin the unstoppable march to liberty in England, Scotland, and America.

The marginal notes of the Geneva Bible also served to liberate believers from the ignorance, heresy, and tyranny of the Middle Ages. Calvin, and the Reformers who followed in his footsteps, expounded the whole counsel of God concerning doctrines of Sola Scriptura—the Word of God alone, inspired and directional for our lives and culture; Sola Fide—faith alone as the only means of justification before God; Sola Christus—Christ alone as mankind’s only mediator, lord, and king; Sola Gratia—grace alone as the only hope of salvation and sanctification; and Soli Deo Gloria—God alone, not king nor pope, to receive the glory He is due in heaven and on earth.

Today, these theological “marginalia” might seem rudimentary or innocuous, but when they were systematically taught from Scripture and applied to life, as was done in the commentary in the Geneva Bible, entire nations and societies were transformed. Ultimately, the knowledge of and obedience to God’s written Word led to constitutional, limited government; the end of slavery and the caste system; free enterprise and the concept of private property; the so-called Puritan work
History and Impact of the Geneva Bible

The bold innovations of the Geneva Bible continue to have an impact in today’s world. Because of its revolutionary format and features, the Geneva Bible became the foundation for what we call group Bible study, and was a catalyst for the acceptance of the liberating doctrine of the “priesthood of all believers.” Puritan lay leaders expounded the Word and other congregants offered commentary and invited discussion—all of which, today, might be taken for granted; but such practices were previously and strictly proscribed.

The Geneva Bible’s Application for Today

The Geneva Bible providentially was unleashed upon a dark, discouraged, downtrodden English-speaking world, at a time when Christendom was in real danger of regressing to a form of Caesar-worship. A Bible appeared that created the conditions for a Christian reformation of life and culture, the likes of which the world had never seen—its hallmarks including the explosion of faith; an emphasis on integrity; a unique and vital missionary movement; creative literature, economic blessings; and political and religious freedom. By the time of the defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588, just 28 years after the first printing of the Geneva Bible, it was already being said of the English that they were becoming a “people of the Book.”

Almost 500 years later, our culture is once again desperate for the Truth. Many people have forgotten, abandoned, or rejected the great lessons of the Reformation and the Biblical theology that inspired the greatest accomplishments of Western Civilization. We fervently pray that the re-introduction of this powerful tool of Godly dominion, the Geneva Bible, will, with God’s favor, light the fires for another powerful reformation. As we read this sacred volume, let us remember the sacrifice of the persecuted scholars on the shores of Lake Geneva.

John Calvin, in exile in Geneva, surrounded by pagan kings, wars, and a corrupt Roman church, said these optimistic words about the spread of God’s Word:

“Whatever resistance we see today offered by almost all the world to the progress of the truth, we must not doubt that our Lord will come at last to break through all the undertakings of men and make a passage for His Word. Let us hope boldly, then, more than we can understand; He will still surpass our opinion and our hope.”

May we be inspired from His Word, as our spiritual forbears were, to be fearlessly optimistic about the power of His Gospel and the furtherance of His Kingdom on earth.

“For unto us a Childe is borne, and unto us a sonne is given: and the government and peace shal have none end: he shall sit upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdome, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and with justice, from hence forthe, and for ever: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes wil performe this” (Isaiah 9: 6-7, 1599 Geneva Bible).

Advisory Board Member, 1599 Geneva Bible Restoration Project Founder & President, The Mayflower Institute
O eternal and everlasting God, I presume to present myself this morning before thy Divine majesty, beseeching thee to accept of my humble and hearty thanks, that it hath pleased thy great goodness to keep and preserve me the night past from all the dangers poor mortals are subject to, and has given me sweet and pleasant sleep, whereby I find my body refreshed and comforted for performing the duties of this day, in which I beseech thee to defend me from all perils of body and soul.

Direct my thoughts, words and work. Wash away my sins in the immaculate blood of the Lamb, and purge my heart by thy Holy Spirit, from the dross of my natural corruption, that I may with more freedom of mind and liberty of will serve thee, the ever lasting God, in righteousness and holiness this day, and all the days of my life.

Increase my faith in the sweet promises of the Gospel. Give me repentance from dead works. Pardon my wanderings, and direct my thoughts unto thyself, the God of my salvation. Teach me how to live in thy fear, labor in thy service, and ever to run in the ways of thy commandments. Make me always watchful over my heart, that neither the terrors of conscience, the loathing of holy duties, the love of sin, nor an unwillingness to depart this life, may cast me into a spiritual slumber. But daily frame me more and more into the likeness of thy son Jesus Christ, that living in thy fear, and dying in thy favor, I may in thy appointed time attain the resurrection of the just unto eternal life. Bless my family, friends and kindred, unite us all in praising and glorifying thee in all our works begun, continued, and ended, when we shall come to make our last account before thee blessed Saviour, who hath taught us thus to pray, our Father.
THE BIBLE, THAT IS, The holy Scriptures conteined in the Olde and Newe Testament, TRANSLATED ACCORDING to the Ebrew and Greeke, and conferred with the best translations in divers languages. With most profitable Annotations upon all the hard places, and other things of great importance.

FEARE YE NOT STAND STILL, and beholde the salvation of the Lord, which he will shew to you this day, Exod. 14:13.

But the Lord delivereth him

The Old Testament
1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the deep.
3 Then God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.
5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.
6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.
7 And God made the firmament and separated the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were upon the firmament; and it was so.
8 And God called the firmament Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.
9 And God said again, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land Earth, and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.
11 Then God said, Let the earth bud forth the bud of the herb, that seedeth seed, the fruitful tree, which beareth fruit according to his kind, which hath his seed in itself upon the earth: and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth the bud of the herb, that seedeth seed, the fruitful tree, which beareth fruit according to his kind, which hath his seed in itself according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.
13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.
14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years.
15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.
16 And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made also the stars.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to shine upon the earth,
18 And to rule in the day, and in the night, and to separate the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.
19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance every creeping thing that hath life: and let the fowl fly upon the earth in the open firmament of the heaven.
21 Then God created the great whales, and everything living and moving, which the waters brought forth in abundance according to their kind, and every feathered fowl according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.
22 Then God blessed them, saying, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the fowl multiply in the earth.
23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.
24 Moreover God said, Let the earth bring forth the living thing according to his kind, cattle, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth according to his kind, and it was so.
25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kind, and the cattle according to his kind, and every creeping thing of the earth according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.
26 Furthermore God said, Let us make man in our image according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over the beasts, and over all the earth, and over everything that creepeth and moveth on the earth.
27 Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them male and female.
28 And God blessed them, and God said to them, Bring forth fruit, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over every beast that moveth upon the earth.
29 And God said, Behold, I have given unto you every herb bearing seed, which is upon all the earth, and every tree, wherein is the fruit of a tree bearing seed: that shall be to you for meat.
30 Likewise to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the heaven, and to everything that moveth upon the earth, which hath life in itself, every green herb shall be for meat, and it was so.
31 And God saw all that he had made, and lo, it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 2 God resteth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. 15 He setteth man in the garden. 22 He createth the woman. 24 Marriage is ordained.
1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.
2 For in the seventh day God ended his work which he had made, and the seventh day he rested from all his work, which he had made.
3 So God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his work, which God created and made.
4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens,
5 And every plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew, for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground,
6 But a mist went up from the earth, and watered all the earth.
7 The Lord God also made the man of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a living soul.
8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had made.
9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the 'tree of life also in the midst of the garden, 'and the tree of knowledge of good and of evil.

10 And out of Eden went a river to water the garden, and from thence it was divided, and became into four heads.

11 The name of one is Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of 'Havilah, where is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is 'Beddellium, and the Onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of 'Cush.

14 And the name of the [third] river is 'Hiddekel: this goeth toward the East side of 'Ashshur: and the fourth river is 'Parah.¶

15 ¶ Then the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might dress it, and keep it.

16 And the Lord God 'commanded the man, saying,

17 But of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for 'in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the 'death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be himself alone: I will make him an help 'meet for him.

19 So the Lord God formed of the earth every beast of the field, and every fowl of the heaven, and brought them unto the 'man to see how he would call them: for howsoever the man named the living creature, so was the name thereof.

20 The man therefore gave names unto all cattle, and to the fowl of the heaven, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam found he not an helper meet for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heavy sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in stead thereof.¶

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from the man, 'made he a 'woman, and brought her to the man.

23 Then the man said, 'This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called 'woman, because she was taken out of the man.

24 ¶Therefore shall man leave 'his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not 'ashamed.

1 The woman seduced by the serpent. 6 enticeth her husband to sin. 8 They both flee from God. 14 They three are punished. 15 Christ is promised. 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of Paradise.

1 Now the serpent was more 'subtle than any beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he 'said to the woman, Yea, hath God indeed said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden.

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 Then the 'serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not 'die at all,

5 But God doth know that when ye shall eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, 'knowing good and evil.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired, to get knowledge) took of the fruit thereof, and gave also to her husband with her, and he 'did eat.

29 1 Which was a sign of the life received of God.
2 2 That is, of miserable experience, which came by disobeying God.
2:11 1 Which Havilah is a country joining to Persia Eastward, and inclineth toward the West.
2:12 1 Or, precious stone, or pearl. Pliny saith it is the name of a tree.
2:13 1 Or, Ethiopia.
2:14 1 Or, Tigrits.
2 Or, Assynia.
2:15 1 Or, Euphrates.
2:16 1 God would not have man idle, though as yet there was no need to labor.
2:17 1 Or, whosoever.
2:18 1 So that man might know there was a sovereign Lord, to whom he owed obedience.
2:19 1 Hebrew, eating thou shalt eat of.
2:20 1 Or, before him.
2:21 1 By moving them to come and submit themselves to Adam.
2:22 1 Hebrew, built.

2:23 1 Or, Mannes, because she cometh of man: for in Hebrew 'ish is man, and 'ishah the woman.
2:24 1 So that marriage requireth a greater duty of us toward our wives, than otherwise we are bound to show to our parents.
2:25 1 For before sin entered, all things were honest and comely.
3:1 1 As Satan can change himself into an Angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdom of the serpent to deceive man.
3:2 1 Signifying that mankind was perfect, when the woman was created, which before was like an imperfect building.
2:23 1 Or, Mannes, because she cometh of man: for in Hebrew 'ish is man, and 'ishah the woman.
2:24 1 So that marriage requireth a greater duty of us toward our wives, than otherwise we are bound to show to our parents.
2:25 1 For before sin entered, all things were honest and comely.
3:1 1 As Satan can change himself into an Angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdom of the serpent to deceive man.
3:2 1 Signifying that mankind was perfect, when the woman was created, which before was like an imperfect building.
7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig tree leaves together, and made themselves breeches.

8 ¶ Afterward they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day; and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 He said, I heard thy voice in the garden: therefore I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 Then the man said, The woman which thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God said to the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou shalt be cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

15 I will also put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed. He shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 ¶ Unto the woman he said, In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children, and desire shall be subject to thee, and he shall rule over thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adam he said, Because thou hast obeyed the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, (whereof I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it) cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread till thou return to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou return.

20 (And the man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living)

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever;

23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he cast out the man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sword shaken, to keep the way of the tree of life.

4 1 The generation of mankind. 3 Cain and Abel offer sacrifice. 8 Cain killeth Abel. 23 Lamech a tyrant encourageth his fearful wives. 26 True religion is restored.

1 Afterward the man knew Eve his wife which conceived and bare Cain, and said, I have obtained a man by the Lord.

2 And again she brought forth his brother Abel, and Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 ¶ And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought an oblation unto the Lord of the fruit of the ground, and Abel, he brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat of the crop.

3:7 1 They began to feel their misery, but they sought not to God for remedy.

2 Hebrew, things to gird about them to hide their privities.

3:8 1 Or, wind.

3:9 1 The sinful conscience fleeth God's presence.

3:10 1 His hypocrisy appeareth in that he hid the cause of his nakedness, which was the transgression of God's commandment.

3:12 1 His wickedness and lack of true repentance appeareth in this that he burdeneth God with his fault, because he had given him a wife.

3:13 1 Instead of confessing her sin, she increaseth it by accusing the serpent.

3:14 1 He asked the reason of Adam and his wife, because he would bring them to repentance, but he asketh not the serpent, because he would show him no mercy.

3:15 1 He chiefly meaneth Satan, by whose motion and craft the serpent deceived the woman.

3:16 1 The Lord comforteth Adam by the promise of the blessed seed, and also punisheth the body for the sin which the soul should have been punished for; that the spirit having conceived hope of forgiveness, might live by faith.

3:17 1 The transgression of God's commandment was the cause that both mankind and all other creatures were subject to the curse.

3:18 1 These are not the natural fruits of the earth, but proceed of the corruption of sin.

3:21 1 Or, gave them knowledge to make themselves coats.

3:22 1 By this derision he reproacheth Adam's misery, whereunto he was fallen by ambition.

3:23 1 Adam deprived of life, lost also the sign thereof.

41 1 Man's nature, the estate of marriage, and God's blessing were not utterly abolished through sin, but the quality or condition thereof was changed.

43 1 This declareth that the father instructed his children in the knowledge of God, and also how God gave them sacrifices to signify their salvation, albeit they were destitute of the sacrament of the tree of life.
4 And Abel also himself brought of the firstfruits of his sheep, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering,
5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had no regard: wherefore Cain was exceedingly wroth and his countenance fell down.
6 Then the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast down?
7 If thou do well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door: also unto thee his desire shall be subject, and thou shalt rule over him.
8 ¶ Then Cain spake unto Abel his brother. And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.
9 Then the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? Who answered, I know not. Am I my brother's keeper?
10 Again he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the earth.
11 Now therefore thou art cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thine hand.
12 When thou shalt till the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength: a vagabond and a runagate shalt thou be in the earth.
13 Then Cain said to the Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear.
14 Behold, thou hast cast me out this day from the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, and shall be a vagabond and a runagate in the earth, and whosoever findeth me shall slay me.
15 Then the Lord said unto him, Doubtless whosoever slayeth Cain, he shall be punished seven fold. And the Lord set a mark upon Cain, lest any man finding him, should kill him.
16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod toward the East side of Eden.

17 Cain also knew his wife, which conceived and bore Enoch: and he built a city, and called the name of the city by the name of his son, Enoch.
18 And to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad begat Methuael, and Methuael begat Methushael, and Methushael begat Lamech.
19 ¶ And Lamech took to him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.
20 And Adah bare Jabal, who was the father of such as dwell in the tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal, who was the father of all that play on the harp and organs.
22 And Zillah also bore Tubal-Cain, who wrought cunningly every craft of brass and of iron: and the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.
23 Then Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, ye wives of Lamech; hearken unto my speech: I for I would slay a man in my wound, and a young man to mine hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy times sevenfold.
25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and she called his name Seth: for God said she, hath appointed me another seed for Abel, because Cain slew him.

26 And to the same Seth also there was born a son, and he called his name Enosh. Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord.

5 The genealogy.
6 The age and death of Adam.
7 His succession unto Noah and his children.
8 Enoch was taken away.

1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the likeness of God's judgment, that others should fear thereby.

2 Which was some visible sign of God's judgment, that others should fear thereby.
3 Or, rehearsal of the stock.

4:17 Thinking thereby to be sure, and to have less occasion to fear God's judgments against him.
4:19 The lawful institution of marriage, which is, that two should be one flesh, was first corrupted in the house of Cain by Lamech.
4:20 Or, first inventor.
4:21 Or, flutes, and pipes.
4:23 His wives seeing that all men hated him for his cruelty, were afraid, therefore he braggeth that there is none so lusty that were able to resist, although he were already wounded.
4:24 He mocked at God's sufferance in Cain, jesting as though God would suffer none to punish him and yet give him license to murder others.
4:26 In these days God began to move the hearts of the godly to restore religion, which a long time by the wicked had been suppressed.
5:1 Or, rehearsal of the stock.

Jude 11

4:5 1 Because he was an hypocrite, and offered only for an outward show without sincerity of heart.
4:7 1 Both thou and thy sacrifice shall be acceptable to me.
2 Sin shall still torment thy conscience.
3 The dignity of the firstborn is given to Cain over Abel.
4:9 1 This is the nature of the reprobate when they are reproved of their hypocrisy, even to neglect God and despite him.
4:10 1 God revengeth the wrongs of his Saints, though none complain; for the iniquity itself crieth for vengeance.
4:11 1 The earth shall be a witness against thee, which mercifully received that blood which thou most cruelly sheddest.
4:12 1 Thou shalt never have rest: for thine heart shall be in continual fear and care.
4:13 1 He burdeneth God as a cruel judge because he did punish him so sharply.
2 Or, my sin is greater than can be pardoned.
4:14 1 Hebrew, from off the face of.
4:15 1 Not for the love he bare to Cain, but to suppress murder.
of God made him,
  2  Male and female created he them, and blessed them, and called their name Adam in the day that they were created.
  3 ¶ Now Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a child in his own likeness after his image, and called his name Seth.
  4 ¶ And the days of Adam, after he had begotten Seth, were eight hundred years, and he begat sons and daughters.
  5 So all the days that Adam lived, were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.
  6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enosh.
  7 And Seth lived after he begat Enosh, eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
  8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.
  9 ¶ Also Enosh lived ninety years, and begat Cainan.
  10 And Enosh lived after he begat Cainan, eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
  11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years: and he died.
  12 ¶ Likewise Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalalel.
  13 And Cainan lived, after he begat Mahalalel, eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and dughters.
  14 So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.
  15 ¶ Mahalalel also lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared.
  16 Also Mahalalel lived, after he begat Jared, eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and dughters.
  17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.
  18 ¶ And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and begat Enoch.
  19 ¶ Then Jared lived, after he begat Enoch, eight hundred and years, begat sons and daughters.

20 So all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.
21 ¶ Also Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah.
22 And Enoch walked with God, after he begat Methuselah, three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years.
24 And Enoch walked with God, and he was no more; for God took him away.
25 Methuselah also lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech.
26 And Methuselah lived, after he begat Lamech, seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons
and daughters.
27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years, and he died.
28 ¶ Then Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son, 29 And called his name, Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and sorrow of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed.
30 And Lamech lived, after he begat Noah, five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters.
31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.
32 And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah begat Shem, Ham and Japheth.

3 God threatened to bring the flood. 5 Man altogether corrupt. 6 God repenteth that he made him. 18 Noah and his are preserved in the Ark, which he was commanded to make.

1 So when men began to be multiplied upon the earth, and there were daughters born unto them, 2 Then the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took them wives of all that they liked.
3 Therefore the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, because he is but flesh, and became, is mere curiosity.

5:21 ¶ By giving them both one name, he noteth the inseparable conjunction of man and wife.
5:31 ¶ As well concerning his creation, as his corruption.
5:6  ¶ He proveth Adam’s generation by them which came of Seth, to show which is the true Church, and also what care God had over the same from the beginning, in that he continued ever his graces toward it by a continual succession.
5:8  ¶ The chief cause of long life in the first age, was the multiplication of mankind, that according to God’s commandment at the beginning the world might be increased with people, which might universally praise him.
5:22  ¶ That is, he led an upright and godly life.
5:24  ¶ To show that there was a better life prepared, and to be a testimony of the immortality of souls and bodies. As to inquire where he

5:29  ¶ Lamech had respect to the promise, Gen. 3:15, and desired to see the deliverer which should be sent, and yet saw but a figure thereof, he also spake this by the spirit of prophecy because Noah delivered the Church and preserved it by his obedience.

62  ¶ The children of the godly, which began to degenerate.

7  Those that came of wicked parents, as of Cain.

63  ¶ Because man could not be won by God’s lenity and long suff erence whereby he strove to overcome him, he would no longer stay his vengeance.
his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; yea, and after that the sons of God came unto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mighty men, which in old time were men of renown.

5 ¶ When the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his heart were only evil continually,

6 Then it repented the Lord, that he had made man in the earth, and he was sorry in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord said, I will destroy from the earth the man, whom I have created, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the fowl of the heaven: for I repent that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just and upright man in his time: and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with cruelties.

12 Then God looked upon the earth, and beheld, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, An end of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with cruelties through them: and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an Ark of pine trees: thou shalt make two cabins in the Ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And thus shalt thou make it: the length of the Ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make in the Ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above, and the door of the Ark shalt thou set in the side thereof: thou shalt make it with the low, second, and third room.

17 And I, behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life under heaven: all that is in the earth shall perish.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant, and thou shalt go into the Ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons’ wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh two of every sort shalt thou cause to come into the Ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female.

20 Of the fowls, after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, that thou mayest keep them alive.

21 And take thou with thee of all meat that is eaten: and thou shalt gather it to thee, that it may be meat for thee and for them.

22 ¶ Noah therefore did according unto all that God commanded him: even so did he.
and his sons' wives with him into the Ark, because of the waters of the flood.
8 Of the clean beasts, and of the unclean beasts, and of the fowls, and of all that creepeth upon the earth,
9 There came two and two unto Noah into the Ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.
10 And so after seven days, the waters of the flood were upon the earth.
11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, in the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.
12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.
13 In the selfsame day entered Noah with Shem, and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them into the Ark.
14 They and every beast after his kind, and all cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, even every bird of every feather.
15 For they came to Noah into the Ark, two and two, of all flesh wherein is the breath of life.
16 And they entering in, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lord shut him in.
17 Then the flood was forty days upon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare up the Ark, which was lifted up above the earth.
18 The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly upon the earth, and the Ark went upon the waters.
19 The waters prevailed so exceedingly upon the earth, that all the high mountains, that are under the whole heaven, were covered.
20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail, when the mountains were covered.
21 Then all flesh perisheth that moved upon the earth, both fowl and cattle and beast, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth, and every man.
22 Everything in whose nostrils the spirit of life did breathe, whatsoever they were in the dry land, they died.
23 So 1he destroyed everything that was upon the earth, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the fowl of the heaven: they were even destroyed from the earth. And Noah only remained, and they that were with him in the Ark.
24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.
13 The flood ceaseth.  16 Noah is commanded to come forth of the Ark with his.  20 He sacrificeth to the Lord.  22 God promiseth that all things should continue in their first order.
1 Now God remembered Noah and every beast, and all the cattle that were with him in the Ark: therefore God made a wind to pass upon the earth, and the waters ceased.
2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.
3 And the waters returned from above the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundred and fiftieth day the waters abated.
4 And in the seventh month, in the seventeenth day of the month, the Ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat.
5 And the waters were going and decreasing until the tenth month: in the tenth month, and in the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.
6 ¶ So after forty days, Noah opened the window of the Ark which he had made,
7 And sent forth a raven, which went out, going forth and returning, until the waters were dried up upon the earth.
8 Again he sent a dove from him, that he might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth.
9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot: therefore she returned unto him into the Ark (for the waters were upon the whole earth) and he put forth his hand, and received her, and took her

7:9 1 God compelled them to present themselves to Noah, as they did before to Adam, when he gave them names, Gen. 2:19.
7:11 1 Which was about the beginning of May, when all things did most flourish.
1 Two the waters in the earth did overflow, and also the clouds poured down.
7:15 1 Every living thing that God would have to be preserved on earth, came into the Ark to Noah.
7:16 1 So that God's secret power defended him against the rage of the mighty waters.
2 Or, shut it upon him.
7:19 1 Hebrew, waxed very mighty.
7:23 1 That is, God.
8:1 1 Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he sendeth succor then he sheweth that he remembereth them.
2 If God remember every brute beast, what ought to be the assurance of his children?
8:3 1 Which contained part of September, and part of October.
2 Or, stayed.
3 Or, Armenia.
8:5 1 Which was the month of December.
8:6 1 Hebrew, at the end of forty days.
8:9 1 It is like that the raven did fly to and fro, resting on the Ark, but came not into it, as the dove that was taken in.
to him into the Ark.

10 And he abode yet another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the Ark.

11 And the dove came to him in the evening, and lo in her mouth was an 'olive leaf that she had plucked: whereby Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 Norwithstanding, he waited yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him anymore.

13 ¶ And in the six hundred and one year, in the first day of the first month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the Ark, and looked, and behold, the upper part of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, in the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dry.

15 ¶ Then God spake to Noah, saying,

16 'Go forth of the Ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every beast that is with thee, of all fowl, both fowl and cattle, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth, that they may breed abundantly in the earth, 'and bring forth fruit and increase upon the earth.

18 So Noah came forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, all that moveth upon the earth, after their kinds, went out of the Ark.

20 ¶ Then Noah 'built an altar to the Lord, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings upon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a 'savor of rest, and the Lord said in his heart, I will henceforth curse the ground no more for man's cause: for the imagination of man's heart is evil, even from his youth: neither will I smite anymore all things living, as I have done.

22 Hereafter 'seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and Summer and Winter, and day and night shall not cease, so long as the earth remaineth.

8:11 1 Or, bill.
2 Which was a sign that the waters were much diminished: for the olives grow not on the high mountains.
8:13 1 Called in Hebrew Abib, containing part of March and part of April.
8:16 1 Noah declareth his obedience, in that he would not depart out of the Ark without God's express commandment, as he did not enter in without the same: the Ark being a figure of the Church, wherein nothing must be done without the word of God.
8:20 1 For sacrifices which were as an exercise of their faith, whereby they used to give thanks to God for his benefits.
8:21 1 Or, sweet savor.
2 That is, whereby he showeth himself appeased and his anger to rest.
8:22 1 The order of nature destroyed by the flood, is restored by God's promise.
9:1 1 God increased them with fruit, and declared unto them his counsel as touching the replenishing of the earth.
which I make between me and you, and between every living thing that is with you unto perpetual generations.

13 I have set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

14 And when I shall cover the earth with a cloud, and the bow shall be seen in the cloud, 15 Then will I remember my covenant which is between me and you, and between every living thing in all flesh, and there shall be no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore the bow shall be in the cloud, that I may see it, and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living thing, in all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 God said yet to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sons of Noah going forth of the Ark, were Shem and Ham and Japheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah, and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 "Noah also began to be an husbandman, and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drunk of the wine, and was drunken, and was uncovered in the midst of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakedness of his father, he told his two brethren without.

23 Then took Shem and Japheth a garment, and put it upon both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father with their faces backward: so they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him, 25 And said, "Cursed be Canaan: a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 He said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

27 God 1 persuaded Japheth, that he may dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

10 1 The increase of mankind by Noah and his sons. 10 The beginning of cities, countries, and nations.

1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth: unto whom sons were born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and 1 Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 Also the sons of Javan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands, every man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations.

6 ¶ Moreover, the sons of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush, Seba and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: also the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod, who began to be mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord. Wherefore it is said, "As Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

9:13 1 Hereby we see that signs or sacraments ought not to be separate from the word.

9:15 1 When men shall see my bow in the heaven, they shall know that I have not forgotten my covenant with them.

9:17 1 God doth repeat this the oftener, to confirm Noah's faith so much the more.

9:19 1 This declareth what was the virtue of God's blessing, when he said, increase and bring forth, Gen. 1:28.

9:20 1 Or, Noah began again.

9:21 1 This is set before our eyes to show what an horrible thing drunkenness is.

9:22 1 Of whom came the Canaanites that wicked nation, who were also cursed of God.

9:25 1 He pronounceth as a Prophet the curse of God against all them that honor not their parents: for Ham and his posterity were accursed.

2 That is, a most vile slave.

9:26 2 Or, their.

9:27 2 Or, enlarge, or cause to return.

10:1 2 He declareth that the Gentiles, which came of Japheth, and were separated from the Church, should be joined to the same by the persuasion of God's Spirit, and preaching of the Gospel.

10:1 1 These generations are here recited, partly to declare the marvelous increase in so small a time, and also to set forth their great forgetfulness of God's grace towards their fathers.

10:2 1 Of Madai and Javan came the Medes, and Greeks.

10:5 1 The Jews so call all countries which are separated from them by sea, as Greece, Italy, etc, which were given to the children of Japheth, of whom came the Gentiles.

10:6 1 Of Cush and Mizraim came the Ethiopians and Egyptians.

10:8 1 Meaning, a cruel oppressor and tyrant.

10:9 1 His tyranny came into a proverb as hated both of God and man: for he passed not to commit cruelty even in God's presence.

10:10 1 For there was another city in Egypt, called also Babel.
11 Out of that land came Assyria, and built Nineveh, and the ‘city Rehoboth, and Calah:
12 Resen also between Nineveh and Calah: this is a great city.
13 And Mizraim begat ‘Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphruhkim.
14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhims (out of whom came the Philistines) and ‘Caphtorims.
15 Also Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,
16 And Jebusi, and Emori, and Girgashi,
17 And Hivi, and Arki, and Sini,
18 And Arvadi, and Zemari, and Hamathiti: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.
19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar until Gaza, and as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboiim, even unto Lasha.
20 These are the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries, and in their nations.
21 ¶ Unto ‘Shem also the father of all the sons of Eber, and elder brother of Japheth were children born.
22 ‘The sons of Shem were Elam and Ashshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.
23 And the sons of Arum, Uz and Hul, and Geether, and Mash.
24 Also Arphaxad begat Salah, and Salah begat Eber.
25 Unto Eber also were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his days was the earth divided: and his brother’s name was Joktan.
26 Then Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,
28 And Obal, and Abimeael, and Sheba,
29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.
30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest up to Sephar, a mount of the East.
31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries and nations.
32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations among their people: and ‘out of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

11:6 The building of Babel was the cause of the confusion of tongues. 10 The age and generation of Shem unto Abram. 31 Abram’s departure from Ur with his father Terah, Sarai and Lot. 32 The age and death of Terah.

1 Then the whole earth was of one language and one speech.
2 And ‘as ‘they went from the ‘East, they found a plain in the land of ‘Shinar, and there they abode.
3 And they said one to another, Come, let us make brick and burn it in the fire, so they had brick for stone, and slime had they instead of mortar.
4 Also they said, Go to, let us ‘build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto the heaven, that we may get us a name, lest we be scattered upon the whole earth.
5 But the Lord ‘came down, to see the city and tower which the sons of men built.
6 And the Lord said, ‘Behold, the people is one, and they all have one language, and this they begin to do, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoever they have imagined to do.
7 Come on, ‘let us go down, and ‘there confound their language, that everyone perceive not another’s speech.
8 So the Lord scattered them from thence upon all the earth, and they left off to build the city.
9 Therefore the name of it was called ‘Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatter them upon all the earth.
10 ¶ ‘These are the generations ‘of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two 10:11 ¹ Or, the streets of the city.

10:13 ² Of Lud came the Lydians.
10:14 ¹ Or, the Cappadocians.
10:21 ² In his stock the Church was preserved: therefore Moses leaveth off speaking of Japheth and Ham, and entreateth of Shem more at large.
10:22 ² Of whom came the Hebrews or Jews.
10:25 ¹ This division came by the diversity of languages, as appeareth, Gen. 11:9.
10:32 ¹ Or, of these came divers nations.
11:2 ¹ In the year one hundred and thirty after the flood.
11:4 ¹ They were moved with pride and ambition, thinking to prefer their own glory to God’s honor.
11:5 ¹ Meaning, that he declared by effect, that he knew their wicked enterprise: for God’s power is everywhere, and doth neither ascend nor descend.
11:6 ¹ God speaketh this in derision, because of their foolish persuasion and enterprise.
11:7 ¹ He speaketh as though he took counsel with his own wisdom and power: to wit, with the Son and holy Ghost: signifying the greatness and certainty of the punishment.
11:8 ² By this great plague of the confusion of tongues appeareth God’s horrible judgment against man’s pride and vain glory.
11:9 ¹ Or, confusion.
11:10 ¹ He returneth to the genealogy of Shem, to come to the history of Abram, wherein the Church of God is described, which is Moses’ principle purpose.
years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 Also Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah, four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber.

15 So Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 Likewise Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg.

17 So Peleg lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu.

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 Also Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug.

21 So Serug lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 Moreover Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 So Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 So Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran: and Haran begat Lot.

28 Then Haran died before Terah his father in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

29 So Abram and Nahor took them wives. The name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren, and had no child.

31 Then Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son’s son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram’s wife: and they departed together from Ur of the Chaldeans, to go into the land of Canaan, and they came to Haran, and dwelt there.

32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

12 1 Abram by God’s commandment goeth to Canaan. 3 Christ is promised. 7 Abram buildeth Altars for exercise and declaration of his faith among the infidels. 10 Because of the dearth he goeth into Egypt. 15 Pharaoh taketh his wife, and is punished.

1 For the Lord had said unto Abram, 4 Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house unto the land that I will show thee. 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and will bless thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be a blessing.

3 I will also bless them that bless thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, even as the Lord spake unto him, and Lot went with him, (and Abram was seventy and five years old, when he departed out of Haran)

5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother’s son, and all their substance that they possessed, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ So Abram passed through the land unto the place of Shechem, and unto the plain of Moreh (and the Canaanite was then in the land)

7 And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there built he an altar unto the Lord, which appeared unto him.

8 Afterward removing thence unto a mountain Eastward from Bethel, he pitched his tent having Bethel on the West side, and Ai on the East, and there he built an altar unto the Lord, and called 12:2 1 The world shall recover by thy seed, which is Christ, the blessing which they lost in Adam.

12:5 1 Meaning, as well servants as cattle.

12:6 1 He wandered to and fro in the land before he could find a settling place; thus God exerciseth the faith of his children. 2 Or, oak grove.

12:7 1 Which was a cruel and rebellious nation, by whom God kept his in continual exercise.

12:7 1 It was not enough for him to worship God in his heart, but it was expedient to declare by outward profession his faith before men, whereof this altar was a sign.

12:8 1 Because of the troubles that he had among that wicked people. 2 And so served the true God, and renounced all idolatry.
on the Name of the Lord.
9 1Again Abram went forth going and journeying toward the South.
10 ¶ Then there came a famine in the land: therefore Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there: for there was a great famine in the land.
11 And when he drew near to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarah his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it will come to pass that when the Egyptians see thee, they will say, She is his wife: so will they kill me, but they will keep thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my life may be preserved by thee.
14 ¶ Now when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for she was very fair.
15 And the Princes of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her unto Pharaoh: so the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house:
16 Who entreated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheep, and beeves, and heasses, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.
17 But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarah Abram’s wife.
18 Then Pharaoh called Abram, and said, Why hast thou done this unto me? Wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that she was thy wife?
19 Why saidest thou, She is my sister, that I should take her to be my wife? Now therefore behold thy wife, take her and go thy way.
20 And Pharaoh gave men commandment concerning him: and they conveyed him forth and his wife, and all that he had.
13:13 1 Abram departeth out of Egypt. 4 He calleth upon the Name of the Lord. 11 Lot departeth from him. 13 The wickedness of the Sodomites. 14 The promise made to Abram is renewed. 18 Abram buildeth an altar to the Lord.
12:9 1 Thus the children of God may look for no rest in this world, but must wait for the heavenly rest and quietness.
12:10 1 This was a new trial of Abram’s faith: whereby we see that the end of one affliction is the beginning of another.
12:13 1 By this we may learn not to use unlawful means, nor to put others in danger to save ourselves, read verse 20, albeit it may appear that Abram feared not so much death, as that if he should die without issue, God’s promise should not have taken place: wherein appeared a weak faith.
2 Hebrew, that my soul may live.
12:15 1 To be his wife.
12:17 1 The Lord took the defense of this poor stranger against a mighty king: and as he is ever careful over his, so did he preserve Sarai.
12:20 1 To the intent that none should hurt him either in his person or goods.
13:1 1 His great riches gotten in Egypt, hindreth him not to follow his vocation.
13:3 1 He calleth the place by that name which was after given unto it, Gen. 28:19.
13:6 1 This incommodity came by their riches, which brake friendship and as it were the bound of nature.
13:7 1 Who seeing their contention, might blaspheme God and destroy them.
13:8 1 He cutteth off the occasion of contention: therefore the evil ceaseth.
13:9 1 Abram resigneth his own right to buy peace.
13:10 1 Which was in Eden, Gen. 2:10.
13:11 1 This was done by God’s providence, that only Abram and his seed might dwell in the land of Canaan.
13:13 1 Lot thinking to get paradise, found hell.
14 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift up thine eyes now, and look from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward: 15 For all the land which thou seest, will I give unto thee, and to thy seed forever, 16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed be numbered. 17 Arise, walk through the land, in the length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I will give it unto thee. 18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelled in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

14 12 In the overthrow of Sodom Lot is taken prisoner. 16 Abram delivereth him. 18 Melchizedek cometh to meet him. 23 Abram would not be enriched by the king of Sodom.

1 And in the days of Amraphel king of 'Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of the 'nations:

2 These men made war with Berah king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Go[?]orrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Sheber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

3 All these joined together in the valley of 'Siddim, which is the 'salt Sea.

4 Twelve years were they subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, and smote the 'Rephiams in Asheroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in 'Shaveh Kiriaithaim,

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto the plain of El Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned and came to En Mishpat, which is Kadesh, and 1smote all the country of the Horites that dwelled in the 2plain of El Paran, which is by the wilderness.

8 Then went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar: and they joined battle with them in the valley of Siddim, 9 To wit, with Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: four kings against five.

10 Now the valley of Siddim was full of slime pits, and the kings of Sodom and Go[?]orrah fled and fell there: and the residue fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the substance of Sodom and Go[?]orrah, and all their vittles and went their way.

12 They took Lot also Abram's brother's son and his substance (for he dwelt at Sodom) and departed.

13 ¶ Then came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew, which dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner, which were 'confederate with Abram.

14 When Abram heard that his brother was taken, he 'brought forth of them that were born and brought up in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 Then he and his servants divided themselves against them by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left side of Damascus, 16 And he recovered all the substance, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also and the people.

17 ¶ After that he returned from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and of the kings that were with him, came the King of Sodom forth to meet him in the valley of Shaveh, which is the 'King's dale.

18 And 'Melchizedek King of Salem 'brought forth bread and wine: and he was a Priest of the most high God.

19 Therefore he 'blessed him, saying, Blessed art thou, Abram, of God most high, Possessor of heaven and earth, 20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thine hand. 'And Abram gave him tithes of all.

13:14 1 The Lord comforted him, lest he should have taken thought for the departure of his nephew.

13:15 1 Meaning, a long time, and till the coming of Christ as Exod. 12:14 and 21:6; Deut. 15:17, and spiritually this is referred to the true children of Abram, born according to the promise, and not according to the flesh, which are heirs of the true land of Canaan.

141 1 That is, of Babylon: by kings here, meaning, them that were governors of cities.

2 Of a people gathered of divers countries.

143 1 Ambition is the chief cause of wars among princes.

2 Or, of the labored fields.

3 Called also the dead sea, or the lake Asphaltite, near unto Sodom and Go[?]orrah.

145 1 Or, giants.

14:1 Or, plain.

14:7 Or, destroyed.

14:10 1 And afterward was overwhelmed with water, and so was called the salt sea.

2 Or, were discomfited.

14:12 1 The godly are plagued many times with the wicked: therefore their company is dangerous.

14:13 1 God moved them to join with Abram, and preserveth him from their idolatry and superstitions.

14:14 1 Or, armed.

14:15 1 Hebrew, Damasc.

14:18 1 For Abram and his soldiers' refection, and not to offer sacrifice.

14:19 1 In that Melchizedek fed Abram, he declared himself to represent a king, and in that he blessed him, the high Priest.
15 1 The Lord is Abram’s defense and reward. 6 He is justified by faith. 13 The servitude and deliverance out of Egypt is declared. 18 The land of Canaan is promised the fourth time.

1 After these things, the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram, I am thy buckler, and thine exceeding great reward.

2 And Abram said, O Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of mine house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 Again Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: wherefore lo, a servant of mine house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

4 Then he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, a turtle dove also and a pigeon.

5 Moreover he brought him forth and said, Look up now unto heaven, and tell the stars if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

6 And Abram believed the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteousness.

7 Again he said unto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of Ur, of the Chaldeans, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, O Lord God, Whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 Then he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, a turtle dove also and a pigeon.

10 So he took all these unto him, and divided them in the midst, and laid every piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

11 Then fowls fell on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun went down, there fell an heavy sleep unto Abram: and lo, a very fearful darkness fell upon him.

13 Then he said to Abram, Know for a surety, that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, six hundred years, and shall serve them: and they entreat them evil.

14 Norwithstanding, the nation whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 But thou shalt go unto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good age.

16 And in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the wickedness of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 Also when the sun went down, there was a darkness: and behold, a smoking furnace, and a firebrand, which went between those pieces.

18 In that same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land: from the river of Egypt unto the great river Euphrates.

19 Then Kenites, and the Kenezzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaim, 21 The Amorites also, and the Canaanites, and the Girgasites, and the Jebusites.

thee go in unto my maid: "it may be that I shall receive a child by her. And Abram obeyed the voice of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram for his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her dame was ‘despised in her eyes.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "Thou dost me wrong. I have given my maid into thy bosom, and she seeth that she hath conceived, and I am despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee.

6 Then Abram said to Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thine hand: do with her as it pleaseth thee. Then Sarai dealt roughly with her: wherefore she fled from her.

7 ¶ But the 'Angel of the Lord found her beside a fountain in the way of Shur, 8 And he said, Hagar Sarai's maid, whom comest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from my dame Sarai.

9 Then the Angel of the Lord said to her, 'Return to thy dame, and humble thyself under her hands.

10 Again the Angel of the Lord said unto her, I will so greatly increase thy seed, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 Also the Angel of the Lord said unto her, See, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael: for the Lord hath heard thy tribulation.

12 And he shall be a 'wild man: his hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand against him, 'and 'he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 Then she called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou God lookest on me: for she said, 'Have I not also here looked after him that seeth me?

14 'Wherefore the Well was called, 'Beer Lahai Roi: lo, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 ¶ And Hagar bare Abram a son, and Abram called his son's name which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was four score and six years old when Hagar bare him Ishmael.

17 ¶ 5 Abram's name is changed to confirm him in the promise. 8 The land of Canaan is the fifth time promised. 12 Circumcision instituted. 15 Sarai is named Sarah. 18 Abraham prayeth for Ishmael. 19 Isaac is promised. 23 Abraham and his house are circumcised.

1 When Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am God 'all sufficient, 'walk before me, and be thou 'upright.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and I will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 Behold, I make my covenant with thee, and thou shalt be a 'father of many nations,

5 Neither shall thy name anymore be called Abram, but thy name shall be 'Abraham: 'for a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 Also I will make thee exceedingly fruitful, and will make nations of thee, yea, Kings shall proceed of thee.

7 Moreover, I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an 'everlasting covenant, to be God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give thee and thy seed after thee the land, wherein thou art a stranger, even all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be their God.

9 ¶ Again God said unto Abraham, Thou also shalt keep my covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 'This is my covenant which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee, 'Let every man-child among you be circumcised:

11 That is, ye shall circumcise the foreskin of your flesh, and it shall be a 'sign of the covenant between me and you.

12 And every man-child of eight days old among... you, shall be circumcised in your generations, as well he that is born in thine house, as he that is bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thine house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: so my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 But the uncircumcised man-child, in whose flesh the foreskin is not circumcised, even that person shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶ Afterward God said unto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her, and will also give thee a son of her, yea, I will bless her, and she shall be the mother of nations: Kings also of people shall come of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him, that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, Oh, that Ishmael might live in thy sight.

19 Then God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed, and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as concerning Ishmael, I have heard thee: lo, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly: twelve princes shall be of him.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee, the next year at this season.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that was bought with his money, that is, every man-child among the men of Abraham’s house, and he circumcised the foreskin of their flesh in that selfsame day, as God had commanded him.

24 Abraham also himself was ninety years old and nine, when the foreskin of his flesh was circumcised.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when the foreskin of his flesh was circumcised.

26 The selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son:

27 And all the men of his house both born in his house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

18 2 Abraham receiveth three Angels into his house. 10 Isaac is promised again. 12 Sarah laugheth. 18 Christ is promised to all nations. 19 Abraham taught his family to know God. 21 The destruction of Sodom is declared unto Abraham. 23 Abraham prayeth for them.

1 Again the Lord appeared unto him in the plain of Mamre, as he sat in his tent door about the heat of the day.

2 And he lifted up his eyes, and looked: and lo, three men stood by him, and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the ground.

3 And he said, ¶ Lord, if I have now found favor in thy sight, go not, I pray thee, from thy servant.

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

5 And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may comfort your hearts, afterward ye shall go your ways: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, Do even as thou hast said.

6 Then Abraham made haste into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready at once three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran to the beasts, and took a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant, who hasted to make it ready.

8 And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had prepared, and set before them, and stood himself by them under the tree: and they did eat.

9 ¶ Then they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he answered, Behold, she is in the tent.

10 And he said, ¶ I will certainly come again unto 17:14 ¶ Albeit women were not circumcised, yet were they partakers of God’s promise: for under the mankind all was consecrated, and here is declared, that whosever contemneth the sign, despiseth also the promise.

17:15 ¶ Or, dame, or princess.

17:17 ¶ Which proceeded of a sudden joy, and not of infidelity.

17:19 ¶ The everlasting Covenant is made with the children of the Spirit: and with the children of the flesh is made the temporal promise, as was promised to Ishmael.

17:20 ¶ Hebrew, greatly, greatly.

17:21 ¶ They were well instructed which obeyed to be circumcised without resistance: which thing declareth that masters in their houses ought to be as preachers to their families, that from the highest to the lowest they may obey the will of God.

18:1 ¶ Or, oak grove.

18:2 ¶ That is, three Angels in man’s shape.

18:3 ¶ Speaking to one of them in whom appeared to be most majesty, for he thought they had been men.

18:4 ¶ For men used because of the great heat to go bare footed in those parts.

18:5 ¶ As sent of God, that I should do my duty to you.

18:6 ¶ Hebrew, Seim.

18:8 ¶ For as God gave them bodies for a time, so gave he them the faculties thereof, to walk, to eat and drink, and such like.
there according to the time of life: and lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son: and Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 (Now Abraham and Sarah were old and stricken in age, and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.)

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old, and my lord also, shall I have lust?

13 And the Lord said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah thus laugh, saying, Shall I certainly bear a child, which am old?

14 (Shall anything be hard to the Lord? as the time appointed will I return unto thee, even according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.)

15 But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for she was afraid. And he said, It is not so: for thou laughest.

16 ¶ Afterward, the men did rise up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do, 18 Seeing that Abraham shall be indeed a great and a mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his sons and his household after him, that they keep the way of the Lord to do righteousness and judgment, that the Lord may bring upon Abraham, that he hath spoken unto him.

20 Then the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is exceedingly grievous, 21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to that cry, which is come unto me: and if not, that I may know.

22 And the men turned thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

23 Then Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou destroy all the city for five? and he said, If I shall find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

24 If there be fifty righteous within the city, wilt thou destroy the righteous with the wicked?

25 Be it far from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be even as the wicked, be it far from thee.

26 And the Lord answered, If I shall find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then will I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, and I am but dust and ashes,

28 If there shall lack five of fifty righteous, wilt thou destroy all the city for five? And he said, If I find there five and forty, I will not destroy it.

29 And he yet spake to him again, and said, What if there shall be found forty there? Then he answered, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 Again he said, Let not my Lord be now angry that I speak, What if thirty be found there? Then he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 Moreover he said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, What if twenty be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angry, and I will speak but this 'once, What if ten be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 ¶ And the Lord went his way, when he had left communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned unto his place.

19 3 Lot receiveth two Angels into his house. 4 The filthy lusts of the Sodomites. 16 Lot is delivered. 14 Sodom is destroyed. 26 Lot's wife is made a pillar of salt. 33 Lot's daughters lie with their father, of whom came Moab and Ammon.

1 And in the evening there came two Angels to Sodom: and Lot sat at the gate of Sodom, and Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face to the ground.

2 And he said, See my lords, I pray you turn in now into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early and righteous that are therein?

25 Be it far from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be even as the wicked, be it far from thee.

26 And the Lord answered, If I shall find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then will I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, and I am but dust and ashes,

28 If there shall lack five of fifty righteous, wilt thou destroy all the city for five? And he said, If I find there five and forty, I will not destroy it.

29 And he yet spake to him again, and said, What if there shall be found forty there? Then he answered, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 Again he said, Let not my Lord be now angry that I speak, What if thirty be found there? Then he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 Moreover he said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, What if twenty be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angry, and I will speak but this 'once, What if ten be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 ¶ And the Lord went his way, when he had left communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned unto his place.

18:10 1 That is, about this time when she shall be alive, or when the child shall come into this life.

18:12 1 For she rather had respect to the order of nature, than believed the promise of God.

18:14 1 Or, hid.

18:15 1 Hebrew, no.

18:17 1 Jehovah the Hebrew word which we call Lord, sheweth that this Angel was Christ: for this word is only applied to God.

18:19 1 He sheweth that fathers ought both to know God's judgments, and to declare them to their children.

18:21 1 God speaketh after the fashion of men: that is, I will enter into judgment with good advice.

2 For our sins cry for vengeance, though none accuse us.

18:25 1 Hebrew, do judgment.

18:26 1 God declareth that his judgments were done with great mercy, forasmuch as all were so corrupt, that not only fifty but ten righteous men could not be found there, and also that the wicked are spared for the righteous' sake.

18:27 1 Hereby we learn, that the nearer we approach unto God, the more doth our miserable estate appear, and the more are we humbled.

18:32 1 If God refused not the prayer for the wicked Sodomites, even more doth our miserable estate appear, and the more are we humbled.

19:1 1 Wherein we see God's provident care in preserving his: albeit he revealeth not himself to all alike: for Lot had but two Angels, and Abraham three.
go your ways. Who said, Nay, but we will abide in the street all night.

3 Then he pressed upon them earnestly, and they turned in to him, and came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 But before they went to bed, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom compassed the house round about, from the young even to the old, all the people from all quarters.

5 Who crying unto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 Then Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him.

7 And said, I pray you, my brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters, which have not known man: them will I bring out now unto you, and do them as seemeth you good: only unto these men do nothing: for therefore are they come under the shadow of my roof.

9 Then they said, Away hence: and they said, He is come alone as a stranger, and shall he judge and rule? we will now deal worse with thee than with them. So they pressed sore upon Lot himself, and came to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 Then they smote the men that were at the door of the house, with blindness, both small and great, so that they were weary in seeking the door.

12 ¶ Then the men said unto Lot, Whom hast thou here? either son-in-law, or thy sons or thy daughters, or whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring it out of this place.

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is great before the Lord, and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it.

14 Then Lot went out and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord will destroy the city, but he seemed to his sons-in-law, as though he had mocked.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters which are here, lest thou be destroyed in the punishment of the city.

16 And as he prolonged the time, the men caught both him and his wife, and his two daughters by the hands (the Lord being merciful unto him) and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And when they had brought them out, the Angel said, Escape for thy life: look not behind thee, neither tarry thou in all the plain: escape into the mountain, lest thou be destroyed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord.

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast showed unto me in saving my life: and I cannot escape in the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die.

20 See now this city hereby to flee unto, which is a little one: Oh let me escape thither: is it not a little one, and my soul shall live?

21 Then he said unto him, Behold, I have received thy request also concerning this thing, that I will not overthrow this city, for which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, save thee there: for I can do nothing till thou come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun did rise upon the earth, when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

25 And overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that grew upon the earth.

26 ¶ Now his wife behind him looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham rising up early in the morning went to the place, where he had stood before the Lord,
28 And looking toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, behold, he saw the smoke of the land mounting up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God thought upon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the midst of the destruction, when he overthrew the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain with his two daughters for he feared to tarry in Zoar, but dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the 'earth, to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, we will make our father 1drink wine, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 So they made their father drink wine that night, and the elder went and lay with her father: but he perceived it not, when she lay down, neither when she rose up.

34 And on the morrow the elder said to the younger, Behold, yester night lay I with my father: but he perceived not, neither when she lay down, neither when she rose up.

36 Thus were 'both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the elder bare a son, and she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the 1Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger bare a son also, and she called his name 1Ben-Ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites unto this day.

20 1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerar. 2 Abimelech taketh away his wife. 3 God reproveth the king. 9 and the king Abraham. 14 Sarah is restored with great gifts. 17 Abraham prayeth, and the king and his are healed.

1 Afterward Abraham departed thence toward the South country and dwelled between Kadesh and 1Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, 1thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a man's wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimelech had not yet come near her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slay even 1the righteous nation?

5 Said not he unto me, She is my sister? yea, and she herself said, He is my brother: with an upright mind, and 2innocent hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him by a dream, I know that thou diddest this even with an upright mind, and I 2kept thee also that thou shouldest not sin against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now then deliver the man his wife again: for he is a 1Prophet, and he 2shall pray for thee, that thou mayest live: but if thou deliver her not again, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimelech rising up early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things 1unto them, and the men were sore afraid.

9 Afterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me, and on my kingdom this great sin? thou hast done things unto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou that thou hast done this thing?

11 Then Abraham answered, Because I thought thou hadst come to slay me for my wife's sake.
12 Yet in very deed she is my sister: for she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she is my wife.

13 Now when God caused me to wander out of my father’s house, I said then to her, This is thy kindness that thou shalt show unto me in all places where we come, ‘Say thou of me, He is my brother.’

14 Then took Abimelech sheep and beeves, and men servants, and women servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 Likewise to Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is before thee, and he shall be in all the power and might of his house.

17 For the Lord had shut up every womb of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah Abraham’s wife.

18 For the Lord had shut up every womb of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham’s wife.

21 3 Isaac is born. 9 Ishmael maketh Isaac. 14 Hagar is cast out with her son. 17 The Angel comforteth Hagar. 32 The covenant between Abimelech and Abraham. 33 Abraham called upon the Lord.

1 Now the Lord visited Sarah, as he had said, and did unto her according as he had promised.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the same season that God told him.

3 And Abraham called his son’s name that was born unto him, which Sarah bare him, Isaac.

4 Then Abraham circumcised Isaac his son, when he was eight days old, ‘as God had commanded him.’

5 So Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ Then Sarah said, God hath made me to rejoice all that hear, will rejoice with me.

7 Again she said, ‘Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? For I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 Then the child grew and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne unto Abraham) ‘mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, ‘Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son Isaac.

11 And this thing was very grievous in Abraham’s sight, because of his son.

12 ¶ But God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the child, and for thy bondwoman: in all that Sarah shall say unto thee, hear her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 As for the son of the bondwoman, I will make him a nation also, because he is thy seed.

14 So Abraham arose up early in the morning and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar putting it on her shoulder, and the child also, and ‘sent her away: who departing, wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.

15 And when the water of the bottle was spent, she cast the child under a certain tree.

16 Then she went and sat her over against him afar off about a bow shoot: for she said, I will not see the death of the child. And she sat down over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 ¶ Then God heard the voice of the child, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not, for God hath heard the voice of the child where he is.

18 Arise, take up the child, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great people.

19 And God ‘opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water: so she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink.

20 So God was ‘with the child, and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and was an ‘archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And at the same time Abimelech and Phichol his chief captain spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou dost.

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, that thou wilt not ‘hurt me, nor my children, nor my
And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelech’s servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, ‘I know not who hath done this thing: also thouittest me not, neither heard I of it but this day.

27 Then Abraham took sheep and bees, and gave them unto Abimelech: and they two made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 Then Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he answered, Because thou shalt receive of mine hand these seven lambs, that it may be a witness unto me, that I have dug this well.

31 Wherefore the place is called ‘Beersheba, because there they both swear.

32 Thus made they a covenant at Beersheba: and they two swear: and there they rose up, and turned again unto the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beersheba, and called there on the Name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

34 And Abraham was a stranger in the Philistine’s land a long season.

22 1.2 The faith of Abraham is proved in offering his son Isaac. 3 Isaac is a figure of Christ. 20 The generations of Nahor Abraham’s brother of whom cometh Rebekah.

1 And after these things God did ‘prove Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. Who answered, ‘Here am I.

2 And he said, ‘Take now thine only son Isaac whom thou lovest, and get thee unto the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains, which I will show thee.

3 Then Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his servants with him, and Isaac his son, and clove wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place, which God had told him.

4 ¶ Then the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off,

5 And said unto his servants, Abide you here with the ass: for I and the child will go yonder and worship, and ‘come again unto you.

6 Then Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son, and he took the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together.

7 Then spake Isaac unto Abraham his father, and said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?

8 Then Abraham answered, My son, God will ‘provide him a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both together.

9 And when they came to the place which God had showed him, Abraham built an altar and crouched the wood, and ‘bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son, and he took the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together.

12 Then he said, Lay not thine hand upon the child, neither do anything unto him: for now I ‘know that thou fearest God, seeing for my sake thou hast not spared thine ‘only son.

13 And Abraham lifting up his eyes, looked and beheld, there was a ram behind him caught by the horns in a bush: then Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place ‘Jehovah Jireh: as it is said this day, In the mount will the Lord ‘be seen.

1 21:24 1 So that it is a lawful thing to take an oath in matters of importance, to affirm the truth; and to assure others of our sincerity.

21:26 1 Wicked servants do many evils unknown to their masters.

21:31 1 Or, well of the oath, or of seven, meaning lambs.

21:32 1 Thus we see that the godly, as touching outward things may make peace with the wicked that know not the true God.

21:33 1 That is, he worshipped God in all points of true Religion.

22:1 1 Which signifieth the fear of God, in the which place he was honored: and Solomon afterward built the Temple.

22:2 1 Herein stood the chiefest point of his tentation, seeing he was commanded to offer up him in whom God had promised to bless all the nations of the world.

22:5 1 He doubted not, but God would accomplish his promise, though he should sacrifice his son.

22:8 1 The only way to overcome all tentation, is to rest upon God’s Providence.

22:9 1 For it is like that his father had declared to him God’s commandment, whereunto he showed himself obedient.

22:12 1 That is, by thy true obedience thou hast declared thy lively faith.

22:14 1 Or, the Lord will see or provide.

22:21 1 Hebrew, thy son, thy only son.

2 22:22 1 Or, and hast not withheld thine only son from me.

2 22:24 1 Or, and also evidently is seen, and felt in time convenient.
15 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord cried unto Abraham from heaven the second time, 16 And said, 'By' myself have I sworn (saith the Lord) because thou hast done this thing, and hast not spared thine only son, 17 Therefore will I surely bless thee, and will greatly multiply thy seed, as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore, and thy seed shall possess the 'gate of his enemies.
18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast obeyed my voice.
19 Then turned Abraham again unto his servants, and they rose up, and went together to Beersheba:
and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.
20 ¶ And after these things one told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor:
21 To wit, Huz his eldest son, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of 'Aram,
22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.
23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight did Milcah bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.
24 And his 'concubine called Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash and Maachah.

23 2 Abraham laments the death of Sarah.  4 He buyeth a field to bury her, of the Hittites.  13 The equity of Abraham.  19 Sarah is buried in Machpelah.

1 When Sarah was an hundred twenty and seven years old (so long lived she.)
2 Then Sarah died in Kirjath Arba: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.
3 ¶ Then Abraham 'rose up from the sight of his corpse, and talked with the 'Hittites, saying, 4 I am a stranger, and a foreigner among you:
give me a possession of burial with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.
5 Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying unto him,
6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a prince 1of God among us: in the chiefest of our sepulchers bury the dead: none of us shall forbid thee his sepulcher, but thou mayest bury thy dead therein.
7 Then Abraham stood up, and bowed himself before the people of the land of the Hittites.
8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind, that I shall bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,
9 That he would give me the cave of 'Machpelah, which he hath in the end of his field: that he would give it me for as much 'money as it is worth, for a possession to bury in among you.
10 (For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that 'went in at the gates of his city, saying,
11 No, my Lord, hear me: the field give I thee and the cave that therein is, I give it thee: even in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee to bury thy dead.
12 Then Abraham 'bowed himself before the people of the land, 13 And spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the country, saying, Seeing thou wilt give it,
I pray thee, hear me, I will give the price of the field:
receive it of me, and I will bury my dead there.
14 Ephron then answered Abraham, saying unto him,
15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred 'shekels of silver: what is that between me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.
16 So Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, even four hundred silver shekels of current money among merchants.
17 ¶ So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, and over against Mamre, even the field and the cave that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all the borders round about, was made sure 18 Unto Abraham for a possession, in the sight of the Hittites, even of all that 'went in at the gates of his city.
19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah over against Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

23:3 1 That is, when he had mourned: so the godly may mourn, if they pass not measure, and the natural affection is commendable.
23:6 1 That is, godly or excellent: for the Hebrews so speak of all things that are notable, because all excellency cometh of God.
23:8 1 Hebrew, in your soul.
23:9 1 Or, double cave, because one was within another.
23:10 1 Meaning, all the citizens and inhabitants.
23:12 1 To show that he had them in good estimation and reverence.
23:15 1 The common shekel is about 20 pence, so then 400 shekels mount to 33 pound 6 shillings and 8 pence after 5 shilling sterling the ounce.
23:18 1 Or, citizens.
24:1 2 Abraham caused his servant to swear to take a wife for Isaac in his own kindred. 12 The servant prayed to God. 33 His fidelity toward his master. 50 The friends of Rebekah commit the matter to God. 58 They ask her consent, and she agrees.

1 Now Abraham was old, and 1stricken in years, and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.
2 "Therefore Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, which had the rule over all that he had, "1Put now thine hand under my thigh,
3 And I will make thee 1swear by the Lord God of the heaven, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell:
4 But thou shalt go unto my 1country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.
5 And the servant said to him, What if the woman will not follow thee, a wife unto my son from thence.

6 To whom Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my son 1thither again.
7 ¶ The Lord God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land where I was born, and that spake unto me, and that swear unto me, saying, "Unto thy seed will I give this land, he shall send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 Nevertheless if the woman will not follow thee, then shalt thou be 1discharged of this mine oath: only bring not my son thither again.
9 Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swears to him for this matter.
10 ¶ So the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: (for he had all his master's goods in his hand:) and so he arose, and went to 1Aram Naharaim, unto the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to 1lie down without the city by a well of water, at eventide about the time that the women come out to draw water.
12 And he said, O 1Lord God of my master Abraham, I beseech thee, send me good speed this day, and show mercy unto my master Abraham.
13 Lo, I stand by the well of water while the men's daughters of this city come out to draw water.
14 ¶ Grant therefore that the maid, to whom I say: Bow down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink: if she say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: be she that thou hast ordained for thy servant Isaac: and thereby shall I know that thou hast showed mercy on my master.
15 ¶ And now yet he had left speaking, behold, 1Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abraham's brother, and her Pitcher upon her shoulder.
16 (And the maid was very fair to look upon, a virgin and unknown of man) and she went down to the well to draw water, and filled her pitcher and came up.
17 Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me drink, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher.
18 And she said, Drink 1sir: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand and gave him drink.
19 And when she had given him drink, she said, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher, for us to lodge in.
20 And when the maid had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also until they 1have drunken enough.
21 And she poured out her pitcher into the trough speedily, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and she drew for all his camels.
22 So the man wondered at her, and held his peace, to know whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous or not.
23 And when the camels had left drinking, the man took a golden 1,2abillement of half a shekel weight, and two bracel toes for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold:
24 And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee, Is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

23:20 1 That is, all the people confirmed the sale.
24:1 1 Hebrew, come into days.
24:2 1 Which ceremony declared, the servant's obedience towards his master, and the master's power over the servant.
24:3 1 This showeth that an oath may be required in a lawful cause.
24:4 1 He would not that his son should marry out of the godly family: for the inconveniences that come by marrying with the ungodly are set forth in sundry places of the Scriptures.
24:6 1 Lest he should lose the inheritance promised.

24:14 2 Or, cause me to meet.
24:18 1 Hebrew, my Lord.
24:19 1 Hebrew, have made an end of drinking.
24:22 1 Or, earring.
2  God permitted many things both in apparel and other things which are now forbid: specially when they appertain not to our mortification.
3 The golden shekel is here meant and not that of silver.
24 Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah whom she bare unto Nahor.
25 Moreover she said unto him, We have litter also and provender enough, and room to lodge in.
26 And the man bowed himself and worshipped the Lord,
27 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawn his mercy 'and his truth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought me to my master's brethren's house.
28 And the maid ran and told them of her mother's house according to these words.
29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ran unto the man to the well.
30 For when he had seen the earrings and bracelets in his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man unto me, then he went to the man, and lo, 'he stood by the camels at the well.
31 And he said, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without, seeing I have prepared the house, and room for the camels?
32 ¶ Then the man came into the house, and 'he unsaddled the 'camels, and brought litter and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.
33 Afterward the meat was set before him: but he said, I 'will not eat, until I have said my message. And he said: Speak on.
34 'Then he said, I am Abraham's servant,
35 And the Lord hath 'blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath given him sheep, and beees, and silver, and gold, and men servants, and maid servants, and camels, and asses.
36 And Sarah my master's wife hath borne a son to my master, when she was old, and unto him hath he given all that he hath.
37 Now my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the 'Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:
38 But thou shalt go unto my 'father's house and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.
39 'Then I said unto my master, What if the woman will not follow me?
40 Who answered me, The Lord, before who I walk, will send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy journey, and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred and my father's house.
41 Then shalt thou be discharged of 'mine oath, when thou comest to my kindred: for if they give thee not one, thou shalt be free from mine oath.
42 So I came this day to the well, and said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if thou now prosper my 'journey which I go,
43 Behold, 'I stand by the well of water when a virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink,
44 And she said to me, Drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels, let her be the wife, which the Lord hath 'prepared for thy master's son.
45 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine 'heart, behold, Rebekah came forth and her pitcher on her shoulder, and she went down to the well, and drew water. Then I said unto her, Give me drink, I pray thee.
46 And she made haste, and took down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also. So I drank, and she gave the camels drink also.
47 'Then I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahor's son, whom Milchah bare unto him. Then I put the abillement upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands:
48 'And I bowed down and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, which had brought me the 'right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.
49 Now therefore, if ye will deal 'mercifully and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me, that I may turn me to the 'right hand or to the left.
50 'Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and said, 'This thing is proceeded of the Lord: we cannot Therefore say unto thee, neither evil nor good.
51 Behold, Rebekah is 1before thee, take her and go, that she may be thy master's son's wife, even as the Lord hath said.
52 And when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself toward the earth unto the Lord.
53 Then the servant took forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave to Rebekah: also unto her brother and to her mother he gave gifts.
54 Afterward they did eat and drink, both he, and the men that were with him, and tarried all night, and when they rose up in the morning, he said, 1Let me depart unto my master.
55 Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maid abide with us, at the least ten days: then shall she go.
56 But he said unto them, Hinder you me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my journey: send me away, that I may go to my master.
57 Then they said, We will call the maid, and ask her consent.
58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her: Wilt thou go with this man? And 1she answered, I will go.
59 So they let Rebekah their sister go, and her nurse, with Abraham's servant and his men.
60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, grow into thousand thousand's, and that thou mayest show forth kindness unto me, and shew me a kindness, as thou didst shew unto my master Abraham.
61 ¶ Then Rebekah arose, and her maids, and rode upon the camels, and followed the man, and the servant took Rebekah and departed.
62 Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, (for he dwelt in the South country.)
63 And Isaac went out to pray in the field toward the evening: who lift up his eyes and looked, and behold, the camels came.
64 Also Rebekah lift up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted down from the camel.
65 (For she had said to the servant, Who is yonder man, that cometh in the field to meet us? and the servant had said, It is my master) So she took 1a veil, and covered her.

26:67 1 Or, had left mourning for his mother.
25:1 1 While Sarah was yet alive.
25:6 4 For by the virtue of God's word he had not only Isaac, but begat many more.
25:8 1 Hereby the ancients signified that man by death perished not wholly but as the souls of the godly lived after in perpetual joy, so the souls of the wicked (in) perpetual pain.
25:13 1 Hebrew, firstborn.
and Adbeel, and Mibsam,
14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns and by their castles: ten princes of their nations.

17 (And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred thirty and seven years, and he yielded up the spirit, and died, and was gathered unto his people.)

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is towards Egypt, as thou goest to Asshur. Ishmael dwelt in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ Likewise these are the generations of Isaac Abraham’s son. Abraham begat Isaac.

20 And Isaac was forty years old, when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramite of Padan Aram, and sister to Laban the Aramite.

21 And Isaac prayed unto the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was entreated for his wife.

22 But the children strove together within her: therefore she said, Seeing it is so, why am I thus? wherefore she went to ask the Lord.

23 And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be divided out of thy bowels, and the one people shall be mightier than the other, and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ Therefore when her time of deliverance was fulfilled, behold, twins were in her womb.

25 So he that came out first was red, and he was all over as rough as a garment, and they called his name Esau.

26 And afterward came his brother out, and his hand held Esau by the heel, therefore his name was called Jacob. Now Isaac was threescore years old when Rebekah bare them.

27 And the boys grew, and Esau was a cunning hunter, and dwelled in the fields: but Jacob was a plain man, and dwelt in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, for venison was his meat, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 Now Jacob sod pottage, and Esau came from the field and was weary.

30 Then Esau said to Jacob, 1Let me eat, I pray thee, of that pottage so red, for I am weary. Therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me even now thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Lo, I am almost dead, what is then this birthright to me?

33 Jacob then said, Swear to me even now. And he swore to him, and sold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils: and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: So Esau contemned his birthright.

26 1 God provideth for Isaac in the famine. 3 He reneweth his promise. 9 The King blameth him for denying his wife. 14 The Philistines hate him for his riches. 15 Stop his wells. 16 And drive him away. 24 God comforteth him.

1 And there was a famine in the land besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Wherefore Isaac went to Abimelech King of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2 For the Lord appeared unto him, and said, 1Go not down into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall show thee.

3 Dwell in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee: for to thee, and to thy seed I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swear unto Abraham thy father.

4 Also I will cause thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries: and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed,

5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice and kept mine ordinance, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife, and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, she is my wife, lest, said he, the men of the place should 8 So after he had been there a long time, Abimelech King of the Philistines looked out at a window, and lo, he saw Isaac 1sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Lo, she is of a surety thy wife, and why saidest thou, She is my sister? To whom Isaac answered, Because I thought this, It may be that I shall die for her.

10 Then Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this unto us? one of the people had almost lain by thy wife, so shouldest thou have brought 1sin upon us.

11 Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall die the death.

12 Afterward Isaac sowed in that land, and found in the same year an 1hundredfold by estimation: and so the Lord blessed him.

13 And the man waxed mightily, and 1still increased, till he was exceeding great.

14 For he had flocks of sheep, and herds of cattle, and a mighty household: therefore the Philistines had 1envy at him, 15 Insomuch that the Philistines stopped, and filled up with earth all the wells, which his father's servants dug in his father Abraham's time.

16 Then Abimelech said unto Isaac, Get thee from us, for thou art mightier than we a great deal.

17 1Therefore Isaac departed thence and pitched his tent in the 1valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac returning, dug the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham, and he gave them the same names, that his father gave them.

19 Isaac's servants then dug in the valley and found there a well of 1living water.

20 But the herdsmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, The water is ours, therefore called he the name of the well 1Esek, because they were at strife with him.

21 Afterward they dug another well, and strove for that also, and he called the name of it 1Sitnah.

22 Then he removed thence, and dug another well, for which they strove not: therefore called he the name of it 1Rehoboth, and said, Because the Lord hath now made us room, we shall increase upon the earth.

23 So he went up thence to Beersheba.

24 And the Lord appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God 1of Abraham thy father: fear not, I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 Then he built an 1altar there, and called upon the Name of the Lord, and there spread his tent: where also Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 ¶ Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the captain of his army.

27 To whom Isaac said, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me and have put me away from you?

28 Who answered, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we thought thus, Let there be now an oath between us, even between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee.

29 1If thou shalt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace: thou now, the blessed of the Lord, do this.

30 Then he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swear one to another: then Isaac let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And that same day Isaac's servants came and told him of a well, which they had dug, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 So he called it 1Shebah: therefore the name of the city is called 1Beersheba unto this day.

34 ¶ Now when Esau was forty years old, he took to wife Judith, the daughter of Beeri an Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon an Hittite also.

35 And they were 1a grief of mind to Isaac and to Rebekah.
27 8 Jacob getteth the blessing from Esau by his mother's counsel. 38 Esau by weeping moveth his father to pity him. 41 Esau hateth Jacob and threateneth his death. 43 Rebekah sendeth Jacob away.

1 And when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim (so that he could not see) he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son. And he answered him, I am here.

2 Then he said, Behold, I am now old, and know not the day of my death.

3 Wherefore now, I pray thee take thine instruments, thy quiver and thy bow, and get thee to the field, that thou mayest take me some venison.

4 Then make me savory meat, such as I love, and bring it me that I may eat, and that my soul may bless thee, before I die.

5 (Now Rebekah heard, when Isaac spake to Esau his son) and Esau went into the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ Then Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I have heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savory meat, that I may eat and bless thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, hear my voice in that which I command thee.

9 ¶ Get thee now to the flock, and bring me thence two good kids of the goats, that I may make pleasant meat of them for thy father, such as he loveth.

10 Then thou shalt bring it to thy father, and he shall eat, to the intent that he may bless thee before his death.

11 But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smooth.

12 My father may possibly feel me, and I shall seem to him as a mocker: so shall I bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 But his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only hear my voice, and go and bring me them.

14 So he went and set them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasant meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took fair clothes of her elder son Esau, which were in her house, and clothed Jacob her younger son:

16 And she covered his hands and the smooth of his neck with the skins of the kids of the goats.

17 Afterward she put the pleasant meat and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And when he came to his father, he said, My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau thy firstborn, I have done as thou badest me, arise, I pray thee: sit up and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 Then Isaac said unto his son, How hast thou found it so quickly my son? Who said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

21 Again said Isaac unto Jacob, Come near now, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be that my son Esau, or not.

22 Then Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 (For he knew him not, because his hands were rough as his brother Esau's hands: wherefore he blessed him.)

24 Again he said, Art thou that my son Esau? Who answered, Yea.

25 Then said he, Bring it me hither, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it to him, and he ate: also he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 Afterward his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near and kissed him. Then he smelled the savory of his garments, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

28 ¶ God give thee therefore of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of wheat and wine.

29 Let people be thy servants, and nations bow down unto thee: be Lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's children honor thee, cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And when Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting.
31 And he also prepared savory meat, and brought it to his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son’s venison, that thy soul may bless me. 32 But his father Isaac said unto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy son, even thy firstborn Esau. 33 Then Isaac was stricken with a marvelous great fear, and said, Who and where is he that hunted venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest? and I have blessed him, therefore he shall be blessed. 34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with a great cry and bitter out of measure, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, my father. 35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtlety, and hath taken away thy blessing. 36 Then he said, Was he not justly called Jacob? for he hath deceived me these two times: he took my birthright, and hath taken away thy blessing. 37 Then Isaac answered, and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I made his servants: and with wheat and wine have I furnished him, and unto thee now what shall I do, my son? 38 Then Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, my father: and Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. 39 Then Isaac was stricken with a marvelous great fear, and said, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy son, that art Jacob. 40 And by thy word shalt thou live, and shalt be a multitude of people, and thou shalt have of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth. 41 ¶ Therefore Esau hated Jacob, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his mind, The days of mourning for my father will come shortly, then will I slay my brother Jacob. 42 And it was told to Rebekah of the words of Esau her elder son, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau is comforted against thee, meaning to kill thee: 43 Now therefore my son, hear my voice: arise, and flee thou to Haran to my brother Laban, 44 And tarry with him a while until thy brother’s fierceness be swaged, 45 And till thy brother’s wrath turn away from thee, and he forget the things, which thou hast done to him: then will I send and take thee from thence: why should I be deprived of you both in one day? 46 Also Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, for the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the land, what availeth it me to live?

28 1 Isaac forbiddeth Jacob to take a wife of the Canaanites. 6 Esau taketh a wife of the daughters of Ishmael against his father’s will. 12 Jacob in the way to Haran seeth a ladder reaching to heaven. 14 Christ is promised. 1 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan. 2 Arise, get thee to Padan Aram to the house of Bethuel thy mother’s father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mother’s brother. 3 And God all sufficient bless thee, and make thee to increase, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people, 4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, even to thee and to thy seed with thee, that thou mayest inherit the land (wherein thou art a stranger,) which God gave unto Abraham. 5 Thus Isaac sent forth Jacob, and he went to Padan Aram unto Laban son of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah, Jacob’s and Esau’s mother. 6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him to Padan Aram, to fetch him a wife thence, and given him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, 7 And that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan Aram:

27:33 1 In perceiving his error, by appointing his heir against God’s sentence pronounced before. 2 Or, sufficiently. 27:36 1 In Gen. 25, he was so called because he held his brother by the heel, as though he would overthrow him: and therefore he is here called an overthrower, or deceiver. 27:37 1 For Isaac did this as he was the minister and Prophet of God. 27:38 1 Or, I am also (thy son). 27:40 1 Because thine enemies shall be round about thee. 2 Which was fulfilled in his posterity the Idumeans: who were tributaries for a time to Israel, and after came to liberty.
8  Also Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Isaac his father, 9  'Then went Esau to Ishmael, and took 'unto the wives which he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.
10  ¶ Now Jacob departed from Beersheba, and went to Haran,
11  And he came unto a certain place, and tarried there all night because the sun was down, and took of the stones of the place, and laid under his head and slept in the same place.
12  Then he dreamed, and behold, there stood a ladder upon the earth, and the top of it reached up to heaven: and lo, the Angels of God went up and down by it.
13  'And behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land, upon the which thou sleepest, 'will I give thee and thy seed.
14  And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and the Angels of God minister unto us: all graces by time he was but a stranger in this land.
16  'Then Jacob rose up early in the morning, and went to Haran,
17  And he was 'afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and of all that thou shalt give me, will I give the tenth unto thee.
18  Then Jacob rose up early in the morning, and there was a great stone upon the well's mouth, that we may water the sheep. And they answered, He seeneth to have reconciled himself to his father, but all in vain for he tooketh not away the cause of the evil.
19  'Then Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had laid under his head, and 'set it up as 'a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.
20  And he called the name of that place 'Bethel: notwithstanding the name of that city was at the first called Luz.
21  Then Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If 'God will be with me, and will keep me in this journey which I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:
22  So that I come again unto my father's house in safety, then shall the Lord be my God.
23  And this stone, which I have set up as a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, will I give the tenth unto thee.
24  And this place is called Bethel: that is, he went forth on his journey.
25  The name of this place is Bethel: that is, he is in peace? by the which word the Hebrews signify all prosperity.
26  And this stone, which I have set up as a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, will I give the tenth unto thee.
27  And he found a certain place, and there set he his bed there, and there laid his pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.
And Jacob loved Rachel, and said,

18 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I give her thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed unto him but a few days, because he loved her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, that I may go in to her: for my term is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But when the evening was come, he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her servant.

25 But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? did not I serve thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the manner of this place, to give the younger before the elder.

27 Fulfill seven years for her, and we will also give thee this for the service, which thou shalt serve me yet seven years more.

28 Then Jacob did so, and fulfilled her seven years, so he gave him Rachel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his maid to be her servant.

30 So entered he in to Rachel also, and loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served him yet seven years more.

¶ When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, he made her fruitful: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Simeon.

33 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Judah.

34 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Now at this time will my husband keep me company, because I have borne him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 Moreover she conceived again and bare a son, saying, Now will I praise the Lord; therefore she called his name Lemu.

4,9 Rachel and Leah being both barren, give their maids unto their husband, and they bare him children.

15 Leah giveth mandrakes to Rachel that Jacob might lie with her.

27 Laban is enriched for Jacob's sake.

34 Jacob is made very rich.

1 And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

2 Then Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, Am I in God's stead, which hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in to her, and she shall bear upon my knees, and I shall have children also by her.

4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Jacob went in to her.

5 So Bilhah conceived and bare Jacob a son.

6 Then said Rachel, God hath given sentence on the cause why he departed from his father's house, and waster his father's house, and it came to pass that he came to the house of Laban his brother.

7 And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

8 Then Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, Am I in God's stead, which hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

9 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in to her, and she shall bear upon my knees, and I shall have children also by her.

10 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Jacob went in to her.

11 So Bilhah conceived and bare Jacob a son.

12 Then said Rachel, God hath given sentence on the cause why he departed from his father's house, and it came to pass that he came to the house of Laban his brother.

13 And when Laban heard tell of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house: and he told Laban all these things.

14 To whom Laban said, Well, thou art my bone and my flesh, and he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ For Laban said unto Jacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldst thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall be thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the younger called Rachel.

17 And Leah was tender eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and fair.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I give her thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed unto him but a few days, because he loved her.

21 ¶ Then Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, that I may go in to her: for my term is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But when the evening was come, he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her servant.

25 But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? did not I serve thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the manner of this place, to give the younger before the elder.

27 Fulfill seven years for her, and we will also give thee this for the service, which thou shalt serve me yet seven years more.

28 Then Jacob did so, and fulfilled her seven years, so he gave him Rachel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his maid to be her servant.

30 So entered he in to Rachel also, and loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served him yet seven years more.

¶ When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, he made her fruitful: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Simeon.

33 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Judah.

34 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Now at this time will my husband keep me company, because I have borne him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 Moreover she conceived again and bare a son, saying, Now will I praise the Lord; therefore she called his name Lemu.
8 Then Rachel said, With excellent wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and have gotten the upper hand: and she called his name, Naphtali.

9 And when Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 Then said Leah, A company cometh: and she called his name, Gad.

12 Again Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob another son.

13 Then said Leah, Ah, blessed am I, for the daughters will bless me, and she called his name Asher.

14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the days of the wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then said Rachel to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 But she answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my son's mandrakes also? Then said Rachel, Therefore he shall sleep with thee this night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Come in to me, for I have bought and paid for thee with my dowry: now will mine husband dwell with me, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Come in to me, for I have bought and paid for thee with my dowry: now will mine husband dwell with me, and she called his name Issachar.

17 And God heard Leah and she conceived, and bare unto Jacob the fifth son.

18 Then said Leah, God hath given me my reward, because I gave my maid to my husband, and she called his name Zebulun.

19 After, Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 Then Leah said, God hath endowed me with a good dowry: now will mine husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons: and she called his name, Asher.

21 After that, she bare a daughter, and she called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rachel, and God heard her, and opened her womb.

23 So she conceived and bare a son, and said, God hath taken away my rebuke.

24 And she called his name Joseph, saying, The Lord will give me yet another son.

25 ¶ And as soon as Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away that I may go unto my place and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what service I have done thee.

27 To whom Laban answered, If I have now found favor in thy sight, tarry: I have perceived that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also he said, Appoint unto me thy wages, and I will give it thee.

29 But he said unto him, Thou knowest, what service I have done thee, and in what taking thy cattle hath been under me.

30 For the little, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee by my coming: but now shall I travail for mine own house also?

31 Then he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob answered, Thou shalt give me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will return, feed, and keep thy sheep.

32 I will pass through all thy flocks this day, and separate from them all the sheep with little spots and great spots, and all black lambs among the sheep, and the great spotted, and little spotted among the goats: and it shall be my wages.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me hereafter, when it shall come for my reward before my face, and everyone that hath not little or great spots among the goats, and black among the sheep, the same shall be theft with me.

34 Then Laban said, Go to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore he took out the same day the he goats that were parti-colored and with great spots, and all the she goats with little and great spots, and all that had white in them, and all the black among the sheep, and put them in the keeping of his sons.

36 And he set three days journey between himself and Laban.
and Jacob. And Jacob kept the rest of Laban's sheep.

37 ¶ Then Jacob took rods of green poplar, and of hazel, and of the chestnut tree, and piled white stripes in them, and made the white appear in the rods.

38 Then he put the rods, which he had piled, in the gutters and watering troughs, when the sheep came to drink, before the sheep; (for they were in heat, when they came to drink.)

39 And the sheep were in heat before the rods, and afterward brought forth young of parti-color, and with small and great spots.

40 And Jacob parted these lambs, and turned the faces of the flock towards those lambs parti-colored, and all manner of black, among the sheep of Laban: so he put his own flock by themselves, and put them not with Laban's flock.

41 And in every ramming time of the stronger sheep, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the sheep in the gutters, that they might conceive before the rods.

42 But when the sheep were feeble, he put them not in: and so the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flocks, and maid servants, and men servants, and camels, and asses.

1 Laban's children murmur against Jacob. 3 God commandeth him to return to his country. 13, 14 The care of God for Jacob. 19 Rachel stealeth her father's idols. 23 Laban followeth Jacob. 44 The covenant between Laban and Jacob.

1 Now he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's, and of our father's goods hath he gotten all this honor.

2 Also Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had said unto Jacob, Turn again into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred, and I will be with thee.

4 Therefore Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock.

5 Then said he unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not towards me as it was wont, and the God of my father hath been with me.
21 So fled he with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed the river, and set his face toward mount Gilead.
22 And the third day after was it told Laban, that Jacob fled.
23 Then he took his brethren with him and followed after him seven days journey; and overtook him at mount Gilead.
24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob thou ought save good.
25 Then Laban overtook Jacob, and Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched upon mount Gilead.
26 Then Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done? thou hast even stolen away mine heart and carried away my daughters as though they had been taken captives with the sword.
27 Wherefore diddest thou flee so secretly and steal away from me, and diddest not tell me, that I might have sent thee forth with mirth and with songs, with timbrell and with harp?
28 But thou hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.
29 I am able to do you evil: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob ought save good.
30 Now though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?
31 Then Jacob answered, and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, and thought that thou wouldest have sent me away now empty: but the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac had been with me, and thou dost not suffer me to do evil.
32 But with whom thou findest thy gods, let him take it to thee, (but Jacob wist not that Rachel had stolen them.)
33 Then came Laban into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid's tents, but found them not. So he went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.
34 (Now Rachel had taken the idols, and put them in the camel's litter and sat down upon them) and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.
35 Then said she to her father, My Lord, be not angry that I cannot rise up before thee: for the custom of women is upon me: so he searched, but found not the idols.
36 Then Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: Jacob also answered and said to Laban, What have I trespassed? what have I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?
37 Seeing thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thine household stuff? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge between us both.
38 This twenty years I have been with thee: thine ewes and thy goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.
39 Whatsoever was torn of beasts, I brought it not unto thee, but made it good myself: of mine hand diddest thou require it, were it stolen by day, or stolen by night.
40 I was in the day consumed with heat, and with frost in the night, and my sleep departed from mine eyes.
41 Thus have I been twenty years in thine house, and served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy sheep, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.
42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac had been with me, surely thou haddest sent me away now empty: but God beheld my tribulation, and the labor of mine hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.
43 Then Laban answered, and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sons are my sons, and these sheep are my sheep, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or to their sons which they have borne?
44 Now therefore come let us make a covenant, I and thou, which may be a witness between me and thee.
45 Then took Jacob a stone, and set it up as a pillar:
46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made a heap, and they did eat there upon the heap.
47 And Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.
CHAPTER 32

32 1 God comforteth Jacob by his Angels. 9, 10 He prayeth unto God confessing his unworthiness. 13 He sendeth presents unto Esau. 24, 28 He wrestled with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

1 Now Jacob went forth on his journey, and 'the Angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, 'This is God's host: and he called the name of the same place 'Mahanaim.

3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir into the country of Edom.

4 To whom he gave commandment, saying, Thus shall ye speak to my 'lord Esau: thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have been a stranger with Laban, and tarried unto this time.

5 I have beeves also and asses, sheep, and men servants, and women servants, and have sent unto show my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ So the messengers came again to Jacob, saying, We came unto thy brother Esau, and he also cometh against thee and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was 'greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, and divided the people that was with him, and the sheep, and the beeves, and the camels into two companies.

8 For he said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, the other company shall escape.

9 ¶ Moreover Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Lord, which 'saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will do thee good.

10 I am not 'worthy of the least of all the mercies, and all the truth, which thou hast show'd unto thy servant: for with my 'staff came I over this Jordan, and now have I gotten two bands.

11 I pray thee, Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the 'mother upon the children.

12 And thou saidest, I will surely do to thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he tarried there that same night and took of that which came to hand, a 'present for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams:

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bullocks, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 So he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves, and said unto his servants, Pass before me, and put a space between drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, If my brother Esau meet thee, and ask thee, saying, Whose servant art thou? And whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and behold, he himself also is behind us.

19 So likewise commanded he the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, After this manner, ye shall speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

And ye shall say moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob cometh after us. (for he thought, I will appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face: it may be that he will accept me.)

So went the present before him: but he tarried that night with the company. And he rose up the same night, and took his two wives, and his two maids, and his eleven children, and went over the ford Jabbok.

And he took them, and sent them over the river, and sent over that he had.

¶ Now when Jacob was left himself alone, there wrestled a man with him unto the breaking of the day. And he saw that he could not prevail against him: therefore he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob’s thigh was loosed, as he wrestled with him.

And he said, Let me go, for the morning appeareth. Who answered, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

Then said he unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

And said he, Thy name shall be called Jacob no more, but Israel: because thou hast had power with God, thou shalt also prevail with men.

And Jacob demanded, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now dost thou ask my name? and he blessed him there.

And Jacob called the name of the place, Peniel: for, said he, I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

And the sun rose up to him as he passed Peniel, and he halted upon his thigh.

Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank in the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the sinew that shrank in the hollow of Jacob’s thigh.

1 Esau and Jacob meet and are agreed. 11 Esau receiveth his gifts. 19 Jacob buyeth a possession, 20 And buildeth an altar.

1 And as Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men: and he divided the children to Leah, and unto Rachel, and to the two maids.

2 And he put the maids, and their children foremost, and Leah, and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindernest.

3 So he went before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women, and the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he answered, They are the children whom God of his grace hath given thy servant.

6 Then came the maids near, they and their children, and bowed themselves.

7 Leah also with her children came near and made obeisance: and after Joseph and Rachel drew near, and did reverence.

8 Then he said, What meanest thou by all this drove, which I met? Who answered, I have sent it, that I may find favor in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother: keep that thou hast to thyself.

10 But Jacob answered, Nay, I pray thee, if I have found grace now in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.

11 I pray thee take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercy on me, and therefore I have all things: for he compelled him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before thee.

13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tender, and the ewes and kine with young under mine hand: and if they should overdrive them one day, all the flock would die.

He thought it no loss to depart with these goods, to the intent he might follow the vocation whereunto God called him. For God assaileth his with the one hand, and upholdeth them with the other. God gave Jacob both power to overcome, and also the praise of the victory. Or, my soul is delivered.

The faithful to overcome their tentations, that they feel the smart thereof, to the intent that they should not glory, but in their humility.

That if the one part were assailed, the other might escape. By this gesture he partly did reverence to his brother, and partly prayed to God to mitigate Esau’s wrath. Jacob and his family are the image of the Church under the yoke of tyrants which for fear are brought to subjection. In that that his brother embraced him so lovingly, contrary to his expectation, he accepted it as a plain sign of God’s presence.

Or, gift. By earnest entreaty.
14 Let now my lord go before his servant, and I will drive softly, according to the pace of the cattle, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, until I come to my lord unto Seir.

15 Then Esau said, I will leave then some of my folk with thee. And he answered, What needeth this? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned, and went his way that same day unto Seir.

17 And Jacob went forward toward Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore he called the name of the place Succoth.

18 Afterward, Jacob came safe to Shechem a city, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the city.

19 And there he bought a parcel of ground, where he pitched his tent, at the hand of the sons of Hamor the Hivite lord of that country.

20 And he set up there an altar, and called it the altar of God which is mighty.

21 These men are peaceable with us: and that they will drive softly, according to the pace of the cattle, and we will endure, until I come to my lord unto Seir.

22 Then Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the city.

23 He pitched his tent, and built there an altar, and called it, The altar of God which is mighty.

24 And Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the country.

25 Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of that country.

26 Whom when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite lord of that country saw, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

27 And his heart clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob: and he loved the maid, and spake kindly to the maid.

28 Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this maid to wife.

29 And Jacob said, Shall I give her thee for a wife, whereof she is any man's daughter?

30 And thou shalt give me also thy daughters, who are of them, and thou shalt do for me, that I may dwell with thee.

31 Then he spake unto Jacob, saying, Thy right hand is upon the bow, and thy right hand shall be settled in his neck.

32 And Jacob gave diligence to take her, and came unto her in the City, and lay with her: and he went out from her, and she was in travail, and travailed, and brought a man child, and said, A people, A people, is come to take my maid.

33 But her father stripped her of her apparel, and she was naked, and she went out, and lay upon her father's bed.

34 ¶ And when the sons of Jacob were come out of the field and heard it, it grieved the men, and they were very angry, because he had wrought villany in Israel, in that he had lain with Jacob's daughter: which thing ought not to be done.

35 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son: Shechem longeth for your daughter, give her him to wife, I pray you.

36 So make affinity with us, give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

37 And ye shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you, dwell, and do your business in it, and have your possessions therein.

38 Then the sons of Jacob answered, Shechem and Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister:

39 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to an uncircumcised man: for that were a reproof unto us.

40 But in this we will consent unto you, if ye will do this one thing, to give our sister to an uncircumcised man: for that were a reproof unto us.

41 Then the children of Jacob answered, Shechem longeth for your daughter, which is a reproof unto us.

42 And they said unto them, What ye said is good: we will give our daughters unto you, and we will dwell with you.

43 And ye shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you, dwell, and do your business in it, and have your possessions therein.

44 And they said unto them, We will only give our daughters unto you, and we will dwell with you.

45 And ye shall give us fields and vineyards, and ye shall give us seed corn, and oil and wine, that we may feed ourselves.

46 And ye shall be our brethren, and we will be your brethren; and ye shall dwell with us.

47 And ye will give us seed corn, and oil, and wine, according as ye have said.

48 And we will eat the bread of the land before we die, and be full, and return unto our people, and to the land of our birth, and ye will carry us out of thence.

49 And they said unto them, We will perform all that ye say.

50 ¶ Then Hamor and Shechem his son went unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

51 These men are peaceable with us: and that they 33:14 1 He promised that which (as seemeth) his mind was not to perform.

33:17 1 Or, tent.

33:18 1 Or, Mesopotamia.

33:19 1 Or, lambs, or money so marked.

33:20 1 He calleth the sign, the thing which it signifieth, in token that God had mightily delivered him.

34:1 This example teacheth us that too much liberty is not to be given to youth.

34:2 1 Hebrew, humbled her.

34:3 1 Hebrew, spake to the heart of the maid.

34:4 1 This proveth that the consent of parents is requisite in marriage, seeing the very Infidels did also observe it as a thing necessary.

34:7 1 Or, folly.
may dwell in the land, and do their affairs therein (for behold, the land hath room enough for them) let us take their daughters to wives, and give them our daughters.

22 Then said Jacob unto his household and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and cleanse yourselves, and change your garments:

23 Then they departed from Bethel, and when they were sore troubled in the way of their tribulation, and was with me in the way which I went.

24 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their earrings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under an oak, which was by Shechem.

25 And on the third day (when they were sore) two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brethren took either of them his sword and went into the city boldly, and slew every male.

26 They slew also Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem’s house, and went their way.

27 Again, the other sons of Jacob came upon the dead, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep and their beees, and their asses, and whatsoever was in the city and in the fields.

29 Also they carried away captives and spoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wives, and all that was in the houses.

30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, and made me stink among the inhabitants of the land, as well the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me, and so shall I, and my house be destroyed.

31 And they answered, Should he abuse our sister as a whore?

34:23 1 Thus they lack no kind of persuasion, which prefer their own commodities before the commonwealth.

34:25 1 For they were the chief of the company.

34:26 1 Hebrew, mouth of the sword.

34:30 1 Or, to be abhorred.

35:1 1 God is ever at hand to succor his in their troubles.

35:2 1 That by this outward act they should show their inward repentance.

35:4 1 For therein was some sign of superstition, as in tablets and Agnus deis.

35:5 1 Thus, notwithstanding the inconvenience that came before, God delivered Jacob.

35:8 1 Or, oak of lamentations.

35:11 1 Or, almighty.

35:13 1 As God is said to descend when he sheweth some sign of his presence: so he is said to ascend when vision is ended.
GENESIS 35:17

there was 'about half a day's journey of ground to come to Ephrath, Rachel travailed, and in travelling she was in peril.

17 And when she was in the pains of her labor, the midwife said unto her, Fear not, for thou shalt have this son also.

18 Then as she was about to yield up the ghost (for she died) she called his name Ben-Oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

19 Thus 'died Rachel and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: This is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 ¶ Then Israel went forward, and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

22 Now when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went and 'lay 'with Bilhah his father's concubine, and it came to Israel's ear. And Jacob had twelve sons.

23 The sons of Leah: Reuben Jacob's eldest son, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born him in Padan Aram.

27 ¶ Then Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre a city of Kirjath Arbah: that is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac were strangers.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 2 The wives of Esau. 7 Jacob and Esau are rich. 9 The genealogy of Esau. 24 The finding of mules.

1 Now these are 'the generations of Esau, which is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon an Hittite and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon an Hivite.

3 And took Basemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 And 'Adah bare unto Esau, Eliphaz: and Basemath bare Reuel,

5 Also Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau which were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 So Esau took his wives and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his flocks, and all his cattle, and all his substance, which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and 'went into another country from his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were so great, that they could not dwell together, and the land, wherein they were strangers, could not receive them because of their flocks.

8 ¶ Therefore dwelt Esau in mount Seir: this Esau is Edom.

9 ¶ So these are the generations of Esau father of Edom in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah, the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath, the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son, and bare unto Eliphaz, Amalek: these be the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

13 ¶ And these are the 'sons of Reuel: Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these be the sons of Basemath Esau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon Esau's wife: for she bare unto Esau, Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 ¶ These were 12Dukes of the sons of Esau the sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau Duke Teman, Duke Omar, Duke Zepho, Duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, Duke Gatam, and Duke Amalek: these are the Dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom: these were the 'sons of Adah.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son: Duke Nahath, Duke Zerah, Duke Shammah, Duke Mizzah: these are the Dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the 1sons of Basemath Esau's wife.
18 ¶ Likewise these were the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife: Duke Jeush, Duke Jaalam, Duke Korah: these Dukes came of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah Esau's wife.

19 'These are the children of Esau, and these are the Dukes of them: 'This Esau is Edom.

20 ¶ These are the sons of Seir the Horite, which inhabited the land before Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the Dukes of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were, Hori and Hemam, and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the sons of Shobal were these: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the sons of Zibeon: Both Ajah, and Anah: this was Anah that found 'mules in the wilderness, as he fed his father Zibeon's asses.

25 And the children of Anah were these: Dishon and Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

26 Also these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 'The sons of Ezer are these: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 These are the sons of Dishan these, Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the Dukes of the Horites: Duke Lotan, Duke Shobal, Duke Zibeon, Duke Anah, 30 Duke Dishon, Duke Ezer, Duke Dishan: these be the Dukes of the Horites, after their Dukedoms in the land of Seir.

31 ¶ And these are the 'Kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any King over the children of Israel.

32 Then Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 When Jobab also was dead, Husham the son of Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And after the death of Husham, Hadad the son of Bedad, which slew Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Avith.

36 When Hadad was dead, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

37 When Samlah was dead, Saul of 'Rehoboth by the river, reigned in his stead.

38 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39 And after the death of Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor, Hadar reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Pau: and his wife's name Mehetabel the daughter of Mattred, the 'daughter of Mezahab.

40 Then these are the names of the Dukes of Esau according to their families, their places, and by their names: Duke Timnah, Duke Alvah, Duke Jetheth.

41 Duke Aholibamah, Duke Elah, Duke Pinon,

42 Duke Kenaz, Duke Teman, Duke Mibzar,

43 Duke Magdiel, Duke Iram: these be the Dukes of Edom, according to their habitations, in the land of their inheritance. This Esau is the father of 'Edom.

37 2 Joseph accuseth his brethren. 5 He dreameth and is hated of his brethren. 28 They sell him to the Ishmaelites. 34 Jacob bewaileth Joseph.

1 Jacob now dwelt in the land, wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the 'generations of Jacob when Joseph was seventeen years old, he kept sheep with his brethren, and the child was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, And Joseph brought unto their father their evil 2saying.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he begat him in his old age and he made him a coat of many colors.

4 So when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, then they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and told his brethren, who hated him so much the more.

6 For he said unto them, Hear, I pray you this dream which I have dreamed.

7 Behold now, we were binding sheaves in the midst of the field: and lo, my sheaves compassed the midst of the field; and lo, your sheaves compassed not the midst of the field.

8 Then his brethren said to him, What, shall thou reign over us, and rule us? or shalt thou have dominion over us? And they 'hated him so much the more, for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ Again he dreamed another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have had one dream more, and behold, the Sun and the Moon and eleven stars did reverence to me.

10 Then he told it unto his father and to his brethren, and his father 'rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this thy dream, which thou hast dreamed? shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come indeed and fall on the ground before thee?

11 And his brethren envied him, but his father noted the saying.

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to keep their father's sheep in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren keep in Shechem? come and I will send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Then he said unto him, Go now, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and how the flocks prosper, and bring me word again: so he sent him from the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ Then a man found him: for lo, he was wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, what seekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keep sheep.

17 And the man said, they are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let us go unto Dorchan. Then went Joseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came at them, they 'conspired against him for to slay him.

19 For they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, A wicked beast hath devoured him: Joseph is surely not in the pit; then he rent his clothes, and said, 'Let us not kill him.

21 But when Reuben heard that, he delivered him out of their hands, and said, 'Let us not kill him.

22 Also Reuben said unto them, Shed not blood, nor the meaning.

23 ¶ Now when Joseph was come unto his brethren, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his parti-colored coat that was upon him.

24 And they took him, and cast 'him into a pit, and the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then they sat them down to eat bread: and lift up their eyes and looked, and behold, there came a company of Ishmaelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicery, and 'balm, and myrrh, and were going to carry it down into Egypt.

26 Then Judah said to his brethren, What availeth it, if we slay our brother, though we keep his blood secret?

27 Come and let us 'sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hands be upon him: for he is our brother, and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 Then the 'Midianites' merchant men passed by, and they drew forth, and lift Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver: who brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes.

30 And returned to his brethren, and said, The child is not yonder, and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 So they sent that parti-colored coat, 'and they brought it unto their father, and said, This have we found: see now, whether it be thy son's coat, or no.

33 Then he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat: a wicked beast hath 'devoured him: Joseph is surely torn in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his loins, and sorrowed for his son a long season.

35 Then all his sons and his daughters arose up to comfort him, but he would not be comforted, but said, 'Surely I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning: so his father wept for him.

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar 'an Eunuch of Pharaoh's and his 'chief steward.

37:10 1 Not despising the vision, but seeking to appease his brethren.

37:11 2 He knew that God was author of the dream, but he understood not the meaning.

37:18 1 The holy Ghost covereth not men's faults, as do vain writers, which make vice virtue.

37:19 1 Or, master of dreams.

37:21 1 Hebrew, let us not smite his life.

37:24 1 Their hypocrisy appeareth in this that they feared man more than God: and thought it was not murder, if they shed not his blood: or else had an excuse to cover their fault.

37:25 1 Or, rosen, turpentine, or treacle.

37:28 1 Moses writing according to the opinion of them which took the Midianites and Ishmaelites to be both one, doth here confound their names: as also appeareth, verse 36 and Gen. 39:1, or else he was first offered to the Midianites, but sold to the Ishmaelites.

37:32 1 To wit, the messengers which were sent.

37:35 1 Or, I will mourn for him so long as I live.

37:36 1 Which word doth not always signify him that is gelded, but also him that is in some high dignity.

2 Or, captain of the guard.
38 2 The marriage of Judah. 7, 9 The trespass of Er and Onan, and the vengeance of God that came thereupon. 18 Judah lieth with his daughter-in-law Tamar. 24 Tamar is judged to be burnt for whoredom.

1 And at that time 1Judah went down from his brethren, and turned into a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a man called Shua a 1Canaanite: and he took her to wife, and went into her.

3 So she conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Er.

4 1And she conceived again and bare a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 Moreover she bare yet a son, whom she called Shelah: and Judah was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 Then Judah took a wife to Er his firstborn son, whose name was Tamar.

7 Now Er the firstborn of Judah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slew him.

8 And Judah said to Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and do the office of a kinsman unto her, and raise 1up seed unto thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: therefore when he went in unto his brother's wife, he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which he did: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, 1Remain a widow in thy father's house, till Shelah my son grow up (for he thought thus, Lest he die as well as his brethren,) So Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 1And in process of time also the daughter of Shua Judah's wife died. Then Judah, when he had left mourning, went up to his sheepshearers to Timnah, he, and his neighbor Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath, to shear his sheep.

14 Then she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat down in "Pethah-enam which is by the way to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he judged her an whore: for she had covered her face.

16 And he turned to the way towards her, and said, Come, I pray thee, let me lie with thee, (for he 1knew not that she was his daughter-in-law.) And she answered, What wilt thou give me for to lie with me?

17 Then said he, I will send thee a kid of the goats from the flock, and she said, Well, if thou wilt give me a pledge, till thou send it.

18 Then he said, What is the pledge that I shall give thee? And she answered, Thy signet and thy 2cloak and thy staff that is in thine hand. So he gave it her, and lay by her, and she was with child by him.

19 'Then she rose, and went and put her veil from her and put on her widow's raiment.

20 Afterward Judah sent a kid of the goats by the hand of his 3neighbor the Adullamite, for to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then asked he the men of the place, saying, Where is the whore, that sat in Enaim by the wayside? and they answered, There was no whore there.

22 He came therefore to Judah again, and said, I cannot find her, and also the men of the place said, There was no whore there.

23 Then Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be 4shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ Now after three months, one told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law hath played the whore, and lo, with playing the whore, she is great with child. Then Judah said, Bring ye her forth and let her be 5burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man, unto whom these things pertain, am I with child: and said also, Look I pray thee, whose these are, the seal, and the cloak, and the staff.

26 Then Judah knew them, and said, She is 1more righteous than I: for she hath done it because I gave her not to Shelah my son. So he lay with her 7no more.

38:1 1Moses describeth the genealogy of Judah, because the Messiah should come of him.

38:2 1Which affinity notwithstanding was condemned of God.

38:8 1This order was for the preservation of the stock, that the child begotten by the second brother should have the name and inheritance of the first: which is in the new Testament abolished.

39 1 Joseph sold to Potiphar.  2 God prospereth him.  7 Potiphar’s wife tempteth him.  13, 20 He is accused and cast in prison.  23 God sheweth him favor.

1 Now Joseph was brought down into Egypt: and Potiphar an Eunuch of Pharaoh’s (and his chief steward an Egyptian) bought him at the hand of the Ishmaelites, which had brought him thither.

2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a man that prospered and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him: and made him a ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand.

5 And from that time that he had made him ruler over his house and over all that he had, the Lord blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake: and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 Therefore he left all that he had in Joseph’s hand, and took account of nothing, that was with him, save only of the bread, which he did eat. And Joseph was a fair person, and well favored.

7 Now therefore after these things, his master’s wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, ‘Lie with me.’

8 But he refused and said to his master’s wife, ‘Behold, my master knoweth not what he hath in the house with me, but hath committed all that he had to mine hand.

9 ‘There is no man greater in this house than I: neither hath he kept anything from me, but only thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness and so sin against ‘God?’

10  And albeit she spake to Joseph day by day, yet he hearkened not unto her, to lie with her, or to be in her company.

11 Then on a certain day Joseph entered into the house to do his business: and there was no man of the household in the house.

12 Therefore she caught him by his garment, saying, ‘Sleep with me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, and got him out.

13 Now when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out, 14 She called unto the men of her house, and told them, saying, ‘Behold, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us: who came in to me for to have slept with me: but I cried with a loud voice.

15 And when he heard that I lift up my voice and cried, he left his garments with me, and fled away, and got him out.

16 So she laid up his garment by her, until her lord came home.

17 Then she told him according to these words, saying, ‘The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came into me, to mock me.

18 But as soon as I lift up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 Then when his master heard the words of his wife, which she told him, saying, ‘After this manner did thy servant to me, his anger was kindled.

20 And Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, in the place, where the king’s prisoners lay bound: and there he was in prison.

21 But the Lord was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and got him favor in the sight of the master of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph’s hand all the prisoners that were in the prison, and whatsoever they did there, that did he.

23 And the keeper of the prison looked unto nothing that was under his hand, seeing that the...
And after these things, the butler of the King of Egypt and his baker offended their Lord the King of Egypt.

Then Joseph said unto them, Are not interpretations of dreams one? for whatsoever he doeth, the Lord maketh him to prosper.

God had appointed.

But Pharaoh was angry against his two officers, against the chief butler, and against the chief baker.

Therefore he put them in ward in his chief steward's house, in the prison and place where Joseph was bound.

And the chief steward gave Joseph charge over them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

And they both dreamed a dream, either of them his dream in one night, each one according to the interpretation of his dream, both the butler and the baker of the King of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

And when Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, behold, they were sad.

And he asked Pharaoh's officers, that were with him in his master's ward, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly today?

Who answered him, We have dreamed each one a dream, and there is none to interpret the same.

And Joseph said unto them, Are not interpretations of God? tell them me now.

So the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me,

And in the vine were three branches, and as it budded, her flower came forth: and the clusters of grapes waxed ripe.

And I had Pharaoh's cup in mine hand, and I took the grapes, and wrung them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

Then Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days.

Within three days shall Pharaoh take thine head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted unto them.

Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

This dream was not so much for Pharaoh, as to be a means to deliver Joseph, and to provide for God's Church.

This dream was not so much for Pharaoh, as to be a means to deliver Joseph, and to provide for God's Church.
stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the evil favored and lean fleshed kine did eat up the seven well favored and fat kine: so Pharaoh awoke.

5 Again he slept, and dreamed the second time: and behold, seven ears of corn grew upon one stalk, rank and goodly.

6 And lo, seven thin ears, and blasted with the East wind, sprang up after them.

7 And the thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears, then Pharaoh awoke, and lo it was a dream.

8 Now when the morning came, his spirit was troubled: therefore he sent and called all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof, and Pharaoh told them his dreams: but none could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I call to mind my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh being angry with his servants, put me in ward in the chief steward’s house, both me, and the chief baker.

11 Then we dreamed a dream in one night both I, and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant unto the chief steward, whom when we told, he declared our dreams to us, to everyone he declared according to his dream.

13 And as he declared unto us, so it came to pass: for he restored me to mine office, and hanged him.

14 Then sent Pharaoh, and called Joseph and they both me, and the chief baker.

15 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and no man can interpret it, and I have heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a dream, thou canst interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Without me God shall not answer for the wealth of Pharaoh.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph: In my dream, behold, I stood by the bank of the river:

18 And lo, there came up out of the river seven fat fleshed, and well favored kine. and they fed in the meadow.

19 Also lo, seven other kine came up after them poor and very evil favored kine, and lean fleshed: I never saw the like in all the land of Egypt, for evil favored.

20 And the lean and the evil favored kine did eat up the first seven fat kine.

21 And when they had eaten them up: it could not be known that they had eaten them, but they were still as evil favored, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

22 Moreover I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears sprang out of one stalk, full and fair.

23 And lo, seven ears withered, thin, and blasted with the East wind, sprang up after them.

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. Now I have told the soothsayers, and none can declare it unto me.

25 ¶ Then Joseph answered Pharaoh, Both Pharaoh’s dreams are one. God hath showed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good Kine are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years: this is one dream.

27 Likewise the seven thin and evil favored kine, that came out after them, are seven years: and the seven empty ears blasted with the East wind, are seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have said unto Pharaoh, that God hath showed unto Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty in all the land of Egypt.

30 Again, there shall arise after them seven years of famine, so that all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land:

31 Neither shall the plenty be known in the land, by reason of this famine that shall come after, for it shall be exceeding great.

32 And therefore the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to perform it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh provide for a man of understanding and wisdom, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

41:5 1 All these means God used to deliver his servant, and to bring him into favor and authority.

41:8 1 This fear was enough to teach him that this vision was sent of God.

41:19 1 He confesseth his fault against the king before he speak of Joseph.

41:12 1 Read Gen. 40.5.

41:14 1 The wicked seek to the Prophets of God in their necessity, whom in their prosperity they abhor.

41:16 1 As though he would say, if I interpret thy dream it cometh of God, and not of me.

41:21 1 Hebrew, were gone into their inward parts.

41:25 1 Both his dreams tend to one end.

41:29 1 Or, abundance and saturety.

41:31 1 Or, they shall remember no more the plenty.

41:33 1 The office of a true Prophet is not only to show the evils to come, but also the remedies for the same.
35 Also let them gather all the food of these good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh for food, in the cities, and let them keep it.
36 So the food shall be for the provision of the land, against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine.
37 ¶ And the saying pleased Pharaoh and all his servants.
38 Then said Pharaoh unto his servants, Can we find such a man as this, in whom is the Spirit of God?
39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is no man of understanding, or wisdom like unto thee.
40 1Thou shalt be over mine house, and at thy word shall all my people be armed, only in the king's throne will I be above thee.
41 Moreover Pharaoh said to Joseph, Behold, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.
42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linen, and put a golden chain about his neck.
43 So he sat him upon the best chariot that he had, save one: and they cried before him, 2Abrech, and placed him over all the land of Egypt.
44 Again Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in the land of Egypt.
45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaph-nath-Paaneah: and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah princess of On bare unto him.
46 ¶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh King of Egypt: and Joseph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went throughout all the land of Egypt.
47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth store.
48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven plenteous years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, that was round about every city, laid he up in the same.
49 So Joseph gathered wheat, like unto the sand of the sea in multitude out of measure, until he left numbering: for it was without number.
50 Now unto Joseph were born two sons (before the year of famine came) which Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah prince of On bare unto him.
51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my labor and all my father's household.
52 Also he called the name of the second, Ephraim: For God, said he, hath made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.
53 ¶ So the seven years of the plenty that was in the land of Egypt were ended.
54 ¶ Then began the seven years of famine to come, according as Joseph had said: and the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt was bread.
55 At the length all the land of Egypt was famished, and the people cried unto Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph: what he saith to you, do ye.
56 When the famine was upon all the land, Joseph opened all places, wherein the store was, and sold unto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in all the land of Egypt.
57 And all the countries came to Egypt to buy corn of Joseph, because the famine was sore in all lands.

42 1Joseph's brethren came into Egypt to buy corn. 2He knoweth them, and trieth them. 24 Simeon is put in prison. 34 The others go to fetch Benjamin.
1 Then 'Jacob saw that there was “food in Egypt, and Jacob said unto his sons, Why 3gaze ye one upon another?
2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is food in Egypt, ‘Get you down thither, and buy us food thence, that we may live and not die.
3 ¶ So went Joseph's ten brethren down to buy corn of the Egyptians.
4 But Benjamin Joseph's brother, would not Jacob send with his brethren: for he said, Lest death should befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy food among them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canaan.
6 Now Joseph was governor of the land, who sold to all the people of the land: then Joseph's brethren came, and bowed their faces to the ground before him.
7 And when Joseph saw his brethren, he knew them: but they knew him not.
8 (Now Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.)
9 And Joseph remembered the dreams, which he dreamed of them) and he said unto them, Ye are spies, and are come to see the weakness of the land.
10 But they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy vittles thy servants are come.
11 We are all one man's sons: we mean truly, and thy servants are no spies.
12 But he said unto them, Nay, but ye are come to see the weakness of the land.
13 And they said, We thy servants, are twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not.
14 Again Joseph said unto them, This is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies.
15 Hereby ye shall be proved: by the life of Pharaoh, ye shall not go hence, except your youngest brother come hither.
16 Send one of you which may fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be truth in you, or else by the life of Pharaoh ye are but spies.
17 So he put them in ward three days.
18 Then Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live: for I fear God.
19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in your prison house, and go ye, carry food for the famine of your houses:
20 But bring your youngest brother unto me, that your words may be tried, and that ye die not: and they did so.
21 And they said one to another, We have verily sinned against our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear him: therefore is this trouble come upon us.
22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Warned I not you, saying, Sin not against the child, and ye would not hear? and lo, his blood is now required.
23 (And they were not aware that Joseph understood them: for he spake unto them by an interpreter.)
24 Then he turned from them, and wept, and turned to them again, and communed with them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.
25 So Joseph commanded that they should fill their sacks with wheat, and put every man's money in his sack, and give them vittles for the journey: and thus did he unto them.
26 And they laid their vittles upon their asses, and departed thence.
27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the Inn, he espied his money: for lo, it was in his sack's mouth.
28 Then he said unto his brethren, My money is restored: for lo, it is even in my sack.
29 And his heart failed them, and they were astonished, and said one to another, What is this, that God hath done unto us?
30 The man who is lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and put us in prison as spies of the country.
31 And we said unto him, We are true men, and are no spies.
32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.
33 Then the lord of the country said unto us, Hereby shall I know if ye be true men: Leave one of your brethren with me, and take food for the famine of your houses, and depart,
34 And bring your youngest brother unto me, that I may know that ye are no spies, but true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall occupy in the land.
35 And as they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when they and their father saw the bundles of their money, they were afraid.

36 Then Jacob their father said to them, Ye have robbed me of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin: all these things are against me.

37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee again: deliver him to mine hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 But he said, My son shall not go down with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if death come unto him by the way which ye go, then ye shall bring my gray head with sorrow unto the grave.

43 13 Jacob suffereth Benjamin to depart with his children. 14 Simeon is delivered out of prison. 30 Joseph goeth aside and weepeth.

1 Now great famine was in the land.

2 And when they had eaten up the vittles, which they had brought from Egypt, their father said unto them, Turn again and buy us food.

3 And Judah answered him, saying, The man asked straightly of us, and said, Except your brother be with you, we will not go down; and that ye will not do, ye shall never see our face again.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down, and buy thee food.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, 'Never see my face, except your brother be with you.'

6 And Israel said, Wherefore deal ye so evil with me, as to tell the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?

7 And they answered, The man asked straightly of us ourselves and of our kindred, saying, 'Is your father yet alive? Have ye any brother?' and we told him according to these words: could we know certainly that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 Then said Judah to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, that we may rise and go, and that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and our children.

9 I will be surety for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. If I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, 'then let me bear the blame forever.

10 For except we had made this tarrying, doubtless by this we had returned the second time.

11 Then their father Israel said unto them, If it must needs be so now, do thus: take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a little rosin, and a little honey, 'spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take 'double money in your hand, and the money, that was brought again in your sacks' mouths carry it again in your hand, lest it were some oversight.

13 Take also your brother and arise, and go again to the man.

14 And 'God Almighty give you mercy in the sight of the man, that he may deliver you your other brother, and Benjamin: but I shall be 'robbed of my child, as I have been.

15 Thus the men took this present, and took twice so much money in their hand with Benjamin, and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said 'to his steward, Bring these men home and kill meat, and make ready: for the men shall eat with me at noon.

17 And the men did as Joseph bade, and brought the men unto Joseph's house.

18 Now when the men were brought into Joseph's house, they were 'afraid, and said, Because of the money, that came in our sack's mouths at the first time, are we brought, that he may 'pick a quarrel against us, and 'lay something to our charge, and bring us in bondage and our asses.

19 Therefore came they to Joseph's steward, and communed with him at the door of his house.

20 And said, O sir, 'we came indeed down hither at the first time to buy food, 21 And as we came to an Inn and opened our sacks, behold, every man's money was in his sack's mouth, even our money in full weight, but we have brought it in our hands.

22 Also other money have we brought in our hands to buy food, but we cannot tell, who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, 'Peace be to you, fear not: 'your God, and the God of your father hath given you that treasure in your sacks, I had your money: and he brought forth Simeon to them.

24 So the man led them into Joseph's house, and gave them water to wash their feet, and gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready their present against Joseph came at noon, (for they heard say, that they should eat bread there.)

26 When Joseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed down to the ground before him.

27 And he asked them of their prosperity, and said, Is your father the old man, of whom ye told me, in good health? is he yet alive?

28 Who answered, 'Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifting up his eyes, beheld his brother Benjamin, his 'mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother of whom ye told me? And he said, God be merciful unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste (for his affection was inflamed toward his brother, and sought where to weep) and entered into his chamber and wept there.

31 Afterward he washed his face, and came out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on 'meat.

32 And they 'prepared for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews: for that was an 'abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 So they sat before him: the eldest according to his age, and the youngest according unto his youth: and the men marveled among themselves.

34 And they took meats from before him, and sent to them: but Benjamin's meat was five times so much as any of theirs: and they drank, 'and had of the best drink with him.

44 15 Joseph accuseth his brother of theft. 33 Judah offereth himself to be servant for Benjamin.

1 Afterward he commanded his steward, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And 'put my cup, I mean, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the commandment that Joseph gave him.

3 And in the 'morning the men were sent away, they, and their asses.

4 And when they went out of the city not far off, Joseph said to his steward, Up, follow after the men: and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not that the cup wherein my lord drinketh? 'and in the which he doth divine and prophesy? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And when he overtook them, he said these words unto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore saith my lord such words? God forbid that thy servants should do such a thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now then let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found, shall be my servant, and ye shall be 'blameless.

11 Then at once every man took down his sack to the ground, and everyone opened his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they 'rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and went again into the city.

14 ¶ So Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 Then Joseph said unto them, What act is this, which ye have done? know ye not that such a man as I, can divine and prophesy?

16 Then said Judah, What shall we say unto my 19 My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘What shall we speak? and how can we justify ourselves? God hath found out the wickedness of thy servants: behold, we are servants to my lord, both we, and he, with whom the cup is found.

20 But he answered, God forbid, that I should do so, but the man, with whom the cup is found, he shall be my servant, and go ye in peace unto your father.

21 And we answered our lord, We have a father that is old, and a young child, which he begat in his age: and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

22 Now thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him unto me, that I may set mine eye upon him.

23 Then saidest thou unto thy servants, Except your younger brother come down with you, look in my face no more.

24 So when we came unto thy servant our father, and showed him what my lord had said, And our father said unto us, Go again, buy us a little food.

25 And we answered our lord, The child cannot depart his father: for if he leave his father, his father would die.

26 Then we answered, We cannot go down, but if our youngest brother go with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 Then thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons.

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Of a surety he is torn in pieces, and I saw him not since.

29 Now ye take this also away from me: if death take him, then ye shall bring my gray head in sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy servant my father, and the child be not with us (seeing that his life dependeth on the child's life), 31 Then when he shall see that the child is not come, he will die: so shall thy servants bring down the gray head of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 Doubtless thy servant became surety for the child to my father, and, ‘If I bring him not unto thee again, then I will bear the blame unto my father forever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy servant abide for the child, as a servant to my lord, and let the child go up with his brethren.

34 For ‘how can I go up to my father: if the child be not with me, unless I would see the evil that shall come on my father.

45 1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren. 8 He showeth that all was done by God’s providence. 18 Pharaoh commandeth him to send for his father. 24 Joseph exhorteth his brethren to concord.

1 Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all that stood by him, but he cried, ‘Have forth every man from me. And there tarried not one with him, while Joseph uttered himself unto his brethren.

2 And he wept, and cried, so that the Egyptians heard: the house of Pharaoh heard also.

3 Then Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph: doth my father yet live? But his brethren could not answer him, for they were astonished at his presence.

4 Again, Joseph said to his brethren, Come near, I pray you, to me. And they came near. And he said, ‘I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not sad, neither grieved with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: ‘For God did send me before you for your preservation.

6 For now two years of famine have been through the land, and five years are behind, wherein neither shall be earing nor harvest.

7 Wherefore God sent me before you to preserve your posterity in this land, and to save you alive by a great deliverance.

8 Now then you sent not me hither, but ‘God, who hath made me a father unto Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste you and go up to my father, and tell him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of a surety he is torn in pieces, and I saw him not since.

of all Egypt: come down to me, tarry not.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and shalt be near me, thou and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy sheep, and thy beasts, and all that thou hast.

11 Also I will nourish thee there (for yet remain five years of famine) lest thou perish through poverty, thou and thy household, and all that thou hast.

12 And behold, your eyes do see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that 'my mouth speaketh to you.

13 Therefore tell my father of all mine honor in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and afterward his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the tidings came to Pharaoh's house, so that they said, Joseph's brethren are come; and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, laid your beasts and depart, go to the land of Canaan, 18 And take your father, and your household, and all that thou hast.

19 And I command thee, Thus do ye, take you fat of the land, and the fat of the vines, and send it unto me, that I may taste it. And he did so.

20 So sent he his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See, the fat of the land be not eaten.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph sent as much, to wit, silver as verse 22, and ten shekels of silver, and five suits of raiment.

22 He gave them all, none except, change of raiment: but unto Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five suits of raiment.

23 And unto his father likewise he sent ten he asses laden with the best things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with wheat, and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So sent he his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, 'Fall not out by the way.

25 Then they went up from Egypt, and came unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he also is governor over all the land of Egypt, and Jacob's heart 'failed: for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: but when he saw the chariots, which Joseph had sent to carry him, then the spirit of Jacob their father revived.

28 And Israel said, I have enough: Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him yet I die.
12 ¶ Also the sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Perez, and Zerah: (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.) And the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 ¶ Also the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Puvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 ¶ Also the sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 Also the sons of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, and Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 ¶ Also the sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah: and Heber, Malchiel.

18 These are the children of Zilpah, whom Laban gave unto Leah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel Jacob’s wife were Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 ¶ And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh, and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah prince of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ Also the sons of Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, and Gera, Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born unto Jacob, fourteen souls in all.

23 ¶ Also the sons of Dan: Hushim.

24 ¶ Also the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob, in all seven souls.

26 All the souls, that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins (besides Jacob’s sons’ wives) were in the whole, threescore and six souls.

27 Also the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls: so that all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, are seventy.

28 ¶ Then he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his way unto Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 Then Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to Goshen to meet Israel his father, and presented himself unto him, and fell on his neck and wept upon his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die since I have seen thy face, and that thou art yet alive.

31 Then Joseph said to his brethren, and to his father’s house, I will go up and show Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my father’s house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me.

32 And the men are shepherds, and because they are shepherds, they have brought their sheep and their cattle, and all that they have.

33 And if Pharaoh call you, and ask you, What is your trade?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants are men occupied about cattle, from our childhood even unto this time, both we and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen: for every sheepe keeper is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

47:7 Jacob cometh before Pharaoh, and telleth him his age. 11 The land of Goshen is given him. 22 The idolatrous priests have living of the King. 28 Jacob’s age when he dieth.

1 Then came Joseph and told Pharaoh, and said, My father, and my brethren, and their sheep, and their cattle, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And Joseph took part of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 When Pharaoh said moreover unto Joseph, For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their sheep, so sore is the famine in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, we pray thee: let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

4 Then Joseph said to his brethren, and to his father’s house, I will go up and show Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my father’s house, which were in the land of Canaan, have come to the land of Goshen: for every sheepe keeper is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

5 Then spoke Pharaoh to Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren to dwell: let them dwell in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of activity among them, make them rulers over my cattle.

7 Joseph also brought Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob saluted Pharaoh.
8 Then Pharaoh said unto Jacob, 1How old art thou?
9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The whole time of my 'pilgrimage is an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of my life been, and I have not attained unto the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their pilgrimages.
10 And Jacob 'took leave of Pharaoh, and departed from the presence of Pharaoh.
11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gave them possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, even in the land of 4Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
12 ¶ And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household with bread even to the young children.
13 ¶ Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was excessive: so that the land of Egypt, and the land of Canaan were famished by reason of the famine.
14 And Joseph gathered all the money, that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought, and 1Joseph laid up the money in Pharaoh's house.
15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came unto Joseph and said, Give us bread: for why should we die before thee? for our money is spent.
16 Then said Joseph, Bring your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if your money be spent.
17 So they brought their cattle unto Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread for their horses, and for the flocks of sheep, and for the herds of cattle, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattle that year.
18 But when the year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and my lord hath the herds of the cattle, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our ground.
19 Why shall we perish in thy sight, both we and our 'land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be bound to Pharaoh: therefore give us seed, that we may live and not die, and that the land go not to waste.

20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold every man his ground, because the famine was sore upon them:
so the land became Pharaoh's.
21 And he 'removed the people unto the cities, from one side of Egypt even to the other.
22 Only the land of the Priests bought he not: for the Priests had an ordinary of Pharaoh, and they did eat their ordinary, which Pharaoh gave them:
wherefore they sold not their ground.
23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh:
lo, here is seed for you: sow therefore the ground.
24 And of the increase ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be yours for seed of the field, and for your meat, and for them of your households, and for your children to eat.
25 Then they answered, Thou hast saved our lives:
let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.
26 Then Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, except the land of the Priests only, which was not Pharaoh's.
27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.
28 Moreover, Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.
29 Now when the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If I have now found grace in thy sight, 5put thine hand now under my thigh, and make a covenant with me:
bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt.
30 But when I shall 4sleep with my fathers, thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial. And he answered, I will do as thou hast said.
31 Then he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And he answered, I will do as thou hast said.

48 ¶ Joseph with his two sons visiteth his sick father.
3 Jacob rehearseth God's promise. 5 He receiveth
Joseph's sons as his. 19 He preferreth the younger.

1 Again after this, one said to Joseph, Lo, thy father is sick: then he took with him his 'two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 Also one told Jacob, and said, Behold thy son Joseph is come to thee, and Israel took his strength unth to him and sat upon the bed.

3 Then Jacob said unto Joseph, God 'almighty appeared unto me at 'Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and will multiply thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will give this land unto thy seed after thee for an 'everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy 'two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, which are born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came to thee into Egypt, shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

6 But thy lineage, which thou hast begotten after them, shall be thine: they shall be called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 Now when I came from Padan, Rachel 'died upon mine hand in the land of Canaan, by the way when there was but half a day's journey of ground to come to Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath: the same is Bethlehem.

8 Then Israel beheld Joseph's sons and said, Whose are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, which 'God hath given me here. Then he said, I pray thee, bring them to me, that I may bless them:

10 (For the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not well see) Then he cause them to come to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to have seen thy face: yet lo, God hath showed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph took them away from his knees, and did reverence 'down to the ground.

13 Then took Joseph them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, so he brought them unto him.

14 But Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it on 'Ephraim's head which was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head (directing his hands of purpose) for Manasseh was the elder.

15 ¶ Also he blesseth Joseph, and said, The God, before whom my fathers, Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which hath fed me all my life long, unto this day, bless thee.

16 The 'Angel, which hath delivered me from all evil, bless the children, and let my 'name be named upon them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, that they may grow as fish into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 But when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it 'displeased him: and he stayed his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the eldest: put thy right hand upon his head.

19 But his father refused, and said, I know well, my son, I know well: he shall be also a people, and he shall be great likewise: but his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall be full of nations.

20 So he blessed them that day, and said, In thee Israel shall bless, and say, God make thee as 'Ephraim and as Manasseh, and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 Then Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die, and God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of 'your fathers.

22 Moreover, I have given unto thee one portion above thy brethren, which 'I got out of the hand of the Amorite by my 'sword and by my bow.

49 1 Jacob blesseth all his sons by name. 10 He telleth them that Christ shall come out of Judah. 29 He will be buried with his fathers. 33 He dieth.

1 Then Jacob called his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall come to you in the 'last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob. 3 Hearken unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben mine eldest son, thou art my 'might, and the beginning of my strength, 'the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Thou wast light as water: thou shalt not be 'ill be buried with his fathers. 33 He dieth.

5 Joseph more esteemeth that his children should be received into Jacob's family, which was the Church of God, than to enjoy all the treasures of Egypt.

GENESIS 49:5

49:5 ¶ Simeon and Levi, brethren in evil, the instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

49:6 Into their secret let not my soul come; my glory be not thou joined with their assembly: for in their wrath they slew a man, and in their self-will they dug down a wall.

49:7 Cursed be their wrath, for it was fierce, and their rage, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

49:8 ¶ Thou Judah, thy brethren shall praise thee: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies: thy father's son shall bow down before unto thee.

49:9 Judah as a Lion's whelp shalt thou come up from the spoil, my son. He shall lie down and couch a Lion, and as a Lioness: Who shall stir him up?

49:10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a Lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come, and the people shall be gathered unto him.

49:11 He shall bind his Ass foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the best vine. He shall wash his garment in wine, and his cloak in the blood of grapes.

49:12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

49:13 Zebulun shall dwell by the seaside, and he shall be an haven for ships: and his border shall be unto Sidon.

49:14 Issachar shall be a strong ass, couching down between two burdens:

49:15 And he shall see that rest is good, and that the land is pleasant, and he shall bow his shoulder to bear, and shall be subject unto tribute.

49:16 Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

49:26 The blessings of thy father shall be stronger than the blessings of mine elders: unto the end of the hills of the world they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

49:27 ¶ Benjamin shall raven as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

49:28 ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and thus their father spake unto them, and blessed them: every one of them blessed he with a several blessing.

49:29 And he charged them and said unto them, I am ready to be gathered unto my people: 'bury me with my fathers in the cave, that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 49:30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, besides Mamre in the land of Canaan: which cave Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession to bury in.

49:31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife:

49:32 His force shall be great, but he shall want courage to resist his enemies.

49:33 Shall have the honor of a tribe.

49:34 That is, full of subtlety.

1 Jacob is buried. 19 Joseph forgiveth his brethren. 23 He seeth his children's children. 26 He dieth.

1 Then Joseph fell upon his father's face and wept upon him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 So forty days were accomplished (for so long did the days of them that were embalmed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him seventy days.
4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I have now found favor in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears, of Pharaoh, and say.
5 My father made me swear saying, Lo, I die, bury me in my grave, which I have made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me go, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.
6 Then Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, as he made thee to swear.
7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went all the servants of Pharaoh, both the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
8 Likewise all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their children, and their sheep, and their cattle left they in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and they were an exceeding great company.
10 And they came to Goren Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they made a great and exceeding lamentation: and he mourned for his father seven days.
11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land saw the mourning in Goren Atad, they said, This is a great mourning unto the Egyptians: wherefore the land saw the mourning in Goren Atad, they said, This is a place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite beside Mamre.
12 So his sons did unto him, according as he had commanded them:
13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, to be a place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite beside Mamre.
14 Then Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after that he had buried his father.
15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will pay us again all the evil which we did unto him.
16 Therefore they sent unto Joseph, saying, Thy father commanded before his death, saying, 17 Thus shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive now, I pray thee, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin: for they rewarded thee evil. And now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of thy father's God. And Joseph wept, when they spake unto him.
18 Also his brethren came unto him, and fell down before his face, and said, Behold, we be thy servants.
19 To whom Joseph said, Fear not: for I am not I under God? 20 When ye thought evil against me, God disposed it to good, that he might bring to pass, as it is this day, and save much people alive.
21 Fear not now therefore, I will nourish you, and your children: and he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.
22 So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.
23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children, even unto the third generation: also the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought upon Joseph's knees.
24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am ready to die, and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land, unto the land which he sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob.
25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry my bones hence.
26 So Joseph died, when he was an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and put him in a chest in Egypt.

50:21 Hebrew, to their heart.
50:22 Who, notwithstanding he bare rule in Egypt about fourscore years, yet was joined with the church of God in faith and religion.
1. The children of Jacob that came into Egypt. 8. The new Pharaoh oppresseth them. 12. The providence of God toward them. 15. The King’s commandment to the midwives. 22. The sons of the Hebrews are commanded to be cast into the river.

1. Now these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt (every man and his household came thither with Jacob): 2. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3. Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, 4. Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. 5. So all the souls, that came out of the loins of Jacob, were seventy souls: Joseph was in Egypt already. 6. Now Joseph died and all his brethren, and that whole generation.

7. ¶ And the children of Israel brought forth fruit and increased in abundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mighty, so that the land was full of them. 8. Then there rose up a new King in Egypt, who knew not Joseph. 9. And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are greater, and mightier than we. 10. Come, let us work wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that if there be war, they join themselves also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and get them out of the land. 11. Therefore did they set taskmasters over them, to keep them under with burdens: and they built the cities Pithom and Raamses for the treasures of Pharaoh. 12. But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grew: therefore they were more grievous against the children of Israel. 13. Wherefore the Egyptians by cruelty caused the children of Israel to serve. 14. Thus they made them weary of their lives by sore labor in clay and in brick, and in all work in the field, with all manner of bondage, which they laid upon them most cruelly. 15. ¶ Moreover the King of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Hebrew women (of which the one’s name was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah). 16. And said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Hebrews, and see them on their stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her live. 17. Notwithstanding the midwives feared God, and did not as the King of Egypt commanded them, but preserved alive the men children. 18. Then the King of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done thus, and have preserved alive the men children? 19. And the midwives answered Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come at them. 20. God therefore prospered the midwives, and the people multiplied, and were very mighty. 21. And because the midwives feared God, therefore he made them houses. 22. Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every man-child that is born, cast ye into the river, but reserve every maid-child alive.

2. Moses is born and cast into the flags. 5. He is taken up of Pharaoh’s daughter and kept. 12. He killeth the Egyptian. 15 He fleeth and marrieth a wife. 23 The Israelites cry unto the Lord.

1 Then there went a 1man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a son: and when she saw that he was fair, 2she hid him three months.

3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark made of reed, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and laid the child therein, and put it among the bulrushes by the river's brink.

4 Now his sister stood afar off, to wit what would come of him.

5 ¶ Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash her in the river, and her maidens walked by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the bulrushes, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 Then she opened it, and saw it was a child, and behold, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister unto Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call unto thee a nurse of the Hebrew women to nurse thee the child?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. So the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 To whom Pharaoh's daughter said, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will reward thee. Then the woman took the child, and nursed him.

10 Now the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he was as her son, and she called his name Moses, because, said she, I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And in those days, when Moses was 1grown, he went forth unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: also he saw an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew one of his brethren.

12 And he looked 2round about, and when he saw no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 Again he came forth the second day, and behold two Hebrews strove: and he said unto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he answered, Who made thee a man of authority, and a judge over us? Thinkest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses feared and said, Certainly this thing is known.

15 Now Pharaoh heard this matter, and sought to slay Moses: therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

16 And the 1Priest of Midian had seven daughters, which came and drew water, and filled the troughs, for to water their father's sheep.

17 Then the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses rose up, and 3defended them, and watered their sheep.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How are ye come so soon today?

19 And they said, A man of Egypt delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and also drew us water enough, and watered their sheep.

20 Then he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why have ye so left the man? 2call him that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses agreed to dwell with the man: who gave unto Moses Zipporah his daughter:

22 And she bare a son, 1whose name he called Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ Then in process of time, the King of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed for the bondage and 3cried: and their cry for the bondage came unto God.

24 Then God heard their moan, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

25 So God looked upon the children of Israel, and God 3had respect unto them.

3 1Moses keepeth sheep, and God appeareth unto him in a bush. 10 He sendeth him to deliver the children of Israel. 14 The name of God.

1 When Moses kept the sheep of Jethro his father-in-law, Priest of Midian, and drove the flock to the 1back side of the desert, and came to the 2Mountain of God, 3Horeb,

2 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a 3bush, and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

2:12 1 Hebrew, thus and thus.

2:14 1 Though by his fear he showed his infirmity, yet faith covered it, Heb. 11:27.

2:16 1 Or, prince.
3 Therefore Moses said, I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush burneth not.
4 And when the Lord saw that he turned aside, he called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he answered, I am here.
5 Then he said, Come not nigh hither, put thy shoes off thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.
6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.
7 ¶ Then the Lord said, I have surely seen the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, because of their taskmasters: for I know their sorrows.
8 Therefore I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land into a good land and a large, into a land that floweth with milk and honey, even into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
9 And now lo, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me, and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.
10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.
11 ¶ But Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?
12 And he answered, Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee.
13 Then Moses said unto God, Behold, when I shall come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers hath sent me unto you: if they say unto me, What is his Name? what shall I say unto them?
14 And God answered Moses, I AM THAT I AM. Also he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.
15 And God spake further unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob hath sent me unto you: this is my Name forever, and this is my memorial unto all ages.
16 Go and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob appeared unto me, and said, I have surely remembered you, and that which is done to you in Egypt.
17 Therefore I did say, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land that floweth with milk and honey.
18 Then shall they obey my voice, and thou and the Elders of Israel shall go unto the King of Egypt, and say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath met with us: we pray thee now therefore, let us go three days' journey in the wilderness, that we may sacrifice unto the Lord our God.
19 ¶ But I know, that the King of Egypt will not let you go, but by strong hand.
20 Therefore will I stretch out mine hand and smite Egypt with all my wonders, which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that shall he let you go.
21 And I will make this people to be favored of the Egyptians: so that when ye go, ye shall not go empty.
22 ¶ For every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of gold and raiment, and ye shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters, and shall spoil the Egyptians.

3 Moses’ rod is turned into a serpent. 6 His hand is leprous. 9 The water of the river is turned into blood. 14 Aaron is given to help Moses. 21 God hardeneth Pharaoh. 25 Moses’ wife circumciseth her son.

1 Then Moses answered, and said, But lo, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared unto thee.
2 And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he answered, A rod.

3 Then said he, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the ground, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it.

4 Again the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. Then he put forth his hand and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

5 Do this that they may believe, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the Lord said furthermore unto him, Thrust now thine hand into thy bosom. And he thrust his hand into his bosom, and beheld his hand was leprous as snow.

7 Moreover he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. So he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 So shall it be, if they will not believe thee, neither obey the voice of the first sign, yet shall they believe for the voice of the second sign.

9 But if they will not yet believe these two signs, neither obey unto thy voice, then shalt thou take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: so the water which thou shalt take out of the river, shall be turned to blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ But Moses said unto the Lord, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither at any time have been, nor yet since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.

11 Then the Lord said unto him, Who hath given the mouth to man? or who hath made the dumb, or the deaf, or him that seeth, or the blind? have not I the mouth to man? or who hath made the dumb, or the deaf, or the blind, or the dumb? have not I given thee all these signs?

12 Therefore go now, and I will be with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 But he said, Oh my Lord, send, I pray thee, by him whom thou shalt send.

14 ¶ And he said, I will surely return to thee, and will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my words unto him.

15 Therefore thou shalt speak unto him, and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be as thy mouth, and thou shalt be to him as God.

17 Moreover thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do miracles.

18 ¶ Therefore Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, I pray thee, let me go, and return to my brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. Then Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 (For the Lord had said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return to Egypt: for they are all dead which went about to kill thee.)

20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons, and put them on an ass, and returned toward the land of Egypt, and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, When thou art gone in unto Pharaoh, thus shalt thou say unto him, thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my firstborn.

22 Wherefore I say to thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

23 And he said, I will not let Israel go.

24 ¶ And as he was by the way in the Inn, the Lord met him, and said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a pleasant

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp knife, and cut away the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Thou art indeed a bloody husband unto me.

26 So he departed from him. Then she said, O bloody husband! (because of the circumcision).

27 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Aaron, Go meet that he himself shall speak? for lo, he cometh also forth to meet thee, and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

28 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thee a rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and thy brother, and Aaron with thee.

29 And this shalt thou do in their sight, that thou mayest be to me a spokesman and a prophet unto this people: and it shall come to pass, when I am pleased to speak unto thee, that I will put my words in thine mouth.

30 And thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thou the rod of Pharaoh's sons, and shall be thine

31 Then Moses went and told Pharaoh, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Out of Egypt shall my people go to serve me.

32 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, and will not let Israel go.

33 And they shall say, What is this that he hath done? that thou mightest know that I am the Lord: for they shall be my people, and I will be with thee; and I will do these six signs in this people.

34 ¶ And he did so: and the Lord gave him success in all his words and in all that he said.
Moses in the wilderness. And he went and met him in the 'Mount of God, and kissed him.

28 Then Moses told Aaron all the words of the Lord, who had sent him, and all the signs wherewith he had charged him.

29 ¶ So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron told all the words, which the Lord had spoken unto Moses, and he did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed, and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and had looked upon their tribulation, they bowed down, and worshipped.

5 1 Moses and Aaron do their message unto Pharaoh, who oppresseth the people of Israel more and more. 20 They cry out upon Moses and Aaron therefore, and Moses complaineth unto God.

1 Then afterward Moses and Aaron went and said to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may celebrate a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should hear his voice, and let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, We worship the God of the Hebrews: we pray thee, let us go three days’ journey in the desert, and sacrifice unto the Lord our God, lest he bring upon us the pestilence or sword.

4 Then said the King of Egypt unto them, Moses and Aaron, why cause ye the people to cease from their work? get you to your burdens.

5 Pharaoh said furthermore, Behold, much people is now in the land, and ye make them leave their burdens.

6 Therefore Pharaoh gave commandment the same day unto the taskmasters of the people, and to their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall give the people no more straw, to make brick, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let us go to offer sacrifice unto our God.

9 ¶ Lay more work upon the men, and cause them to do it, and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ Then went the taskmasters of the people and their officers out, and told the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will give you no more straw.

11 Go yourselves, get ye straw where ye can find it, yet shall nothing of your labor be diminished.

12 Then were the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hastened them, saying, Finish your day’s work every day’s task, as ye did when ye had straw.

14 And the Officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your [task] in making brick yesterday and today, as in times past?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus thy servants?

16 There is no straw given to thy servants, and they say unto us, Make brick: and lo, thy servants are beaten, and thy people is blamed.

17 But he said, Ye are too much idle: therefore ye say, Let us go to offer sacrifice to the Lord.

18 Go therefore now and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the whole tale of brick.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israel saw themselves in an evil case, because it was said, Ye shall diminish nothing of your brick, nor of every day’s task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out from Pharaoh.

21 To whom they said, The Lord look upon you and judge: for ye have made our savor to stink before Pharaoh and before his servants, in that ye have put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath vexed this people, and yet thou hast not delivered thy people.

8 God reneweth his promise of deliverance of the Israelites. 9 Moses speaketh to the Israelites, but they believe him not. 10 Moses and Aaron are sent again unto Pharaoh.

1 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see, what I will do unto Pharaoh: for by a strong hand shall he let them go, and even be constrained to drive them out of his land.

2 Moreover God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the Lord,

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob by the Name of 1Almighty God, but by my Name 2Jehovah was I not known unto them.

4 Furthermore as I made my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers:

5 So I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say thou unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will deliver you out of their bondage, and will redeem you in a stretched out arm, and in great judgments.

7 Also I will take you for my people, and will be your God: then ye shall know that I the Lord your God bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the land which I sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob by the Name of 3Jehovah their God: for this Name declareth that he is constant of spirit and for cruel bondage.

9 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying:

10 Go speak to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

11 But Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the children of Israel hearken not unto me, how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

12 Then the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and charged them to go to the children of Israel and to Pharaoh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the heads 2of their father’s houses:

EXODUS 6:30

30 Then Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hear me?

CHAPTER 7

7 3 God hardeneth Pharaoh's heart. 10 Moses and Aaron do the miracles of the serpent, and the blood; and Pharaoh's sorcerers do the like.

1 Then the Lord said to Moses, Behold, I have made thee my 2Pharaoh's 2God, and Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I commanded thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he suffer the children of Israel to go out of his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my miracles, and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, 3even my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great judgments.

5 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, 3even so did they.

7 (Now Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three, when they spake unto Pharaoh.)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh speak unto you, saying, Show a miracle for you, then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall be turned into a serpent.

10 ¶ Then went Moses and Aaron unto Pharaoh, and did even as the Lord had commanded, and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and sorcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aaron's rod devoured their rods.

13 So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not to them, as the Lord had said.

7:1 1 Or, a God to Pharaoh.

2 I have given thee power and authority to speak in my name and to execute my judgments upon him.

3 Or, shall speak for thee (before Pharaoh.)

4 To strengthen Moses' faith, God promiseth again to punish Pharaoh's sorcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments.

5 Moses lived in affliction and banishment forty years before he enjoined his office to deliver God's people.

6:30 1 The disobedience both of Moses and of the people, sheweth that their deliverance came only of God's free mercy.

7:1 1 Or, a God to Pharaoh.

2 I have given thee power and authority to speak in my name and to execute my judgments upon him.

3 Or, shall speak for thee (before Pharaoh.)

4 To strengthen Moses' faith, God promiseth again to punish most sharply the oppression of his Church.

7:7 1 Moses lived in affliction and banishment forty years before he enjoined his office to deliver God's people.

7:9 1 Or, dragon.

7:11 1 It seemeth that these were Jannes and Jambres: read 2 Tim. 3:8, so ever the wicked maliciously resist the truth of God.

7:14 1 Or, heavy and dull.

7:15 1 To wit, the river Nile.

7:18 1 Or, they shall be weary, and abhor to drink.

7:19 1 The first plague.

7:21 1 To signify that it was a true miracle, and that God plagued them in that which was most necessary for the preservation of life.

7:22 1 In outward appearance, and after that the seven days were ended.

7:23 1 Hebrew, he set not his heart at all thereunto.
25 And this 1continued fully seven days after the Lord had smitten the river.

8 6 Frogs are sent. 13 Moses prayeth, and they die. 17 Lice are sent, whereby the sorcerers acknowledge God's power. 24 Egypt is plagued with noisome flies. 30 Moses prayeth again.

1 Afterward the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou wilt not let them go, behold, I will smite all thy country with 1frogs:

3 And the river shall crawl full of frogs, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy chamber, where thou sleepest, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy ovens, and 1into thy kneading troughs.

4 Yea, the frogs shall climb up upon thee, and on thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ Also the Lord said to Moses, Say thou unto Aaron, Stretch out thine hand with thy rod upon the streams, upon the rivers, and upon the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched out his hand upon the waters of Egypt, and the 1frogs came up and covered the land of 2Egypt.

7 And the sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogs up upon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, 1Pray ye unto the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, 1Concerning me, even 1command when I shall pray for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and from thine houses, that they may remain in the river only.

10 Then he said, Tomorrow. And he answered, Be it 1as thou hast said, that thou mayest know, that there is none like unto the Lord our God.

11 So the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thine houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people: only they shall remain in the river.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the Lord concerning the frogs, which he had 1sent unto Pharaoh.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: So the frogs 1died in the houses, in the towns, and the fields.

14 And they gathered them together by heaps, and the land stank of them.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that he had rest given him, he 1hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

16 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may be turned to 1lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand upon the earth with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and lice came upon man and upon beast: all the dust of the earth was lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the enchanters assayed likewise with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they 1could not. So the lice were upon man and upon beast.

19 Then said the enchanters unto Pharaoh, This is 1the finger of God. But Pharaoh's heart remained obstinate, and he hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

20 ¶ Moreover the Lord said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (lo, he will come forth unto the water) and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send 1swarms of flies both upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine houses: all the dust of Egypt shall be full of swarms of flies, and the ground also whereon they are.

22 But the land of Goshen, where my people are, will I cause to be 1wonderful in that day, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the 2earth.

23 And I will make a deliverance of my people from thy people: tomorrow shall this miracle be.

24 And the Lord did so: for there came 1great swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, so that through all the land of 7:25 1 Or seven days accomplished.

8:2 1 There is nothing so weak, that God cannot cause to overcome the greatest power of man.
8:3 1 Or, upon thy dough, or into thine ambries.
8:6 1 The second plague.

2 But Goshen, where God's people dwelt, was excepted.
8:8 1 Not love, but fear causeth the very Infidels to seek unto God.
8:9 1 Hebrew, have this honor over me.

2 Or, speak plain unto me.
8:10 1 Hebrew, according to thy word.
8:12 1 Or, laid upon.

8:13 1 In things of this life God oft times heareth the prayers of the just for the ungodly.
8:15 1 Or, made his heart heavy.
8:16 1 The third plague.
8:18 1 God confounded their wisdom and authority in a thing most vile.
8:19 1 They acknowledged that this was done by God's power and not by sorcery. Luke 11:20.
8:21 1 Or, a multitude of venomous beasts as serpents, etc.
8:22 1 Or, I will separate.
2 Or, land of Egypt.
8:24 1 The fourth plague.
Egypt, the earth was corrupt by the swarms of flies.
25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Go, do sacrifice unto your God in this land.
26 And Moses answered, It is not meet to do so: for then we should offer unto the Lord our God that which is an abomination unto the Egyptians. Lo, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone us?
27 Let us go three days' journey in the desert, and sacrifice unto the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us.
28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice unto the Lord your God in the wilderness: but go not far away, pray for me.
29 And Moses said, Behold, I will go out from thee, and pray unto the Lord, that the swarms of flies depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow: but let Pharaoh from henceforth deceive no more, in not suffering the people to sacrifice unto the Lord.
30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed unto the Lord.
31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, and the swarms of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, and there remained not one.
32 Yet Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, and did not let the people go.

3 The moraine of beasts. 10 The plague of botches and sores. 23 The horrible hail, thunder, and lightning. 26 The land of Goshen ever is excepted. 27 Pharaoh confesseth his wickedness. 33 Moses prayed for him. 35 Yet he is obstinate.

1 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
2 But if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt yet hold them still,
3 Behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thy flock which is in the field: for upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the cattle, and upon the sheep shall be a mighty great moraine.
4 And the Lord shall do wonderfully between the beasts of Israel, and the beasts of Egypt: so that and his favor toward his children.

9:7-9:3

1 Into the land of Goshen, where the Israelites dwelled.
9:8 Or, embers.
9:10 The sixth plague.
9:14 So that thine own conscience shall condemn thee of ingratitude and malice.
9:16 Or, set thee up.
2 Or, to show thee.
3 That is, that all the world may magnify my power in overcoming thee.
9:19 1 Here we see though God’s wrath be kindled, yet there is a certain mercy showed even to his enemies.
9:21 1 Hebrew, set not his heart to.
9:23 1 The seventh plague.
9:24 1 Or, since it was inhabited.
9:27 1 The wicked confess their sins to their condemnation, but they cannot believe to obtain remission.
9:28 1 Hebrew, voice of God.
9:30 1 Meaning, that when they have their request, they are never the better, though they make many fair promises, wherein we see the practices of the wicked.
9:32 1 Or, late sown.
9:35 1 Hebrew, by the hand of Moses.
10:1 1 Or, in his presence, or among them.
10:2 1 The miracles should be so great, that they should be spoken of for ever: where also we see the duty of parents toward their children.
10:3 1 The end of affliction is, to humble ourselves with true repentance under the hand of God.
10:4 1 Or, locusts.

a mighty great hail, such as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laid unto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and 1 gather the cattle, and all and that thou hast in the field: 2 for upon all the men, and the beasts, which are found in the field, and not brought home, the hail shall fall upon them, and they shall die.

20 Such 1 then as feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses.

21 But such as 1 regarded not the 2 word of the Lord, left his servants, and his cattle in the field.

22 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon all the herbs of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven, and the Lord sent thunder and 1 hail, and 2 lightning upon the ground: and the Lord caused hail to rain upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so grievous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since 1 it was a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast:
also the hail smote all the trees of the field and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no hail.

27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I 1 have now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.
28 Pray ye unto the Lord (for it is enough) that thou mayest declare in the 1 ears of thy servants, that I might work these 1 my miracles in the midst of his 1 realm.

29 Then Moses said unto him, As soon as I am out of the city, I will spread mine hands unto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail, that thou mayest know that the earth is the Lord’s.

30 As for thee and thy servants, I know 1 afore I pray, ye will fear before the face of the Lord God.
31 1 And the flax, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flax was bollèd.
32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten, for they were hid in the ground.

33 Then Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread his hands to the Lord, and the thunder and the hail ceased, neither rained it upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder were ceased, he sinned again, and hardened his heart, 1 both he, and his servants.

35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the Lord had said 1 by Moses.

7 Pharaoh’s servants counsel him to let the Israelites depart. 13 Grasshoppers destroy the country.

16 Pharaoh confesseth his sin. 22 Darkness is sent.

1 Again the Lord said unto Moses, Go to Pharaoh, ‘for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might work these 1 my miracles in the midst of his 1 realm.

2 And that thou mayest declare in the ‘ears of thy son, and of thy son’s son, what things I have done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I have done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

3 Then came Moses and Aaron unto Pharaoh, and they said unto him, ‘Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse 1 to humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow will I bring 1 grasshoppers into thy coasts.

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that a man cannot see the earth: and they shall eat the residue which remaineth unto you, and hath escaped from the hail: and they shall eat all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shall fill thine houses, and all thy servants’ houses, and the houses of all the Egyp­tians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers’ fathers have seen, since the time they were upon the earth unto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaoh’s servants said unto him, How cast them into the 'red Sea, so that there remained not one grasshopper in all the land of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be upon the land of Egypt darkness, even darkness that may be 'felt.

22 Then Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven, and there was a 1black darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

23 No man saw another, neither rose up from the place where he was for three days: but all the children of Israel had light where they dwelt.

24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses, and said, Go serve the Lord: only your sheep and your cattle shall abide, and your children shall go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices, and burnt offerings that we may do sacrifice unto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattle also shall go with us: there shall not an 1hoof be left, for thereof must we take to sacrifice unto the Lord our God.

27 (But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.)

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me: look thou see my face no more: for whosoever thou comest in my sight, thou shalt 'die.

29 Then Moses said, Thou hast said well: from henceforth will I see thy face no more.

1 God promiseth their departure. 2 He willleth them to borrow their neighbors' jewels. 3 Moses was esteemed of all save Pharaoh.

1 Now the Lord had said unto Moses, yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt, after that, he will let you go hence: when he letteth you go, he shall 1at once chase you hence.

2 Speak thou now to the people, that every man 'require of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, 1jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: also Moses was very great in the 10:7 1 Or, snare.

2 Meaning, the occasion of all these evils: so are the godly ever charged as Elijah was by Ahab.

10:10 1 That is, I would the Lord were no more affectioned toward you, than I am minded to let you go.

2 Punishment is prepared for you. Some read, Ye intend some mischief.

10:13 1 The eighth plague.

10:14 1 Or, he caused them to remain.

10:16 1 The wicked in their miseries seek to God's ministers for help, albeit they hate and detest them.

10:19 1 The water seemed red, because the sand or gravel is red: the Hebrews called it the Sea of bulrushes.

10:21 1 Because it was so thick.

10:22 1 The ninth plague.

10:26 1 The ministers of God ought not to yield one iota to the wicked, as touching their charge.

2 That is, with what beasts, or how many.

10:28 1 Though before he confessed Moses just, yet again his own conscience he threateneth to put him to death.

11:1 1 Without any condition, but with haste and violence.

11:2 1 Or, borrow.
land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt.

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth on his throne, unto the firstborn of the maid servant, that is at the mill, and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was never none like, nor shall be.

7 But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog move his tongue, neither against man nor beast, that ye may know that the Lord putteth a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and fall before me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that are at thy feet, and after this will I depart. So he went out from Pharaoh very angry.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hear you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he suffered not the children of Israel to go out of his land.

12:2 26 The fathers must teach their children the mystery thereof.

29 The firstborn are slain. 31 The Israelites are driven out of the land. 35 The Egyptians are spoiled. 37 The number that departed out of Egypt.

1 Then the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This 1month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be to you the first 1month of the year.

3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month let every man take unto him a lamb, according to the house of the fathers, a lamb for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, he shall take his neighbor, which is next unto his house, according to the number of the persons: every one of you, according to his 1eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of a year old: ye shall take it of the lambs, or of the kids.

6 And ye shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month: then 1all the multitude of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at even.

7 After, they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two posts, and on the upper doorpost of the houses where they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh that same night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread: with 2herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not thereof raw, boiled nor sodden in water, but roast with fire, both his 1head, his feet, and his purtenance.

10 And ye shall reserve nothing of it unto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it unto the morrow shall ye burn with fire.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it, Your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staves in your hands, and ye shall eat it in haste: for 1it is the Lord's Passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt the same night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute judgment upon all the 1gods of Egypt, I am the Lord.

13 And the blood shall be a token for you upon the houses where ye are: so when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you a remembrance: and ye shall keep it an holy feast unto the Lord, throughout your generations: ye shall keep it holy by an ordinance forever.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread, and in any case ye shall put away leaven the first day out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day shall be an holy assembly: also in the seventh day shall be an holy assembly unto you: no work shall be done in them, save about that which every man must eat: that only may ye do.

17 Ye shall keep also the feast of unleavened bread: for that same day I will bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shall observe this day, throughout your posterity, by an ordinance forever.
18 ¶ In the first month and the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread unto the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall no leaven be found in your houses: for whatsoever eateth leavened bread, that person shall be cut off from the Congregation of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat no leavened bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said unto them, Choose out and take you for every of your households a lamb, and kill the Passover.

22 And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel, and the door cheeks with the blood that is in the basin, and let none of you go out at the door of the house, until the morning.

23 For the Lord will pass by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel and on the two door cheeks, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shall ye observe this thing as an ordinance, both for thee and thy sons forever.

25 And when ye shall come into the land, which the Lord will give you, as he hath promised, then ye shall keep this service.

26 ¶ And when your children ask you, What service is this ye keep?

27 Then ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's Passover, which passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and preserved our houses. Then the people bowed themselves and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

29 ¶ Now at midnight, the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the firstborn of the captive that was in prison, and all the firstborn of beasts.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians: and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, get you out from among my people, both ye, and the children of Israel, and go serve the Lord as ye have said.

32 Take also your sheep and your cattle as ye have said, and depart, and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We die all.

34 Therefore the people took their dough before it was leavened, even their dough bound in clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians their jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: and they granted their request: so they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ Then the children of Israel took their journey from Rameses to Succoth about six hundred thousand men of foot, besides children.

38 And a great multitude of sundry sorts of people went out with them, and sheep, and beeves, and cattle in great abundance.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, and made unleavened cakes: for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither could they tarry, nor yet prepare themselves vittles.

40 ¶ So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And when the four hundred and thirty years were expired, even the selfsame day departed all the hosts of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be kept holy to the Lord, because he brought them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keep throughout their generations.

43 Also the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the Law of the Passover: no stranger shall eat thereof.

44 But every servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A stranger or an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 ¶ In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt carry none of the flesh out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the Congregation of Israel shall observe it.

48 But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will observe the passover of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males, that belong unto him, and then let him come and observe it, and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for none uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is born in the land, and to the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 Then all the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

51 And the selfsame day did the Lord bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

13 The firstborn are offered to God. 3 The memorial of their deliverance. 6 The institution of the Passover. 8, 14 An exhortation to teach their children to remember this deliverance. 17 Why they are led by the wilderness. 19 The bones of Joseph. 21 The pillar of the cloud and of the fire.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify unto me all the firstborn: that is, every one that first openeth the womb among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beast: for it is mine.

3 ¶ Then Moses said unto the people, Remember this day in which ye came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage: for by a mighty hand the Lord brought you out from thence: therefore no leavened bread shall be eaten.

4 This day come ye out in the month of Abib.

5 ¶ Now when the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hivites, and Jebusites, (which he sware unto thy fathers, that he would give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey) then thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and the seventh day shall be the feast of the Lord.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days, and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, nor yet leaven be seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt show thy son in that day, saying, This is done, because of that which the Lord did unto me, when I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a remembrance between thine eyes, that the Law of the Lord may be in thy mouth: for by a strong hand the Lord brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Keep therefore this ordinance in his season appointed from year to year.

11 ¶ And when the Lord shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 Then shalt thou set apart unto the Lord all that first openeth the womb: also everything that first doth open the womb, and cometh forth of thy beast: the males shall be the Lord's.

13 But every first foal of an ass, thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck: likewise also the firstborn of man among thy sons shalt thou buy out.

14 ¶ And when thy son shall ask thee tomorrow, saying, What is this? thou shalt then say unto him, With a mighty hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 For when Pharaoh was hard hearted against our departing, the Lord then slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man even to the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice unto the Lord all the males that first open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.

16 And it shall be as a token upon thine hand, and as frontlets between thine eyes, that the Lord's hand opened the womb: also everything that first doth open the womb, and cometh forth of thy beast, shall be the Lord's.

17 ¶ Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God carried them not by the way of the Philistines’ country, though it were nearer: (for God said, Lest the people repent when they see war, and turn again to Egypt).

18 But God made the people to go about by the way of the wilderness of the red sea: and the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 (And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you.)

20 ¶ So they took their journey from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud to lead them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might go both day and by night.

22 ¶He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

14 And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he pursued the Israelites. And the angel of the Lord went on before them and saved them, and he made the Egyptians follow them.

1 Then the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, that they return and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the Sea, over against Baal Zephon: about it shall ye camp by the Sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land: the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart that he shall follow after you: so I will get me honor upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host: the Egyptians also shall know that I am the Lord: and they did so.

5 ¶Then it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we this done, and have let Israel go out of our service?

6 And he made ready his chariots, and took his people with him,

7 And took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 (For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an high hand.)

9 ¶And the Egyptians pursued after them, and all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen and his host overtook them camping by the Sea, beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and beheld, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were sore afraid: wherefore the children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

11 And they said unto Moses, Hast thou brought us to die in the wilderness, because there were no graves in Egypt? wherefore hast thou served us thus, to carry us out of Egypt?

12 Did not I say unto thee, Go into the wilderness, to feed your flocks? Wherefore said ye, Should we bring back to Egypt our sheep and our cattle?

13 Then Moses said to the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and behold the salvation of the Lord which he will show to you this day. For the Egyptians whom ye have seen this day, ye shall never see them again.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore hold you your peace.

15 ¶And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 And lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the Sea and divide it, and let the children of Israel go on dry ground through the midst of the Sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may follow them, and I will get me honor upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gotten me honor upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 (And the Angel of God, which went before the host of Israel, removed, and went behind them: also the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them, 20 And came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel: it was both a cloud and darkness, yet gave it light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other.)

21 And Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea and divided it, and let the children of Israel go through the midst of the Sea.

22 ¶And Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea: and the waters were divided.

23 And the waters were divided, and the Egyptians went after them, and the waters were divided.

24 And the waters that divided came back, and covered the chariots and horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came after them into the Sea: and there was not one left of them.

25 But the children of Israel went through the midst of the Sea, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

13:21 1 To defend them from the heat of the sun.

14:12 1 Such is the impatience of the flesh, that it cannot abide God's appointed time.

14:13 1 Or, deliverance.

14:14 1 Only put your trust in God without grudging or doubting.

14:15 1 Thus in temptations faith fighteth against the flesh, and crieth with inward groanings to the Lord.

14:20 1 The cloud showeth light to the Israelites, but to the Egyptians it was darkness, so that their two hosts could not join together.
23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the midst of the Sea, even all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now, in the morning 1watch, when the Lord looked unto the host of the Egyptians, out of the fiery and cloudy pillar, he struck the host of the Egyptians with fear.

25 For he took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them with 2much ado: so that the Egyptians every one said, I will flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord figheth for them against the Egyptians.

26 4 Then the Lord said to Moses, Stretch thine hand upon the Sea, that the waters may return upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and upon their horsemen.

27 Then Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord 1overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the Sea.

28 So the water returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, even all the host of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land through the midst of the Sea, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saved Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the Sea bank.

31 And Israel saw the mighty 1power, which the Lord showed upon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his 2servant Moses.

15 1, 20 Moses with the men and women sing praises unto God for their deliverance. 23 The people murmur. 25 At the prayer of Moses the bitter waters are sweet. 26 God teacheth the people obedience.

1 Then 1sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and said in this manner, I will sing unto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and him that rode upon him hath he overthrown in the Sea.

2 The Lord is my strength, and 3praise, and he is become my salvation. He is my God, and I will 4prepare him a tabernacle: he is my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

3 The Lord is a 5man of war, his 6Name is Jehovah.

4 Pharaoh’s chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also were drowned in the red Sea.

5 The depths have covered them, they sank to the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath bruised the enemy.

7 And in thy great glory thou hast overthrown them that rose against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as the stubble.

8 And by the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered, the floods stood still as an heap, the depths congealed together in the 1heart of the Sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake them, I will divide the spoil, my lust shall be satisfied upon them, I will draw my sword, mine hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou blewest with thy wind, the sea covered them, they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the 1gods! Who is like thee so glorious in holiness, 4fearful in praises, doing wonders!

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou wilt by thy mercy carry this people, which thou deliveredst, thou wilt bring them in thy strength unto thine holy 1habitation.

14 The people shall hear and be afraid: sorrow shall come upon the inhabitants of Philistia.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed, and trembling shall come upon the great men of Moab: all the inhabitanats of Canaan shall wax faint hearted.

16 4Fear and dread shall fall upon them: because of the 5greatness of thine arm, they shall be still as the stone, till thy people pass, O Lord: till this people pass, which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine 6inheritance, which is the place that thou hast prepared, O Lord, for to dwell in, even the sanctuary, O Lord, which thine hands shall establish.

18 The Lord shall reign forever and ever.

19 For Pharaoh's horses went with his chariots and horsemen into the sea, and the Lord brought the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the Prophetess, sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women came out after her with timbrels and dances.

21 And Miriam answered the men, Sing ye unto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he overthrown in the sea.

22 Then Moses brought Israel from the red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried unto the Lord, and the Lord showed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were sweet: there he made them an ordinance and a law, and there he proved them,

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken, O Israel, unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear unto his commandments, and keep all his ordinances, then will I put none of these diseases upon thee, which I brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

27 ¶ And they came to Elim, where were twelve fountains of water, and seventy palm trees, and they camped there by the waters.

16 The Israelites come to the desert of Sin, and murmur against Moses and Aaron. 13 The Lord sendeth Quails and Manna. 23 The Sabbath is sanctified unto the Lord. 27 The seventh day Manna could not be found.

1 Afterward all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from Elim, and came to the wilderness of Sin, (which is between Elim and Sinai) the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron in the wilderness.

3 For the children of Israel said to them, Oh that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, when we were bread our bellies full: for ye have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole company with famine.

4 ¶ Then said the Lord unto Moses, Behold, I will cause bread to rain from heaven to you, and the people shall go out, and gather that that is sufficient for every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law or no.

5 But the sixth day they shall prepare that, which they shall bring home, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 Then Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even ye shall know, that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning ye shall see the glory of the Lord: for he hath heard your grudgings against the Lord: and what are we that ye have murmured against us?

8 Again, Moses said, At even shall the Lord give you flesh to eat, and in the morning your fill of bread: for the Lord hath heard your murmurings, which ye murmur against him: for what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the Lord.

9 ¶ And Moses said to Aaron, Say unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, Draw near before the Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aaron spake unto the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

11 (For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tell them therefore, and say, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread, and it is kept for a remembrance to the posterity.

13 The Lord said unto Moses, And I will give you Quails: for I have heard how ye have murmured against me, saying, Our flesh is spent.

14 And the Lord spake unto Moses, Go to the people, and sanctify them to morrow, and they shall sanctify themselves, and wash they flesh, and be purified.

15 And they shall take a scape lamb for every house, one bullock, and two young bullocks of the flock, and two rams, and a he goat for a sin offering.

16 And they shall bring the bullocks for the sin offering, and the bullocks and the rams and the lambs for burnt offerings, with their libations, and their oblations, which are bread made without leaven, and shall offer them for a sacrifice before the Lord.

17 And the people did according to the word of Moses, and sanctified themselves, and washed their flesh.

18 And they went out at morning, and saw the cloud, and said, This is the show of the Lord, as when he said he would come.

19 Then Moses and Aaron said unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, This is the thing which the Lord commandeth.

20 Take ye unto you of the he goats, two HS

21 And Aaron took the censer, and put incense in it, and went into the midst of the congregation unto the people, and they cried with loud voices.

22 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take not upon thee to come near the breach of the sanctuary, lest thou die: for the Lord is among the breach of the sanctuary.

23 And the people waited at the door of the tent of meeting.

24 And when the cloud was gone from off the tent of meeting, behold, behold the glory of the Lord appeared in the tabernacle.

25 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, to be thy God: open not any other breach, and put not yonder hand upon any other god; or I will break thee in an instant.

27 ¶ And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them: and there went forth a fire from the Lord among them, and consumed them, as men that gather wood.

28 And he said to Korah, and to all his congregation, Ye shall certainly go down from among my people.

29 ¶ And Moses said to Korah, Hear now, Ye rebel, against the commandment of the Lord.

30 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

31 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Remove from among you this reproach; for they have cast the Lord's name in a reproach.

32 It is kept for a remembrance to the posterity.

33 ¶ And the congregation of the children of Israel answered them, saying, If we be slain, or if we be consumed as they are, ye take away so much of the sum of thy favor from thy people.

34 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

35 Gather unto me seventy men of the congregation, of such a person as is a soothsayer, and bring them unto me.

36 And I will come down, and I will speak with thee there, and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall prophesy in thy stead.

37 Then Moses and Aaron called also /the seventy men of the congregation/, and set them round about the camp.

38 And the Lord came down in the cloud, and talked with them, and took of the spirit that was upon Moses, and put it upon the seventy men: and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied.

39 But when the spirit departed from Moses, they ceased prophesying.

40 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take thee also a censer, and put fire therein, before the Lord, upon the altar, and cast incense therein, and take thou also the censer, and offer bread with it, for it is hiden in the Lord.

41 And so Aaron did, as Moses had spoken unto him; and when he cast fire out of the censer, and had thrown the burnt offering in it, he gave the glory of the Lord before all the congregation of Israel.

42 And Moses called all the congregation unto him, and said, Ye have sinned a great sin: now I will go up to the Lord; perhaps I shall make an intercession for you to the Lord, and turn away his wrath; lest I perish you all.

43 And they took of the ark, and cast them out of the camp, two hundred shekels of gold, to be a sin offering unto the Lord.

44 And it came to pass, as Moses turned about to go from the tabernacle, that he said, And the Lord said unto him, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall keep my sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; to know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you.

45 Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

46 And I spake unto the children of Israel, saying, Each of you take a burnt offering for his father, and for his mother, and for his sons, and for his daughters, and for your stranger that is in your camp, and ye shall do according unto all that I have commanded you.

47 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Go into the camp, and take thee of a gift for each of them, and make them cigarettes of incense, each one according to his gift.

48 And thou shalt give the children of Israel this charge, saying, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth among them, that provoketh not the Lord to anger, and that offers incense in any vessel made of brass, and casteth it into a fire in an unknown manner; the same shall die: for he hath provoked me to anger: ye shall be sure to do thus.

49 ¶ And when Aaron heard that, he went out to the congregation: and, behold, Moses was gone out unto the congregation, and they were weeping throughout all the congregation.

50 And Moses said unto Aaron, Wherefore is it that ye have provoked the Lord to anger today? for the Lord b hath not spoken unto you, but unto Aaron.

51 ¶ And Moses withdrew himself from the congregation, and went up into the mount unto the Lord: and it was revealed unto him.

52 And the Lord said unto Moses, Return into the congregation, and say unto them, Ye have done the thing that is evil in my sight: ye have provoked me to anger; and ye shall eat it in your own selves.

53 For thus saith the Lord, Ye have taken away the strangers, which are of the land of Egypt, and have sacrificed unto their gods: therefore will I also take away my spirit from you, and I will cause you to perish in the wilderness.

54 And they said unto Moses, We have sinned; as thou saidst, we will come unto the Lord.

55 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord; that the Lord may prove you, to know that he is God?

56 And Moses made an end of speaking unto the congregation of Israel.
17:1 The Israelites came into Rephidim, and grudge for water. 6 Water is given them out of the rock.

11 Moses hallowed up his hands, and they overcame the Amalekites. 15 Moses buildeth an altar to the Lord.

1 And all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys at the 1commandment of the Lord, and camped in 2Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people contended with Moses, and said, Give us water, that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why contend ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?

EXODUS 17:3

3 So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou thus brought us out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, What shall I do to this people? for they be almost ready to 5 And the Lord answered to Moses, Go before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith thou smostest the river, take in thine hand, and go:

6 ‘Behold, I will stand there before thee upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite on the rock, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among us, or not?

8 ¶ Then came Amalek and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Joshua, Choose us out men, and go fight with Amalek: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill.

10 So Joshua did as Moses bade him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed: but when he let his hand down, Amalek prevailed.

12 Now Moses’ hands were heavy: therefore they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat upon it: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: so his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Write this for a remembrance in the book, and rehearse it to Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 (And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah Nissi.)

16 Also he said, The Lord hath sworn, that he will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER 18

18 1 Jethro cometh to see Moses his son-in-law.

8 Moses telleth him of the wonders of Egypt.

9 Jethro rejoiceth and offereth sacrifice to God.

21 What manner of men officers and judges ought to be.

24 Moses obeyeth Jethro’s counsel in appointing officers.

1 When Jethro the Priest of Midian, Moses’ father-in-law, heard all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and how the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt,

2 Then Jethro the father-in-law of Moses, took Zipporah Moses’ wife, (after he had sent her away)

3 And her two sons, (whereof the one was called Gershom: for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh).

5 And Jethro Moses’ father-in-law came with his two sons, and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he camped by the mount of God.

6 And he said to Moses, I thy father-in-law Jethro am come to thee, and thy wife and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him, and each asked other of his welfare: and they came into the tent.

8 Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the Lord had done unto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, and all the travail that had come unto them by the way, and how the Lord delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced at all the goodness, which the Lord had showed to Israel, and because he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 Therefore Jethro said, Blessed be the Lord who hath delivered you out of the hand of the 174 1 How ready the people are for their own matters to slay the true Prophets, and how slow they are to revenge God’s cause against his enemies and false Prophets.

175 1 Or, tentation.

2 Or, strife.

3 When in adversity we think God to be absent, then we neglect his promise, and make him a liar.

178 1 Who came of Eliphaz, son of Esau, Gen. 36:12.

179 1 That is, Horeb, which is also called Sinai.

1711 1 So that we see how dangerous a thing it is to faint in prayer.

1714 1 In the book of the Law.

2 Hebrew, put it in the ears of Joshua.

17:15 1 That is, the Lord is my banner as he declared by holding up his rod and his hands.

17:16 1 Hebrew, the hand of the Lord upon the throne.

18:2 1 It may seem that he sent her back for a time to her father for her impatience, lest she should be a let to his vocation, which was so dangerous, Exod. 4:25.

18:5 1 Horeb is called the mount of God, because God wrought many miracles there. So Peter calleth the mount where Christ was transfigured, the holy mount: for by Christ’s presence it was holy for a time; 2 Pet. 1:18.

18:6 1 That is, he sent messengers to say unto him.

18:7 1 Hebrew, of peace.

Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hath also delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the Lord is greater than all the gods: for as they have dealt proudly with them, so are they recompensed.

12 Then Jethro Moses’ father-in-law took burnt offerings and sacrifices, to offer unto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses father-in-law before God.

13 ¶ Now on the morrow, when Moses sat to judge the people, the people stood about Moses from morning unto even.

14 And when Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to seek God.

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his laws.

17 But Moses’ father-in-law said unto him, The thing which thou doest, is not well.

18 Thou both weariest thyself greatly, and this people that is with thee: for the thing is too heavy for thee: thou art not able to do it thyself alone.

19 Hear now my voice, (I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee) be thou for the people to Godward, and report thou the causes unto God, 20 And admonish them of the ordinances, and of the laws, and show them the way, wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, provide thou among all the people men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truly, hating covetousness: and appoint such over them to be rulers over thousands, rulers over hundreds, rulers over fifties, and rulers over tens.

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: but every great matter let them bring unto thee, and thou shalt judge the cause.

23 If thou do this thing, (and God so command thee) both thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go quietly to their place.

24 So Moses obeyed the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said:

25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers over thousands, rulers over hundreds, rulers over fifties, and rulers over tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons, but they brought the hard causes to Moses: for they judged all small matters themselves.

27 Afterward Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went into his country.

19 1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 5 Israel is chosen from among all other nations. 8 The people promise to obey God. 12 He that toucheth the hill, dieth. 16 God appeareth unto Moses upon the mount in thunder and lightning.

1 In the third month, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness, even there Israel camped before the mount.

3 ‘But Moses went up unto God, for the Lord had called out of the mount unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel.

4 ‘Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I carried you upon eagle’s wings, and have brought you unto me.

5 Now therefore if ye will hear my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be my special treasure above all people, thou art but the children of Israel.

6 Ye shall be unto me also a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ Moses then came and called for the Elders of the people, and proposed unto them all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said, All that the Lord hath commanded we will do. And Moses reported the words of the people unto the Lord.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto our inferiors, for to such God oftentimes giveth wisdom to humble them that are exalted, and to declare that one member hath need of another.

18:27 Read the occasion, Num. 10:29.

18:31 Or counsellor.

18:32 1 That he did to the children of the Israelites, perished themselves by water.

18:32 2 They ate in that place, where the sacrifice was offered: for part was burnt, and the rest eaten.

18:35 1 That is, to know God’s will, and to have justice executed.

18:38 1 Or, counsel.

18:39 2 Judge thou in hard causes, which cannot be decided but by consulting with God.

18:42 1 What manner of men ought to be chosen to bear office.

18:43 1 Godly counsel ought ever to be obeyed, though it come of 19:10 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, that they break not their bounds, to go up to the Lord to gaze, lest many of them perish.

20:1 When Moses and Aaron were gone up, or had passed the bounds of the people, God spake thus out of the mount Horeb, that all the people heard.

19:11 Moreover the Lord said unto Moses, Go to the people, and 1 sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.

20:22 Or, servants.

19:12 And let the 1 Priests also which come to the Lord be sanctified, lest the Lord 2 destroy them.

20:24 And let the 1 Priests and the people break their bounds to come up unto the Lord, lest he destroy them.

19:13 And when the sound of the trumpet blew long, they shall come up 2 into the mount.

20:25 So Moses went down unto the people, and told them.

19:14 ¶ Then Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

20:20 2 The Commandments of the first Table. 13 The Commandments of the second. 18 The people afraid are comforted by Moses. 23 Gods of silver and gold are again forbidden. 24 Of what sort the altar ought to be.

19:15 And the third day, when it was morning, there was thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud, so that all the people that was in the camp was afraid.

20:1 Then God spake all these words, saying, 1

19:16 And the third day, when he went up into the top of the mount, Moses went up.

20:2 2 I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

20:3 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

20:4 Thou shalt make thee no graven image, neither any similitude of things that are in heaven above, neither that are in the earth beneath, nor that are in the waters under the earth.

20:5 Thou shalt not bow down to them, neither serve them: for I am the Lord thy God, a 2 jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third generation and upon the fourth of them that hate me:

20:6 And showing mercy unto 4 thousands to them that love me, and keep my commandments.

20:7 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

20:8 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

20:9 Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work,
10 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid, nor thy beast, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

11 "For in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: therefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶/ Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be prolonged upon the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

13 ¶/ Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, neither anything that is thy neighbor’s.

18 ¶ And all the people saw the thunders: and the lightnings, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, and when the people saw it, they fled and stood afar off,

19 And said unto Moses, ‘Talk thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God talk with us, lest we die.

20 Then Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before you, that ye sin not.

21 So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near unto the darkness where God was.

22 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make therefore with me gods of silver, nor gods of gold: you shall make you none.

24 An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and thereon shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places, where I have put the remembrance of my Name, I will come unto thee, and bless thee.

25 ¶/ But if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stones: for if thou lift up thy tool upon them, thou hast polluted them.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy filthiness be not discovered thereon.

21 Temporal and civil ordinances appointed by God.

21:1 Now these are the laws, which thou shalt set before them:

2 "If thou buy an Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years, and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came himself alone, he shall go out himself alone: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master hath given him a wife and she hath borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master’s, but he shall go out himself alone.

5 But if the servant say thus, I love my master, my wife and my children, I will not go out free,

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges, and set him to the door, or to the post, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

7 Likewise if a man sell his daughter to be a servant to a man, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he cause to buy her: he shall not cast her out free.

9 But if he hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he cause to buy her: he shall have no power to sell her to a strange people, seeing he despised her.

10 But if he hath betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of the daughters.

11 If he take another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her raiment, and recompense of her virginity.

12 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free, paying no money.

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, and he die, shall die the death.

13 And if a man hath not laid wait, but 'God hath offered him into his hand, then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbor to slay him with guile, 'thou shalt take him from mine 'altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ Also he that smiteth his father or his mother, shall die the death.

16 ¶ And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, if it be found with him, shall die the death.

17 ¶ And he that curseth his father or his mother, shall die the death.

18 When men also strive together, and one smite another with a 'stone, or with the fist, and he die not but lieth in bed.

19 If he rise again and walk without upon his staff, then shall he that smote him go 'quit, save only he shall bear his charges 'for his resting, and shall pay for his healing.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid with a rod, and he die under his hand, he shall be surely punished.

21 But if he continue a day or two days, he shall not 'be punished: for he his money.

22 ¶ Also if men strive and hurt a woman with child, so that her child depart from her and 'death follow not, he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband shall appoint him, or he shall pay as the 'judges determine.

23 But if death follow, then thou shalt pay life for life.

24 'Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite his servant in the eye, or his maid in the eye, and hath perished it, he shall let him go free for his eye.

27 Also if he smite 'out his servant's tooth, or his maid's tooth, he shall let him go out free for his tooth.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman that he die, the /ox shall be 'stoned to death, and his flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox shall go quite.

29 If the ox were wont to push in times past, and it hath been 'told his master, and he hath not kept him, and after he killeth a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and his owner shall die also.

30 If there be set to him a 'sum of money, then he shall pay the ransom of his life, whatsoever shall be laid upon him.

31 Whether he hath gored a son, or gored a daughter, he shall be judged after the same manner.

32 If the ox goret a servant or a maid, he shall give unto their master thirty 'shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And when a man shall open a well, or when he shall dig a pit and cover it not, and an ox or an ass fall therein,

34 The owner of the pit shall 'make it good, and give money to the owner thereof, but the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if a man's ox hurt his neighbor's ox that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money thereof, and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in times past, and his master hath not kept him, he shall pay ox for ox, but the dead shall be his own.

22 1 Of theft. 5 Damage. 7 Lending. 14 Borrowing. 16 Enticing of maids. 18 Witchcraft. 20 Idolatry. 21 Support of strangers, widows, and fatherless. 25 Usury. 28 Reverence to Magistrates.

1 If a man steal an 'ox or a sheep, and kill it or set it, he shall restore five oxen for the ox, 'and four sheep for the sheep.

2 ¶ If a thief be found 'breaking up, and be smitten that he die, no blood shall be shed for him.

3 But if it be 'in the daylight, 'blood shall be shed for him: for he should make full restitution: if he had not wherewith, then should he be sold for his theft.

21:13 1 Though a man be killed at unawares, yet it is God's providence that it should so be.

21:14 1 The holiness of the place ought not to defend the murderer.

21:18 1 Either far off him or near.

21:19 1 By the civil justice.

2 2 Or, losing of his time.

21:21 1 By the civil magistrate, but before God he is a murderer.

21:22 1 Of the mother or child.

2 2 Or, arbiters.

21:24 1 The execution of this law only belonged to the magistrate, Matt. 5:38.

21:27 1 So God revengeth cruelty in the most least things.

21:28 1 If the beast be punished, much more shall the murderer.

21:29 1 Or, testified to his.

21:30 1 By the next of the kindred of him that is so slain.

21:32 1 Read Gen. 23:15.

21:34 1 This law forbiddeth not only not to hurt, but to beware lest any be hurt.

22:1 1 Either [a] great beast of the herd, or a small beast of the flock.

22:2 1 Breaking an house to enter in, or undermining.

22:3 1 Hebrew, when the sun riseth upon him.

2 2 He shall be put to death that killeth him.
4 If the theft be found with him alive, (whether it be ox, ass, or sheep) he shall restore the double.
5 ¶ If a man do hurt field, or vineyard, and put in his beast to feed in another man's field, he shall recompense of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard.
6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in the thorns, and the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field be consumed, he that kindled the fire shall make full restitution.
7 ¶ If a man deliver his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of his house, if the thief be found, he shall pay the double.
8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges to swear, whether he hath put his hand unto his neighbor's good, or no.
9 In all manner of trespass, whether it be for oxen, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges, and whom the Judges condemn, he shall pay the double unto the neighbor.
10 If a man deliver unto his neighbor to keep ass, or ox, or sheep, or any beast, and it die, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it,
11 ¶ An oath of the Lord shall be between them twain, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbor's good, or no.
12 ¶ But if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.
13 If it be torn in pieces, he shall bring record, and shall not make that good, which is devoured.
14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbor, and it be hurt, or else die, the owner thereof not being by, he shall surely make it good.
15 If the owner thereof be by, he shall not make it good; for if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.
16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall endow her, and take her to his wife.
17 If her father refuse to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.
18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.
19 Whosoever lieth with a beast, shall die the death.
20 ¶ He that offereth unto any gods, save unto the Lord only, shall be slain.
21 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt not do injury to a stranger, neither oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
22 ¶ Ye shall not trouble any widow, nor fatherless child.
23 If thou vex or trouble such, and so he call and cry unto me, I will surely hear his cry.
24 Then shall my wrath be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
25 ¶ If thou lend money to my people, that is, to the poor with thee, thou shalt not be as an usurer unto him: ye shall not oppress him with usury.
26 If thou take thy neighbor's raiment to pledge, thou shalt restore it unto him before the sun go down.
27 For that is his covering only, and this is his garment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? therefore when he crieth unto me, I will hear him: for I am merciful.
28 ¶ Thou shalt not rail upon the Judges, neither speak evil of the ruler of thy people.
29 ¶ Thine abundance and thy liquor shalt thou not keep back: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give me.
30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen and thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam, and the eighth day thou shalt give it me.
31 ¶ Ye shall be an holy people unto me, neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field: ye shall cast it to the dog.

23 2 Not to follow the multitude. 13 Not to make mention of the strange gods. 14 The three solemn feasts. 20, 23 'The Angel is promised to lead his people. 25 What God promiseth if they obey him. 29 God will cast out the Canaanites by little and little, and why.

1 Thou shalt not receive a false tale, neither shalt thou put thine hand with the wicked, to be a false witness.
2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil, neither shall ye agree in a controversy to decline after many and overthrow the truth.
3 ¶ Thou shalt not esteem a poor man in his cause.
4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemy's ox, or his ass, until thou help him again.
5 If thou see thine enemy's ass lying under his burden, wilt thou cease to help him? thou shalt help him up again with it.
6 Thou shalt not overthrow the right of the poor in his suit.
7 Thou shalt keep thee far from a false matter, thou shalt not slay the innocent and the righteous: for I will not justify a wicked man.
8 ¶ Thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindest the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.
9 ¶ Thou shalt not oppress a stranger; for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
10 Moreover, six years shalt thou sow thy land, and gather the fruits thereof.
11 But the seventh year shalt thou let it rest and lie still, that the poor of thy people may eat, and what they leave, the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner shalt thou do with thy vineyard, and with thine olive trees.
12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and in the seventh day thou shalt rest, that thine ox, and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy maid, and the stranger may be refreshed.
13 And ye shall take heed to all things that I have said unto you: and ye shall make no mention of the name of other gods, neither shall it be heard out of thy mouth.
14 ¶ Three times shalt thou keep a feast unto me in the year.
15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the season of the month of Abib: for in it thou camest out of Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty.
16 The feast also of the harvest of the first fruits of thy labors, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of gathering fruits in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labors out of the field.

234 ¶ If we be bound to do good to our enemy's beast, much more to our enemy himself, Matt. 5:44.
235 ¶ If God command to help up our enemy's ass under his burden, will he suffer us to cast down our brethren with heavy burdens?
236 ¶ Whether thou be magistrate or art commanded by the magistrate.
238 ¶ Hebrew, seeing.
239 ¶ For in that that he is a stranger, his heart is sorrowful enough.
2310 ¶ Neither by swearing by them nor speaking of them, Ps. 16:4; Eph. 5:3.
2315 ¶ That is, Easter, in remembrance that the Angel passed over and spared the Israelites, when he slew the firstborn of the Egyptians.
2316 ¶ Which is Whitsuntide, in token that the Law was given 50 days after they departed from Egypt.
2317 These three times in the year shall all thy men children appear before the Lord Jehovah.
2318 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread: neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.
2319 ¶ The first of the firstfruits of thy land, thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God: yet shalt thou not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.
2320 ¶ Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in thy way, and to bring thee to the place which I have prepared.
2321 ¶ Beware of him, and hear his voice, and provoke him not: for he will not spare your misdeeds, because my name is in him.
2322 But if thou hearken unto his voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and will afflict them that afflict thee.
2323 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will destroy them.
2324 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, neither serve them, nor do after the works of them: but utterly overthrow them, and break in pieces their images.
2325 For ye shall serve the Lord your God, and he shall bless thy bread and thy water, and I will take all sickness away from the midst of thee.
2326 ¶ There shall none cast their fruit, nor be barren in thy land, the number of thy days will I fulfill.
2327 I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people among whom thou shalt go: and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee:
2328 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from thy face.
2329 I will not cast them out from thy face in one year, lest the land grow to a wilderness, and the beasts of the field multiply against thee.
2330 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee:
2331 And I will make thy coasts from the red sea unto the sea of the Philistines, and from
3 The people promise to obey God. 4 Moses writes the civil laws. 9, 13 Moses returneth into the mountain. 14 Aaron and Hur have the charge of the people. 18 Moses was forty days and forty nights in the mountain.

1 Now he had said unto Moses, Come up to the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the Elders of Israel, and ye shall worship afar off.

2 And Moses himself alone shall come near to the Lord, but they shall not come near, neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ Afterward Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the "Laws: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the things which the Lord hath said, will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and all the "Laws: and all the people of Israel were of one mind, to do all the words of the Lord, which he had said.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, to spy out the land and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

6 And he sent them every one to spy out the land: which they espied, and gave them a report of the land.

7 After, he took the "book of the covenant, and set it up under the altar.

8 Then Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

9 And he took all the children of Israel, and gave them a commandment to do all the things which the Lord had commanded them; and they obeyed.

10 And they saw the God of Israel, and under his feet was as it were a "work of a Sapphire stone, and as the very heaven when it is clear.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Come up into the mountain, and be there, and I will give thee "tables of stone, and the Law, and the Commandment, which I have written, for to teach them.

13 Then Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.

14 And said unto the Elders, Tarry us here until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: whosoever hath any matters, let him come to them.

15 Then Moses went up to the mount, and the cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like consuming fire on the top of the mountain, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up to the mountain and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

1 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel that they receive an offering for me: of every man, whose heart giveth it freely, ye shall take the offering for me.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them, gold and silver, and brass,

4 And "blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen and goat’s hair,

5 And ram’s skins colored red, and the skins of badgers, and the wood 1Shittim, 6 Oil for the light, spices for 1anointing oil, and for the perfume of sweet savor.

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the 1Ephod, and in the breastplate.
8 Also they shall make me a 1Sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.
9 According to all that I show thee, even so shall ye make the form of the Tabernacle, and the fashion of all the instruments thereof.
10 ¶ They shall make also an 1Ark of Shittim wood, two cubits and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and a cubit and an half high.
11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a 1crown of gold round about.
12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four 1corners thereof: that is, two rings shall be on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side thereof.
13 And thou shalt make bars of Shittim wood, covering the Mercy seat with their wings and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make them at the two ends of the Mercy seat.
14 Then thou shalt put the bars in the rings by the sides of the Ark, to bear the Ark with them.
15 The bars shall be in the rings of the Ark: they shall not be taken away from it.
16 So thou shalt put in the Ark the 1Testimony, which I will give thee.
17 Also thou shalt make a 12Mercy seat of pure gold, two cubits and an half long and a cubit and an half broad.
18 And thou shalt make two Cherubims of gold:
of work beaten out with the hammer shalt thou make them at the two ends of the Mercy seat.
19 And the one Cherub shalt thou make at the one end, and the other Cherub at the other end: of the matter of the Mercy seat shall ye make the Cherubims, on the two ends thereof.
20 And the Cherubims shall stretch their wings on high, covering the Mercy seat with their wings and their faces one to another: to the Mercy seatward shall the faces of the Cherubims be.
21 And thou shalt put the Mercy seat above upon the Ark, and in the Ark thou shalt put the Testimony,
which I will give thee.
22 And there I will 1declare myself unto thee, and from above the Mercy seat 'between the two Cherubims, which are upon the Ark of the Testimony, I will tell thee all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.
23 ¶ Thou shalt also make a Table of Shittim wood, of two cubits long, and one cubit broad, and a cubit and a half high:
24 And thou shalt cover it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.
25 Thou shalt also make unto it a border of 1four fingers round about: and thou shalt make a golden crown round about the border thereof:
26 After, thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and shalt put the rings in the four corners that are in the four feet thereof.
27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places for bars to bear the Table.
28 And thou shalt make the bars of Shittim wood, and shall overlay them with gold, that the Table may be borne with them.
29 Thou shalt make also 1dishes for it, and incense cups for it, and coverings for it, and goblets, wherewith it shall be covered, even of fine gold shalt thou make them.
30 And thou shalt set upon the Table Showbread before me continually.
31 ¶ Also thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of work beaten out with the hammer shall the Candlestick be made, his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops: and his flowers shall be of the same.
32 Six branches also shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one deepth, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.
33 Three bowls like unto almonds, one knob and one flower in one branch: and three bowls like almonds in the other branch, one knob and one flower:
so throughout the six branches that come out of the Candlestick.
34 And in the 1shaft of the Candlestick shall be four bowls like unto almonds, his knobs and his flowers.
35 And there shall be a knob under two branches made thereof: and a knob under two branches made thereof: and a knob under two branches made thereof, according to the six branches coming out of the Candlestick.

1 The form of the Tabernacle and the apparatus. 33 The places of the Ark, of the Mercy seat, of the Table, and of the Candlestick.

1 Afterward thou shalt make the Tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue silk, and purple, and scarlet; and in them thou shalt make Cherubims of braided work.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 Five curtains shall be coupled one to another: and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make strings of blue silk upon the edge of the one curtain, which is in the selvedge of the coupling: and likewise shall thou make in the edge of the other curtain in the selvedge, in the second coupling.

5 Fifty strings shalt thou make in one curtain, and fifty strings shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain, which is in the second coupling: the strings shall be one right against another.

6 Thou shalt make also fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the taches, and it shall be one Tabernacle.

7 Also thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair, to be a covering upon the Tabernacle, thou shalt make them to the number of eleven curtains.

8 The length of a curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of a curtain four cubits: the eleven curtains shall be of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and the six curtains by themselves: but thou shalt double the sixth curtain upon the forefront of the covering.

10 And thou shalt make fifty strings in the edge of one curtain in the selvedge of the coupling, and fifty strings in the edge of the other curtain in the second coupling.

11 Likewise thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and fasten them on the strings, and shalt couple the covering together that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that resteth in the curtains of the covering, even the half curtain that resteth, shall be left at the backside of the Tabernacle.

13 That the cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side of that which is left in the length of the curtains of the covering may remain on either side of the Tabernacle to cover it.

14 Moreover, for that covering thou shalt make a covering of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above.

15 Also thou shalt make boards for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand upon.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and an half cubit the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall be in one board set in order as the feet of a Ladder, one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make boards for the Tabernacle, even twenty boards on the South side, even full South.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 In like manner on the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North side shall be twenty boards,

21 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And on the side of the Tabernacle, toward the West, shalt thou make six boards.

23 Also two boards shalt thou make in the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides.

24 Also they shall be joined beneath, and likewise they shall be joined above to a ring: thus shall it be for them two: they shall be for the two corners.

25 So they shall be eight boards having sockets of 26 ¶ Then thou shalt make five bars of Shittim wood for the boards of one side of the Tabernacle. 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle: also five bars for the boards of the side of the Tabernacle toward the West side. 28 And the middle bar shall go through the midst of the boards, from end to end. 29 And thou shalt cover the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold, for places for the bars, and thou shalt cover the bars with gold. 30 So thou shalt rear up the Tabernacle, according to the fashion thereof, which was showed thee in the Mount. 31 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt make a veil of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, thou shalt make it of brodered work with Cherubims. 32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of Shittim wood covered with gold, (whose hooks shall be of gold) standing upon four sockets of silver. 33 ¶ Afterward thou shalt hang the veil on the hooks, that thou mayest bring in thither, that is, within the veil, the Ark of the Testimony: and the veil shall make you a separation between the Holy place and the most holy place. 34 Also thou shalt put the Mercy seat upon the Ark of the Testimony in the most Holy place. 35 And thou shalt set the Table without the veil, and the Candlestick over against the Table on the South side of the Tabernacle, and thou shalt set the Table on the North side. 36 Also thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the Tabernacle of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle. 37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim, and cover them with gold: their heads shall be of gold, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them. 38 Thou shalt make the altar of burnt offering, 9 The courts of the Tabernacle. 20 The lamps continually burning. 1 Moreover thou shalt make the altar of Shittim wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad (the altar shall be four square) and the height thereof three cubits. 2 And thou shalt make it horns in the four corners thereof: the horns shall be of itself, and thou shalt cover it with brass. 3 Also thou shalt make his ash pans for his ashes, and his besoms, and his basins, and his flesh-hooks, and his censers: thou shalt make all the instruments thereof of brass. 4 And thou shalt make unto it a grate, like network of brass: also upon that grate shalt thou make four brazen rings upon the four corners thereof. 5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the grate may be in the midst of the altar. 6 Also thou shalt make bars for the altar, bars, I say, of Shittim wood, and shalt cover them with brass. 7 And the bars thereof shall be put in the rings, which the bars shall be upon the two sides of the altar to bear it. 8 Thou shalt make the altar hollow between the boards: as God showeth thee in the mount, so shall they make it. 9 ¶ Also thou shalt make the court of the Tabernacle in the South side, even full South: the court shall have curtains of fine twined linen, of an hundred cubits long, for one side, 10 And it shall have twenty pillars, with their twenty sockets of brass: the heads of the pillars, and their fillets shall be silver. 11 Likewise on the North side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and the twenty pillars thereof with their twenty sockets of brass: the heads of the pillars and the fillets shall be silver. 12 ¶ And the breadth of the court, on the West side shall have curtains of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars, and their ten sockets. 13 And the breadth of the court, Eastward full East, shall have fifty cubits. 14 Also hangings of fifteen cubits shall be on the one side with their three pillars and their three sockets. 15 Likewise on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets. 16 ¶ And in the gate of the court shall be a veil of twenty cubits of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle, with the four pillars thereof and their four sockets.

17 All the pillars of the court shall have fillets of silver round about, with their heads of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty 'at either end, and the height five cubits, and the hangings of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the Tabernacle for all manner service thereof, and all the 'pins thereof, and all the pins of the court shall be brass.

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive 'beaten for the light, that the lamps may always 'burn.

21 In the Tabernacle of the Congregation without the veil, which is before the Testimony, shall Aaron and his sons dress them from evening to morning before the Lord, for a statute forever unto their generations, to be observed by the children of Israel.

28

1 The Lord calleth Aaron and his sons to the Priesthood. 4 Their garments. 13, 29 Aaron entereth into the Sanctuary in the name of the children of Israel. 30 Urim and Thummim. 38 Aaron beareth the iniquity of the Israelites' offerings.

1 And cause thou thy brother Aaron to come unto thee, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serve me in the Priest's office: I mean, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar Aaron's sons.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, glorious and beautiful.

3 Therefore thou shalt speak unto all cunning men, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may serve me in the Priest's office.

4 Now these shall be the garments, which they shall make, a breastplate, and an 'Ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, and for his sons, that he may serve me in the Priest's office.

5 Therefore they shall take gold, and blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the Ephod of gold, blue silk, and purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen of broidered work.

7 The two shoulders thereof shall be joined together by their two edges: so shall it be closed.

8 And the 'embroidered girdle of the same Ephod, which shall be upon him, shall be of the selfsame work and stuff, even of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two Onyx stones, and grave upon them the names of the children of Israel.

10 Six names of them upon the one stone, and the six names that remain, upon the second stone, according to their generations.

11 Thou shalt cause to grave the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel, by a graver of signets that worketh and graveth in stone, and shalt make them to be set and embossed in gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 So thou shalt make bosses of gold,

14 ¶ And two chains of fine gold 'at the end, of wreathein work shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wreathein chains upon the bosses.

15 ¶ Also thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with broidered work: like the work of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

16 ¶ Foursquare it shall be and, double, an hand breadth long and an hand breadth broad.

17 Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, even four rows of stones: the order shall be this, a ruby, a topaz, and a carbuncle in the first row.

18 And in the second row thou shalt set an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And in the third row a turquoise, an onyx, and a Jasper: and they shall be set in gold in their embossments.

20 And in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a Jasper: and they shall be set in gold in their embossments.
21. And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, graven as signets, every one after his name, and they shall be for the twelve tribes.

22. ¶ Then thou shalt make upon the breastplate two chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

23. Thou shalt make also upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and put the two rings on 'the two ends of the breastplate.

24. And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings in the ends of the breastplate.

25. And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains, thou shalt fasten in the two embossments, and shall put them upon the shoulders of the Ephod upon the foreside of it.

26. ¶ Also thou shalt make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the 'two other ends of the breastplate, upon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

27. And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forepart of it over against the coupling of it upon the brodered girdle of the Ephod.

28. Thus shall they bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silk, that it may be fast upon the brodered girdle of the Ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod.

29. So Aaron shall 'bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30. ¶ Also thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment, the 'Urim and the 'Thummim, which shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the Lord, and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually.

31. ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blue silk.

32. And the hole for his head shall be in the midst of it, having an edge of woven work round about the collar of it: so shall it be as the collar of an habergeon, that it rent not.

33. ¶ And beneath upon the skirts thereof, thou shalt make pomegrantes of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet round about the skirts thereof, and bells of gold between them round about:

34. That is, a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate round about upon the skirts of the robe.

35. So shall it be upon Aaron, when he ministereth, and his sound shall be heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out, and he shall not die.

36. ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave thereon, as signets are gravean, 'HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37. And thou shalt put it on a blue silk lace, and it shall be upon the mitre, even upon the forefront of the mitre shall it be.

38. So shall it be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may 'bear the iniquity of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall be always upon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39. Likewise thou shalt embroider the fine linen coat, and thou shalt make a mitre of fine linen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle work.

40. Also thou shalt make for Aaron's sons coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make them for glory and comeliness.

41. And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and on his sons with him, and shalt anoint them, and 'fill their hands, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the Priest's office.

42. Thou shalt also make them linen breeches to cover their privities: from the loins unto the thighs shall they reach.

43. And they shall be for Aaron and his sons, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come unto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they 'commit not iniquity, and so die. This shall be a law forever unto him, and to his seed after him.

1 The manner of consecrating the Priests.
28:23 1 Which are upmost toward the shoulder.
28:26 1 Which are beneath.
28:29 1 Aaron shall not enter into the holy place in his own name, but in the name of all the children of Israel.
28:30 1 Urim signifieth light, and Thummim perfection: declaring that the stones of the breastplate were most clear, and of perfect beauty: by Urim also is meant knowledge, and Thummim holiness, showing what virtues are required in the Priests.
28:36 1 Holiness appertaineth to the Lord for he is most holy, and nothing unholy may appear before him.
28:38 1 Their offerings could not be so perfect, but some fault would be therein: which sin the high Priest bare, and pacified God.
28:41 1 That is, consecrate them, by giving them things to offer and thereby admit them to their office.
28:43 1 Or, of witness.
2 In not hiding their nakedness.
38 The continual sacrifice.
45 The Lord promiseth to dwell among the children of Israel.
1 This thing also shalt thou do unto them, when thou consecratest them to be my Priests, 'Take a young calf, and two rams without blemish,
2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: (of fine wheat flour shalt thou make them).

3 Then thou shalt put them in one basket, and 1present them in the basket with the calf and the two rams,

4 And shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

5 Also thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the tunic, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the breastplate, and shalt close them to him with the broidered girdle of the Ephod.

6 Then thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and shalt put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and shalt pour upon his head and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And shalt gird them with girdles, both Aaron and his sons: and shalt put the bonnets on them, and the Priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual law: thou shalt also 1fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sons.

10 After, thou shalt present the calf before the Tabernacle of the congregation, 'and Aaron and his sons shall 1put their hands upon the head of the calf.'

11 So shalt thou kill the calf before the Lord, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calf, and put it upon the horns of the Altar with thy finger, and shalt pour all the rest of the blood at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall burn them upon the altar besides the burnt offering.

13 Also thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul, that is on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and shall burn them upon the Altar.

14 But the flesh of the calf, and his skin, and his dung shalt thou burn with fire without the host: it is a sin offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 Then thou shalt kill the ram, and take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the Altar, 17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him and his legs, and shalt put them upon the pieces thereof, and upon his head.

18 So thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the Altar: for it is a burnt offering unto the Lord;' for a sweet savor: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

19 And shalt thou take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the lap of Aaron's ear, and upon the lap of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and shalt sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the Altar, and of the anointing oil, and shalt sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: so he shall be hallowed, and his clothes, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the rams the fat and the rump, even the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the 1ram of consecration).

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord:

24 And thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons, and shalt shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 Again, thou shalt receive them of their hands, and shall burn them upon the altar beside the burnt offering for a sweet savor before the Lord: for this is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the breast of the ram of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to 1and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the shaken offering and the shoulder of the heave offering, which was shaken to and fro, and which was heaved up of the ram of the consecration which was for Aaron, and which was for his sons.

28 And Aaron and his sons shall have it by a statute forever, of the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering, and it shall be an heave offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, even their heave offering to the Lord.

29:3 1 To offer them in sacrifice.

29:5 1 Which was next under the Ephod.

29:9 1 Or, consecrate them.

29:10 1 Signifying that the sacrifice was also offered for them, and that they did approve it.

29:14 1 Hebrew, sin, 2 Cor. 5:21.

29:18 1 Or, savor of rest, which causeth the wrath of God to cease.

29:20 1 Meaning the soft and nether part of the ear.

29:21 1 Wherewith the Altar must be sprinkled.

29:22 1 Which is offered for the consecration of the high Priest.

29:26 1 This sacrifice the Priest did move toward the East, West, North, and South.

29:27 1 So called because it was not only shaken to and fro, but also lifted up.

29:28 1 Which were offerings of thanksgiving to God for his benefits.

Exodus 29:29

29 ¶ And the holy garments which appertain to Aaron, shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated therein.
30 That son that shall be Priest in his stead, shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to minister in the holy place.
31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.
32 ¶ And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
33 So they shall eat these things, whereby their atonement was made, to consecrate them, and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy things.
34 Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.
35 Therefore shalt thou do thus unto Aaron and unto his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.
36 And shalt offer every day a calf for a sin offering, for 'reconciliation: and thou shalt cleanse the Altar, when thou hast offered upon it for reconciliation, and shalt anoint it to sanctify it.
37 Seven days shalt thou cleanse the Altar and sanctify it, so the Altar shall be most holy: and whatsoever toucheth the Altar, shall be holy.
38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt present upon the altar: even two lambs of one year old, day by day continually.
39 The one lamb thou shalt present in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt present at even.
40 And with the one lamb, a 'tenth part of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of an 'Hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of an 'Hin of wine for a drink offering.
41 And the other lamb thou shalt present at even: thou shalt do thereto according to the offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, to be a burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the Lord.
42 This shall be a continually burnt offering in your generations at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, where I will make appointment with you, to speak there unto thee.
43 There I will appoint with the children of Israel, and the place shall be sanctified by my glory.
44 And I will sanctify the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar: I will sanctify also Aaron and his sons to be my Priests, 45 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.
46 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: 'I am the Lord their God.'

30 The Altar of incense.  13 The sum that the Israelites should pay to the Tabernacle.  28 The brazen laver.  33 The anointing oil.  34 The making of the perfume.

1 Furthermore thou shalt make an Altar 'for sweet perfume, of Shittim wood thou shalt make it.
2 The length thereof a cubit, and the breadth thereof a cubit, (it shall be foursquare) and the height thereof two cubits: the horns thereof shall be 1 of the same.
3 And thou shalt overlay it with fine gold, both the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and his horns: also thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.
4 Besides this thou shalt make under this crown two golden rings on either side: even on every side shalt thou make them, that they may be as places for the bars to bear it withal.
5 The which bars thou shalt make of Shittim wood, and shalt cover them with gold.
6 After thou shalt set it 'before the veil, that is near the Ark of the Testimony, before the Mercy seat that is upon the Testimony, where I will appoint with thee.
7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning; when he 'dresseth the lamps thereof, shall he burn it.
8 Likewise at even, when Aaron setteth up the lamps thereof, he shall burn incense: this perfume shall be perpetually before the Lord, throughout your generations.
9 Ye shall offer no 1 'strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, neither pour any drink offering thereon.
10 And Aaron shall make reconciliation upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering in the day of reconciliation; once in the year shall he make reconciliation upon it throughout your generations: this is most holy unto the Lord.
11 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
12 'When thou taketst the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then they shall give every man 'a redemption of his life unto the Lord, when thou tall'st them, that there be no plague among them when thou countest them.
13 'This shall every man give, that goeth into the number, half a shekel, after the 'shekel of the Sanctuary: ('a shekel is twenty gerahs) the half shekel shall be an offering to the Lord.
14 All that are numbered from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the Lord.
15 'The rich shall not pass, and the poor shall not diminish from half a shekel, when ye shall give an offering unto the Lord, 'for the redemption of your lives.
16 So thou shalt take the money of the redemption of the children of Israel, and shalt put it unto the use of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the Lord, for the redemption of your lives.
17 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
18 'Thou shalt also make a Laver of brass, and his foot of brass to wash, and shalt put it between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and shalt put water therein.
19 For Aaron and his sons shall 'wash their hands, and their feet thereat.
20 When they go into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they go unto the Altar to minister, and to make the perfume of the burnt offering to the Lord, they shall wash themselves with water, lest they die.
21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet that they die not: and this shall be to them an ordinance 'forever, both unto him and to his seed throughout their generations.
22 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
23 'Take thou also unto thee principal spices: of the most pure myrrh five hundred 'shekels, of sweet cinnamon half so much, that is, two hundred and fifty, and of sweet 'calamus, two hundred, and fifty:
24 Also of Cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, and of oil olive an 'Hin.
25 So thou shalt make of it the oil of holy ointment, even a most precious ointment after the art of the Apothecary: this shall be the oil of holy ointment.
26 And thou shalt anoint the 'Tabernacle of the Congregation therewith, and the Ark of the Testimony:
27 Also the Table, and all the instruments thereof, and the Candlestick, with all the instruments thereof, and the altar of incense:
28 Also the altar of burnt offering with all his instruments, and the laver and his foot.
29 So thou shalt sanctify them, and they shall be most holy: all that shall touch them, shall be holy.
30 Thou shalt also anoint Aaron and his sons, and shalt consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the Priest's office.
31 Moreover thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me, throughout your generations.
32 None shall anoint 'man's flesh therewith, neither shall ye make any composition like unto it: for it is holy, and shall be holy unto you.
33 Whosoever shall make the like ointment, or whosoever shall put any of it upon 'a stranger, even he shall be cut off from his people.
34 And the Lord said unto Moses, 'Take unto thee these spices, pure myrrh and 'clear gum and galbanum, these odors with pure frankincense of each like weight:
35 Then thou shalt make of them perfume composed after the art of the apothecary, mingled together, pure and holy.
36 And thou shalt beat it to powder, and shalt put it before the Ark of the Testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will make appointment with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.
37 And ye shall not make unto you any composition like this perfume, which thou shalt make: it shall be unto thee holy for the 'Lord.
38 Whosoever shall make like unto that to smell thereto, even he shall be cut off from his people.
39 But it must only serve to burn perfume.

30:12 1 Whereby he testified that he redeemed his life which he had forfeit, as is declared by David, 2 Sam. 24:1.
30:13 1 This shekel valued two common shekels: and the gerah valued about 12 pence after five shillings sterling the ounce of silver.
30:15 1 That God should be merciful unto you.
30:19 1 Signifying, that he that cometh to God, must be washed from all sin and corruption.
30:21 1 So long as the Priesthood shall last.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,
3 Whom I have filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship:
4 To find out curious works to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
5 Also in the art to set stones, and to carve in timber, and to work in all manner of workmanship.
6 And behold, I have joined him with Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted, have I put wisdom to make all that I have commanded thee:
7 That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Ark of the Testimony, and the Mercy seat that shall be thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:
8 Also the Table and the instruments thereof, and the pure Candlestick with all his instruments, and the Altar of perfume:
9 Likewise the Altar of burnt offering with all his instruments, and the Laver with his foot:
10 Also the garments of the ministration, and the holy garment for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the Priest's office,
11 And the anointing oil, and sweet perfume for the Sanctuary according to all that I have commanded thee, shall they do.
12 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, and say, 'Notwithstanding keep ye my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you in your generations, that ye may know that I the Lord do sanctify you.
14 Ye shall therefore keep the Sabbath: for it is holy unto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever worketh therein, the same person shall be even cut off from among his people.
15 Six days shall men work, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord:

CHAPTER 31

¶ 1 The Tables written by the finger of God.
18 The Tables written by the finger of God.

19 Moses breaketh the Tables.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, that they may observe the rest throughout their generations for an everlasting Covenant.
17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever: 'for in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, and in the seventh he ceased and rested.

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of communing with Moses upon mount Sinai) 'he gave him two Tables 'of the Testimony, even tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

4 The Israelites impute their deliverance to the calf. 14 God is appeased by Moses' prayer.
19 Moses breaketh the Tables.

1 But when the people saw, that Moses tarried long ere he came down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said unto him, Up, 'make us gods to go before us: for of this Moses (the man that brought us out of the land of Egypt) we know not what is become of him.
2 And Aaron said unto them, 'Pluck off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.
3 Then all the people plucked from themselves the golden earrings, which were in their ears, and they brought them unto Aaron.
4 ¶ Who received them at their hands, and fashioned it with the graving tool, and made of it a molten calf; then they said, 'These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.
5 When Aaron saw that, he made an Altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, Tomorrow shall be the holy day of the Lord.
6 So they rose up the next day in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings: also 'the people sat them down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
7 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, 'Go get thee down: for thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, hath corrupted their ways.
Exodus 32:33

8 They are soon turned out of the way, which I commanded them: for they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have offered thereto, saying, ‘These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt.’

9 Again the Lord said unto Moses, ‘I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, for I will consume them: but I will make thee a mighty people

11 But Moses prayed unto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, whom thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore shall the Egyptians speak, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the earth? turn from thy fierce wrath, and change thy mind from this evil toward thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidest unto them, ‘I will multiply your seed, as the stars of heaven, and all this land, that I have spoken of, will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.

14 Then the Lord changed his mind from the evil, which he threatened to do unto his people.

15 So Moses returned and went down from the mountain with the two Tables of the Testimony in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides, even on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And these Tables were the work of God, and this writing was the writing of God gravened in the Tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people, as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the host.

18 Who answered, It is not the noise of them that have the victory, nor the noise of them that are overcome: but I do hear the noise of singing.

19 Now, as soon as he came near unto the host, he saw the calf and the dancing: so Moses’ wrath waxed hot, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneath the mountain.

20 After, he took the calf, which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it unto powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 Also Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lord wax fierce: Thou knowest this people, that they are even set on mischief.

23 And they said unto me, Make us gods to go before us: for we know not what is become of this Moses (the man that brought us out of the land of Egypt).

24 Then I said to them, Ye that have gold, pluck it off: and they brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came this calf.

25 Moses therefore saw that the people were naked (for Aaron had made them naked among their enemies)

26 And Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who pertaineth to the Lord? let them come to me.

27 Then he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel: Put every man his sword by his side, go to and fro, from gate to gate, through the host, and every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.

28 So the children of Levi did as Moses had commanded: and there fell of the people the same day about three thousand men.

29 (For Moses had said, Consecrate your hands unto the Lord this day, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother, that there may be given you a blessing this day.)

30 And when the morning came, Moses said unto the people, Ye have committed a grievous crime: but now I will go up to the Lord, if I may pacify him for your sin.

31 Moses therefore went again unto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Therefore now if thou pardon their sin, thou art a people set apart unto the Lord as thy God, as thou art this day.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, I will put him out of my book.

32:8 Whereby we see what necessity we have to pray earnestly to God, to keep us in his true obedience, and to send us good guides.

32:10 God sheweth that the prayers of the godly stay his punishment.

32:12 Or, blaspheme.

32:13 That is, thy promise made to Abraham.

32:16 All these repetitions show how excellent a thing they defrauded themselves of by their idolatry.

32:20 Partly to despite them of their idolatry, and partly that they should have none occasion to remember it afterward.

32:25 Both destitute of God’s favor, and an occasion to their enemies to speak evil of their God.

32:27 This fact did so please God, that he turned the curse of Jacob against Levi to a blessing.

32:29 In revenging God’s glory we must have no respect to person, but put off all carnal affection.

32:33 I will make it known that he was never predestinated in mine eternal counsel to life everlasting.
Go now therefore, bring the people unto the place which I commanded thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I will visit their sin upon them.

So the Lord plagued the people, because they caused Aaron to make the calf which he made.

2 God promiseth to send an Angel before his people. 4 They are sad because the Lord denieth to go up with them. 9 Moses talketh familiarly with God.

1 Afterward the Lord said unto Moses, Depart, go up from hence, thou, and the people (which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt) unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it.

2 And I will send an Angel before thee, and will cast out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites,

3 To a land, I say, that floweth with milk and honey: for I will not go up with thee, because thou art a stiff-necked people, lest I consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people heard this evil tidings, they sorrowed, and no man put on his best raiment.

5 (For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people, I will come suddenly upon thee, and consume thee: therefore now put thy costly raiment from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.)

6 So the children of Israel laid their good raiment before them, after Moses came down from the mount Horeb.

7 Then Moses took his tabernacle, and pitched it without the host far off from the host, and called it Ohol-moed. And when any did seek to the Lord, he went out unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the host.

8 And when Moses went out unto the Tabernacle, all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the Tabernacle.

9 And as soon as Moses was entered into the Tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the door of the Tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses.

10 Now when all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the Tabernacle door, all the people rose up, and worshipped every man in his tent door.

11 And the Lord spake unto Moses, face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. After he turned again into the host, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun a young man, departed not out of the Tabernacle.

12 ¶ Then Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Lead this people forth, and thou hast not showed me whom thou wilt send with me: thou hast said moreover, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, show me now thy way, that I may know thee, and that I may find grace in thy sight: consider also that this nation is thy people.

14 And he answered, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 Then he said unto him, If thy presence go not with us, carry us not rest.

16 And wherein now shall it be known, that I and thy people have found favor in thy sight? shall it not be when thou goest with us? so I, and thy people shall have preeminence before all the people that are upon the earth.

17 And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this also that thou hast said: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 Again he said, I beseech thee, show me thy glory.

19 And he answered, I will make all my goodness go before thee, and I will proclaim the Name of the Lord before thee: for I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy, and will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

20 Furthermore he said, Thou canst not see my face, for there shall no man see me, and live.

21 Also the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon the rock:

22 And while my glory passeth by, I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with mine hand, that thou savest thy life.
hand while I pass by.
23 After I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen.

34 1 The Tables are renewed. 6 The description of God. 12 All fellowship with idolaters is forbidden. 18 The feasts. 28 Moses is 40 days in the mount. 30 His face shineth, and he covereth it with a veil.

1 And the Lord said unto Moses, ‘Hew thee two Tables of stone, like unto the first, and I will write upon the Tables the words that were in the first Tables, which thou brakest in pieces. 2 And be ready in the morning, that thou mayest come up early unto the mount of Sinai, and wait there for me in the top of the mount. 3 But let no man come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the sheep nor cattle feed before this mount. 4 Then Moses hewed two Tables of stone like unto the first, and rose up early in the morning, and went up unto the mount of Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand two Tables of stone. 5 And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord. 6 So the Lord passed before his face, and cried, The Lord, the Lord, strong, merciful, and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth. 7 Reserving mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression and sin, and not making the wicked innocent, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon children’s children, unto the third and fourth generation. 8 Then Moses made haste and bowed himself to the earth, and worshipped, 9 And said, O Lord, I pray thee, If I have found grace in thy sight, that the Lord would now go with us (for it is a stiff-necked people) and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance. 10 And he answered, Behold, ‘I will make a covenant before all thy people, and will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the world, neither in all nations: and all the people among whom thou art, shall see the work of the Lord: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 Keep diligently that which I command thee this day: Behold, I will cast out before thee the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 12 ‘Take heed to thyself, that thou make no compact with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest they be the cause of ruin among you: 13 But ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their images in pieces, and cut down their groves, 14 (For thou shalt bow down to none other god, because the Lord, whose Name is Jealous, is a jealous God.) 15 Lest thou make a compact with the inhabitants of the land, and when they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, some man call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice. 16 And lest thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods. 17 Thou shalt make thee no gods of metal. 18 The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep: seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month of Abib: for in the month of Abib thou camest out of Egypt. 19 ‘Every male that first openeth the womb, shall be mine: also all the firstborn of thy flock shall be reckoned mine, both of beeves and sheep. 20 But the first of the ass thou shalt buy out with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then thou shalt break his neck: all the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou redeem, and none shall appear before me empty. 21 ¶ “Six days shalt thou work, and in the seventh day thou shalt rest: both in earing time, and in the harvest thou shalt rest. 22 ¶ “Thou shalt also observe the feast of weeks in the time of the firstfruits, of wheat harvest, and the feast of gathering fruits in the end of the year. 23 ¶ “Thrice in a year shall all your men children appear before the Lord Jehovah God of Israel. 24 For I will cast out the nations before thee and enlarge thy coasts, so that no man shall desire thy land, when thou shalt come up to appear before the Lord thy God thrice in the year.
25  ‘Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, neither shalt thou offer of the sacrifice of the feast of Passover be left unto the morning.
26  The first ripe fruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the Lord thy God: yet shalt thou not see a kid in his mother’s milk.
27  And the Lord said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.
28  So he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights, and did neither eat bread nor drink water, and he wrote in the Tables ‘the words of the covenant, even the Ten commandments.
29  ¶ So when Moses came down from mount Sinai, the two Tables of the Testimony were in Moses’ hand, as he descended from the mount: (now Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone bright, after that God had talked with him).
30  And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked upon Moses, and beheld, the skin of his face shone bright, and they were afraid to come near him.
31  But Moses called them: and Aaron and all the chief of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.
32  And afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he charged them with all that the Lord had said unto him in mount Sinai.
33  So Moses made an end of communing with them, and had put a covering upon his face.
34  But, when Moses came before the Lord to speak with him, he took off the covering until he came out: then he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.
35  And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, how the skin of Moses’ face shone bright; therefore Moses put the covering upon his face, until he went to speak with God.

35 2  The Sabbath.  5  The free gifts are required.  21  The readiness of the people to offer.  30  Bezalel and Aholiab are praised of Moses.

1  Then Moses assembled all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them:
2  ‘Six days shalt thou work, but the seventh day shall be unto you the holy Sabbath of rest unto the Lord: whosoever doeth any work therein, shall die.
3  Ye shall kindle no fire throughout all your habitations upon the Sabbath day.
4  ¶ Again, Moses spake unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord commandeth, saying,
5  Take from among you an offering unto the Lord: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring this offering to the Lord, namely gold, and silver and brass:
6  Also blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats’ hair,
7  And rams’ skins dyed red, and badgers’ skins with Shittim wood:
8  Also oil for light, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,
9  And onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate.
10  And all the wise hearted among you, shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded:
11  That is, the Tabernacle, the pavilion thereof, and his covering, and his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets, 12  The Ark, and the bars thereof: the Mercy seat, and the veil that covereth it.
13  The Table, and the bars of it, and all the instruments thereof, and the showbread:
14  Also the Candlestick of light and his instruments, and his lamps with the oil for the light:
15  ‘Likewise the Altar of perfume and his bars, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the veil of the door at the entering in of the Tabernacle,
16  The Altar of burnt offering with his brazen grate, his bars and all his instruments, the laver and his foot,
17  The hangings of the court, his pillars and his sockets, and the veil of the gate of the court,
18  The pins of the Tabernacle, and the pins of the court with their cords, 19  The ministering garments to minister in the holy place, and the holy garments of Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, that they may minister in the Priest’s office.
20  ¶ Then all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.
21  And every one, whose heart encouraged him, and every one, whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the work of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his uses, and for the holy garments.

34:26 1 Read Exod. 23:1; Deut. 14:21.
34:28 1 This miracle was to confirm the authority of the law, and ought no more to be followed than other miracles.
2 Or, words.
34:30 1 Read 2 Cor. 3:7.
34:34 1 Which was in the Tabernacle of the congregation.
35:2 1 Wherein ye shall rest from all bodily work.
35:10 1 Read Exod. 28:3.
35:12 1 Which hanged before the Mercy seat that it could not be seen.
35:19 1 Such as appertain to the service of the Tabernacle.
35:21 1 Hebrew, lifted him up.
22 Both men and women, as many as were free hearted, came and brought 'taches and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all were jewels of gold: and every one that offered an offering of gold unto the Lord:

23 Every man also, which had blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 All that offered an oblation of silver and of brass, brought the offering unto the Lord: and every one, that had Shittim wood for any manner work of the ministration, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise-hearted, did spin with their hands, and brought the spun work, even the blue silk, and the purple, the scarlet, and fine linen.

26 Likewise all the women, whose hearts were moved with knowledge, spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate:

28 Also spice, and oil for light, and for the sweet perfume.

29 Every man and woman of the children of Israel, whose hearts moved them willingly to bring for all the work which the Lord had commanded them to make by the hand of Moses, brought a free offering unto the Lord.

30 ¶ Then Moses said unto the children of Israel, Behold, the Lord hath called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah,

31 And hath filled him with an excellent spirit of wisdom of heart to know how to work all manner work, even to make all manner work, and to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate:

32 To find out curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in wood, and in stone, and in purple, and in blue silk, and in scarlet, and fine linen, and to work all manner work, and to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate:

33 And in graving stones to set them, and in carving of wood, even to make any manner of fine work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach other: both he, and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan:

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to work all manner work: 1cunning work, and needle work: in blue silk, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen and weaving, even to do all manner of work and subtle inventions.

36 The great readiness of the people. 8 The curtains made. 19 The coverings. 20 The boards. 5 The bars, 35 and the veil.

36:1 Hebrew, wise in heart.
36:2 By the Sanctuary he meaneth all the Tabernacle.
36:3 Meaning, the Israelites.
36:4 A rare example and notable to see the people so ready to serve God with their goods.
36:5 Which were little pictures with wings in the form of children.
36:6 Or, hooks.
14 ¶ Also he made curtains of goats' hair for the covering upon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleven curtains.

15 The length of one curtain had thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 Also he made fifty strings upon the edge of one curtain in the selvedge in the coupling, and fifty strings made he upon the edge of the other curtain in the second coupling.

18 He made also fifty taches of brass to couple the covering that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering upon the pavilion of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above.

20 ¶ Likewise he made the boards for the Tabernacle, of Shittim wood to stand up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of one board was a cubit and an half.

22 One board had two tenons, set in order as the feet of a ladder, one against another: thus made he for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twenty boards for the South side of the Tabernacle, even full South.

24 And forty sockets of silver made he under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twenty boards.

26 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 Likewise toward the West side of the Tabernacle he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he in the corners of the Tabernacle for either side, and their five sockets were made sure above with a ring: thus he did to the other side thereof.

29 And they were joined beneath, and likewise were made sure above with a ring; thus he did to both in both corners.

30 So there were eight boards, and their sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ After, he made bars of Shittim wood, five for the boards in the one side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

32 And their forty sockets of silver made he under the five bars, two sockets under one bar, and two sockets under another bar.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards, from the one end to the other.

34 He overlaid also the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the bars, and covered the bars with gold.

35 ¶ Moreover he made a covering of blue silk and purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broidered work made he it:

36 And made thereunto four pillars of Shittim, and overlaid them with gold: whose hooks were also of gold, and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 1 The Ark. 6 The Mercy seat. 10 The Table. 17 The Candlestick. 25 The altar of incense.

1 After this, Bezalel made the ‘Ark of Shittim wood, two cubits and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and a cubit and an half high:

2 And overlaid it with fine gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about,

3 And cast for it four rings of gold for the four corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with gold,

5 And put the bars in the rings by the sides of the Ark, to bear the Ark.

6 ¶ And he made the ‘Mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and an half was the length thereof, and one cubit and an half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of gold, upon the two ends of the Mercy seat: even of work beaten with the hammer made he them.

8 One Cherub on the one end, and another Cherub on the other end: of the Mercy seat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered the Mercy seat with their wings and their faces were one towards another: toward the Mercy seat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and an half the height of it.

EXODUS 38:14

11 And he overlaid it with fine gold, and made thereto a crown of gold round about.
12 Also he made thereto a border of an 'hand breadth round about, and made upon the border a crown of gold round about.
13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.
14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the bars to bear the Table.
15 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with gold to bear the Table.
16 'Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure gold: dishes for it, and 'incense cups for it, and goblets for it, and coverings for it, wherewith it should be covered.
17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candlestick of pure gold: of work beaten out with the hammer made he the Candlestick: and his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knobs, and his flowers were of one piece.
18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.
19 In one branch three bowls made like almonds, a knob and a flower: and in another branch three bowls made like almonds, a knob and a flower: and so throughout the six branches that proceeded out of the Candlestick.
20 And upon the Candlestick were four bowls after the fashion of almonds, the knobs thereof and the flowers thereof.
21 That is, under every two branches a knob made thereof, and a knob under the second branch thereof, and a knob under the third branch thereof, according to the six branches coming out of it.
22 Their knobs and their branches were of the same: it was all one 'beaten work of pure gold.
23 And he made for it seven lamps with the snuffers, and snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.
24 Of a 'talent of pure gold made he it with all the instruments thereof.
25 ¶ Furthermore he made the 'perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit (it was square) and two cubits high, and the horns thereof were of the same.
26 And he covered it with pure gold, both the top and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it, and made unto it a crown of gold round about.
27 And he made two rings of gold for it, under the crown thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put bars in for to bear it therewith.
28 Also he made the bars of Shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.
29 And he made the holy 'anointing oil, and the sweet pure incense after the apothecary's art.

1 The altar of burnt offerings. 8 The brazen Laver. 9 The Court. 24 The sum of that the people offered.
1 Also he made the altar of the burnt offering of Shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof: it was square and three cubits high.
2 And he made unto it horns in the four corners thereof: the horns thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with brass.
3 Also he made all the instruments of the altar: the 'ashpans, and the besoms and the basins, the fleshhooks, and the 'censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brass.
4 Moreover, he made a brazen grate wrought like a net to the Altar, under the compass of it beneath in the midst of it.
5 And cast four rings of brass for the four ends of the grate to put bars in.
6 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with brass.
7 The which bars he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to bear it withal, and made it hollow within the boards.
8 ¶ Also he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass of the 'glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
9 ¶ Finally, he made the court on the South side full South: the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, having an hundred cubits.
10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.
11 And on the North side the hangings were an hundred cubits: their pillars twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty, the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.
12 On the west side also were hangings of fifty cubits, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.
13 And toward the East side, full East were hangings of fifty cubits.
14 The hangings of the one side were fifteen cubits, their three pillars, and their three sockets:

37:12 1 Or, four fingers.
37:24 1 Read Exod. 25:39.
38:3 1 Or, fire pans.
38:4 1 So that the gridiron or grate was half so high as the altar, and stood within it.
38:8 1 R. Kimbi saith, that the women brought their looking glasses, which were of brass or fine metal, and offered them freely unto the use of the Tabernacle: which was a bright thing and of great majesty.
15 “And of the other side of the court gate on both sides were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 But the sockets of the pillars were of brass: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver, and the covering of their chapiters of silver: and all the pillars of the court were hoope about with silver.

18 He made also the hanging of the gate of the court of needle work, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen even twenty cubits long, and five cubits in height and breadth, like the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four with their four sockets of brass: their hooks of silver, and the covering of the chapiters, and their fillets of silver.

20 But all the pins of the tabernacle and of the court round about were of brass.

21 ¶ These are the parts of the tabernacle, I mean, of the tabernacle of the testimony, which was appointed by the commandment of Moses for the office of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar son to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workman and an embroider, and a worker of needle work in blue silk, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied in all the work wrought for the holy place (which was the gold of the offering) was nine and twenty talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 But the silver of them that were numbered in the congregation, was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

26 A portion for a man, that is, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary, for all them that were numbered from twenty years old and above, among six hundred thousand, and three thousand, and five hundred and fifty men.

27 Moreover there were an hundred talents of silver, to cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil: an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 But he made the hooks for the pillars of a thousand seven hundred and seventy and five shekels, and overlaid their chapiters, and made fillets about them.

29 Also the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand, and four hundred shekels.

30 Whereof he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the altar.

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets for the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

39 ¶ The apparel of Aaron and his sons. 32 All that the Lord commanded was made, and finished.

33 Moses blessed the people.

1 Moreover they made garments of ministration to minister in the sanctuary of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

2 So he made the ephod of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue silk and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with brodered work.

4 For which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the brodered girdle of his ephod that was upon him, was of the same stuff, and of like work: even of gold, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought two onyx stones closed inouches of gold, and graved, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And put them on the shoulders of the ephod, as stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8 ¶ Also he made the breastplate of brodered work like the work of the ephod: to wit, of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made the breast plate double, and it was square an hand breadth broad, and an hand breadth broad: it was also double.

10 And they filled it with four rows of stones. The order was thus, a ruby, a topaz, and a carbuncle in the first row.

11 And in the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond:

12 Also in the third row a turquoise, an agate, and an Ephraimite:
13 Likewise in the fourth row a Chrysolite, an Onyx, and a Jasper: closed and set in ouches of gold.
14 So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, even twelve after their names, graven like signets, every one after his name, according to the twelve tribes.
15 After, they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work and pure gold.
16 They made also two bosses of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the breastplate.
17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings, in the corners of the breastplate.
18 Also the two other ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two bosses, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, upon the forefront of it.
19 Likewise they made two rings of gold, and put them in the two other corners of the breastplate upon the edge of it, which was on the inside of the Ephod.
20 They made also two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath the foreside of it, and over against his coupling above the brodered girdle of the Ephod.
21 Then they fastened the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silk that it might be fast upon the brodered girdle of the Ephod, and that the breastplate should not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
22 Moreover, he made the robe of the Ephod of woven work, altogether of blue silk.
23 And the hole of the robe was in the midst of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it should not rent.
24 And they made upon the skirt of the robe pomegranates, of blue silk and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen twined.
25 They made also bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about between the pomegranates.
26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the skirts of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
27 After, they made coats of fine linen, of woven work for Aaron and for his sons.
28 And the mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen.

29 And the girdle of fine twined linen, and of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, even of needle work, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
30 Finally, they made the plate for the holy crown of fine gold, and wrote upon it a superscription like to the graving of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.
31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue silk to fasten it on high upon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
32 Thus was all the work of the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.
33 Afterward they brought the Tabernacle unto Moses, the Tabernacle and all his instruments, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets, 34 And the covering of ram's skins, dyed red, and the coverings of badgers' skins, and the 'covering veil.
35 The Ark of the testimony, and the bars thereof, and the Mercy seat.
36 The Table, with all the instruments thereof, and the showbread.
37 The pure Candlestick, the lamps thereof, even the Lamps set in order, and all the instruments thereof, and the oil for light:
38 Also the golden Altar and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging of the Tabernacle door, 39 The brazen Altar with his grate of brass, his bars and all his instruments, the Laver and his foot.
40 The curtains of the court with his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging to the court gate, and his cords, and his pins, and all the instruments of the service of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
41 Finally, the ministering garments to serve in the Sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sons' garments to minister in the Priest's office.
42 According to every point that the Lord had commanded Moses, so did they.
43 And Moses beheld all the work, and beheld they had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had they done: and Moses blessed them.
The Tabernacle with the appurtenances is reared up. 34 The glory of the Lord appeareth in the cloud covering the Tabernacle.

1 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 In the first day of the first month in the very first of the same month shalt thou set up the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation:
3 And thou shalt put therein the Ark of the Testimony, and cover the Ark with the veil.
4 Also thou shalt bring in the Table, and set it in order as it doth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candlestick, and light his lamps.
5 And thou shalt set the incense Altar of gold before the Ark of the Testimony; and put the hanging at the door of the Tabernacle.
6 Moreover, thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the door of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
7 And thou shalt set the Laver between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein.
8 Then thou shalt appoint the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.
9 After, thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and hallow it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holy.
10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctify the Altar, that it may be an altar most holy.
11 Also thou shalt anoint the Laver, and his foot, and shalt sanctify it.
12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.
13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister unto me in the Priest's office.
14 Thou shalt also bring his sons and clothe them with garments.
15 And shalt anoint them as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the Priest's office: for their anointing shall be a sign, that the Priesthood shall be everlasting unto them throughout their generations.
16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him; so did he.
17 ¶ Thus was the Tabernacle reared up the first day of the first month in the second year.
18 Then Moses reared up the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars of it, and reared up his pillars.
19 And he spread the covering over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of that covering on high above it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
20 ¶ And he took and put the Testimony in the Ark, and put the bars in the rings of the Ark, and set the Mercy seat on high upon the Ark.
21 He brought also the Ark into the Tabernacle, and hanged up the covering, and covered the Ark of the Testimony, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the North side of the Tabernacle, without the veil, 23 And set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
24 ¶ Also he put the Candlestick in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, over against the Table toward the South side of the Tabernacle.
25 And he lighted the lamps before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
26 ¶ Moreover, he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the veil, 27 And burnt sweet incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
28 ¶ Also he hanged up the veil at the door of the Tabernacle.
29 After, he set the burnt offering Altar without the door of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
30 ¶ Likewise he set the Laver between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and poured water therein to wash with.
31 So Moses and Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat.
32 When they went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
33 Finally, he reared up the court round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged up the veil at the court gate: so Moses finished the work.
34 ¶ Then the cloud covered the Tabernacle of

1 Of burnt offerings for particular persons. 3, 10, and 14 The manner to offer burnt offerings as well of bullocks, as of sheep and birds.

1 Now the Lord called Moses, and spake unto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, ye shall offer your sacrifice of cattle, as of beeves and of the sheep.
3 If his sacrifice be a burnt offering of the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his own voluntary will at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.
4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted to the Lord.
5 And he shall kill the bullock before the Lord, and the Priests Aaron's sons shall offer the blood, and shall sprinkle it round about upon the altar, that is by the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
6 Then shall he slay the burnt offering, and cut it in pieces.
7 So the sons of Aaron the Priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.
8 Then the Priests Aaron's sons shall lay the parts in order, the head and the caul upon the wood that is in the fire which is upon the altar.
9 But the inwards thereof and the legs thereof he shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burn all on the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

11 ¶ And if his sacrifice be a burnt offering to the Lord of the fowls, then shall he offer his sacrifice of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons.
12 And the Priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wringing the neck of it asunder, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be shed upon the side of the altar.
13 And he shall pluck out his maw with his feathers, and cast them beside the altar on the East part in the place of the ashes.
14 But he shall cleave it with his wings, but not divide it asunder: and the Priest shall burn it upon the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

19 Or a savory of rest, which pacifieth the anger of the Lord.
1:11 1 Before the altar of the Lord.
1:12 1 Hebrew, into his pieces.
2 Or, fat.

2 Or, strained or pressed.
1:16 1 On the side of the court gate in the pans which stood with ashes, Exod. 17:3.
2:1 1 Because the burnt offering could not be without the meat offering.
shall pour oil upon it, and put incense thereon.
2 And shall bring it unto Aaron's sons the Priests, and he shall take thence his handful of the flour, and of the oil with all the incense, and the Priest shall burn it for a memorial upon the altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.
3 But the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons: for it is most holy of the Lord's offerings made by fire.
4 ¶ If thou bring also a meat offering baked in the oven, it shall be an unleavened cake of fine flour mingled with oil, or an unleavened wafer anointed with oil.
5 ¶ But if thy meat offering be an oblation of the frying pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.
6 And thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: for it is a meat offering.
7 ¶ And if thy meat offering be an oblation made in the caldron, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
8 After, thou shalt bring the meat offering (that is made of these things) unto the Lord, and shalt present it unto the Priest, and he shall bring it to the altar,
9 And the Priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial of it, and shall burn it upon the altar: for it is an oblation made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.
10 But that which is left of the meat offering, shall be Aaron's and his sons: for it is most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.
11 All the meat offerings which ye shall offer unto the Lord, shall be made without leaven: for ye shall neither burn leaven nor honey in any offering of the Lord made by fire.
12 ¶ In the oblation of the firstfruits ye shall offer them unto the Lord, but they shall not be burnt upon the altar for a sweet savor;
13 All the meat offerings also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering, but upon all thine oblations thou shalt offer salt.
14 If then thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meat offering of thy firstfruits ears of corn dried by the fire, and wheat beaten out of the green ears.
15 After, thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay incense thereon: for it is an offering unto the Lord made by fire.
16 And the Priest shall burn the memorial of it, even of that, that is beaten, and of the oil of it with all the incense thereof: for it is an offering unto the Lord made by fire.

The manner of peace offerings, and beasts for the same. 17 The Israelites may not eat fat nor blood.

1 Also if his oblation be a peace offering, if he will offer of the drove (whether it be male or female) he shall offer such as is without blemish, before the Lord.
2 And shall put his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and Aaron's sons the Priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.
3 So he shall offer part of the peace offering, as a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord, even the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.
4 He shall also take away the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and upon the flanks, and the caul on the liver with the kidneys.
5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar, with the burnt offering, which is upon the wood, that is on the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.
6 ¶ Also if his oblation be a peace offering unto the Lord out of the flock, whether it be male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.
7 If he offer a Lamb for his oblation, then he shall bring it before the Lord.
8 And lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and shall kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.
9 After, of the peace offerings he shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: he shall take 10 Also he shall take away the two kidneys, with the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the caul upon the liver with the kidneys.

11 Then the Priest shall burn it upon the altar, as the meat of an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

12 ¶ Also if his offering be a goat, then shall he offer it before the Lord, 13 And shall put his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 Then he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord, the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

15 Also he shall take away the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the caul upon the liver with the kidneys.

16 So the Priest shall burn them upon the altar, as the meat of an offering made by fire for a sweet savor; all the fat is the Lord's.

17 This shall be a perpetual ordinance for your generations, throughout all your dwellings, so that ye shall eat neither fat nor blood.

4 Chapter 4

1 The offering for sins done of ignorance. 3 For the Priest, the Congregation, the ruler, and private man.

1 Moreover, the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any shall sin through ignorance, in any of the commandments of the Lord, (which ought not to be done) but shall do contrary to any of them,

3 If the Priest that is anointed do sin (according to the sin of the people) then shall he offer, for his sin which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the Lord for a sin offering:

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, and shall put his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the Lord.

5 And the Priest that is anointed, shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

6 Then the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the Lord, before the veil of the Sanctuary.

7 The Priest also shall put some of the blood before the Lord, upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense, which is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, then shall he pour all the rest of the blood of the bullock at the foot of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 And he shall take away all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering: to wit, the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is about the inwards.

9 He shall take away also the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the caul upon the liver with the kidneys.

10 As it was taken away from the bullock of the peace offerings, and the Priest shall burn them upon the altar of burnt offering.

11 ¶ But the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and his legs, and his inwards, and his dung shall be brought out.

12 So he shall carry the whole bullock out of the host unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured, and shall burn him on the wood in the fire: where the ashes are cast out, shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And if the whole Congregation of Israel shall sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the multitude, and have done against any of the commandments of the Lord which should not be done, and have offended:

14 When the sin which they have committed shall be known, then the Congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock before the Lord, and he shall kill the bullock before the Lord.

16 Then the Priest that is anointed, shall bring of the bullock's blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 17 And the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, even before the veil.

18 Also he shall put some of the blood upon the 3:17 ¶ By eating fat, was meant to be carnal, and by blood eating, was signified cruelty.

4:2 ¶ Hebrew, a soul.

2 That is, of negligence or ignorance, specially in the ceremonial law: for otherwise the punishment for crime is appointed according to the transgression, Num. 15:22.

4:3 ¶ Meaning, the high Priest.

4:4 ¶ Hereby confessing that he deserved the same punishment which the beast suffered.

45 ¶ Which was between the Holiest of all, and the Sanctuary.

47 ¶ Which was in the court: meaning by the Tabernacle the Sanctuary: and in the end of this verse it is taken for the court.

4:13 ¶ The multitude excuseth not the sin, but if all have sinned; they must all be punished.

4:15 ¶ For all the people could not lay on their hands: therefore it was sufficient that the Ancients of the people did it in the name of all the Congregation.

2 Or, the Priest.
horns of the altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall he pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And the Priest shall do with his bullock, as he did with the bullock for his sin: so shall he do with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 For he shall carry the bullock without the host, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: for it is an offering for the sin of the Congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler shall sin, and do through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord his God, which should not be done, and shall offend,

23 If one show unto him his sin, which he hath committed, then shall he bring for his offering an he goat without blemish,

24 And shall lay his hand upon the head of the he goat, and kill it in the place where he should kill the burnt offering before the Lord: for it is a sin offering.

25 Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the burnt offering altar, and shall pour all the rest of the blood thereof at the foot of the altar.

26 And shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the peace offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ¶ Likewise if any of the people of the land shall sin through ignorance in doing against any of the commandments of the Lord, which should not be done, and shall offend, 28 If one show him his sin which he hath committed, then shall he bring for his offering, a she goat without blemish for his sin which he hath committed.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of burnt offering.

30 Then the Priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the burnt offering altar, and pour all the rest of the blood thereof at the foot of the altar.

31 And shall take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offerings is taken away, and the Priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savor unto the Lord, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

33 And shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and he shall slay it for a sin offering in the place where he should kill the burnt offering.

34 Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the burnt offering altar, and shall pour all the rest of the blood thereof at the foot of the altar.

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb of the peace offerings is taken away: then the Priest shall burn it upon the altar ‘with the oblations of the Lord made by fire, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

5 Of him that testifieth the truth. 4 Of him that voweth rashly. 15 Of him that by ignorance withdraweth anything dedicated to the Lord.

1 Also if any have sinned, that is, if he have heard the voice of an oath, and he can be a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it, if he do not utter it, he shall bear his iniquity:

2 Either if one touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carriion of an unclean beast, or a carriion of unclean cattle, or a carriion of unclean creeping things, and is not ware of it, yet he is unclean, and hath offended:

3 Either if he touch any uncleanness of man (whatsoever uncleanness it be, that he is defiled with) and is not ware of it, and after cometh to the knowledge of it, he hath sinned:

4 Either if any swear and pronounce with his lips to do evil, or to do good (whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath) and it be hid from him, and after knoweth that he hath offended in one of these points,

5 When he hath sinned in any of these things, willing.

435 Or, besides the burnt offerings, which were daily offered to the Lord.

51 Hebrew, a soul.

6 Or, if the judge hath taken an oath of any other.

3 Whereby it is commanded to bear witness to the truth, and disclose the iniquity of the ungodly.

54 1 Or, vow rashly without just examination of the circumstances, and not knowing what shall be the issue of the same.

55 1 Which have been mentioned before in this Chapter.
then he shall confess that he hath sinned therein.
6 Therefore shall he bring his trespass offering unto the Lord for his sin which he hath committed, even a female from the flock, be it a lamb or a she goat for a sin offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.
7 But if he be not able to bring a sheep, he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons unto the Lord, one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.
8 So he shall bring them unto the Priest, who shall offer the sin offering first, and ‘wring the neck of it asunder, but not pluck it clean off.
9 After he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be ‘shed at the foot of the altar: for it is a sin offering.
10 Also he shall offer the second for a burnt offering ‘as the manner is: so shall the Priest ‘make an atonement for him (for his sin which he hath committed) and it shall be forgiven him.
11 ¶ But if he ‘be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ‘Ephah of fine flour for a sin offering, he shall put none ‘oil thereto, neither put any incense thereon: for it is a sin offering.
12 Then shall he bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handful of it for the ‘remembrance thereof, and burn it upon the altar ‘with the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for it is a sin offering.
13 So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sin, that he hath committed in one of these points, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the Priest’s, as the meat offering.
14 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
15 If any person transgress and sin through ignorance ‘by taking away things consecrated unto the Lord, he shall then bring for his trespass offering unto the Lord a ram without blemish out of the flock, worth two shekels of silver ‘by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for a trespass offering.
16 So he shall restore that wherein he hath offended, ‘in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto the Priest: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.
17 ¶ Also if any sin and ‘do against any of the Commandments of the Lord, which ought not to be done, and know not, and ‘sin and bear his iniquity.
18 Then shall he bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, in thy estimation worth ‘two shekels for a trespass offering unto the Priest: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ‘ignorance wherein he erred, and was not ware: so it shall be forgiven him.
19 This is the trespass offering for the trespass committed against the Lord.

5:6 ¶ Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
6 The offering for sins which are done willingly.
9 The law of the burnt offerings.
13 The fire must abide evermore upon the altar.
14 The law of the meat offering.
20 The offerings of Aaron, and his sons.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 If any sin and commit a trespass against the Lord, and deny unto his neighbor that which was taken from him, to keep, or that which was put to him of trust, or doth by ‘robbery, or by violence oppress his neighbor,
3 Or hath found that which was lost, and denieth it, and sweareth falsely, for any of these things that a man doeth, wherein he ‘sinneth:
4 When, I say, he thus sinneth and trespasseth, he shall then restore the robbery that he robbed, or the thing taken by violence which he took by force, or the thing which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,
5 Or whatsoever he hath sworn falsely, he shall both restore it in the whole ‘sum, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it pertaineth, the same day that he offereth for his trespass.
6 Also he shall bring for his trespass unto the Lord, a ram without blemish out of the flock in thy estimation worth two shekels for a trespass offering unto the Priest.
7 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, and it shall be forgiven him, whatsoever thing he hath done, and trespassed therein.
8 ¶ Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 'This is the 1law of the burnt offering, (it is the burnt offering because it burneth upon the altar all the night unto the morning, and the fire burneth on the altar).

10 And the Priest shall put on his linen garment, and shall put on his linen breeches upon 1his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hath consumed the burnt offering upon the altar, and he shall put them beside the 2altar.

11 After, he shall put off his garments, and put on other raiment, and carry the ashes forth without the host unto a clean place.

12 But the fire upon the altar shall burn thereon and never be put out: wherefore the Priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire shall ever burn upon the altar, and never go out.

14 ¶ Also this is the law of the meat offering, which Aaron's sons shall offer in the presence of the Lord, before the altar.

15 He shall even take thence his handful of fine flour of the meat offering and of the oil, and all the incense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savor, as a memorial therefore unto the Lord:

16 But the rest thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: it shall be eaten without leaven in the holy place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be 1baked with leaven: I have given it for their portion of mine offering made by fire: for it is as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy:

19 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

20 ¶ This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer unto the Lord in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flour, for a meat offering perpetual: half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In the frying pan it shall be made with oil: thou shalt bring it fried, and shalt offer the 1baked pieces of the meat offering for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

22 And the Priest that is 1anointed in his stead, among his sons shall offer it: It is the Lord's ordinance forever, it shall be burnt altogether.

23 For every meat offering of the Priest shall be burnt altogether, it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ Furthermore, the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and say, This is the Law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sin offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holy.

26 The Priest that offereth this sin offering, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

27 Whatsoever toucheth the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof upon a 1garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth in the holy place.

28 Also the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shall be broken, but if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall both be scoured and washed with 1water.

29 All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof, for it is most holy.

30 ¶ But no sin offering, whose blood is brought into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to make reconciliation in the holy place, shall be eaten, but shall be burnt with 1fire.

7

1 The law of the trespass offering. 11 Also of the peace offering. 23 The fat and the blood may not be eaten.

1 Likewise this is the law of the 1trespass offering, it is most holy.

2 In the place 1where they kill the burnt offering, shall they kill the trespass offering, and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 All the fat thereof also shall 1he offer, the rump, and the fat that covered the inwards.

4 After, he shall take away the two kidneys, with the fat that is on them and upon the flanks, and the caul on the liver with the kidneys.

5 Then the Priest shall burn them upon the altar, for an offering made by fire unto the Lord: this is a trespass offering.

6 All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof, it shall be eaten in the holy place for it is most holy.

7:2 1 At the court gate.
7:3 1 The high Priest.
7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering, one law serveth for both: that wherewith the Priest shall make atonement, shall be his.
8 Also the Priest that offereth any man’s burnt offering, shall have the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.
9 And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and that is dressed in the pan, and in the frying pan, shall be the Priest’s that offereth it.
10 And every meat offering mingled with oil, and that is dry, shall pertain unto all the sons of Aaron, to all alike.
11 Furthermore, this is the law of the peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the Lord.
12 If he offer it to give thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and fine flour mixed with the cakes mingled with oil.
13 He shall offer also his offering with cakes of leavened bread, for his peace offerings, to give thanks.
14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one cake for an heave offering unto the Lord, and it shall be the Priest’s that sprinkled the blood of the peace offering.
15 Also the flesh of the peace offerings, for thanksgiving, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leave nothing thereof until the morning.
16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a free offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.
17 But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth unto the third day, shall be burnt with fire.
18 For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, he shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned unto him, but shall be an abomination: therefore the person that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.
19 The flesh also that toucheth any unclean thing, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: but of this flesh all that be clean shall eat thereof.
20 But if any eat of the flesh of the peace offerings that pertain unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, even the same person shall be cut off from his people.
21 Moreover, when any toucheth any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or of an unclean beast, or of any filthy abomination, and eat of the flesh of the peace offerings, which pertaineth unto the Lord, even that person shall be cut off from his people.
22 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
23 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, Ye shall eat no fat of beeves, nor of sheep, nor of goats.
24 Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that, which is torn with beasts, shall be occupied to any use, but ye shall not eat of it.
25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of the which ye shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, even the person that eateth, shall be cut off from his people.
26 Neither shall ye eat any blood, either of fowl, or of beast in all your dwellings.
27 Every person that eateth any blood, even the same person shall be cut off from his people.
28 ¶ And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,
29 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, He that offereth his peace offerings unto the Lord, shall bring his gift unto the Lord of his peace offerings.
30 His hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: even the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be shaken to and fro before the Lord.
31 Then the Priest shall burn the fat upon the Altar, and the breast shall be Aaron’s and his sons’.
32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the Priest for an heave offering, of your peace offerings.
33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat among the sons of Aaron, shall have the right shoulder for his part.
34 For the breast shaken to and fro, and the shoulder lifted up, have I taken of the children of Israel, even of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the Priest and unto his sons by a statute forever from among the children of Israel.
35 ¶ This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sons, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serve in the Priest’s office unto the Lord.
36 The which portions the Lord commanded to give them in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Israel.
37 This is also the law of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the ‘consecrations, and of the peace offerings,

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when he commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts unto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

12 The anointing of Aaron, and his sons, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

1 Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 *Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread,
3 And assemble all the company at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the company was assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
5 Then Moses said unto the company, *This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to do.
6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water, 7 And put upon him the coat, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broidered girdle of the Ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.
8 And he put the breastplate thereon, and put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.
9 Also he put the miter upon his head, and anointed him to sanctify him.
10 (Now Moses had taken the anointing oil, and anointed the Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them, 11 And sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his instruments, and the laver, and his foot, to sanctify them,) 12 *And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him to sanctify him.
13 After, Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon their heads, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
14 *Then he brought the bullock for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.
15 And Moses slew him, and took the blood, which he put upon the horn of the Altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar: so he sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.
16 Then he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, which Moses burned upon the altar.
17 But the bullock and his hide, and his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the host as the Lord had commanded Moses.
18 ¶ Also he brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands upon the head of the ram.
19 So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about,
20 And Moses cut the ram in pieces, and burnt the head with the pieces, and the fat,
21 And washed the inwards and the legs in water: so Moses burnt the ram every whit upon the Altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweet savor, which was made by fire unto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
22 ¶ *After, he brought the other ram, the ram of consecrations, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram, 23 Which Moses slew, and took of the blood of it, and put it upon the lap of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.
24 Then Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put of the blood on the lap of their right ears, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet, and Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood upon the Altar round about.
25 And he took the fat and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right shoulder.
26 Also he took of the basket of the unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder.
27 So he put all in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shook it to and fro before the Lord.
28 After, Moses took them out of their hands, and burnt them upon the altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweet savor, which were made by fire unto the Lord.
29 Likewise Moses took the breast of the ram of consecrations, and shook it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Moses' portion as the Lord had commanded Moses.
30 Also Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the Altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, upon his garments, and upon his sons, and on his sons’ garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons’ garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said unto Aaron and his sons, Seethe the flesh of the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there ‘eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven days, until the days of your consecrations be at an end: for seven days, said the Lord, shall he consecrate you, 34 As ‘he hath done this day: so the Lord hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, day and night, seven days, and shall keep the watch of the Lord, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 8 The first offerings of Aaron. 12 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glory of the Lord is showed. 24 The fire cometh from the Lord.

1 And in the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the Elders of Israel:

2 Then he said unto Aaron, ‘Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, ‘Take ye an he goat for a sin offering, and a calf, and a lamb, both of a year old, without blemish for a burnt offering:

4 Also a bullock, and a ram for peace offerings, to offer before the Lord, and a meat offering mingled with oil: for today the Lord will appear unto you.

5 ¶ Then they brought that which Moses commanded before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the assembly drew near, and stood before the Lord.

6 (For Moses had said, This is the thing, which the Lord commanded that ye should do, and the glory of the Lord shall appear unto you.)

7 Then Moses said unto Aaron, Draw near to the Altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for ‘thee and for the people: offer also the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, as the Lord hath commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the Altar, and poured the rest of the blood at the foot of the Altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver of the sin offering, he burnt unto the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hide he burnt with fire without the host.

12 After, he slew the burnt offering, and Aaron’s sons brought unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about the Altar.

13 Also they brought the burnt offering unto him with the pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them upon the Altar.

14 Likewise he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the Altar.

15 ¶ Then he offered the people’s offering and took a goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it: and offered it for sin, as the first:

16 So he offered the burnt offering, and prepared it, according to the manner.

17 ¶ He presented also the meat offering, and filled his hand thereof, and burnt it ‘upon the burnt offering on the Altar.

18 He slew also the bullock, and the ram for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Aaron’s sons brought unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the Altar round about.

19 With the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver.

20 So they laid the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the Altar.

21 But the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron shooke to and fro before the Lord, as the Lord had

2 Nadab and Abihu are burnt. 6 Israel mourneth for them. 9 The Priests are forbidden wine.

1 But “Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereupon, and offered ‘strange fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them.

2 Therefore a fire went out from the Lord, and devoured them: so they died before the Lord.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified: but Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sons of Uzziel, the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your ‘brethren from before the Sanctuary out of the host.

5 Then they went, and carried them in their coats out of the host, as Moses had commanded.

6 After, Moses said unto Aaron and unto Eleazar, and Ithamar his sons, ‘Uncover not your heads, neither rent your clothes, lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, all the house of Israel bewail the burning which the Lord hath kindled.

7 And go not ye out from the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you: and they did according to Moses’ commandment.

9:23 1 Or prayed for the people.
9:24 1 Or, gave a shout for joy.
10:1 1 Not taken of the altar, which was sent from heaven, and endured till the captivity of Babylon.
10:3 1 I will punish them that serve me otherwise than I have commanded, not sparing the chief, that the people may fear and praise my judgments.
10:4 1 Or, cousins.
10:6 1 As though ye lamented for them, preferring your carnal affection to God’s just judgment, Lev. 19:18; Deut. 14:1.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying,
9 Thou shalt not drink wine nor ‘strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: this is an ordinance forever throughout your generations,
10 That ye may put difference between the holy and the unholy, and between the clean and the unclean,
11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath commanded them by the ‘hand of Moses.
12 ¶ Then Moses said unto Aaron and unto Eleazar and to Ithamar his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and eat it without leaveen beside the altar: for it is most holy:
13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy duty and thy son’s duty of the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded.
14 Also the ‘shaken breast and the [heave] shoulder shall ye eat in a ‘clean place: thou, and thy sons, and thy ‘daughters with thee: for they are given as thy duty and thy son’s duty, of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.
15 The heave shoulder, and the shaken breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thine and thy sons with thee by a law forever, as the Lord hath commanded.
16 ¶ And Moses sought the goat that was offered for sin, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sons of Aaron, which were ‘left alive, saying,
17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most Holy? and God hath given it you, to bear the iniquity of the Congregation, to make an atonement for them before the Lord.
18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought within the holy place: ye should have eaten it in the holy place, ‘as I commanded.
19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day ‘have they offered their sin offering, and their burnt offering before the Lord, and such things as 10:19 1 That is, Nadab and Abihu.

LEVITICUS 10:20

thou knowest are come unto me: If I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the Lord?

20 So when Moses heard it, he was content.

11 1 Of beasts, fishes and birds, which be clean, and which be unclean.

1 After, the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, These are the beasts which ye shall eat, among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat:

4 But of them that chew the cud, or divide the hoof only, of them ye shall not eat: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, he shall be unclean unto you.

5 Likewise the coney, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, he shall be unclean to you.

6 Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof; he shall be unclean to you.

7 And the swine, because he parteth the hoof, and is cloven footed, but cheweth not the cud, he shall be unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch: for they shall be unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, or in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 But all that have not fins nor scales in the seas, or in the rivers, of all that moveth in the waters, and of all living things that are in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you.

11 They, I say, shall be an abomination to you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but shall abhor their carcass.

12 Whatsoever hath not fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be abomination unto you.

13 ¶ These shall ye have also in abomination among the fowls, they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination, the eagle, and the goshawk, and the osprey:

14 Also the vulture, and the kite after his kind,

15 Also the ravens after their kind:

16 The ostrich also, and the night-crow, and the 1seamew, and the hawk after his kind.

17 The little owl also, and the cormorant, and the great owl:

18 Also the 1redshank, and the pelican, and the swan:

19 The stork also, the heron after his kind, and the lapwing and the [bat]:

20 Also every fowl that creepeth and goeth upon all four, such shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these shall ye eat: of every fowl that creepeth, and goeth upon all four which 1have their feet and legs all of one to leap withal upon the earth.

22 Of them ye shall eat these, the grasshopper after his kind, and the 1solean after his kind, the hargol after his kind, and the hagab after his kind.

23 But all other fowls that creep and have four feet, they shall be abomination unto you.

24 For by such ye shall be polluted: whosoever toucheth the carcass, shall be unclean unto the evening.

25 Whosoever also beareth of their carcass, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until even.

26 Every beast that hath claws divided, and is not cloven footed, nor cheweth the cud, such shall be unclean unto you: everyone that toucheth them, shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws among all manner beasts that goeth on all four, such shall be unclean unto you: who so doth touch their carcass, shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth their carcass, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: for such shall be unclean unto you.

29 ¶ Also these shall be unclean to you among the things that creep and move upon the earth, the weasel, and the mouse, and the 1frog, after his kind:

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the stellio, and the mole.

31 These shall be unclean to you among all that 10:20 1 Moses bare with his infirmity, considering his great sorrow, but doth not leave an example to forgive them that maliciously transgress the commandment of God.

11:2 1 Or, whereof ye may eat.

11:13 1 Or, gryphon, as it is in the Greek.

11:16 1 Or, cuckoo.

11:18 1 Or, porphyrio.

11:21 1 Or, have no bowings on their feet.

11:22 1 These were certain kinds of grasshoppers, which are not now properly known.

11:25 1 Out of the camp.

11:26 1 Or, hath not his foot cloven in two.

11:29 1 Or, crocodile.
be holy, for I am holy.
32 Also whatsoever of the dead carcases of them doth fall upon, shall be unclean, whether it be vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack: whatsoever vessel it be that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as unclean until the even, and so be purified.
33 But every earthen vessel, wherein any of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shall be unclean, and ye shall break it.
34 All meat also that shall be eaten, if any such water come upon it, shall be unclean: and all drink that shall be drunk in all such vessels shall be unclean.
35 And everything that their carcase fall upon, shall be unclean: the furnace or the pot shall be broken: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.
36 Yet the fountains and wells where there is plenty of water shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcases, shall be unclean.
37 And if there fall of the dead carcass upon any seed, which useth to be sown, it shall be unclean.
38 But if any water be poured upon the seed, and there fall of the dead carcass thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.
39 If also any beast, whereof ye may eat, die, he that toucheth the carcass thereof, shall be unclean until the even.
40 And he that eateth of the carcass of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcass of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.
41 Every creeping thing therefore that creepeth upon the earth, shall be an abomination, and not be eaten.
42 Whatsoever goeth upon the breast, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or that hath many feet among all creeping things that creepeth upon the earth, ye shall not eat of them, for they shall be abomination.
43 Ye shall not pollute yourselves with anything that creepeth, neither make yourselves unclean with them, neither defile yourselves thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them.
44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be holy, for I am holy, and defile not yourselves with any creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.
45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

12 2 A law how women should be purged after their deliverance.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought forth seed, and borne a man-child, she shall be unclean seven days, like as she is unclean when she is put apart for her disease.
3 (And in the eighth day the foreskin of the child's flesh shall be circumcised.)
4 And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, until the time of her purifying be out.
5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as when she hath her disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.
6 Now when the days of her purifying are out (whether it be for a son or for a daughter) she shall bring to the Priest a lamb of one year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering, unto the door of the Sanctuary of the Congregation,
7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so she shall be purged of the issue of her blood: this is the law for her that hath borne a male or female.
8 But if she be not able to bring a lamb, she shall bring two turtles, and two young pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so she shall be clean.

13 2 What considerations the Priests ought to have in judging the leprosy.
1 Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 The man that shall have in the skin of his flesh a swelling or a scab, or a white spot, so that in the skin of his flesh it be like the plague of leprosy, then 11:31  As a bottle or bag.

11:36  So much of the water as toucheth it.
11:38  He speaketh of seed that is laid to sleep before it be sown.
11:44  He showeth why God did choose them to be his people,
1 Pet. 1:15.
12:2  So that her husband for that time could not resort to her.
12:4  Besides the first seven days.
12:5  Twice so long as if she bare a man-child.
12:6  Where the burnt offerings were wont to be offered.
12:8  Hebrew, if her hand find not the worth of a lamb.
13:2  That it may be suspected to be the leprosy.
he shall be brought unto Aaron the Priest, or unto one of his sons the Priests,
3 And the Priest shall look on the sore in the skin of his flesh: if the hair in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seen to be ‘lower than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy; therefore the Priest shall look on him, and ‘pronounce him unclean.
4 But if the white spot be in the skin of his flesh, and seem not to be lower than the skin, nor the hair thereof be turned unto white, then the Priest shall shut up him that hath the plague, seven days.
5 After, the Priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if the plague seem ‘to him to abide still, and the plague grow not in the skin, the Priest shall shut him up yet seven days more.
6 Then the Priest shall look on him again the seventh day; and if the plague ‘be dark, and the sore grow not in the skin, then the Priest shall ‘pronounce him unclean: for it is a scab; therefore he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.
7 But if the scab grow more in the skin, after that he is seen of the Priest for to be purged, he shall be seen of the Priest yet again.
8 Then the Priest shall consider, and if the scab ‘grow in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him ‘unclean: for it is leprosy.
9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, he shall be brought unto the Priest,
10 And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling ‘be white in the skin, and have made the hair white, and there be raw flesh in the swelling,
11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.
12 Also if the leprosy ‘break out in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of the plague, from his head even to his feet, wheresoever the Priest looketh, 13 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosy cover all his flesh, he shall pronounce the plague to be ‘clean, because it is all turned into whiteness: so he shall be clean.
14 But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seen, he shall be unclean.
15 For the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and declare him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is ‘unclean, therefore it is the leprosy.
16 Or if the raw flesh change and be turned into white, then he shall come to the Priest, 17 And the Priest shall behold him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shall pronounce the plague clean, for it is clean.
18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skin there is ‘a boil, and is healed
19 And in the place of the boil there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shall be seen of the Priest.
20 And when the Priest seeth it, if it appear lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be changed into white, the Priest then shall pronounce him ‘unclean: for it is a plague of leprosy, broken out in the boil.
21 But if the Priest look on it, and there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven days.
22 And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, for it is a sore.
23 But if the spot continue in his place, and grow not, it is a burning boil: therefore the Priest shall declare him to be clean.
24 ¶ If there be any flesh, in whose skin there is an hot burning, and the quick flesh of the burning have a ‘white spot, somewhat reddish or pale,
25 Then the Priest shall look upon it: and if the hair in that spot be changed into white, and it appear lower than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosy.
26 But if the Priest look on it, and there be no white hair in the spot, and be no lower than the other skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven days.
27 After, the Priest shall look on him the seventh day: if it be grown abroad in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosy.
28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is dark, it is a ‘rising of the burning: the Priest shall therefore declare him clean: for it is the drying up of the burning.
29 ¶ If also a man or a woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard,
30 Then the Priest shall see the sore: and if it appears lower than the skin, and there be in it a small yellow hair, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a black spot, and leprosy of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Priest look on the sore of the black spot, and if it seem not lower than the skin, nor have any black hair in it, then the Priest shall shut up him that hath the sore of the black spot, seven days.

32 After, in the seventh day the Priest shall look on the sore: and if the black spot grow not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the black spot seem not lower than the skin, 33 Then he shall be shaven, but the place of the black spot shall he not shave: but the Priest shall shut up him that hath black spot, seven days more.

34 And the seventh day the Priest shall look on the black spot: and if the black spot grow not in the skin, nor seem lower than the other skin, then the Priest shall cleanse him, and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the black spot grow abroad in the flesh after his cleansing, 36 Then the Priest shall look on it, and if the black spot grow in the skin, the Priest shall not seek for the yellow hair: for it is unclean.

37 But if the black spot seem to him to abide, and that black hair grow therein, the black spot is healed, he is clean, and the Priest shall declare him to be clean.

38 Furthermore if there be any white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman, 39 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat dark and white withal, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: therefore he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, and is bald, is clean.

41 And if his head lose the hair on the forepart, and be bald before, he is clean.

42 But if there be in the bald head, or in the bald forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosy springing in his bald head, or in his bald forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shall look upon it, and if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, appearing like leprosy in the skin of the flesh, 44 He is a leper and unclean: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether unclean: for the sore is in his head.

45 The leper also in whom the plague is, shall have his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a covering upon his lips, and shall cry, I am unclean, I am unclean.

46 As long as the disease shall be upon him, he shall be polluted, for he is unclean: he shall dwell alone, without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 Also the garment that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woolen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp or in the woof of linen or of woolen, either in a skin, or in anything made of skin,

49 And if the sore be green or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warp or in the woof, or in anything that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague, seven days, 51 And shall look on the plague the seventh day: if the plague grow in the garment or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, or in anything that is made of skin, that plague is a fretting leprosy and unclean.

52 And he shall burn the garment, or the warp, or the woof, whether it be woolen or linen, or anything that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy, therefore it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet see that the plague grow not in the garment, or in the woof, or in whatsoever thing of skin it be, 54 Then the Priest shall command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more.

55 Again the Priest shall look on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague have not changed his color, though the plague spread no further, it is unclean: thou shalt burn it in the fire, for it is a fret inward, whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague be darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.

57 And if it appear still in the garment or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin, it is a spreading leprosy: thou shalt burn the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.
58 If thou hast washed the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed the second time, and be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woolen or linen, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, to make it clean or unclean.

14 1 The cleansing of the leper, 34 And of the house that he is in.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 ‘This is the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: that is, he shall be brought unto the Priest,
3 And the Priest shall go out of the camp, and the Priest shall consider him: and if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper,
4 Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is cleansed, two sparrows alive and clean, and cedarwood and a scarlet lace, and hyssop.
5 And the Priest shall command to kill one of the birds over pure water in an earthen vessel.
6 After, he shall take the live sparrow with the cedarwood, and the scarlet lace, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living sparrow in the blood of the sparrow slain, over the pure water.
7 And he shall sprinkle upon him, that must be cleansed of his leprosy, seven times, and cleanse him, and shall let go the live sparrow into the broad field.
8 Then he that shall be cleansed, shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, so he shall be clean: after that shall he come into the host, and shall tarry without his tent seven days.
9 So in the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair both his head and his beard, and his eyebrows: even all his hair shall be shaven, and shall wash his clothes, and shall wash his flesh in water: so he shall be clean.
10 Then in the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and an ewe lamb of a year old without blemish, and three-tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and a pint of oil.
11 And the Priest that maketh him clean shall bring the man which is to be made clean, and those things, before the Lord, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then the Priest shall take one lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the pint of oil, and shall shake them to and fro before the Lord.

13 And he shall kill the lamb in the place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slain, even in the holy place: for as the ‘sin offering is the Priest’s, so is the trespass offering: for it is most holy.

14 So the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lap of the right ear of him that shall be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 The Priest shall also take of the pint of oil, and pour it into the palm of his left hand, 16 And the Priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the Lord.
17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand, shall the Priest put upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, where the blood of the trespass offering was put.

18 But the remnant of the oil that is in the Priest’s hand, he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.
19 And the Priest shall offer the burnt offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed of his uncleanness: then after shall he kill the burnt offering.
20 So the Priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the Altar: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him: so he shall be clean.
21 But if he be poor, and not able, then he shall bring one lamb for a trespass offering to be shaken, for his reconciliation, and a tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering, with a pint of oil.
22 Also two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.
23 And he shall bring them the eighth day for his cleansing unto the Priest at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.
24 Then the Priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the pint of oil, and the Priest shall shake them to and fro before the Lord.

13:58 1 To the intent he might be sure that the leprosy was departed, and that all occasion of infection might be taken away.
14:2 1 Or, the ceremony which shall be used in his purgation.
14:4 1 Or, little birds.
14:5 1 Running water, or of the fountains.
14:7 1 Signifying, that he that was made clean, was set at liberty, and restored to the company of others.
14:10 1 Which hath no imperfection in any member.
14:2 1 Hebrew, the finger of his right hand.
14:17 1 Hebrew, upon the blood of the trespass offering.
14:21 1 Hebrew, his hand cannot take it.
14:24 1 Or, shall offer them as the offering that is shaken to and fro.
25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lap of his right ear that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.
26 Also the Priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.
27 So the Priest shall with his right finger sprinkle of the oil that is in his left hand, seven times before the Lord.
28 Then the Priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand, upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering.
29 But the rest of the oil that is in the Priest's hand, he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.
30 Also he shall present one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, as he is able.
31 Such, I say, as he is able, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the Lord.
32 This is the Law of him which hath the plague of leprosy, who is not able in his cleansing to offer the whole.
33 ¶ The Lord also spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
34 When ye be come unto the land of Canaan which I give you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosy in an house of the land of your possession,
35 Then he that owneth the house shall come and tell the Priest, saying, Me think there is like a plague of leprosy in an house of the land of your possession, which I give you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosy there.
36 Then the Priest shall command them to empty the house before the Priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean, and then shall the Priest go in to see the house.
37 And he shall mark the plague: and if the plague be in the walls of the house, and that there be deep spots, greenish or reddish, which seem to be lower than the wall.
38 Then the Priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shall cause to shut up the house seven days.
39 So the Priest shall come again the seventh day: and if he see that the plague be increased in the walls of the house, 40 Then the Priest shall command them to take away the stones wherein the plague is, and they shall cast them into a foul place without the city.
41 Also he shall cause to scrape the house within round about, and pour the dust, that they have pared off, without the city in an unclean place.
42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shall take other mortar, to plaster the house with.
43 But if the plague come again and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after that he hath scraped and plastered the house,
44 Then the Priest shall come and see: and if the plague grow in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is therefore unclean.
45 And he shall break down the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house, and he shall carry them out of the city unto an unclean place.
46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, he shall be unclean until the even.
47 He also that sleepeth in the house shall wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.
48 But if the Priest shall come and see, that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after the house be plastered, the Priest shall pronounce the house clean, for the plague is healed.
49 Then shall he take to purify the house, two sparrows, and cedarwood, and scarlet lace, and hyssop.
50 And he shall kill one sparrow over pure water in an earthen vessel, 51 And shall take the cedarwood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet lace with the live Sparrow, and dip them in the blood of the slain Sparrow, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seven times:
52 So shall he cleanse the house with the blood of the sparrow, and with the pure water, and with the live sparrow, and with the cedarwood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet lace.
53 Afterward he shall let go the live sparrow out of the town into the broad fields: so shall he make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for every plague of leprosy and black spot.

55 And of the leprosy of the garment, and of the house,

56 And of the swelling, and of the scab, and of the white spot.

57 This is the law of the leprosy, to teach when a thing is unclean, and when it is clean.

15 8, 19 The manner of purging the unclean issues both of men and women. 31 The children of Israel must be separate from all uncleanness.

1 Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whosoever hath an issue from his flesh, is unclean, because of his issue.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue, when his flesh avoideth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, shall be unclean, and everything whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 Whosoever also toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing, whereon he sat that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

7 Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

8 If he also that hath the issue, spit upon him that is clean, he shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon, that hath the issue, shall be unclean,

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him, shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth those things, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

11 Likewise whosoever he toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not washed his hands in water) shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

12 And the vessel of earth that he toucheth, which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 But if he that hath an issue, be cleansed of his issue, then shall he count him seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall he be clean.

14 Then the eighth day he shall take unto him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall give them unto the Priest, 15 And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sin offering, and of the other a burnt offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord for his issue.

16 Also if any man’s issue of seed depart from him, he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17 And every garment, and every skin whereupon shall be issue of seed, shall be even washed with water, and be unclean unto the even.

18 If he that hath an issue of seed do lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselves with water, and be unclean until the even.

19 Also when a woman shall have an issue, and her issue in her flesh shall be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be unclean until the even.

20 And whatsoever she lieth upon in her separation, shall be unclean, and everything that she sitteth upon, shall be unclean.

21 Whosoever also toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself with water, and shall be unclean unto the even.

22 And whosoever toucheth anything that she sat upon, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself with water, and shall be unclean unto the even.

23 So that whether he toucheth her bed, or anything whereon she hath sat, he shall be unclean unto the even.

24 And if a man lie with her, and the flowers of her separation touch him, he shall be unclean seven days, and all the whole bed whereon he lieth, shall be unclean.

25 Also when a woman's issue of blood runneth long time besides the time of her flowers, or when she hath an issue longer than her flowers, all the days of the issue of her uncleanness she shall be unclean, as in the time of her flowers.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth (as long as her issue lasteth) shall be to her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon, shall be unclean, as her uncleanness when she is put apart.

27 And whosoever toucheth these things, shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean unto the even.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall count her seven days, and after, she shall be clean.

29 And in the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the Priest at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

30 And the Priest shall make of the one a sin offering, and of the other a burnt offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him from whom goeth an issue of seed whereby he is defiled:

33 Also of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath a running issue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lieth with her which is unclean.

16 2 The Priest might not at all times come into the most holy place. 8 The scapegoat. 14 The purging of the Sanctuary. 17 The cleansing of the Tabernacle. 21 The Priest confesseth the sins of the people. 29 The feast of cleansing sins.

1 Furthermore the Lord spake unto Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they came to offer before the Lord, and died:

2 And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the Mercy seat, which is upon the Ark, that he die not, for I will appear in the cloud upon the Mercy seat.

3 After this sort shall Aaron come into the Holy place: even with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy coat, and shall have linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and shall cover his head with a linen mitre, these are the holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, when he doth put them on.

5 And he shall take of the Congregation of the children of Israel, two goats for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

6 Then Aaron shall offer the bullock for his sin offering, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two he goats, and present them before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 Then Aaron shall cast lots over the two he goats: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the Scapegoat.

9 And Aaron shall offer the goat, upon which the lot shall fall to be the Scapegoat.

10 But the goat, on which the lot shall fall to be the Scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, and to let him go (as a Scapegoat) into the wilderness.

11 Thus Aaron shall offer the bullock for his sin offering, and make a reconciliation for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock for his sin offering.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals from off the altar before the Lord, and his hand full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil, 13 And shall put the incense upon the fire before the Lord, that the cloud of the incense may cover the Mercy seat that is upon the Testimony: so he shall not die.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the Mercy seat: and he shall sprinkle thereof at the mercy seat seven times, and it shall be accepted for him for a atonement before the Lord.

15:25 1 Hebrew, separation.

15:26 1 Shall be unclean as the bed whereon she lay when she had her natural disease.

15:28 1 After the time that she is recovered.

15:31 1 Seeing that God required of his purity and cleanness: we cannot be his, except our filth and sins be purged with the blood of Jesus Christ, and so we learn to detest all sin.

16:4 1 Or, privities.

16:8 1 In Hebrew it is called Azazel, which some say, is a mountain near Sinai, whither this goat was sent, but rather it is called the Scapegoat, because it was not offered, but sent into the desert, as verse 11.

16:12 1 The Holiest of all.

16:13 1 Or, the smoke.

16:14 1 That is, on the side which was toward the people: for the head of the Sanctuary stood Westward.
of the blood with his finger seven times.
15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat that is the people’s sin offering, and bring his blood within the veil and do with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the Mercy seat, and before the Mercy seat.

16 So he shall purge the Holy place from the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses of all their sins: so shall he do also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation placed with them, in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the Congregation of Israel.

18 After, he shall go out unto the altar that is before the Lord, and make a reconciliation upon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the Altar round about.

19 So shall he sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ When he hath made an end of purging the Holy place, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Altar, then he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall put both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all their iniquities in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away (by the hand of a man appointed) into the wilderness.

22 So the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities into the land that is not inhabited, and he shall let the goat go into the wilderness.

23 After, Aaron shall come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and put off the linen clothes, which he put on when he went into the Holy place, and leave them there.

24 He shall wash also his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his own raiment, and come out, and make his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 Also the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that carried forth the goat called the Scapegoat, shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shall come into the host.

27 Also the bullock for the burnt offering, and the goat for the sin offering (whose blood was brought to make a reconciliation in the Holy place) shall one carry out without the host to be burnt in the fire, with their skins, and with their flesh, and with their dung.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterward come into the host.

29 ¶ So this shall be an ordinance forever unto you: the tenth day of the seventh month, ye shall humble your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of the same country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

30 For that day shall the Priest make an atonement for you to cleanse you: ye shall be clean from all your sins before the Lord.

31 This shall be a Sabbath of rest unto you, and you shall humble your souls by an ordinance forever.

32 And the Priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate (to minister in his father’s stead) shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes and holy vestments, 33 And shall purge the holy Sanctuary and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall cleanse the altar, and make an atonement for the Priests and for all the people of the Congregation.

34 And this shall be an everlasting ordinance unto you to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year: and as the Lord commanded Moses, he did.

17 All sacrifices must be brought to the door of the Tabernacle. ¶ To devils they may not offer. 10 They may not eat blood.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying,

3 Whosoever be he of the house of Israel that killeth a bullock, or lamb, or goat in the host, or that killeth it out of the host,

4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer an offering unto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord, blood

16:16 1 Placed among them which are unclean.
16:18 1 Whereupon the sweet incense and perfume was offered.
16:21 1 Herein this goat is a true figure of Jesus Christ, who beareth the sins of the people, Isa. 53:9.
16:22 1 Hebrew, the land of separations.
16:24 1 In the court where was the Laver, Exod. 30:18.
16:29 1 Which was Tishri, and answereth to part of September, and part of October.
16:33 1 Or a rest which ye shall keep most diligently.
16:34 1 Whom the Priest shall anoint by God’s commandment to succeed in his father’s room.
17:2 1 Lest they should practice that idolatry, which they had learned among the Egyptians.
17:3 1 To make a sacrifice of offering thereof.
17:4 1 I do as much abhor it as though he had killed a man, as Isa. 66:3.
shall be imputed unto that man: he hath shed blood, wherefore that man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 Therefore the children of Israel shall bring their offerings, which they would offer abroad in the field, and present them unto the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation by the Priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the Lord.

6 Then the Priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the Altar of the Lord before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

7 And they shall no more offer their offerings unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring: this shall be an ordinance forever unto them in their generations.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt say unto them, Whosoever be be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among them, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it unto the Lord, even that man shall be cut off from his people.

10 ¶ Likewise whosoever be be of the house of Israel: or of the strangers that sojourn among them, that eateth any blood, I will even set my face against that person that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it unto you to offer upon the altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for this blood shall make an atonement for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, None of you shall eat blood: neither the stranger that sojourneth among you, shall eat blood.

13 Moreover whosoever be be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, which by hunting taketh any beast or fowl that may be eaten, he shall pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust:

14 For the life of all flesh is his blood, it is joined with his life: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no flesh: for the life of all flesh is his blood: whosoever eateth it, shall be cut off.

15 And every person that eateth it which dieth alone, or that which is torn with beasts, whether it be one of the same country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and be unclean unto the even: after he shall be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor wash his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

18 3 The Israelites ought not to follow the manners of the Egyptians and Canaanites. 6 The marriages that are unlawful.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the Lord your God.

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the manner of the land of Canaan, whither I will bring you, shall ye not do, neither walk in their ordinances.

4 But do after my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the Lord your God.

5 Ye shall keep therefore my statutes, and my judgments, which if a man do, he shall then live in them: I am the Lord.

6 ¶ None shall come near to any of the kindred of his flesh to uncover her shame: I am the Lord.

7 Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's sister: for she is thy mother's kinswoman.

8 ¶ The shame of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: for it is thy father's shame.

9 Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, thou shalt not, I say, uncover their shame: for it is thy shame.

10 The shame of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, thou shalt not, I say, uncover their shame: for it is thy shame.

11 The shame of thy father's wife's daughter, be-gotten of thy father (for she is thy sister) thou shalt not, I say, discover her shame.

12 ¶ The shame of thy father's wife's daughter, be-gotten of thy father (for she is thy sister) thou shalt not, I say, discover her shame.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's sister: for she is thy father's kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's sister: for she is thy father's kinswoman.
18:15 brother: that is, thou shalt not go in to his wife, for she is thine aunt.
16 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy daughter-in-law: for she is thy son's wife: therefore shalt thou not uncover her shame.
17 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy brother's wife: for it is thy brother's shame.
18 Also thou shalt not take a wife with her sister, during her life to vex her, in uncovering her shame upon her.
19 Thou shalt not also go unto a woman to uncover her shame, as long as she is put apart for her disease.
20 Moreover, thou shalt not give thy self to thy neighbor's wife by carnal copulation, to be defiled with her.
21 Also thou shalt not give thy children to offer them unto Molech, neither shalt thou defile the Name of thy God: for I am the Lord.
22 Thou shalt not lie with the male as one lieth with a woman: for it is abomination.
23 Thou shalt not also lie with any beast to be defiled therewith, neither shall any woman stand before a beast, to lie down thereto: for it is abomination.
24 Ye shall not defile yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the Nations are defiled which I will cast out before you:
25 And the land is defiled: therefore I will visit the wickedness thereof upon it, and the land shall vomit out her inhabitants.
26 Ye shall keep therefore mine ordinances, and my judgments, and commit none of these abominations, as sojourneth among you.

19 A repetition of sundry Laws and Ordinances.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the Lord your God am holy.
3 Ye shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor, neither shall ye make satan to hypocrisy.
4 Ye shall not turn unto idols, nor make ye molten gods: I am the Lord your God.
5 And when ye shall offer a peace offering unto the Lord, ye shall offer it freely.
6 Ye shall not eat the day ye offer it, or on the morrow: and that which remaineth until the third day, shall be burnt in the fire.
7 For if it be eaten the third day, it shall be unclean, it shall not be accepted.
8 Therefore he that eateth it, shall bear his iniquity, because he hath defiled the hallowed thing of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from his people.
9 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, ye shall not reap every corner of your field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.
10 Thou shalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyard clean, neither gather every grape of thy vineyard, but thou shalt leave them for the poor and for the stranger, that sojourneth among you.

stranger: I am the Lord your God.
11 ¶ Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another.
12 ¶ Also ye shall not swear by my Name falsely, neither shalt thou defile the Name of thy God: I am the Lord.
13 ¶ Thou shalt not do thy neighbor ‘wrong, neither rob him.’ The workman’s hire shall not abide with thee until the morning.
14 ¶ Thou shalt not curse the deaf, neither put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the Lord.
15 ¶ Ye shall not do unjustly in judgment: ‘Thou shalt not favor the person of the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty, but thou shalt judge thy neighbor justly.
16 ¶ Thou shalt not ‘walk about with tales among thy people: ‘Thou shalt not stand against the blood of thy neighbor: I am the Lord.
17 ¶ Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbor, ‘and suffer him not to sin.
18 ¶ Thou shalt not avenge, nor be mindful of ‘wrong against the children of thy people, ‘but shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord.
19 ¶ Ye shall keep mine ordinances. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with ‘others of divers kinds. Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed, neither shall a garment of divers things, as of linen and woolen come upon thee.
20 ¶ Whosoever also lieth and meddleth with a woman that is a bondmaid, affianced to a husband, and not redeemed, nor freedom given her, ‘she shall be scourged, but they shall not die, because she is not made free.
21 And he shall bring for his trespass offering unto the Lord, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, a ram for a trespass offering.
22 Then the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord, concerning his sin which he hath done, and pardon shall be given him for his sin which he hath committed.
23 ¶ Also when ye shall come into the land, and have planted every tree for meat, ye ‘shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten:

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to the praise of the Lord.
25 And the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit of it, that it may ‘yield to you the increase thereof: I am the Lord your God.
26 ¶ Ye shall not eat the flesh with the ‘blood: ye shall not use witchcraft, nor ‘observe times.
27 ¶ Ye shall not cut round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou ‘mar the tufts of thy beard.
28 ¶ Ye shall not cut your flesh for the ‘dead, nor make any print of a ‘mark upon you: I am the Lord.
29 ¶ Thou shalt not make thy daughter common, to cause her to be a ‘whore, lest the land also fall to whoredom, and the land be full of wickedness.
30 ¶ Ye shall keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my Sanctuary: I am the Lord.
31 ¶ Ye shall not regard them that work with spirits, ‘neither Soothsayers: ye shall not seek to them to be defiled by them, I am the Lord your God.
32 ¶ Thou shalt ‘rise up before the hoary head, and honor the person of the old man, and dread thy God: I am the Lord.
33 ¶ And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not ‘vex him.
34 ¶ But the stranger that dwelleth with you, shall be as one of yourselves, and thou shalt love him as thyself: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
35 ¶ Ye shall not do unjustly in judgment, in ‘line, in weight, or in measure.
36 ¶ ‘You shall have just balances, true weights, a true ‘Ephah, and a true Hɪn, I am the Lord your God, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt.
37 ¶ Therefore shall ye observe all mine ordinances, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the Lord.

20 2 They that give of their seed to Molech, must die. 6 They that have recourse to sorcerers. 10 The man that committeth adultery. 11 incest, or fornication with the kindred or affinity. 24 Israel a peculiar people to the Lord.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 "Thou shalt say also to the children of Israel, ‘Whosoever be be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that dwell in Israel, that giveth his children unto Molech, he shall die the death, the people of the land shall stone him to death."

3 And I will set my face against that man and cut him off from among his people, because he hath given his children unto Molech, for to defile my Sanctuary, and to pollute mine holy Name. 4 And if the ‘people of the land hide their eyes, and wink at that man when he giveth his children unto Molech, and kill him not,

5 Then will I set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off from among his people.

6 ¶ If any turn after such as work with spirits, and after soothsayers to go a ‘whoring after him to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

7 ¶ Sanctify yourselves therefore, ‘and be holy, for I am the Lord your God. 8 Keep ye therefore mine ordinances, and do them: I am the Lord which doth sanctify you.

9 ¶ If there be any that curseth his father or his mother he shall die the death, seeing he hath cursed his father and his mother, ‘his blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And the man that committeth adultery with another man’s wife, because he hath committed adultery with his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall die the death.

11 And the man that lieth with his father’s wife, because he hath uncovered his father’s ‘shame, they shall both die: their blood shall be upon them.

12 Also the man that lieth with his daughter-in-law, they both shall die the death, they have wrought ‘abomination, their blood shall be upon them.

13 ¶ The man also that lieth with the male, as one lieth with a woman, they have both committed abomination: they shall die the death, their blood shall be upon them.

14 Likewise he that taketh a wife and her mother, ‘committeth wickedness: they shall burn him and them with fire, that there be no wickedness among you.

15 ¶ Also the man that lieth with a beast, shall die the death, and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman come to any beast, and lie thitherewith, then thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall die the death, their blood shall be upon them.

17 Also the man that taketh his sister, his father’s daughter, or his mother’s daughter, and seeth her shame, and she seeth his shame, it is villainy: therefore they shall be cut off in the sight of their people, because he that uncovered his sister’s shame, he shall bear his iniquity.

18 ¶ The man also that lieth with a woman having her ‘disease, and uncovereth her shame, and openeth her fountain, and she open the fountain of her blood, they shall be even both cut off from among their people.

19 Moreover, thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy mother’s sister, nor of thy father’s sister: because he hath uncovered his ‘kin, they shall bear their iniquity.

20 Likewise the man that lieth with his father’s brother’s wife, and uncovereth his uncle’s shame: they shall bear their iniquity, and shall die ‘childless.

21 So the man that taketh his brother’s wife, committeth filthiness, because he hath uncovered his brother’s ‘shame, they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall keep therefore all mine ordinances and all my judgments, and do them, that the land whither I bring you to dwell therein, ‘spew you not out.

23 Wherefore ye shall not walk in the manners of this nation which I cast out before you: for they have committed all these things, therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, even a land that ‘floweth with milk and honey: I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people.

25 ¶ Therefore shall ye put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean, neither shall ye ‘defile your fowls with beasts and fowls, nor with any ‘creeping thing, that the ground bringeth forth, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 Therefore shall ye be ‘holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and I have separated you from other people that ye should be mine.

27 ¶ And if a man or woman have a spirit of divination, or soothsaying in them, they shall die the death: they shall stone them to death, their blood shall be upon them.

21 For whom the Priests may lament. 6 How pure the Priests ought to be, both in themselves, and in their family.

1 And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto the Priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, Let none be defiled by the dead among his people,

2 But by his kinsman that is near unto him: therefore could not lament the dead, lest he should have polluted himself.

3 Or by his sister a maid, that is near unto him, which had not had an husband: for her he may lament.

4 He shall not lament for the Prince among his people, to pollute himself.

5 They shall not make bald parts upon their head, nor shave off the locks of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not pollute the Name of their God: for the sacrifices of God made by fire, having a blemish, neither shall they prease to offer the bread of his God.

7 They shall not take to wife an whore, or one polluted, neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband: for such one is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore, for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the Lord which sanctify you, am holy.

9 ¶ If a Priest's daughter fall to play the whore, she polluteth her father: therefore shall she be burnt with fire.

10 ¶ Also the high Priest among his brethren, (upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and hath consecrated his hand to put on the garments) shall not uncover his head nor rent his clothes.

11 Neither shall he go to any dead body, nor make himself unclean by his father or by his mother, his holy anointing.

12 Neither shall he go out of the Sanctuary, nor pollute the holy place of his God: for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the Lord.

13 Also he shall take a maid unto his wife:

14 But a widow, or a divorced woman, or a polluted, or an harlot, these shall he not marry, but shall take a maid of his own people to wife:

15 Neither shall he defile his seed among his people: for I am the Lord which sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, and say, Whosoever of thy seed in their generations hath any blemishes, shall not prease to offer the bread of his God:

18 For whosoever hath any blemish, shall not come near: as a man blind or lame, or that hath a flat nose, or that hath any misshapen member,

19 Or, a man that hath a broken foot, or a broken hand,

20 Or, is crookbacked, or blear-eyed, or hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken.

21 None of the seed of Aaron the Priest that hath a blemish, shall come near to offer the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, having a blemish: he shall not prease to offer the bread of his God.

22 The bread of his God, even of the most holy, and of the holy shall he eat:

23 But he shall not go in unto the veil, nor come near the altar, because he hath a blemish, lest he pollute my Sanctuaries: for I am the Lord that sanctify them.

24 Thus spake Moses unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

22 Who ought to abstain from eating the things that were offered. 19 What oblation should be offered.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, that they be separated from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they pollute not mine holy name in those things, which they hallow unto me: I am the Lord.
3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations after you, that toucheth the holy things which the children of Israel hallow unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, even that person shall be cut off from my sight, I am the Lord.

4 Whosoever also of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he be clean: and who so toucheth any that is unclean by reason of the dead, or a man whose issue of seed runneth from him,

5 Or the man that toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man by whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath,

6 The person that hath touched such, shall therefore be unclean until the even, and shall not eat of the holy things, except he have washed his flesh with water.

7 But when the Sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things: for it is his food.

8 Of a beast that dieth, or is rent with beasts, whereby he may be defiled, he shall not eat: I am the Lord.

9 Let them keep therefore mine ordinance, lest they bear their sin for it, and die for it, if they defile it: I the Lord sanctify them.

10 There shall no stranger also eat of the holy thing, neither the guest of the Priest, neither shall any hired servant eat of the holy thing:

11 But if the Priest buy any with money, he shall eat of it, also he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the Priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of the holy offerings.

13 Notwithstanding if the Priest's daughter be a widow or divorced, and have no child, but is returned unto her father's house, she shall eat of her father's bread, as she did in her youth: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ If a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, he shall put the fifth part thereof, and give it unto the Priest with the hallowed thing.

15 So shall they not defile the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord, nor make an offering thereof in your land, 16 Neither cause the people to bear the iniquity of the Priest's kindred.

22:14 He shall give that and a fifth part over.
22:16 For if they did not offer for their error, the people by their example might commit the like offense.
22:22 Or, wart.
22:25 Ye shall not receive any imperfect thing of a stranger, to make it the Lord's offering: which he calleth the bread of the Lord.
22:32 For whosoever doth otherwise than God commanded thine necked his Name.
23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

1 That is the seventh day after the first Sabbath of the Passover.

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, The feasts of the Lord which ye shall call the holy assemblies, even these are my feasts.

3 Six days shall work be done, but in the seventh day shall be the Sabbath of rest, an holy convocation: ye shall do no work therein, it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feasts of the Lord, and holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the first month and in the fourteenth day of the month at evening shall be the Passover of the Lord.

6 And on the fifteenth day of this month shall be the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 Also ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord seven days, and in the seventh day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the Priest.

11 And he shall shake the sheaf before the Lord, that it may be acceptable for you: the morrow after the seventh Sabbath, the Priest shall shake it.

12 And that day when ye shake the sheaf, shall ye prepare a lamb without blemish of a year old, for a burnt offering unto the Lord:

13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, for a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord of sweet savor: and the drink offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin of wine.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread nor parched corn, nor green ears until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: this shall be a Law forever in your generations and in all your dwellings.

15 Ye shall count also to you from the morrow after the seventh Sabbath, even from the day that ye shall bring the sheaf of the shake offering, seven Sabbaths, they shall be complete.

16 Unto the morrow after the seventh Sabbath shall ye number fifty days: then ye shall bring a new meat offering unto the Lord.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations bread for the shake offering: they shall be two loaves of two tenth deals of fine flour, which shall be baked with leaven for firstfruits unto the Lord.

18 Also ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of one year old, and a young bullock and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the Lord, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, for a sacrifice made by fire of a sweet savor unto the Lord.

19 Then ye shall prepare an he goat for a sin offering, and two lambs of one year old for peace offerings.

20 And the Priest shall shake them to and fro with the bread of the firstfruits before the Lord, and with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the Lord, for the Priest.

21 So ye shall proclaim the same day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be an ordinance forever in all your dwellings, throughout your generations.

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not rid clean the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou make any aftergathering of thy harvest, but shalt leave them unto the poor and to the stranger, I am the Lord your God.

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, In the seventh month, and in the first day of the month shall ye have a Sabbath, for the remembrance of 25 Ye shall do no servile work therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord.

26 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

27 The tenth also of this seventh month, shall be a day of reconciliation: it shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall humble your souls, and offer sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord.

28 And ye shall do no work that same day: for it is a day of reconciliation, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God.

29 For every person that humbleth not himself that same day, shall even be cut off from his people.

30 And every person that shall do any work that same day, the same person also will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner work therefore: this shall be a law forever in your generations, throughout all your dwellings.

32 This shall be unto you a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall humble your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even to even shall ye celebrate your Sabbath.

33 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be for seven days the feast of Tabernacles unto the Lord.

35 In the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord, and in the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire unto the Lord: it is the solemn assembly, ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the Lord (which ye shall call holy convocations) to offer sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord, as burnt offering, and meat offering, sacrifice, and drink offerings, every one upon his day.

38 Beside the Sabbaths of the Lord, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your free offerings, which ye shall give unto the Lord.

39 But in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep an holy feast unto the Lord seven days:

40 And ye shall take in the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook, and shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days.

41 So ye shall keep this feast unto the Lord seven days in the year, by a perpetual ordinance through your generations: in the seventh month shall you keep it.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days: all that are Israelites born, shall dwell in booths, 43 That your posterity may know that I have made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

44 So Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

24 The oil for the lamps. 5 The showbread. 14 The blasphemer shall be stoned. 17 He that killeth shall be killed.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten, for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the veil of the Testimony, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shall Aaron dress them, both even and morning before the Lord always:

4 He shall dress the lamps upon the pure table before the Lord always:

5 ¶ Also thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six in a row upon the pure table before the Lord.

7 Thou shalt also put pure incense upon the rows, that instead of the bread it may be for a remembrance, and an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

8 Every Sabbath he shall put them in rows before the Lord evermore, receiving them of the children of Israel for an everlasting Covenant.

9 And the bread shall be Aaron's and his sons', and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual ordinance.

10 ¶ And there went 4out among the children of Israel the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian: and this son of the Israelitish woman, and a man of Israel strove together in the host.

11 So the Israelitish woman's son 4blasphemed the Name of the Lord, and cursed, and they brought him unto Moses (his mother's name also was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan)

12 And they 4put him in ward, till he told them the mind of the Lord.

13 ¶ Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the blasphemer without the host, and let all that heard him, 4put their hands upon his head, and let all the Congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall 4bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, shall be put to death: all the Congregation shall stone him to death: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land: when he blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, let him be slain.

17 ¶ He also that 4killeth any man, he shall be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it, 4beast for beast.

19 Also if a man cause any blemish in his neighbor: as he hath done, so shall it be done to him:

20 4Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: such a blemish as he hath made in any, such shall be repaid to him.

21 And he that killeth a beast, shall restore it: but he that killeth a man, shall be slain.

22 Ye shall have one 4law: it shall be as well for the stranger as for one born in the country; for I am the Lord thy God.

23 ¶ Then 4Moses told the children of Israel, and they brought the blasphemer out of the host, and stoned him with stones: so the children of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24:10 4Meaning, out of his tent.
24:11 4By swearing or despiting God.
24:15 4Shall be punished.
24:17 4Hebrew, smiteth the soul of any man.
24:18 4Hebrew, soul for soul.
24:23 4Because the punishment was not yet appointed by the law for the blasphemer, Moses consulted with the Lord, and told the people what God commanded.
25:2 4Hebrew, shall rest a rest.
25:3 4The Jews began the count of this year in September: for then all the fruits were gathered.
25:5 4By reason of the corn that fell out of the ears the year past.
25:6 4Or, which thou hast separated from thyself, and consecrated to God for the poor.
25:8 4Or, weeks.
25:9 4In the beginning of the 50th year was the Jubilee, so called, because the joyful tidings of liberty [were] publicly proclaimed by the sound of a cornet.
25:10 4Which were in bondage.
25:11 4Because the tribes should neither have their possessions or families diminished nor confounded.
14 And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbor, or buyest at thy neighbor's hand, ye shall 'not oppress one another.

15 But according to the number of 'years after the Jubilee, thou shalt buy of thy neighbor: also according to the number of the years of the revenues, he shall sell unto thee.

16 According to the multitude of years, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of fruith doth he sell unto thee.

17 Opprest not ye therefore any man his neighbor, but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 Wherefore ye shall obey mine ordinances, and keep my laws, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the land 'in safety.

19 And the land shall give her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year, for we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will send my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the old fruit until the ninth year: until the fruit thereof come ye shall eat the old.

23 Also the land shall not be sold to be 'cut off from the family: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me.

24 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall 'grant a redemption of the land.

25 If thy brother be impoverished, and sell his possession, then his redeemer shall come, even his near kinsman, and buy out that, which his brother sold.

26 And if he be have no redeemer, but 'hath gotten and found to buy it out, then shall he 'count the years of his sale, and restore the overplus to the man, to whom he sold it: so shall he return to his possession.

25:26 Hebrew, his hand hath gotten.

27 Abating the money of the years past, and paying for the rest of the years to come.

28 From his hand that bought it.

29 Likewise if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, he may buy it out again within a whole year after it is sold: within a year may he buy it out.

30 But if it be not bought out within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city, shall be established, as cut off from the family, to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the Jubilee.

31 But the houses of villages which have no walls round about them, shall be esteemed as the field of the country: they may be bought out again, and shall go out in the Jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem 'at all seasons.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, the house that was sold, and the city of their possession shall go out in the Jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities shall not be sold: for it is their perpetual possession.

35 Moreover, if thy brother be impoverished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieve him, and as a stranger and sojourner, so shall he live with thee.

36 Thou shalt take no usury of him, nor vantage, but thou shalt fear thy God, that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money to usury, nor lend him thy vittles for increase.

38 I am the Lord your God, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 If thy brother also that dwelleth by thee be impoverished, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond servant.

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner he shall be with thee: he shall serve thee unto the year of Jubilee.

41 Then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return:

42 For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen are sold.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him cruelly, but shalt fear thy God.

44 Thy bond servant also, and thy bondmaid, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy servants and maids.

45 And moreover, of the children of the strangers that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you which they begat in your land: these shall be your possession.

46 So ye shall take them, as inheritance for your children after you to possess them by inheritance, ye shall use their labors forever: but over your brethren the children of Israel ye shall not rule one over another with cruelty.

47 ¶ If a sojourner or a stranger dwelling by thee get riches, and thy brother by him be impoverished, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner dwelling by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family, After that he is sold, he may be bought out: one of his brethren may buy him out.

49 Or his uncle, or his uncle's son may buy him out, or any of the kindred of his flesh among his family, may redeem him: either if he can get so much, he may buy himself out.

50 Then he shall reckon with his buyer from the year that he was sold to him, unto the year of Jubilee: and the money of his sale shall be according to the number of years: according to the time of an hired servant shall he be with him.

51 If there be many years behind, according to them shall he give again for his deliverance, of the money that he was bought for.

52 If there remain but few years unto the year of Jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according to his years give again for his redemption.

53 He shall be with him year by year as an hired servant: he shall not rule cruelly over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the year of Jubilee, he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom I have brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
over you 1fearfulness, a consumption, and the burning ague to consume the eyes, and make the heart heavy, and you shall sow your seed in vain: for your enemies shall eat it: 17 And I will set 1my face against you, and ye shall fall before your enemies, and they that hate you, shall reign over you, 2and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. 18 And if ye will not for these things obey me, then will I punish you 1seven times more, according to your sins, 19 And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven as 1iron, and your earth as brass: 20 And your 1strength shall be spent in vain: neither shall your land give her increase, neither shall the trees of the land give their fruit. 21 ¶ And if ye walk 1stubbornly against me, and will not obey me, I will then bring seven times more plagues upon you, according to your sins. 22 I will also send wild beasts upon you, which shall 1spoil you, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number: so your 2highways shall be desolate. 23 Yet if by these ye will not be reformed by me, but walk stubbornly against me, 24 Then will I also walk 1stubbornly against you, and I will smite you yet seven times for your sins: 25 And I will send a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my Covenant: and when ye are gathered in your cities, I will send the pestilence among you, and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 26 When I shall break the 1staff of your bread, then ten women shall bake your bread in one 2oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight, and ye shall eat, but not be satisfied. 27 Yet if ye will not for this obey me, but walk against me stubbornly, 28 Then will I walk stubbornly in mine anger against you, and I will also chastise you seven times more according to your sins. 29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye devour. 30 I will also destroy your high places, and cut away your images, and cast your carcasses upon the bodies of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. 31 And I will make your cities desolate, and bring your Sanctuary unto naught, and 1will not smell the savour of your sweet odors. 32 I will also bring the land unto a wilderness, and your enemies which dwell therein, shall be astonished thereat. 33 Also I will scatter you among the heathen, and I will draw out a sword after you, and your land shall be waste, and your cities shall be desolate. 34 Then shall the land enjoy her 1Sabbaths, as long as it lieth void, and ye shall be in your enemies’ land: then shall the land rest, and enjoy her Sabbaths. 35 All the days that it lieth void, it shall rest, because it did not rest in your 1Sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. 36 And upon them that are left of you, I will send even a 1faintness into their hearts in the land of your enemies, and the sound of a leaf shaken shall chase them, and they shall 1flee as fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall, no man pursuing them. 37 They shall fall also one upon another, as before a sword, though none pursue them, and ye shall not be able to stand before your enemies: 38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. 39 And they that are left of you, shall pine away for their iniquity, in your enemies’ lands, and for the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them also. 40 Then they shall confess their iniquity, and the wickedness of their fathers for their trespass, which they have trespassed against me, and also because they have walked stubbornly against me. 41 Therefore I will walk stubbornly against them, and bring them into the land of their enemies: so then their uncircumcised hearts shall be humbled, and then they shall 1willingly bear the punishment of their iniquity. 42 Then I will remember my Covenant with Jacob, and my Covenant also with Isaac, and also my Covenant with Abraham will I remember, and will remember the land. 43 1The land also in the mean season shall be left barren and fruitless, and none shall eat thereof, because of your iniquity; and ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye devour. 44 And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven as 1iron, and your earth as brass: 45 And I will also send wild beasts upon you, which shall 1spoil you, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number: so your 2highways shall be desolate. 46 Yet if by these ye will not be reformed by me, but walk stubbornly against me, 47 Then will I also walk 1stubbornly against you, and I will smite you seven times more for your sins: 48 And I will send a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my Covenant: and when ye are gathered in your cities, I will send the pestilence among you, and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 49 When I shall break the 1staff of your bread, then ten women shall bake your bread in one 2oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight, and ye shall eat, but not be satisfied. 50 Yet if ye will not for this obey me, but walk against me stubbornly, 51 Then will I walk stubbornly in mine anger against you, and I will also chastise you seven times more according to your sins. 52 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye devour. 53 I will also destroy your high places, and cut away your images, and cast your carcasses upon the bodies of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. 54 And I will make your cities desolate, and bring your Sanctuary unto naught, and 1will not smell the savour of your sweet odors. 55 I will also bring the land unto a wilderness, and your enemies which dwell therein, shall be astonished thereat. 56 Also I will scatter you among the heathen, and I will draw out a sword after you, and your land shall be waste, and your cities shall be desolate. 57 Then shall the land enjoy her 1Sabbaths, as long as it lieth void, and ye shall be in your enemies’ land: then shall the land rest, and enjoy her Sabbaths. 58 All the days that it lieth void, it shall rest, because it did not rest in your 1Sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. 59 And upon them that are left of you, I will send even a 1faintness into their hearts in the land of your enemies, and the sound of a leaf shaken shall chase them, and they shall 1flee as fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall, no man pursuing them. 60 They shall fall also one upon another, as before a sword, though none pursue them, and ye shall not be able to stand before your enemies: 61 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. 62 And they that are left of you, shall pine away for their iniquity, in your enemies’ lands, and for the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them also. 63 Then they shall confess their iniquity, and the wickedness of their fathers for their trespass, which they have trespassed against me, and also because they have walked stubbornly against me. 64 Therefore I will walk stubbornly against them, and bring them into the land of their enemies: so then their uncircumcised hearts shall be humbled, and then they shall 1willingly bear the punishment of their iniquity. 65 Then I will remember my Covenant with Jacob, and my Covenant also with Isaac, and also my Covenant with Abraham will I remember, and will remember the land. 66 1The land also in the mean season shall be left barren and fruitless, and none shall eat thereof, because of your iniquity; and ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye devour.
of them, and shall enjoy her Sabbaths while she lieth waste without them, but they shall willingly suffer the punishment of their iniquity, because they despised my Laws, and because their soul abhorred mine ordinances.

44 Yet notwithstanding this, when they shall be in the land of their enemies, “I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, nor to break my Covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God:

45 But I will remember for them the ‘Covenant of old, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

46 These are the Ordinances, and the Judgments, and the Laws, which the Lord made between him, and the children of Israel, in mount ‘Sinai by the hand of Moses.

27 2 Of divers vows, and the redemption of the same. 28 A thing separate from the use of man, cannot be sold nor redeemed, but remained to the Lord.

1 Moreover, the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man shall make a vow of ‘a person unto the Lord, of his son or his daughter, which he hath bought, which is not of the ground of his inheritance, then shalt thou esteem it according to the seed thereof, an ‘Homer of barley seed shall be at fifty shekels of silver.

3 Then thy estimation shall be thus: a male from twenty years old unto sixty years old shall be by thy estimation even fifty ‘shekels of silver, after the shkel of the Sanctuary.

4 But if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And from five years old to twenty years old, thy valuation shall be for the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 But from a ‘month old unto five years old, thy price of the male shall be five shekels of silver, and thy price of the female, three shekels of silver.

7 And from sixty years old and above, if ‘he be a male, then thy price shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer ‘than thou hast esteemed him, then shall he present himself before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him, according to the ability of him that vowed, so shall the Priest value him.

9 And if ‘it be a ‘beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the Lord, all that one giveth of such unto the Lord, shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then ‘both this and that, which was changed for it, shall be ‘holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which men do not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, he shall then present the beast before the Priest.

12 And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valuest it, which art the Priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will buy it again, then he shall give the fifth part of it more above thy valuation.

14 ¶ Also when a man shall dedicate his house to be holy unto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the Priest shall price it, so shall the value be.

15 But if he that sanctified it, will redeem his house, then he shall give thereto the fifth part of money more than thy estimation, and it shall be his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord any ground of his inheritance, then shalt thou esteem it according to the ‘seed thereof, an ‘Homer of barley seed shall be at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he dedicate his field immediately from the year of Jubilee, it shall be worth as thou dost esteem it.

18 But if he dedicate his field after the Jubilee, then the Priest shall reckon him the money according to the years that remain unto the year of Jubilee, and it shall be abated by thy estimation.

19 And if he that dedicateth it, will redeem the field, then he shall put the fifth part of the price, that thou esteemest it at, thereunto, and it shall remain his.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, but the Priest sell the field to another man, it shall be redeemed no more.

21 But the field shall be holy to the Lord, when it goeth out in the Jubilee, as a field ‘separate from common uses: the possession thereof shall be the Priest’s.

22 If a man also dedicate unto the Lord a field which he hath bought, which is not of the ground of his inheritance,

23 Then the Priest shall set the price to him, as ‘thou esteemest it, unto the year of Jubilee, and he shall give ‘thy price the same day, as a thing holy unto the Lord.

24 But in the year of Jubilee, the field shall return unto him, of whom it was bought: to him I say, whose inheritance the land was.

25 And all the valuation shall be according to the shekel of the Sanctuary: a shekel containeth twenty gerahs.

26 Notwithstanding the firstborn of the beasts, because it is the Lord's firstborn, none shall dedicate such, be it bullock, or sheep: For it is the Lord's.

27 But if it be an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it by thy valuation, and give the fifth part more thereto: and if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold, according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding, nothing separate from the common use that a man doth separate unto the Lord of all that he hath (whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance) may be sold nor redeemed: for everything separate from the common use is most holy unto the Lord.

29 Nothing separate from the common use, which shall be separate from man, shall be redeemed, but it die the death.

30 Also all the tithe of the land both of the seed of the ground, and of the fruit of the trees is the Lord's: it is holy to the Lord.

31 But if a man will redeem any of his tithe, he shall add the fifth part thereto.

32 And every tithe of bullock, and of sheep, and of all that goeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord.

33 He shall not look if it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: else if he change it, both it, and that it was changed withal, shall be holy, and it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the Commandments which the Lord commanded by Moses unto the children of Israel in Mount Sinai.

27:26 1 It was the Lord's already.
27:29 1 It shall remain without redemption.
27:31 1 Besides the value of the thing itself.
27:32 1 All that which is numbered: that is, every tenth as he falleth by tally without exception or respect.
Chapter 1

1 And they called all the Congregation together in the first day of the second month, who declared 1their kindred by their families, and by the houses of their fathers according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, man by man.

2 As the Lord had commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

3 So were the sons of 1Reuben Israel's eldest son by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers according to the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty years old and above, as many as 2went forth to war:

4 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Reuben, was six and forty thousand, and five hundred.

5 Of the sons of Simeon by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, the sum thereof by the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

6 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Simeon was nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.

7 Of the sons of Gad by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

8 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Gad was five and forty thousand, and six hundred and fifty.

9 Of the sons of Judah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

10 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Judah was three score and fourteen thousand, and six hundred.

11 Of the sons of Issachar by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

12 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Issachar was nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.

13 Of the sons of Zebulun by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

14 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Zebulun was fifty and five thousand and five hundred.

15 Of the sons of Naphtali by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

16 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Naphtali was forty thousand and five hundred.

17 Of the sons of Joseph by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

18 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Joseph was sixty and five thousand and four hundred.

19 Of the sons of Benjamin by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

20 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Benjamin was forty thousand and five hundred.

21 Of the sons of Dan by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

29 Of the sons of Caleb by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

30 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Caleb was thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

31 Of the sons of Conon by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

32 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Conon was thirty and two thousand and five hundred.

33 Of the sons of Shephatiah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

34 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Shephatiah was twenty and five thousand and three hundred.

35 Of the sons of Aiah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

36 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Aiah was twenty and three thousand and one hundred.

37 Of the sons of Hebron by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

38 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Hebron was forty and five thousand and six hundred.

39 Of the sons of Gibeon by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

40 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Gibeon was thirty and two thousand and thirty two.

41 Of the sons of Kohath by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

42 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Kohath was twenty and three thousand and one hundred.

43 Of the sons of Merari by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

47 Of the sons of Caleb by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

48 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Caleb was forty and five thousand and six hundred.

49 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

Title

1 So called because of the diversity and multitude of numberings which are here chiefly contained, both of men's names and places.

1:1 1 In that place of the wilderness that was near to mount Sinai.

1:2 1 Hebrew, by their heads.

1:4 1 That is, the chiefest man of every tribe.

1:5 1 And assist you when ye number the people.

1:16 1 Or captains, and governors.

1:18 1 In showing every man his tribe, and his ancestors.

1:20 1 These are the names of the twelve tribes, as first of Reuben.

2 Or, as were able to bear weapons.
years old and above, all that went forth to war:
29 The number of them also of the tribe of Issachar was four and fifty thousand, and four hundred.
30 ¶ Of the sons of Zebulun by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above: all that went forth to war:
31 The number of them also of the tribe of Zebulun was seven and fifty thousand and four hundred.
32 ¶ Of the sons of Joseph, namely of the sons of Ephraim by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:
33 The number of them also of the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand and five hundred.
34 ¶ Of the sons of Manasseh by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:
35 The number of them also of the tribe of Manasseh was two and thirty thousand and two hundred.
36 Of the sons of Benjamin by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:
37 The number of them also of the tribe of Benjamin was five and thirty thousand and four hundred.
38 Of the sons of Dan by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:
39 The number of them also of the tribe of Dan was three score and two thousand, and seven hundred.
40 ¶ Of the sons of Asher by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:
41 The number of them also of the tribe of Asher was one and forty thousand and five hundred.
42 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went to the war:
43 The number of them also of the tribe of Naphtali was three and fifty thousand, and four hundred.
44 These are the sums which Moses, and Aaron numbered, and the Princes of Israel, the twelve men which were every one for the house of their fathers.
45 So this was all the sum of the sons of Israel, by the houses of their fathers, from twenty years old and above, all that went to the war in Israel.
46 And all they were in number six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
47 But the Levites, after the tribes of their fathers were not numbered among them.
48 For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, and said,
49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel.
50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all the instruments thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the Tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof, and shall minister in it, and shall dwell round about the Tabernacle.
51 And when the Tabernacle goeth forth, the Levites shall set it up: for the stranger that cometh near, shall be slain.
52 Also the children of Israel shall pitch their tents every man in his camp, and every man under his standard throughout their armies.
53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the Tabernacle of the Testimony, lest vengeance come upon the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the Levites shall take the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimony.
54 So the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

2 The order of the tents, and the names of the Captains of the Israelites.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,
2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his standard, and under the ensign of his father's house: far off, about the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall they pitch.
3 On the East side toward the rising of the sun, shall they of the standard of the host of Judah pitch according to their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the sons of Judah.
4 And his host and the number of them were seventy and four thousand and six hundred.

1:44 1 Or, full count.
1:47 1 Which were warriors, but were appointed to the use of the Tabernacle.
1:50 1 Hebrew, camp.
1:51 1 Whosoever is not of the tribe of Levi.
2:2 1 Or, prince.
5 Next unto him shall they of the tribe † of Issachar pitch, and Nethanel the son of Zuur shall be the captain of the sons of Issachar:
6 And his host and the number thereof were four and fifty thousand, and four hundred.
7 Then the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon captain over the sons of Zebulun:
8 And his host and the number thereof seven and fifty thousand and four hundred:
9 The whole number of the † host of Judah are an hundred fourscore and six thousand, and four hundred according to their armies: they shall first set forth.
10 ¶ On the South side shall be the standard of the host of † Reuben according to their armies: and the captain over the sons of Reuben shall be Eliasur the son of Sheudeur.
11 And his host and the number thereof, six and forty thousand and five hundred.
12 And by him shall the tribe of Simeon pitch, and the captain over the sons of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai:
13 And his host, and the number of them, nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.
14 And the tribe of Gad, and the captain over the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Deuel:
15 And his host and the number of them were five and forty thousand, six hundred and fifty.
16 All the number of the camp of Reuben were an hundred and one and fifty according to their armies, and they shall set forth in the second place.
17 ¶ Then the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall go with the host of the Levites, in the midst of the camp as they have pitched, so shall they go forward, every man in his order, according to their standards.
18 ¶ † The standard of the camp of Ephraim shall be toward the West according to their armies: and the captain over the sons of Ephraim shall be Elizur the son of Ammihud:
19 And his host and the number of them were forty thousand and five hundred.
20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh and the captain over the sons of Manasseh, Shall be Gamilael the son of Pedahzar:
21 And his host and the number of them were two and thirty thousand and two hundred.
22 And the tribe of Benjamin, and the captain over the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan, the son of Gideoni:
23 And his host, and the number of them were five and thirty thousand and four hundred.
24 All the number of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred and eight thousand and one hundred according to their armies, and they shall go in the third place.
25 ¶ The standard of the host of † Dan shall be toward the North according to their armies: and the captain over the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai:
26 And his host and the number of them were two and threescore thousand and seven hundred.
27 And by him shall the tribe of Asher pitch, and the captain over the sons of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.
28 And his host and the number of them were one and forty thousand, and five hundred.
29 ¶ Then the tribe of Naphthali, and the captain over the children of Naphthali shall be Ahira the son of Enan:
30 And his host and the number of them were three and fifty thousand and four hundred.
31 All the number of the host of Dan was an hundred and seven and fifty thousand and six hundred: they shall go hindmost with their standards.
32 ¶ These are the sums of the children of Israel by the houses of their fathers, all the number of the host, according to their armies, six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.
33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so they journeyed every one with his families, according to the houses of their fathers.

25 † Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun the sons of Leah were of the first standard.
29 Of them which were contained under that name.
30 Reuben and Simeon, the sons of Leah, and Gad the son of Zilpah her maid, were of the second standard.
31 Or, Reuel.
32 ¶ Which were of twenty years and above.
33 ¶ For under every one of the four principal standards were divers signs to keep every band.
31 Or, families and kindreds.
Moses, in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 So these are the names of the sons of Aaron, Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron the anointed Priests, whom Moses did consecrate to minister in the Priest’s office.

4 And Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar served in the Priest’s office in the sight of Aaron their father.

5 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi, and set them before the Tabernacle.

7 And take the charge with him, even the charge of the whole Congregation, before the Tabernacle of the Congregation to do the service of the Tabernacle.

8 They shall also keep all the instruments of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and have the charge of the children of Israel to do the service of the Tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: for they are given him freely from among the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons to execute their Priest’s office: and the stranger that openeth the matrice among the children of Israel, shall be slain.

11 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Behold, I have even taken the Levites from among the children of Israel: for all the firstborn that openeth the matrice among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine, 13 Because all the firstborn are mine: for the Lord thy God sanctified unto me all the firstborn in Egypt.

14 ¶ Moreover, the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the houses of their fathers, in their families: every male from a month old and above shalt number.

16 Then Moses numbered them according to the word of the Lord, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names, Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 Also these were the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

19 The sons also of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushli. These are the families of Levi, according to the houses of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 The sum whereof (after the number of all the males from a month old and above) was counted seven thousand and five hundred.

23 ¶ The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the Tabernacle Westward.

24 The captain and ancient of the house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shall be the Tabernacle, and the pavilion, the covering thereof, and the veil of the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 26 And the hanging of the court, and the veil of the door of the court which is near the Tabernacle, and near the Altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service thereof.

27 And of Kohath came the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 The number of all the males from a month old and above, was eight thousand and six hundred, having the charge of the Sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the South side of the Tabernacle.

30 The captain and ancient of the house and families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel:

31 And their charge shall be the Ark, and the Table, and the Candlestick, and the altars, and the instruments of the Sanctuary that they minister with, and the veil, and all that serveth thereto.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest shall be chief captain of the Levites, having the oversight of them that have the charge of the Sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari came the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And the sum of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and above was six thousand and two hundred.

35 The captain and the ancient of the house of the families of Merari shall be Zuriel the son of Abihai: they shall pitch on the Northside of the Tabernacle.

36 And in the charge and custody of the sons of Merari shall be 'the boards of the Tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, and all the instruments thereof, and all that serveth thereto, 37 With the pillars of the court round about, with their sockets, and their pins and their cords.

38 Also on the forefront of the Tabernacle toward the East, before the Tabernacle I say, of the Congregation Eastward shall Moses and Aaron and his sons pitch, having the charge of the Sanctuary, 'and the charge of the children of Israel: but the stranger that cometh near shall be slain.

39 The whole sum of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the Lord throughout their families, even all the males from a month old and above, was two and twenty thousand.

40 And the Lord said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn that are males among the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites to me 'for all the firstborn of the children of Israel (I am the Lord) and the cattle of the Levites for all the firstborn of the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the Lord commanded him, all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males rehearsed by name (from a month old and above) according to their number were two and twenty thousand, two hundred seventy and three.

44 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites for their cattle, and the Levites shall be mine, (I am the Lord.)

46 And for the redeeming of the two hundred seventy and three, (which are more than the Levites) of the firstborn of the children of Israel, 47 Thou shalt also take five shekels for every person: after the weight of the Sanctuary shalt thou take it: the shekel containeth twenty gerahs.

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 Thus Moses took the redemption of them that were redeemed, being more than the Levites:

50 Of the 'firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money: even a thousand three hundred three score and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons according to the word of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

4 5 The offices of the Levites, when the host removed. 6 The number of the three families of Kohath, Gershon, and Merari.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, and houses of their fathers,

3 From thirty years old and above, even until fifty years old all that enter into the assembly to do the work in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 This shall be the office of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation about the holiest of all.

5 When the host removeth, then Aaron and his sons shall come and take down the covering veil, and shall cover the Ark of the Testimony therewith.

6 And they shall put thereon a covering of badger’s skins, and shall spread upon it a cloth altogether of blue silk, and put to the bars thereof:

7 And upon the ‘table of show bread, they shall spread a cloth of blue silk, and put thereon the dishes, and the incense cups and goblets, and coverings to cover it with, and the bread shall be thereon continually.

8 And they shall spread upon them a covering of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badger’s skins, and put to the bars thereof.

9 Then they shall take a cloth of blue silk, and cover the ‘candlestick of light with his lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, which they occupy about it.
10 So they shall put it, and all the instruments thereof in a covering of badger’s skins, and put it upon the bars.
11 Also upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue silk, and cover it with a covering of badger’s skins, and put to the bars thereof.
12 And they shall take all the instruments of the ministry, wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue silk, and cover them with a covering of badger’s skins, and put them on the bars.
13 Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth upon it.
14 And shall put upon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupy about it, the censers, the fleshhooks, and the besoms, and the basins, even all the instruments of the altar: and they shall spread upon it a covering of badger’s skins, and put to the bars of it.
15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the Sanctuary, and all the instruments of the Sanctuary, at the removing of the host, afterward the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it, but they shall not touch any holy thing lest they die. This is the charge of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil with the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuary, and in all the instruments thereof.
17 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
18 Ye shall not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:
19 But thus do unto them that they may live and not die, when they come near to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sons come and appoint them, every one to his office, and to his charge.
20 But let them not go in, to see when the Sanctuary is folded up, lest they die.
21 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, every one by the houses of their fathers, throughout their families:
23 From thirty years old and above until fifty years old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly for to do service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
24 This shall be the service of the families of the Gershonites to serve and to bear.
25 They shall bear the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his covering, and the covering of badger’s skins, that is on high upon it, and the veil of the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
26 The curtains also of the court, and the veil of the entering in of the gate of the court, which is near the Tabernacle and near the altar round about, with their cords: and all the instruments for their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.
27 At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall all the service of the sons of the Gershonites be done, in all their charges and in all their service, and ye shall appoint them to keep all their charges.
28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.
29 ¶ Thou shalt number the sons of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers.
30 From thirty years old and above, even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly, to do the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
31 And this is their office and charge according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the boards of the Tabernacle with the bars thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, 32 And the pillars round about the court, with their sockets and their pins, and their cords with all their instruments, even for all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge.
33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.
34 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their families:

---

4:10 1 The Hebrew word signifieth an instrument made of two staves or bars.
4:11 1 Which was to burn incense, read Exod. 30:1.
4:13 1 Of the burnt offering.
4:15 1 That is, in folding up the things of the Sanctuary, as the Ark, etc. 2 Before it be covered.
4:16 1 Which was offered at morning and evening.
4:18 1 Committing by your negligence that the holy things be not well wrapped, and so they by touching thereof perish.
4:19 1 Showing what part every man shall bear.
4:23 1 Which were received into the company of them that ministered in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
4:25 1 Which veil hanged between the Sanctuary and the court.
4:26 1 Which court compassed both the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the altar of burnt offering.
4:28 1 Under the charge and oversight.
4:32 1 Ye shall make an inventory of all the things, which ye commit to their charge.
fathers,

35 From thirty years old and above, even unto fifty years old, all that enter into the assembly for the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

36 So the numbers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seven hundred and fifty.

37 These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

38 Also the numbers of the sons of Gershon throughout their families and houses of their fathers.

39 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old: all that enter into the assembly for the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

40 So the numbers of them by their families, and by the houses of their fathers were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41 These are the numbers of the families of the sons of Gershon: of all that did service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord.

42 The numbers also of the families of the sons of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, 43 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old: all that enter into the assembly for the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 So the numbers of them by their families were three thousand, and two hundred.

45 These are the sums of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the Lord.

46 So all the numbers of the Levites, which Moses, and Aaron, and the princes of Israel numbered by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 47 From thirty years old and upward, even to fifty years old, every one that came to do his duty, office, service and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

48 So the number of them were eight thousand five hundred and four score.

49 According to the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses did Aaron number them, every one according to his service, and according to his charge. Thus were they of that tribe numbered, as the Lord commanded Moses.

5 The leprous and the polluted shall be cast forth. 6 The purging of sin. 15 The trial of the suspect wife.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel that they put out of the host every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead.

3 Both male and female shall ye put out: out of the host shall ye put them, that they defile not their tents among whom I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out of the host, even as the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife turn to evil, and commit a sin, that men commit, and transgress against the Lord, when that person shall trespass,

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done, and shall restore the damage thereof with his principal, and put the fifth part of it more thereto, and shall give it unto him, against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman, to whom he should restore the damage, the damage shall be restored to the Lord for the Priest's use, besides the ram of the atonement, whereby he shall make atonement for him.

9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the Priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: that is, whatsoever any man giveth the Priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife turn to evil, and commit a trespass against him,

13 So that another man lie with her fleshly, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and kept close, and yet be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she taken with the manner.
14 If he be moved with a jealous mind, so that he is jealous over his wife, which is defiled, or if he have a jealous mind, so that he is jealous over his wife, which is not defiled,
15 Then shall the man bring his wife to the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an Ephah of barley meal, but he shall not pour oil upon it, nor put incense thereon: for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering for a remembrance, calling the sin to mind.
16 And the Priest shall bring her, and set her before the Lord.
17 Then the Priest shall take the holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floor of the Tabernacle, even the Priest shall take it and put it into the water.
18 After the Priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the woman’s head, and put the offering of the memorial in her hands: it is the jealousy offering, and the Priest shall have bitter jealousy offering, and the Priest shall have bitter and cursed water in his hand,
19 And the Priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, neither thou hast turned to uncleanness from thine husband, and so art defiled, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband,
20 But if thou hast turned from thine husband, and so art defiled, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband,
21 Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an oath, and the Priest shall say unto the woman: The Lord make thee to be accursed, and detestable for the oath among the people, and the Lord cause thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell:
22 And that this cursed water may go into thy bowels, to cause thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. Then the woman shall answer, Amen, Amen.
23 After, the Priest shall write these curses in a book, and shall blot them out with the bitter water, 24 And shall cause the woman to drink the bitter and cursed water, and the cursed water turned into bitterness shall enter into her.

25 Then the Priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman’s hand, and shall shake the offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the altar.
26 And the Priest shall take an handful of the offering for a memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.
27 When he hath made her drink the water, if she be defiled and have trespassed against her husband, then shall the cursed water, turned into bitterness, enter into her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot, and the woman shall be accursed among her people.
28 But if the woman be not defiled, but be clean, she shall be free, and shall conceive and bear.
29 This is the law of jealousy: when a wife turneth from her husband and is defiled,
30 Or, when a man is moved with a jealous mind, being jealous over his wife, then shall he bring the woman before the Lord, and the Priest shall do to her according to all this law, and shall say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and thou hast turned from thine husband against him, neither thou hast turned to uncleanness from thine husband, and so art defiled, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband, 31 And the man shall be free from sin, but this woman shall bear her iniquity.

6 2 The law of the consecration of the Nazirites. 24 The manner to bless the people.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man or a woman doth separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself unto the Lord,
3 He shall abstain from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no sour wine nor sour drink, nor shall drink any liquor of grapes, neither shall eat fresh grapes nor dried.
4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eat nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels nor the husk.
5 While he is separated by his vow, the razor shall not come upon his head, until the days be out, in the which he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.
6 During the time that he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall come at no dead body:
5:22 1 That is, be it so, as thou wishest, as Ps. 41:23; Deut. 27:15.
5:23 1 Shall wash the curses, which are written, into the water in the vessel.
5:26 1 Or, perfume.
5:28 1 Or, innocent.
5:31 1 The man might accuse his wife upon suspicion, and not be reproved.
6:2 1 Which separated themselves from the world, and dedicated themselves to God: which figure was accomplished in Christ.
6:6 1 As at burials, or mournings.
7 He shall not make himself unclean at the death of his father or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any die suddenly by him, or he beware, then the head of his consecration shall be defiled, and he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing: in the seventh day he shall shave it.

10 And in the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the Priest, at the door of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest shall prepare the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and shall make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead: so shall he hallow his head the same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the Lord the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of a year old for a trespass offering, and the first days shall be void: for his consecration was defiled.

13 ¶ This then is the law of the Nazirite: when the time of his consecration is out, he shall come to the door of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

14 And he shall bring his offering unto the Lord, an he lamb of a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering, and a she lamb of a year old without blemish, for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish, for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, of Cakes of fine flour, mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings:

16 The which the Priest shall bring before the Lord, and make his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 He shall prepare also the ram for a peace offering unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread, and the Priest shall make his meat offering, and his drink offering,

18 And the Nazirite shall shave the head of his consecration at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire which is under the peace offering.

19 Then the Priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and an unleavened cake out of the basket, and a wafer unleavened, and put them upon the hands of the Nazirite, after he hath shaven his consecration.

20 And the Priest shall shake them to and fro before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest besides the shaken breast, and besides the heave shoulder: so afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazirite, which he hath vowed, and of his offering unto the Lord for his consecration, besides that he is able to bring: according to the vow which he vowed, so shall he do after the law of his consecration.

22 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, Thus shall ye bless the children of Israel, and say unto them,

24 The Lord bless thee, and keep thee,

25 The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be merciful unto thee, 26 The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 So they shall put my Name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

6:7 1 In that he suffered his hair to grow, he signified that he was consecrated to God.
6:9 1 Which long hair is a sign that he is dedicated to God.
6:11 1 By being present where the dead was.
6:12 1 Beginning at the eighth day, when he is purified.
6:18 1 In token that his vow is ended.
   2 So that he shall begin his vow anew.
   2 For the hair which was consecrated to the Lord, might not be cast into any profane place.

6:20 1 Or, with the breast.
6:21 1 At the least he shall do this, if he be able to offer no more.
6:23 1 That is, pray for them.
6:27 1 They shall pray in my Name for them.
7:1 1 Or, vessels.
7:2 1 Or, captains.
7:3 1 Like horse litters, to keep the things that were carried in them from weather.
7:5 1 That is, to carry things and stuff in.
gave them unto the Levites:

7 Two chariots and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according unto their office.

8 And four chariots and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according unto their office, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the charge of the Sanctuary belonged to them, which they did bear upon their shoulders.

10 ¶ The princes also offered in the dedication of the altar in the day that it was anointed: then the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses, One prince one day, and another prince another day, shall offer their offering, for the dedication of the altar.

12 ¶ So then on the first day did Nahshon the son of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah offer his offering.

13 And his offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering.

14 An incense cup of gold of ten shekels, full of incense,

15 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

16 An he goat for a sin offering,

17 And for peace offerings, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, and five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

18 ¶ The second day Nethanel, the son of Zuar, prince of the tribe of Issachar did offer.

19 Who offered for his offering a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering.

83. And for peace offerings, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old, this was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84. ¶ This was the dedication of the Altar by the princes of Israel, when it was anointed, twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls: twelve incense cups of gold,

85. Every charger containing an hundred and thirty shekels of silver, and every bowl seventy: all the silver vessel contained two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

86. Twelve incense cups of gold full of incense, containing ten shekels every cup, after the shekel of the Sanctuary: and the gold of the incense cups was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87. All the bullocks for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of a year old twelve, with their meat offerings, and twelve he goats for a sin offering.

88. And all the bullocks for the peace offerings were four and twenty bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of a year old sixty: this was the dedication of the Altar, after that it was anointed.

89. And when Moses went into the tabernacle of the Congregation to speak with God, he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from the Mercy seat, that was upon the Ark of the Testimony between the two Cherubims, and he spake unto him.

8 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
1 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light toward the "forefront of the Candlestick.
2 And Aaron did so, lighting the lamps thereof.
3 And Aaron did so, lighting the lamps thereof toward the forefront of the Candlestick, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
4 And this was the work of the Candlestick, even of gold beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft, and the flower thereof "was beaten out with the hammer: 'according to the pattern which the Lord had showed Moses, so made he the Candlestick.
5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and purify them.
7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle 'water of purification upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shall be clean.
8 Then they shall take a young bullock with his meat offering of fine flour, mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 Then thou shalt bring the Levites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and assemble 'all the Congregation of the children of Israel.
10 Thou shalt bring the Levites also before the Lord, and the 'children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites.
11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord, as a shake offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Lord.
12 And the Levites shall put their hands upon the heads of the bullocks, and make thou the one a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering unto the Lord, that thou mayest make an atonement for the Levites.
13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and offer them as a shake offering to the Lord.
14 Thus thou shalt separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be 'mine.

15 And afterward shall the Levites go in, to serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purify them, and offer them as a shake offering.

16 For they are freely given unto me from among the children of Israel, for 'such as open any womb: for all the firstborn of the children of Israel have I taken them unto me.

17 'For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both of man and beast: since the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel, 19 And have given the Levites as a gift unto Aaron, and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the 'children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near unto the 'Sanctuary.

20 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Levites, according unto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites: so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 So the Levites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a shake offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for them, to purify them.

22 And after that, went the Levites in to do their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 'before Aaron and before his sons: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This also 'belongeth to the Levites: from five and twenty years old and upward, they shall go in, to execute their office in the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fifty years, they shall cease from executing the 'office, and shall serve no more.

26 But they shall minister 'with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to keep things committed to their charge, but they shall do no service: thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

7:89 2 According as he had promised; Exod. 25:22.
8:2 1 To that part which is over against the Candlestick, Exod. 25:37.
8:4 1 And not set together of divers pieces.
8:7 1 In Hebrew it is called the water of sin, because it is made to purge sin, as Num. 199.
8:9 1 That thou mayest do this in presence of them all.
8:10 1 Meaning, certain of them in the name of the whole.
8:16 1 That is, they that are the firstborn.
8:19 1 Which service the Israelites should else do.
8:22 1 In their presence, to serve them.
8:25 1 Such office as was painful, as to bear burdens and such like.
8:26 1 In singing Psalms, instructing, counseling and keeping the things in order.
9 The Passover is commanded again. 13 The punishment of him that keepeth not the Passover. 15 The cloud conducteth the Israelites through the wilderness.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 The children of Israel shall also celebrate the Passover at the time appointed thereunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month at even, ye shall keep it in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keep it.

4 Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Passover.

5 And they kept the Passover in the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And certain men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keep the Passover the same day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron the same day.

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept back that we may not offer an offering unto the Lord in the place where the cloud abode, where the children of Israel pitched their tents.

8 Then Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the Lord will command concerning you.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, If any among you, or of your posterity shall be unclean by the reason of a corpse, or be in a long journey, 1he shall keep the Passover unto the Lord.

11 In the fourteenth day of the 1second month at even they shall keep it: with unleavened bread, and sour herbs shall they eat it.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, and they shall keep the Passover in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keep it.

13 But the man that is clean and is not in a journey, and is negligent to keep the Passover, the same person shall be cut off from his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shall bear his 2sin.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, and will keep the Passover unto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passover, and as the manner thereof is, so shall he do: ye shall have one law both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the same land.

15 ¶ And when the Tabernacle was reared up, a cloud covered the Tabernacle, namely, the Tabernacle of the Testimony: and at even there was upon the Tabernacle, as the appearance of fire until morning.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the Lord the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the Tabernacle, 'they lay still.

19 And when the cloud tarried still upon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israel kept the watch of the Lord, and journeyed not.

20 So when the cloud abode a few days upon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the commandment of the Lord: for they journeyed at the commandment of the Lord.

21 And though the cloud abode upon the Tabernacle from even unto the morning, yet if the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether by day or by night the cloud was taken up, then they journeyed.

22 Or if the cloud tarried two days, or a month, or a year upon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Israel (‘abode still, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 The use of the silver trumpets. 11 The Israelites depart from Sinai. 14 The captains of the host are numbered. 30 Hobab refuseth to go with Moses his son-in-law.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Make thee two trumpets of silver: of an 1whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest use them for the assembling of the Congregation, and for the departure of the camp.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the Congregation shall assemble to thee, before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 But if they blow with one, then the Princes, or heads over the thousands of Israel shall come unto thee.

5 But if ye blow an alarm, then the camp of them that pitch on the 1East part, shall go forward.

6 If ye blow an alarm the second time, then the host of them that lie on the 1South side, shall march: for they shall blow an alarm when they remove.

7 But in the assembling the Congregation, ye shall blow without an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron the Priest shall 1blow the trumpets, and ye shall have them as a law forever in your generations.

9 And when ye go to war in your land against the enemy that vexeth you, ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets, and ye shall be remembered before the Lord your God, and shall be saved from your enemies.

10 In the day of your 1gladness, and in your feast days, and in the beginning of your months, ye shall also blow the trumpets 2over your burnt sacrifices, and over your peace offerings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.

11 ¶ And in the second year, in the second month, and in the twentieth day of the month, the cloud was taken up from the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

12 And the children of Israel departed on their journeys out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 So they 1first took their journey at the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the first place went the standard of the host of the children of Judah according to their armies, and 1Nahshon the son of Amminadab was over his band.

15 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 When the Tabernacle was taken down, then the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari went forward bearing 1the Tabernacle.

18 ¶ After, departed the standard of the host of Reuben, according to their armies, and over his band was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 The Kohathites also went forward and bare the Sanctuary, and the 1former did set up the Tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ Then the standard of the host of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and over his band was Elishama the son of Ammishaddai.

23 And over the band of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the band of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 ¶ Last, the standard of the host of the children of Dan marched, gathering all the hosts according to their armies; and over his band was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 These were the removals of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.

29 After, Moses said unto 1Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, We go into the place, of which the Lord said, I will give it you. Come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the Lord hath promised good unto Israel.

30 And he answered him, I will not go: but I will depart to mine own country, and to my kindred.

31 Then he said, I pray thee, leave us not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wilderness: therefore thou mayest be our guide.

32 And if thou go with us, what goodness the Lord shall show unto us, the same will we show unto thee.

33 ¶ So they departed from the 1mount of the Lord, three days' journey: and the Ark of the covenant of the Lord went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.
34 And the cloud of the Lord was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.
35 And when the Ark went forward, Moses said, 41Rise up Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.
36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, to the 'many thousands of Israel.

11 1 The people murmureth, and is punished with fire. 4 The people lusteth after flesh. 6 They loathe Manna. 11 The weak faith of Moses. 16 The Lord divided the burden of Moses to seventy of the Ancients. 31 The Lord sendeth quails. 33 Their lust is punished.

1 When the people became murmurers, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed the utmost part of the host.
2 Then the people cried unto Moses: and when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire was quenched.
3 And he called the name of the place 'Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.
4 ¶ And a number of people that was among them, fell a lusting, and turned away, and the children of Israel also wept, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?
5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for nought, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic.
7 (The Manna also was as coriander seed, and his color like the color of bdellium.
8 The people went about and gathered, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and baked it in a cauldron, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like unto the taste of fresh oil.
9 And when the dew fell down upon the host in night, the Manna fell with it.)
10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent, and the wrath of the Lord was grievously kindled: also Moses was grieved.

11 And Moses said unto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou vexed thy servant? and why have I not found favor in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of all this people upon me?
12 Have I conceived all this people? or have I begotten them, that thou shouldst say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom (as a nurse beareth the sucking child) unto the land, for which thou swarest unto their fathers?
13 Where should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh that we may eat.
14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, for it is too heavy for me.
15 Therefore if thou deal thus with me, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, kill me, that I behold not my misery.
16 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and governors over them, and bring them unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let them stand there with thee.
17 And I will come down, and talk with thee there, and take of the Spirit, which is upon thee, and put
there with thee.
18 Furthermore thou shalt say unto the people, Be sanctified against tomorrow, and ye shall eat flesh:
for you have wept in the ears of the Lord, saying,
Who shall give us flesh to eat? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.
19 Ye shall not eat one day nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, 20 But a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and be loathsome unto you, because ye have contemned the Lord, which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?
21 And Moses said, Six hundred thousand footmen are there of the people, among whom I am: and 10:35 1 Declare thy might and power.

10:36 1 Hebrew, to the ten thousand thousands.
11:1 1 Hebrew, as unjust complainers.
11:3 1 Or, burning.
11:4 1 Which were of those strangers that came out of Egypt with them, Exod. 12:38.
2 From God.
11:5 1 For a small price, or good cheap.
11:6 1 For the greedy lust of flesh.
11:7 1 Which is a white pearl, or precious stone.
11:11 1 Or, evil intreated.

thou sayest, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a month long.

22 Shall the sheep and the beees be slain for them to find them? either shall all the fish of the Sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?

23 And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee, or no.

24 ¶ So Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, and gathered seventy men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

25 Then the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested upon them, then they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the host: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested upon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out unto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the host.

27 Then there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the host.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun the servant of Moses one of his young men answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29 But Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lord's people prophesied, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them.

30 And Moses returned into the host, he and the Elders of Israel.

31 Then there went forth a wind from the Lord, and it brought quails from the sea, and let them fall upon the camp, a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the host, and they were about two cubits above the earth.

32 Then the people arose, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails: he that gathered the least, gathered ten Homers full, and he that gathered the most, gathered twenty Homers full. And they spread them abroad for their use round about the host.

33 While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, even the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 So the name of the place was called, Kibroth Hattaavah: for there they buried the people that fell a lusting.

35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people took their journey to Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

12 1 Aaron and Miriam grudge against Moses.

10 Miriam is stricken with leprosy, and healed at the prayer of Moses.

1 Afterward Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whom he had married (for he had married a woman of Ethiopia.)

2 And they said, What? hath the Lord spoken but by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? and the Lord heard this.

3 (But Moses was a very meek man above all the men that were upon the earth.)

4 And by and by the Lord said unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, come out ye three unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and they three came forth.

5 Then the Lord came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be known unto him by a vision, and will speak unto him by dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house,

8 Unto him will I speak mouth to mouth, and by vision, and not in dark words, but he shall see the similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant, even against Moses?

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with them, and departed.

10 Also the cloud departed from the Tabernacle: and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

11 Then Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I dered on Ethiopia, it is sometimes in the Scriptures comprehended under this name.

12:3 1 And so bare with their grudging, although he knew them.

12:6 1 These were the two ordinary means.

12:7 1 In all Israel which was his Church.

12:8 1 So far as any man was able to comprehend, which he calleth his back parts, Exod. 33:23.

12:10 1 From the door of the Tabernacle.
beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, which we have foolishly committed, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not, I pray thee, be as one 'dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed, when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 Then Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, O God, I beseech thee, heal her now.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had 's spit in her face, should she not have been ashamed seven days? let her be 'shut out of the host seven days, and after she shall be received.

15 So Miriam was shut out of the host seven days, and the people removed not, till Miriam was brought in again.

13 4 Certain men are sent to search the land of Canaan. 24 They bring of the fruit of the land.

31 Caleb comforteth the people against the discouraging of the other spies.

1 Then afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of 1Paran.

2 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 3 Send thou men out to search the land of Canaan which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, such as are all rulers among them.

4 Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandment of the Lord: all those men were 'heads of the children of Israel.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori:

7 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh:

8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph:

9 Of the tribe of Ephraim, 1Hoshea the son of Nun:

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu:

11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi:

12 Of the tribe of Joseph, to wit, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi:

13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemallai:

14 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael:

15 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi:

16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

17 These are the names of the 'men, which Moses sent to spy out the land: and Moses called the name of Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

18 So Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up this way toward the South, and go up into the 1mountains.

19 And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwell therein, whether they be strong, or weak, either few or many.

20 Also what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be 'good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in walled towns.

21 And what the land is: whether there be fat or lean, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes.)

22 ¶ So they went up, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of 1Zin unto Rehob, to go to Hamath.

23 And they ascended toward the South, and came unto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the sons of 1Anak. And 2Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.

24 Then they came to the river of Eshcol, and cut down thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it upon a bar between two, and brought of the pomegranates and of the figs.

25 That place was called the river Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut down thence.

26 Then after forty days they turned again from searching of the land.

27 And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron, and unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of 1Paran, to Kadesh, and brought to them, and to all the Congregation tidings, and showed them the fruit of the land.

28 And they told 1him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou hast sent us, and surely it floweth with 1milk and honey: and here is of the fruit of it.

29 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in... the land, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreover, we saw the 'sons of Anak there.

30 The Amalekites dwell in the South country, and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coasts of Jordan.

31 Then Caleb stilled the people 'before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it: for undoubtedly we shall overcome it.

32 But the men that went up with him, said, We be not able to go up against the people: for they are stronger than we.

33 So they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we have gone through to search it out, is a land that 'eatheth up the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we saw in it, are men of great stature.

34 For there we saw giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants, so that we seemed in our sight like grasshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

14 2 The people murmur against Moses. 10 They would have stoned Caleb and Joshua. 23 Moses pacifieth God by his prayer. 45 The people that would enter into the land contrary to God's will, are slain.

1 Then all the Congregation lifted up their voice, and cried: and the 'people wept that night,

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron; and the whole assembly said unto them, Would God we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness: would God we were dead.

3 Wherefore now hath the Lord brought us into this land to fall upon the sword? our wives and our children shall be 1a prey: were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain and return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron 'fell on their faces before all the assembly of the Congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh 'two of them that searched the land, 'rent their clothes,

7 And spake unto all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we walked through to search it, is a very good land.

8 If the Lord love us, he will bring us into this land, and give it us, which is a land that floweth with milk and honey.

9 But rebel not ye against the Lord, neither fear ye the people of the land: for they are but 'bread for us: their shield is departed from them, and the Lord is with us, fear them not.

10 And all the multitude said, 'Stone them with stones: but the glory of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me, and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have showed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence and destroy them, and will make thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 But Moses said unto the Lord, 'When the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest this people by thy power from among them)

14 Then they shall say to the inhabitants of the land, (for they have heard, that thou Lord, art among this people, and that thou, Lord, art seen 1face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou 'goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.)

15 That thou wilt kill this people as 1one man: so the heathen which have heard the fame of thee, shall thus say.

16 Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore hath he slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The Lord is 'slow to anger, and of great mercy, and 'forgiving iniquity and sin, but not making the wicked innocent, and 'visiting the wickedness of the fathers upon the children, in the third and fourth generation:

19 Be merciful, I beseech thee, unto the iniquity of this people, according to thy great mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people from Egypt, even until now.

20 And the Lord said, I have forgiven 1it, according to thy request.

21 Notwithstanding, as I live, all the earth, shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.
22 For all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and have tempted me this ten times, and have not obeyed my voice.
23 Certainly they shall not see the land, whereof I sware unto their fathers: neither shall any that provoke me, see it.
24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit, and hath followed me still, even him will I bring into the land, whither he went, and his seed shall inherit it.
25 Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites remain in the valley: wherefore turn back tomorrow, and get you into the wilderness, by the way of the red sea.
26 ¶ After, the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
27 How long shall I suffer this wicked multitude to murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.
28 Tell them, As I live (saith the Lord) I will surely come into the land, for which ye murmured against me.
29 Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness, and all you that were counted through all your numbers, from twenty years old and above, which have murmured against me,
30 Ye shall not doubtless come into the land, for which I lifted up mine hand, to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.
31 But your children (which ye said should be a prey) them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have refused:
32 But even your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness.
33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your whoredoms, until your carcasses be wasted in the wilderness.
34 After the number of the days in the which ye searched out the land, even forty days, every day for a year, shall you bear your iniquity, for forty years, and ye shall feel my breach of promise.
35 I the Lord have said, Certainly I will do so to all this wicked company that are gathered together against me; for in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.
36 And the men which Moses had sent to search the land (which when they came again, made all the people to murmur against him, and brought up a slander upon the land.)
37 Even those men that did bring up that vile slander upon the land, shall die by a plague before the Lord.
38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those men that went to search the land, shall live.
39 ¶ Then Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel, and the people sorrowed greatly.
40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and got them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be ready to go up to the place which the Lord hath promised: for we have sinned.
41 But Moses said, Wherefore transgress ye thus the commandment of the Lord? it will not so come well to pass.
42 Go not up, (for the Lord is not among you) lest ye be overthrown before your enemies.
43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: for inasmuch as ye are turned away from the Lord, the Lord also will not be with you.
44 Yet they presumed obstinately to go up to the top of the mountain: but the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and Moses departed not out of the camp.
45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites, which dwelt in that mountain, came down and smote them, and consumed them unto Hormah.

15 2 The offering which the Israelites should offer when they came into the land of Canaan.
1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations which I give unto you,
3 And will make an offering by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or a free offering, or in your feasts to make a sweet savor unto the Lord, of the herd or of the flock,
4 Then shall he offer his offering unto the Lord, bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of fine flour, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil.
5 Also thou shalt prepare the fourth part of an Hin of wine to be poured on a lamb appointed for the burnt offering, or any offering.
6 And for a ram thou shalt for a meat offering, prepare two tenth deals of fine flour, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oil.
7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an Hin of wine, for a sweet savor unto the Lord.
8 And when thou preparation a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice to fulfill a vow or a peace offering to the Lord,
9 Then let him offer with the bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of fine flour, mingled with half an Hin of oil.
10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweet savor unto the Lord.
11 Thus shall it be done for a bullock, or for a ram, or for a lamb, or for a kid.
12 According to the number that ye prepare to offer, so shall ye do to everyone according to their number.
13 All that are born of the country, shall do these things thus, to offer an offering made by fire of sweet savor unto the Lord.
14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will make an offering by fire of a sweet savor unto the Lord, as ye do, so he shall do.
15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the Congregation, and also for the stranger that dwelleth with you, even an ordinance forever in your generations:
as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the Lord.
16 One law and one manner shall serve both for you and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.
17 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land, to the which I bring you,
19 And when ye shall eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer an heave offering unto the Lord.
20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an heave offering: as the heave offering of the barn, so ye shall lift it up.
21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the Lord an heave offering in your generations.
22 And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the Lord hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the Lord hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the first day that the Lord commanded Moses, and hence forward among your generations:
24 And if so be that ought be committed ignorantly of the Congregation, then all the Congregation shall give a bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor unto the Lord, with the meat offering and drink offering thereto, according to the manner, and an he goat for a sin offering.
25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them: for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering for an offering made by fire unto the Lord, and their sin offering before the Lord for their ignorance.
26 Then shall be forgiven all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them: for all the people were in ignorance.
27 ¶ But if any one person sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of a year old for a sin offering.
28 And the Priest shall make an atonement for the ignorant person, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make reconciliation for him: and it shall be forgiven him.
29 He that is born among the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them, shall have both one law, who so doth sin by ignorance.
30 ¶ But the person that doeth ought presumptu-ously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same blasphemeth the Lord: therefore that person shall be cut off from among his people.
31 Because he hath despised the word of the Lord, and hath broken his commandment: that person shall be utterly cut off: his iniquity shall be upon him.
32 ¶ And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day.
33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him unto Moses and to Aaron, and unto all the Congregation,
34 And they put him out of the way: for it was not declared what should be done unto him.
35 Then the Lord said unto Moses, This man shall die the death: and let all the multitude stone him without the host.
36 And all the Congregation brought him without

15:7 ¶ The liquor was so called, because it was poured on the thing that was offered.
15:9 ¶ Or, three Omers.
15:12 ¶ Every sacrifice of beasts must have their meat offering and drink offering according to this proportion.
15:20 ¶ Which is made of the first corn ye gather.
15:22 ¶ As by oversight or ignorance, read Lev. 4:2, 13.
15:24 ¶ Some read, from the eyes of the Congregation, that is,
which is hid from the Congregation.

15:31 ¶ He shall sustain the punishment of his sin.
the host, and stoned him with stones, and he died, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

37 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they ‘make them fringes upon the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and put upon the fringes of the borders a ribbon of blue silk.

39 And ye shall have the fringes that when ye look upon them, ye may remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them: and that ye seek not after your own heart, nor after your own eyes, after the which ye go a ‘whoring:

40 'That ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the Lord your God.

16 1 The rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. 31 Korah and his company perisheth. 41 The people the next day murmur. 49 14,700 are slain for murmuring.

1 Now ‘Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi 1went apart with Dathan, and Abiram the son of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben:

2 And they rose up ‘against Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty captains of the assembly, ‘famous in the Congregation, and men of renown,

3 Who gathered themselves together against Moses, and against Aaron, and said unto them, ‘Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the Congregation is holy, ‘every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye yourselves above the Congregation of the Lord?

4 But when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face,

5 And spake to Korah and unto all his company, saying, Tomorrow the Lord will show who is his, and who is holy, and who ought to approach near unto him: and whom he hath ‘chosen, he will cause to come near to him.

6 ‘This do therefore, Take you censers, ‘both Korah and all his company,

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord tomorrow: and the man whom the Lord doth choose, the same shall be holy: ‘ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 Again Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi.

9 Seeketh it a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you near to himself, to do the service of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister unto them?

10 He hath also taken thee to ‘him, and all thy brethren, the sons of Levi with thee, and seek ye the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause, thou, and all thy company are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sons of Eliab: who answered, We will not come up.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us out of ‘a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself lord and ruler over us also?

14 Also thou hast not brought us unto a land that floweth with milk and honey, neither given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou 1put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 Then Moses waxed very angry, and said unto the Lord, ‘Look not unto their offering: I have not taken so much as an ass from them, neither have I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company ‘before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron tomorrow.

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye every man his censer before the Lord, two hundred and fifty censers: thou also and Aaron, every one his censer.

18 So they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the ‘multitude against them unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the Congregation.

15:39 1 By leaving God’s commandments and following your own fantasies.

16:1 1 Or, took others with him.

16:2 1 Or, before Moses.

16:3 1 Or let it suffice you: meaning, to have abused them thus long.

2 All are alike holy: therefore none ought to be preferred above others: thus the wicked reason against God’s ordinance.

16:5 1 To be the Priest and to offer.
20 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
21 Separate yourselves from among this Congregation, that I may consume them at once.
22 And they fell upon their faces and said, O God, the God of the spirits 1 of all flesh, hath not one man only sinned, and wilt thou be wroth with all the Congregation?
23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
24 Speak unto the Congregation, and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 Then Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spake unto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye perish 1 in all their sins.
27 So they got them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood in the door of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their little children.
28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works: for I have not done them of mine own 1 mind.
29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me.
30 But if the Lord make 1 a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up with all that they have, and they go down quick into 2 the pit: then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord.
31 ¶ And as soon as he had made an end of speaking all the words, even the ground clave asunder that was under them,
32 And the earth 1 opened her mouth, and swallowed them up with their families, and all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods.
33 So they and all that they had, went down alive into the pit, and the earth covered them: so they perished from among the Congregation.
34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the cry of them: for they said, Let us flee, lest the earth swallow us up.
35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered the incense.
36 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire beyond the altar: for they are hallowed,
38 The censers, I say, of these sinners, that destroyed themselves: and let them make of them broad plates for a covering of the Altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they shall be holy, and they shall be a 2 sign unto the children of Israel.
39 Then Eleazar the Priest took the brazen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made broad plates of them for a covering of the Altar.
40 It is a remembrance unto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not like 1 Korah and his company, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.
41 ¶ But on the morrow all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord.
42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, then they 1 turned their faces toward the tabernacle of the Congregation: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.
43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
44 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
45 Get you up from among this Congregation: for I will consume them quickly: then they fell upon their faces.
46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the 1 Altar, and put 2 incense, and go quickly unto the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord: the plague is begun.
47 Then Aaron took as Moses commanded him, and ran into the midst of the Congregation, and the plague was begun among the people, and he put incense, and made an atonement for the people.
48 And when he stood between the dead, and them that were alive, the 1 plague was stayed.
49 So they died of this plague fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died in the conspiracy of Korah.

50 And Aaron went again unto Moses before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the plague was stayed.

17 2 The twelve rods of the twelve princes of the tribes of Israel. 8 Aaron's rod buddeth, and beareth blossoms, 10 For a testimony against the rebellious people.

1 And the Lord spake unto 1Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod, after the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the family of their fathers, even twelve rods: and thou shalt write every man's name upon his rod.
3 And write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi:
for every rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.
4 And thou shalt put them in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the Ark of the testimony,
're where I will declare myself to you.
5 And the man's rod, whom I choose, shall blossom: and I will make cease from me the grudgings of the children of Israel, which grudge against you.
6 ¶ Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and all their Princes gave him a rod, one rod for every prince, according to the houses of their fathers, even twelve rods, and the rod 1of Aaron was among their rods.
7 And Moses laid the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Testimony.
8 And when Moses on the morrow went into the Tabernacle of the Testimony, behold, the rod of Aaron 1for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and brought forth blossoms, and bare ripe almonds.
9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord unto all the children of Israel: and they looked upon them, and took every man his rod.
10 After, the Lord said unto Moses, 4Bring Aaron's rod again before the Testimony to be kept for a token unto the rebellious children, and thou shalt cause their 1murmurings to cease from me, that they die not.
11 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him: so did he.
12 ¶ And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, 1we are dead, we perish, we are all 17:1 ¶ While he was in the door of the Tabernacle.

17:5 1 To be the chief Priest.
17:6 1 Though Joseph's tribe was divided into two in the distribution of the land, yet here it is but one and Levi maketh a tribe.
17:8 1 To declare that God did choose the house of Levi to serve him in the Tabernacle.
17:10 1 Grudging that Aaron should be high Priest.
17:12 1 The Chaldea text describeth thus their murmuring: We die sume us.

18:1 ¶ If you trespass in anything concerning the ceremonies of the Sanctuary of your office, you shall be punished.

thou dost enjoin them.
18:4 1 Which was not of the tribe of Levi.
18:7 1 Or, gift.

meat offering, and of all their sin offering, and of all their trespass offering, which they bring unto me, that shall be most holy unto thee, and to thy sons.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it: every male shall eat of it: it is holy unto thee.

11 This also shall be thine: the heave offering of their gift, with all the shake offerings of the children of Israel, I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, to be a duty forever: all the clean in thine house shall eat of it.

12 All the fat of the oil, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheat, which they shall offer unto the Lord for their firstfruits, I have given them unto thee.

13 And the first ripe of all that is in their land, which they shall bring unto the Lord shall be thine: all the clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 Everything separate from the common use in Israel shall be thine.

15 All that first openeth the matrix of any flesh, which they shall offer unto the Lord of man or beast, shall be thine: but the firstborn of man shalt thou redeem, and the firstborn of the unclean beast shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeem from the age of a month, according to thy estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat shalt thou not redeem: for they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burn their fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the shake breast, and as the right shoulder shall be thine.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel shall offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duty forever: it is a perpetual covenant of salt before the Lord, to thee, and to thy seed with thee.

20 And the Lord said unto Aaron, Thou shalt have none inheritance in their land: neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 For behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

22 Neither shall the children of Israel any more come near the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest they sustain sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and they shall bear their sin: it is a law forever in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possess none inheritance.

24 For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering unto the Lord, I have given the Levites for an inheritance, therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possess none inheritance.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Speak also unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye shall take of the children of Israel the tithes, which I have given you of them for your inheritance, then shall ye take an heave offering of that same for the Lord, even the tenth part of the tithe.

27 And your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as the corn of the barn, or as the abundance of the winepress.

28 So ye shall also offer an heave offering unto the Lord of all your tithes, which ye shall receive of the children of Israel, and ye shall give thereof the Lord’s heave offering to Aaron the Priest.

29 Ye shall offer of all your gifts all the Lord’s heave offerings: of all the fat of the same shall ye offer the holy things thereof.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have offered the fat thereof, then it shall be counted unto the Levites, as the increase of the corn floor, or as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in all places, ye, and your households: for it is your wages for your service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by the reason of it, when ye have offered the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

2 The sacrifice of the red cow. 9 He that toucheth the dead. 14 The man that dieth in a tent.
1 And the Lord spake to Moses, and to Aaron, saying,
2 This is the ordinance of the Law, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red cow without blemish, wherein is no spot, upon which never came yoke.
3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her without the host, and cause her to be slain before his face.
4 Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven times,
5 And cause the cow to be burnt in his sight: with her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, and her dung shall he burn her.
6 Then shall the Priest take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet lace, and cast them in the midst of the fire where the cow burneth.
7 Then shall the Priest wash his clothes, and he shall wash his flesh in water, and then come into the host, and the Priest shall be unclean unto the even.
8 Also he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water, and be unclean until even.
9 And a man, that is clean, shall take up the ashes of the cow, and put them without the host in a clean place: and it shall be kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for a sprinkling water: it is a sin offering.
10 Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the cow, shall wash his clothes, and remain unclean until even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute forever.
11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shall be unclean even seven days.
12 He shall purify himself therewith the third day, and the seventh day and he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.
13 Whosoever toucheth the corpse of any man that is dead, and purgeth not himself, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from Israel, because the sprinkling water was not sprinkled upon him: he shall be unclean, and his uncleanness shall remain still upon him.
14 This is the law, When a man dieth in a tent, all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.
15 And all the vessels that be open, which have no covering fastened upon them, shall be unclean.
16 Also whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the field, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.
17 Therefore for an unclean person, they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sin offering, and pure water shall be put thereunto in a vessel.
18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were therein, and upon him that touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave.
19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean the third day, and the seventh day, and he shall purify himself the seventh day, and wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be clean at even.
20 But the man that is unclean, and purifieth not himself, that person shall be cut off from among the Congregation, because he hath defiled the Sanctuary of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hath not been sprinkled upon him: therefore shall he be unclean.
21 And it shall be a perpetual law unto them, that he that sprinkleth the sprinkling water, shall wash his clothes: also he that toucheth the sprinkling water, shall be unclean until even.
22 And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean: and the person that toucheth him, shall be unclean until the even.

20 1 Miriam dieth. 2 The people murmur. 8 They have water out of the rock. 14 Edom denieth the Israelites passage. 25, 28 The death of Aaron in whose room Eleazar succeeded.
1 Then the children of Israel came with the whole Congregation to the desert of Zin in the first month, and the people abode at Kadesh: where Miriam died, and was buried there.
2 But there was no water for the Congregation, and they assembled themselves against Moses and... against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God we had perished when our brethren died before the Lord.

4 ¶ Why have ye thus brought the Congregation of the Lord unto this wilderness, that both we and our cattle should die there?

5 Wherefore now have ye made us to come up from Egypt, to bring us into this miserable place, which is no place of seed, nor figs, nor vines, nor pomegranates? neither is there any water to drink.

6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the assembly unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and fell upon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them.

7 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes, and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the Congregation and the beasts drink.

9 Then Moses took the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rock: and Moses said unto them, Hear now ye rebels: shall we bring you water out of this rock?

11 Then Moses lift up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beasts drank.

12 ¶ Again, the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this Congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

14 ¶ Then Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel.

15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled us evil and our fathers.

16 But when we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an Angel, and hath brought us out of Egypt, and behold, we are in the city Kadesh, in thine utmost border.

17 I pray thee that we may pass through thy country: we will not go through the fields nor the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's way, and neither turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel said unto him, We will go up by the highway: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will only go through on my feet.

20 ¶ He answered again, Thou shalt not go through. Then Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mighty power.

21 Thus Edom denied to give Israel passage through his country: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 ¶ And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from Kadesh, they came unto mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor near the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land, which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye dis obeyed my commandment at the water of Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up into the mount Hor.

26 And cause Aaron to put off his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: for Aaron shall be gathered to his fathers, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the Lord had commanded: and they went up into the mount Hor, in the sight of all the Congregation.

28 And Moses put off Aaron's clothes, and put them upon Eleazar his son: for Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from off the mount.

29 When all the Congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

21 3 Israel vanquisheth king Arad. 6 The fiery serpents are sent for the rebellion of the people. 22, 33 Sihon and Og are overcome in battle.

1 When “king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt toward the South, heard tell that Israel came by the 1way of the spies, then fought he against Israel, and took of them prisoners.

2 So Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliver and give this people into mine hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voice of Israel, and delivered them the Canaanites: and they utterly destroyed them and their cities, and called the name of the place 1@Hormah.

4 ¶ After they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the people were sore grievèd because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, saying, Wherfore have ye brought us out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness, for 1here is neither bread nor water, and our soul 1loatheth this light bread.

6 Wherefore the Lord sent 1fiery serpents among the people, which stung the people: so that many of the people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned: for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us: and Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it up for a 1sign, that as many as are bitten, may look upon it, and live.

9 So Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it up for a 1sign, that as many as are bitten, may look upon it, and live.

10 ¶And the children of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth.

11 ¶ And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije Abarim, in the wilderness, which is before Moab on the East side.

12 ¶ They removed thence, and pitched upon the river of Zared.

13 ¶ Thence they departed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness, and cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: (for Arnon is the border of Moab, between the Moabites and the Amorites).

14 Wherefore it shall be spoken in the 1book of the battles of the Lord, 1what thing he did in the red sea, and in the rivers of Arnon.

15 And at the stream of the rivers that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 ¶ And from thence they turned to Beer: the same is the well where the Lord said unto Moses, 1Assemble the people, and I will give them water.

17 ¶ Then Israel sang this song, Rise up 1well, ye unto it.

18 The princes dug this well, the captains of the people dug it, even the 1lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they came to Matranah,

19 ¶ And from Matranah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 ¶ And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the plain of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

21 ¶ Then Israel sent messengers unto Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying, 22 ¶ Let me go through thy land: we will not turn aside into the fields, nor into the vineyards, neither drink of the waters of the wells: we will go by the king’s way, until we be past thy country.

23 ¶ But Sihon gave Israel no license to pass through his country, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 ¶ But Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and conquered his land, from Arnon unto Jabok, even unto the children of Ammon, for the border of the children of Ammon was 1strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, which had fought beforetime against the king of the Moabites, and had taken all his land.

out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs, say,
Come to Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and repaired.

28 For a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the city of Sihon, and hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bashan in Arnon.

29 Woe be to thee, Moab: O people of Chemosh, thou art undone: he hath suffered his sons to be pursued, and his daughters to be in captivity to Sihon the king of the Amorites.

30 Their empire also is lost from Heshbon unto Dibon, and we have destroyed them unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to search out Jazer, and they took the towns belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶ And they turned, and went up toward Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edrei.

34 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thine hand, and all his people, and his land: and thou shalt do to him as thou diddest unto Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

22:1 5 King Balak sendeth for Balaam to curse the Israelites. 12 The Lord forbiddeth him to go. 22 The Angel of the Lord meeteth him, and his ass speaketh. 38 Balaam protesteth that he will speak nothing, but that which the Lord putteth in his mouth.

1 After, the children of Israel departed and pitched in the plain of Moab on the other side of Jordan from Jericho.

2 ¶ Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were sore afraid of the people, because they were many, and Moab fretted against the children of Israel.

4 Therefore Moab said unto the Elders of Midian, Now shall this multitude lick up all that are round about us, as an ox licketh up the grass of the field: and Balak the son of Zippor was King of the Moabites at that time.

5 ¶ He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor (which is by the river of the land of the children of his folk) to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which cover the face of the earth, and lie over against me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people (for they are stronger than I) so it may be that I shall be able to smite them, and to drive them out of the land: for I know that he, whom thou blessest, is blessed, and he whom thou cursest, shall be cursed.

7 And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, having the reward of the soothsaying in their hand, and they came unto Balaam, and told him the words of Balak.

8 Who answered them, Tarry here this night, and I will give you an answer, as the Lord shall say unto me. So the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 Then God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Baalam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab hath sent unto me, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, and covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shall be able to overcome them in battle, and to drive them out.

11 And God said unto Balaam, Go not thou, neither curse the people, for they are blessed.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Return unto your land: for I will not that thou curse me, and I will give you an answer, as the Lord shall say unto me.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Return unto your land: for the Lord hath refused to give me leave to go with you.

14 So the princes of Moab rose up, and went unto Balak, and said, Balaam hath refused to come with us.

15 Balak yet sent again more princes, and more honorable than they.

16 Who came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Be not thou stayed, I pray thee, from coming unto me.

17 For I will promote thee unto great honor, and will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

22:12 1 He warned him by a dream, that he should not consent to the king’s wicked request.

22:13 1 Else he showed himself willing, covetousness had so blinded his heart.

22:16 1 The wicked seek by all means to further their naughty enterprises, though they know that God is against them.
18 And Balaam answered, and said unto the servants of Balak, ‘If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the Lord my God, to do less or more.

19 But now, I pray you, tarry here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord will say unto me more.

20 And God came unto Balaam by night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them: but only what thing I say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 So Balaam rose up early, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as he rode upon his ass, and his two servants went with him.

23 And when the ass saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand, the ass turned out of the way, and went into the field, but Balaam smote the ass to turn her into the way.

24 Again the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyards, having a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the ass saw the Angel of the Lord, she thrust herself unto the wall, and dashed Balaam’s foot against the wall: wherefore he smote her again.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn, either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the Angel of the Lord, she lay down under Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wroth, and smote the ass with a staff.

28 Then the Lord opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, which thou hast ridden upon since thy first time unto this day? have I used at any time, to do thus unto thee? Who said, Nay.

31 And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand: then he bowed himself, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine ass three times? behold, I came out to withstand thee, because thy way is not straight before me.

33 But the ass saw me, and turned from me now three times: for else, if she had not turned from me, surely I had even now slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 Then Balaam said unto the Angel of the Lord, I have sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I will turn home again.

35 But the Angel said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say unto thee, that shalt thou speak.

36 So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

37 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, even in the utmost coast.

38 Then Balak said unto Balaam, Did not I send to thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee unto honor?

39 And Balaam made answer unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee, and can I now say anything at all? the word that God putteth in my mouth that shall I speak.

40 Then Balak offered bullocks, and sheep, and sent thereof to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And on the morrow Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

23 1 Balaam causeth seven altars to be built. 5 God teacheth him what to answer. 8 Instead of cursing he blesseth Israel. 19 God is not like man.

1 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks, and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam said, and 1Balak and 22:19 1 Because he tempted God to require him contrary to his commandment, his petition was granted, but it turned to his own condemnation.

22:22 1 Moved rather with covetousness than to obey God.

22:24 1 The second time.

22:27 1 Or, fell.

22:28 1 Gave her power to speak.

22:30 1 Since thou hast been my master.

22:31 1 For whose eyes the Lord doth not open, they can neither see his anger, nor his love.

22:32 1 Both thy heart is corrupt, and thine enterprise wicked.
Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 Then Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go, if so be that the Lord will come and meet me: and whatsoever he showeth me, I will tell thee: so he went forth alone.

4 And God met Balaam, and Balaam said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the Lord put an answer in Balaam’s mouth, and said, Go again to Balak, and say on this wise.

6 So when he turned unto him, lo, he stood by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 Then he uttered his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram out of the mountains of the East, saying, Come, curse Jacob for my sake: come, and detest Israel.

8 How shall I curse, where God hath not cursed? or how shall I detest, where the Lord hath not de­tested?

9 For from the top of the rocks I did see him, and from the hills I did behold him: lo, the people shall dwell by themselves, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can tell the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

11 Then Balaam said unto Balak, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered, and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the Lord hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, whence thou mayest see them, and thou shalt see but the utmost part of them and shalt not see them all: therefore curse them out of that place for my sake.

14 ¶ And he brought him into Zophim to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 After, he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, and I will meet the Lord yonder.

16 And the Lord met Balaam, and put an answer in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him: so Balak said unto him, What hath the Lord said?

18 And he uttered his parable, and said, Rise up Balak, and hear: hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor.

19 God is not as man, that he should lie, neither as the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? and hath he spoken, and shall he not accomplish it?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: for he hath blessed, and I cannot alter it.

21 He seeth none iniquity in Jacob, nor seeth no transgression in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the joyful shout of a King is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt: their strength is as an unicorn.

23 For there is no sorcery in Jacob, nor soothsaying in Israel, according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought?

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down, till he eat of the prey, and till he drink the blood of the slain.

25 Then Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered, and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that must I do?

27 ¶ Again Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place, if so be it will please God, that thou mayest curse them for my sake.

28 So Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 Then Balaam said unto Balak, Make me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks, and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

24 5 Balaam prophesieth of the great prosperity that should come unto Israel. 17 Also of the coming of Christ. 20 The destruction of the Amalekites, and of the Kenites.
1 And Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, then he went not, "as certain times before, to set divinations, but set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lift up his eyes, and looked upon Israel, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came upon him,

3 'And he uttered his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes were shut up, hath said,

4 He hath said which heard the words of God, and saw the vision of the Almighty, and falling in a trance had his eyes opened:

5 ¶ How goodly are thy tenths, O Jacob, and thine habitations, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they stretched forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the aloe trees, which the Lord hath planted, as the cedars beside the waters.

7 The 'water droppeth out of his bucket, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his King shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God brought him out of Egypt: his strength shall be as an unicorn: he shall eat the nations his enemies, and bruise their bones, and shoot them through with his arrows.

9 'He couketh, and lieth down as a young Lion, and as a Lion: Who shall stir him up? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 Then Balak was very angry with Balaam, and smote his hands together: so Balak said unto Balaam, 'Therefore now flee unto thy place: I thought that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

11 Thereinfore now flee unto thy place: I thought surely to promote thee unto honor, but lo, the Lord hath kept thee back from honor.

12 Then Balaam answered Balak, Told I not also thy messengers, which thou sentest unto me, saying, 13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot pass the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine own mind: what the Lord shall command, that same will I speak.

14 And now behold, I go unto my people: come, I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy folk in the latter days.

15 And he uttered his parable, and said Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes were shut up hath said,

16 He hath said that heard the words of God, and hath the knowledge of the most High, and saw the vision of the Almighty, and falling in a trance had his eyes opened:

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not near: there shall come a Star of Jacob, and a Scepter shall rise of Israel and shall smite the 'coasts of Moab, and destroy all the sons of Sihem.

18 And Edom shall be possessed, and Seir shall be a possession to their enemies: but Israel shall do valiantly.

19 He also that shall have dominion shall be of Jacob, and shall destroy the remnant of the 'city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Amalek, he uttered his parable, and said, Amalek was the 'first of the nations: but his latter end come to destruction.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and uttered his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and put thy nest in the rock:

22 Nevertheless, the Kenite shall be spoiled, until Assyur carry thee away captive.

23 Again he uttered his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this?

24 The ships also shall come from the coasts of Kittim, and subdue Asshur, and shall subdue Eber, and he also shall come to destruction.

25 Then Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

25 The people committeth fornication with the daughters of Moab. 9 Phinehas killeth Zimri and Cozbi. 11 God maketh his covenant with Phinehas. 17 God commandeth, to kill the Midianites.

1 Now while Israel abode in 'Shittim, the people began to commit whoredom with the 'daughters of Moab:

24:1 1 Where the Israelites camped.
24:3 1 His eyes were shut up before in respect of the clear visions which he saw after: some read, were open.
24:4 1 Though he lay as in a sleep, yet the eyes of his mind were open.
24:5 1 Or, tents.
24:7 1 His prosperity and posterity shall be very great.
24:10 1 In token of anger.
24:11 1 Thus the wicked burden God when they cannot compass their wicked enterprises.
24:14 1 Hebrew, counsel.
2  He gave also wicked counsel to cause the Israelites to sin, that thereby God might forsake them, Num. 31:16.
24:17 1 Meaning, Christ.
2  That is, the princes.
3  He shall subdue all that resist: for of Sheth came Noah, and of Noah all the world.
24:19 1 Of the Edomites.
24:20 1 The Amalekites first made war against Israel, as Num. 14:45.
24:21 1 Or, Midianites.
2  Make thyself as strong as thou canst.
24:22 1 Or, thou Kain shalt.
24:23 1 Some read, Oh who shall not perish when the enemy that is, Antichrist, shall set himself up as God?
24:24 1 The Grecians and Romans.
2  Meaning, Eber, or the Jews for rebelling against God.
25:1 1 With the women.
2 Which called the people unto the sacrifice of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel coupled himself unto Baal of Peor: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel;

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before the Lord against the Sun, that the indignation of the Lord's wrath may be turned from Israel.

5 Then Moses said unto the Judges of Israel, Everyone slay his men that were joined unto Baal of Peor.

6 ¶ And behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, who went before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 ¶ And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest saw it, he rose up from the midst of the Congregation, and took a spear in his hand,

8 And followed the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them both through: 8 And followed the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them both through:

9 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up before her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

10 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

11 ¶ Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, hath turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for his God, and hath made an atonement for the children of Israel.

12 Wherefore say to him, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace.

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of the Priest's office forever, because he hath kept mine commandments, and my sacrifices and mine offerings, and hath done them according to all that I commanded him.

14 And the name of the Israelite thus slain, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, prince of the family of the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head over the people of his father's house in Midian.

16 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they trouble you with their wiles, whereewith they have beguiled you as concerning Peor, and as concerning their sister Cozbi daughter of a prince of Midian, which was slain in the day of the plague because of Peor.

26 2 The Lord commandeth to number the children of Israel in the plain of Moab, from twenty years old and above. 57 The Levites and their families. 64 None of them that were numbered in Sinai go into Canaan, save Caleb and Joshua.

1 And so after the plague, the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest, saying,

2 Take the number of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and above, throughout their father's houses, all that go forth to war in Israel.

3 So Moses and Eleazar the Priest spake unto them in the plain of Moab, by Jordan toward Jericho, saying,

4 From twenty years old and above ye shall number the people, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

5 ¶ Reuben the firstborn of Israel: the children of Reuben were: Hanoch, of whom came the family of the Hanochites, and of Pallu the family of the Palluites:

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they were in number three and forty thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the sons of Pallu, Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab, Nemuel, and Dathan and Abiram: this Dathan and Abiram were famous in the Congregation, and strove against Moses and against Aaron in the assembly of Korah, when they strove against the Lord.

10 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up with Korah, when the Congregation died, what time the fire consumed two hundred and fifty men, who were for a sign.

25:3 ¶ Worshipped the idol of the Moabites, which was in the hill Peor.

25:4 1 Or, to the Lord.

25:5 1 Let him see execution done of them that are under his charge.

25:6 1 Repenting that they had offended God.

25:7 1 Or, javelin.

25:8 1 Or, in her tent. Chalde and Greek, in her secrets.

25:11 1 He was zealous to maintain my glory.

25:13 1 He hath pacified God's wrath.

25:14 1 Hebrew, of the house of the father.

25:15 1 Causing you to commit both corporal and spiritual fornication by Balaam's counsel, Num. 31:16; Rev. 2:14.

26:1 1 Which came for their whoredom and idolatry.

26:3 1 Where the river is near to Jericho.

26:9 1 In that rebellion whereof Korah was head.

26:10 1 That is, for an example that others should not murmur and rebel against God's ministers.
11 Notwithstanding, all the sons of Korah died not.
12 ¶ And the children of Simeon after their families were: Nemuel, of whom came the family of the Nemuelites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin the family of the Jachinites:
13 Of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites: of Shaul, the family of the Shaluites.
14 These are the families of the Simeonites: two and twenty thousand, and two hundred.
15 ¶ The sons of Gad after their families were: Zephon, of whom came the family of the Zephoenites: of Hagg, the family of the Haggites: of Shuni, the family of the Shunites.
16 Of Ozni the family of the Oznites: of Eri, the family of the Erites.
17 Of Arod, the family of the Arodites: of Areli, the family of the Arielites.
18 These are the families of the sons of Gad, according to their numbers forty thousand and five hundred.
19 ¶ The sons of Judah, Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.
20 So were the sons of Judah after their families: of Shelah the family of the Shelanites: of Perez, the family of the Parzites, of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites.
21 And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Hamul the family of the Hamulites.
22 These are the families of Judah, after their numbers, seventy and six thousand and five hundred.
23 ¶ The sons of Issachar after their families were: Tola, of whom came the family of the Tolaites: of Puah, the family of the Punites.
24 Of Jashub the family of the Jashubites: of Shimron the family of the Shimronites.
25 These are the families of Issachar, after their numbers, threescore and four thousand and three hundred.
26 ¶ The sons of Zebulun, after their families were: of Sered, the family of the Sardites: of Elon, the family of the Elonites: of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.
27 These are the families of the Zebulunites, after their numbers threescore thousand and five hundred.
28 ¶ The sons of Joseph after their families were: Manasseh and Ephraim.
29 The sons of Manasseh were of Machir, the family of the Machirites: and Machir begat Gilead: of Gilead came the family of the Gileadites.
30 These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites, of Helek, the family of the Helekites.
31 Of Asriel the family of the Asrielites: of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites.
32 Of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites: of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.
33 ¶ And Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.
34 These are the families of Manasseh, and the number of them, two and fifty thousand and seven hundred.
35 ¶ These are the sons of Ephraim after their families were: Shuthelah came the family of the Shuthalhites: of Becher, the family of the Bachrites: of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.
36 And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.
37 These are the families of the sons of Ephraim after their numbers two and forty thousand and five hundred: these are the sons of Joseph after their families.
38 ¶ These are the sons of Benjamin after their families were: of Bela came the family of the Belaites: of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites.
39 Of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites: of Hupham the family of the Huphamites.
40 And the sons of Bela, were Ard and Naaman; of Ard came the family of the Ardites, of Naaman the family of the Naamites.
41 These are the sons of Benjamin after their families, and their numbers, five and forty thousand and six hundred.
42 ¶ These are the sons of Dan after their families were: of Shuham came the family of the Shuhamites: these are the families of Dan after their households.
43 All the families of the Shuhamites were after their numbers, threescore and four thousand, and four hundred.
44 ¶ The sons of Asher after their families were of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites: of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites: of Beriah, the family of the Berites.
45 The sons of Beriah were: of Heber, the family of the Heberites: of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.
46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.
47 These are the families of the sons of Asher after their numbers three and fifty thousand and four hundred.
48 ¶ The sons of Naphtali, after their families were: ... were: of Jahzeel, the families of the Jahzeelites: of Guni, the family of the Gunites.

49 Of Jezre, the family of the Jezreites: of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their households, and their number, five and forty thousand and four hundred.

51 These are the numbers of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance, according to the number of names.

54 ¶ To every one according to his number was it given; whether it were more or less, every one had according to the name of his fathers.

55 Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit:

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

57 ¶ These also are the numbers of the Levites, after their families: of Gershon came the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of Levi, the family of the Libnites: the family of the Hebronites: the family of the Mahlites: the family of the Mushites: the family of the Korathites: and Kohath begat Amram.

59 And Amram's wife was called Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, which was born unto Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And unto Aaron were born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab and Abihu died, because they offered strange fire before the Lord.

62 And their numbers were three and twenty thousand, all males from a month old and above, for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was none inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are the numbers of Moses and Eleazar the Priest which numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, near Jordan, toward Jericho.

64 And among these there was not a man of them, whom Moses and Aaron the Priest numbered, when they told the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the Lord said unto them, “They shall die in the wilderness: so there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27 1 The Law of the heritage of the daughters of Zelophehad. 2 The land of promise shewed unto Moses. 16 Moses prayeth for a governor unto the people. 18 Joshua is appointed in his stead.

1 Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the family of Manasseh, the son of Joseph (and the names of his daughters were these, Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah).

2 And stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the Princes, and all the assembly at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the assembly of them that were assembled against the Lord in the company of Korah, but died in his sin, and had no sons.

4 Wherefore should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he hath no son? give us a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 Then Moses brought their cause before the Lord.

6 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt give them a possession among the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and have no son, then ye shall turn his inheritance unto his daughter.

8 Also thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and have no son, then ye shall turn his inheritance unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance unto his next kinsman of his family, and he shall possess it: and this shall be unto the children of Israel a law of judgment, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

12 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, ‘Go up into this mount of Abarim, and behold the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou shalt be gathered unto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

2651 1 This is the third time that they are numbered.

2653 1 Or, persons.

2664 1 Wherein appeareth the great power of God, that so wonderfully increased his people.
14 For ye were disobedient unto my word in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assembly to sanctify me in the waters before their eyes: 1That is the water of 'Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.
15 ¶ Then Moses spake unto the Lord, saying,
16 Let the Lord God of the 1spirits of all flesh appoint a man over the Congregation,
17 Who may go out and in before them, and lead them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lord be not as sheep, which have not a shepherd.
18 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, in whom is the Spirit, and 1put thine hands upon him,
19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation, and give him a charge in their sight,
20 And give him of thy glory, that all the Congregation of the children of Israel may obey.
21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the Priest, who shall ask counsel for him by the judgment of Urim before the Lord: at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the Congregation.
22 So Moses did as the Lord hath commanded him, and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation.
23 Then he put his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of Moses.

4 The daily sacrifice. 9 The sacrifice of Sabbath. 11 Of the Month. 16 Of the Passover. 26 Of the firstfruits.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall observe to offer unto me in their due season mine offering, and 1my bread for my sacrifices made by fire for a sweet savor unto me.
3 Also thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord, two lambs of a year old, without spot daily, for a continual burnt offering.
4 One lamb shalt thou prepare in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou prepare at even.
5 1And the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of beaten oil.

6 This shall be a daily burnt offering, as was made in the mount Sinai for a sweet savor: it is a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord.
7 And the drink offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin for one lamb: in the holy place cause to pour the drink offering unto the Lord.
8 And the other lamb thou shalt prepare at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof shalt thou prepare this 1for an offering made by fire of sweet savor unto the Lord.
9 ¶ But on the Sabbath day ye shall offer two lambs of a year old, without spot, and two 1tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof.
10 This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the 1continual burnt offering, and drink offering thereof.
11 ¶ And in the beginning of your months, ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the Lord, two young bullocks, and a ram, and seven lambs of a year old, without spot,
12 And three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil for one bullock, and two tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil for one ram,
13 And a tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering unto one lamb, for a burnt offering of sweet savor: this is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.
14 And their 1drink offerings shall be half an Hin of wine unto one bullock, and the third part of an Hin unto a ram, and the fourth part of an Hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month, throughout the months of the year.
15 And one he goat for a sin offering unto the Lord shall be prepared, besides the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.
16 1Also the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the Lord.
17 And in the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.
18 In the 1first day shall be an holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work therein.
19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the Lord, two young bullocks, one ram, and seven lambs of a year old: see that they be without blemish.

20 And their meat offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye prepare for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram:

21 One tenth deal shalt thou prepare for every lamb, even for the seven lambs.

22 And an he goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall prepare these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is a continual burnt sacrifice.

24 After this manner ye shall prepare throughout all the seven days, for the 'maintaining of the offering made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord: it shall be done beside the continual burnt offering and drink offering thereof.

25 And in the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation, wherein ye shall do no servile work.

26 \(\text{¶} \) Also in the day of your firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the Lord, according to your 'weeks ye shall have an holy convocation: and ye shall do no servile work in it:

27 But ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the Lord, two young bullocks, a ram, and seven lambs of a year old.

28 And their meat offering of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto a bullock, two tenth deals to a ram,

29 And one tenth deal unto every lamb throughout the seven lambs,

30 And an he goat for a sin offering for you:

31 (Ye shall do this besides the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering:) 'see they be without blemish, with their drink offerings.

29 Of the three principal feasts of the seventh month, to wit, the feast of trumpets, \(\text{¶} \) The feast of reconciliation, \(\text{¶} \) And the feast of Tabernacles.

1 Moreover, in the first day of the 'seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein: 'it shall be a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

2 And ye shall make a burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of a year old, without blemish.

3 And their meat offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto the bullock, and two tenth deals unto the ram.

4 And one tenth deal unto the lamb, for the seven lambs, two rams and fourteen lambs of a year old without blemish,
21 With their meat offering and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, after their number, according to the manner.
22 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.
23 ¶ And the fourth day ye shall offer ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of a year old without blemish.
24 Their meat offering and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs according to their number after the manner,
25 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering and his drink offering.
26 ¶ In the fifth day also ye shall offer nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of a year old without blemish,
27 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs according to their number, after the manner,
28 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering and his drink offering.
29 ¶ And in the sixth day ye shall offer eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of a year old without blemish,
30 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs according to their number, after the manner,
31 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering and his drink offerings.
32 ¶ In the seventh day also ye shall offer seven bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of a year old without blemish,
33 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs according to their number, after the manner,
34 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering and his drink offering.
35 ¶ In the eighth day, ye shall have a solemn assembly: ye shall do no servile work therein,
36 But ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord, one bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of a year old without blemish,
37 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs according to their number, after the manner.
38 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.
39 These things ye shall do unto the Lord in your feasts, beside your vows, and your free offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.
30 3 Concerning vows. 4 The vow of the maid. 7 Of the wife. 10 Of the widow or divorced.
1 Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded him.
2 Moses also spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, 3 Whosoever voweth a vow unto the Lord, or sweareth an oath to bind himself by a bond, he shall not break his promise, but shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.
4 If a woman also vow a vow unto the Lord, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father’s house, in the time of her youth,
5 And her father hear her vow and bond, wherewith she hath bound herself, and her father hold his peace concerning her, then all her vows shall stand and every bond, wherewith she hath bound herself, shall stand.
6 But if her father disallow her the same day that he heareth it, then shall he make her vow which she hath made, and that that she hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith she bindeth herself, not of value: and the Lord will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.
7 And if she have an husband when she voweth or pronounceth ought with her lips, wherewith she bindeth herself,
8 If her husband heard it, and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vow shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bindeth herself shall stand in effect.
9 But if her husband disallow her the same day that he heareth it, then shall he make her vow which she hath made, and that that she hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith she bound herself, of none effect: and the Lord will forgive her.
10 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced (wherewith she hath bound herself) shall stand in effect with her.

11 And if she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound herself straightforward with an oath, 12 And her husband hath heard it, and held his peace concerning her, not disallowing her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond, wherewith she bound herself, shall stand in effect.

13 But if her husband disannulled them the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning her bonds, shall stand in effect: for her husband hath disannulled them: and the Lord will forgive her.

14 So every vow, and every oath or bond, made to humble the soul, her husband may stablish it, or her husband may break it.

15 But if her husband hold his peace concerning her from day to day, then he stablisheth all her vows and all her bonds which she hath made: he hath confirmed them because he held his peace concerning her the same day that he heard them.

16 But if he break them after that he hath heard them, then shall he bear her iniquity.

17 These are the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between the father and his daughter, being young in her father’s house.

8 Five Kings of Midian and Balaam are slain. 18 Only the maids are reserved alive. 27 The prey is equally divided. 50 A present given of Israel.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ‘Revenge the children of Israel of the Midianites, and afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake to the people, saying, Harness some of you unto war, and let them go against Midian, to execute the vengeance of the Lord against Midian.

4 A thousand of every tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelve thousand prepared unto war, of every tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, even a thousand of every tribe, and sent them with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest to the war: and the holy instruments, that is, the trumpets to blow were in his hand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slew all the males.

8 They slew also the kings of Midian among them that were slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian, and they slew Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

9 But the children of Israel took the women of Midian prisoners, and their children, and spoiled all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their villages with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey both of men and beasts.

12 And they brought the captives and that which they had taken, and the spoil unto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and unto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into the camp in the plain of Moab, which was by Jordan toward Jericho.

13 ¶ Then Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and all the princes of the Congregation went out of the camp to meet them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captains of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the war and battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, What? have ye saved all the women?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel through the counsel of Balaam to commit a trespass against the Lord, as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, slay all the males among the children, and kill all the women that have known man by carnal copulation.

18 But all the women-children that have not known carnal copulation, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And ye shall remain without the host seven days, all that have killed any person, and all that have touched any dead, and purify both yourselves and your prisoners the third day and the seventh.

20 Also ye shall purify every garment and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats’ hair, and all injury done against his people is done against him.

31:1 For they are not under the authority of the man.

31:10 For they are not under the authority of the man.

31:11 Her husband being alive.

31:12 Hebrew, the bonds of her soul.

31:13 To mortify herself by abstinence or other bodily exercise.

31:14 And warn her not the same day that he heareth it, as verse 9.

31:15 Not the same day he heard them, but some day after, the sin shall be imputed to him and not to her.

31:16 As he had commanded, Num. 25:17, declaring also that the son of Eleazar the Priest to the war: and the holy instruments, that is, the trumpets to blow were in his hand.

31:10 Or, palaces and gorgeous buildings.

31:12 As the women and little children.

31:15 As though he said, ye ought to have spared none.

31:16 For worshipping of Peor.

31:17 That is, all the men-children.
things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the Priest said unto the men of war, which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord commanded Moses.

22 As for gold, and silver, brass, iron, tin, and lead:

23 Even all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: yet, it shall be purified with the water of purification: and all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall cause to pass by the water.

24 Ye shall wash also your clothes the seventh day, and ye shall be clean: and afterward ye shall come into the host.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of persons and of cattle, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chief fathers of the Congregation.

27 And divide the prey between the soldiers that went to the war, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute unto the Lord of the men of war, which went out to battle: one person of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the bees, and of the asses, and of the sheep.

29 Ye shall take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the Priest, as an heave offering of the Lord.

30 But of the half of the children of Israel thou shalt take one, taken out of fifty , of the persons, and of the bees, of the asses, and of the sheep, even of all the cattle, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, which have the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, to wit, the rest of the prey which the men of war had spoiled, was six hundred seventy and five thousand sheep,

33 And seventy and two thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And two and thirty thousand persons in all, of women that had lain by no man.

36 And the half, to wit, the part of them that went out to war, touching the number of sheep, was three hundred seven and thirty thousand, and five hundred.

37 And the Lord’s tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy and five.

38 And the beeves were six and thirty thousand, whereof the Lord’s tribute was seventy and two.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred, whereof the Lord’s tribute was threescore and one:

40 And of persons sixteen thousand, whereof the Lord’s tribute was two and thirty persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute of the Lord’s offering unto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

42 And of the half of the children of Israel, which Moses divided from the men of war, 43 (For the half that pertained unto the congregation, was three hundred thirty and seven thousand sheep and five hundred,

44 And six and thirty thousand beeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses, and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons.)

47 Moses, I say, took of the half that pertained unto the children of Israel, one taken out of fifty , both of the persons, and of the cattle, and gave them unto the Levites, which have the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 ¶ Then the captains which were over thousands of the host, the captains over the thousands, and the captains over the hundreds came unto Moses:

49 And said to Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our authority, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 ¶ We have therefore brought a present unto the Lord, what every man found of Jewels of gold, bracelets, and chains, rings, earrings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our souls before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of them, and all wrought jewels, 52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the Lord (of the captains over thousands and hundreds) was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53 (For the men of war had spoiled, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of the captains over the thousands, and over the hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, for a memorial of the children of Israel before the Lord.
32 2 The request of the Reubenites and Gadites, 16 and their promise unto Moses. 20 Moses granted their request. 33 The Gadites, Reubenites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, conquer and build cities on this side Jordan.

1 Now the children of 1Reuben, and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattle: and they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of 2Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattle.

2 Then the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben came, and spake unto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and unto the Princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 The land of Abarim, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Which country the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel; is a land meet for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan.

6 And Moses said unto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and ye tarry here?

7 Wherefore now 1discourage you the heart of the children of Israel to go over into the land, which the Lord hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.

9 For when they went up even unto the 1river of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they would not go into the land, which the Lord had given them.

10 And the Lord’s wrath was kindled the same day, and he did swear, saying,

11 None of the men that came out of Egypt, from twenty years old and above, shall see the land for the which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not 2wholly followed me:

12 Except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have constantly followed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and made [them] wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done 1evil in the sight of the Lord, was consumed.

14 And behold, ye are risen up in your father’s stead as an increase of sinful men still to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord toward Israel.

15 For if ye turn away from following him, he will yet again leave the people in the wilderness, and ye shall destroy all this folk.

16 And they went near to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our sheep, and for our cattle, and cities for our children.

17 But we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their 1place: but our children shall dwell in the defended cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited, every man his inheritance.

19 Neither will we inherit with them beyond Jordan and on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan Eastward.

20 ¶ And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, and go 1armed before the Lord to war:

21 And will go every one of you in harness over Jordan before the Lord, until he have cast out his enemies from his sight:

22 And until the land be subdued before the Lord, and ye shall return and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israel: and this land shall be your possession 1before the Lord.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sin 1will find you out.

24 Build you then cities for your children, and folds for your sheep, and do that ye have spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wives, our sheep, and all our cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead, 27 But thy servants will go every one armed to war before the Lord for to fight, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them, Moses 1commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will go with you over Jordan, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:
30 But if they will not go over with you armed, then shall they have their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.
31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the 1Lord hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.
32 We will go armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance may be to us on this side Jordan.
33 So Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the 7Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with the cities thereof and coasts, even the cities of the country round about.
34 Then the children of Gad built Dibon, and Astaroth, and Aroer,
35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehha,
36 And Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran, defensed cities: also sheepfolds.
37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal Meon, and turned their names, and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they built.
39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.
40 Then Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt therein.
41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called it 1Havoth Jair.
42 Also Nobah went and took Kenath, with the villages thereof, and called it Nobah after his own name.

33 Two and forty journeys of Israel are numbered. 52 They are commanded to kill the Canaanites.

1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, which went out of the land of Egypt, according to their bands under the hand of Moses and Aaron.
2 And Moses wrote their going out by their journeys, according to the commandment of the Lord: so these are the journeys of their going out.
3 Now they departed from Rameses the first month, even the fifteenth day of the first month, on the morrow after the Passover: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.
4 (For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, which the Lord had smitten among them: upon their 1gods also the Lord did execution.)
5 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth.
6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.
7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto 3Pi Hahiroth, which is before Baal
Zephon, and pitched before Migdol.
8 And they departed from before Hahiroth, and went through the midst of the Sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Marah.
9 And they removed from Marah, and came unto 4Elim, and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and seventy palm trees, and they pitched there.
10 And they removed from Elim, and camped by the red sea.
11 And they removed from the red Sea, and lay in the wilderness of Sin.
12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and set up their tents in Dophkah.
13 And they departed from Dophkah, and lay in Alush.
14 And they removed from Alush, and lay in 5Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.
15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of Sinai.
16 And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched in 6Kibroth Hattaavah.
17 And they departed from Kibroth Hattaavah, and lay at 7Hazeroth.
18 And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah.
19 And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at Rimmon Perez.
20 And they departed from Rimmon Perez, and pitched in Libnah.
21 And they removed from Libnah, and pitched in Rissah.
22 And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah.
23 And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shepher.
24 And they removed from mount Shepher, and lay in Haradah.
25 And they removed from Haradah, and pitched in Makelloth.

26 And they removed from Makelloth, and lay in Tahath.
27 And they departed from Tahath, and pitched in Terah.
28 And they removed from Terah, and pitched in Mithkah.
29 And they went from Mithkah, and pitched in Hashmonah.
30 And they departed from Hashmonah, and lay in Moseroth.
31 And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in Bene Jaakan.
32 And they removed from Bene Jaakan, and lay in Hor Hagidgad.
33 And they went from Hor Hagidgad, and pitched in Jotbathah.
34 And they removed from Jotbathah, and lay in Ezion Geber.
35 And they removed from Ezion Geber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.
36 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.
37 (And Aaron the Priest went up into mount Hor, at the commandment of the Lord and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month.
38 And Aaron was an hundred and three and twenty years old, when he died in mount Hor.)
39 And Aaron the Priest went up into mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.
40 And he was an hundred and thirty years old, when he died in mount Hor.

Abarim, and pitched in the 'plain of Moab by Jordan toward Jericho.
49 And they pitched by Jordan, from Beth Jesimoth unto Abel Shittim, in the plain of Moab.
50 And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plain of Moab, by Jordan toward Jericho, saying,
51 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are come over Jordan to enter into the land of Canaan,
52 Ye shall then drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you, and destroy all their pictures, and break asunder all their images of metal, and pluck down all their high places,
53 And ye shall possess the land and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.
54 And ye shall inherit the land by lot, according to your families: to the more ye shall give more inheritance, and to the fewer the less inheritance. Where the lot shall fall to any man, that shall be his: according to the tribes of your fathers shall ye inherit.
55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, then those which ye let remain of them, shall be as pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.
56 Moreover, it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them.

34 3 The coasts and borders of the land of Canaan.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are come over Jordan to enter into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall unto your inheritance, that is, the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof.
3 And your South quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin to the borders of Edom: so that your South quarter shall be from the salt sea coast Eastward.
4 And the border shall compass you from the South to 'Maaleh Akrabbim, and reach to Zin, and go out from the South to Kadesh Barnea: thence it shall stretch to Hazar Addar, and go along to Azmon.
5 And the border shall compass from Azmon unto the 'river of Egypt, and shall go out to the sea.
6 And your West quarter shall be the great sea: even that border shall be your West coast.
7 And this shall be your North quarter, ye shall...
mark out your border from the great sea unto mount Hor. 8 From mount Hor ye shall point out till it come unto Hamath, and the end of the coast shall be at Zedad. 9 And the coast shall reach out to Ziphron, and go out at Hazar Enan, this shall be your North quarter. 10 And ye shall mark out your East quarter from Hazar Enan to Shepham. 11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, and from the East side of Ain: and the same border shall descend and go out at the side of the sea of Chinnereth Eastward. 12 Also that border shall go down to Jordan, and leave at the salt sea: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about. 13 ¶ Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the Lord commanded to give unto nine tribes, and half the tribe. 14 ¶ For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the households of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to their fathers’ households, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance. 15 Two tribes and an half tribe have received their inheritance on this side of Jordan toward Jericho full East. 16 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 17 These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you: Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. 18 And ye shall take also a prince of every tribe to divide the land. 19 The names also of the men are these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. 20 Of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. 21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Sibolla. 22 Of the tribe of the sons of Dan, the prince Bukki, the son of Jogli. 23 Of the sons of Joseph: Of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, the prince Hanniel the son of Ephod. 24 And of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, the prince Kemuel, the son of Shiphtan. 25 Of the also tribe of the sons of Zebulun, the prince Elizaphan, the son of Parnach. 26 Of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, the prince Paltiel, the son of Azza. 27 Of the tribe also of the sons of Asher, the prince Ahihu, the son of Shelomi. 28 And of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, the prince Pedahel, the son of Ammihud. 29 These are they, whom the Lord commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel, in the land of Canaan. 30 For one man’s witness shall no man be condemned.

2 Unto the Levites are given cities and suburbs. 11 The cities of refuge. 16 The law of murder. 30 For one man’s witness shall no man be condemned.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plain of Moab by Jordan, toward Jericho, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, the inheritance of their possession, two cities with their suburbs. 3 They shall have the cities to dwell in, and their suburbs shall be for their cattle, and for their substance, and for all their beasts. 4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, from the wall of the city outward shall be a thousand cubits round about. 5 And ye shall measure without the city of the East side, two thousand cubits: and of the South side, two thousand cubits: and of the West side, two thousand cubits: and of the North side, two thousand cubits: and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be the measure of the suburbs of their cities. 6 And of the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: and to them ye shall add two and forty cities more. 7 All the cities which ye shall give to the Levites, shall be eight and forty cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs. 8 And concerning the cities which ye shall give, of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take more, and of few ye shall take less: everyone shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth. 9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan,
11 You shall appoint cities for refuge, so that the slayer who slays a man unexpectedly may flee to them. And they shall be cities of refuge for the children of Israel. 12 And you shall appoint six cities, cities of refuge, which shall be cities of refuge for the children of Israel. 13 And of the cities which you shall give the children of Israel, six cities you shall appoint for refuge. 14 Ye shall appoint three on this side Jordan, and ye shall appoint three cities on the other side of Canaan which shall be cities of refuge. 15 These six cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him who dwelleth among you, that everyone which killeth any person unawares, may flee thither. 16 ‘And if one smite another with an instrument of iron that he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death. 17 Also if he smite him by casting a stone, whereby he may be slain, and he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death. 18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slain, if he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death. 19 The revenger of the blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. 20 But if he thrust him of hate, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die, 21 Or smite him through enmity with his hand, that he die, he that smote him shall die the death: for he is a murderer: the revenger of the blood shall slay the murderer when he meeteth him. 22 But if he pushed him unadvisedly, and not of hatred, or cast upon him anything, without laying of wait, 23 Or any stone (whereby he might be slain), and saw him not, or caused it to fall upon him, and he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought him any harm, 24 Then the Congregation shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these laws. 25 And the Congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the Congregation shall restore him unto the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide there unto the death of the high Priest, which is anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled, 27 ‘And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood slay the murderer, he shall be guiltless, 28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge, until the death of the high Priest; and after the death of the high Priest, the slayer shall return unto the land of his possession. 29 So these things shall be a law of judgment unto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings. 30 Whosoever killeth any person, the Judge shall slay the murderer, through ‘witnesses: but ‘one witness shall not testify against a person to cause him to die. 31 Moreover ye shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again, and dwell in the land, before the death of the high Priest. 32 Also ye shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again, and dwell in the land, before the death of the high Priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye shall dwell: for ‘blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. 34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, for I dwell in the midst thereof: For I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

36 6 An order for the marriage of the daughters of Zelophehad.

1 Then ‘the chief fathers of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, 2 And said, ‘The Lord commanded ‘my lord... to give the land to inherit by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 If they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the 1Jubilee of the children of Israel cometh, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph have said 1well.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shall be wives, to whom they think best, only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall join himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter that possesseth any 1inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall stick to his own inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For 1Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married unto their father's brother's sons, 12 They were wives to certain of the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph: so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the 1commandments and laws which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel in the plain of Moab, by Jordan toward Jericho.

36:4 1 Signifying that at no time it could return, for in the Jubilee all things returned to their own tribes.
36:5 1 For the tribe could not have continued, if the inheritance which was the maintenance thereof should have been alienated to others.
36:8 1 When there is no male to inherit.
36:13 1 Touching the ceremonial and judicial laws.
1 These be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel, on this side Jordan, in the wilderness, in the plain, over against the red sea, between Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 There are eleven days’ journey from Horeb unto Kadesh Barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

3 And it came to pass in the first day of the eleventh month, in the fortieth year that Moses spake unto the children of Israel according unto all that the Lord hath given him in commandment unto them.

4 After that he had slain Sihon the King of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.

5 On this side Jordan at the land of Moab began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount, turn you and depart, and go unto the mountain of the Amorites, and unto all places near thereunto in the plain, in the mountain, or in the valley: both Southward, and to the Sea side to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon: even unto the great river, the river Perah.

7 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess that land which the Lord sware, unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and unto their seed after them.

8 I spake unto you the same time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

9 The Lord your God hath multiplied you: and behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven in number:

10 The Lord God of your fathers makes you a thousand times more than ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you,

11 (The Lord God of your fathers makes you a thousand times more than ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you,) How can I alone bear your cumbrance and your charge, and your strife?

12 Bring you men of wisdom and of understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you:

13 Then he answered me and said, the thing is good that thou hast commanded us.

14 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise and known men, and made them rulers over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifty, and captains over ten, and officers among your tribes.

15 And I charged you the same time all the things which you should do.

16 And I commanded you the same time, saying, Hear the controversies between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall have no respect of person in judgment, but shall hear the small as well as the great: ye shall not fear the face of man: for the judgment is God’s: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring unto me, and I will hear it.

18 Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye should do.

19 Then we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness (as ye have seen) by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us: and we came to Kadesh Barnea.
20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath laid the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hath said unto thee: fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ Then ye came unto me everyone, and said, We will send men before us, to search us out the land, and to bring us word again, what way we must go up by, and unto what cities we shall come.

23 So the saying pleased me well, and I took twelve men of you, of every tribe one.

24 ¶ Who departed, and went up into the mountain, and came unto the river Eshcol, and searched out the land.

25 And took of the fruit of the land in their hand, and brought it unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go up, but were disobedient unto the commandment of the Lord your God, 27 And murmured in your tents, and said, Because the Lord hath taken us out of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up, our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, The people [are] greater, and taller than we: the cities [are] great and walled up to heaven: and moreover we have seen the sons of the [Anakims] there.

29 But I said unto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did unto you in Egypt before your eyes, 31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way which ye have gone, until ye came unto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not believe the Lord your God, 33 Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to go, and in a cloud by day.

34 Then the Lord heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swears, saying,

35 ¶ Surely there shall not one of these men of this forward generation, see that good land, which I swear to give unto your fathers, 36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh: he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord.

37 ¶ Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither, 38 But Joshua the son of Nun which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your children, which ye said should be a prey, and your sons, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn back, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the Lord, we will go up, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded us: and ye armed you every man to the war, 42 But the Lord said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight, (for I am not among you) lest I smite you.

43 And when I told you, ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went up into the mountain.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain came out against you, and chased you (as bees used to do) and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And when ye came again, ye wept before the Lord, but the Lord would not hear your voice, nor incline his ears unto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh a long time, according to the time that ye had remained before.

2 Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, Moabites, and Ammonites. 23 Siben King of Heshbon.
1 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake unto me: and were compassed mount Seir a long time.
2 And the Lord spake unto me, saying,
3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you Northward.
4 And warn thou the people, saying, Ye shall go through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed therefore.
5 Ye shall not provoke them: for I will not give you of their land so much as a foot breadth, because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.
6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money to eat, and ye shall also procure water of them for money to drink.
7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness, and the Lord thy God hath been with thee this forty years, and thou hast lacked nothing.
8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir: through the way of the plain, from Elath, and from Ezion Geber, we turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.
9 Then the Lord said unto me, Thou shalt not vex Moab, neither provoke them to battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.
10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great and many, and tall, as the Anakims.
11 They also were taken for giants as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead:
12 As he did to the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead unto this day.
13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the river Zered: and we went over the river Zered.
14 The space also wherein we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we were come over the river Zered, was eight and thirty years, until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the Lord spake unto them.
15 For indeed the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host, till they were consumed.
16 ¶ So when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people:
17 Then the Lord spake unto me, saying,
18 Thou shalt go through Ar the coast of Moab this day:
19 And thou shalt come near over against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege unto them, nor move war against them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.
20 That also was taken for a land of giants: for giants dwelt therein afore time, whom the Ammonites called Zamzummims:
21 A people that was great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead:
22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead unto this day.
23 And the Avim which dwelt in Hazarim even unto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.
24 ¶ Rise up therefore, said the Lord: take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon, the Amorite, King of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and they shall come unto war before you.
25 This day will I begin to send thy fear and thy dread, upon all people under the whole heaven, which shall hear thy fame, and shall tremble and quake before thee.
26 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness to Kedemoth unto Sihon King of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,
27 ¶ Let me pass through thy land: I will go by the highway: I will neither turn unto the right hand

1 They obeyed, after that God had chastised them.
2 Eight and thirty years, as verse 14.
3 This was the second time: for before they had caused the Israelites to return, Num. 20:21.
4 And given thee means, wherewith thou mayest make recompense: also God will direct thee by his providence, as he hath done.
5 Or, wilderness.
6 Or, besiege.
7 Which were the Moabites and Ammonites.
8 Signifying that as these giants were driven out for their sins: so the wicked when their sins are ripe, cannot avoid God's plagues.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, for to eat, and shalt give me water for money for to drink: only I will go through on my foot, 29 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me) until I be come over Jordan, into the land which the Lord our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon the King of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because he would deliver him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess and inherit his land.

32 Then came out Sihon to meet us, himself with all his people to fight at Jahaz.

33 But the Lord our God delivered him into our power, and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities the same time, and destroyed every city, men, and women, and children: we let nothing remain.

35 Only the cattle we took to ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, and from the city that is upon the river, even unto Gilead: there was not one city that escaped us: for the Lord our God delivered us up all before us.

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the Lord our God forbade us.

3 Og King of Bashan is slain. 11 The bigness of his bed. 18 The Reubenites and Gadites are commanded to go over Jordan armed before their brethren. 21 Joshua is made captain. 27 Moses is permitted to see the land, but not to enter, albeit he desired it.

1 Then we turned, and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og King of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people to fight at Edrei.

2 And the Lord said unto me, Fear him not, for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because he would deliver him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

3 So the Lord our God delivered also unto our hand, Og the King of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him, until none was left him alive.

4 And we took all his cities the same time, neither was there a city which we took not from them, even three score cities, and all the country of Argob, even the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates and bars, beside unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we overthrew them, as we did unto Sihon King of Heshbon, destroying every city, with men, women, and children.

7 But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities we took for ourselves.

8 Thus we took at that time out of the hand of two Kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Jordan from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan unto Salcah, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og King of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Giants, whose bed was a bed of iron: is it not at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? the length thereof is nine cubits, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh: even all the country of Argob with all Bashan, which is called, The land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob, unto the coasts of Geshuri, and of Maachath: and called them after his own name, Bashan, Havoth Jair unto this day.

15 And I gave part of Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and Gadites I gave the rest of Gilead, and unto the river of Arnon, half the river and the borders, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:
17 The plain also and Jordan, and the borders from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, to wit, the salt Sea 1under the springs of Pisgah Eastward.

18 ¶And I commanded 1you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall go over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all men of war.

19 Your wives, only, and your children, and your cattle (for I know that ye have much cattle) shall abide in your cities, which I have given you,

20 Until the Lord have given rest unto your brethren as unto you, and that they also possess the land, which the Lord your God hath given them beyond Jordan: then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶And I charged Joshua the same time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the 1Lord your God hath done unto these two Kings: so shall the Lord do unto all the kingdoms whither thou goest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the Lord your God, he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lord the same time, saying, O Lord God, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness and thy mighty hand: for where is there a God in heaven or in earth, that can 1do like thy works, and like thy 2power?

24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness and thy mighty hand: for what nation is there so great, that hath ordinances and laws so righteous, as all this Law, which I set in the midst of your land?

25 I pray thee let me go over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly 1mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the Lord said unto me, Let it suffice thee, speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and 1lift up thine eyes Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and behold it with thine eyes, for thou shalt not go over this Jordan:

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and bolden him: for he shall go before this people, and he shall divide for inheritance unto them, the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth Peor.

3:17 1 Or, at Asdoth-Pisgah.
3:18 1 That is, the Reubenites, Gadites, and half Manasseh, as Num. 32:28.
3:21 1 So that the victories came not by your own wisdom, strength or multitude.
3:24 1 He speaketh according to the common and corrupt speech of them which attribute that power unto idols that only appertaineth unto God.
3:25 1 He meaneth Zion, where the Temple should be built, and God honored.
3:27 1 As before he saw by the spirits of prophecy the good mountain which was Zion: so here his eyes were lifted up above the order of nature to behold all the plentiful land of Canaan.
them to hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you near and stood under the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, and there was darkness, clouds and mist.

12 And the Lord spake unto you out of the midst of the fire, and ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude, save a voice.

13 Then he declared unto you his covenant which he commanded you to do, even the ten commandments, and wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I should teach you ordinances and laws, which ye should observe in the land, whither ye go, to possess it.

15 Take therefore good heed unto your souls: for ye saw no image in the day that the Lord spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 That ye corrupt not yourselves, and make you a graven image, or representation of any figure: whether it be the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on earth, or the likeness of any feathered fowl that fleeth in the air:

18 Or the likeness of anything that creepeth on the earth, or the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth,

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun and the moon and the stars with all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath distributed to all people under the whole heaven.

20 But the Lord hath taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt to be unto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your words, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must die in this land, and shall not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, and lest ye make you any graven image, or likeness of anything, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children and children's children, and shalt have remained long in the land, if ye corrupt yourselves, and make any graven image, or likeness of anything, and work evil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to provoke him to anger,

26 I call heaven and earth to record against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, whereto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days therein, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you:

28 And there ye shall serve gods: even the work of man's hand, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, at the length, if thou return to the Lord thy God, and be obedient unto his voice, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

32 For inquire now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one end of heaven unto the other, if there came to pass such a great thing as this, or whether any such like thing hath been heard.

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of a fire, as thou hast heard, and lived?

4:11 ¶ The Law was given with fearful miracles, to declare both that God was the author thereof, and also that no flesh was able to abide the rigor of the same.

4:13 ¶ God joineth this condition to his covenant.

4:15 Or, souls.

4:25 Meaning hereby all superstition and corruption of the true service of God.

4:26 Though men would absolve you, yet the insensible creatures shall be witnesses of your disobedience.

4:27 So that his curse shall make his former blessings of none effect.

4:32 Man's negligence is partly cause, that he knoweth not God.
47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og King of Bashan, two Kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sun rising:

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plain from Jordan Eastward, even unto the Sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

5 Moses is the mean between God and the people. 6 The Law is repeated. 23 The people are afraid at God's voice. 29 The Lord wisheth that the people would fear him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hand nor left.

1 Then Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the ordinances which I propose to you this day, that ye may learn them, and take heed to observe them.

2 "The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 The Lord 'made not this covenant with our fathers only, but with us, even with us all here alive this day.

4 The Lord talked with you 'face to face in the Mount, out of the midst of the fire.

5 (At that time I stood between the Lord and you, to declare unto you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid at the sight of the fire, and went not up into the mount) and he said,

6 ¶ I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt have none 'other gods before my face.

8 Thou shalt make thee no graven image or 'any likeness of that that is in heaven above, or which is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth.

9 Thou shalt neither bow thyself unto them, nor serve them: for 'I the Lord thy God am a 'jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, even unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

10 And showing mercy unto thousands of them that 'love me, and keep my commandments.

11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless

4:34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from among nations, by 'tentations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great fear, according unto all that the Lord your God did unto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was showed, that thou mightest 'know that the Lord he is God, and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heaven he made thee hear his voice to instruct thee, and upon earth he showed thee his great fire, and thou hearest his voice out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because 'he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight by his mighty power, 38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier than thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to give thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.

39 Understand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none other.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore his ordinances, and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may 'go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee forever.

41 ¶ Then Moses separated three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun rising:

42 That the slayer should flee thither, which had killed his neighbor at unawares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, unto one of those cities, and live:

43 That is, 'Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites: and Golan in Bashan among them of Manasseh.

44 ¶ So this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

45 These are the 'witnesses, and the ordinances, and the laws which Moses declared to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel 'smote, after they were come out of Egypt:

4:35 He sheweth the cause why God wrought these miracles.

4:37 Freely, and not of their deserts.

4:40 God promiseth reward not for our merits, but to encourage us, and to assure us that our labor shall not be lost.

4:45 The articles and points of the covenant.

5:3 That is, of his honor, not permitting it to be given to others.
that taketh his Name in vain.
12 Keep the Sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.
13 Six days thou shalt labor, and shalt do all thy work:
14 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not do any work therein, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maid, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, neither any of thy cattle, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy manservant and thy maid may rest as well as thou.
15 For, remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence by a mighty hand, and a stretched out arm: therefore the Lord thy God commanded thee to observe the Sabbath day.
16 ¶ Honor thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee upon the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
17 ¶ Thou shalt not kill.
18 ¶ Neither shalt thou commit adultery.
19 ¶ Neither shalt thou steal.
20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbor.
21 ¶ Neither shalt thou covet thy neighbor's wife, neither shalt thou desire thy neighbor's house, his field, nor his manservant, nor his maid, his ox, nor his ass, nor ought that thy neighbor hath.
22 ¶ These words the Lord spake unto all your multitude in the mount of the midst of the fire, the cloud and the darkness, with a great voice, and added no more thereunto: and wrote them upon two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.
23 And when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire) then ye came to me, all the chief of your tribes, and your Elders:
24 And ye said, Behold, the Lord our God hath showed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth.
25 Now therefore, why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the Lord our God anymore, we shall die.
26 For what flesh was there ever that heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire as we have, and lived?
27 Go thou near and hear all that the Lord our God saith: and declare thou unto us all that the Lord our God saith unto thee: and we will hear it, and do it.
28 Then the Lord heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me: and the Lord said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said, all that they have spoken.
29 Oh that there were such an heart in them to fear me, and to keep all my commandments always: that it might go well with them, and with their children forever.
30 Go, say unto them, Return you into your tents.
31 But stand thou here with me, and I will tell thee all the commandments, and the ordinances, and the laws, which thou shalt teach them: that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.
32 Take heed therefore, that ye do as the Lord your God hath commanded you: turn not aside to the right hand nor to the left.
33 But walk in all the ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may go well with you: and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

6 1 An exhortation to fear God, and keep his commandments. 5 Which is, to love him with all thine heart. 7 The same must be taught to the posterity. 16 Not to tempt God. 25 Righteousness is contained in the Law.

1 These now are the commandments, ordinances, and laws, which the Lord your God commanded me to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it.
2 That thou mightest fear the Lord thy God, and keep all his ordinances, and his commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son all the days of thy life, even that thy days may be prolonged:
3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and take heed to do it, that it may go well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily in the land that floweth with milk and honey, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Hear, O Israel, The Lord our God is Lord only, 5 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart.

7 And thou shalt rehearse them continually unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou rarist in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up:

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and as thou walkest by the way, and 9 Also thou shalt write them upon the 'posts of thine house, and upon thy gates.

10 And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land, in which he spake unto thy fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buildest not,

11 And houses full of all manner of goods which thou fillest not, and wells dug which thou dug not, vineyards and olive trees which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten and art full,

12 Beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage:

13 Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his Name.

14 Ye shall not walk after other gods, after any of the gods of the people which are round about you.

15 (For the Lord thy God is a jealous God among his graces.

16 ¶ Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Massah:

17 But ye shall keep diligently the commandments of the Lord your God, and his testimonies and his ordinances, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest go in, and possess that good land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath said.

20 When thy son shall ask thee in time to come, saying, What mean these testimonies, and ordinances, and Laws, which the Lord our God hath commanded you?

21 Then shalt thou say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And the Lord showed signs and wonders great and evil upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household before our eyes, 23 And 'brought us out from thence, to bring us in, and to give us the land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 Therefore the Lord hath commanded us, to do all these ordinances, and to fear the Lord our God, that it may go ever well with us, and that he may preserve us alive at this present.

25 Moreover, this shall be our righteousness before the Lord our God, if we take heed to keep all these commandments, as he hath commanded us.

7 1 The Israelites may make no covenant with the Gentiles. 5 They must destroy the idols. 8 The election dependeth on the free love of God. 19 The experience of the power of God ought to confirm us. 25 To avoid all occasion of idolatry.

1 When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and the Lord your God shall give them 1before thee, seven nations greater and mightier than thou,

2 And the Lord thy God shall give them 1before thee, and destroy them: thou shalt make no

3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them, nor give thy daughter unto his son, nor take his daughter unto thy son.

4 For 1he will cause thy son to turn away from thee, and destroy thee: thou shalt go in thine eyes.

5 But thus ye shall deal with them, 'Ye shall

6:8 1 Or, signs of remembrance.

6:9 1 That when thou entrest in, thou mayest remember them.

6:12 1 Let not wealth and ease cause thee forget God's mercies, whereby thou wast delivered out of misery.

6:13 1 We must fear God, serve him only, and confess his Name, which is done by swearing lawfully.

6:16 1 By doubting of his power, refusing lawful means, and abusing his graces.

6:18 1 Here he condemneth all man's good intentions.

6:20 1 God requireth not only that we serve him all our life, but also that we take pains that our posterity may set forth his glory.

6:23 1 Nothing ought to move us more to true obedience than the great benefits which we have received of God.

6:25 1 But because none could fully obey the law, we must have our recourse to Christ to be justified by faith.

7:5 1 God would have his service pure without all idolatrous ceremonies and superstitions, Deut. 22:3. overthrow their altars, and break down their pillars, and ye shall cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 ‘For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, ‘the Lord thy God hath chosen thee, to be a precious people unto himself, above all people that are upon the earth.

7 ‘The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor chose you, because ye were more in number than any people: for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the Lord 1loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, the Lord hath brought you out by a mighty hand, and delivered you out of the house of bondage from the hand of Pharaoh King of Egypt.

9 That thou mayest know, ‘that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy unto them that love him and keep his commandments, even to a thousand generations,

10 And rewardeth ‘them to their face that hate him, to bring them to destruction: he will not defer

11 to reward him that hateth him, to his face.

12 ‘Keep thou therefore the commandments, and the ordinances, and the laws, which I command thee this day to do them.

12 ¶ For if ye hearken unto these laws, and observe and do them, then the Lord thy God shall keep with thee the covenant, and the ‘mercy which he sware unto thy fathers.

13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn and thy wine, and thine oil, and the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep in the land, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 ‘Thou shalt be blessed above all people: ‘there shall be neither male nor female barren among you, nor among your cattle.

15 Moreover, the Lord will take away from thee all infirmities, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) upon thee, but will send them upon all that hate thee.

16 ‘Thou shalt therefore consume all people which the Lord thy God shall give thee: ‘thine eye shall not spare them, neither shalt thou serve their gods, for that shall be thy ‘destruction.

17 ‘If thou say in thine heart, ‘These nations are more than I, how can I cast them out?

18 Thou shalt not fear them, but remember what the Lord thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt:

19 ‘The great ‘tentations which thine eyes saw, and the signs and wonders, and the mighty hand and stretched out arm, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God do unto all the people, whose face thou fearest.

20 ‘Moreover, the Lord thy God will send ‘hornets among them until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not fear them: for the Lord thy God is among you, a God mighty and dreadful.

22 And the Lord thy God will root out these nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the ‘beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the Lord thy God shall give them before thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be brought to naught.

24 And he shall deliver their Kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou hast destroyed them.

25 ‘The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire, and ‘covet not the silver and gold, that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou ‘be snared therewith: for it is an abomination before the Lord thy God.

26 Bring not therefore abomination into thine house, lest thou be accursed like it, but utterly abhor it, and count it most abominable: for it is ‘accursed.

8 1 God humbleth the Israelites to try what they have in their heart. 5 God chastiseth them as his children. 14 ‘The heart ought not to be proud of God’s benefits. 19 The forgetfulness of God’s benefits causeth destruction.

1 ‘Ye shall keep all the commandments which I command thee this day, for ‘to do them: that ye may live, and be multiplied, and go in, and possess the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers.

2 ‘And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, for to humble thee, and to ‘prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou

7:8 1 Freely, finding no cause in you more than in others so to do.
7:9 1 And so put difference between him and idols.
7:10 1 Meaning, manifestly, or in this life.
7:12 1 This covenant is grounded upon his free grace: therefore in recompensing their obedience, he hath respect to his mercy and not to their merits.
7:16 1 We ought not to be merciful, where God commandeth severity.
7:19 1 Or, plagues, or trials, Deut. 29:3; as Exod. 15:25 and Exod. 16:4.
7:20 1 There is not so small a creature, which I will not arm to fight on thy side against them.
7:22 1 So that it is your commodity that God accomplish not his promise so soon as you would wish.
7:25 1 And be enticed to idolatry.
8:1 1 Showing that it is not enough to hear the word, except we express it by example of life.
8:2 1 Which is declared in afflictions, either by patience, or by grudging against God’s visitation.
8:3 Moreover he humbled thee, and caused thee to be hungry, and hath fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know it. That he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord thy God.

8:4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell those forty years.

8:5 Know therefore in thine heart, that as a man unkilleth his son, so the Lord thy God ‘nurseth thee.

8:6 Therefore shalt thou keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, that thou mayest walk in his ways, and fear him.

8:7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land in the which are rivers of water and fountains, and ‘depths that spring out of valleys and mountains:

8:8 A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyards, and fig trees, and pomegranates: a land of oil, and olive and honey:

8:9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarcity, neither shalt thou lack therein: a land ‘whose stones are iron, and out of whose mountains thou shalt dig brass.

8:10 And when thou hast eaten and filled thyself, thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land, which he hath given thee.

8:11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keeping his commandments and his laws, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day:

8:12 Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thyself, and hast built goodly houses and dwelt therein,

8:13 And thy beasts, and the sheep are increased, and thy silver and gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased;

8:14 Then thine heart ‘be lifted up and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

8:15 Who was thy guide in that great and terrible wilderness (wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions and drought, where was no water, ‘who brought forth water for thee out of the rock of flint:

8:16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with ‘Manna, which thy fathers knew not) to humble thee, and to prove thee, that he might do thee good at the latter end.

8:17 Beware lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine own hand hath prepared me this abundance.

8:18 But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which ‘giveth thee power to get substance to establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

8:19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I ‘testify unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

8:20 As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before you, so ye shall perish, because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

9:1 I God doth not them good for their own righteousness, but for his own sake. 7 Moses putteth them in remembrance of their sins. 17 The two Tables are broken. 26 Moses prayeth for the people.

1 Hear, O Israel, Thou shalt pass over Jordan this day, to go in and to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, and cities great and walled up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, even the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast ‘heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Understand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which ‘goeth over before thee as a consuming fire: he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my ‘righteousness the Lord hath brought me in, to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations, the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

5 For thou entrust not to inherit their land for thy righteousness, or for their upright heart, but for the wickedness of those nations, the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee, and that he might perform the word which the Lord thy God sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy... righteousness: for thou art a 'stiff-necked people.

7 ¶ Remember and forget not, how thou provokdest the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: since the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came into this place, ye have rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lord was wroth with you, even to destroy you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount, to receive the Tables of stone, the Tables, I say, of the Covenant, which the Lord made with you: and I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, and I neither ate bread nor yet drank water:

10 Then the Lord delivered me two tables of stone, written with the 'finger of God, and in them was contained according to all the words which the Lord had said unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And when the forty days and forty nights were ended, the Lord gave me the two tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the covenant.

12 And the Lord said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, have 'corrupt their ways: they are soon turned out of the way which I commanded them, they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the Lord spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

14 ¶ Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from under heaven, and I will make of thee a mighty nation and greater than they be.

15 So I returned, and came down from the mount (and the mount burnt with fire, and the two Tables of the Covenant were in my two hands.)

16 Then I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the Lord your God; for ye had made you a molten calf, and had turned quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I took the two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the Lord, forty days, and forty nights, as before: I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sins which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye provoked him unto wrath.

19 (For I was afraid of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moved against you, even to destroy you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was very angry with Aaron, even to destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

21 And I took your sin, I mean the calf which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him and ground him small, even unto very dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the river, that descended out of the 'mount.

22 Also 'in Taberah, and in 'Massah,' and in Kibroth Hattaavah ye provoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, Go up, and possess the land which I have given you, then ye 'rebell'd against the commandment of the Lord your God, and believed him not, nor hearkened unto his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious unto the Lord, since the day that I knew you.

25 Then I fell down before the Lord forty days, and forty nights, as I fell down before, because the Lord had said that he would destroy you.

26 And I prayed unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

27 ¶ Remember thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin.

28 Lest the country whence thou broughtest them, say, Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, or because he hated them, he carried them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power, and by thy stretched out arm.

10 5 The second Tables put in the Ark. 8 The tribe of Levi is dedicated to the service of the Tabernacle. 12 What the Lord requireth of his. 16 The circumcision of the heart. 17 God regardeth not the person. 21 The Lord is the praise of Israel.

1 In the same time the Lord said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an Ark of wood,

2 And I will write upon the tables, the words that were upon the first Tables, which thou breakest, and thou shalt put them in the Ark.

3 And I made an Ark of Shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mountain, and the two Tables in mine hand.

4 Then he wrote upon the Tables according to the first writing, (the ten commandments, which the Lord spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the 'assembly) and the Lord gave them unto me.

5 And I departed and came down from the Mount, and put the Tables in the Ark which I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan, to Moserah, where Aaron died, and was buried, and Eleazar his son became Priest in his stead.

7 ¶ From thence they departed unto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of running waters.

8 ¶ The same time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi to bear the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, and to stand before the Lord, to minister unto him, and to bless in his Name unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him.

10 And I tarried in the mount, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights, and the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord would not destroy thee.

11 But the Lord said unto me, Arise, go forth in the midst of the fire, in the day of the 1assembly) and the Lord spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the 'assembly) and the Lord gave them unto me.

12 ¶ And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul?

13 That thou keep the commandments of the Lord and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, for thy wealth;

14 Behold, heaven, and the heaven of heavens is the Lord's thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

15 Notwithstanding, the Lord set his delight in thy fathers to love them, and did choose their seed after them, even you above all people, as appeareth this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.

17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mighty and terrible, which accepeth no persons, nor taketh reward:

18 Who doeth right unto the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God: thou shalt serve him, and thou shalt cleave unto him, and shalt swear by his Name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons, and now the Lord thy God hath made thee, as the stars of the heaven in multitude.

2 And consider this day (for I speak not to your children, which have neither known nor seen) the chastisements of the Lord your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his signs, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and unto all his land:

4 And what he did unto the host of the Egyptians, unto their horses, and to their chariots, when he caused the waters of the red Sea to overflow them, as they pursued after you, and the Lord destroyed them unto this day:

in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he had given thee: both the unclean and the clean may eat thereof; as of the roebuck, and of the hart.

16 Only ye shall not eat the blood, but pour it upon the earth as water.

17 ¶ Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oil, nor the firstborn of thy kine, nor of thy sheep, neither any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy free offerings, nor the offering of thine hands.

18 But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy maid, and the Levite that is within thy gates: for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

19 Beware, that thou forsake not the Levite, as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 ¶ When the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh (because thine heart longeth to eat flesh) thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thine heart desireth.

21 If the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to put his Name there, be far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy bullocks, and of thy sheep which the Lord hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desircth.

22 But as the roebuck, and the hart is eaten, so shall thou eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desircth.

23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life, and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord:

26 But thine holy things which thou hast, and thy fathers giveth thee to possess it) as long as ye live upon the earth.

27 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possess, served their gods upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree.

28 Also ye shall overthrow their altars, and break down their pillars, and burn their groves with fire: and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and abolish their names out of that place.

29 Ye shall 1not do so unto the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to inherit it.

30 ¶ But the unclean and the clean both shall eat thereof, but thou shalt not eat the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

31 Thou mayest offer in sacrifice of the roebuck and of the hart, but as the roebuck, and the hart is eaten, so shalt thou eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and of the hart.

32 And it shall come to pass, when it shall be divided among thy tribes, that thou and thy household shall eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he had given thee.

33 ¶ Thou mayest not consecrate to the Lord thy God whatsoever thy soul desireth: but the consecration of the tithe 1is for the Levite that is within thy gates, to eat before the Lord thy God, according as he hath commanded thee.

34 ¶ But the Levite that is within thy gates shall not eat of that which is consecrated to the Lord thy God.

35 And thou mayest eat thereof in every place that thou seest: because the Lord thy God hath chosen to cause his name to dwell there, thither shall ye bring all that I command you: and your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the firstborn of thy kine, and of thy sheep.

36 And all the consecration of thine offerings shall thou eat in every place where thou seest the Lord thy God put his name there.

the Lord thy God: and it shall be an heap forever, it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall cleave nothing of the dammed thing to thine hand, that the Lord may turn from the fierceness of his wrath, and show thee mercy, and have compassion on thee, and multiply thee as he hath sworn unto thy fathers:

18 When thou shalt obey the voice of the Lord thy God, and keep all his commandments which I command thee this day: that thou do that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

14 1 The manners of the Gentiles in marking themselves for the dead, may not be followed. 4 What meats are clean to be eaten, and what not. 29 The tithes for the Levites, stranger, fatherless, and widow.

1 Ye are the children of the Lord your God, *Ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make you any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 *For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a precious people unto himself, above all the people that are upon the earth.

3 ¶ Thou shalt eat no manner of abomination.

4 ¶ These are the beasts, which ye shall eat, the beef, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the bugle, and the wild goat, and the unicorn, and the wild ox, and the Chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and is of the beasts that cheweth the cud, that shall ye eat.

7 But these ye shall not eat, of them that chew the cud, and of them that divide and cleave the hoof only: the camel, nor the hare, nor the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they shall be unclean unto you:

8 Also the swine, because he divideth the hoof; and cheweth not the cud, shall be unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcasses.

9 ¶ These ye shall eat, of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat.

10 And whatsoever hath no fins nor scales, ye shall not eat: it shall be unclean unto you.

11 ¶ Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these are they whereof ye shall not eat: the seethe a kid in 13 Nor the glede, nor the kite, nor the vulture, after their kind,

14 Nor all kind of ravens,

15 Nor the ostrich, nor the night crow, nor the sandew, nor the hawk after her kind,

16 Neither the little owl, nor the great owl, nor the redshank,

17 Nor the pelican, nor the swan, nor the cormorant:

18 The stork also, and the heron in his kind, nor the lapwing, nor the bat,

19 And every creeping thing that lieth, shall be unclean unto you: it shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 Ye shall eat of nothing that dieth alone, but thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is within thy gates, that he may eat it: or thou mayest sell it unto a stranger: for thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not see the a kid in his mother’s milk.

22 Thou shalt give the tithe of all the increase of thy seed, that cometh forth of the field year by year.

23 And thou shalt eat before the Lord thy God (in the place which he shall choose to cause his Name to dwell there) the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and of the firstborn of thy kine, and of thy sheep, that thou mayest learn to fear the Lord thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it, because the place is far from thee, where the Lord thy God shall choose to set his name, 1when the Lord thy God shall bless thee, 25 Then shalt thou make it in money, and take the money in thine hand, and go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose.

26 And thou shalt bestow the money for whatsoever thine heart desireth: whether it be ox, or sheep, or wine, or strong drink, or whatsoever thine heart desireth: and shalt eat it there before the Lord thy God, and rejoice, both thou, and thine household.

27 And the Levite that is within thy gates, shalt thou not forsake: for he hath neither part nor inheritance with thee.

28 At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithes of thine increase of the same year, and lay it up within thy gates.

29 Then the Levite shall come, because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, and shall eat, and be filled, that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

15:1 The year of [releasing] of debts. 5 God blesseth them that keep his commandments. 7 To help the poor. 12 The freedom of servants. 19 The firstborn of the cattle must be offered to the Lord.

1 At the term of seven years thou shalt make a freedom,

2 And this is the manner of the freedom: every creditor shall quit the loan of his hand which he hath lent to his neighbor: he shall not ask it again of his neighbor, nor of his brother: for the year of the Lord's freedom is proclaimed.

3 Of a stranger thou mayest require it: but that which thou hast with thy brother, thine hand shall remit:

4 Save when there shall be no poor with thee: for the Lord shall bless thee in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for an inheritance to possess it.

5 So that thou hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and do all these commandments, which I command thee this day.

6 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee, as he hath promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and they shall not reign over thee.

7 If one of thy brethren with thee be poor within any of thy gates in thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 But thou shalt open thine hand unto him, and shalt lend him sufficient for his need which he hath.

9 Beware that there be not a wicked thought in thine heart, to say, The seventh year, the year of freedom is at hand: therefore it grieveth thee to look on thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought, and he cry unto the Lord against thee, so that sin be in thee:

10 Thou shalt give him, and let it not grieve thine heart to give unto him: for because of this the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand to.

11 Because there shall be ever some poor in the land, therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand unto thy brother, to thy needy, and to thy poor in thy land.

12 If thy brother an Hebrew sell himself to thee, or an Hebrewess, and serve thee six years, even in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee:

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty, 14 But shalt give him a liberal reward of thy sheep, and of thy corn, and of thy wine: thou shalt give him of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God delivered thee: therefore I command thee this thing today.

16 And if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee, because he loveth thee and thine house, and because he is well with thee, 17 Then shalt thou take an awl, and pierce his ear through against the door, and he shall be thy servant forever: and unto thy maid servant thou shalt do likewise.

18 Let it not grieve thee, when thou lettest him go out free from thee: for he hath served thee six years, which is the double worth of an hired servant: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou dost.

19 All the firstborn males that come of thy cattle, and of thy sheep, thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God.

20 Thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God year by year, in the place which the Lord shall choose, as the roe buck, and other wild beasts.

21 But if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any evil fault, thou shalt not offer it unto the Lord thy God, 22 But shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean, and the clean shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof, but pour it upon the ground as water.

16 1 Of Easter. 10 Whitsuntide. 13 And the feast of tabernacles. 18 What officers ought to be ordained. 21 Idolatry forbidden.
1 Thou shalt keep the month of Abib, and thou shalt celebrate the Passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt therefore offer the Passover unto the Lord thy God, of sheep and bullocks in the place where the Lord shall choose to cause his Name to dwell.

3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it: but seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of tribulation: for thou camest out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest out of the land of Egypt, all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leaven seen with thee in all thy coasts seven days long: neither shall there remain the night any of the flesh until the morning which thou offeredst the first day at even.

5 Thou mayest not offer the Passover within any of the gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee:

6 But in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his Name there, thou shalt offer the Passover at even, about the going down of the sun, in the season that thou camest out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, and shalt return on the morrow, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9 Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee, and shalt begin to number the seven weeks, when thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn:

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God, even a free gift of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy maid, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his Name there;

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a servant in Egypt: therefore thou shalt observe and do these ordinances.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of the Tabernacles seven days, when thou hast gathered in thy corn, and thy wine.

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy maid, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a feast unto the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose: when the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, thou shalt in any case be glad.

16 Three times in the year shall all the males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of the unleavened bread, and in the feast of the weeks, and in the feast of the Tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the Lord empty.

17 Every man shall give according to the gift of his hand, and according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee.

18 Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout the tribes: and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

19 Wrest not thou the Law, nor respect any person, neither take reward: for the reward blindeth the eyes of the wise, and perverteth the words of the just.

20 That which is just and right shalt thou follow, and that thou mayest live, and possess the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

21 Thou shalt plant thee no grove of any trees near unto the Altar of the Lord thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 Thou shalt set thee up no pillar, which thing the Lord thy God hateth.

17:1 1 Thou shalt not serve God for fashion’s sake, as hypocrites do.
2 ¶ If there be found among you in any of thy cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant,
3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them: as the sun, or the moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded,
4 And it be told unto thee, and thou hast heard it, then shalt thou inquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel,
5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which hath committed that wicked thing) unto thy gates, whether it be man or woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.
6 ¶ If there rise a matter too hard for thee in judgment between blood and blood, between plea and plea, between plague and plague, in the matter of controversy within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and go up unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose,
7 And thou shalt come unto the Priests of the Levites, and unto the Judge that shall be in those days, and ask, and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment,
8 And thou shalt do according to that thing, which they of that place (which the Lord hath chosen) show thee, and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee.
9 According to the Law, which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, shalt thou do: thou shalt not decline from the thing which they shalt show thee, neither to the right hand, nor the left.
10 And that man that will do presumptuously, not hearkening unto the Priest (that standeth before the Lord thy God to minister there) or unto the Judge, that man shall die, and thou shalt take away evil from Israel.
11 So all the people shall hear and fear, and do no more presumptuously.
12 ¶ When thou shalt come unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and dwell therein, if thou say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me,
13 Then thou shalt make him King over thee, whom the Lord thy God shall choose: from among thy brethren shalt thou make a King over thee: thou shalt not set a stranger over thee which is not thy brother.
14 In any wise he shall not prepare him many horses, nor bring the people again to Egypt, for to increase the number of horses, seeing the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth go no more again that way.
15 Neither shall he take him many wives, lest his heart turn away, neither shall he gather him much silver and gold.
16 And when he shall sit upon the throne of his Kingdom, then shall he write him this law repeated in a book, by the Priest of the Levites.
17 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all days of his life, that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, and to keep all the words of this Law, and these ordinances to do them:
18 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not from the commandment, to the right hand or to the left, but that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his sons in the midst of Israel.

18 The portion of the Levites. 6 Of the Levites coming from another place. 9 To avoid the abominations of the Gentiles. 15 God will not leave them without a true Prophet.

1 The Priests of the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel, but shall eat the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his inheritance.
2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: for the Lord is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.
DEUTERONOMY 18:3

3 ¶ And this shall be the Priest's duty of the people, that they which offer sacrifice, whether it be bullock or sheep, shall give unto the Priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.
4 The firstfruits also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep shalt thou give him.
5 For the Lord thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand and minister in the Name of the Lord, him, and his sons forever.
6 ¶ Also when a Levite shall come out of any of thy cities of all Israel, where he remained, and come with all the desire of his heart unto the place, which the Lord shall choose,
7 He shall then minister in the Name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Levites, which remain there before the Lord.
8 They shall have like portions to eat beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.
9 When thou shalt come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.
10 Let none be found among you that maketh his son or his daughter to go thorough the fire, or that useth witchcraft, or a regarder of times, or a marker of the flying of fowls, or a sorcerer.
11 Or a charmer, or that counseleth with spirits, or a soothsayer, or that asketh counsel at the dead.
12 For all that do such things are abomination unto the Lord, and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee.
13 Thou shalt be upright therefore with the Lord thy God.
14 For these nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto those that regard the times, and unto sorcerers: as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so.
15 ¶ The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet like unto me, from among you, even of thy brethren: unto him ye shall hearken.
16 According to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assembly, when thou saidest, Let me hear the voice of my Lord God no more, nor see this great fire anymore, that I die not.
17 And the Lord said unto me, They have well spoken.
18 ¶ I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.
19 And whosoever will not hearken unto my words, which he shall speak in my Name, I will require it of him.
20 But the Prophet that shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that speaketh in the name of other gods, even the same Prophet shall die.
21 And if thou think in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken?
22 When a Prophet speaketh in the Name of the Lord, if the thing follow not nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the Prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not therefore be afraid of him.

19 2 The franchised towns. 14 Not to remove thy neighbor's bounds. 16 The punishment of him that beareth false witness.

1 When the Lord thy God shall root out the nations, whose land the Lord thy God giveth thee, and thou shalt possess them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses,
2 Thou shalt separate three cities for thee, in the midst of thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it.
3 Thou shalt prepare thee the way, and divide the coasts of the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee thither.
4 ¶ This also is the cause wherefore the manslayer shall flee thither, and live: who so killeth his neighbor ignorantly, and hated him not in time passing:
5 As he that goeth unto the wood with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand striketh with the axe to cut down the tree, if the head slip from the helve, and hit his neighbor that he dieth, the same shall flee unto one of the cities, and live,
6 Lest the avenger of the blood follow after the manslayer while his heart is chafed, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him, although he be not worthy of death, because he hated him end of all Prophets come.

18:18 1 That murder be not committed upon murder.
18:19 1 By executing punishment upon him.
18:22 1 Under this sure note he compriseth all the other tokens.
19:3 1 Make an open and ready way.
19:5 1 That murder be not committed upon murder.
19:6 1 Or, cannot be judged to death.
not in time passed.

7 Wherefore I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt appoint out three cities for thee.

8 And when the Lord thy God 1enlargeth thy coasts (as he hath sworn unto thy fathers) and giveth thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers.

9 (If thou keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day: to wit, that thou love the Lord thy God, and walk in his ways forever) 2then thou shalt add three cities more for thee besides those three,

10 That no innocent blood be shed within thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, 3lest blood be upon thee.

11 ¶ But if a man hate his neighbor, and lay wait for him, and rise against him, and smite any man that he die, and flee unto any of these cities,

12 Then the 4 Elders of his city shall send and let him thence, and deliver him to the hands of the avenger of the blood, that he may die.

13 Thine 5 eye shall not spare him, but thou shalt put away the cry of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not remove thy neighbor's mark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, that thou shalt inherit in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 ¶ One witness shall not rise against a man for any trespass, or for any sin, or for any fault that he offendeth in, but at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 ¶ If a false witness rise up against a man to accuse him of trespass, 17 Then both the men which strive together, shall stand before the 6 Lord, even before the Priests and the Judges, which shall be in those days.

18 And the Judges shall make diligent inquisition: and if the witness be found false, and hath given false witness against his brother, 19 Then shall ye do unto him as he had thought to do unto his brother: so thou shalt take evil away forth of the midst of thee.

20 And the rest shall hear this, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such wickedness among you.

19:8 1 When thou goest over Jordan to possess the whole land of Canaan, 19:10 1 Lest thou be punished for innocent blood.

19:12 1 The Magistrates.

19:13 1 Then whosoever pardoneth murder, offendeth against the word of God.

19:17 1 God's presence is where his true ministers are assembled.

20:1 1 Meaning, upon just occasion: for God permitted not his people to fight when it seemeth good to them.

20:4 1 Is present to defend you with his grace and power.

20:5 1 For when they entered first to dwell in an house, they gave thanks to God, acknowledging that they had that benefit by his grace.

20:6 1 The Hebrew word signifieth to make common or profane, Lev. 19:25.

20:11 1 If it accept peace.
12 But if it will make no peace with thee, but make war against thee, then shalt thou besiege it.
13 And the Lord thy God shall deliver it into thine hands, and thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 Only the women, and the children, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof shalt thou take unto thyself, and shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities, which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations here.

16 But of the cities of this people, which the Lord thy God shall give thee to inherit, thou shalt save no person alive,
17 But shalt utterly destroy them, to wit, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee,
18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods, and so ye should sin against the Lord your God.

19 ¶ When thou hast besieged a city long time, and made war against it to take it, destroy not the trees thereof, by smiting an axe into them: for thou mayest eat of them: therefore thou shalt not cut them down to further thee in the siege, (for the tree of the field is man’s life).

20 Only those trees which thou knowest are not for meat, those shalt thou destroy and cut down, and make forts against the city that maketh war with thee until thou subdue it.

21 Inquisition for murder. 11 Of the woman taken in war. 15 The birthright cannot be changed for affection. 18 The disobedient child. 23 The body may not hang all night.

1 If one be found slain in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it is not known who hath slain him, then shalt thou bring the heifer unto a stony valley, which is neither eared, nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer’s neck there in the valley.
2 And let the Elders of that city bring the heifer unto a stony valley, which is neither eared, nor sown, and strike off the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

3 And let the Elders of that city, which is next unto the slain man, take out of the drove an heifer that hath not been put to labor, nor hath drawn in the yoke.
4 And let the Elders of that city bring the heifer unto a stony valley, which is neither eared, nor sown, and strike off the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

5 Also the Priests the sons of Levi (whom the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to bless in the Name of the Lord) shall come forth, and by their word shall all strife and plague be tried.
6 And all the Elders of that city that came near to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:
7 And shall testify, and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.
8 ¶ O Lord, be merciful unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay no innocent blood to the charge of thy people Israel, and the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou take away the cry of innocent blood from thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

10 ¶ When thou shalt go to war against thine enemies, and the Lord thy God shall deliver them into thine hands, and thou shalt take them captives,
11 And shalt see among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, and wouldest take her to thy wife,
12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, and thou mayest eat of her meat, and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails,

13 And she shall put off the garment that she was wearing, and shall remain in thine house, 1and bewail her father and her mother a month long: and after that shalt thou go in unto her, and marry her, and she shall be thy wife.
14 And if thou have no favor unto her, then thou mayest let her go whither she will, but thou shalt not sell her for money, nor make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one loved and another hated, and they have born him children, both the loved and also the hated: if the firstborn be the son of the hated, 16 Then when the time cometh, that he appointeth his sons to be heirs of that which he hath, he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the sons of the hated.
the son of the hated, which is the firstborn:
17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, and give him 'double portion for all that he hath: for he is the first of his strength, and to 'him belongeth the right of firstborn.
18 ¶ If any man have a son that is stubborn and disobedient, which will not hearken unto the voice of his father, nor the voice of his 'mother, and they have chastened him, and he would not obey them,
19 Then shall his father and his mother take him, and bring him out unto the Elders of his city, and unto the gate of the place where he dwelleth,
20 And shall say unto the Elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and disobedient, and he will not obey our admonition: he is a rioter, and a drunkard.
21 Then all the men of his city shall 'stone him with stones unto death: so thou shalt take away evil from among you, that all Israel may hear it, and fear.
22 ¶ If a man also have committed a trespass worthy of death, and is put to death, and thou hapest him on a tree.
23 His body shall not remain 'all night upon the tree, but thou shalt bury him the same day: for the 'curse of God is on him that is hanged. Defile not therefore thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit.

CHAPTER 22
2 He commandeth to have care of our neighbor's goods. 5 The woman may not wear man's apparel, nor man the woman's. 6 Of the dam and her young birds. 8 Why they should have battlements. 9 Not to mix divers kinds together. 13 Of the wife not being found a virgin. 23 The punishment of adultery.

1 Thou 'shalt not see thy brother's ox nor his sheep go astray, and 'withdraw thyself from them, but shalt bring them again unto thy brother.
2 And if thy brother be not 'near unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it into thine house, and it shall remain with thee, until thy brother seek after it, then shalt thou deliver it to him again:
3 In like manner shalt thou do with his 'ass, and so shalt thou do with his raiment, and shalt so do with all lost things of thy brother, which he hath lost: if thou hast found them, thou shalt not withdraw thyself from them.
4 ¶ Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass nor his ox fall down by the way, and withdraw thyself from them, but shalt lift them up with him.
5 The 'woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto the man, neither shalt a man put on woman's raiment: for all that do so, are abomination unto the Lord thy God.
6 ¶ If thou find a bird's nest in the way, in any tree, or on the ground whether they be young or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, 'thou shalt not take the dam with the young.
7 But shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee, that thou mayest prosper and prolong thy days.
8 ¶ When thou buildest a new house, thou shalt make a battlement on thy roof, that thou lay not blood upon thine house, if any man fall thence.
9 ¶ Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers kinds of seeds, lest thou defile the increase of the seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of the vineyard.
10 ¶ Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.
11 ¶ Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woolen and linen together.
12 ¶ Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.
13 ¶ If a man take a wife, and when he hath lain with her, hate her,
14 And lay 'slanderous things unto her charge, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid,
15 Then shall the father of the maid and her mother take and bring the signs of the maid's virginity unto the Elders of the city to the gate.
16 And the maid's father shall say unto the Elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife and he hath not done to her that which I commanded her.
17 And lo, he layeth slanderous things unto her charge, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid: lo, these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity: and they shall spread the 'vesture before the Elders of the city.
18 Then the Elders of the city shall take that man and chastise him, 19 And shall condemn him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the maid, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a maid of Israel: and she shall be his wife, and he may not put her away all his life.
20 But if this thing be true, that the maid be not found a virgin,
21 Then shall they bring forth the maid to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones to death: for she hath wrought folly in Israel, by playing the whore in her father's house: so thou shalt put evil away from among you.
22 ¶ If a man find lying with a woman married to a man, then they shall die even both twain: to wit, the man that lay with the wife, and the wife: so thou shalt put away evil from Israel.
23 ¶ If a maid be betrothed unto a husband, and a man find her in the town and lie with her,
24 Then shall ye bring them both out unto the gates of the same city, and shall stone them with stones to death: the maid because she cried not, being in the city, and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbor's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.
25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed maid in the field and force her, and lie with her, then the man that lay with her, shall die alone:
26 And unto the maid thou shalt do nothing, because there is in the maid no cause of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbor and woundeth him to death, so is this matter.
27 For he found her in the fields: the betrothed wife, because he hath humbled her neighbor's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.
28 ¶ If a man find a maid that is not betrothed, and take her, and lie with her, and they be found,
29 Then the man that lay with her, shall give unto the maid's father fifty shekels of silver: and she shall be his wife, because he hath humbled her: he can not put her away all his life.
30 ¶ No man shall take his father's wife, nor shall uncover his father's skirt.

23:16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you, in what place he shall choose, in one of thy cities where it liketh him best: thou shalt not vex him.

23:17 ¶ There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a whore keeper of the sons of Israel.

23:18 ¶ Thou shalt neither bring the hire of a whore, nor the price of a dog into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

23:19 ¶ Thou shalt not give to usury to thy brother: as usury of money, usury of meat, usury of anything that is put to usury.

23:20 Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury, but thou shalt not lend upon usury unto thy brother, that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to, in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

23:21 ¶ When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not be slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee, and so it should be sin unto thee.

23:22 But when thou abstainest from vowing, it shall be no sin unto thee.

23:23 That which is gone out of thy lips, thou shalt be no sin unto thee.

23:24 Thou shalt not move a sickle to thy neighbor's corn, neither shalt thou go a warfare, unless thou shalt put none in thy vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes at thy pleasure, and thou shalt not set thyself to possess it.

24:1 And when she is departed out of his house, and gone her way, and marry with another man, 24:2 Then her first husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled: for that is abomination in the sight of the Lord, and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the Lord thy God doth give thee to inherit.

24:3 When a man taketh a new wife, he shall not go a warfare, unless he shall be charged with any business, but shall be free at home one year, and rejoice with his wife, which he hath taken.

24:4 No man shall take the nether nor the upper millstone to pledge: for this gage is his living.

24:5 If any man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him, that thief shall die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

24:6 ¶ Take heed of the pestle of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the Priests of the Levites shall teach you: take heed ye do as I commanded them.

24:7 ¶ Remember what the Lord thy God did unto Miriam by the way after that ye were come out of Egypt.

24:8 When thou shalt ask again of thy neighbor anything lent, thou shalt not go into his house to take his pledge,

24:9 But thou shalt stand without, and the man that borrowed it of thee, shall bring the pledge out of the doors unto thee.

24:10 Furthermore if it be a poor body, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge,

24:11 But thou shalt stand without, and the man that borrowed it of thee, shall bring the pledge out of the doors unto thee.

24:12 But shalt restore him the pledge when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the Lord thy God.

24:13 Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is needy and poor, neither of thy brethren nor of the stranger that is in thy land within thy gates.

24:14 ¶ Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is needy and poor, neither of thy brethren nor of the stranger that is in thy land within thy gates.

24:15 Thou shalt give him his hire for his day, neither shalt thou put evil away from among thee.

24:16 Thou shalt do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measurement, or in weight, or in any manner of work.

24:17 The good must not be punished for that which is gone out of thy lips, thou shalt be no sin unto thee.

24:18 The good must not be punished for that which is gone out of thy lips, thou shalt be no sin unto thee.

24:19 This was permitted for a time for the hardness of their hearts.

unto the Lord, and it be sin unto thee.
16 ¶ The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers, but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 Thou shalt not pervert the right of the stranger, nor of the fatherless, nor take a widow’s raiment to pledge.
18 But remember that thou wast a servant in Egypt, and how the Lord thy God delivered thee thence. Therefore I command thee to do this thing.
19 ¶ When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgotten a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to get it, but it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the works of thine hands.
20 When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again, but thou shalt be for the stranger, the fatherless, and for the widow.
21 When thou gatherest thy vineyard, thou shalt not gather the grapes clean after thee, but they shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
22 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

25 3 The beating of the offenders. 5 To raise up seed to the kinsmen. 11 In what case a woman’s hand must be cut off. 13 Of just weights and measures. 19 To destroy the Amalekites.

1 When there shall be strife between men, and they shall come unto judgment, and sentence shall be given upon them, and the righteous shall be justified, and the wicked condemned,
2 Then if so be the wicked be worthy to be beaten, the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his trespass unto a certain number.
3 Forty stripes shall he cause him to have, and not past, lest if he should exceed and beat him above that with many stripes, thy brother should appear despised in thy sight.
4 ¶ Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn.
5 ¶ If brethren dwell together, and one of them die and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not marry without, that is, unto a stranger, but his kinsman shall go in unto her, and take her to wife, and do the kinsman’s office to her.
6 And the firstborn which she beareth, shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.
7 And if the man will not take his kinswoman, then let his kinswoman go up to the gate unto the Elders, and say, My kinsman refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel: he will not do the office of a kinsman unto me.
8 Then the Elders of the city shall call him, and commune with him: if he stand and say, I will not take her,
9 Then shall his kinswoman come unto him in the presence of the Elders, and loose his shoe from his foot, and spit in his face, and answer, and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother’s house.
10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him whose shoe is put off.
11 ¶ When men strive together, one with another, if the wife of the one come near, for to rid her husband out of the hands of him that smiteth him, and put forth her hand, and take him by his privities, 12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand: thine eye shall not spare her.
13 ¶ Thou shalt not have in thy bag two manner of weights, a great and a small:
14 Neither shalt thou have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small:
15 But thou shalt have a right and just weight: a perfect and a just measure shalt thou have, that thy days may be lengthened in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are abomination unto the Lord thy God.
17 ¶ Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come out of Egypt:
18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of you, all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast fainted and weary, and he feared not God.
19 Therefore, when the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an

1 Also when thou shalt come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for inheritance, and shalt possess it, and dwell therein,

2 Then shalt thou take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, and bring it out of the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and put it in a basket, and go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt come unto the Priest, that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I acknowledge this day unto the Lord thy God, that I am come unto the country which the Lord sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 Then the Priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the Lord thy God.

5 And thou shalt answer and say before the Lord thy God, A Syrian was my father, who being ready to perish for hunger, went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a small company and grew there unto a nation great, mighty and full of people.

6 And the Egyptians vexed us, and troubled us, and laded us with cruel bondage.

7 But when we cried unto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our adversity, and on our labor, and on our oppression:

11 And thou shalt rejoice in all the good things which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee, and to thine household, thou and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase, the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow; that they may eat within thy gates, and be satisfied,

13 Then thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I have brought the hallowed thing out of mine house, and also have given it to the Levites and to the strangers, to the fatherless and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have transgressed none of the commandments, nor forgotten them,

14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, nor suffered ought to perish through uncleanness, nor given ought thereof for the dead, but have hearkened unto the voice of the Lord my God: I have done after all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look down from thine holy habitation, even from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us (as thou swearest unto our fathers) the land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 ¶ This day the Lord thy God doth command thee to do these ordinances and laws: keep them therefore, and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast set up the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his ordinances, and his commandments, and his laws, and to hearken unto his voice.

18 And the Lord hath set thee up this day, to be a precious people unto him (as he hath promised thee) and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments.

19 And to make thee high above all nations (which he hath made) in praise, and in name, and in glory, and that thou shouldest be an holy people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath said.

27 2 They are commanded to write the law upon stones for a remembrance.  5 Also to build an altar.

25:19 1 This was partly accomplished by Saul, about 450 years afterward.

26:2 1 By this ceremony they acknowledged that they received the land of Canaan as a free gift of God.

26:5 1 Meaning, Jacob, who served 20 years in Syria.

26:7 1 Alleging the promises made unto our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

26:10 1 In token of a thankful heart, and mindful of this benefit.

26:11 1 Signifying that God giveth us not goods for ourselves only, but for their uses also which are committed to our charge.

26:13 1 Without hypocrisy.

26:14 1 Or, for any necessity.

26:16 1 With a good and simple conscience.

26:18 1 Signifying that there is a mutual bond between God and his people.
DEUTERONOMY 27:1

1 Then Moses with the Elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments, which I command you this day.

2 And when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster,

3 And shalt write upon them all the words of this Law, when thou shalt come over, that thou mayest go into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee: a land that floweth with milk and honey, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore when ye shall pass over Jordan, ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build unto the Lord thy God an altar, even an altar of stones: thou shalt lift none iron instrument upon them.

6 Thou shalt make the altar of the Lord thy God of whole stones, and offer burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord thy God.

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there and rejoice before the Lord thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this Law, well and plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the Priests of the Levites, spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed and hear, O Israel: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou shalt hearken therefore unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and do his commandments and his ordinances, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon mount Gerizim, to bless the people when ye shall pass over Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand upon mount Ebal, to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 And the Levites shall answer and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15 ¶ Cursed be the man that shall make any carved or molten image, which is an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: And all the people shall answer and say: So be it.

16 Cursed be he that curseth his father and his mother: And all the people shall say: So be it.

17 Cursed be he that removeth his neighbor's mark: And all the people shall say: So be it.

18 Cursed be he that maketh the blind go out of the way: And all the people shall say: So be it.

19 Cursed be he that hindereth the right of the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow: And all the people shall say: So be it.

20 Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife: for he hath uncovered his father's skirt: And all the people shall say: So be it.

21 Cursed be he that lieth with any beast: And all the people shall say: So be it.

22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: And all the people shall say: So be it.

23 Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law: And all the people shall say: So be it.

24 Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbor secretly: And all the people shall say: So be it.

25 ¶ Cursed be he that taketh a reward to put to death innocent blood: And all the people shall say: So be it.

26 ¶ Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this Law, to do them: And all the people shall say: So be it.

28 ¶ The promises to them that obey the Commandments. 15 The threatenings to the contrary.

1 If thou shalt obey diligently the voice of the Lord thy God, and observe and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day, then the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth.

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shalt thou be when thy bread is filled, and when thou poudest with a very goodly store.

5 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt be stuffed, that thou shalt not forget the Lord that brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; 4

6 But shalt remember the Lord that brought thee, and keep his commandments, and do his judgments, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day.

7 ¶ And Moses and the Priest spake unto the people, saying, I am the Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. The Lord was there before our fathers.

8 And he took me from Abraham, and from Isaac, and from Jacob, and gave me this land, promising to give it to thy seed after thee.

9 ¶ And the Lord commanded me to go forth out of Egypt, and I made thee to know his ordinances, and his judgments, which I commanded thee this day.

10 And I brought you out from the land of Egypt, to bring you into an exceeding good land of brooks of water, and of fountains, and of springs, meadows.

11 ¶ And I gave ye corn, and wine, and oil, and kept the sabbath day in all your habitations.

12 ¶ And I took you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all people, which oppressed you, and did not put on you hard bondage.

13 ¶ And I brought you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, and of springs, meadows, a land of wheat, and of barley, and thorns, and of oil trees, and vigne.

14 ¶ And I will not leave you afflicted, neither will I forsake thee.

15 ¶ Keep therefore his commandments, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day.

27:1 1 As God's minister and charged with the same.
27:3 1 God would that his Law should be set up in the borders of the land of Canaan; that all that looked thereon might know that the land was dedicated to his service.
27:5 1 The altar should not be curiously wrought, because it should continue but for a time: for God would have but one altar in Judah.
27:7 1 That everyone may well read it, and understand it.
27:10 1 That condition hath bound thee unto, that if thou wilt be his people, thou must keep his laws.
27:12 1 Meaning, Ephraim and Manasseh.
27:13 1 Signifying, that if they would not obey God for love, they should be made to obey for fear.

28:1 1 He will make thee the most excellent of all people.
28:2 1 When thou thinkest thyself forsaken.
also in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shalt thou be thy basket and thy dought.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed also when thou goest out.

7 The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise against thee, to fall before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and shall flee before thee seven ways.

8 The Lord shall command the blessing to be with thee in thy store houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand to, and will bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

9 The Lord shall make thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walk in his ways,

10 Then all people of the earth shall see that the Name of the Lord is called upon over thee, and they shall be afraid of thee.

11 And the Lord shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the Lord swore unto thy fathers, to give thee.

12 The Lord shall open unto thee his good treasure, even heaven to give rain unto thy land in due season, and to bless all the work of thine hands: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but shalt not borrow thyself.

13 And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the tail, and thou shalt be above only, and shalt not be beneath, if thou obey the commandments of the Lord thy God which I command thee this day, to keep and to do them.

14 But thou shalt not decline from any of the words, which I command you this day, either to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 But if thou wilt not obey the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep and to do all his commandments, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, then all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the town, and cursed also in the field.

17 Cursed shalt thy basket be, and thy dough.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed also when thou goest out.

20 The Lord shall send upon thee cursing, trouble, and shame, in all that which thou settest thine hand to do, until thou be destroyed, and perish quickly, because of the wickedness of thy works, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 The Lord shall make thee an utter contempt unto thee, until he hath consumed thee from the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with the fever, and with a burning ague, and with fervent heat, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with the mildew, and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And thine heaven that is over thine head, shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee, iron.

24 The Lord shall give thee for the rain of thy land, dust and ashes: even from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 And the Lord shall cause thee to fall before thine enemies: thou shalt come out one way against them, and shalt flee seven ways before them, and shalt be scattered through all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and none shall fray them away.

27 The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the hemorrhoids, and with the scab, and with the itch, that thou canst not be healed.

28 And the Lord shall smite thee with madness, and with blindness, and with atoning of heart.

29 Thou shalt also grope at noon days, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and shalt not prosper in thy ways: thou shalt never but be oppressed with wrong, and be bowed evermore, and no man shall succor thee.

shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not 'eat the fruit.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and no man shall rescue them for thee.

32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes 'shall still look for them, even till they fall out, and there shall be no power in thine hand.

33 The fruit of thy land and all thy labors shall be a people which thou knowest not, eat, and thou shalt never but suffer wrong, and violence always:

34 So that thou shalt be mad for the sight which thine eyes shall see.

35 The Lord shall smite thee in the knees, and in the thighs, with a sore botch, that thou canst not be healed: even from the sole of the foot unto the top of thine head.

36 The Lord shall bring thee and thy 'King (which thou shalt set over thee) unto a nation, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, and there thou shalt serve other gods: even wood and stone,

37 And thou shalt be a wonder, a proverb and a 'wonder, in all those places where thou shalt be driven, for a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand:

38 Thou shalt carry out much seed into the field, and shalt gather but little in: for the grasshoppers shall destroy it.

39 'Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and dress it, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the worms shall eat it.

40 Thou shalt have Olive trees in all thy coasts, but shalt not anoint thyself with the oil: for thine olive trees shall fall.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but shalt not anoint thyself with the oil: for thine children's children shall destroy it.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land 'shall the locust consume.

43 The stranger that is among you, shall climb above thee up on high, and thou shalt come down beneath low.

44 He shall lend thee, and thou shalt not lend him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed, because thou obeyedst not the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments, and his ordinances, which he commanded thee:

46 And they shall be upon 'thee for signs and wonders, and upon thy seed forever.

47 Because thou servedst not the Lord thy God with joyfulness, and with a good heart, for the abundance of all things.

48 Therefore thou shalt serve thine enemies which the Lord shall send upon thee, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in need of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck until he have destroyed thee.

49 'The Lord shall bring a nation upon thee from far, even from the end of the world, flying 'swift as an eagle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand:

50 A nation of a 'fierce countenance, which will not regard the person of the old, nor have compassion of the young.

51 The same shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed, and he shall leave thee neither wheat, wine, nor oil, neither the 'increase of thy kine, nor the flocks of thy sheep, until he have brought thee to naught.

52 And he shall besiege thee in all thy cities, until thine high and strong walls fall down, wherein thou trustedst in all the land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy 'cities throughout all thy land, which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

53 'And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy body, even the flesh of thy sons and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, during the siege and straitness wherein thine enemies shall enclose thee:

54 So 'that the man (that is tender and exceeding dainty among you,) 'shall be griefed at his brother, and at his wife 'that lieth in his bosom, and at the remnant of his children, which he hath yet left,

55 For fear of giving unto any of them of the flesh of his children, whom he shall eat, because he hath nothing left him in that siege, and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 The tender and dainty 'woman among you, which never would venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground (for her softness and tenderness) shall be griefed at her husband that 'lieth in her bosom, and at her son, and at her daughter,

57 And at her 'afterbirth (that shall come out from between her feet) and at her children, which she shall bear: for when all things lack, she shall eat them secretly, during the siege and strictness wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in thy cities.

58 ¶ If thou wilt not keep and do all the words of the Law (that are written in this book) and fear this glorious and fearful Name, THE LORD THY GOD, 59 Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore diseases and of long durance.

60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, whereof thou wast afraid, and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 And every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this Law, will the Lord heap upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few in number, where ye were as the stars of heaven in multitude, because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

63 And as the Lord hath rejoiced over you, to do you good, and to multiply you, so he will rejoice over you, to destroy you, and bring you to naught, and ye shall be rooted out of the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the world unto the other, and there thou shalt serve other gods, which thou hast not known, nor thy fathers, even wood and stone.

65 Also among these nations thou shalt find no rest, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: for the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and looking to return till thine eyes fall out, and a sorrowful mind.

66 And thy life shall hang before thee, and thou shalt fear both night and day, and shalt have none assurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were evening, and at the evening thou shalt say, Would God it were morning, for the fear of thine heart, which thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes, which thou shalt see.

68 And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships by the way, whereof I said unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall sell yourselves unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and there shall be no buyer.

29 ¶ The people are exhorted to observe the commandments.

1 These are the words of the covenant which the Lord commandeth Moses to make with the children of Israel, in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he had made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh and unto all his servants, and unto all his land,

3 The great tentations which thine eyes have seen, those great miracles and wonders: 4 Yet the Lord hath not given thee an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed old upon you, neither is thy shoe waxed old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have eaten no bread, neither drunk wine, nor strong drink, that ye might know how that I am the Lord your God.

7 After, ye came unto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbon, and Og King of Bashan came out against us unto battle, and we slew them,

8 And took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shall do.

10 Ye stand this day everyone of you before the Lord your God: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, even all the men of Israel:

11 Your children, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood, unto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou shouldest pass into the covenant of the Lord thy God, and into his oath which the 29:12 ¶ Alluding to them, that when they made a sure covenant, divided a beast in twain, and passed between the parts divided, Gen. 15:10.

Lord thy God maketh with thee this day, 13 For to establish thee this day a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
14 Neither make I this covenant and this oath with you only.
15 But as well with him that standeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, as with him that is not here with us this day.
16 For ye know, how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the midst of the nations, which ye passed by.
17 And ye have seen their abominations and their idols (wood and stone, silver and gold) which were among them,
18 That there should not be among you man nor woman, nor family, nor tribe, which should turn his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and that there should not be among you any root that bringeth forth gall and wormwood, 19 So that when he heareth the words of this curse, he shall bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, although I walk according to the stubbornness of mine own heart, thus adding drunkenness to thirst.
20 The Lord will not be merciful unto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and every curse that is written in this book, shall light upon him, and the Lord shall put out his name from under heaven.
21 And the Lord shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according unto all the curses of the covenant, that is written in the book of this Law.
22 So that the generation to come, even your children, that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it: 23 (For all that land shall burn with brimstone and salt: it shall not be sown, nor bring forth, nor any glass shall grow therein, like as in the overthrowing of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his wrath and in his anger.)
24 Then shall all nations say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? how fierce is this great wrath?
25 And they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.
26 And went and served other gods and worshipped them: even gods which they knew not, and which had given them nothing.
27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against this land, to bring upon it every curse that is written in this book.
28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeared this day.
29 The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things revealed belong unto us, and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this Law.

30 1 Mercy showed when they repent. 6 The Lord doth circumcise the heart. 11 All excuse of ignorance is taken away. 15, 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

1 Now when all these things shall come upon thee, either the blessing or the curse which I have set before thee, and thou shalt turn into thine heart, among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driven thee,
2 And shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and obey his voice in all that I command thee this day:
thou, and thy children with all thine heart and with all thy soul,
3 Then the Lord thy God will cause thy captives to return, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, to gather thee out of all the people where the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.
4 Though thou wertest cast unto the utmost part of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he take thee, 5 And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it, and he will show thee favor, and will multiply thee above thy fathers.
6 And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine

7 And the Lord thy God will lay all these curses upon thine enemies, and upon them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 Return thou therefore, and obey the voice of the Lord, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of the land for thy wealth: for the Lord will turn again, and rejoice over thee to do thee good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers,

10 Because thou shalt obey the voice of the Lord thy God, in keeping his commandments and his ordinances, which are written in the book of this law, when thou shalt return unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, is not hid from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go over for us the sea, and bring it us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?

14 But the word is very near unto thee: even in thy mouth, and in thine heart, for to do it.

15 Behold, I have set before thee this day, life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that thou mayest live.

16 1I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that thou mayest live.

17 But the word is very near unto thee: even in thy mouth, and in thine heart, for to do it.

18 I pronounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, ye shall not prolong your days in the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to possess it.

19 He addeth these promises to signify that it is for our profit that we love him, and not for his.

20 By loving the Lord thy God, by obeying his voice, and by cleaving unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days, that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

21 Then Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel,

22 And said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day: I can no more go out and come in: also the Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

23 The Lord thy God he will go over before thee: he will destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possess them. Joshua, he shall go before thee, as the Lord hath said.

24 And the Lord shall do unto them 1before thee, that ye may do unto them according unto every commandment which I have commanded thee.

25 Pluck up your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee.

26 And Moses called Joshua, and said unto him: Pluck up your heart, and be strong: this is the commandment which I command thee.

27 And thou shalt divide this land, as the Lord sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

28 The Lord himself doth go before thee, and keep thee: fear not, or be afraid of them.

29 Moses showeth them that they will rebel after his death.

30 And Moses said, Behold, I have set before thee this day life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that thou mayest live, and that thou mayest love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

31 1I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

2 For he that must govern the people, hath need to be valiant: for he that must command troops, must有过 the nations. Therefore a willing and brave man must be chosen: for he that must rule the people, must needs be valiant: for he that must have a difficult charge, must needs be strong. This thing is not in man's power, but God's Spirit only worketh it in his elect.

3 Signifying that man can never be of good courage, except he be persuaded of God's favor and assistance.

4 He can no longer execute mine office.

5 Into your hands.

6 Or, be of good courage.

7 For he that must govern the people, hath need to be valiant to repress vice, and constant to maintain virtue.
DEUTERONOMY 31:9

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this Law, and delivered it unto the Priests the sons of Levi (which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord) and unto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, ‘Every seventh year †when the year of freedom shall be in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israel shall come to appear †before the Lord thy God, and the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this Law before all Israel that they may hear it.

12 Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and keep and observe all the words of this Law,

13 And that their children which †have not known it, may hear it, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy days are come, that thou must die: Call Joshua, and stand ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may give him a †charge. So Moses and Joshua went, and stood in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle in the pillar of a †cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whither they go to dwell therein) and will forsake me: and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath will wax hot against them at that day, and I will forsake them, and will †hide my face from them: then shall they be consumed, and many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them: so then they will say, Are not these troubles come upon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the evil which they shall commit, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this †song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be my witness against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the land (which I swear unto their fathers) that floweth with milk and honey: and they shall eat and fill themselves, and wax fat: †then shall they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and contemn me, and break my covenant.

21 And then when many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them, this song shall †answer them to their faces as a witness: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their posterity: for I know their imagination, which they go about even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And God gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, †Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I sware unto them, and I will be with thee.

24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a book until he had finished them,

25 Then Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying, 26 Take the book of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a †witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion and thy stiff neck: behold, I being yet alive with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord: how much more then after my death?

28 Gather unto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your †officers, that I may speak these words in their audience, and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I am sure that after my death, ye will utterly be corrupt and turn from the way which I have commanded you: therefore evil will come upon you at the length, because ye will commit evil in the sight of the Lord, by provoking him to anger through the †work of your hands.

30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the words of this song, until he had ended them.

31:11 † Before the Ark of the covenant, which was the sign of God’s presence, and the figure of Christ.
31:13 † Which were not born when the law was given.
31:14 † Or, commandment.
31:15 † In a cloud that was fashioned like a pillar.
31:17 † That is, I will take my favor from them: as to turn his face toward us, is to show us his favor.
31:19 † To preserve you and your children from idolatry, by remembering God’s benefits.
31:20 † For this is the nature of flesh, no longer to obey God, than it is under the rod.
31:21 † That these evils are come upon them, because they forsook me.
31:26 † Of thine infidelity, when thou shalt turn away from the doctrine contained therein.
31:28 † As governors, judges and magistrates.
31:29 † By idolatry, and worshipping images, which are the work of your hands.
1 Hearken, ye heavens, and I will speak: and let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain, and my speech shall fall as the showers upon the herbs, and as the great rain upon the grass.

3 For I will publish the Name of the Lord: give ye glory unto our God.

4 Perfect is the work of the mighty God: for all his ways are judgment. God is true, and without wickedness: just and righteous is he.

5 They have corrupted themselves toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a froward and crooked generation.

6 Do ye so reward the Lord, O foolish people and unwise? is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? he hath made thee, and proportioned thee.

7 Remember the days of old: consider the years of so many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee: thine Elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the most high divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he appointed the borders of the people, according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the Lord's portion is his people: Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him in the land of the wilderness, in a waste and roaring wilderness, he led him about, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young ones, spreadeth abroad her wings, and taketh them and beareth them on her wings, 12 So the Lord alone led him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He carried him up to the high places of the earth, that he might eat the fruits of the fields, and he caused him to suck honey out of the stone, and oil out of the hard rock:

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep with fat of the lambs, and rams fed in Bashan, and goats, with the fat of the grains of wheat: and the red liquor of the grape hast thou drunk.

15 But he that should have been upright, when he waxed fat, spurned with his heel: thou art fat, thou art gross, thou art laden with fatness: therefore he forsook God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of his salvation.

16 They provoked him with strange gods: they provoked him to anger with abominations.

17 They offered unto devils, not to God, but to gods whom they knew not: new gods that came newly up, whom their fathers feared not.

18 Thou hast forgotten the mighty God, that begat thee, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 The Lord then saw it, and was angry, for the provocation of his sons and of his daughters.

20 And he said, I will hide my face from them: I will see what their end shall be: for they are a froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are no people: I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, and shall burn unto the bottom of hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will spend plagues upon them: I will bestow mine arrows upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and consumed with heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the venom of serpents creeping in the dust.

25 The sword shall kill them without, and in the chambers fear: both the young man and the young woman, the suckling with the man of gray hair.

26 I have said, I would scatter them abroad: I would make their remembrance to cease from among men, 27 Save that I feared the fury of the enemy, lest their adversaries should wax proud, and lest they should say, Our high hand and not the Lord hath done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29 Oh that they were wise, then they would under-32:30  How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their strong God had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up?
32:31  For their is not as our God, even our enemies being judges.
32:32  For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the vines of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters be bitter.
32:33  Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel gall of asps.
32:34  If they had obeyed God.
32:35  Vengeance and recompense are mine: their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them, make haste.
32:36  For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent toward his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and none shut up in bold nor left abroad.
32:37  When men shall say, Where are their gods, their mighty God, in whom they trusted, 32:38  Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering? let them rise up, and help you: let him be your refuge.
32:39  Behold now, for I, I am he, and there is no gods but me.
32:40  I kill, and give life: I wound, and I make whole: neither is there any that can deliver out of mine hand.
32:41  For I lift up mine hand to heaven, and say, I live forever.
32:42  I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, (and mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.
32:43  When the Congregation of Jacob shall be gathered unto his people, 1he was among the righteous, and shall be a light unto the nations.
32:44  Then Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the audience of the people, he and Hoshea the son of Nun.
32:45  When Moses had made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel,
32:46  Then he said unto them, 'Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify against you this day, that ye may command them unto your children, that they may observe and do all the words of this Law.
32:47  For it is no vain word concerning you, but it is your life, and by this word ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.
32:48  And the Lord spake unto Moses the selfsame day, saying,
32:49  Go up into the mountain of Abarim, unto the mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho: and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession,
32:50  And die in the mount which thou goest up unto, and thou shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people, 32:51  Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin: for ye sanctified me not among the children of Israel.
32:52  Thou shalt therefore see the land before thee, but shalt not go thither, 1mean, into the land which I give the children of Israel.

33  Moses before his death blesseth all the tribes of Israel.
26  There is no god like to the God of Israel:
33:1  Now this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and said,
33:2  The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them, and appeared clearly from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of Saints, and at his right hand a fiery Law for them.
33:3  Though he love the people, yet all thy Saints are in thine hands: and they are humbled at thy feet, to receive thy words.
33:4  Moses commanded us a Law for an inheritance of the Congregation of Jacob.
33:5  Then he was among the righteous people, as King, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel were assembled.

32:29  They would consider the felicity, that was prepared for them, if they had obeyed God.
32:30  Or, delivered them to their enemies.
32:33  The fruits of the wicked are as poison, detestable to God, and dangerous for man.
32:36  Or, change his mind.
32:40  That is, I swear, read Gen. 14:12.
32:43  Whether the blood of God's people be shed for their sins or trial of their faith, he promiseth to revenge it.
32:44  Or, Joshua.
32:47  For I will perform my promise unto you, Isa. 55:10.
32:51  Or, of strife.
33:1  This blessing containeth not only a simple prayer, but an assurance of the effect thereof.
33:2  Meaning, infinite Angels.
33:3  Hebrew, his Saints; that is, the children of Israel.
33:4  As thy disciples.
33:5  Or, Moses.
2 Or, Israel.
6 ¶ Let Reuben live, and not die, though his men be a small number.
7 ¶ And thus he blessed Judah, and said, Hear, O Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: his hands shall be 'sufficient for him, if thou help him against his enemies.
8 ¶ And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummim and thine Urim be with thee Holy one, whom thou didst prove in Massah, and didst cause him to strive at the waters of Meribah.
9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him, neither knew he his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they observed thy word, and kept thy Covenant.
10 They shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy Law: they shall put incense before thy face, and the burnt offering upon thine Altar.
11 Bless, O Lord, his substance, and accept the work of his hands: 'smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.
12 ¶ Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the Lord shall 'dwell in safety by him: the Lord shall cover him all the day long, and dwell between his shoulders.
13 ¶ And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the sweetness of heaven, for the dew, and for the 'depth lying beneath,
14 And for the sweet increase of the Sun, and for the sweet increase of the Moon,
15 And for thy sweetness of the top of the ancient mountains, and for the sweetness of the old hills,
16 And for the sweetness of the earth, and abundance therefore: and the good will of him that dwelt in the 'bush, shall come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was 'separated from his brethren.
17 His beauty shall be like his firstborn bullock, and his 'horns as the horns of an unicorn: with them he shall smite the people together, even the ends of the world: these are also the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh.
18 ¶ And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy 'going out, and thou Issachar in thy tents.
19 They shall call the people unto the 'mountain: there they shall offer the sacrifices of righteousness: for 'they shall suck of the abundance of the sea, and of the treasures hid in the sand.
20 ¶ Also of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, that catcheth for his prey the arm with the head.
21 And he looked to himself at the beginning, because there was a portion of the 'Law-giver hid: yet he shall come with the heads of the people, to execute the justice of the Lord, and his judgments with Israel.
22 ¶ And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan.
23 ¶ Also of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and filled with the blessing of the Lord, possess 'the West and the South.
24 ¶ And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with children: he shall be acceptable unto his brethren, and shall dip his foot in oil.
25 Thy shoes shall be 'iron and brass, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou livest.
26 ¶ There is none like God, O righteous people, which rideth upon the heavens for thine help, and on the clouds in his glory.
27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and under his arms thou art forever: he shall cast out the enemy before thee, and will say, Destroy them.
28 Then Israel 'the fountain of Jacob shall dwell alone in safety in a land of wheat and wine: also his heavens shall drop the dew.
29 Blessed art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thine help, and which is the sword of thy glory? therefore 'thine enemies shall be in subjection to thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

34 Moses seeth all the Land of Caanaan. 5 He dieth. 8. Israel weepeth. 9 Joshua succeedeth in Moses’ room. 10 The praise of Moses.
1 Then Moses went from the plain of Moab up into mount Nebo unto the top of Pisgah that is over against Jericho: and the Lord showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,
2 And all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea:
3 And the South, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.
4 And the Lord said unto him, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.
5 So Moses the servant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord.
6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab over against Beth Peor, but no man knoweth of his sepulcher unto this day.

7 Moses was now an hundred and twenty years old when he died, his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated:
8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plain of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom: for Moses had put his hands upon him. And the children of Israel were obedient unto him, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses.
10 But there arose not a Prophet since in Israel like unto Moses (whom the Lord knew face to face.)
11 In all the miracles and wonders which the Lord sent him to do in the land of Egypt before Pharaoh and before all his servants, and before all his land, 12 And in all that mighty hand and all that great fear, which Moses wrought in the sight of all Israel.
1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,

2 Moses my servant is dead: now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I give them, that is, to the children of Israel.

3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, have I given you, as I said unto Moses.

4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Perath: all the land of the Hittites, even unto the great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 There shall not a man be able to withstand thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee: I will not leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide the land for an inheritance, which I swore unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong, and of a most valiant courage, that thou mayest observe and do according to all the Law which Moses my servant hath commanded thee: thou shalt not turn away from it to the right hand, nor to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 Let not this book of the Law depart out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe and do according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee, saying, Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be discouraged? for I the Lord thy God will be with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals: for after three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the Lord your God giveth you to possess it.

12 And unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh spake Joshua, saying, 13 Remember the word, which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, saying, The Lord your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your children, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan: but ye shall go over before your brethren armed, all that be men of war, and shall help them, 15 Until the Lord have given your brethren rest as well as to you, and until they also shall possess the land, which the Lord your God giveth them: then shall ye return unto the land of your possession, and shall possess it, which land Moses the Lord's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sun rising.

16 Then they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou hast commanded us, we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 As we obeyed Moses in all things, so will we obey thee: only the Lord thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever shall rebel against thy commandment, and will not obey thy words in all that thou commandest him, let him be put to death: only be strong and of good courage.

1 Joshua sendeth men to spy Jericho, whom Rahab hideth.

11 She confesseth the God of Israel.

12 She and of a good courage, fear not, nor be discouraged! for I the Lord thy God will be with thee whithersoever thou goest.
Then Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, and also Jericho, and they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

Then report was made to the King of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men hither tonight, of the children of Israel, to spy out the country.

And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, and which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the land.

(But the woman had taken the two men, and hid them,) Therefore said she thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were.

And when they shut the gate in the dark, the men went out, whither the men went, I wot not: follow ye after them quickly, for ye shall overtake them.

(But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had spread abroad upon the roof.)

And certain men pursued after them, the way to Jordan, unto the fords, and as soon as they which pursued after them, were gone out, they shut the gate.

And before they were asleep, she came up unto them upon the roof,

And said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that the fear of you is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the red Sea before you when ye came out of Egypt, and what you did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, unto Sihon and to Og, whom ye utterly destroyed:

And when we heard it, our hearts 'did faint, and there remained no more courage in any because of you: for the Lord your God, he is the God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the Lord, that as I have showed you mercy, ye will also show mercy unto my father's house, and give me a true token,

And that ye will save alive my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have: and that ye will deliver our souls from death.

And the men answered her, Our life for you to die, if ye utter not this our business: and when the Lord hath given us the land, we will deal mercifully and truly with thee.

Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

And she said unto them, Go you into the mountain, lest the pursuers meet with you, and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: then afterward may ye go your way.

And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this cord of red thread in the window, whereby thou lettest us down, and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household home to thee.

And whosoever then doth go out at the doors of thine house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: but whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand touch him:

And if thou utter this our matter, we will be quit of thine oath, which thou hast made us swear.

And she answered, According unto your words, so be it: then she sent them away, and they departed, and she bound the red cord in the window.

And they departed, and came into the mountain, and there abode three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that came to pass there.

Joshua commandeth them to depart when the Ark removeth.

7 The Lord promiseth to exalt Joshua before
4:6 Then Joshua rose very early, and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he, and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they went over.

And after three days, the officers went throughout the host,

And commanded the people, saying, When ye see the Ark of the covenant of the Lord your God and the Priests of the Levites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and go after it.

Yet shall there be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: ye shall not come near unto it, that ye may know the way; by the which ye shall go: for ye have not gone this way in times past.

(Now Joshua had said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.)

Also Joshua spake unto the Priests, saying, Take up the Ark of the covenant, and go over before the people: so they took up the Ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

¶ Then the Lord said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, which shall know, that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

Thou shalt therefore command the Priests that bear the Ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the waters of Jordan, ye shall stand still in Jordan.

¶ Then Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the Lord your God.

And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

Behold, the Ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the world) shall stay in the waters of Jordan, the waters of Jordan shall be cut off: for the waters that come from above, shall stand still upon an heap.

¶ Then when the people were departed from their tents to go over Jordan, the Priests bearing the Ark of the covenant, went before the people.

And as they that bare the Ark, came unto Jordan, and the feet of the Priests that bare the Ark were dipped in the brink of the water, (for Jordan useth to fill all his banks all the time of harvest)

16 Then the waters that came down from above, stayed and rose upon an heap, and departed far from the city of Adam that was beside Zaretan: but the waters that came down toward the Sea of the wilderness, even the salt Sea, failed and were cut off: so the people went right over against Jericho.

17 But the Priests that bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, stood dry within Jordan ready prepared, and all the Israelites went over dry, until all the people were clean gone over through Jordan.

2 God commandeth Joshua to set up twelve stones in Jordan. 18 The waters return to their old course. 20 Other twelve stones are set upon Gilgal. 21 This miracle must be declared to posterity.

1 And when all the people were wholly gone over Jordan, (after the Lord had spoken unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you twelve men out of the people out of every tribe a man,

3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the Priests stood in a readiness, twelve stones, which ye shall take away with you, and leave them in the lodging, where you shall lodge this night)

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man,

5 And Joshua said unto them, Go over before the Ark of the Lord your God, even through the midst of Jordan, and take up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

4:16 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, and say, What mean these stones?

4:17 Then ye shall show your children, and say, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land:

4:18 For the Lord your God dried up the waters of Jordan before you, until ye were gone over as the Lord your God did the red Sea, 'which he dried up before us, till we were gone over,

4:19 That all the people of the 'world may know that the hand of the Lord is mighty, that ye might fear the Lord your God continually.

5 1 The Canaanites are afraid of the Israelites.  2 Circumcision is commanded the second time.  10 The passover is kept.  12 Manna ceaseth.  13 The Angel appeared unto Joshua.

1 Now when all the Kings of the 'Amorites, which were beyond Jordan Westward, and all the Kings of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of Jordan before the children of Israel until they were gone over, their hearts fainted: and there was no courage in them anymore because of the children of Israel.

2 ¶ That same time the Lord said unto Joshua, 'Make thee sharp knives, and return, and circumcise the sons of Israel the second time.

3 Then Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the sons of Israel in 'the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua circumcised all the people, even the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of war were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt, were 'not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people of the men of war that came out of Egypt, were consumed, because 4:24 1 God's benefits serve for a further condemnation to the wicked, and stir up his to reverence him, and obey him.

5:1 1 The Amorites were on both sides [of] Jordan, whereof two kings were slain already on the side toward Moab.

5:2 1 For now they had left it off, about 40 years.

5:3 1 Gilgal was so called, because they were there circumcised.

5:5 1 For they looked daily to remove at the Lord's commandment, which thing they that were new circumcised, could not do without great danger.
6:13 And the Lord said unto Joshua, Behold, I have given into thine hand Jericho and the king thereof, and the strong men of war.

3 All ye therefore that be men of war, shall compass the city, in going round about the city once: thus shall you do six days:

4 And seven Priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the Priests shall blow with the trumpets,

5 And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: then shall the wall of the city fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

6 ¶ Then Joshua the son of Nun called the Priests and said unto them, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and let seven Priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of the Lord.

7 But he said unto the people, Go and compass the city: and let him that is armed go forth before the Ark of the Lord.

8 ¶ And when Joshua had spoken unto the people, the seven priests bare the seven trumpets of rams' horns, and went forth before the Ark of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets, and the ark of the Covenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶ And the men of arms went before the priests and blew the trumpets: then the gathering host came after the Ark, and they went and blew the trumpets.

10 (Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, neither make any noise with your voice, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day that I say unto you, Shout, then shall ye shout.)

11 So the Ark of the Lord compassed the city, and went about it once: then they returned into the host, and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the host, and went about it once.

13 Also seven Priests bare seven trumpets of rams' horns, and went before the Ark of the Lord, and going blew with the trumpets: and the men of arms went before them, but the gathering host came after the Ark.
of the Lord, as they went and blew the trumpets.
14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the host: thus they did six days.
15 And when the seventh day came, they rose early, even with the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only that day they compassed the city seven times.
16 And when the Priests had blown the trumpets the seventh time, Joshua said unto the people, Shout: for the Lord hath given you the city.
17 And the city shall be an execrable thing, both it, and all that are therein, unto the Lord; only Rahab the harlot shall live, she, and all that are with her in the house: for she hid the messengers that we sent.
18 Notwithstanding, be ye ware of the execrable thing, lest ye make yourselves execrable, and in taking of the execrable thing, make also the host of Israel execrable, and trouble it.
19 But all silver, and gold, and vessels of brass, and iron shall be consecrate unto the Lord, and shall come into the Lord's treasury.
20 So the people shouted, when they had blown the trumpets: for when the people had heard the sound of the trumpets, they shouted with a great shout: and the wall fell down flat: so the people went up into the city, every man straight before him: and they took the city.
21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the cities both man and woman, young, and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass with the edge of the sword.
22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye swore to her.
23 So the young men that were spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: also they brought out all her family, and put them without the host of Israel.
24 After, they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver and the gold, and the vessels of brass and iron, they put unto the treasure of the house of the Lord.
25 So Joshua saved Rahab the harlot, and her father's household, and all that she had, and she dwelt in Israel, even unto this day, because she had hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
26 ¶ And Joshua swore at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth up, and buildeth the city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his eldest son, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.
27 So the Lord was with Joshua, and he was famous through all the world.

1 The Lord is angry with Achan. 4 They of Ai put the Israelites to flight. 6 Joshua prayeth to the Lord. 16 Joshua inquirith out him that sinned, and stoneth him and all his.

1 But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the execrable thing: for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah, took the excommunicate thing: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.
2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the East side of Bethel, and spake unto them, saying, Go up, and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai,
3 And returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up, but let as it were two or three thousand men go up, and smite Ai, and make not all the people to labor thither, for they are few.
4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fled before the men of Ai.
5 And the men of Ai smote of them upon a thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted away like water.
6 Then Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the Ark of the Lord, until the eventide, he, and the Elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads.
7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy us? would God we had been content to dwell on the other side Jordan.
8 Oh Lord what shall I say, when Israel turn their 9  For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land, shall hear of it, and shall compass us, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy mighty Name?

10 ¶ And the Lord said unto Joshua, Get thee up: wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have transgressed my covenant, which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the excommunicate thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and have put it even with their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies: but have turned their backs before their enemies, because they be execrable: neither will I be with you anymore, except ye destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 Up therefore, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, O Israel, therefore ye cannot stand against your enemies, until ye have put the execrable thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shall come according to the families: and the family which the Lord shall take, shall come by the households: and the household which the Lord shall take, shall come man by man.

15 And he that is taken with the excommunicate thing, shall be burnt with fire, he, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the covenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe which the Lord took, came according to the families, and the family according to the households, and the household came man by man.

17 And he brought the families of Judah, and took the family of the Zarhites, and he brought the family of the Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he brought his household, man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah was taken.

19 Then Joshua said unto Achan, My son, I beseech thee, give glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him, and show me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus, and thus have I done.

21 I saw among the spoil a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, and I covered them, and took them: and behold, they lie hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 ¶ Then Joshua sent messengers, which ran unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 Therefore they took them out of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them before the Lord.

24 Then Joshua took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his 3 sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Israel with him, brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, 'In as much as thou hast troubled us, the Lord shall trouble thee this day: and all Israel threw stones at him, and burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

26 And they cast upon him a great heap of stones unto this day: and so the Lord turned from his fierce wrath: therefore he called the name of that place, The valley of Achor, unto this day.
away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city on the back side of the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all in a readiness.

5 And I and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and when they shall come out against us, as they did at the first time, then will we flee before them.

6 For they will come out after us, till we have brought them out of the city: for they will say, They flee before us as at the first time: so we will flee before them.

7 Then you shall rise up from lying in wait and destroy the city: for the Lord your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And when ye have taken the city, ye shall set it on fire: according to the commandment of the Lord shall ye do: behold, I have charged you.

9 ¶ Joshua then sent them forth, and they went to lie in wait, and abode between Bethel and Ai, on the West side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people: and he and the Elders of Israel went up before the people against Ai.

11 Also all the men of war that were with him went up and drew near, and came against the city, and pitched on the North side of Ai: and there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in wait between Bethel and Ai on the West side of the city.

13 And the people set all the host that was on the North side against the city, and the liars in wait on the West, against the city: and Joshua went the same night into the midst of the valley.

14 ¶ And when the king of Ai saw it, then the men of the city hasted and rose up early, and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the plain: for he knew not that any lay in wait against him on the back side of the city.

15 Then Joshua and all Israel as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people of the city were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away out of the city.

17 So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 Then the Lord said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thine hand, toward Ai: for I will give it into thine hand: and Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand, toward the city.

19 And they that lay in wait, arose quickly out of their place, and ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted, and set the city on fire.

20 And the men of Ai looked behind them, and saw it: for lo, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned back upon the pursuers.

21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that they that lay in wait, had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city mounted up, then they turned again and slew the men of Ai.

22 Also the other issued out of the city against them: so were they in the midst of Israel, these being on the one side, and the rest on the other side: and they slew them, so that they let none of them remain nor escape.

23 And the King of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, that is, in the wilderness where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back again which he had stretched out with the spear, toward Ai: for the Lord had said unto Joshua, The city shall not be given into their hand, by reason of the lives of them that are between Ai and Eshcol.

27 ¶ Only the cattle and the spoil of this city, Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the Lord, which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree, unto the evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcass down

8:4 1 God would not destroy Ai by miracle, as Jericho, to the intent that other nations might fear the power and policy of his people.

8:7 1 Or, drive out (the inhabitants) of the city.

8:10 1 That is, viewed or mustered them, and set them in array.

8:12 1 He sent these few, that the others which lay in ambush might not be discovered.

8:13 1 To the intent that they in the city might the better discover his army.

8:15 1 As they which feigned to flee for fear.

8:18 1 Or, lift up the banner, to signify when they shall invade the city.

8:20 1 Or, toward the heavens.

8:22 1 Which came out of the ambush.

8:24 1 For the fire, which they had before set in the city, was not to consume it, but to signify unto Joshua that they were entered.

from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and lay thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an altar unto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses, an altar of whole stone, over which no man had lift an iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 Also he wrote there upon the stones, a'hearsal of the Law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers and their Judges stood on this side of the Ark, and on that side, before the Priests of the Levites, which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord) as well the stranger, as he that is born in the country: half of them were over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal, 'as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should bless the children of Israel.

34 Then afterward he read all the words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the Law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded, which Joshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, 'as well before the women and the children, as the stranger that was conversant among them.

Then the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, 3 The craft of the Gibeonites. 15 Joshua maketh a league with them. 23 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual slavery.

1 And when all the Kings that were beyond Jordan, in the mountains and in the valleys, and by all the coasts of the great Sea over against Lebanon (as the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites) heard thereof,

2 They gathered themselves together, to fight against Joshua, and against Israel with one accord.

3 ¶ But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho, and to Ai.

4 And therefore they wrought craftily: for they went, and feigned themselves ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and old bottles for wine, both rent and bound up.

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet: also the raiment upon them was old, and all their provision of bread was dried, and molded.

6 So they came unto Joshua into the host to Gilgal, and said unto him, and unto the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make a league with us.

7 Then the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, It may be that thou dost dwell among us, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. Then Joshua said unto them, Who are ye, and whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a very far country thy servants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard his fame and all that he hath done in Egypt.

10 And all that he hath done to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which were as Ataroth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victual with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: now therefore make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took it hot with us for the journey, and we departed to come unto you: but now behold, it is dried, and it is molded.

13 Also these bottles of wine which we filled, were new, and lo, they be rent, and these our garments are new, by reason of the exceeding great journey.

14 ¶ And the men accepted their tale concerning their victuals, and counseled not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he would suffer them to live: also the Princes of the Congregation swore unto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of three days, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel took their journey, and came unto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth and Kirjath Jearim.

18 And the children of Israel slew them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the Princes.

19 Then all the Princes said unto all the Congregation, We have sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 But this we will do to them, and let them live, lest the wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore unto them.

21 And the Princes said unto them again, Let them live, but they shall hew wood, and draw water unto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Joshua then called them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you, when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are accursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was told thy servants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding sore afraid for our lives at the presence of you, and have done this thing:

25 And behold now, we are in thine hand: do as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to do unto us.

26 Even so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the altar of the Lord unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

10 1 Five kings make war against Gibeon whom Joshua discomfitted. 11 The Lord rained hailstones and slew many. 12 The Sun standeth at Joshua's prayer. 26 The five kings are hanged. 29 Many more cities and kings are destroyed.

1 Now when Adoni Zedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Jericho and to the king thereof, so he had done to Ai and to the king thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,

2 Then they feared exceedingly: for Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities: for it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore 1Adoni Zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for they have made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they with all their hosts, and besieged Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua, even to the host to Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thine hand from thy servants: come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites, which dwell in the mountains, are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the men of might.

8 ¶ And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have given them into thine hand; none of them shall stand against thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly; for he went up from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth Horon, and smote them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth Horon, the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them, until Azekah, and they died: they were more that died with the hailstones, than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gave the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stay thou in Gibeon, and thou Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13 And the Sun abode, and the moon stood still, until the people avenged themselves upon their enemies: (is not this written in the book of Jasher?) so the Sun abode in the midst of the heaven, and hasted not to go down for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

15 ¶ After, Joshua returned, and all Israel with him unto the camp to Gilgal:

16 But the five kings fled and were hid in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 Then Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them.

19 But stand ye not still: follow after your enemies, and ‘smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to enter into your cities: for the Lord your God hath given them into your hand.

20 And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter till they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entered into walled cities.

21 Then all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: no man moved his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 After, Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out these five kings unto me forth of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings unto him forth of the cave, even the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they had brought out those kings unto Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the chief of the men of war, which went with him, Come near, set your feet upon the ‘necks of these kings, and they came near, and set their feet upon their necks.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be faint hearted, but be strong and of a good courage: for thus will the Lord do to all your enemies, against whom ye fight.

26 So then Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees, and they hanged still upon the trees until the evening.

27 And at the going down of the sun, Joshua gave commandment, that they should take ‘them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave (wherein they had been hid) and they laid great stones upon the cave’s mouth, which remain until this day.

28 ¶ And that same day Joshua took Makkedah and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof destroyed he with them, and ‘all the souls that were therein, he let none remain: for he did to the king of Makkedah, as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua went from Makkedah, and all Israel with him unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord gave it also and the king thereof into the hand of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the ‘souls that were therein: he let none remain in it: for he did unto the king thereof, as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him unto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lord gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish: but Joshua smote him and his people, until none of his remained.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua departed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

35 And they took it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him unto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for he destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 ¶ So Joshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.
39 And when he had taken it, and the king thereof, and all the city thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein, he let none remain: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the king thereof.

40 ¶ So Joshua smote all the hill countries, and the South countries, and the valleys, and the ‘hillsides, and all their kings, and let none remain, but utterly destroyed every soul, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from Kadesh Barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings, and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 Afterward, Joshua and all Israel with him returned unto the camp in ‘Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

1 Divers kings and cities, and countries overcome by Joshua. 15 Joshua did all that Moses had commanded him. 20 God hardeneth the enemies’ hearts that they might be destroyed.

1 And when Jabin king of Hazor had heard this, then he ‘sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

2 And unto the kings that were by the North in the mountains and plains toward the South side of ‘Chinneroth, and in the valleys, and in the borders of Dor Westward,

3 And unto the Canaanites, both by East, and by West, and unto the Amorites, and ‘Hittites, and ‘Perizzites, and ‘ Jebusites in the mountains, and unto the ‘Hivites, under ‘Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

4 And they came out, and all their hosts with them, many people, as the sand that is on the seashore, for multitude, with horses and chariots exceeding many.

5 So all these kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Joshua, Be not afraid for them: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them all slain before Israel: thou shalt ‘hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 Then came Joshua and all the men of war with him, against them, by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell upon them.

8 And the Lord gave them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, and chased them unto great Sidon, and unto ‘Misrephoth, and unto the valley of Mizpah Eastward, and smote them until they had none remaining of them.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Joshua turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the King thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 Moreover they smote all the ‘persons that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying all, leaving none alive, and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them, ‘as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stood still in their strength, save Hazor only, that Joshua burnt.

14 And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the children of Israel took for their prey, but they smote every ‘man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, not leaving one alive.

15 ¶ As the Lord ‘had commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses ‘command Joshua, and so did Joshua, he left nothing undone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all this land of the mountains, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the low country, and the plain, and the ‘mountain of Israel, and the low country of the same.

17 From the mount ‘Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto ‘Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war [a] long time with all those Kings, 19 Neither was there any city that made peace with the children of Israel, ‘save those Hivites that inhabited Gibeon: all others they took by battle.

20 For it came of the Lord, to 1harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, to the intent that they should destroy them utterly, and show them no mercy; but that they should bring them to nought, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Joshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountains; as out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountains of Judah, and out of all the mountains of Israel; Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel, only in Gaza, 1in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord had said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, according to their portions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without war.

12 1, 7 What kings Joshua and the children of Israel killed on both sides of Jordan. 24 Which were in number thirty and one and one.

1 And these are the Kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote and possessed their land on the 1other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon, unto mount Hermon, and all the plain Eastward.

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, that dwelt in Heshbon, having dominion from Aroer, which is beside the river of Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead unto the river of Jabbok, in the border of the children of Ammon.

3 And from the plain unto the sea of Chinneroth Eastward, and unto the sea of the 1plain, even the salt sea Eastward, the way to Beth Jeshimoth, and from the South under the 2springs of Pisgah.

4 ¶ They conquered also the coast of Og king of Bashan of the 1remnant of the giants, which dwelt at Ashtaroth, and at Edrei,

5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites, and the Maachathites, and half Gilead: even the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Moses the servant of the Lord, and the children of Israel smote them: 1Moses also the servant of the Lord gave their land for a possession unto the Reubenites, and unto the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.

11:20 1 That is, to give them over to themselves: and therefore they could not but rebel against God and seek their own destruction.

11:22 1 Out of the which came Goliath, 1Sam. 17:4.

12:1 1 From Gilgal where Joshua camped.

12:3 1 Or, wilderness.

12:20 1 That is, to give them over to themselves: and therefore they could not but rebel against God and seek their own destruction.

12:21 1 Read Josh. 11:17.

12:22 1 Or, in Ashdoth.

13:1 1 Or, near unto Carmel.

13:2 1 Or, hillsides.

13:7 1 Or, being almost an hundred and ten years old.
years, the Lord said unto him, Thou art old and "grown in age, and there remaineth exceeding much land to be "possessed:

2 This is the land that remaineth, all the "regions of the Philistines, and all Geshuri.

3 From "Nilus which is "in Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron Northward: this is counted of the Canaanites, even five Lordships of the Philistines, the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, and the Avites:

4 From the South, all the land of the Canaanites, and the "cave that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, and to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon toward the Sun rising from "Baal Gad under mount Hermon, until one come to Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon unto "Misrephoth, and all the Sidonians, I will cast them out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites, to inherit, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land to inherit, unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

8 For with "half thereof the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, 'which Moses gave them beyond Jordan Eastward, even as Moses the servant of the Lord had said.

9 From Aroer that is on the brink of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the 'river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon,

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the borders of the children of Ammon,

11 And Gilead, and the borders of the Geshurites and of the Maachathites, and all Mount Hermon, with all Bashan unto Salcah:

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei: (who remained of 'the rest of the giants) for these did Moses smite, and cast them out:

13 But the children of Israel 'expelled not the Geshurites nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites even unto this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are 'his inheritance, as he said unto him.

15 ¶ Moses then gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brink of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain which is by Medeba:

17 Heshbon with all the cities thereof, that are in the plain: Dibon and 'Bamoth Baal, and Beth Baal Meon:

18 And Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath:

19 Kirjathaim also, and Sibmah, and Zererath Shahar in the mount of 'Emek:

20 And Beth Peor, and 'Ashdoth Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth:

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses 'smote with the Princes of Midian, Evi and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 And 'Balaam the son of Beor the soothsayer did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan with the coasts. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, with the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coasts were Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon unto Aroer, which is before Rabbah:

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath, Mizpah, and Betonim: and from Mahanaim unto the borders of Debir:

27 And in the valley of Beth Haram, and Beth Nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon unto Jordan and the borders even unto the sea coast of Chinnereth, beyond Jordan Eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad, after their families, with the cities and their villages.

29 ¶ Also Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this belonged to the half tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.
30 And their border was from Mahanaim, even all Bashan, to wit, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, threescore cities,
31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were given unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh to half of the children of Machir after their families.
32 These are the inheritances, which Moses did distribute in the plain of Moab beyond Jordan toward Jericho Eastward.
33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave none inheritance, for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said unto them.

14 1 The land of Canaan was divided among the nine tribes and the half. 6 Caleb requireth the inheritance that was promised him. 13 Hebron was given him.

1 These also are the places which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them,
2 By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses, to give to the nine tribes, and the half tribe.
3 For Moses had given inheritance unto two tribes and an half tribe, beyond Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.
4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beasts and their substance.
5 As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they divided the land.
6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him, Thou knowest what the Lord said unto Moses the man of God, concerning thee and me in Kadesh Barnea.
7 Forty years old was I, when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy the land, and I brought him word again, as I thought in mine heart.
8 But my brethren that went up with me, dis-

13:31 1 Meaning, his nephews and posterity.
143 1 As Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh, Num. 32:33.
144 1 Though Levi lacked, yet were there still twelve tribes by this means.
146 1 Which was, that they two only should enter into the land, Num. 14:24.
148 1 Which were the ten other spies.
5 Also the East border shall be the salt Sea, unto the end of Jordan: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Jordan.

6 And this border goeth up to Beth Hoglah, and goeth along by the North side of Beth Arabah: so the border from thence goeth up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

7 Again this border goeth up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward, turning toward Gilgal, that lieth before the going unto Adummim, which is on the South side of the river: also this border goeth up to the waters of En Shemesh, and endeth at En Rogel.

8 Then this border goeth up to the valley of the son of Hinnom; on the South side of the Jebusites: the same is Jerusalem. Also this border goeth up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Rephaim Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountain unto the fountain of the water of Nephetoah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah which is Kirjath Jearim.

10 Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward unto mount Seir, and goeth along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon on the North side: it cometh down to Beth Shemesh, and goeth to Timnah.

11 Also this border goeth out unto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth unto Jabneel: and the ends of this coast are unto the Sea.

12 And the West border is to the great sea: so this border shall be the bounds of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh did Joshua give a part among the children of Judah, as the Lord commanded him, even Kirjath Arba of the father of Anak which is in Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the sons of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir beforetime was Kirjath Sepher.

16 Then Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath Sepher, and taketh it, even to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And as she went in to him, she moved him, to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass, and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

19 Then she answered, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me the South country: give me also springs of water. And he gave her the springs above, and the springs beneath.

20 This shall be the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the utmost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coasts of Edom Southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,

22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Addah,

23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, Hezron (which is Hazor.)

26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,

27 And Hazar, Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth Pelet,

28 And Hazar Shual, and Beersheba, and Bizjorthjah,

29 Baalah, and Ijim, and Ezem,

30 And Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hornah,

31 And Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,

32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Beth Pelet,

33 In the low country were Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah.

34 And Zanoah, and En Gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,

35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Sooch, and Azekah,

36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages.

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal Gad,

38 And Dilean, and Mizpah, and Joktheel,

39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,

40 And Cabbon, and Lahmas, and Kirjathaim,

41 And Gederoth, Beth Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages.

42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
43 And Jiphthah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,
44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages.
45 Ekron with her towns and her villages,
46 From Ekron, even unto the Sea, all that lieth about Ashdod with their villages.
47 Ashdod with her towns and her villages: Gaza with her towns and her villages unto the river of Egypt, and the great Sea was their coast.
48 ¶ And in the mountains were Shamir, and Jattir, and Sochoh,
49 And Dannah, and Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir),
50 And Anab, and Eshtemoah, and Anim,
51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.
52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean,
53 And Janum, and Beth Tappuah, and Aphekah, 54 And Humtaah, and Kirjath Arba, (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages, 55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah,
56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, 57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.
58 Halhul, Beth Zur, and Gedor,
59 And Maarath, and Beth Anoth, and Eltekon:
  six cities with their villages.
60 Kirjath Baal, which is Kirjath Jearim, and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.
61 In the wilderness were Beth Arabah, Middin, and Secacah,
62 And Nibshan, and the city of salt, and En
  Gedi: five cities with their villages.
63 Nevertheless, the Jebusites that were the inhabitants of Jerusalem, could not the children of Judah cast out, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

16 1 The lot or part of Ephraim. 10 The Canaanites dwelled among them.

1 And the lot fell to the children of Joseph from Jordan by Jericho unto the water of Jericho Eastward, and to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho by the mount Bethel:
2 And goeth out from Bethel to Luz, and runneth along unto the borders of Archi Ataroth, 3 And goeth down Westward to the coast of Japhleth, unto the coast of Beth Horon the nether:

15:45 1 Hebrew, daughters.
15:47 1 Meaning, Nilus, as Josh. 13:3.
15:49 1 Which is also called Kirjath Sepher, verse 15.
15:52 1 Of this city the salt sea hath his name.
15:53 1 That is, utterly, though they slew the most part, and burnt their city, Judg. 1:8.
15:61 1 That is, to Ephraim and his children: for Manasseh’s portion followeth.
16:3 1 Of their inheritance.
16:4 1 Severally, first Ephraim, and then Manasseh.
16:7 1 For so far the coasts reach.
16:9 1 Because Ephraim’s tribe was far greater than Manasseh, therefore he had more cities.
17:2 1 For the other half tribe had their portion beyond Jordan.
before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the Lord, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of Jordan,

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sons: and Manasseh’s other sons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmethath that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hand, even to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sons of Ephraim.

9 Also this border goeth down unto the river Kanah Southward to the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the North side of the river, and the ends of it are at the Sea,

10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the sea is his border: and they met together in Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth Shean, and her towns, and Ibleam, and her towns, and the towns of the sons of Ephraim, (forasmuch as the Lord blessed me hitherto?)

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

13 Nevertheless, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites under tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot, and thou shalt not cast out wholly.

15 Joshua then answered them, If thou be much people, get thee up to the woods, and cut trees for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 Then the children of Joseph said, The mountain will not be enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the low country have chariots of iron, as well they in Beth Shean, and in the towns of the same, as they in the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not have one lot.

18 Therefore the mountain shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the ends of it shall be thine, and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

18:1 The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. Certain are sent to divide the land to the other seven tribes. The lot of the children of Benjamin.

1 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set up the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subject unto them.

2 Now there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, to whom they had not divided their inheritance.

3 Therefore Joshua said unto the children of Israel, how long are you so slack to enter and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give from among you for every tribe three men, that I may send them, and that they may rise and walk through the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and return to me.

5 And that they may divide it unto them into seven parts, (Judah shall abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Joseph shall stand in their coasts at the North.)

6 Ye shall describe the land therefore into seven parts, and shall bring them hither to me, and I will cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

7 But the Levites shall have no part among you: for the Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond Jordan Eastward, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave them.

8 ¶ Then the men arose, and went their way, and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart, and go through the land, and describe it, and return to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the men departed, and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and returned to Joshua into the camp at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their portions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the cost of their lot lay between the children of Judah, and the children of Joseph.

12 And their coast on the North side was from Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the North part, and went up through the mountains Westward, and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth Aven:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, even to the South side of Luz (the same is Bethel) and this border descendeth to Ataroth Addar, near the mount that lieth on the South side of Beth Horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount that lieth before Beth Horon Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) a city of the children of Judah: this is the West quarter.

15 And the South quarter is from the end of Kirjath Jearim, and this border goeth out Westward, and cometh to the fountain of waters of Nephtoah.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountain, that lieth before the valley of Ben Hinnom, which is in the valley of the giants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Jebus Southward, and goeth down to En Rogel,

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forth to En Shemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going up unto Adummim, and goeth down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side over against the plain Northward, and goeth down into the plain.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth Hoglah Northward: and the ends thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt sea Northward, and to the end of Jordan Southward: this is the South coast.

20 Also Jordan is the border of it on the East side: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, are Jericho, and Beth Hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar Haammoni, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages:

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beerohoth,

26 And Mizpah, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) Gibea, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to their families.

19 ¶ The portion of Simeon, 10 Of Zebulan, 17 Of Issachar, 24 Of Asher, 32 Of Naphtali, 40 Of Dan. 49 The possession of Joshua.

1 And the second lot came out to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 Now they had in their inheritance Beersheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar Shual, and Balah, and Ezem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susah,

6 And Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities with their villages.

7 Zinnim, and Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan: four cities with their villages.

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, unto Baalath Beer, and Ramah, Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon, according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 ¶ Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the coasts of their inheritance came to Sarid,

11 And their border goeth up Westward, even to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbasheth, and meeteth with the river that lieth before Jokneam,

12 And turneth from Sarid Eastward toward the Sun rising unto the border of Chisloth Tabor, and goeth out to Daberath, and ascendeth to Japhia, 13 And from thence goeth along Eastward toward the Sun rising to Gath Hepher, to Eth Kazin, and goeth forth to Rimmon, and turneth to Neah.

14 And this border compasseth it on the North side to Hannathon, and the ends thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah El,

15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimon, and Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun, according to their families, that is, these cities and their villages.

17 ¶ The fourth lot came out to Issachar, even for the children of Issachar, according to their families.

18 And their coast was Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 And Haphraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and En Gannim, and En Hadhez, and Beth Pazzez.

22 And this coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh, and the ends of their coast reach to Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their coast was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, 26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Mishal, and came to Carmel Westward, and to Shihor Libnah,

27 And turneth toward the Sun rising to Beth Dagon, and cometh to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah El, toward the North side of Beth Emek, and Neiel, and goeth out on the left side of Cabul, 28 And to Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, unto great Sidon.

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah and to the strong city of Zor, and this border turneth to Hosah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea from Hebel to Achzib,

30 Ummah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twenty cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even to the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, and from Allon in Zaanannim, and Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, even to Lakkum, and the ends thereof are at Jordan.

34 So this coast turneth Westward to Aznoth Tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the South side, and goeth to Asher on the West side, and to Judah by Jordan toward the sun rising.

35 And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En Hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal El, Horem, and Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir Shemesh,

42 And Shaalbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalah,

45 And Jebud, and Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon,

46 And Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before Japho.

47 But the coast of the children of Dan fell out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote of Jiphthah El, toward the North side of Beth Emek, and Neiel, and goeth out on the left side of Cabul,

28 And to Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, unto great Sidon.

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah and to the strong city of Zor, and this border turneth to Hosah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea from Hebel to Achzib,

30 Ummah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twenty cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even to the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, and from Allon in Zaanannim, and Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, even to Lakkum, and the ends thereof are at Jordan.

34 So this coast turneth Westward to Aznoth Tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the South side, and goeth to Asher on the West side, and to Judah by Jordan toward the sun rising.

35 And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En Hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal El, Horem, and Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir Shemesh,

42 And Shaalbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalah,

45 And Jebud, and Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon,

46 And Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before Japho.

47 But the coast of the children of Dan fell out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, ‘Dan after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land by the coasts thereof, then the children of Israel gave an inheritance unto Joshua the son of Nun among them.

50 According to the word of the Lord they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath Serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city and dwelt therein.

51 These are the heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided by lot in Shiloh before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an end of dividing the country.

20 2 The Lord commandeth Joshua to appoint cities of refuge. 3 The use thereof. 7 and their names.

1 The Lord also spake unto Joshua, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say, ‘Appoint you cities of refuge, wherein he may flee from the hand of the avenger of blood;
3 That the slayer that killeth any person by ignorance, and unwittingly, may flee thither, and shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.
4 And he that doth flee unto one of those cities, shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall show his cause to the Elders of the city: and they shall receive him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell with them.
5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he smote his neighbor ignorantly, neither hated he him beforehand:
6 But he shall dwell in that city until he stand before the Congregation in judgment, or until the death of the high Priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, even unto the city from whence he fled.
7 ¶ Then they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba, (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah.

20:3 1 At unawares, and bearing him no grudge.
20:4 1 Hebrew, in the ears of the Elders.
20:5 1 That is, the nearest kinsman of him that is slain.
20:6 1 Till his cause were proved.
20:7 1 Or, Galilee.
20:8 1 Out of the half tribe of Manasseh beyond Jordan.

21:2 1 Before the Judges.
21:4 1 He meaneth them that were Priests: for some were but Levites.
21:8 1 By Moses, by whose ministry God showed his power.
21:9 1 Every tribe gave more or fewer cities according as their inheritance was great or little, Num. 35:8.
Simeon, these cities which are here named.
10 And they were the children of 1Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sons of Levi, (for theirs was the first lot.)
11 So they gave them Kirjath-arba of the father of Anak (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah, with the suburbs of the same round about it.
12 (But the land of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to 2Caleb the son of Jephunneh to be his possession.)
13 ¶ Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the Priest, a city of refuge for the slayer, even Hebron with her suburbs, and Libnah with her suburbs,
14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa, and her suburbs,
15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,
16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Juttah with her suburbs, Beth Shemesh with her suburbs: nine cities out of those two tribes.
17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin they gave Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs, 18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs: four cities.
19 All the cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.
20 ¶ But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Levites, 1which were the rest of the children of Kohath (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephraim.)
21 They gave them the city of refuge for the slayer, 1Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Jabez with her suburbs, and Beth Horon with her suburbs: four cities.
23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbs, Gibbethon with her suburbs, 24 Aijalon with her suburbs, Gath Rimmon with her suburbs: four cities.
25 And out of the 1half tribe of Manasseh, Ta-nach with her suburbs, and Gath Rimmon with her suburbs: two cities.
26 All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.
27 ¶ Also unto the children of Gershon of the families of the Levites, they gave out of the half tribe of Manasseh, the city of refuge for the slayer, 1Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Be Eshterah with her suburbs: two cities.
28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Daberath with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, En Gannim with her suburbs: four cities.
30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs: four cities.
32 And out of the tribe of Naphthal, the city of refuge for the slayer, Kedesh in 1Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammoth Dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs: three cities.
33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.
34 ¶ Also unto the families of the children of Merari the 1rest of the Levites, they gave out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs: four cities.
36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, 1Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahaz with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs: four cities.
38 And out of the tribe of Gad they gave for a city of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs: four cities in all.
40 So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Levites) were by their lot, twelve cities.
41 And all the cities of the Levites 1within the possession of the children of Israel, were eight and forty with their suburbs.
42 These cities lay every one severally with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities.
43 ¶ So the Lord gave unto Israel all the land, which he had sworn to give unto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.
44 Also the Lord gave them rest round about according to all that he had sworn unto their fathers.
and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 Because the Amorites dwelling there were called Canaanites.

22:10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built there an altar by the hand of Moses, a great altar to see too.

11 ¶ When the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, upon the borders of Jordan at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 Then the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest, 14 And with him ten princes, of every chief house according to all the tribes of Israel: for every one was chief of his father's household among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ So they went unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole Congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye have transgressed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from the Lord, in that ye have built you an altar for to worship other gods, whereof we are not cleansed unto this day, though a plague came upon the Congregation of the Lord?

17 Have we too little for the wickedness of Peor, whereof we are not cleansed unto this day, though a plague came upon the Congregation of the Lord?

18 Ye also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebel today against the Lord, even tomorrow he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, come ye over unto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lord's Tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebell not against the God of Israel.

20 ¶ And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to go unto the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

21 Their answer for defense of the same.

22 1 Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh are sent again to their possessions. 10 They build an altar for a memorial. 15 The Israelites reprove them. 21 Their answer for defense of the same.

1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 You have not forsaken your brethren this long season unto this day, but have diligently kept the commandment of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the Lord hath given you beyond Jordan.

5 But take diligent heed, to do the commandment and Law, which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you: that is, 1that ye 2love the Lord your God, and walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and cleave unto him, and serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua 3blessed them, and sent them away, and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ Now unto one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan: and unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan Westward: therefore when Joshua sent them away unto their tents, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattle, with silver and with gold, with brass and with iron, and with great abundance of raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to go unto the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

22:12 1 Such now was their zeal, that they would rather lose their lives, than suffer the true religion to be changed or corrupted.

22:14 1 Or, multitude.

22:16 1 Not only of the princes, but also of the common people.

22:17 1 Meaning, God is not fully pacified, forasmuch as no punishment can be sufficient for such wickedness and idolatry.

22:19 1 In your judgment.

2 To use any other service than God hath appointed, is to rebel against God, 1 Sam. 15:23.
22:20 Then Joshua called all Israel, and the princes of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, ‘they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is ‘among us, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: now ye have ‘delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel ‘blessed God, and ‘minded not threats, if they forsake him.

Joshua 22:20

22:20 Then Joshua called all Israel, and the princes of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, ‘they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is ‘among us, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: now ye have ‘delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel ‘blessed God, and ‘minded not threats, if they forsake him.

Joshua 22:20

22:20 Then Joshua called all Israel, and the princes of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, ‘they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is ‘among us, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: now ye have ‘delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel ‘blessed God, and ‘minded not threats, if they forsake him.

Joshua 22:20

22:20 Then Joshua called all Israel, and the princes of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, ‘they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is ‘among us, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: now ye have ‘delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel ‘blessed God, and ‘minded not threats, if they forsake him.
6 Be ye therefore of a valiant courage to observe and do all that is written in the book of the Law of Moses, that ye turn not there from to the right hand nor to the left,

7 Neither company with these nations: that is, with them that are left with you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow unto them:

8 But stick fast unto the Lord your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 For the Lord hath cast out before you great nations and mighty, and no man hath stood before you your face hitherto.

10 One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God he fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the Lord your God.

12 Else, if ye go back, and cleave unto the rest of these nations: that is, of them that remain with you, and shall make marriages with them, and go unto them, and they to you,

13 Know ye for certain, that the Lord your God will cast out no more of these nations from before you: but they shall be a snare and destruction unto you, and a whip on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish out of this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

14 And behold, this day do I enter into the way which the Lord your God hath commanded me; and ye shall go and serve other gods, and bow yourselves unto them, then shall the wrath of the Lord wax hot against you, and ye shall perish quickly out of the land which the Lord hath given you.

15 Therefore as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you, so shall the Lord bring upon you every evil thing, until he have destroyed you out of this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

16 When ye shall transgress the Covenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and shall go and serve other gods, and bow yourselves to them, then shall the wrath of the Lord wax hot against you, and ye shall perish quickly out of the good land which he hath given you.

24 2 Joshua rehearseth God's benefits, 14 and exhorteth the people to fear God. 25 The league renewed between God and the people. 29 Joshua dieth. 32 The bones of Joseph are buried. 33 Eleazar dieth.

1 And Joshua assembled again all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called the Elders of Israel, and their heads, and their Judges, and their officers, and they presented themselves before the Lord.

2 Then Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt beyond the flood in old time, even Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from beyond the flood, and brought him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac, Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it: but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt: and when I had so done among them, I brought you out.

6 So I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came unto the Sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the red Sea.

7 Then they cried unto the Lord, and he put a darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the Sea upon them, and covered them: so your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: also ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Jordan, and they fought with you: but I gave them into your hand, and ye possessed their country, and I destroyed them out of your sight.

9 Also Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent to Balaam the son of Beor to curse you,

10 But I would not hear Balaam: therefore he blessed you, and I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho, and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent hornets before you, which cast them out before you, even the two kings of the Amorites, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land, wherein ye did not labor, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them, and eat of the vineyards and olive trees, which ye planted not.

14 Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in uprightness and in truth, and put away the gods, which your fathers served beyond the flood, and in Egypt, and serve ye the Lord.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served (that were beyond the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but I and mine house will serve the Lord.

16 Then the people answered and said, God forbid, that we should forsake the Lord, to serve other gods.

17 For the Lord our God, he brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he did those great miracles in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went, and among all the people through whom we came.

18 And the Lord did cast out before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the Lord, for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the Lord: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God: he will not pardon your iniquity nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the Lord and serve strange gods, then he will return and bring evil upon you, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, We are witnesses.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses, that ye have chosen you the Lord, to serve him: and they said, We are witnesses.

23 Then put away now, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and bow your hearts unto the Lord God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people, and set them a statute and ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the Law of God and took a great stone, and pitched it there under an oak that was in the Sanctuary of the Lord.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us: for it hath heard all the words of the Lord which he spake with us: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.

28 Then Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And after these things, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the North side of mount Gaash.

31 And Israel served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the Lord that he had done for Israel.

32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in a parcel of ground, which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver, and the children of Joseph had them in their inheritance.

33 Also Eleazar the son of Aaron died, whom they buried in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.
After Joshua was dead, Judah was constituted captain. Adoni-Bezek is taken. The request of Achsah. The children of Keni. The Canaanites are made tributaries, but not destroyed.

1 After that Joshua was dead, the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites to fight first against them?
2 And the Lord said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have given the land into his hand.
3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot; so Simeon went with him.
4 Then Judah went up, and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.
5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.
6 But Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off the thumbs of his hands and of his feet.
7 And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy Kings having the thumbs of their hands and of their feet cut off, gathered bread under my table: as I have done, so God hath rewarded me, so they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
8 (Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and hasted it and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the city on fire.)
9 Afterward also the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and toward the South, and in the low country.
10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, which Hebron beforetime was called ‘Kirjath Arba: and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in old time was Kirjath Sepher.
12 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath Sepher, and taketh it, even to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.
13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz Caleb’s younger brother took it, to whom he gave Achsah his daughter to wife.
14 And when she came to him, she moved him to ask of her father a field, and she lighted off her ass, and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?
15 And she answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a South country, give me also Springs of water: and Caleb gave her the springs above, and the springs beneath.
16 And the children of Keni Moses’ father-in-law went up out of the city of the palm trees with the children of Judah, into the wilderness of Judah, that lieth in the South of Arad, and went and dwelt among the people.
17 But Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Jerusalem, and utterly destroyed it, and called the name of the city Hormah.
18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coasts thereof, and Ashkelon with the coasts thereof, and Ekron with the coasts thereof.
19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he possessed the mountains: for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valleys, because they had chariots of iron.
20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses had said, and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.
21 But the children of Benjamin did not cast out the Jebusites, that inhabited Jerusalem: therefore the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.
22 ¶ They also that were of the house of Joseph, went up to Bethel, and the Lord was with them, 23 And the house of Joseph caused to view Bethel (and the name of the city before time was Luz.) 24 And the spies saw a man come out of the city, and they said unto him, Show us, we pray thee, the way into the city, and we will show thee mercy. 25 And when he had showed them the way into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his household depart. 26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof unto this day. 27 ¶ Neither did Manasseh destroy Beth Shean with her towns, nor Taanach with her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her towns, neither the inhabitants of Megido with her towns: but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land. 28 Nevertheless when Israel was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

29 ¶ Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them. 30 ¶ Neither did Zebulun expel the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries. 31 ¶ Neither did Asher cast out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahab, nor of Achshib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob, 32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, and of Beth Anath became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites drove the children of Dan into the mountain: so that they suffered them not to come down to the valley. 35 And the Amorites dwelt still in mount Heres in Ajalon, and in Shaalbim, and when the hand of Joseph’s family prevailed, they became tributaries:

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from Maaleh-Akrabbim, even from Sela and upward.

1 2 And the Angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Canaanites. 11 The Israelites fell to idolatry after Joshua’s death. 14 They are delivered into the enemies’ hands: 16 God delivereth them by Judges. 21 Why God suffered idolaters to remain among them.

1 And an Angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I had sworn unto your fathers, and said, I will never break my covenant with you. 2 ‘Ye also shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land, but shall break down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice. Why have ye done this? 3 Wherefore, I said also, I will not cast them out before you, but they shall be thorns unto your sides, and their gods shall be your destruction. 4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these words unto all the children of Israel, the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 Therefore they called the name of that place, Bochim, and offered sacrifices there unto the Lord. 6 ¶ Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man into his inheritance, to possess the land.

7 And the people had served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that outlived Joshua, which had seen all the great works of the Lord that he did for Israel. 8 But Joshua the son of Nun the servant of the Lord died, when he was an hundred and ten years old: 9 And they buried him in the coasts of his inheritance, in Timnath Heres in mount Ephraim, on the North side of mount Gaash.

10 And so all that generation was gathered unto their fathers, and another generation arose after them, which neither knew the Lord, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. 11 ¶ Then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and served Baal,

12 And forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

13 So they forsook the Lord, and served Baal, and Ash­to­reth.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoili­ers, that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, and as the Lord had sworn unto them: so he punished them sore.

16 Notwithstanding, the Lord raised up Judges, which delivered them out of the hands of their oppressors.

17 But yet they would not obey their Judges for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

18 And when the Lord had raised them up Judges, the Lord was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the Judge (for the Lord had compassion of their groanings, because of them that oppressed them and tormented them.)

19 Yet when the Judge was dead, they returned, and did worse than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and worship them: they ceased not from their own inventions, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voice.

21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Joshua left when he died, that through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the Lord, to walk therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

22 So the Lord left those nations, and drove them not out immediately, neither delivered them into the hand of Joshua.

31 The Canaanites were left to try Israel. 9 Othniel deliver­eth Israel. 21 Ehud killeth King Eglon. 31 Shamgar

JUDGES 3:13

1 These now are the nations which the Lord left, that he might prove Israel by them (even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan,

2 Only to make the generations of the children of Israel to know, and to teach them war, which doubtless their predecessors knew not.)

3 Five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal Hermon until one come to Hamath.

4 And these remained to prove Israel by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgot the Lord their God, and served Baal, and Asherah.

8 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred up a Savior to the children of Israel, and he saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother.

10 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the Lord delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram into his hand, and his hand prevailed against Cushan-Rishathaim.

11 So the land had rest forty years, and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 Then the children of Israel again committed wickedness in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickedness before the Lord.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of
And Ehud came unto him, (and he sat alone and stood about him) went out from him.

And when he came past the quarries, and escaped unto Seirah, and took the key, and opened them, and behold, their mer chamber.

So Ehud escaped (while they tarried) and was lord was fallen dead on the earth.

And they tarried till they were ashamed: and
mer chamber.

Then he arose in a summer parlor, which he had) and Ehud said, I made a dagger with two edges of a cubit length, and he did gird it under his raiment right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present right hand unto Eglon king of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man.)

And when he was gone out, his servants came:
the doors of the parlor upon him, and locked them.

Then Ehud got him out into the porch, and shut the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into out of his throne.

the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

So that the haft went in after the blade, and the fat closed about the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

Then Ehud got him out into the porch, and shut
the doors of the parlor upon him, and locked them.

And when he was gone out, his servants came:
who seeing that the doors of the parlor were locked, they said, Surely 1he doeth his easement in his sum-and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O King. Who said, Keep silence: and all that stood about him went out from him.

But he turned again from the quarries, that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto him, and Ehud said, I have a message unto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne.

the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.

And when he came home, he blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountain, and he went before them.

Then said he unto them, Follow me: for the Lord hath delivered your enemies, even Moab into your hand. So they went down after him, and took the passages of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all fed men, and all were warriors, and there escaped not a man.

So Moab was subdued that day; under the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscore years.

And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an ox goad, and he also delivered Israel.

1 And the children of Israel began again to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehud was dead.
2 And the Lord sold them into the hand of Jabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose chief captain was called Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 Then the children of Israel cried unto the Lord:
(for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and twenty years he had vexed the children of Israel very sore.)
4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetess the wife of Lapidoth judged Israel.
5 And this Deborah dwelt under a palm tree, between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.
6 Then she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh of Naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun?
7 And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army with his chariots, and his multitude, and will deliver him into thine hand.
8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me,
I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go.
9 Then she answered, I will surely go with thee; but this journey that thou takest, shall not be for thine honor: for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and 1he went up on his feet with ten thousand men, and Deborah went up with him.

11 (Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of 2Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, was departed from the 2Kenites, and pitched his tent 3until the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.)

12 Then they showed Sisera, that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera called for all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him from Harosheth of the Gentiles, unto the river Kishon.

14 Then Deborah said unto Barak, 4Up: for this is the day that the Lord hath delivered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the Lord destroyed Sisera and all his chariots, and all his host with the edge of the sword, before Barak, so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword: there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of 1Heber the Kenite: (for peace was between Jabin the king of Hazor, and between the house of Heber the Kenite.)

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn into me: fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into her tent, she covered him with a 1mantel.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink: for I am thirsty. And she opened 2a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and when any man doth come and inquire of thee, saying, Is there any man there? thou shalt say, Nay.

21 Then Jael Heber’s wife took a 3nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground, (for he was fast asleep and weary) and so he died.

5 Then sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam the same day, saying,

1 Then sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam, and said, 4Sing ye that ride on white asses, ye that dwell in the cities of Shechem, give him praise.

2 Praise ye the Lord for the victory, and for the conflagration, according to the spoils of the sea.

3 Hear, ye kings, hearken ye princes: I, even I will sing unto the Lord: I will sing praise unto the Lord God of Israel.

4 Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the field of 4Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens rained, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted before the Lord, 4as did that Sinai before the Lord God of Israel.

6 In the days of 4Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of 4Jael, the highways were 4unoccupied, and the travelers walked through byways.

7 The towns were not inhabited: they decayed, and the travelers walked through byways.

8 They chose new gods: then was war in the gates. Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand of Israel?

9 Mine heart is set on the governors of Israel, and on them that are willing among the people: praise ye the Lord.

10 Speak ye that ride on white asses, ye that dwell by Midinn, and that walk by the way.

4:10 1 Or, he led after him 10,000 men.

4:11 1 Or, postently.

2 Hebrew, from Cain.

3 Meaning, that he possessed a great part of that country.

4:14 1 She still encourageth him to this enterprise by assuring him of God’s favor and aid.

4:17 1 Whose ancestors were strangers, but worshipped the true God, and therefore were joined with Israel.

4:18 1 Or, blanket.

4:20 1 To wit, Sisera.

5:21 1 That is, the pin or stake, whereby it was fastened to the ground.

5:22 1 So he saw that a woman had the honor, as Deborah prophesied.

5:24 1 Hebrew, went and was strong.

5:25 1 To wit, the two tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali.

5:26 1 For fear of the enemies.

5:27 1 Miraculously stirred up of God to pity them and deliver them.

5:28 1 They had no heart to resist their enemies.

5:10 1 Ye governors.

2 As in danger of your enemies.
11 For the noise of the archers appraised among the drawers of water: there shall they rehearse the righteousness of the Lord, his righteousness of his towns in Israel: then did the people of the Lord go down to the gates.
12 Up Deborah, up, arise, and sing a song: arise Barak, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.
13 For they that remain, have dominion over the mighty of the people: the Lord hath given me dominion over the strong.
14 Of Ephraim their root arose against Amalek: and after thee Benjamin shall fight against thy people, O Amalek, of Machir came rulers, and of Zebulun, they that handle the pen of the writer.
15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah, and Issachar, and also Barak: he was set on his feet in the valley: for the divisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.
16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? for the divisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.
17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why doth Jael dwell in tents?
18 But the people of Zebulun and Naphtali have jeopardized their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.
19 The Kings came and fought: then fought the Kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: they received no gain of money.
20 They fought from heaven, even the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.
21 The River Kishon swept them away, that ancient river the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast marched valiantly.
22 Then were the horse hoofs broken with the oft beating together of their mighty men.
23 Curse ye Meroz: (said the Angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitants thereof, because they came not to help the Lord, to help the Lord against the mighty.
24 Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite shall be blessed above other women: blessed shall she be above women dwelling in tents.
25 He asked water, and she gave him milk: she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.
26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman’s hammer: with the hammer smote she Sisera: she smote off his head, after she had wounded and pierced his temples.
27 He bowed him down at her feet, he fell down, and lay still: at her feet he bowed him down, and fell: and when he had sunk down, he lay there dead.
28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long a coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?
29 Her wise ladies answered her, Yea. She answered herself with her own words, 30 Have they not gotten, and they divide the spoil? every man hath a maid or two. Sisera hath a prey of diverse colored garments, a prey of sundry colors made of needle work: of diverse colors of needle work on both sides, for the chief of the spoil.
31 So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but they that love him, shall be as the Sun when he riseth in his might, and the land had rest forty years.

6 1 Israel is oppressed of the Midianites for their wickedness. 14 Gideon is sent to be their deliverer. 37 He asketh a sign.

1 Afterward the children of Israel committed wickedness in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord gave them into the hands of Midian seven years.
2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel, and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them dens in the mountains, and caves, and strongholds.
3 When Israel had sown, then came up the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came upon them.
4 And camped by them, and destroyed the fruit of the earth, even till thou came unto Gaza, and left no food for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.
5 For they went up, and their cattle, and came with their tents as grasshoppers in multitude: so that they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it.

5:11 1 For now you may draw water without fear of your enemies.
5:12 1 To wit, them that kept thy people in captivity.
5:14 1 Joshua first fought against Amalek, and Saul destroyed him. 2 Even the learned did help to fight.
5:15 1 Even the whole tribe.
5:17 1 She reproveth all them that came not to help their brethren in their necessity.
5:19 1 They won nothing, but lost all.
5:21 1 As a besom doeth the filth of the house.
5:23 1 It was a city near to Tabor, where they fought.
5:25 1 Some read churned milk in a great cup.
5:27 1 Hebrew, destroyed.
5:28 1 Or, feet.
5:29 1 That is, she comforted herself.
5:30 1 Because he was chief of the army.
5:31 1 Shall grow daily more and more in God’s favor.
6:2 1 For fear of the Midianites, they fled into the dens of the mountains.
6:3 1 Or, of Kedem.
6:4 1 Even almost the whole country.
6 So was Israel exceedingly impoverished by the Midianites: therefore the 'children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

7 ¶ And when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord because of the Midianites,

8 The Lord sent unto the children of Israel a Prophet, who said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have brought you up from Egypt, and have brought you out of the house of bondage,

9 And I have delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and have cast them out before you, and given you your land.

10 And I said unto you, I am the Lord your God: ‘fear not the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the father of the Abiezrites, and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, ‘to hide it from the Midianites.

12 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

13 ’To whom Gideon answered, ‘Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this come upon us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, and said, Did not the Lord bring us out of Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hand of the Midianites.

14 And the ‘Lord looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy ‘might, and thou shalt save Israel out of the hands of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shall I save Israel? behold, my ‘father is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.

16 Then the Lord said unto him, I will therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he answered him, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, then show me ‘a sign, that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come again.

19 ¶ Then Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened bread of an ‘Ephah of flour, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened bread, and lay them upon this stone, and pour out the broth: and he did so.

21 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened bread: and there arose up fire ‘out of the stone, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened bread, so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then said, Alas, my Lord God: ‘for because I have seen an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shall die.

23 And the Lord said unto him, Peace be unto thee: ‘fear not, thou shalt not die.

24 ‘Then Gideon made an altar there unto the Lord, and called it ‘Jehovah Shalom: unto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Abiezrites.

25 ¶ And the same night the Lord said unto him, Take thy father’s young bullock, and another bullock ‘of seven years old, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it,

26 And build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this rock, in a plain place: and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the ‘grove, which thou shalt cut down.

27 ‘Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord bade him: but because he feared to do it by day for his father’s household and the men of the city, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken, and the grove cut down that was by it, and the second bullock offered upon the altar that was made.

29 ‘Therefore they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? and when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 ‘Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath also cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood by him, Will ye plead Baal’s cause? or will ye save him? ‘he that 6:6 1 This is the end of God’s punishments, to call his to repentance, that they may seek for help of him.

6:11 1 Or, to prepare his flight.

6:13 1 This came not of distrust, but of weakness of faith, which is in the most perfect: for no man in this life can have a perfect faith: yet the children of God have a true faith, whereby they be justified.

6:14 1 That is, Christ appearing in visible form.

6:17 1 So that we see how the flesh is enemy unto God’s vocation, which cannot be persuaded without signs.

6:19 1 Of Ephah, read Exod. 16:37.

6:21 1 By the power of God only, as in the sacrifice of [Elijah], 1 Kings 18:38.

6:24 1 Or, the Lord of peace.

6:25 1 That is, as the Chaldea text writeth, fed seven years.

6:26 1 Which grew about Baal’s altar.

6:28 1 Meaning, the fat bull, which was kept to be offered unto Baal.

6:31 1 Thus we ought to justify them that are zealous of God’s cause, though all the multitude be against us.
will contend for him, let him die or the morning. If he be God, let him plead for himself against him that hath cast down his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Jerubbaal, that is, Let Baal plead for himself because he hath broken down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon 'and he blew a trumpet, and 'Abiezer was joined with him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, which was also joined with him, and he sent messengers unto Asher, and to Zebulun and to Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

36 Then Gideon said unto God, 'If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece only and it be dry upon all the earth, then shall I be sure, that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And so it was: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bowl of water.

39 Again, Gideon said unto God, Be not angry with me, that I may speak once more: let me prove once again, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and let dew be upon all the ground.

40 And God did so the same night: for it was dry only upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

The Lord commandeth Gideon to send away a great part of his company.

22 The Midianites are discomfited by a wondrous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeeb are slain.

1 Then Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose up early, and called Zebulun and Menasha; and said unto them, Arise, get thee down to the host: for I have delivered the Midianites into thine hand.

2 And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouths, were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people knelled down upon their knees to drink water.

3 Now therefore proclaim in the audience of the people, and say, Who so is timorous or fearful, let him return, and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people which were at mount Gilead, two and twenty thousand: so ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This man shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee: and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This man shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water. And the Lord said unto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues, as a dog lappeth, them put by themselves, and everyone that shall bow down his knees to drink, 'put apart.

6 And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouths, were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people knelled down upon their knees to drink water.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Gideon, By these three hundred men that lapped, will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 ¶ So the people took victuals with them, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and 'retained the three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

9 ¶ And the same night the Lord said unto him, Arise, ‘get thee down unto the host: for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, 'then go thou, and Purah thy servant down to the host,

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shalt thine hand be strong to go down unto the host. Then went he down and Purah his servant unto the outside of the soldiers that were in the host.

12 ¶ And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all ‘they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the seaside for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, a man told a dream unto his neighbor, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream and lo, a ‘cake of barley bread tumbled from above into the host of Midian, and came into a tent, and smote it that it fell, and over turned it, that the tent fell down.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian and all the host.

15 ¶ When Gideon heard the dream told, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped, and returned unto the host of Israel, and said, Up: for the Lord hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three bands, and gave every man a trumpet in his hand with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise, when I come to the side of the host: even as I do, so do you.

18 When I blow with a trumpet and all that are with me, blow ye with trumpets also on every side of the host, and say, 'For the Lord, and for Gideon.'

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the host, in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised up the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their right hands to begin the middle watch, and they raised up the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

21 And they stood, every man in his place round about the host: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, and the sword of the Lord set every man's sword upon his neighbor, and upon all the host: so the host fled to Beth Hashittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel Meholah, unto Tabbath.

23 Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers unto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth Barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and took the waters unto Beth Barah, and Jordan.

25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb, and slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and slew Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond Jordan.

1 Then the men of Ephraim said unto him, 'Why hast thou served us thus that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chide with him sharply:

2 'To whom he said, What have I now done, in comparison of you? is not the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better, than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶ And Gideon came to Jordan to pass over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, 'morsels of bread unto the people 'that follow me (for they be weary) that I may follow after Zebah and Zalmunna Kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 Gideon then said, Therefore when the Lord hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, I will tear your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and with briars.

8 ¶ And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise, and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth answered.

9 And he said also unto the men of Penuel, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand, all that were left of all the hosts of them of the East:

for there was slain an hundred and twenty thousand men, that drew swords.

11 ¶ And Gideon went through them that dwelt in 1Tabernacles on the East side of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was careless.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ So Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, 1the sun being yet high,

14 And took a servant of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he 1wrote to him the princes of Succoth and the Elders thereof, even seventy and seven men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah, and Zalmunna, by whom ye upbraided me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah, and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy weary men?

16 Then he took the Elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and 1did tear the men of Succoth with them.

17 Also he brake down the tower of 1Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they, whom ye upbraided me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah, and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy weary men?

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even my 1mother's children: as the Lord liveth, if ye had saved their lives, I would not slay you.

20 Then he said unto Jether his firstborn son, Up, and slay them: but the boy drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou up, and smite the host: for the host was careless.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Reign thou over us, both thou, and thy son and thy 1son's son: for thou hast delivered us out of the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not reign over you, neither shall my child reign over you, but the Lord shall reign over you.

24 Again Gideon said unto them, 1I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his prey (for they [had] golden earrings because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he required, was a thousand and seven hundred 1shekels of gold, beside collars 1and jewels, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about the camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an 1Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his city: and all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

28 Thus was Midian brought low before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more: and the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went, and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had seventy sons 1begotten of his body: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, bare him a son also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Gideon the son of Joash died in a good age, and was buried in the sepulcher of Joash his father in Ophrah, of the 1father of the Abiezrites.

33 But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baal, and made 1Baal-Berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, which had delivered them out of all their enemies on every side.

35 Neither 1showed they mercy on the house of Jerubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed unto Israel.

Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his "mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family, and house of his mother's father, saying, 1

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are seventy persons, reign over you, either that one reign over you? Remember also, that I am your "bone, and your flesh.

3 Then his mother's brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these words: and their hearts were moved to follow Abimelech: for said they, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-Berith, wherewith Abimelech hired "vain and light fellows which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren, the sons of Jerubbaal, about seventy persons upon one stone: yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left: for he hid himself.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of 1Millo, and came and made Abimelech King in the plain, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The trees went forth to anoint a King over them, and said unto the Olive tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the Olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and be king over us.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to advance me above the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and be king over us.

13 But the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, whereby I cheer God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the "bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If ye will indeed anoint me king over you, come, and put your trust under my shadow: and if not, the "fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the Cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye do truly and incorruptly to make Abimelech King, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and with his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands, 17 (For my father fought for you, and "adventured his life, and delivered you out of the hands of Midian.

18 And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his children, "about seventy persons upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother.)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and purely with Jerubbaal, and with his house this day, then 'rejoice ye with Abimelech, and let him rejoice with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo: also let a fire come forth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned three years over Israel.

23 But God 'sent an evil spirit between Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech, 24 That the cruelty toward the seventy sons of Jerubbaal and their blood might come and be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which had slain them, and upon the men of Shechem, which had aided him to kill his brethren.

25 So the men of Shechem set men in wait for him in the tops of the mountains: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they 'went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merry, and went into the house of their gods, and came and told Abimelech.

28 Then went Gaal and his brethren, and came and saw the people of Shechem, and said, Who is Abimelech's brother? And they answered, He is their brother. And Gaal set men in wait against Abimelech.

29 And it came to pass, when Abimelech was told of it, that he gathered all that were about him, and passed over to Shechem.

30 And the people of Shechem gathered themselves together, and chose seven thors, which were thors of the men of Shechem, to give them into the hand of Abimelech.

31 And the thors of Shechem went out, and put the thors in the hand of Abimelech, and his brethren: and his brethren did the same.

32 And they said unto Abimelech, Send men every where throughout the borders of thy kingdom; that we may give every man of us ten pieces of silver, that he may set grain in his loins, and wine and oil in his wrists.

33 Then was Abimelech a strong man: he reigned over Israel three years.

34 And Abimelech did good unto the people in peace.

35 But Zebul the son of Corah rose up against Abimelech his brother in Shechem, he and all the men of Shechem, which were with him.

36 So all the thors of Shechem came out, and put their hands to the thors of Abimelech.

37 Then he that was in Abimelech's house told him, saying, Hearth, Zebul is rising up against thee, and all the men of Shechem are with him.

38 And Abimelech went to the thors, he and all the people that were with him, from the face of Zebul, and encamped beside Shechem.

39 And Zebul mocked Abimelech, and said, Is this thy face of my lord Abimelech, to go down to me to mine hand?

40 And Abimelech said to Zebul, Who is on the part of thee, that I should be thus dealt with by thee?

41 And Zebul answered, He is on the part of them that dealt falsely with thee, and with thee, and with all the thors that are with thee: for when did any of all the thors of the house of thy father go out and help thee?

42 But this thing is not so; Zebul spake spitefully against Abimelech.

43 And Abimelech said to Zebul, Who is on the part of me, and who is on the part of Zebul?

44 And he that is on the part of Abimelech shal be as Zebul, and he that is on the part of Zebul shal be as Abimelech.

45 And all the thors that were with Abimelech went up from Shechem, and set them by Abimelech in the face of Zebul, and they fought with Zebul, and overthrew him: and Abimelech smote thirty and six thors of Zebul.

46 And Abimelech went from thence to the strong place that is in the field of Ophrah, which pertaining to Jerubbaal.

47 And a strong门 came out of the city and smote Abimelech, so that he fled: and he went to the two towers.

48 And Abimelech came to mount Peniel, and all his men of war with him: and the Philistines pursued after him.

49 And Abimelech said to his men of war, "If today God be with us, then we be sure that in all where we go into battle we shall be saved.

50 So when all the thors that were with Abimelech went out from him, and joined themselves unto Abimelech, he went out, and smote the thors of thangs.

51 But Abimelech dwelt at Arad in Mount Zpherah.

52 And Zebul the son of Corah gathered together all the men of thorns that were in thorns, who were thors of thorns in the field, and they went up to thorns by thorns, and smote Abimelech and his men.

53 Abimelech was wounded to death by a woman.

43 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and said to his brethren that were with him by night: and they lay in wait against thee, do to him what thou canst.

44 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serve rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

And Zebul said unto him, The tops of the mountains: and Zebul said unto him, The 44 And Abimelech, and the bands that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other bands ran upon all the people that were in the field, and slew them.

46 Now would God this people were under mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

47 Then Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come folk down by the middle of the land, and another band cometh by the way of the plain of Meonenim.

48 And his page 1thrust him through, and he died.

49 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard it, they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and besieged Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all the chiefs of the city, and shut it to them, and went up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to set it on fire.

10 And the Lord said unto the children of Israel, have forsaken our own God, and have served Baal. saying, We have sinned against thee, even because we have forsaken thee, and have served other gods: Wherefore I will deliver you no more.

11 Go, and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen: let them save you in the time of your tribulation.

12 Then the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever pleaseth thee: only we pray thee to deliver us this day.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: Wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go, and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen: let them save you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever pleaseth thee: only we pray thee to deliver us this day.

16 Then they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Israel assembled themselves, and pitched themselves together, and pitched in Gilead: and the people gathered idle fellows to Jephthah, and went out with him.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoever will begin the battle against the children of Ammon, the same shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

19 And Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there gathered idle fellows to Jephthah, and went out with him.

20 And in process of time, the children of Ammon made war with Israel.

21 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

22 He said unto them, Did not I say unto you, Ye shall not go out into battle?

23 And they answered, We have heard it, but we will go out into battle.

24 Then he said unto them, I will go out with you; but I will not be captain over you; go out, and fight against the children of Ammon; only the thing that I shall say unto you must ye do.

25 And Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought against the Ammonites.

26 And the Ammonites were subdued before the children of Israel; and they pursued them to Gilead.

27 And Jephthah went over to the children of Ammon, and said unto them, Why have ye come up against me, to fight against me? What have I done against you, that ye are come against me to fight against me?

28 And they said unto him, We were compelled to come up against thee, because the Lord our gods hath delivered thee into our hand. But now we are come up to thee, as thy servants.

29 And Jephthah said unto them, When ye came over against me at first, I stood on the top of Mount Pineda.

30 And ye spake against me, and said, We will come up against thee, as thy servants. Now therefore come up, according to the words of your servants.

31 And it shall be, when ye come over against him, that ye shall compass the city, and smite it with the edge of the sword; the women and the little ones and the old men ye shall not strike: but only the young men ye shall strike to the ground.

32 And he said, So shall it be done when the Lord shall deliver them into the hand of us the children of Israel, whether I be in my place, or whether I be in thy place.

33 And Jephthah appointed a certain day, and said unto the people, Stand on this side, and I will stand on the other side.

34 And when Jephthah was come over against the children of Ammon, the children of Ammon fought against him, and he fought against them.

35 Then Jephthah kneeled down on his feet, and stretched out his hands toward the Lord: and he said, O Lord God of hosts, if thou wilt only give me victory to day in the fight against the children of Ammon.

36 Then the Lord gave Jephthah victory over the children of Ammon.

37 And Jephthah said unto the Lord, I have this day availed myself of the things which thou hast spoken. Now therefore, I am come, and I have seen the children of Ammon, which have come against thee.

38 And Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought against the children of Ammon; and the Lord delivered them into his hand. And he smote them in Gilead down even unto Hormah.
6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Jephthah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? how then come you unto me now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord give them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The Lord be witness between us, if we do not according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah rehearsed all his words before the Lord in Mizpah.

12 ¶ Then Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, ‘Because Israel took my land, when they came up from Egypt, from Arnon unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands quietly.

14 Yet Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon, 15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, ‘Israel took not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the red sea, then they came to Kadesh.

17 And Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, go through thy land: but the king of Edom would not consent: and also they sent unto the king of Moab, but he would not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the Eastside of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel sent messengers unto Sihon, king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, by thy land unto our place.

20 But Sihon consented not to Israel, that he should go through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gave Sihon, and all his folk into the hands of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country:

22 And they possessed all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wouldst not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the Lord our God driveth out before us, them will we possess.

25 And art thou now far better than Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab? did he not strive with Israel and fight against them, 26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her towns, and in Arero and in her towns, and in all the cities that are by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why did ye not then recover them in that space?

27 Wherefore I have not offended thee: but thou dost me wrong to war against me. The Lord the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah, and he passed over to Gilead, and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpah in Gilead, and from Mizpah in Gilead he went unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then that thing that cometh out of the doors of mine house to meet me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lord's, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Jephthah went unto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer even till thou come to Minnith, twenty cities, and so forth to Abel of the vineyards, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ Now when Jephthah came to Mizpah unto his house, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dances, which was his only child: he had none other son, nor daughter.

35 And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me low, and art of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do thus much for me: suffer me two months, that I may go to the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

37 Also she said unto her father, Do thus much for me: suffer me two months, that I may go to the mountains, and lamented her virginity upon the mountains.

38 And he said, Go: and he sent her away two months: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And after the end of two months, she turned again unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed, and she had known no man. And it was a custom in Israel:

40 The daughters of Israel went year by year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

12:1 6 Jephthah killeth two and forty thousand Ephraimites. 8 After Jephthah succeedeth Ibzan, 11 Elon. 13 and Abdon.

1 And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went Northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will therefore burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon, and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 So when I saw that ye delivered me not, 1 I put my life in mine hands, and went upon the children of Ammon: so the Lord delivered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are ye come upon me now to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Ephraimites are runagates of Ephraim 1 among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 Also the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, said, Let me pass, then the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay,

6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Shibboleth: for he could not so pronounce: then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites two and forty thousand.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 ¶ After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel,

9 Who had thirty sons and thirty nephews, which he sent out, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons: and he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethel. 11 ¶ And after him judged Israel Elon, a Zebulunite, and he judged Israel ten years.

12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him judged Israel Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty nephews that rode on seventy asscots: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 Then died Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

Lord. 24 The birth of Samson.

1 But the children of Israel continued to commit "wickedness in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 ¶ Then there was a man in Zorah of the family of the Danites named Manoah, whose wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.

4 And now therefore beware 'that thou drink no wine, nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing.

5 For lo, thou shalt conceive and bear a son, and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a 'Nazirite unto God from his birth: and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the wife came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of the Angel of God exceedingly fearful, but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name,

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive and bear a son, and now thou shalt drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah *prayed to the Lord, and said, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whom thou sentest, come again now unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child when he is born.

9 And God heard the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came again unto the wife, as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 ¶ And the wife made haste and ran, and showed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me 'today.

11 And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spaketh unto the woman? and he said, Yea.

12 Then Manoah said, Now let thy saying come to pass: but how shall we order the child and do unto him?

13 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I said unto her.

14 She may eat of nothing that cometh of the vine tree: she shall not drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat any 'unclean thing: let her observe all that I have commanded her.

15 Manoah then said unto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let us retain thee, until we have made ready a kid for thee.

16 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eat of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it unto the Lord: for Manoah knew not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

17 Again Manoah said unto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to pass, we may honor thee?

18 And the Angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secret?

19 Then Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a stone unto the Lord: and the Angel did 'wondrously, while Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For when the flame came up toward heaven from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended up in the flame of the altar, and Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fell on their faces unto the ground.

21 (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appear unto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knew that it was an Angel of the Lord.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, 'We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the Lord would kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering, and a meat offering of our hands, neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would now have told us any such.

24 ¶ And the wife bore a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the Lord blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the Lord began to strengthen him in the host of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

26 And Manoah knew that his son was appointed by God for a specific purpose, and the Lord was with him. The child had a special mission, and the Lord was with him throughout his life. The child was to be a Nazirite, set apart for God from birth, to serve as a means of deliverance for Israel from the Philistines. The child was to abstain from certain foods and drinks, and was to have a special relationship with God. The child was to be a sign of God's love and deliverance for Israel.
a riddle. 19 He killeth thirty. 20 His wife forsaketh him, and taketh another.

1 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines,
2 And he came up and told his father and his mother and said, I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore give me her to wife.
3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a wife among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Give me her, for she pleareth me well.
4 But his father and his mother knew not that it came of the Lord, that he should seek an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines reigned over Israel.
5 ¶ Then went Samson, and his father and his mother down to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah: and behold, a young lion roared upon him.
6 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he tare him, as one should have rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done.
7 And he went down, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samson.
8 ¶ And within a few days, when he returned to receive her, he went aside to see the carcass of the lion: and behold, there was a swarm of bees, and honey in the body of the lion.
9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gave unto them, and they did eat: but he told not them, that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.
10 So his father went down unto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so used the young men to do.
11 And when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.
12 Then Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: and if you can declare it me within seven days of the feast, and find it out, I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments.

13 But if you cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.
14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came meat, and out of the strong came sweetness: and they could not in three days expound the riddle.
15 And when the seventh day was come, they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thine husband that he may declare us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Have ye called us to possess us? is it not so?
16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me, and lovest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?
17 Then Samson's wife wept before him, seven days, while their feast lasted, and when the seventh day came, he told her, because she was importunate upon him: so she told the riddle to the children of her people.
18 And the men of the city said unto him the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a Lion? Then said he unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.
19 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them and spoiled them, and gave change of garments unto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.
20 Then Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

15 4 Samson tiseth firebrands to the foxes' tails. 6 The Philistines burnt his father-in-law and his wife. 15 With the jawbone of an ass he killeth a thousand men. 19 Out of a great tooth in the jaw God gave him water.

1 But within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I will go in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to go in.
2 And her father said, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gave I her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of the other. 3 Then Samson said unto them, Now am I more blameless than the Philistines: therefore will I do them displeasure.

4 ¶ And Samson went out, and took three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned them tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails. 5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the ricks and the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. Then the Philistines came up and burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and then I will cease. 8 So he smote them hip and thigh with a mighty strength, and said, Rejoice, O ye Philistines, mine hand shall be with the Philistines.

9 Then the Philistines came up, and pitched in Judah, and were spread abroad in Lehi. 10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up unto us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, and to do to him as he hath done to us. 11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? Wherefore then hast thou done thus unto us? And he answered them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 Again they said unto him, We will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him from the rock. 13 And they answered him, saying, No, but we will bind thee and deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. 14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him, and the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms, became as flax that was burnt with fire: for the bands loosed from his hands.

15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hands, and caught it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 Then Samson said, With the jaw of an ass are heaps upon heaps: with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place, Ramath Lehi.

18 And he was sore athirst, and called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 Then God brake the cheek tooth, that was in the jaw, and water came there out: and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he was revived: wherefore the name thereof is called, En Hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

16 Samson carrieth away the gates of Gaza. 18 He was deceived by Delilah. 30 He pulleth down the house upon the Philistines, and dieth with them.

1 Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. 2 And it was told to the Gazites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, Abide till the morning early, and we shall kill him. 3 And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gates of the city and the two posts, and lifted them away with the bars, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron. 4 And after this he loved a woman by the river of Sorek, whose name was Delilah:

5 Unto whom came the princes of the Philistines, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may overcome him, that we may bind him, and punish him, and every one of us shall give thee eleven hundred shekels of silver.
6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound, to do thee hurt.

7 Samson then answered unto her, If they bind me with seven green cords, that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 And the princes of the Philistines brought her seven green cords that were not dry, and she bound him therewith.

9 (And she had men lying in wait with her in the chamber) Then she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the cords, as a thread of tow is broken, when it feeleth fire: so his strength was not known.

10 ¶ After Delilah said unto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies. I pray thee now, tell me where thou mightest be bound.

11 Then he answered her, If they bind me with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: (and men lay in wait in the chamber) and he brake them from his arms, as a thread.

13 ¶ Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto thou hast baulked me, and told me lies: tell me how thou mightest be bound. 1 And he said unto her, If thou plattedst seven locks of mine head with the threads of the woof.

14 And she fastened it with a pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the web, and the woof.

15 Again she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And because she was importunate upon him with her words continually, and vexed him, his soul was pained unto the death.

17 Therefore he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There never came razor upon mine head: for I am a Nazirite unto God from my mother's womb: therefore if I be shaven, my strength will go from me, and I shall be weak and be like all other men.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent, and called for the princes of the Philistines, saying, Come up once again: for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees, and she called a man, and made him to shave off the seven locks of his head, and she began to vex him, and his strength was gone from him.

20 Then she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and thought, I will go out now as at other times, and shake myself, but he knew not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters: and he did grind in the prison house.

22 And the hair of his head began to grow again after that it was shaven.

23 Then the princes of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hands.

24 Also when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our country, which hath slain many of us.

25 And when their hearts were merry, they said, Call Samson, that he may make us pastime: So they called Samson out of the prison house, and he was a laughing stock unto them, and they set him between the pillars.

26 Then Samson said unto the servant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth upon, and that I may lean to them.

27 (Now the house was full of men and women, and there were all the princes of the Philistines: also upon the roof were about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson played)

28 Then Samson called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, I pray thee, think upon me: O God, I beseech thee, strengthen me at this time only, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson laid hold on the two middle pillars whereupon the house stood, and on which it was borne up: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

30 Then said Samson, 'Let me lose my life with the Philistines: and he bowed him with all his might, and the house fell upon the princes, and upon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he had slain in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the sepulcher of Manoah his father: now he had judged Israel twenty years.

17 3 Micah’s mother according to her vow, made her son two idols. 5 He made his son a Priest for his idols, 10 and after he hired a Levite.

1 There 1was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah,

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, and spakest it, even in mine hearing, behold, the silver is with me, I took it. Then his mother said, Blessed be my son of the Lord.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had dedicated the silver to the Lord of mine hand for my son, to make 1a graven and molten image. Now therefore I will give it thee again.

4 And when he had restored the money unto his mother, his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, which made thereof a graven and molten image, and it was in the house of Micah.

5 And this man Micah had an house of gods, and made an 1Ephod, and 2Teraphim, and 3consecrated one of his sons, who was his Priest.

6 1In those days there was no 1King in Israel, but every man did that which was good in his own eyes.

7 ¶ There was also a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, 1of the family of Judah: who was a Levite, and sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city, even out of Bethlehem Judah, to dwell where he could find a place: and as he journeyed, he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And the Levite answered him, 1I come from Bethlehem Judah, and go to dwell where I may find a place.

10 Then Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a Priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by year, and a suit of apparel, and thy meat and drink. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was 1content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his own sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man was his Priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now I know that the Lord will be 1good unto me, seeing I have a Levite to my Priest.

18 2 The children of Dan send men to search the land. 11 Then come the six hundred and take the gods, and the Priest of Micah away. 27 They destroy Laish, 28 They build it again. 30 And set up Idolatry.

1 In those days there was no 1king in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that time all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their family, five men out of their coasts, even men expert in war, out of Zorah and Eshtaol, to view the land and search it out, and said unto them, ‘Go, and search out the land. Then they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah and lodged there.

3 When they were in the house of Micah, they knew the 1voice of the young man the Levite: and being turned in thither, they said unto him, Who brought thee hither? or what maketh thou in this place? and what hast thou to do here?
And he answered them, Thus and thus: dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest.

Again they said unto him, Ask counsel now of God, that we may know whether the way which we go, shall be prosperous.

And the Priest said unto them, Go in peace: for the Lord guideth your way which ye go.

Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, which dwelt careless, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and sure, because no man made any trouble in the land, or usurped any dominion: also they were far from the Sidonians, and had no business with other men.

¶ So they came again unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What have ye done?

And they answered, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and surely it is very good, and do ye sit still? be not slothful to go and enter to possess the land:

(If ye will go, ye shall come unto a careless people, and the country is large) for God hath given it into your hand. It is a place which doth lack nothing that is in the world.

¶ Then there departed thence of the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with instruments of war.

And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath Jearim in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh Dan unto this day: and it is behind Kirjath Jearim.

And they went thence unto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Know ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a graven and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye have to do.

And they turned thitherward and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him peaceably.

And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

Then the five men that went to spy out the land, went in thither, and took the graven image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

And the other went into Micah's house, and set the graven image, the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the Priest unto them, What do ye?

And they answered him, Hold thy peace: lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and come with us to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldest be a Priest unto the house of one man, or that thou shouldest be a Priest unto a tribe and to a family in Israel?

And the Priest's heart was glad, and he took the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the graven image, and went among the people.

And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattle, and the substance before them.

¶ When they were far off from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan,

And cried unto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee that thou makest an outcry?

And he said, Ye have taken away my gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your ways: and what have I more? how then say ye unto me, What aileth thee?

And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life with the lives of thine household.

So the children of Dan went their ways: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

And they took the things which Micah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a quiet people, and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire:

And there was none to help, because Laish was far from Sidon, and they had no business with other men: also it was in the valley that lieth by Beth Rehob. After, they built the city, and dwelt therein,

And called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was born unto

JUDGES 18:30

Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the beginning.

30 Then the children of Dan set them up the graven image: and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, and his sons were the Priests in the tribe of the Danites, until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 So they set them up the graven image, which Micah had made, all the while the house of God was in Shiloh.

1 A Levite's wife being an harlot forsook her husband, and he took her again. 25 At Gibeah she was most villainously abused to the death. 29 The Levite cutteth her pieces, and sendeth her to the twelve tribes.

1 Also in those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite dwelt on the side of mount Ephraim, and took to wife a concubine out of Bethlem Judah,

2 And his concubine played the whore there, and went away from him unto her father's house to Bethlem Judah, and there continued the space of four months.

3 And her husband arose and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again: he had also his servant with him, and a couple of asses:

4 And his father-in-law, the young woman's father received him: and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 ¶ And when the fourth day came, they arose early in the morning, and he prepared to depart: then the young woman's father said unto him his concubine's father unto his son-in-law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and then go your way.

6 So they sat down and did eat and drink, both of them together. And the young woman's father said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night; and let thine heart be merry, and tomorrow get thee early upon your way, and go to the tent.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law was earnest: therefore he returned, and lodged there.

8 And he arose up early the fifth day to depart, and the young woman's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee: and they tarried until after midday, and they both did eat.

9 Afterward when the man arose to depart with his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the young woman's father said unto him, Behold now, the day draweth toward even: I pray you, tarry all night: behold, the sun goeth to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be merry, and tomorrow get you early upon your way, and go to the tent.

10 But the man would not tarry, but arose, and departed, and came over against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him.

11 When they were near Jebus, the day was sore spent, and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn unto this city of the Jebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 And his master answered him, We will not turn into the city of strangers that are not of the children of Israel, but we will go forth to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places, that we may lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah.

14 So they went forward upon their way, and the Sun went down upon them near to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin.

15 ¶ Then they turned thither to go in and lodge in Gibeah: and when he came, he sat him down in a street of the city: then this old man from his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the young woman's father, and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him.

16 And behold, there came an old man from his house to meet him, and he gathered them into his house to lodging.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the streets of the city: then this old man said, Whither goest thou, and whence camest thou?

18 And he answered him, We came from Bethlem Judah, unto the side of mount Ephraim: from thence am I: and I went to Bethlem Judah, and go now to the house of the Lord: and no man receiveth me to house, 20 And the old man said, 1Peace be with thee: as for all that thou lackest, shalt thou find with me: only abide not in the street all night.

21 ¶ So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder unto the ass: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 And as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, 1wicked men beset the house round about, and 2smote at the door, and spake to this old man the master of the house, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house that we may know him.

23 And 1this man the master of the house went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay my brethren, do not so wickedly, I pray you, seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this villainy.

24 Behold, here is my daughter, a virgin, and his concubine: them will I bring out now, and humble this villainy, that it hath done in Israel.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: therefore the man took his concubine, and brought her out unto them: and they knew her and abused her all the night unto the morning and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 So the woman came in the dawning of the day, and 1fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till the light day.

27 And her 1lord arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way, and behold, the woman his concubine was 2dead at the door of the house, and her hands lay upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, up, and let us go: but she answered not. Then he took her up upon the ass, and the man rose up, and went unto his 1place.

29 And when he was come to his house, he took a knife and laid hand on his concubine, and divided her in pieces with her bones into twelve parts, and sent her throughout all quarters of Israel.

the ‘tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is committed among you?
13 Now therefore deliver us those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel: but the children of Benjamin would not obey the voice of their brethren the children of Israel.
14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.
15 ¶ And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time, out of the cities, six and twenty thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.
16 Of all this people were seven hundred chosen men, being ‘left handed: all these could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not fail.
17 ¶ Also the men of Israel beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword, even all men of war.
18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked of God, saying, Which of us shall go up first to fight against the children of Benjamin? and the Lord said, Judah shall be first.
19 Then the children of Israel arose up early and camped against Gibeah.
20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them beside Gibeah.
21 And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and slew down to the ground of the Israelites that day two and twenty thousand men.
22 And the people, the men of Israel plucked up their hearts, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put them in array the first day.
23 (For the children of Israel had gone up and wept before the Lord unto the evening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shall I go again to battle against the children of Benjamin? and the Lord said, Go up against them.)
24 ¶ Then the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.
25 Also the second day Benjamin came forth to meet them out of Gibeah, and slew down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men: all they could handle the sword.
26 Then all the children of Israel went up, and all the people came also unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day unto the evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.
27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for there was the Ark of the Covenant of God in those days, 28 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron stood before it at that time) saying, Shall I yet go anymore to battle against the children of Benjamin my brethren, or shall I cease? And the Lord said, Go up: for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.
29 And Israel set men to lie in wait roundabout Gibeah.
30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin the third day; and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.
31 Then the children of Benjamin coming out against the people, were drawn from the city: and they began to smite of the people and kill as at other times, even by the ways in the field (whereof one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah) upon a thirty men of Israel.
32 (For the children of Benjamin said, They are fallen before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee and pluck them away from the city unto the ‘highways.)
33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal Tamar: and the men that lay in wait came forth of their place, even out of the meadows of Geba, 34 And they came over against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battle was sore: for they knew not that the ‘evil was near them.
35 ¶ And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites the same day five and twenty thousand and an hundred men: all they could handle the sword.
36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were stricken down: for the men of Israel ‘gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beside Gibeah.
37 And they that lay in wait hasted, and brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment ‘drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the 20:34 1 They knew not that God’s judgment was at hand to destroy them.

20:36 1 Retired to draw them after.
20:37 1 Or, made a long sound with a trumpet.
1 Moreover, the men of Israel swore in Mizpah, saying, None of us shall give his daughter unto the Benjamites to wife.

2 And the people came unto the house of God and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept with great lamentation.

3 And said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want?

4 ¶ And on the morrow the people rose up and made there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 Then the children of Israel said, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not up with the Congregation unto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the Lord to Mizpah, saying, Let him die the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sorry for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives to them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the Lord, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 Also they said, is there any of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpah to the Lord? and behold, there came none of Jabesh Gilead unto the host, and to the Congregation.

9 For when the people were viewed, behold, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead were there.

10 Therefore the Congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the tribe of Benjamin that were most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women and children.

11 ¶ And this is it that ye shall do: ye shall utterly destroy all the males, and all the women that have lain by men.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred maidens, virgins that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the host to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 ¶ Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rock of Rimmon, and called peaceably unto them:

they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead: but they had not so enough for them.

15 And the people were sorry for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shall we do for wives to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed.

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Therefore they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord every year in Shiloh, in a place, which is on the North side of Bethel, and on the East side of the way that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards.

21 And when ye see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Benjamin.

22 And when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, we will say unto them, Have pity on them for our sakes, because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war, and because ye have not given unto them hitherto, ye have sinned.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took wives of them that danced according to their number: which they took, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

24 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and to his family, and went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was good in his eyes.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 3 He and his sons die. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

In the time that the Judges ruled, there was a dearth in the land, and a man of Bethlehem Judah went for to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi, and the names of his two sons, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi died, and she remained with her two sons, Which took them wives of the Moabites: the one’s name was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, and returned from the country of Moab: for she had heard say in the country of Moab, that the Lord had visited his people, and given them bread.

Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they went on their way to return unto the land of Judah.

Then Naomi said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each of you unto your own mother’s house: the Lord show favor unto you, as ye have done with the dead, and with me.

The Lord grant you, that you may find rest, either of you in the house of your husband. And when she kissed them, they lift up their voice and wept.

And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee: for what cause will ye go with me? are there any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

Turn again my daughters: go your way: for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, and if I had an husband this night: yea, and if I had borne sons,

Would ye tarry for them, till they were of age? would ye be deferred for them from taking of husbands? may my daughters: for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me.

Then they lift up their voice and wept again, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth abode still with her.

And Naomi said, Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister-in-law.

When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking unto her.

So they went both until they came to Bethlehem: and when they were come to Bethlehem, it was noised of them through all the city, and they said, Is not this Naomi?

Call me not Naomi, but call me Mara: for the Almighty hath given me much bitterness.

I went out full, and the Lord hath caused me to return empty: why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath brought me unto adversity?

So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitess what cause will ye go with me? are there any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

Or, more than you.

When she took leave and departed.

Or, beautiful.

When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking unto her.

RUTH 2:1

her daughter-in-law with her, when she came out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of 1barley harvest.

2

2 Ruth gathered corn in the fields of Boaz. 8 The gentleness of Boaz toward her.

1 Then Naomi’s husband had a kinsman, one of great 1power of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to the field, and 1gather ears of corn after him, in whose sight I find favor. And she said unto her, Go my daughter.

3 ¶ And she went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers, and it came to pass, that she met with the portion of the field of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

5 ¶ Then said Boaz unto his servant that was appointed over the reapers, Whose maid is this?

6 And the servant that was appointed over the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish maid, that came with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said unto us, I pray you, let me glean after the reapers 1among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued from that time in the morning unto now, save that she tarried a little in the house.

8 ¶ Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? go to none other field to gather, neither go from hence: but abide here by my maidens.

9 1Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after the maidens. Have I not charged the servants, that they touch thee not? Moreover when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the servants hath drawn.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, And how have I found favor in thine eyes, that thou shouldest know me, seeing I am a 1stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, All is told and showed me that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and 12 The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose 1wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favor in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted me, and spoken comfortably unto thy maid, though I be not like to one of thy maids.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At the meal time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corn: and she did eat, and was sufficed, and 1left thereof.

15 ¶ And when she arose to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaves, and do not rebuke her.

16 Also let fall some of the sheaves for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it up, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and she threshed that she had gathered, and it was about an 1Ephah of barley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gathered: Also she took forth, and gave to her that which she had reserved, when she was sufficed.

19 ¶ Then her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned today? and where wrogest thou blessed be he, that knew thee. And she showed her mother-in-law, with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought today, is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of the Lord: for he ceaseth not to do good to the living and to the 1dead. Again Naomi said unto her, The man is near unto us, and of our affinity.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said also certainly unto me, Thou shalt be with my servants, until they have ended all mine harvest.

22 And Naomi answered unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is best, my daughter, that thou go out after the maidens, that thou meet thee not in another field.

23 Then she kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather unto the end of barley harvest, and of wheat harvest, and 1dwelt with her mother-in-law.
3
1  Naomi giveth Ruth counsel.  8  She sleepeth at Boaz's feet.  12  He acknowledgeth himself to be her kinsman.

1  Afterward Naomi her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall not I seek rest for thee, that thou mayest prosper?

2  Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley tonight in the floor.

3  Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: let not the man know of thee, until he have left eating and drinking.

4  And when he shall sleep, mark the place where he layeth him down, and go, and uncover the place of his feet, and lay thee down, and he shall tell thee what thou shalt do.

5  And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will do.

6  ¶ So she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7  And when Boaz had eaten and drunken, and cheered his heart, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn, and she came softly, and uncovered the place of his feet, and lay down.

8  And at midnight the man was afraid and caught hold: and lo, a woman lay at his feet.

9  Then he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore the wing of thy garment over thine handmaid: for thou art the kinsman.

10  Then he said, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast showed more goodness in the latter end, than at the beginning, insomuch as thou followedst not young men, were they poor or rich.

11  And now, my daughter, fear not: I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12  And now, it is true that I am thy kinsman, howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13  Tarry tonight, and when morning is come, if he will do the duty of a kinsman unto thee, well, let him do the kinsman's duty; but if he will not do the kinsman's part, then will I do the duty of a kinsman, as the Lord liveth: sleep until the morning.

14  ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning:

and she arose before one could know another: for he said, Let no man know, that a woman came into the floor.

15  Also he said, Bring the sheet that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid them on her, and she went into the city.

16  And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her, 17  And said, These six measures of barley gave he me: for he said to me, Thou shalt not come empty unto thy mother-in-law.

18  Then said she, My daughter, sit still, until thou know how the thing will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he hath finished the matter this same day.

4  1  Boaz speaketh to Ruth's next kinsman touching her marriage.  7  The ancient custom in Israel.  10  Boaz marrieth Ruth, of whom he begetteth Obed.  18  The generation of Perez.

1  Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat there, and behold, the kinsman, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: and he said, ¶Ho, such one, come, sit down here. And he turned, and sat down.

2  Then he took ten men of the Elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3  And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, will sell a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's.

4  And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, tell me: for I know that there is none besides thee to redeem it, and I am after thee.

Then he answered, I will redeem it.

5  Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess the wife of the dead, to stir up the name of the dead, upon his inheritance.

6  And the kinsman answered, I cannot redeem it, lest I destroy mine own inheritance: redeem my right to thee, for I can not redeem it.

7  Now this was the manner beforetime in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing for to establish all things: a man did pluck off his shoe, and gave it his neighbor: and this was a sure witness in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the Elders and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabitess the wife of Mahlon, have I bought to be my wife, to stir up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the Elders said, We are witnesses: the Lord make the wife that cometh into thine house, like Rachel and like Leah, which twain did build the house of Israel: and that thou mayest do worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem.

12 And that thine house be like the house of Perez (whom Tamar bare unto Judah) of the seed which the Lord shall give thee of this young woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife:

and when he went in unto her, the Lord gave that she conceived, and bare a son.

14 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shall be continued in Israel.

15 And this shall bring thy life again, and cherish thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law which loveth thee, hath borne unto him, and she is better to thee than seven sons.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her lap, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a child born to Naomi, and called the name thereof Obed: the same was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 ¶ These now are the generations of Perez: Perez begat Hezron,

19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, 21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed,

22 And Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

4:7 ¶ That he had resigned his right, Deut. 25:9.

4:11 ¶ Ephrathah and Bethlehem are both one.
4:14 ¶ He shall leave continual posterity.
4:15 ¶ Meaning, many sons.
4:18 ¶ This genealogy is brought in, to prove that David by succession came of the house of Judah.
THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

1 The genealogy of Elkanah father of Samuel. 2 His two wives. 5 Hannah was barren, and prayed to the Lord. 15 Her answer to Eli. 20 Samuel is born. 24 She doth dedicate him to the Lord.

1 There was a man of one of the two Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city every year, to worship and to sacrifice unto the Lord of hosts in Shiloh, where were the two sons of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, Priests of the Lord.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters portions,

5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion: for he loved Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren.

6 And her adversary vexed her sore, forasmuch as she upbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren.

7 And so did he year by year and as oft as she went up to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee than ten sons?

9 So Hannah rose up after that they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sat upon a stool by one of the posts of the Temple of the Lord)

10 And she was troubled in her mind, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt look on the trouble of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but give unto thine handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For she spake in her heart: her lips did move only, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy drunkenness from thee.

15 Then Hannah answered and said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered, and said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 She said again, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and looked no more sad.

19 ¶ Then they rose up early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her.

20 For in process of time Hannah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I have asked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man Elkanah and all his house, went up to offer unto the Lord the yearly sacrifice and his vow:

22 But Hannah went not up: for she said unto her husband, I will tarry until the child be weaned, then I will bring him that he may appear before the Lord, and there abide forever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee best: tarry until thou hast weaned him: only the Lord accomplish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him with her with three bullocks and an Ephah of flour and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my Lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood with thee here praying unto the Lord.

27 I prayed for this child, and the Lord hath given me my desire which I asked of him.

28 Therefore also I have given him unto the Lord: as long as he liveth he shall be given unto the Lord: and he worshipped the Lord there.

2 The song of Hannah.

2:1 And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart rejoiceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none beside thee, and there is no god like our God.

3 Speak no more presumptuously: let not arrogance come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterprises are established.

4 The bow and the mighty men are broken, and the weak have girded themselves with strength.

5 They that were full, are hired forth for bread, and the hungry are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne seven: and she that had many children is feeble.

6 ¶ The Lord killeth and maketh alive: bringeth down to the grave and raiseth up.

7 The Lord maketh poor and maketh rich: bringeth low, and exalteth.

8 ¶ He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lieth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the seat among the princes, and to make them inherit the seat of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 He will keep the feet of his Saints, and the wicked shall keep silence in darkness: for in his own might shall no man be strong.

10 The Lord's adversaries shall be destroyed, and out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the world, and shall give power unto his King, and exalt the horn of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister unto the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were wicked men, and knew not the Lord.

13 For the Priest's custom toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priest's boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhook with three teeth in his hand,

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the pan, or into the pot: all that the fleshhook brought up, the Priest took for himself: thus they did unto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the fat, the Priest's boy came and said unto the man that offered, Give me flesh to roast for the Priest: for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them burn the fat according to the custom, then take as much as thine heart desireth: then he would answer, No, but thou shalt give it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering made to the Lord's adversary.
18 ¶ Now Samuel being a young child ministered before the Lord, girded with a linen e Ephod.

19 And his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord give thee seed of this woman, for the petition that she asked of the Lord: and they departed unto their place.

21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for of all this people I hear evil reports of you.

24 Do no more, my sons: for it is no good report that I hear, which is, that ye make the Lord's people to trespass.

25 If one man sin against another, the Judge shall judge it: but if a man sin against the Lord, who will judge it? for the thing that she hath lent to the Lord: to wit, Samuel.

26 ¶ (Now the child Samuel profited, and grew, and was in favor both with the Lord and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer upon my altar, and to burn incense, and to wear an Ephod before me, and I gave unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore have ye kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Covenant? and ye have not honored thy father's house.

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said, that thine house, and the house of thy father should walk before me forever: but now the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honor me, I will honor, and they that despise me, shall be despised.

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see thine enemy in the habitations of the Lord in all things wherewith God shall bless Israel, and there shall not be an old man in thine house forever.

33 Nevertheless, I will not destroy every one of thine house from mine altar, to make thine eyes to fail, and to make thine heart sorrowful: and all the multitude of thine house shall die when they be men.

34 And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both.

35 And I will stir me up a faithful Priest, that shall do according to mine heart, and according to my mind: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before me forever.

36 And all that are left in thine house, shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the Priest's offices, that I may eat a morsel [of] bread.

37 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I, for I came from thine house.

38 And he said, My son, why hast thou done so? for thou hast brought thy soul into great shame.

39 And he said, Because the Lord hath told me so.

40 And Eli said unto Samuel, Go, in peace: the Lord shall be with thee.

41 And Samuel went, and was a young child when he went with Eli to Shiloh.
thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: go again and sleep. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called thee not my son: go again and sleep.

7 Thus did Samuel, before he knew the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was revealed unto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel again the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go and sleep: and if he call thee, then say, Speak Lord, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10 ¶ And the Lord came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak, for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, whereof whatsoever shall hear, his two ears shall tingle.

12 In that day I will raise up against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 And I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knoweth, because his sons ran into a slander, and he stayed them not.

14 Now therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the wickedness of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever.

15 Afterward Samuel slept until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 ¶ Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my son. And he answered, Here I am.

17 Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me. God do so to me, and more also, if thou hide anything from me, of all that he said unto thee.

18 So Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that faithful Samuel was the Lord's Prophet.

21 And the Lord appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

3:7 1 By vision.

3:8 1 Such was the corruption of those times that the chief Priest was become dull and negligent to understand the Lord's appearing.

3:11 1 God declareth what sudden fear shall come upon men, when they shall hear that the Ark is taken, and also see Eli's house destroyed.

3:14 1 Meaning that his posterity should never enjoy the chief Priest's office.

3:17 1 God punish thee after this and that sort, except thou tell me truth, Ruth 1:17.

3:19 1 The Lord accomplished whatsoever he had said.

3:20 1 Or, that Samuel was the faithful Prophet of the Lord.

4 1 Israel is overcome by the Philistines. 4 They do set the Ark, wherefore do the Philistines do fear. 10 The Ark of the Lord is taken. 11 Eli and his children die. 19 The death of the wife of Phinehas the son of Eli. 1 And Samuel spake unto all Israel: and Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined the battle, Israel was smitten down before the Philistines: who slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 So when the people were come into the camp, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten us this day before the Philistines? let us bring the Ark of the covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought thence the Ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who dwelleth between the Cherubims: and there were the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, with the Ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the Ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the host, all Israel shouted a mighty shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mighty shout in the host of the Hebrews? and they understood, that the Ark of the Lord was come into the host.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and said, God is come in the host: therefore said they, Woe unto us: for it hath not been so heretofore.

8 Woe unto us, who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.
9 And the Ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law, the glory is departed from Israel: for the Ark of God is taken.

10 And when he had made mention of the Ark of God, Eli fell from his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died: for he was an old man and heavy: and he had judged Israel fourscore and eighteen years old, and his eyes were dim that he could not see.

11 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was with child, near her travail: and when she heard the report that the Ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she ‘bowed herself, and travailed: for her pains came upon her.

12 And about the time of her death, the women that stood about her, said unto her, Fear not: for thou hast borne a son: but she answered not, nor regarded it.

13 And she named the child ‘Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth this noise of the tumult? and the man said unto Eli, I came from the wayside, waiting: for his heart feared for the Ark of God: and when the man came into the city to tell it, all the city cried out.

15 (Now Eli was fourscore and eighteen years old, and his eyes were dim that he could not see.) And the man said unto Eli, I came from the army, and I fled this day out of the host: and he said, What thing is done, my son?

16 Then the messenger answered, and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also an exceeding great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

17 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died: for the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction: and the Ark of God came into the city of Ashdod.

18 And the men of Ashdod said, What thing is this that has befallen us? Now we knew it not that the Lord had come among us.

19 And they did take the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

20 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, they found Dagon’s head turned backward, and his palms up toward heaven.

21 They sent therefore, and gathered all the princes of the Philistines unto them, and said, ‘What shall we do with the Ark of Dagon? And they answered, Let the Ark of God abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us and upon Dagon our god.

22 They sent therefore, and gathered all the princes of Dagon, and set it by Dagon again.

23 And when they of Ashdod saw this, they said, ‘Let the Ark of God be carried unto Ekron: for they have dealt reproachously with Dagon, his god.

24 And they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon, and went into their tents.

25 And the Ark of God remained in the house of Dagon five years, and the hand of the Lord was against Dagon and against all his land.

26 And when they returned the ark of God, the priests of Dagon and all that came near him fell down to the ground, and were slain.

27 Therefore he sent the ark of God to Ekron: and as soon as the Ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought the Ark of God to us: for he smote us with disease and with emerods.”
6 1 The time that the Ark was with the Philistines, which they sent again with a gift.  12 It cometh to Beth Shemesh.  17 The Philistines offer golden emerods.  19 The men of Beth Shemesh are stricken for looking into the Ark.

1  So the Ark of the Lord was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called the Priests and the Soothsayers, saying, What shall we do with the Ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it home again.

3 And they said, If you send away the Ark of the God of Israel, send it not away empty, but give unto it 1 a sin offering: then shall ye be healed, and it shall be known to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the sin offering, which we shall give unto it? And they answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your mice that destroy the land: so ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your 1 gods, and from your land.

6 Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts, when he wrought wonderfully among them, 2 did they not let them go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whom there hath come no yoke: and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them.

8 Then take the Ark of the Lord, and set it upon the cart, and put the 1 jewels of gold which ye give it for a sin offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.

9 And take heed, if it go up by the way of his own coast to Beth Shemesh, it is 3 he that did us this great evil: but if not, we shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote us, but it was a 3 chance that happened us.

10 And the men did so: for they took two kine that gave milk, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calves at home.

11 So they set the Ark of the Lord upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the straight way to Beth Shemesh, and kept one path, and lowed as they went, and turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistines went after 4 them unto the borders of Beth Shemesh.

13 Now they of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they lift up their eyes, and spied the Ark, and rejoiced when they saw it.

14 ¶ And the cart came into the field of Joshua a Beth Shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and 4 they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

15 And the Levites took down the Ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day unto the Lord.

16 And when the five princes of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Eknon the same day.

17 ¶ So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistines gave for a sin offering to the Lord: for 5 Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Eknon one.

18 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five princes, both of walled towns, and of towns unwalled unto the great stone of 4 Abel, whereon they set the Ark of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth Shemite.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they 4 had looked in the Ark of the Lord: he slew even among the people fifty thousand men and three score and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slain the people with so great a slaughter.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth Shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath Jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the Ark of the Lord: come ye down, and take it up to you.

7 1 The Ark is brought to Kirjath Jearim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sins, and turn to the Lord. 10 The Philistines fight against Israel, and are overcome. 16 Samuel judgeth Israel.

1 Then the men of Kirjath Jearim came, and took up the Ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his son, to keep the Ark of the Lord.

2 (For while the Ark abode in Kirjath Jearim, the time was long, for it was twenty years) and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3 ¶ Then Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come again unto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtoreth, and direct your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only, and he shall deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baal and Ashtoreth, and served the Lord only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you unto the Lord.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and said there, We have sinned against the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, the Princes of the Philistines went up against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he may save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 Then Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it all together for a burnt offering unto the Lord, and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And [as] Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder that day upon the Philistines, and scattered them: so they were slain before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them until they came under Beth Car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and pitched it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name thereof Ebenezer, and he said, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

13 ¶ So the Philistines were brought under, and they came no more again into the coasts of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 Also the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath: and Israel delivered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And went about year by year to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he judged Israel: also he built an altar there unto the Lord.

8 1 Samuel maketh his sons Judges over Israel, who follow not his steps. 5 The Israelites ask a King. 11 Samuel declareth in what state they should be under the King. 19 Notwithstanding, they ask one still, and the Lord willeth Samuel to grant unto them.

1 When Samuel was now become old, he made his sons Judges over Israel,

2 (And the name of his eldest son was Joel, and the name of the second Abijah) even Judges in Beersheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took rewards, and perverted the judgment.

4 ¶ Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: make us now a King to judge us like all nations.

8:4 1 For there his house was, 1 Sam. 7:17.
6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a King to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hear the voice of the people in all that they shall say unto thee: for they have not cast thee away, but they have cast me away, that I should not reign over them.

8 As they have ever done since I brought them out of Egypt even unto this day, (and have forsaken me, and served other gods) even so do they unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit, yet testify unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ So Samuel told all the words of the Lord unto the people that asked a king of him.

11 And he said, This shall be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to his chariots, and to be his horsemen, and some shall run before his chariot.

12 Also he will make them his captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make instruments of war, and the things that serve for his chariots.

13 He will also take your daughters and make them Apothecaries, and Cooks, and Bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your best Olive trees, and give them to his Eunuchs, and to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give it to his Eunuchs, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and the chief of your young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep, and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out at that day, because of your king, whom ye have chosen you, and the Lord will not hear you at that day;

19 But the people would not hear the voice of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall be a king over us.

20 And we also will be like all other nations, and our king shall judge us, and go out before us and fight our battles.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, he rehearsed them in the ears of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go every man unto his city.

3 Saul seeking his father’s asses, by the counsel of his servant goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophets called Seers. 15 The Lord revealeth to Samuel Saul’s coming, commanding him to anoint him king. 22 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

1 There was now a man of Benjamin, mighty in power, named Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a man of Benjamin.

2 And he had a son called Saul, a goodly young man and a fair: so that among the children of Israel there was none better to look upon than he: from the shoulders upward, he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the ass of Kish, Saul’s father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, and go and seek the asses.

4 So he passed through mount Ephraim, and went through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shaalim, and there they were not: he went also through the land of Benjamin, but they found them not.

5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said unto his servant that was with him, Come and let us return, lest my father leave the care of asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, in this city is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saith cometh to pass: let us now go thither, and hear what he saith unto us.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, Well then, let us go: but what shall we bring unto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have found about me the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seek an answer of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the Seer: for he that is called now a Prophet,
1 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said, come, let us go: so they went into the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they were going up the highway to the city, they found maids that came out to draw water, and said unto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and said, Yea, lo, he is before you: make haste now, for he came this day to the city: for there is an offering of the people this day in the high place.

13 When ye shall come into the city, ye shall find him straightway ere he come up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he come, because he will bless the sacrifice; and then eat they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore go up, for even now shall ye find him.

14 Then they went up into the city; and when they were come into the midst of the city, Samuel came out against them, to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ But the Lord had revealed to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying, 16 Tomorrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, him shalt thou anoint to be governor over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hands of the Philistines; for I have looked upon my people, and their cry is come unto me.

17 When Samuel therefore saw Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of; he shall rule my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the midst of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer; go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, care not for them: for they are found: and on thine asses came two men, and found them.

21 ¶ But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the son of Benjamin of the smallest tribe of Israel? and of his inheritance.

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring forth the portion which I gave thee, and whereof I said unto thee, Keep it with thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and brought them into the chamber, and made them sit at the chiefest place among them that were bidden: and when they were come down from the top of the house, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant go before us, (and he went) but stand thou still now, that I may show thee the word of God.

1 Saul is anointed King by Samuel. 9 God changeth Saul's heart, and he prophesieth. 17 Samuel assembleth the people, and showeth them their sins. 21 Saul is chosen King by lot. 25 Samuel writeth the King's office.

1 Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Hath not the Lord anointed thee to be governor over his inheritance?

2 When thou shalt depart from me this day, thou shalt find two men by the sepulcher of Rachel in the border of Benjamin, even at Zelzah, and they shall say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek, are found, and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 Then shalt thou go forth from thence, and shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Bethel, one carriving three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will ask thee ‘if all be well, and will give thee the two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that shalt thou come to the ‘hill of God, where is the garrisons of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet a company of Prophets coming down from the high place with a vial, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and an harp before them, and they shall prophesy.

6 Then the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 Therefore when these signs shall come unto thee, do as occasion shall serve: for God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal: and I also will come down unto thee to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace. Tarry for me seven days, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.

9 And when he had turned his ‘back to go from Samuel, God gave him another ‘heart; and all those tokens came to pass that same day.

10 ¶ And when they came thither to the hill, behold, the company of Prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he ‘prophesied among them.

11 Therefore all the people that knew him before, when they saw that he prophesied among the Prophets, said each to other, What is come unto the son of Kish? ‘Is Saul also among the Prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their ‘father? Therefore it was a proverb, ‘Is Saul also among the ‘Prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of Prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Saul’s uncle said unto him, and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were nowhere, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul’s uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 Then Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found: but concerning the kingdom he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel ‘assembled the people unto the Lord in Mizpah,
And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, saying, "What doth it profit? I come to thee in peace, and have made a covenant with thee, that ye deal kindly with the children of Israel. And now ye say, Behold, ye have slain all thy enemies, the children of Israel; now therefore come and let us cut you into as many pieces as the children of Ammon." Then the people said unto Samuel, "Who is better to go up against the Philistines than David? and Samuel sent him word, I have sent thee." And the Spirit of the Lord came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angry. Then said Samuel to Saul, "Tell me now what thou hast done." And Saul answered, "I have kept the commandment of the Lord, and went through all that He commanded me to do, although I saw the people that were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. And the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they remained in their places." And he said to Samuel, "Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring those men unto me, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and bring shame upon all Israel." And Samuel said unto Saul, "The Lord hath not taken away these things from thee; but thou hast done evil in mine eyes. And the Lord hath appointed a King over thee." And Samuel spake to Saul, saying, "The Lord sent me to tell thee: I will return no more thence again." And he said to Saul, "Whose ox have I taken? or whom have I hurt? or of whose hand have I taken any thing? or whom have I grieved against to-day?" And Saul answered Saul, "Thou hast not done wrong, nor hast hurt us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand." And he said unto him, "Let not mine hand be upon thee; for thou hast done well in keeping the commandment of the Lord this day. And now therefore stand still, that I may reason with thee, of all the goodness of the Lord, and of his commandment to Israel, which thou hast kept not." And he said, "Have I sold my soul for money, and have I blessed him with the produce of my field? Why then hast thou not been afraid to speak against the Lord? And Samuel said unto Saul, "Thou hast done foolishly in keeping the commandment of the Lord this day. And now therefore return; that I may bid thee concerning tomorrow: for God will turn back with thee to thy good." And Saul said unto Samuel, "I have sinned; for I did not stay when the Lord commanded, and hast brought about evil on me." And Samuel said, "Hearken unto me, my people, and be ye instructed; for why will ye be brought into captivity? why will ye be put to forced labour? Declare ye in the words of thy king." And Samuel said, "Who is he that mourneth the death of Saul? I am he; who is he that mourneth the death of all his people?" And Saul answered Samuel, "I have sinned: for I feared the people, and obeyed their voice." And Samuel said, "Hast thou contrary to the commandment of the Lord? Fear not his voice, nor be afraid of his words; lest be bearken me not, and be estranged from the land which the Lord hath given unto you." And Saul said, "I have sinned: for thou art a greater and mightier man than I." And Samuel said, "The Lord hath not sinned, for the thing cometh not from him; neither hast thou sinned, that thou shouldest be estranged from the land which the Lord hath given unto thee." And Saul said unto Samuel, "Whence is it that I have sinned, that thou hast stricken me, both the multitude, and also my father's household, with great violence? I am but one man, a husbandman, a sheperd, the son of a poor man." And Samuel said unto Saul, "I will not return with thee; for thou hast rejected the word of the Lord." Then said Samuel, "Hearken to me, a word to the people." And they said, "Lift up thy voice, and speak." And Samuel said, "Is it not this, that the Lord sent me to declare it unto you? Therefore be the king's soldiers ready, to go down before the people into the battle." And Saul said, "Shall I go down into the battle against the Philistines? wilt thou go with me? and the Lord will be with me." Then said Samuel, "As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, surely the Lord hath appointed me to go to thee, to speak in thine ears. And now, go down, and tell thy servants that I have not sinned against the Lord, neither hast thou done evil in any thing that thou hast commanded me." And Saul said, "As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I have not sinned against the Lord." And Samuel said, "The Lord be between thee and me, and between thy soul and my soul, if I have sinned against the Lord." And Samuel said, "The Lord be between thee and me, and between thy soul and my soul, if I have sinned against the Lord." And Samuel said to Saul, "The Lord sent me to anoint thee king over his people Israel, and also to say, Thou shalt go to war against the Philistines, and shalt save the people of Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. Now therefore, if thou wilt be the servant of the Lord, then obey him, and be strong, and be like a man. And now the Lord is with thee, and with thy sons that should follow him, because thou hast kept the commandment of the Lord." And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned: for I feared the people, and obeyed their voice." And Samuel said, "If thou hadst obeyed the voice of the Lord, Saul would not have been slain in the battle. For now the Lord will make the kingdom to be moved out of thy house, and out of thy father's house: and the Lord will set up unto himself a king over Israel. But yet I will not displease David, because he hath dealt well with me, and because his father kept the commandment of the Lord, and walked before him with integrity of heart." Then Samuel said, "Amen, the Lord will also do it, and his candle shall shine in Israel." And Samuel went down to Gilgal. Then the people said unto Samuel, "Who is like to thee, who is like to him whom we have? Lord God, look down upon thy servant." And Samuel took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel. And the fear of the Lord fell on all the people, and they came out among the people: and they came out with one consent. And when the morrow was come, Saul put on the tabernacle, and the people that were scattered about him.
10 And they cried unto the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baal and Asherah. Now therefore deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, and we will serve thee.
11 Therefore the Lord sent Jerubbaal 1 and Bedan and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hands of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.
12 Notwithstanding when you saw, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, 1No, but a king shall reign over us: when yet the Lord your God was your King.
13 Now therefore behold the King whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired: lo therefore, the Lord hath set a King over you.
14 If ye will fear the Lord and serve him, and hear his voice, and not disobey the word of the Lord, both ye, and the king that reigneth over you, shall follow the Lord your God.
15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but disobey the Lord's mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be upon you, and on your fathers.
16 Now also stand and see this great thing which the Lord will do before your eyes.
17 Is it not now wheat harvest? I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain, that ye may perceive and see, how that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a king.
18 Then Samuel called unto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and rain the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.
19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we have sinned in asking us a King, beside all our other sins.
20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not, (ye have indeed done all this wickedness, 1yet depart not from following the Lord, but serve the Lord with your hearts.
21 Neither turn ye back: for that should be after vain things which cannot profit you, nor deliver you, for they are but vanity,) 22 For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great Name's sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.
23 Moreover God forbid, that I should sin against the Lord, and cease praying for you, but I will show you the good and right way.
24 Therefore fear you the Lord, and serve him in the truth with all your hearts, and consider how great things he hath done for you.
25 But if ye do wickedly, ye shall perish, both ye and your King.

13 3 The Philistines are smitten of Saul and Jonathan. 13 Saul being disobedient to God's commandment, is showed of Samuel that he shall not reign. 19 The great slavery, wherein the Philistines kept the Israelites.
1 Saul now had been King 1one year, and he reigned 1two years over Israel.
2 Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every one to his tent.
3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines, that was in the 1hill: and it came to the Philistines' ears: and Saul blew the 1trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Hear, O ye Hebrews.
4 And all Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garrison of the Philistines: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.
5 ¶ The Philistines also gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seaside in multitude, and came up, and pitched in Michmash Eastward from Beth Aven.
6 And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distress) the people hid themselves in caves, and in holds, and in rocks, and in towers, and in pits.
7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan unto the land of 1Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people for fear followed him.
8 And he tarried seven days, according unto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him.
9 And Saul said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.
10 And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meet him, to 'salute him.
11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Then Saul said, Because I saw that the people was 'scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together to Michmash, 12 Therefore said I, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord. I was bold therefore and offered a burnt offering.
13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy 'God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had now stablished thy kingdom upon Israel forever.
14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be governor over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.
15 ¶ And Samuel arose, and got him up from Gilgal in 'Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men.
16 And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines pitched in Michmash.
17 And there came out of the host of the Philistines three bands to destroy, one band turned unto the way of Ophrah unto the land of Shual, 18 And another band toward the way to Beth Horon, and the third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.
19 Then there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears.
20 Wherefore, all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, his mattock, and his axe, and his weeding hook.
21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattocks, and for the pick forks, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goads.
22 So when the day of battle was come, there was neither sword nor spear found in the hands of any of the people that were with Saul and with Jonathan: but only with Saul and Jonathan his son was there found.
23 And the garrison of the Philistines came out to the passage of Michmash.

14 14 Jonathan and his armor bearer put the Philistines to flight. 24 Saul bindeth the people by an oath, not to eat till evening. 32 The people eat with the blood. 38 Saul would put Jonathan to death. 45 The people deliver him.
1 Then on a day Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armor, 'Come and let us go over toward the Philistines garrison, that is yonder on the other side, but he told not his father.
2 And Saul tarried in the border of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about six hundred men.
3 And Ahijah the son of Ahitub, 'Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, was the Lord's Priest in Shiloh, and wore an Ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.
4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.
5 The one rock stretched from the North toward Michmash, and the other was from the South toward Gibeah.
6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armor, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work with us: for it is 'not hard to the Lord 'to save with many, or with few.
7 And he that bare his armor, said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee: behold, 'I am with thee as thine heart desircth.
8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we go over unto those men, and will show ourselves unto them.
9 'If they say on this wise to us, Tarry until we come to you, then we will stand still in our place, and not go up to them.

13:10 1 Hebrew, bless him.
13:11 1 Though these causes seem sufficient in man's judgment; yet because they had not the word of God, they turned to his destruction.
13:13 1 Who willed thee to obey him, and rest upon the words spoken by his Prophet.
13:14 1 That is, David.
13:15 1 And went to his city Ramah.
13:17 1 Or, the destroyer, to wit, the captains came out with three bands.
13:18 1 So that to man's judgment these three armies would have overrun the whole country.
13:22 1 To declare that the victory only came of God, and not by their force.
14:1 1 By this example God would declare to Israel that the victory did not consist in multitude or armor, but only came of his grace.
14:4 1 Or, like a tooth.
14:6 1 To wit, the Philistines.
14:7 2 Or, none can let the Lord.
14:7 1 I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
14:9 1 This he spake by the spirit of prophecy, forasmuch hereby God gave him assurance of the victory.
10 But if they say, Come up unto us, then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us.

11 So they both showed themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, See, the Hebrews come out of the holes wherein they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, Come up to us: for we will show you a thing. Then Jonathan said unto his armor bearer, Come up after me: for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 So Jonathan went up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armor bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer slew others after him.

14 So the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, as it were within half an acre of land which two oxen plow.

15 And there was a fear in the host, and in the field, and among all the people: the garrison also, and they that went out to spoil, were afraid themselves: and the earth trembled: for it was stricken with fear by God.

16 ¶ Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin saw: and behold, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.

17 Therefore said Saul unto the people that were with him, Search now, and see, who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahijah, Bring hither the Ark of God (for the Ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel).

19 ¶ And while Saul talked unto the Priest, the noise that was in the host of the Philistines, spread farther abroad, and increased: therefore Saul said unto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battle: and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines beforetime, and were come with them into all parts of the host, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines were fled, they followed after them in the battle.

23 And so the Lord saved Israel that day: and the battle continued unto Beth Aven.

24 And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth bread till night, that I may be avenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, where honey lay upon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, and behold, the honey dropped, and no man moved his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 ¶ Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to swear, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth bread with the blood. And he said, Ye have trespassed: roll a great stone here this day.

28 And Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with an oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honey comb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes received sight.

29 Then Saul said, My father hath troubled the land: see now how mine eyes are made clear, because I have tasted a little of this honey:

30 How much more, if the people had eaten today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 ¶ And they smote the Philistines that day, from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 So the people turned to the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves and slew them on the ground, and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 Then men told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have trespassed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 Again Saul said, Go abroad among the people, and bid them bring me every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat, and sin not against the Lord in eating with the blood.

35 And the people were faint.

36 ¶ And he said unto the people, What counsel doth the Lord speak unto the people? And all the people answered, Let the Priest alone.
the people brought every man his ox in his hand that night, and slew them there.

35 Then Saul made an altar unto the Lord, and that was the first altar that he made unto the Lord.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning shine, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 And Saul said, ‘All ye chief of the people, come ye hither, and know, and see by whom this sin is done this day.

39 For as the Lord liveth, which saveth Israel, thou shalt not deliver him into the hands of the Philistines. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saul said unto the Lord God of Israel, Give me a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken.

42 And Saul said, Cast lot between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I tasted a little honey with the end of the rod, that was in mine hand, and lo, I must die.

44 Again Saul answered, God do so and more also, unless thou die the death, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath so mightily delivered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people delivered Jonathan that he died not.

46 Then Saul came up from the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 So Saul held the kingdom over Israel, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he went, he handled them as wicked men.

48 He gathered also an host and smote Amalek, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Jishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named Michal.

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chief captain was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was Saul's father: and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and whomsoever Saul saw to be a strong man, and meet for the war, he took him unto him.

15 1 Saul is commanded to slay Amalek. 9 He spareth Agag, and the best things. 19 Samuel reproves him. 28 Saul is rejected of the Lord, and his Kingdom given to another. 33 Samuel beareth Agag in pieces.

1 Afterward Samuel said unto Saul, ‘The Lord sent me to anoint thee King over his people, over Israel: now therefore obey the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 ‘Thou shalt the Lord of hosts, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how they laid wait for them in the way, as they came up from Egypt.

3 Now therefore go, and smite Amalek, and destroy ye all that pertaineth unto them, and have no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both ox, and sheep, both camel, and ass.

4 And Saul assembled the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and set watch at the river.

6 And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, and get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye showed mercy to 14:47 1 Or, overcame them.

all the children of Israel, when they came up from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 So Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah, as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt,

8 And took Agag the King of the Amalekites alive, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheep, and the oxen, and the fat beasts, and the lambs, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them; but everything that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, saying,

11 It repenteth me that I have made Saul King; for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandments. And Samuel was moved, and cried unto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel arose early to meet Saul in the morning, one told Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel; and behold, he hath made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone down to Gilgal.

13 ¶ Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord, I have fulfilled the commandment of the Lord.

14 But Samuel said, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul answered, They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, to sacrifice them unto the Lord thy God, and the remnant have we destroyed.

16 Again Samuel said to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King over Israel.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, until thou destroy them.

19 Now wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voice of the Lord, but hast turned to the prey, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep, and oxen, and the chiefest of the things which should have been destroyed, to offer unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voice of the Lord is obeyed? behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken is better than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and transgression is wickedness and idolatry. Because thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, therefore he hath cast away thee from being king.

24 Then Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the Commandment of the Lord, and thy words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore I pray thee, take away my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himself to go away, he caught the lap of his coat, and it rent.

28 Then Samuel said unto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to thy neighbor, that is better than thou.

29 For indeed the strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: but honor me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 ¶ So Samuel turned again, and followed Saul: and Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him pleasantly, and Agag said, Truly the bitterness of death is passed.
33 And Samuel said, 'As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 ¶ So Samuel departed to 'Ramah, and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord reproved that he made Saul king over Israel.

16 1 Samuel is reproved of God, and is sent to anoint David. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The Spirit of the Lord cometh upon David. 14 The wicked Spirit is sent upon Saul. 19 Saul sendeth for David.

1 The Lord then said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have cast him away from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil and come, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a King among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? for if Saul know it, he will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to do sacrifice to the Lord.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do, and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came to Bethlehem, and the elders of the town were astonished at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Yea: I am come to do sacrifice unto the Lord: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lord's son is before him.

7 But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I have refused him: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah come. And he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10 Again Jesse made his seven sons to come before Samuel, and Samuel said unto Jesse, The Lord hath chosen none of these.

11 Finally, Samuel said unto Jesse, 'Are there no more children but these? And he said, There remaineth yet a little one behind, that keepeth the sheep. Then Samuel said unto Jesse, 'Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down, till he be come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddy, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord said, Arise, and anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the 'Spirit of the Lord came upon David, from that day forward: then Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit sent of the Lord vexed him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, the evil spirit of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lord therefore command thy servants that are before thee, to seek a man that is a cunning player upon the harp: that when the evil spirit of God cometh upon thee, he may play with his hand, and thou mayest be eased.

17 Saul then said unto his servants, Provide me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse, a Bethlehemite, that can play, and is strong, valiant, and a man of war, and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread and a flagon of wine and a kid, and sent them by the hand of David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him very well, and he was his armor bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David now
And Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly afraid.

17 The Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and came together to Sochoh which is in Judah, and pitched between Sochoh and Azekah, in the coast of Dammimm.

And Saul, and all the men of Israel assembled and pitched in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: so a valley was between them.

Then came a man between them both out of the tents of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath: his height was six cubits and a hand breadth.

And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and a brigandine upon him: and the weight of his brigandine was five thousand shekels of brass.

And he had boots of brass upon his legs, and a shield of brass upon his shoulders.

And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam: and his spear head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

And he stood, and cried against the host of Israel, saying, Why come ye unto me with swords and with spears? I am Goliath the Philistine of Gath, and there is none like me in all the host of Israel: and I have set a challenge upon the host of Israel.

And the Philistines came together as one army, and the people of Israel came together as one army.

¶ Then came David out of the field to meet them, and said, Who is this身高? even to revile Israel is he come up: and all the men of Israel went from every city.

¶ And when David heard them say, The Philistines are come again to fight with us, then David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up against these Philistines? and will you deliver them into the hand of Saul? and the Lord said, Whom have I given to go up against these Philistines but David?

¶ And Saul arrayed himself in his chariot to go down to the battle: and David rose up early in the morning, and went out and came to the place where the Philistines camped, and said, Who is this that came forth out of the north?

¶ David spake to the Philistine, saying, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, which smote the Philistines in thine hand. And the Lord be with me, and I will fight for thee.

¶ And he said, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, which smote the Philistines in thine hand.

¶ And David said to Abner, art not thou my uncle? and Abner said, he is my father's brother. And David said, Art not thou my father's servant in time of old? under the Lord I will do to thee that which the Lord doth to me, if I leave thee today.

¶ And when Goliath heard these words of David, he was angry, and took a stone, and cast it at David, and said, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, which smote the Philistines in thine hand.

¶ But Saul would not believe the people. And the man of God said, Did I shew these things to Saul, saying, Would God that Saul had died at thy hand? are not these things told to thee by the king's own officers?

¶ And the king said to Abner, Art thou worthy of being the father of a man that is a prince in Israel? wherefore camest thou not early to meet me? And Abner said, Because I thought the king would smite me. Therefore I sent to the king, saying, Let David come, and I will give him thine hand.

¶ And Abner sent messengers to David, saying, Come thou, and I will give thee Saul's head in this day, in the two camps. And David said to Abner, Am I a dog, that I should take the head of Saul out of the hand of the Lord's anointed, who was anointed before thee by the Lord? And as Abner was coming to the camp of David, Saul said to him, Go, come down to the camp of the Philistines: for I will smite them.

¶ And Abner said, When the Philistines come out again, I will go down to the valley to meet them. And Abner said to the king, Go, I will put thee in safety tonight within the camp of the Philistines. And Abner went to meet the king, and said, I will get thee an armistice this day, and will bring thee home safe.

¶ And the king of Israel said to Abner, I will give thee half the kingdom of Israel, if thou bring me home David the son of Jesse, and bringest him safe home to me, that he may eat bread at my table.

¶ So Abner made a covenant with the elders of Israel, saying, If David be king over you, then shall you be his fathers' servants, and yield him homage. Then the elders of Israel came to Samuel at Ramah, and said, Send us a king to reign over us. And Samuel said to the elders, Consider well the things which you say: for when you have gone away from me, I will surely come down after you, and I will appoint a man after your mind, and will put him over you.

¶ And the elders of Israel said to Samuel, See, thou art old, and thy sons also walk not in thy steps: make us a king, to ride over us. And Samuel said unto the elders, What is it then that you say to me? I will not reign over you, neither will my son reign over you: the Lord shall reign over you.

¶ And all the elders of Israel came to Samuel, to岐点, and said, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons also walk not in thy steps: make us a king, to ride over us. make his father's house free in Israel.

26 ¶ Then David spake to the men that stood with him, and said, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the shame from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should revile the host of the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men, and Eliab was very angry with David, and said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come down to see the battle.

29 ¶ Then David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same manner, and the people answered him according to the former words.

31 ¶ And they that heard the words which David spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought.

32 So David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail him, because of him: thy servant will go, and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of war from his youth.

34 And David answered unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and likewise a bear, and took a sheep out of the flock, 35 And I went out after him and smote him, and took it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 So thy servant slew both the lion, and the bear: therefore this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath railed on the host of the living God.

37 ¶ Moreover David said, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. Then Saul said unto David, 'Go, and the Lord be with thee.'

38 And Saul put his raiment upon David, and put an helmet of brass upon his head, and put a brigandine upon him.

39 Then girded David his sword upon his raiment, and 'began to go: for he never proved it: and David said unto Saul, I can not go with these: for I am not accustomed. Wherefore David put them off him.

40 ¶ Then took he his 'staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of a brook, and put them in his shepherd's bag or scrip, and his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 ¶ And the Philistine came and drew near unto David, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but young, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with me with staves? And the Philistine 'cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the field.

45 ¶ Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the host of Israel, whom thou hast railed upon.

46 This day shall the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth, that all the world may know that Israel hath a God, 47 And that all this assembly may know, that the Lord saveth not with sword nor with spear, (for the battle is the Lord's) and he will give you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistine arose to fight against the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fell groveling to the earth.

50 So David overcame the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him, and the Philistines ran before David that day.

1 And when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him, as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father’s house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant: for he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan put off the robe that was upon him, and gave it David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, when David had no sword in his hand.

51 Then David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it out of his sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. So when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistines, until they came to the valley, and unto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistines fell down wounded by the way of Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistines, and spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem, and put his armor in his tent.

55 ¶ When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner the captain of his host, Abner, whose son is this young man? and Abner answered, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 Then the King said, Inquire thou whose son this young man is.

57 And when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, then Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

18 1 The amity of Jonathan and David. 8 Saul envieth David for the praise that the women gave him. 11 Saul would have slain David. 17 He promiseth him Merab to wife, but giveth him Michal. 27 David delivereth to Saul two hundred foreskins of the Philistines. 29 Saul feareth David, seeing that the Lord is with him.

1 And when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him, as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father’s house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant: for he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan put off the robe that was upon him, and gave it David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: so that Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul’s servants.

6 ¶ When they came again, and David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dancing to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of joy, and with rebecks.

7 And the women sang in their play, and said, ‘Saul hath slain his thousand, and David his ten thousand.

8 Therefore Saul was exceedingly wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he said, ‘They have ascribed unto David ten thousand, and to me they have ascribed but a thousand, and what can he have more save the kingdom?’

9 Wherefore Saul had an eye on David from that day forward.

10 ¶ And on the morrow, the evil spirit of God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a spear in Saul’s hand.

11 And Saul took the spear, and said, I will smite David through to the wall. But David avoided twice out of his presence.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captain over a thousand, and he went out and in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways: for the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afraid of him.

16 For all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ Then Saul said to David, Behold mine eldest daughter Merab, her I will give thee to wife: only be thou valiant son unto me, and 1fight the Lord’s battles: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be upon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be upon him.

18 And David answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the family of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab Saul’s daughter should have been given to David, ’she was given unto Adriel a Meholathite to wife.

20 ¶ Then Michal Saul’s daughter loved David: and they showed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a ‘snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law in the one of the twain.

22 And Saul commanded his servants, Speak with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath a favor to thee, and all his servants love thee: be now therefore the King’s son-in-law.

23 And Saul’s servants spake these words in the ears of David. And David said, ‘Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king’s son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of small reputation?

24 And then Saul’s servants brought him word again, saying, Such words spake David.

25 And Saul said, ‘This wise shall ye say to David, The king desireth no dowry, but an hundred foreskins, to be avenged of the King’s enemies: for Saul thought to make David fall into the hands of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well, to be the ‘King’s son-in-law: and the days were not expired.

27 Afterward David arose with his men, and went and slew of the Philistines two hundred men: and David brought their foreskins, and ‘they gave them wholly to the King that he might be the King’s son-in-law: therefore Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saul saw, and understood that the Lord was with David, and that Michal the daughter of Saul loved him.

29 Then Saul was more and more afraid of David, and Saul became always David’s enemy.

30 And when the Princes of the Philistines went forth, at their going forth ‘David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

19 2Jonathan declareth to David the wicked purpose of Saul. 11Michal his wife saveth him. 18David cometh to Samuel. 23The Spirit of prophecy cometh on Saul.

1 Then Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should ‘kill David: but Jonathan Saul’s son had a great favor to David.

2 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed unto thyself unto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself.

3 And I will go out and stand by my father in the field where thou ‘art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what he saith, and will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his works have been to thee very good.

5 For he ‘did put his life in danger, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou rejoicedst: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, and slay David without a cause?

6 Then Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and Saul ‘swore, As the Lord liveth, he shall not die.

7 So Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those words, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶ Again the war began, and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

9 ¶ And the evil spirit of the Lord was upon Saul, as he sat in his house having his spear in his hand, and David ‘played with his hand.

10 And Saul intended to smite David to the wall with the spear: but he turned aside out of Saul’s presence, and he smote the spear against the wall:

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David’s house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David’s wife told it him, saying, If thou save not thyself this night, tomorrow thou shalt be slain.

12 So Michal ‘let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Then Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goat’s ‘hair under...
19:14  And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.
19:15  And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him.
19:16  And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed with a pillow of goat's hair under the head of it.
19:17  And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go, or else I will kill thee.
19:18  ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.
19:19  But one told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.
19:20  And Saul sent messengers to take David, and when they saw a company of Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God fell upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.
19:21  And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise: again Saul sent messengers, and they prophesied.
19:22  Then went he himself to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and they said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.
19:23  And he went thither, even to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and he went prophesying until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
19:24  And he stripped off his clothes, and he prophesied also before Samuel, and fell down naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

20:1  And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what sin have I committed before thy father, that he seeketh my life?
20:2  And he said unto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing great nor small, but he will show it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? he will not do it.
20:3  And David swore again and said, Thy father knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not know it, lest he be sorry: but indeed, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.
20:4  Then said Jonathan unto David, Whosoever shall slay thee, I will do unto him as Jonathan hath done to me.
20:5  And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the first day of the month, and I should sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the fields unto the third day at even.
20:6  If thy father make mention of me, then say, David asked leave of me, that he might go to Bethlehem to his own city: for there is a yearly sacrifice for all that family.
20:7  And if he say thus, It is well, thy servant shall have peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickedness is concluded of him.
20:8  So shalt thou show mercy unto thy servant: for thou hast joined thy servant into a covenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquity, slay thou me: for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?
20:9  ¶ And Jonathan answered, God keep that from thee: for if I knew that wickedness were concluded of my father to come upon thee, would not I tell it thee?
20:10  Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? how shall I know, if thy father answer thee cruelly?
20:11  And Jonathan said to David, Come and let us go out into the field: and they twayn went out into the field.
20:12  Then Jonathan said to David, O Lord God of Israel, when I have grooped my father's mind to morrow at this time, or within this three days, and if it be well with David, and I then send not unto thee, and show it thee,
20:13  The Lord do so and much more unto Jonathan:

19:15  1 Behold, how the tyrants to accomplish their rage, neither regard oath nor friendship, God nor man.
19:18  1 Naioth was a school where the word of God was studieth, near to Ramah.
19:20  1 Being their chief instructor.
19:24  2 Changed their minds and praised God.
19:23  2 With a mind to persecute them.
20:1  1 For Saul was stayed, and prophesied a day and a night by God's providence, that David might have time to escape.

but if my father have mind to do thee evil, I will show thee also, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath been with my father.

14 Likewise I require not whiles I live: for I doubt not but thou wilt show me the mercy of the Lord, that I die not.

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy mercy from mine house forever: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of David, every one from the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a bond with the house of David, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of David's enemies.

17 And again Jonathan swore unto David, because he loved him (for he loved him as his own soul,)

18 Then said Jonathan to him, Tomorrow is the first day of the month: and thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shall be empty.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thyself three days, then thou shalt go down quickly and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself, when this matter was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And after I will send a boy, saying, Go, seek the arrows. If I say unto the boy, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee, go thy way: for the Lord liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the boy, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee, go thy way: for the Lord hath sent thee away.

23 As touching the thing which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the Lord be between thee and me forever.

24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the first day of the month came, the king sat to eat meat.

25 And the king sat, as at other times upon his seat, even upon his seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, though he were clean, or else because he was not purified.

27 But on the morrow which was the second day of the month, David's place was empty again: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor today?

28 And Jonathan answered unto Saul, David required of me, that he might go to Bethlehem.

29 For he said, Let me go, I pray thee: for our family offereth a sacrifice in the city, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now, if I have found favor in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, and see my brethren: this is the cause that he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and said unto him, Thou son of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know, that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the earth, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fet him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he die? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a spear at him to hit him, whereby Jonathan knew, that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 ¶ So Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was sorry for David, and because his father had reviled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Jonathan went out into the field, at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him.

36 And he said unto his boy, Run now, seek the arrows which I shot, and as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrow was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the boy. Make speed, haste and stand not still: and Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master, 39 But the boy knew nothing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his bow and arrows unto the boy that was with him, and said unto him, Go, carry them into the city.

41 ¶ As soon as the boy was gone, David arose out of a place that was toward the 'South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both twain, till David excceeded.

42 Therefore Jonathan said to David, Go in peace: that which we have sworn both of us in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be between me and thee, and between my seed and between thy seed, let it stand forever.

43 And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

21 Then came David to Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He geteth of him the showbread to satisfy his hunger. 7 Doeg Saul's servant was present. 10 David fleeth to King Achihur, 13 and there feigneth himself mad.

1 Then came David to 'Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said to Ahimelech the Priest, The 'King hath commanded me a certain thing, and hath appointed my servants to such and such places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast ought under thine hand, give me five cakes of bread, or whatcometh to hand.

4 And the Priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but here is 'hallowed bread, if the young men have kept themselves, at least from 'women.

5 David then answered the Priest, and said unto him, Certainly women have been separate from us these two or three days since I came out: and the 'vessels of the young men were holy, though the way were profane, and how much more then shall every one 'be sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, save the showbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the servants of Saul 'abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the 'chiefest of Saul's herdmen.)

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, Is there not here under thine hand a spear or a sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor mine harness with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the 'valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the 'Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other save that here: And David said, There is none to that, give it me.

10 And David arose and fled the same day from the presence of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the 'King of the land? did they not sing unto him in dances, saying, 'Saul hath slain his thousand, and David his ten thousand? 12 And David 'considered these words, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and 'scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is beside himself, wherefore have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? 'shall he come into mine house?

22 David hideth himself in a cave. 2 Many that were in trouble came unto him. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 18 Saul causeth the Priests to be slain. 20 Abiathar escapeth.

1 David therefore departed thence, and saved himself in the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And there gathered unto him all men that were in trouble, and all men that were in debt, and all those that were vexed in mind, and he was their 'prince, and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpah in 'Moab, and said unto the King of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold, but depart and go into the land of Judah. Then David departed and came into the forest of Hereth.

6 ¶ And Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remained in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants stood about him.

7 And Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, the sons of Benjamin, will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards: will he make you all captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds:

8 That all ye have conspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my son hath stirred up my servant to lie in wait against me, as appeareth this day?

9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (who was appointed over the servants of Saul) and said, I saw the son of Jesse, when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, 10 Who asked counsel of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and he gave him also the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, to wit, the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.

12 And Saul said, Hear now thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 Then Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him victual, and a sword, and hast asked counsel of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lie in wait as appeareth this day?

14 And Ahimelech answered the King, and said, Who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, being also the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy commandment, and is honorable in thine house?

15 ¶ Have I this day first begun to ask counsel of God for him? be it far from me, let not the king impute anything unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less nor more.

16 Then the King said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 And the King said unto the 'sergeants that stood about him, Turn, and slay the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and showed it not unto me. But the servants of the King would not move their hands to fall upon the Priests of the Lord.

18 Then the King said to Doeg, Turn thou and fall upon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran upon the Priests, and slew that same day fourscore and five persons, that did wear a linen Ephod.

19 Also Nob the city of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both child and suckling, both ox and ass, and sheep with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar showed David, that Saul had slain the Lord's Priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, and fear not: for he that seeketh my life, shall seek thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

23 David chaseth the Philistines from Keilah. 13 David departeth from Keilah, and remaineth in the wilderness of Ziph. 16 Jonathan comforteth David. 28 Saul's enterprise is broken in pursing David.

1 Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and spoil the barns.

2 Therefore David asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the Lord answered David, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

22:15 ¶ Have I not at other times also, when he had great affairs, consulted with thee for him?

22:17 ¶ Of, footmen.

22:20 ¶ This was God's providence, who according to his promise preserved some of the house of Eli, 1 Sam. 2:33.

22:23 ¶ Or, he that taketh thy life, shall take mine also.

23:1 ¶ Which was a city in the tribe of Judah, Josh. 15:44.
3 And David's men said unto him, See, we be afraid here in Judah, how much more if we come to Keilah against the host of the Philistines?
4 Then David asked counsel of the Lord again. And the Lord answered him, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.
5 ¶ So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.
6 (And when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he brought an Ephod with him.)
7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing he is come into a city that hath gates and bars.
8 Then Saul called all the people together to war for to go down to Keilah, and to besiege David and his men.
9 ¶ And David having knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod.
10 Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.
11 Will the lords of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? and will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come down.
12 Then said David, Will the lords of Keilah deliver me up, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up.
13 ¶ Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whither they could. And it was told Saul, that David was fled from Keilah, and he left off his journey.
14 And David abode in the wilderness in the holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

23:16 ¶ Hebrew, his hand.
23:17 ¶ Jonathan assureth David, that God will accomplish his promise, and that his father striveth against his own conscience.
23:19 ¶ Or, of the wilderness.
23:21 ¶ The Lord recompense this friendship.
23:22 ¶ Hebrew, where his foot hath been.
23:23 ¶ In your country of Ziph, which is in Judah.
23:25 ¶ Which was also in the tribe of Judah, Josh. 15:55.
23:27 ¶ Thus the Lord can pull back the bridle of the tyrants and deliver his out of the lion's mouth.
Haste thee, and come: for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place, ‘Sela Hammahlekoth.

24 1 David hid in a cave sparest Saul. 10 He showeth to Saul his innocency. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 22 He causeth David to swear unto him to be favorable to his.

1 And David went thence, and dwelt in holds at En Gedi.

2 When Saul was turned from the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of ‘En Gedi.

3 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks among the wild goats.

4 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way where there was a cave, and Saul went in to do his easement: and David and his men sat in the inward parts of the cave.

5 And the men of David said unto him, See, the day is come, whereof the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, and thou shalt do to him as it shall seem good to thee. Then David arose and cut off the lap of Saul's garment privately.

6 And afterward David was touched in his heart, because he had cut off the lap which was on Saul's garment.

7 And he said unto his men, The Lord keep me from doing that thing unto my master the Lord's Anointed, to lay mine hand upon him: for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So David overcame his servants with these words, and suffered them not to arise against Saul: for Saul rose up out of the cave and went away.

9 ¶ David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, O my lord the King. And when Saul looked behind him, David inclined his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

10 And David said to Saul, Wherefore givest thou an ear to men's words, that say, Behold, David seeketh evil against thee?
David's wives. 44 Michal is given to Palti.

1 Then 'Samuel died, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his own house at Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 Now in 'Maon was a man, who had his possession in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mighty, and had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdom, and beautiful, but the man was churlish, and evil conditioned, and was of the family of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 Therefore David sent ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and ask him in my name how he doeth.

6 And thus shall ye say for salutation, Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperity.

7 Behold, I have heard, that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds were with us, and we did them no hurt, neither did they miss anything all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy servants, and they will show thee. Wherefore let these young men find favor in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) give, I pray thee, whatsoever is ready for us.

9 ¶ And when David's young men came, they told Nabal all those words in the name of David, and held their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants nowadays, that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 ¶ So David's servants turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those things.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird every man his sword about him. And they girded every man his sword: David also girded his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred abode by the carriage.

14 Now one of the servants told Abigail Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he 'railed on them.

15 Notwithstanding the men were very good unto us, and we had no displeasure, neither missed we anything as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields.

16 They were as a wall unto us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping sheep.

17 Now therefore take heed, and see what thou shalt do: for evil will surely come upon our master, and upon all his family: for he is so wicked, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred cakes, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred 'frails of raisins, and two hundred of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 Then she said unto her servants, Go ye before me: behold, I will come after you: yet she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And as she rode on her ass, she came down by a secret place of the mountain, and behold, David and his men came down against her, and she met them.

21 And David said, Indeed I have kept all in vain this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: for he hath required me evil for good.

22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David: for surely I will not leave of all that he hath by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted and lighted off her ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, Oh, my lord, I have committed the iniquity, and I pray thee, let thine handmaid speak to thee, and hear thou the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man, Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: 'Nabal is his sword:

25:1 That is, among his own kindred.

25:2 Maon and Carmel were cities in the tribe of Judah. Carmel the mountain was in Galilee.

25:5 Hebrew, of peace.

25:6 Some read, so mayest thou live in prosperity the next year, both thou, etc.

25:8 Whosoever thou hast ready for us.

25:10 Thus the covetous wretches instead of relieving the necessity of God's children, used to revile their persons and condemn their cause.

25:13 Hebrew, vessel.
26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth (the Lord, I say, that hath withheld thee from coming to shed blood, and that thine hand should not save thee) so now thine enemies shall be as Nabal, and they that intend to do my lord evil.

27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it be given unto the young men, that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the Lord will make my lord a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battles of the Lord, and none evil hath been found in thee in all thy life.

29 Yet a man hath risen up to persecute thee, and to seek thy soul, but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God: and the soul of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And when the Lord shall have done to my lord all the good that he hath promised thee, and shall have made thee ruler over Israel, 31 Then shall it be no grief unto thee, nor offence of mind unto my lord, that he hath not shed blood causeless, nor that my lord hath not preserved himself: and when the Lord shall have dealt well with my lord, remember thine handmaid.

32 Then David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me.

33 And blessed be thy counsel, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to the presence of my lord: for the Lord will make my lord a sure house, and to thine house: behold, I have heard thy voice, and have granted thy petition.

34 Then in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife told him those words, and his heart died within him, and he was like a stone.

35 Then David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, Go up in peace to thine house: behold, I have heard thy voice, and have granted thy petition.

36 ¶ So Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he had made a feast in his house, like the feast of a king, and his heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, neither less nor more, until the morning arose.

37 And about ten days after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

38 Now when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath judged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. Also David sent to commune with Abigail, to take her to his wife.

39 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us to thee, to take thee to his wife.

40 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, and her five maids followed her, and she went after the messengers of David, and was his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, which was his wife, to Palti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

26 1 David was discovered unto Saul by the Ziphites. 2 David taketh away Saul’s spear, and a pot of water that stood at his head. 21 Saul confesseth his sin.

1 Again the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, ‘Dost not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah before Jeshimon?’

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, for to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon by the wayside. Now David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him, and his heart was merry within him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord whom thou sentest.

26:27 ¶ Or, give me leave.

26:28 ¶ Or, the field of the valley.

26:29 ¶ Or, the shield.

26:32 ¶ Or, confirmed his kingdom to his posterity.

26:33 ¶ Or, the meadow of the valley.
26:4 (For David had sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come ‘in very deed.’)

26:5 Then David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when David beheld the place where Saul lay, and ‘Abner the son of Ner which was his chief captain, (for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him.)

26:6 Then spake David, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to ‘Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the host? Then Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

26:7 So David and Abishai came down to the people by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his spear did stick in the ground at his ‘head: and Abner and the people lay round about him.

26:8 ¶ Then said Abishai to David, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a spear to the earth, and I will not smite him ‘again.

26:9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand ‘on the Lord’s anointed, and be guiltless?

26:10 Moreover David said, As the Lord liveth, either the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

26:11 The Lord keep me from laying mine hand upon the Lord’s anointed: but, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a spear to his ‘head, and let the Lord set his enemies against him.

26:12 So David took the spear and the pot of water, and put them in his hand: and they went to Saul by night, and Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his spear did stick in the ground at his ‘head.

26:13 Then David went unto the other side, and stood on the top of an hill a far off, a great space being between them.

26:14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, ‘Hearest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, and said, Who art thou that criest against the King?

26:15 ¶ And David said to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy Lord the King? for there came one of the folk in to destroy the king thy lord.

26:16 This is not well done of thee: as the Lord liveth, ye are ‘worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the Lord’s anointed: and now see where the King’s spear is, and the pot of water that was at his head.

26:17 And Saul knew David’s voice, and said, Is this thy voice, ‘my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O King.

26:18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus persecute his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

26:19 Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my Lord the King hear the words of his servant. If the Lord have stirred thee up against me, ‘let him smell the savor of a sacrifice: but if the children of men have done it, cursed be they before the Lord: for they have cast me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serve ‘other gods.

26:20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the mountains.

26:21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: Come again, my son David: for I will do thee no more harm, because my soul was ‘precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have done foolishly, and have erred exceedingly.

26:22 Then David answered, and said, Behold the King’s spear, let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

26:23 And let the Lord reward every man according to his ‘righteousness and faithfulness: for the Lord had delivered thee into mine hands this day, but I would not lay mine hand upon the Lord’s anointed.

26:24 And behold, like as thy life was much set by the face of the Lord, so shall mine life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliver me out of all tribulation.

26:25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed art thou, my son David: for thou shalt do great things, and also prevail. So David went his way, and Saul returned to his ‘place.

27 2 David fleeth to Achish King of Gath, who giveth him Ziklag. 8 David destroyeth certain of the Philistines. 10 Achish is deceived by David.

1 And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I save myself in the land of the Philistines, and that Saul may have no hope of me to seek me anymore in all the coasts of Israel, and so escape out of his hand?

2 David therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him, went unto Achish the son of Maach king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, every man with his household, David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail Nabal’s wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: so he sought no more for him.

5 And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some other city of the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the head city of the kingdom with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 ¶ And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines, was four months and certain days.

8 Then David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way which they came to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Where have ye been a roving this day? And David answered, Against the South of Judah, and against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, and say, So did David, and so will he be his manner all the while that he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

28 1 David hath the chief charge promised about Achish.

1 Now at that time the Philistines assembled their bands and army to fight with Israel: therefore Achish said to David, Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battle, thou, and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head forever.

3 (“Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his own city: and Saul had put away the sorcerers, and the Soothsayers out of the land.”)

4 Then the Philistines assembled themselves, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart was sore astonied.

6 Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and ask of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman at En Dor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saul changed himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, conjecture unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then seest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul swore to her by the Lord, saying, 1He hath made his people of Israel utterly to abhor him: therefore he shall be my servant forever.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he answered, Bring me up 1Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.
13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw 1gods ascending up out of the earth.
14 Then he said unto her, What fashion is he of? And she answered, An old man cometh up lapped in a mantel: and Saul knew that it was 1Samuel, and he inclined his face to the ground, and bowed himself.
15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? Then Saul answered, I am in great distress: for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answered me no more, neither by Prophets, neither by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest tell me, what I shall do.
16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing, the Lord is gone from thee, and I will no more speak with thee.
17 Even the Lord hath done to him, as he spake by mine hand: for the Lord will rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and give it thy neighbor David.
18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the Lord, nor executedst not the voice of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this unto thee this day.
19 Moreover the Lord will deliver Israel with thee into the hands of the Philistines: and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me, and the Lord shall give the host of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.
20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid because of the words of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.
21 Then the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my soul in mine hand, and have obeyed thy words which thou saidest unto me.
22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee, that thou mayest eat and get thee strength, and go on thy journey.
23 But he refused and said, I will not eat: but his servants and the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed.
24 Now the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked of it 1unleavened bread.
25 Then she brought them before Saul, and before his servants: and when they had eaten, they stood up, and went away the same night.

29 4 The princes of the Philistines cause David to be sent back from the battle against Israel, because they distrusted him.
1 So the Philistines were gathered together with all their armies in Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by the fountain which is in Jezreel.
2 And the princes of the Philistines went forth by hundreds and thousands, but David and his men came behind with Achish.
3 Then said the Princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the King of Israel, who hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found nothing in him, since he dwelt with me unto this day?
4 But the princes of the Philistines were wrath with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, 4Send this fellow back, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest that in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he obtain the favor of his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?
5 Is not this David, of whom they sang in dances, saying, 4Saul slew his thousand, and David his ten thousand?
6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, As the Lord liveth, thou hast been upright and good in my sight, when thou wentest out and in with me in the host, neither have I found evil with thee, since thou camest to me unto this day, but the princes do despair, but cannot seek for mercy by repentance.

1 The Amalekites burn Ziklag. 5 David's two wives are taken prisoners. 6 The people would stone him. 8 He asketh counsel of the Lord, and pursuing his enemies recovereth the prey. 19 And they lacked nothing, small or great, son or daughter, or of the spoil of all that they had taken: also David rescued his two wives. 18  And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also David rescued his two wives. 17 And David smote them from the twilight even until the evening of the next morrow, so that there held, they lay scattered abroad upon all the earth, 16 We roved upon the South of Chereth, and upon the coast belonging to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. 15 And David said unto him, Canst thou bring me to this company? And he said, 'Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this company. 14 We roved upon the South of Chereth, and upon the coast belonging to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. 13 ¶ And David said unto him, To whom belongeth thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, and servant to an Amalekite: and my master left me three days ago because I fell sick. 12 Also they gave him a few figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water in three days, and three nights. 11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him 'bread, and he did eat, and they gave him water to drink. 10 But David and four hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behind, being too weary to go over the river Besor.) 11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him 'bread, and he did eat, and they gave him water to drink. 12 Also they gave him a few figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water in three days, and three nights. 13 ¶ And David said unto him, To whom belongeth thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, and servant to an Amalekite: and my master left me three days ago because I fell sick. 14 We roved upon the South of Chereth, and upon the coast belonging to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. 15 And David said unto him, Canst thou bring me to this company? And he said, 'Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this company. 16 ¶ And when he had brought him thither, behold, they lay scattered abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great prey that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. 17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next morrow, so that there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled. 18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also David rescued his two wives. 19 And they lacked nothing, small or great, son or daughter, or of the spoil of all that they had taken. away: David recovered them all.

20 David also took all the sheep, and the oxen, and drove them before his cattle, and said, This is David's prey.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men that were too weary for to follow David: whom they had made also to abide at the river Besor: and they came to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: so when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the evil and wicked of the men that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, therefore will we give them none of the prey that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children: therefore let them carry them away and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us, into our hands.

24 For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be, that tarryeth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 ¶ So from that day forward he made it a statute and a law in Israel, until this day.

26 ¶ When David therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the prey unto the Elders of Judah and to his friends, saying, See there is a blessing for you of the spoil of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Bethel, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Jattir,

28 And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa,

29 And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormah, and to them of Chorashan, and to them of Athach, 31 And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where David and his men had haunted.

30:22 1 Under these are comprehended the cattle and goods, which appertained to every man.

31:13 1 According to the custom of mourners.
It was told David of Saul’s death. He causeth him to be slain that brought the tidings. He lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan.

After the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and had been two days in Ziklag, behold, a man came the third day out of the host from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and when he came to David, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

Then David said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the host of Israel I am escaped.

Then the young man that told it him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear, and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

And when he looked back, he saw me, and called me. And I answered him, Here am I.

And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

Then said he unto me, I pray thee, come upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

So I came upon him, and slew him, and because I was sure that he could not live, after that he had fallen, I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and brought them hither unto my lord.

Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

And they mourned and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slain with the sword.

¶ Afterward David said unto the young man that told it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger an Amalekite.

And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anointed of the Lord?

Then David called one of his young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

Thy blood be upon thine own head: for thine own mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord’s Anointed.

Then David mourned with this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son, and he bade them teach the children of Judah to shoot, as it is written in the book of righteous, Jasher.

O noble Israel, he is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty overthrown!

Tell it not in Gath, nor publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

Ye mountains of Gilboa, upon you be neither dew nor rain, nor be there fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is cast down, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

The bow of Jonathan never turned back, neither did the sword of Saul return empty from the blood of the slain, and from the fat of the mighty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, which clothed you in scarlet, with pleasures, and hanged ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How were the mighty slain in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 Woe is me for thee, my brother Jonathan: very wonderful, passing the love of women: how are the mighty overthrown, and the weapons of war destroyed!

David is anointed King in Hebron. Abner maketh Ishbosheth King over Israel. The battle of the servants of David and Ishbosheth. The burial of Asahel.

1 After this, David asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go? He then answered, Unto Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And David brought up the men that were with him, every man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 ¶ Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David King over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, that the men of Jabesh Gilead buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said unto them, Blessèd are ye of the Lord, that ye have showed such kindness unto your lord Saul, that you have buried him.

6 Therefore now the Lord show mercy and truth unto you: and I will recompense you this benefit, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strong, and be you valiant: albeit your master Saul be dead, yet nevertheless the house of Judah hath anointed me King over them.

8 ¶ But Abner the son of Ner that was captain of Saul's host, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim, 9 And made him King over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years: but the house of Judah followed David.

11 (And the time which David reigned in Hebron over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.)

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David went out and met one another by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over twelve of Benjamin by number, which pertained to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And every one caught his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side, so they fell down together: wherefore the place was called Helkath Hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And the battle was exceedingly sore that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel fell before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light on foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, Yea.

21 Then Abner said, Turn thee either to the right hand or to the left, and take one of the young men, and take thee his weapons: and Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner said to Asahel, Depart from me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I be able to hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 And when he would not depart, Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him: and he fell down there, and died in his place. And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down, and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and were on an heap, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour forever? knowest thou not, that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long then shall it be, or thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, if thou hadst not provoked them to battle, as verse 14.

28 ¶ So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they anymore.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and went over Jordan, and past through all Bithron till they came to Mahanaim.

30 Joab also returned back from Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David’s servants nineteen men, and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner’s men, 31 five hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulcher of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Joab and his men went all night, and when they came to Hebron, the day arose.

3 Long war between the houses of Saul and David. 2 The children of David in Hebron. 12 Abner turneth to David.

1 There was then long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker.

2 And unto David were children born in Hebron: and his eldest son was Amnon of Ahinoam the Jezreelite,

3 And his second, was Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai the king of Geshur,

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith: and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital:

5 And the sixth, Ithream by Eglah David’s wife: these were born to David in Hebron.

6 ¶ Now while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishboseth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my father’s concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ishboseth, and said, Am I a dog’s head, which against Judah do show mercy this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his neighbors, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 ¶ So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to David, even so I do to him,

10 To remove the kingdom from the house of Saul, that the throne of David may be established over Israel, and over Judah, even from Dan to Beersheba.

11 And he durst no more answer to Abner: for he feared him.

12 ¶ Then Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? who should also say, Make covenant with me, and behold, mine hand shall be with thee, to bring all Israel unto thee.

13 Who said, Well, I will make a covenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face, except thou bring Michal Saul’s daughter when thou comest to see me.

14 ¶ Then David sent messengers to Ishboseth Saul’s son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I married for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ishboseth sent, and took her from her
16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping behind her, unto Bahurim: then said Abner unto him, Go, and return. So he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Ye fought for David in times past, that he might be your King.

18 Now then do it: for the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistines, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 Also Abner spake to Benjamin, and afterward Abner went to speak with David in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, having twenty men with him, and David made a feast unto Abner, and to the men that were with him.

21 Then Abner said unto David, I will rise up, and go gather all Israel unto my lord the King, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. Then David let Abner depart, who went in peace.

22 ¶ And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from the camp, and brought a great prey with them (but Abner was not with David in Hebron: for he had sent him away, and he departed in peace.)

23 When Joab, and all the host that was with him were come, men told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the King, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner: for he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

26 ¶ And when Joab was gone out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah unknowing to David.

27 And when Abner was come again to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him peaceably, and smote him under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 ¶ And when afterward it came to David’s ear, he said, I and my Kingdom are guiltless before the Lord forever, concerning the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father’s house, that the house of Joab be never without some that have running issues, or leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that doeth fall on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battle.)

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner: and King David himself followed the bier.

32 And when they had buried Abner in Hebron, the King lift up his voice, and wept beside the sepulcher of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the King lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thine hands were not bound, nor thy feet tied in fetters of brass: but as a man falleth before wicked men, so didst thou fall. And all the people wept again for him.

35 Afterward all the people came to cause David eat meat while it was yet day, but David swore, saying, So do God to me and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else till the sun be down.

36 And all the people knew it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the King did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day, how that it was not the King’s deed that Abner the son of Ner was slain.

38 And the King said unto his servants, Know ye not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak and newly anointed King: and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the Lord reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

4 And when Saul’s son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, then his hands were 2 feeble, and all Israel was afraid,

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerottite of the children of Benjamin: (for 1 Beeroth was reckoned to Benjamin)

3 Because the Beerottites fled to 2 Gittaim, and sojourned there, unto this day.)

4 And Jonathan Saul's son had a son that was lame on his feet: he was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Israel: then his nurse took him, and fled away. And as she made haste to flee, the child fell, and began to halt, and his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerottite, Rechab and Baanah went and came in the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth (who slept on a bed at noon.)

6 And behold, Rechab and Baanah his brother came into the midst of the house, as they 1 would have wheat, and they 2 smote him under the fifth rib, and fled.

7 For when they came into the house, he slept on his bed in his bed chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and took his head, and got them away through the plain all the night.

8 And they brought the head of Ishbosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ishbosheth Saul's son thine enemy, who sought after thy life: and the Lord hath avenged my Lord the King this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 Then David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerottite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath delivered out of the house of Saul, and of his seed.

10 When one told me, and said that Saul was dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings) I took him and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house, and upon his bed? shall I not now therefore require his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth?

12 Then David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron; but they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the sepulcher of Abner in Hebron.

3 David is made King over all Israel. 7 He taketh the fort of Ziam. 19 He asketh counsel of the Lord. 23 And overcometh the Philistines twice.

1 Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and said thus, Behold, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou ledest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and King David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David King over Israel.

4 ¶ David was thirty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years, and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ The King also and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that David could not come thither:

7 But David took the fort of Zion: this is the city of David.

8 Now David had said the same day, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, and getteth up to the gutters of the city of David, and cutteth off their hands and their feet, and saith, I will enter in hither, the same shall come to none other king, except David.

9 So David dwelt in that fort, and called it the city of David, and David built round about it, from Millo, and inward.

10 And David prospered and grew: for the Lord God of hosts was with him.

11 ¶ Hiram also king of 1 Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons for walls: and they built David an house.

12 Then David knew that the Lord had established punishment.

5:11 1 Hebrew, Zor.

him King over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David.

14 And these be the names of the sons, that were born unto him in Jerusalem, Shammau, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, and Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet.

15 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet.

16 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David: and when David heard, he went down to a fort.

17 But the Philistines came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

18 And David asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hands? And the Lord answered David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thy hands.

19 Then David came to Baal Perazim, and smote the Philistines from Geba, until thou camest to Gezer.

20 Then David came to Baal Perazim, and smote them there, and said, The Lord hath divided mine enemies asunder before me, as waters be divided asunder: therefore he called the name of that place, Baal Perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them.

22 Again the Philistines came up, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David asked counsel of the Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not go up, but turn about behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of one going behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

25 Then David did so as the Lord had commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Geba, until thou camest to Gezer.

3 The Ark is brought forth of the house of Abinadab. 7 Uzzah is stricken, and dieth. 14 David dances before it. 16 and is therefore despised of his wife Michal.

1 Again David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, even thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God, whose Name is called by the Name of the Lord of hosts, that dwelleth upon it between the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in Gibeah. And Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab did drive the new cart.

4 And when they brought the Ark of God out of the house of Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, Ahio went before the Ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the Lord with all their might, and was girded with a linen Ephod.

6 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, and praised God, and sang Psalms.

7 And the Lord was very wroth with Uzzah, and smote him in the same place for his fault, and there he died by the Ark of God.

8 And David was displeased because the Lord had smitten Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah until this day.

9 Therefore David that day feared the Lord, and said, How shall the Ark of the Lord come to me?

10 So David would not bring the Ark of the Lord unto him into the city of David, but David carried it into the house of Obed-Edom a Gittite.

11 And the Ark of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-Edom a Gittite, three months, and the Lord blessed Obed-Edom, and all his household.

12 And one told King David, saying, The Ark hath blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that is in his house.

13 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, and praised God, and sang Psalms.

14 And David danced before the Lord all that day, and all his mighty men.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought the Ark of God...
the Ark of the Lord with shouting, and sound of trumpet.

16 And as the Ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal Saul’s daughter looked through a window, and saw King David leap, and dance before the Lord, and she despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had brought in the Ark of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the midst of the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it: then David offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings before the Lord.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hosts, 19 And gave among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottle of wine: so all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, O how glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was uncovered today in the eyes of the maidens of his servants, as a fool uncovereth himself!

21 Then David said unto Michal, I was before the Lord, which chose me rather than thy father, and all his house, and commanded me to be ruler over the people of the Lord, even over Israel: and therefore will I play before the Lord, 22 And will yet be more vile than thus, and will be low in mine own sight, and of the very same maidservants, which thou hast spoken of, shall I be had in honor.

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

7 David would build God an house, but is forbidden by the Prophet Nathan. 8 God putteth David in mind of his benefits. 12 He promiseth continuance of his kingdom and posterity.

1 Afterward when the King sat in his house, and the Lord had given him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 The King said unto Nathan the Prophet, Behold, now I dwell in an house of cedar trees, and the Ark of God remaineth within the curtains.

3 Then Nathan said unto the king, Go, and do all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 ¶ And the same night the word of the Lord came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build me an house for my dwelling?

6 For I have dwelt in no house since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt unto this day, but have walked in a tent and Tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one word with any of the tribes of Israel when I commanded the Judges to feed my people Israel? or said I, Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees?

8 Now therefore so say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote following the sheep, that thou mightest be ruler over my people, over Israel.

9 And I was with thee wheresoever thou hast walked, and have destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 (Also I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more, neither shall wicked people trouble them anymore as beforetime, 11 And since the time that I set Judges over my people of Israel) and I will give thee rest from all thine enemies: also the Lord telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 ¶ And when thy days be fulfilled, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, and I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy body, and will establish his kingdom.

13 ¶ He shall build an house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14 ¶ I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and if he sinneth, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul whom I have put away before thee.

16 And thine house shall be established and thy kingdom forever before thee, even thy throne shall be established forever.

6:16 1 The worldlings are not able to comprehend the emotions that move the children of God to praise God by all manner of means. 6:20 1 That is, to pray for his house, as he had done for the people. 2 Or, vain man. 6:21 1 It was for no worldly affection, but only for that zeal that I bare to God’s glory. 6:23 1 Which was a punishment because she mocked the servant of God.

7:2 1 Within the Tabernacle covered with skins, Exod. 26:7.

7:5 1 Meaning, he should not: yet Nathan speaking according to man’s judgment and not by the spirit of prophecy, permitted him.

7:7 1 As concerning building of an house: meaning, that without God’s express word, nothing ought to be attempted. 7:9 1 I have made thee famous through all the world.

7:10 1 He promiseth quietness, if they will walk in his fear and obedience.

7:14 1 That is, gently, as fathers used to chastise their children.

7:16 1 This was begun in Solomon, as a figure, but accomplished in Christ.
17 Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue forever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spake it: and let the house of thy servant be blessed forever with thy blessing.

8 1 David overcometh the Philistines, and other strange nations, and maketh them tributaries to Israel.

1 After this now, David smote the Philistines and subdued them, and David took the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a cord, and cast them down to the ground: he measured them with two cords to put them to death, and with one full cord to keep them alive: so became the Moabites David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hadadezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took of them a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and David destroyed all the chariots, but he reserved an hundred chariots of them.

5 ¶ Then came the Aramites of Dammeke to succor Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David slew of the Aramites two and twenty thousand men.

6 And David put a garrison in Aram of Damascus: and the Aramites became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the Lord saved David wheresoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And out of Betah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) king David brought exceedingly much brass.

9 ¶ Then Toi king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Therefore Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to rejoice with him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Hadadezer had war with Toi) who brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of.

7 And David took the shields of gold that belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And out of Betah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) king David brought exceedingly much brass.

9 ¶ Then Toi king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Therefore Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to rejoice with him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Hadadezer had war with Toi) who brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of.
gold, and vessels of brass.
11 And king David dedicated them unto the Lord with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all the nations, which he had subdued:
12 Of 1Aram, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah.
13 So David got a name after that he returned, and had slain of the Aramites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand men.
14 And he put a garrison in Edom: throughout all Edom put he soldiers, and all they of Edom became David’s servants: and the Lord kept David whithersoever he went.
15 1Thus David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice unto all his people.
16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was 1Recorder.
17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the Priests, and Seraiah the Scribe.
18 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada 1and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David’s sons were chief rulers.

9 David restoreth all the lands of Saul’s to Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan. 10 He appointeth Ziba to see to the profit of his lands.

1 And David said, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul, that I may show him mercy for Jonathan’s sake?
2 And there was of the household of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, I thy servant am he.
3 Then the King said, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whom I may show the mercy of God? Ziba then answered the King, Jonathan hath yet a son which is lame of his feet.
4 Then the King said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo Debar.
5 ¶ Then king David sent, and took him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo Debar.
6 Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Behold thy servant.
7 Then David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father’s sake, and will restore thee all the fields of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.
8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?
9 Then the king called Ziba Saul’s servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master’s son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.
10 Thou therefore and thy sons and thy servants shall till the land for him, and bring in that thy master’s son may have food to eat. And Mephibosheth thy master’s son shall eat bread always at my table (now Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants.)
11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do, that Mephibosheth may eat bread at my table, as one of the king’s sons.
12 Mephibosheth also had a young son named Michal, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were servants unto Mephibosheth.
13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king’s table, and was lame on both his feet.

4 The messengers of David are villainously entreated of the king of Ammon. 7 Joab is sent against the Ammonites.

1 After this, the 1King of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.
2 Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent his servants to comfort him for his father. So David’s servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, that which is good in his eyes. and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do the defense of true religion and God's people.

10:12 4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the half of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

¶ When it was told unto David, he sent to meet them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king said, Tarry at Jericho, until your beards be grown, then return.

¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they 'stank in the sight of David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the 'Aramites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the strong men. 8 And the children of Ammon came out and put their army in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Aramites of Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish-Tob, and of Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people, he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon. 11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger than I, thou shalt help me, and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succor thee.

12 Be strong and let us be valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

13 Then Joab, and the people that was with him, joined in battle with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Aramites saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 When it was showed David, then he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam: and the Aramites set themselves in array against David, and fought with him:

18 And the Aramites fled before Israel: and David destroyed seven hundred chariots of the Aramites, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of his host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings, that were servants to Hadadezer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. and the Aramites feared to help the children of Ammon anymore.

11 1 The city Rabbah is besieged. 4 David com miteth adultery. 17 Uriah is slain. 27 David marrieth Bathsheba.

1 And when the year was expired in the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but David remained in Jerusalem.

2 And when it was evening-tide, David arose out of his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's palace: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself: and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and inquired what woman it was: and she was the daughter of Eliam, and the wife of Uriah the Hittite.

4 Then David sent messengers, and took her away: and she came unto him and he lay with her: (now she was purified from her uncleanness) and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived: therefore she sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ Then David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah came unto him, David demanded him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.

8 Afterward David said to Uriah, 'Go down to thine house, and wash thy feet. So Uriah departed out of the king's palace, and the king sent a present after him.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's palace with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 Then they told David, saying, Uriah went not down to his house: and David said unto Uriah, Comest thou not from thy journey? why didst thou not go down to thine house?

11 Then Uriah answered David, 'The Ark and Israel, and Judah dwell in tents: and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord abide in the open fields: shall I then go into mine house to eat and drink, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soul, I will not do this thing.

12 Then David said unto Uriah, Tarry yet this day, and tomorrow I will send thee away. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 Then David called him, and he did eat and drink before him, and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 And on the morrow David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote 'thus in the letter, 'Put ye Uriah in the forefront of the strength of the battle, and recule ye back from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

16 ¶ So when Joab besieged the city, he assigned Uriah unto a place, where he knew that strong men were.

17 And the men of the city came out, and fought with Joab: and there fell of the people of the servants of David, and Uriah the Hittite also died.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war.

19 ¶ And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling all the matters of the war unto the King, 20 'And if the king's anger arise, so that he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye unto the city to fight? knew ye not that they would hurl from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech son of 'Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? why went you nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Certainly the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, but we 'pursued them unto the entering of the gate.

24 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy servants, and some of the king's servants be dead: and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

25 'Then David said unto the messenger, 'Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and destroy it, and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 So when the mourning was past, David sent and took her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but the thing that David had done, 'displeased the Lord.

11:8 1 David thought that if Uriah lay with his wife, his fault might be cloaked.
11:11 1 Hereby God would touch David's conscience, that seeing the fidelity and religion of his servant, he would declare himself so forgetful of God, and injurious to his servant.
11:13 1 He made him drink more liberally than he was wont to do, thinking hereby he would have lain by his wife.

11:27 1 Hebrew, was evil in the eyes of the Lord.
12:1 1 Because David lay now drowned in sin, the loving mercy of God, which suffereth not his to perish, waketh his conscience by this similitude, and bringeth him to repentance.
12:4 1 Or, wayfaring man. who refused to take of his own sheep, and of his own oxen to dress for the stranger that was come unto him, but took the poor man’s sheep, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 Then David was exceedingly wroth with the man, and said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing, shall surely die.

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and had no pity thereof.

7 Then Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee King over Israel, and delivered thee out of the hand of Saul.

8 And gave thee thy lord’s house, and thy lord’s wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel, and of Judah, and would moreover (if that had been too little) have given thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus said the Lord, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and will bring a wicked man to vex thy soul.

12 For thou diddest it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 Then David said unto Nathan, I have sinned in mine own soul, because I have done wildly against the Lord.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child that is born unto thee, shall surely die.

15 ¶ So Nathan departed unto his house: and the child died.

16 David therefore besought God for the child, and fasted and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 Then the Elders of his house arose to come unto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat meat with them.

18 So on the seventh day the child died: and the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how then shall we say unto him, The child is dead, to vex him more?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and fasted, and went in unto her, and lay with her, according to those days, and fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether the Lord will have mercy on me, that the child may live?

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise up, and eat meat.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether the Lord will have mercy on me, that the child may live?

23 But now being dead, wherefore should I now fast? Can I bring him again anymore? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her, and bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: also the Lord loved him.

25 For the Lord had sent that he was born unto the house of David.

26 ¶ Then Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the city of the Kingdom.

27 Therefore Joab sent messengers to David, saying, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.
28 Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the city, that thou mayest take it, lest the victory be attributed to me.
29 So David gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and took it.
30 And he took their king’s crown from his head, (which weighed a talent of gold, with precious stones) and it was set on David’s head: and he brought away the spoil of the city in exceedingly great abundance.
31 And he carried away the people that was therein, and put them under saws, and under iron harrows, and under axes of iron, and cast them into the tile-kiln: even thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

1 Chapter 13

14 Amnon David’s son defileth his sister Tamar.
15 Tamar is comforted by her brother Absalom.
29 Absalom therefore killeth Amnon.

1 Now after this, so it was, that Absalom the son of David having a fair sister, whose name was Tamar, Amnon the son of David loved her.
2 And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her.
3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David’s brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man,
4 Who said unto him, Why art thou the king’s son, so lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? Then Amnon answered him, I love Tamar my brother Absalom’s sister.
5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lie down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father shall come to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and let her dress meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it of her hand.
6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may receive meat at her hand.
7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon’s house, and dress him meat.
8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house, and he lay down: and she took flour, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.
9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him, but he would not eat. Then Amnon said, Cause ye every man to go out from me: so every man went out from him.
10 ¶ Then Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.
11 And when she had set them before him to eat, he took her, and said unto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.
12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: commit not this folly.
13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee speak to the king, for he will not deny me unto thee.
14 Howbeit he would not hear unto her voice, but being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.
15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon said unto her, Up, get thee hence.
16 And she answered him, There is no cause: this evil (to put me away) is greater than the other that thou didst unto me: but he would not hear her.
17 But called his servant that served him, and said, Put this woman now out from me, and lock the door after her.
18 ¶ And she had a garment of diverse colors upon her: for with such garments were the King’s daughters that were virgins, apparel’d’ Then his servant brought her out, and locked the door after her.
19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the 13:23 And Absalom came to the King, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers: I pray thee, that the king with his servants would go with thy servant.

13:25 But the King answered Absalom, Nay my son, I pray thee, let us not go all, lest we be chargeable unto thee. Yet Absalom lay sore upon him: howbeit he would not go, but thanked him.

13:26 Then said Absalom, But, I pray thee, let us not go all, lest we be chargeable unto thee. Yet Absalom lay sore upon him: howbeit he would not go, but thanked him.

14:14 2 Absalom is reconciled to his father by the subtlety of Joab. 24 Absalom may not see the King's face. 25 The beauty of Absalom. 30 He causeth Joab's corn to be burnt, and is brought to his father's presence.

1 And then Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived, that the king's heart was toward Absalom,

2 And Joab sent to Teoa, and brought thence a subtle woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to mourn, and now put on mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil: but be as a woman that hath now long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him, (for Joab taught her what she should say).

4 ¶ Then the woman of Tekoa spake unto the king, and fell down on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, 1Help, O King.

5 Then the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman.
15 Therefore thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be ‘comfortable: for my lord the King is even as an ‘Angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

16 Then the king answered, and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

17 And the king said, Is not ‘the hand of Joab with thee in all this? Then the woman answered, and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the King, I will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for even thy servant Joab bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid.

18 For to the intent that I ‘should change the form of speech, thy servant Joab hath done this thing; but ‘my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an Angel of God, to understand all things that are in the earth.

19 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have ‘done this thing: go then, and bring the young man Absalom again.

20 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself and thanked the King. Then Joab said, This day thy servant knoweth, that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord the king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

21 ¶ And Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself and thanked the King. Then Joab said, This day thy servant knoweth, that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord the king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 ¶ And Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the King said, Let him ‘turn to his own house, and not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and not see my face.

25 Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised for beauty as Absalom: from the sole of his foot even to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at every year's end he polled it) because it was too heavy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred ‘shekels by the king's weight.

27 And Absalom had three sons, and one daughter named Tamar, which was a fair woman to look upon.

28 ¶ So Absalom dwelt the space of two years in the house of his father.
15:1 The practices of Absalom to aspire to the kingdom. 14 David and his flight. 31 David's prayer. 34 Hushai is sent to Absalom to discover his counsel.

1 After this, Absalom prepared chariots, horses, and fifty men to run before him.
2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood hard by the entering in of the gate: and every man that had any matter, and came to the king for judgment, him did Absalom call unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he answered, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.
3 Then Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.
4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any matter of controversy, might come to me, that I might do him justice.
5 And when any man came near to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the King for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
7 ¶ And after forty years, Absalom said unto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and render my vow which I have vowed unto the Lord.
8 For thy servant vowed a vow when I remained at Geshur, in Aram, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, I will serve the Lord.
9 And the King said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.
10 ¶ Then Absalom sent for Joab, who came to the king, and bowed himself to the ground on his face before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

11 ¶ And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called: and they went in their simplicity, knowing nothing.
12 Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite David's counselor, from his city Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the treason was great: for the people increased still with Absalom.
13 ¶ Then came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom.
14 Then David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Up, and let us flee: for we shall not escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he come suddenly and take us, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.
15 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, thy servants are ready to do according to all that my lord the king shall appoint.
16 So the king departed and all his household after him, and the king left ten concubines to keep the house.
17 And the king went forth and all the people with him, and tarried in a place far off.
18 And all his servants went about him, and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, even six hundred men which were come after him from Gath, went before the king.

19 Then said the King to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore comest thou also with us? Return and abide with the King, for thou art a stranger, depart thou therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and should I cause thee to wander today and go with us? I will go whither I can: therefore return thou, and carry again thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the King, and said, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there surely will thy servant be.

22 Then David said to Ittai, Come, and go forward. And Ittai the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people went forward, but the King passed over the brook Kidron: and all the people went over toward the way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadok also was there, and all the Levites with him, bearing the Ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the Ark of God: and Abiathar went up until the people were all come out of the city.

25 Then the King said unto Zadok, Carry the Ark of God again into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and the Tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee, behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The King said again unto Zadok, Carry the Ark of God again into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and the Tabernacle thereof.

28 Behold, I will tarry in the fields of the wilderness, until there come some word from you to be told me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Ark of God again to Jerusalem, and they tarried there.

30 And David went up the mount of olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and went barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had every man his head covered, and as they went up, they wept.

31 Then one told David, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that have conspired with Absalom: and David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 ¶ Then David came to the top of the mount where he worshipped God: and behold, Hushai the Archite came against him with his coat torn, and having earth upon his head.

33 Unto whom David said, If thou go with me, thou shalt be a burthen unto me.

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O King (as I have been in time past thy father's servant, so will I now be thy servant) then thou mayest bring me the counsel of Ahithophel to nought.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore whatsoever thou shalt hear out of the King's house, thou shalt show to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

36 Behold, there are with them their two sons: Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son: by them also shall ye send me everything that ye can hear.

37 So Hushai David's friend went into the city: and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 1 The infidelity of Ziba. 5 Shimei curseth David. 16 Hushai cometh to Absalom. 21 The counsel of Ahithophel for the concubines.

1 When David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred cakes of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of dried figs, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the King said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, They be asses for the king's household to ride on, and bread, and dried figs for the young men to eat, and wine, that the faint may drink in the wilderness.

3 And the King said, But where is thy master's son? Then Ziba answered the King, Behold, he remaineth in Jerusalem: for he said, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the King to Ziba, Behold, thine are, to wander today and go with us? I will go whither I can: therefore return thou, and carry again thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

5 ¶ And when King David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, named Shimei, the son of Gera: and he came out and cursed.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of King David: and all the people, and all the men of war were on his right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed; Come forth, come forth thou murderer, and wicked man.

8 The Lord hath brought upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath delivered thy kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and behold, thou art taken in thy wickedness, because thou art a murderer.

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the King, Why doth this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go, I pray thee, and I will smite him.

10 ¶ But the King said, What have I to do with thee, ye sons of Zeruiah? for he curseth, even because the Lord hath bidden him curse David:

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son which came out of mine own bowels, seeketh my life: then how much more now may this son of Benjamin? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord will look on mine affliction, and do me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountain over against them, and cursed as he went, and threw stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the King and all the people, and all the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, was come unto Absalom, Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the King; God save the King.

17 Then Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, Nay, but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with them will I dwell.

19 And moreover, unto whom shall I do service? not to his son? as I served before thy father, so will I before thee.

20 ¶ Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in to thy father’s concubines, which he hath left to keep the house: and when all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those days, was like as one had asked counsel at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

24 Moreover, Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me choose out now twelve thousand men, and I will up and follow after David this night,

25 And I will come upon him: for he is weary, and weak handled: so I will fear him, and all the people that are with him shall flee, and I will smite the king only.

26 And I will bring again all the people unto thee, and when all shall return, (the man whom thou seestkest being slain) all the people shall be in peace.

27 And the saying ‘pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel.

28 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

29 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shall we do after his saying, or no? tell thou.

30 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given, is not good at this time.
8 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some cave, or in some place: and though some of them be overthrown at the first, yet the people shall hear, and say, The people that follow Absalom, 'be overthrown.

10 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall 1shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israel be gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beersheba as the sand of the Sea in number, and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place, where we shall find him, and 'we will upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we will not leave him one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite, is better, than the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had 'determined to destroy the 'good counsel of Ahithophel, that the Lord might 3bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsel Absalom: and thus have I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and show David, saying, Tarry not this night in the fields of the wilderness, but rather get thee 1over, lest the king be melted.

17 ¶ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by 1En Rogelim, out of Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite out of Rogelim, 1Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched corn.

18 Nevertheless, a young man saw them, and told it to Absalom. Therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went down.

19 And 4the wife took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon, that the thing should not be known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought them, and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And as soon as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto him, Up, and get you quickly over the water; for 'such counsel hath Ahithophel given against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went over Jordan 'until the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come over Jordan.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and he went home unto his city, and put his household in order, and 'hanged himself, and died, and was buried in his father's grave.

24 ¶ Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host in the stead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son named Jithra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel out of Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite out of Rogelim, 28 1Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched corn.

29 And they brought honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

18 2 David divideth his army into three parts. 9 Absalom is hanged, slain, and cast into a pit. 33 David lamenteth the death of Absalom.

1 Then David numbered the people that were with him, and set over them captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds.

2 And David sent forth the third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and the third part under the hand of Abishai Joab's brother, the son of Zeruiah; and the other third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the King said unto the people, I will go with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not regard us, neither will they pass for us, though half of us were slain: but thou art now worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succor us out of the city.

4 Then the king said unto them, What seemeth you best, that I will do. So the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreat the young man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard when the King gave all the Captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meet Israel, and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim:

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before cattle beyond Jordan in this wood.

8 Of twenty thousand.

9 Absalom met the servants of David, and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule came under a great thick oak: and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth: and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And one that saw it, told Joab, saying, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 Then Joab said unto the man that told him, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not lay mine hand upon the King's son: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware, lest any touch the young man Absalom.

12 If I had done it, it had been the danger of my life: for nothing can be hid from the King: yea, thou thyself wouldest have been against me.

13 Then said Joab, I will not thus tarry with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

14 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

15 And ten servants that bare Joab's armor, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a mighty great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his life time had taken and reared him up a pillar, which is in the King's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 ¶ Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, I pray thee, let me run and bear the King tidings that the Lord hath delivered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger today, but thou shalt bear tidings another time, but today thou shalt bear none: for the King's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go, tell the King, what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok again to Joab, What, I pray thee, if I also run after Cushi? And Joab said, Wherefore now wilt thou run my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I run? Then he said unto him, Run. So Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overwent Cushi.

24 Now David sat between the two gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate upon the wall, and lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, he bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the potter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the King said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. Then the King said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fell down to the earth upon his face before the King, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hath shut up the men that rose against my lord the King.

29 And the King said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the King's servant, and cometh with good tidings.

30 And the King said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here: so he turned aside and stood still.

31 And behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hath delivered thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee, than all the evil that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto.

32 Then the King said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, When Joab sent the King's servant, me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what.

33 And the King said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here: so he turned aside and stood still.

34 And behold, Cushi came, and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hath delivered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

35 And the King said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the King, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

36 Then the King said, If he be alone, he bringeth tidings.

37 And he came apace, and drew near.

38 And Joab said, Wherefore now wilt thou run my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

39 But King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speak unto the Elders of Judah, saying, The King saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

40 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle: therefore why are ye so slow to bring the king again?

41 But King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speak unto the Elders of Judah, 19:12 ¶ And Mephiboseth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither washed his feet, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the king departed, until he returned in peace.

19:13 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and met the king, the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest thou not thou with me, Mephiboseth?

19:14 And he answered, My lord the King, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I would have mine ass saddled to ride thereon, for to go with the king, because thy servant is lame.

19:15 And he hath accused thy servant unto my lord the king: but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore thy pleasure.

19:16 For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king, yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table: what right have I yet to cry anymore unto the king?

19:17 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou anymore of thy matters? I have said, Thou, and Ziba, divide the lands.

19:18 And Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king, when he was come over Jordan.

19:19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto his servant, because my lord the king is come home in peace.

19:20 And the king came to Gilgal, and lodged there: and all the people of Israel went up to Jerusalem to meet the king, and conducted him over Jordan.

19:21 And there went over a boat to carry over the men of Benjamin, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David, and went over Jordan before the king.

19:22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that this day ye should be adversaries unto me? shall there any man die this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

19:23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die, and the king swore unto him.
37 I pray thee, let thy servant turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried in the grave of my father and of my mother: but behold thy servant Chimham, let him go with my lord the King, and do to him what shall please thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go with me, and I will do to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 So all the people went over Jordan: and the king passed over: and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, and he returned unto his own place.

40 ¶ Then the King went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: and we have more right to sedition, or else by causing Israel to depart, thought they of Judah would have less esteemed him.

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and have also half the people of Israel.

44 So all the people went over Jordan: and the king went over: and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, and he returned unto his own place.

45 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, Are ye in health, my lord? and Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

46 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: for therewith he smote him in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and died: then Joab's men took Amasa and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own burying-ground, which is in Gihon.

47 ¶ Then the King went to Gilgal, and Chimham went before them, and Joab's garment, and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

1 Then there was come thither a wicked man, (named Sheba the son of Bichri, a man of Benjamin,) who was a son of the sons ofigur. The men of Israel sent to Sheba the son of Bichri, saying, Come up to Absalom.

2 So every man of Israel went from David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri.

3 When David then came to his house to Jerusalem, the king took the ten women concubines that he had left behind him to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the King to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Judah, but he tarried longer than the time which he had appointed him.

6 Then David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lord's servants and follow after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they departed out of Jerusalem, to follow after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them, and Joab's garment, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and smote him not the second time: so he died: then Joab and Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the son of Bichri.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? and Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: for therewith he smote him in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and died: then Joab's men took Amasa and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own burying-ground, which is in Gihon.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoreth Joab, and he that is of David's part, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa walled up in blood in the midst of the way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, because he saw that everyone that came by him, stood still.

13 ¶ When he was removed out of the way, every man went after Joab, to follow after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and Beth Maachah and all places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went also after him.

15 So they came, and besieged him in Abel, near to Beth Maachah, and they cast up a mount against the city, and the people thereof stood on the rampart, and all the people that was with Joab, destroyed and cast down the wall.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city; Hear, hear, I pray you, say unto Joab, Come thou hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he came near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, Yea. And she said to him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake thus, They spake in the old time, saying, They should ask of Abel: and so they have continued.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable, and faithful in Israel: and thou goest about to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou devour the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Joab answered, and said, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I should devour, or destroy it.

21 The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the son of Bichri by name) hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver us him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people with wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it to Joab: then he blew the trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent: and Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the King.

23 ¶ Then Joab was over all the host of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites,

24 And Adoram over the tribute, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the Recorder,

25 And Sheva was Scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

26 And also Ira the Jairite was chief about David.

CHAPTER 21

21 1 Three dear years. 9 The vengeance of the sins of Saul lighteth on his seven sons, which are hanged. 15 Four great battles, which David had against the Philistines.

1 Then there was a famine in the days of David, three years together: and David asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2 Then the King called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, unto whom the children of Israel had sworn: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeal toward the children of Israel and Judah)

3 And David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the Lord?

4 The Gibeonites then answered him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say that will I do for you.

5 Then they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that imagined evil against us, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lord’s chosen, And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king had compassion on Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Saul, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou devour the inheritance of the Lord?

8 The Gibeonites then answered him, W e will have no silver nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say that will I do for you.

5 Then they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that imagined evil against us, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lord’s chosen, And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king had compassion on Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Saul, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou devour the inheritance of the Lord?

8 The Gibeonites then answered him, W e will have no silver nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say that will I do for you.

9 And he delivered them unto the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountain before the Lord: so they ’died all seven together: and they were slain in the time of harvest: in the first days, and in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took a sackcloth and hanged it up for her upon the rock, from to God to remove this plague from his people.

21:4 2 Save only of Saul’s stock.

21:6 Of Saul’s kinsmen.

2 To pacify the Lord.

21:8 1 Here Michal is named for Merab, Adriel’s wife, as appeareth, 1 Sam. 18:19; for Michal was the wife of Paltiel, 1 Sam. 25:44, and never had child, 2 Sam. 6:23.

21:9 1 Hebrew, fell.

2 Which was in the month Abib or Nisan, which contained part of March and part of April.

21:10 1 To make her a tent wherein she prayed to God to turn away his wrath.
the beginning of harvest, until 2water dropped upon them from the heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to 3light on them by day, nor beasts of the field by night.

11 ¶ And it was told David, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa.

13 So he brought thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the grave of Kish his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then 4appeased with the land.

15 ¶ Again the Philistines hath war with Israel: and David went down, and his servants with him, and they fought against the Philistines, and David fainted.

16 Then Ishbi-Benob which was of the sons of 1Haraphah (the head of whose spear weighed three hundred 2shekels of brass) even he being girded with a new 3sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succored him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then David's men swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, lest thou quench the 4light of Israel.

18 ¶ And after this there was also a battle with the Philistines at 1Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was one of the sons of Haraphah.

19 And there was yet another battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim, a Bethlehemite slew 1Goliath the Gittite: the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 Afterward there was also a battle in Gath, where was a man of 1great stature, and had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number: who was also the son of Haraphah.

21 And when he reviled Israel, Jonathan the son of 1Shimea the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to Haraphah in Gath, and died by the hand of David, and by the hands of his servants.

2  David after his victories praiseth God. 8 The anger of God toward the wicked. 44 He prophesieth of the rejection of the Jews, and vocation of the Gentiles.

1 And David spake the words of this 1song unto the Lord, what time the Lord had delivered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, 'The Lord is my 1rock and my fortress, and he that delivereth me.

3 God is my strength, in him will I trust: my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower and my refuge: my Savior, thou hast saved me from violence.

4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

5 For the 1pangs of death have compassed me: the floods of ungodliness have made me afraid.

6 The sorrows of the grave compassed me about: the snares of death overtook me.

7 1But in my tribulation did I call upon the Lord, and cry to my God, and he did hear my voice out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of the heavens moved and shook, because he was angry.

9 1Smoke went out at his nostrils, and consuming 1fire out of his mouth: coals were kindled thereat.

10 He 1bowed the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon 1Cherub and did fly, and he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12 And he made darkness a Tabernacle round about him, even the gatherings of waters, and the clouds of the air.

13 At the brightness of his presence 1the coals of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundered from heaven, and the most High gave his voice.
15 He shot arrows also, and scattered them: to wit, lightning, and destroyed them.
16 The channels also of the sea appeared, even the foundations of the world were discovered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
17 He sent from above, and took me: he drew me out of many waters.
18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.
19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity, but the Lord was my stay.
20 And brought me forth into a large place: he delivered me, because he favored me.
21 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the pureness of mine hands he recompensed me.
22 For I kept the ways of the Lord, and did not wickedly against my God.
23 For all his laws were before me, and his statutes: I did not depart therefrom.
24 I was upright also toward him, and have kept me from my wickedness.
25 Therefore the Lord did reward me according to my righteousness, according to my pureness before his eyes.
26 With the godly thou wilt show thyself godly: with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright.
27 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure, and with the froward thou wilt show thyself froward.
28 Thus thou wilt save the poor people: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, to humble them.
29 Surely thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkness.
30 For by thee have I broken through an host, and by my God have I leaped over a wall.
31 The way of God is uncorrupt: the word of the Lord is tried in the fire: he is a shield to all that trust in him.
32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mighty, save our God?
33 God is my strength in battle, and maketh my way upright.
34 He maketh my feet like hinds feet, and hath set me upon mine high places.

23:1 The last words of David.
6 The wicked shall be plucked up as thorns.
8 The names and facts of his mighty men.
15 He desired water, and would not drink it.
23:1 These also be the last words of David, David the son of Jesse saith, even the man who was set up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet singer of Israel saith.

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel spake to me, the strength of Israel said, Thou shalt bear rule over men, being just, and ruling in the fear of God.

4 Even as the morning light when the sun riseth, the morning, I say, without clouds, so shall mine house be, and not as the grass of the earth is by the bright rain.

5 For so shall not mine house be with God: for he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, perfect in all points, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that he will not make it grow so.

6 But the wicked shall be every one as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

7 But the man that shall touch them, must be fenced with iron, or with the shaft of a spear: and they shall be burnt with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ These be the names of the mighty men whom David hath: He that sat in the seat of wisdom, being chief of the princes, was Adino of Ezni, he slew eight hundred at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi, one of the three worthies with David, when they defied the Philistines gathered there to battle, when the men of Israel were gone up.

10 He arose and smote the Philistines, until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the Lord gave great victory the same day, and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 After him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite: for the Philistines assembled at a town, where was a piece of a field full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the field, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: so the Lord gave great victory.

13 ¶ Afterward three of the thirty captains went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam, and the host of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate.

16 Then the three mighty brake into the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took and brought it to David, who would not drink thereof, but poured it for an offering unto the Lord.

17 And said, O Lord, be it far from me, that I should do this. Is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among the three, and he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and he had the name among the three.

19 For he was most excellent of the three, and was their captain, but he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Beniah the son of Jehoiada the son of a valiant man, which had done many acts, and was of Kabzeel, slew two strong men of Moab: he went down also, and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in the time of snow.

21 And he slew an Egyptian a man of great stature, and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand: but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Beniah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

23 He was honorable among thirty, but he attained not to the first three: and David made him of his counsel.

24 ¶ Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty: Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem:

25 Shammoth the Harorite: Elikah the Harodite:

26 Helez the Pelonite: Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite:

27 Abiezer the Anathothite: Mebunnai the Hushathite:

28 Zalmon an Ahohite: Maharai the Netophathite:
And the wrath of the Lord was again kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, in that he said, Go, number Israel and Judah.

And Joab said unto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people an hundredfold more than they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King may see it:

And Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

And when Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King, and he numbered them, then the King was angry: and he said, There is a treason in Israel.

So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

¶ And Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

¶ And when Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King, and he numbered them, then the King was angry: and he said, There is a treason in Israel.

10 And when David was up in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet Gad David’s Seer, saying,

12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the Lord, Will there be three days’ famine in thy land, or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three days pestilence in my land? now advise thee, and see, what answer I shall give to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And David said unto Gad, I am in a wonderful strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel from the morning even unto the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the evil, and said to the Angel, that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, I hold now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Jebusite.

1 David causeth the people to be numbered. 24:10 He repenteth, and chooseth to fall into God’s hands. 15 Seventy thousand perish with the pestilence.

1 And the wrath of the Lord was again kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, in that he said, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 For the King said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go speedily now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people an hundredfold more than they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King may see it: but why doth my lord the King desire this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the King’s word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the host: therefore Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the King to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer at the right side of the city that is in the midst of the valley of Gad, and toward Jazer.

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to Tahtim Hodshi, so they came to Dan Jaan, and so about to Sidon,

7 And came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Judah, even to Beersheba.

8 ¶ So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 ¶ And Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 Then David’s heart smote him, after that he had numbered the people: and David said unto the Lord, I have sinned exceedingly, in that I have done: therefore now, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the trespass of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

11 ¶ And when David was up in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet Gad David’s Seer, saying, 12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things, choose thee which of them I shall do unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and showed him, and said unto him, Wilt thou that seven years famine come upon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three days pestilence in my land? now advise thee, and see, what answer I shall give to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And David said unto Gad, I am in a wonderful strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel from the morning even unto the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the evil, and said to the Angel, that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, I hold now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Jebusite.

23:39 ¶ These came to David, and helped to restore him to his Kingdom.

24:2 Concluding under them the Benjamites: for else they had but four hundred and seventy thousand, 1 Chron. 21:5.

24:11 ¶ Whom God had appointed for David and his time.

24:13 ¶ For three years of famine were past for the Gibeonites’ matter: this was the fourth year to the which should have been added other three years more, 1 Chron. 21:12.

24:15 ¶ From the one side of the country to the other.

24:16 ¶ The Lord spared this place, because he had chosen it to build his Temple there.
17 And David spake unto the Lord (when he saw the Angel that smote the people) and said, Behold, I have sinned, yea, I have done wickedly, but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray, thee, be against me and against my father's house.

18 ¶ So Gad came the same day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David (according to the saying of Gad) went up, as the Lord had commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the King on his face to the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? Then David answered, to buy the threshing floor of thee for to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 Then Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: behold the oxen for the burnt offering, and chariots, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 (All these things did Araunah as a king give unto the king: and Araunah said unto the king, The Lord thy God be favorable unto thee.)

24 Then the king said unto Araunah, Not so, but I will buy it of thee at a price, and will not offer burnt offering unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor, and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and the Lord was appeased toward the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.
1 Now when King David was old, and stricken in years, they covered him with clothes, but no heat came unto him.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin, and let her stand before the king, and cherish him: and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the King may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair young maid throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found one Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the maid was exceedingly fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him, but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith, exalted himself, saying, I will be king. And he got him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father would not displease him from his childhood, to say, Why hast thou done so? And he was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he took counsel of Joab the son of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: and they helped forward Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the men of might, which were with David, were not with Adonijah.

9 Then Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen, and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En Rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, and I will now give thee counsel, how to save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go, and get thee in unto King David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O King, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why is then Adonijah King?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the King, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ So Bathsheba went in unto the King into the chamber, and the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

16 And Bathsheba bowed and made obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swearest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And behold, now is Adonijah king, and now my lord, O King, thou knowest it not.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, and fat cattle, and sheep, and hath called all the sons of the King, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the Captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, O King, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who should sit on the throne of my lord the King after him.

21 For else when my lord the King shall sleep with his fathers, I and my son Solomon shall be reputed vile.

1:1 1 He was about 70 years old, 2 Sam. 5:4.
1:2 2 For his natural heat was worn away with travails.
1:3 1 Which city was in the tribe of Issachar, as Josh. 19:18.
1:5 1 Read 2 Sam. 15:1.
1:6 1 Hebrew, days.
1:7 1 Hebrew, his words were with Joab.
1:9 1 Or, the fountains.
1:10 1 As the Cherethites and Pelethites.
1:12 1 For Adonijah will destroy thee and thy son, if he reigns.
1:14 1 By declaring such things, as may further the same.
1:18 1 The king being worn with age, could not attend to the affairs of the realm, and also Adonijah had many flatterers which kept it from the king.
1:21 1 And so put to the death as wicked transgressors.
1:2 Hebrew, sinners.
22 And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan also the Prophet came in.
23 And they told the King, saying, Behold, Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, he made obeisance before the king upon his face to the ground.
24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?
25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain many oxen, and fat cattle, and sheep, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, 'God save king Adonijah.
26 But me thy servant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaijah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon hath he not called.
27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not showed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?
28 ¶ Then king David answered, and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the King.
29 And the King sware, saying, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, 30 That as I sware unto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne: and he shall be King in my stead: for I have appointed him to be prince over Israel, and over Judah.
31 Then Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth,
32 ¶ And king David said, Call me Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaijah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the King.
33 Then the king said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and carry him down to Gihon.
34 And let Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoint him there king over Israel, and blow ye the trumpet, and say, God save King Solomon.
35 Then come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne: and he shall be King in my stead: for I have appointed him to be prince over Israel, and over Judah; and I will establish his throne after me.
36 Then Benaijah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, So be it, and the Lord God of my lord the king 'ratify it.
37 As the Lord hath been with my lord the king, so be he with Solomon, and exalt his throne above the throne of my lord king David.
38 So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaijah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.
39 And Zadok the Priest took an horn of oil out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save King Solomon.
40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rang with the sound of them.
41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and uproar in the city?
42 And as he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiaoth the Priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in: for thou art a worthy man, and bringest good tidings.
43 And Jonathan answered, and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.
44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaijah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule.
45 And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are gone up from thence with joy, and the city is moved: this is the noise that ye have heard.
46 And Solomon also sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.
47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon more famous than thy name, and exalt his throne above thy throne: therefore the king worshipped upon the bed.
48 And thus said the king also, Blessed be the Hebrew, say so.
49 And they were anointed by the holy instruments, Exod. 30:23.
50 Hebrew, brake.
51 Hebrew, a man of power.
52 He praised Jonathan, thinking to have heard comfortable news but God wrought things contrary to his expectation, and so did beat down his pride.
53 To salute him, and to pray and praise God for him.
54 He gave God thanks for the good success.
1 Kings 1:49

Lord God of Israel, who hath made one to sit on my throne this day, even in my sight.

49 Then all the guests that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah fearing the presence of Solomon, arose and went, and took hold on the horns of the ‘altar.

51 And one told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah doth fear king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon swear unto me this day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 Then Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth, but if wickedness be found in him, he shall die.

53 Then king Solomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeisance unto King Solomon. And Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

2 1 David exhorteth Solomon, and giveth charge concerning Joab, Barzillai, and Shimei. 10 The death of David. 17 Adonijah asketh Abishag to wife. 25 He is slain. 35 Zadok was placed in Abiathar’s room.

1 Then the days of David drew near that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be strong therefore,
and show thyself a man,

3 And take heed to the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest,
and in everything whereunto thou turnest thee,

4 That the Lord may confirm his word which he spake unto me, saying, If thy sons take heed to their way, that they walk before me in truth, with all their hearts, and with all their souls,

5 And take heed to the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let thou not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But show kindness unto the sons of ‘Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among them that eat at thy table: ‘for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother.

8 ¶ And behold, with thee shall Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Benjamin, of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, ‘I will not slay thee with the sword.

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him: therefore thou shalt cause his hoar head to go down to the grave with ‘blood.

10 So ‘David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days which David reigned upon Israel, were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was established mightily.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon: and she said,
‘Comest thou peaceably? and he said, Yea.

14 He said moreover, I have a suit unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then he said, ‘Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned away, that Solomon’s son reigneth: for it came to him by the Lord. And now it is for thee to make it known to me, that I may give thee a reward.

16 And she said unto him, ‘Thou doest wrong.
And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the King, (for he will not say thee nay) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bathsheba said, Well, I will speak for thee.
And she said, Say on.

19 ¶ Bathsheba therefore went unto King Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah: and the king rose to meet her, and ‘bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne: and he caused a seat to be set for his mother, and she sat at his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire a small request of thee, of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

2 Sam. 24:25.
2:2 1 I am ready to die as all men must.
2:3 1 He showeth how hard a thing it is to govern, and that none can do it well except he obey God.
2 Or, do wisely.
2:4 1 And without hypocrisy.
2 Hebrew, a man shall not be cut off from thee from off the throne.
2:5 1 He shed his blood in time of peace, as if there had been war.

2 Sam. 2:16 1 Hebrew, cause not my face to turn away.
2:19 1 In token of reverence, and that others by his example might have her in greater honor.

34 Kings 2:23 20  Then she said, I desire a small request of thee, say me not nay. Then the King said unto her, Ask onto thy mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 She said then, Let Abiathar the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 But king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abiathar the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for him both Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Solomon swore by the Lord, saying, God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore as the Lord liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, who hath also made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

25 And King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he smote him that he died.

26 ¶ Then the King said unto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth unto thine own fields: for thou art worthy of death: but I will not this day kill thee, because thou barest the Ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath been afflicted.

27 So Solomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest unto the Lord, that he might fulfill the words of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, but he turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled unto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon, that Joab was fled unto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the son of Zeruiah, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the King, Come out. And he said, Nay, but I will die here. Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and smite him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed causeless, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the Lord shall bring his blood upon his own head, for he smote two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David knew not: to wit, "Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house and upon his throne shall there be peace forever from the Lord.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and smote him and slew him, and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the King put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and the king set Zadok the Priest in the room of Abiathar.

36 ¶ Afterward the king sent, and called Shimei and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and depart not thence any whither.

37 For that day that thou goest out, and passest over the river of Kidron, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The thing is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And after three years two of the servants of Shimei fled away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone to Achish, and was come again.

42 And the King sent and called Shimei, and said unto him, I have heard. Do Shimei say me not nay. Then the King said unto Abiathar the Priest, and the commandment wherewith I charged thee?
44  The King said also to Shimei, 1Thou knowest all the wickedness whereunto thine heart is privy, that thou didst to David my father: the Lord therefore shall bring thy wickedness upon thine own head.

45  And let king Solomon be blessed, and the throne of David established before the Lord forever.

46  So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; who went out and smote him that he died. And the ‘kingdom was ‘established in the hand of Solomon.

3 1 Solomon taketh Pharaoh’s daughter to wife. 5 The Lord appeareth to him, and giveth him wisdom. 17 The pleading of the two harlots, and Solomon’s sentence therein.

1  Solomon then made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh’s daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2  Only the people sacrificed in the ‘high places, because there was no house built unto the Name of the Lord, until those days.

3  And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the ordinances of David his ‘father; only he sacrificed and offered incense in the high places.

4  And the King went to ‘Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the chief high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5  In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6  And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, and hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee: and thou hast kept for him this great mercy, and hast given him a son, to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

7  And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a young child, and know not how to ‘go out and in.

8  And thy servant is in the midst of thy people, which thou hast chosen, even a great people, which cannot be told nor numbered for multitude.

9  ‘Give therefore unto thy servant an ‘understanding heart, to judge thy people: that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy ‘mighty people?

10  And this pleased the Lord well, that Solomon had desired this thing.

11  And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine ‘enemies, but hast asked for thyself understanding to hear judgment, 12  Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and understanding heart, so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall arise the like unto thee.

13  And I have also ‘given thee that, which thou hast not asked, both riches and honor, so that among the Kings there ‘shall be none like unto thee all thy days.

14  And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep mine ordinances and my commandments, ‘as thy father David did walk, I will prolong thy days.

15  And when Solomon awoke, behold it was ‘a dream, and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16  ¶ Then came two ‘harlots unto the king, and ‘stood before him.

17  And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18  And this woman’s son died in the night: for she took my son from me, and she overlay him.

19  And this woman’s son died in the night: for she overlay him.

20  And she rose at midnight, and ‘took my son from me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

21  And when I arose in the morning to give my son suck, behold, he was dead: and when I had well considered him in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I had borne.

3:15 1 He knew that God had appeared unto him in a dream.

3:16 1 Or, victuallers.

3:20 1 By this example it appeareth that God kept his promise with Solomon in granting him wisdom.

3:21 1 Or, victuallers.
22 Then the other woman said, Nay, but my son liveth, and thy son is dead. Again she said, No, but thy son is dead, and mine alive: thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, She saith, This that liveth is my son, and the dead is thy son: and the other saith, Nay, but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.

24 Then the King said, Bring me a sword: and they brought out a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide ye the living child in twain, and give the one half to the one, and the other half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her compassion was kindled toward her son, and she said, Oh my lord, give her the living child and 1slay him not: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered, and said, Give her the living child, and slay him not: this is his mother.

28 And all Israel heard the judgment which the king had judged, and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do justice.

4:2 The princes and rulers under Solomon. 22 The purveyance for his victuals. 26 The number of his horses. 32 His books and writings.

1 And king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were his princes, 2 Azariah the son of Zadok the Priest,

3 Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shisha, Scribes,

4 And Benaijah the son of Jehoiada was over the host, and Zadok and 1 Abiathar, Priests,

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers, and Zabad the son of Nathan, Priest, was the king’s friend,

6 And Ahishar was over the household, and 7 Adoniram was the son of Abda was over the tribute.

8 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man had a month in the year to provide victuals.

9 And these are their names: the son of Hur in mount Ephraim:

10 The son of Hesed in Arubboth, to whom pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher.

11 The son of Abinadab in all the region of Dor, which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

12 Baana the son of Ahilud in Taannach, and Megiddo, and in all Beth Shean, which is by Zaretan beneath Jezerreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, even till beyond over against Jokneam:

13 The son of Geber in Ramoth Gilead, and his were the towns of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and under him was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan: threescore great cities with walls and bars of brass.

14 2 Ahinadab the son of Iddo bad to Mahanaim:

15 Ahimaaz in Naphtali, and he took Basemath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Baanan the son of Hushai in Asher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in Issachar:

18 Shimei the son of Elah in Benjamin:

19 Geber the son of Uri in the country of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan, and was officer alone in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand of the sea in number, 1 eating, drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the 2 River unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt, and they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon’s victuals for one day were thirty 1 measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal:

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, besides hart, and buck, and bugles, and fat fowl.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the River, from Tiphsah even unto 2 Gaza, over all the 3 kings on the other side the River: and he had peace round about him on every side.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt without fear every man under his vine, and under his fig tree, from 1 Dan, even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 4 And Solomon had 40 thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
27 And these officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came to king Solomon's table, every man his month, and they suffered to lack nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and mules, brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and a large heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore, 30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the East, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than any man: yes, than were Ethan the Ezrahite, than Heman, than Chalcol, than Darda the sons of Mahol: and he was famous throughout all nations round about.

32 And Solomon spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowls, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

5 And behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the Lord my God, for the wars which were about him on every side, until the Lord had put them under the soles of his feet.

15 And Solomon had seventy thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand masons in the steps, and two months at home. And a month in Lebanon, and two months at home. And Adoniram was over the sum.

16 Besides the princes, whom Solomon appointed over the work, even three thousand and three hundred, which ruled the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the King commanded them, and they brought great stones and costly stones to make the foundations of the house, even hewed stones.

18 And the builders laid the foundation in the third month, in the first day of the month. And they finished them in the eleventh year, in the third month of the month, which is the foundation of the house of the Lord.
18 And Solomon's workmen, and the workmen of Hiram, and the 1masons hewed and prepared timber and stones for the building of the house.

6:4 1 Or, to open and to shut.
6:5 1 Or, lofts.
6:6 1 Which were certain stones coming out of the wall, as stays for the beams to rest upon.

6 1 The building of the Temple and the form thereof.  12 The promise of the Lord to Solomon.

1 And in the four hundred and fourscore year (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth year of the reign of Solomon over Israel, in the month 1Ziv, (which is the second month) he built the 2house of the Lord.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, was threescore cubits long, and twenty broad, and thirty cubits high.

3 And the 1porch before the Temple of the house was twenty cubits long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubits broad before the house.

4 And in the house he made windows, broad without, and narrow within.

5 And by the wall of the house he made galleries round about, even by the walls of the house round about the Temple and the oracle, and made chambers round about.

6 And the nethermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middlemost six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad: for he made rests round about without the house, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And when the house was built, it was built of stone perfect, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went up with winding stairs into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So he built the house and finished it, and ceiled the house, being vaulted with ceiling of cedar trees.

10 And he built the galleries upon all the wall of the house of five cubits height, and they were joined to the house with beams of cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,
26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other Cherub.

27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner house, and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the Cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with graven figures of Cherubims and of Palm trees, and graven flowers within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he covered with gold within and without.

31 And in the entering of the oracle he made two doors of Olive trees: and the upper post and side posts were five square.

32 The two doors also were of Olive tree, and he graved them with graving of Cherubims, and Palm trees, and graven flowers, and covered them with gold, and laid thin gold upon the Cherubims and upon the Palm trees.

33 And so made he for the door of the Temple, posts of Olive trees foursquare.

34 But the two doors were of fir tree, the two sides of the one door were round, and the two sides of the other door were round.

35 And he graved Cherubims, and Palm trees, and carved flowers, and covered the carved work with gold finely wrought.

36 And he built the court within with three rows of hewed stone, and one row of beams of Cedar.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the Lord laid in the month of Ziv:

38 And in the eleventh year in the month of Ab, (which is the eighth month) he finished the house of the Lord.

39 And in his house where he dwelt was a porch of judgment, and it was ceiled with cedar from pavement to pavement.

40 And he made a porch of pillars fifty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and thirty cubits high, upon four rows of Cedar pillars: and Cedar beams were laid upon the pillars.

41 And it was covered above with cedar upon the beams, that lay on the forty and five pillars, fifteen in a row.

42 And the windows were in three rows, and window was against window in three ranks.

43 And all the doors, and the side posts with the windows were foursquare, and window was over against window in three ranks.

44 And he made a porch of pillars fifty cubits long, and thirty cubits broad, and the porch was before them, even before them were thirty pillars.

45 ¶ Then he made a porch for the throne, where he judged, even a porch of judgment, and it was ceiled with cedar from pavement to pavement.

46 And in his house where he dwelt was another hall more inward than the porch which was of the same work. Also Solomon made an house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom he had taken to wife) like unto this porch.

47 All these were of costly stones, hewed by measure, and sawed with saws within and without, from the foundation unto the stones of an hand breadth, and on the outside to the great court.

48 And the foundation was of costly stones, and great stones, even of stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

49 Above also were costly stones squared by rule, and boards of cedar.

50 ¶ And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams: so was it to the inner court of the house of the Lord, and to the porch of the house.

51 ¶ Then King Solomon sent, and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.

52 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, his father being a man of Tyre, and wrought in brass: he was full of wisdom, and understanding, and skilful to work any work in gold, or silver, or brass, or iron, or precious stones, or timber, or stone:

6:28 1 For the others which Moses made of beaten gold, were taken away with the other jewels by their enemies, whom God permitted divers times to overcome them for their great sins.

6:31 1 So that the fashion of the carved work might still appear.

6:34 1 Or, folding.

6:36 1 Where the Priests were, and was thus called in respect of the great court, which is called in Acts 3:11, the porch of Solomon, where the people used to pray.

7:1 1 After he had built the Temple.

7:2 1 For the beauty of the place, and great abundance of cedar trees that went to the building thereof, it was compared to mount Lebanon in Syria: this house he used in summer for pleasure and recreation.

7:4 1 There were as many, and like proportion on the one side as the other, and at every end even three in a row one above another.

7:6 1 Before the pillars of the house.

7:7 1 For his house which was at Jerusalem.

7:9 1 Or, precious.

7:11 1 From the foundation upward.

7:12 1 As the Lord's house was built, so was this: only the great court of Solomon's house was uncovered.

knowledge to work all manner of work in brass: who came to King Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he cast two pillars of brass: the height of a pillar was eighteen cubits, and a thread of twelve cubits did compass either of the pillars.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapiters was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits.

17 He made grates like network and wreathen work like chains for the chapiters that were on the top of the pillars, even seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

18 So he made the pillars and two rows of pomegranates round about in the one grate to cover the chapiters that were upon the top. And thus did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were on the top of the pillars were after lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had also above, over against the belly within the network pomegranates: for two hundred pomegranates were in the two ranks about upon either of the chapiters.

21 And he set up the pillars in the porch of the Temple. And when he had set up the right pillar, he called the name thereof Jachin: and when he had set up the left pillar, he called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was work of lilies: so was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten sea of ten cubits wide from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits did compass it about.

24 And under the brim of it were knops like wild cucumbers compassing it round about, ten in one cubit, compassing the sea round about: and the two rows of knops were cast, when it was molten.

25 It stood on twelve bulls, three looking toward the North, and three toward the West, and three toward the South, and three toward the East: and the sea stood upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 It was an handbreadth thick, and the brim thereof was like the work of the brim of a cup with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass, one base was four cubits long, and four cubits broad, and three cubits high.

28 ¶ And the work of the bases was on this manner. They had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges, were lions, bulls and Cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and bulls, were additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners had undersetters: under the cauldron were undersetters molten at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it was within the chapiter and above to measure by the cubit: for the mouth thereof was round, made like a base, and it was a cubit and half a cubit: and also upon the mouth thereof were graven works, whose borders were foursquare, and not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels and the axletrees of the wheels joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit, and half a cubit.

33 And the fashion of the wheels was like the fashion of a chariot wheel, their axletrees, and their naves and their felloes, and their spokes were all molten.

34 And four undersetters were upon the four corners of one base: and the undersetters thereof were of the base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was a round compass of half a cubit high round about: and upon the top of the base the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And upon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did grave Cherubims, lions and palm trees, on the side of every one, and additions round about.

37 ¶ Thus made he the ten bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 ¶ Then made he ten cauldrons of brass, one cauldron contained forty baths, and every cauldron was four cubits, one cauldron was upon one base throughout the ten bases.

7:33 1 Or, rings.
7:35 1 Which was called the pillar, chapiter, or small base, wherein the cauldron stood.
7:38 1 To keep waters for the use of the sacrifices.
39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the house Eastward toward the South.

40 ¶ And Hiram made cisterns, and basins, and baths, and Hiram finished all the work that he made to King Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillars and two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars,

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two grates, even two rows of pomegranates for every grate to cover the two bowls of the chapiters, that were upon the pillars,

43 And the ten bases, and ten cisterns upon the bases,

44 And the sea, and twelve bulls under that sea,

45 And pots, and basins, and baths: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of shining brass.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the King cast them in clay between Succoth and Zaretan.

47 And Solomon left to weigh all the vessels, because of the exceeding abundance, neither could the weight of the brass be counted.

48 So Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table, wherein the shewbread was,

49 And the candlesticks, five at the right side, and five at the left, before the oracle of pure gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold,

50 And the bowls, and the hooks, and the basins, and the spoons, and the ashpans of pure gold, and hinges of gold for the doors of the house within, even for the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was finished all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the Lord, and Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the vessels, and laid them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

8 4 The Ark is borne into the Temple. 10 A cloud filleth the Temple. 14 The king blesseth the people.

1 Then King Solomon assembled ‘the Elders of Israel, even all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel unto him in Jerusalem, for to bring up the Ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled unto King Solomon at the feast in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Priests took the Ark.

4 They bare the Ark of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priests and Levites bring up.

5 And King Solomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him, were with him before the Ark, offering sheep and beeves, which could not be told, nor numbered for multitude.

6 So the Priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord unto his place, into the oracle of the house into the most holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Ark, and the Cherubims covered the Ark, and the bars thereof above.

8 And they drew out the bars, that the ends of the bars might appear out of the Sanctuary before the oracle, but they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 Nothing was in the Ark save the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horeb, where the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuary, the cloud filled the house of the Lord, 11 So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lord ‘said, that he would dwell in the dark cloud.

13 I have built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in for ever.

14 ¶ And the King turned his face and blessed all the Congregation of Israel: for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.

15 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,
16 Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city of all the tribes of Israel, to build an house that my Name might be there: but I have chosen *David to be over my people Israel.
17 And it was in the heart of David my father, to build an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.
18 And the Lord said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my Name, thou didst well, that thou wast so minded:
19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house, but thy son that shall come out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my Name.
20 And the Lord hath *made good his word that he spake: and I am risen up in the room of David my father.
21 And I have prepared therein a place for the Ark, wherein is the *covenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.
22 ¶ Then Solomon stood before the *altar of the Lord in the sight of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heaven,
23 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants, that walked before thee, with all their heart,
24 Thou hast kept with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.
25 Therefore, now Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou hast promised him, saying, *Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel: so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me, as thou hast walked in my sight.
26 And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.
27 *Is it true indeed that God will dwell on the earth? behold, the heavens, and the heavens of heavens are not able to contain thee: how much more unable is this house that I have built?
28 But have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hear the cry and prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee this day:
29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, even toward the place whereof thou hast said, *My Name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth in this place.
30 Hear thou therefore the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel which pray in this place, and hear thou *in the place of thine habitation, even in heaven, and when thou hearest, have mercy.
31 ¶ When a man shall trespass against his neighbor, and *he lay upon him an oath to cause him to swear, and *the swearer shall come before thine altar into this house,
32 Then hear thou in heaven, and *do and judge thy servants, that thou condemn the wicked to bring his way upon his head, and justify the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
33 ¶ When thy people Israel shall be overthrown before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and turn again to thee, and *confess thy Name, and pray and make supplication unto thee in this house,
34 Then hear thou in heaven, and be merciful unto the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land, which thou gavest unto their fathers.
35 ¶ When heaven shall be *shut up, and there shall be no rain because they have sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confess thy Name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them,
36 Then hear thou in heaven, and pardon the sin of thy servants and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walk) and give rain upon the land that thou hast given thy people to inherit.
37 When there shall be famine in the land, when there shall be pestilence, when there shall be blasting, mildew, grasshopper or caterpillar, when their enemies shall besiege them in the cities of their land. or any plague, or any sickness,
38 Then what prayer, and supplication soever shall be made of any man or of all thy people Israel, when everyone shall know the plague in his own heart, and stretch forth his hands in this house,
39 Hear thou then in heaven, in thy dwelling place, and be merciful, and do, and give every man according to all his ways, as thou knowest his heart,
40. That they may fear thee as long as they live in the land, which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41. Moreover as touching the ‘stranger that is not of thy people Israel, who shall come out of a far country for thy Name’s sake,

42. (When they shall hear of thy great Name, and of thy mighty hand, and of thy stretched out arm) and shall come and pray in this house,

43. Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth for unto thee: that all the people of the earth may know thy Name, and fear thee, as do thy people Israel: and that they may know that thy Name is called upon in this house which I have built.

44. ¶ When thy people shall go out to battle against their enemy by the way that thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the Lord ‘toward the way of the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy Name,

45. Hear thou then in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and judge their cause.

46. If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them unto the enemies, so that they carry them away prisoners unto the land of the enemies, either far or near,

47. Yet ‘if they turn again unto their heart in the land (to which they be carried away captives) and return and pray unto thee ‘in the land of them that carried them away captives, saying. We have sinned, we have transgressed, and done wickedly,

48. If they turn again unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, which led them away captives, and pray unto thee toward ‘the way of their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, ‘and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy Name,

49. Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and judge their cause,

50. And be merciful unto thy people that have sinned against thee, and unto all their iniquities (wherein they have transgressed against thee) and cause that they which led them away captives, may have pity and compassion on them.

51. For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egypt from the midst of the iron furnace.

52. Let thine eyes be open unto the prayer of thy servant, and unto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them, in all that they call for unto thee.

53. For thou didst separate them to thee from among all people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saidst by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54. And when Solomon had made an end of praying all this ‘prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he rose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his hands to heaven,

55. And stood and blessed all the Congregation of Israel, with a loud voice, saying,

56. Blessed be the Lord that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57. The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers, that he forsake us not, neither leave us,

58. That he may ‘bow our hearts unto him, that we may walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his laws, which he commanded our fathers.

59. And these my words, which I have prayed before the Lord, be near unto the Lord our God day and night, that he defend the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel ‘always as the matter requireth,

60. That all the people of the earth may know, that the Lord is God, and none other.

61. Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as this day.

62. ¶ Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord.

63. And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings which he offered unto the Lord, to wit, two and twenty thousand beeves, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the King and all the children of Israel dedicated the ‘house of the Lord.

8:41 ‘He meaneth such as should be turned from their idolatry to serve the true God.

8:43 ‘That this is the true religion wherewith thou wilt be worshipped.

8:45 ‘Or, maintain their right.

8:47 ‘Or, if they repent.

2 Though the Temple was the chief place of prayer, yet he secludeth not them, that being let with necessity call upon him in other places.

8:48 ‘As Daniel did, Dan. 6:10.

8:49 ‘Or, avenge their wrong.

8:50 ‘He understood by faith, that God of enemies would make friends unto them that did convert unto him.

8:54 ‘Solomon is a figure of Christ, who continually is the Mediator between God and his Church.

8:58 ‘He concludeth that man of himself is enemy unto God, and that all obedience to his Law proceeded of his mere mercy.

8:59 ‘Hebrew, the thing of a day in his day.

8:63 ‘Before the oracle where the Ark was.
64 The same day did the King hallow the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he made burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Solomon made at that time a feast and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, even from the entering in of Hamath, the king of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 And the eighth day he sent the people away: and they thanked the King, and went unto their tents joyous, and with glad heart, because of all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

9:2 The Lord appeared the second time to Solomon. 11 Solomon giveth cities to Hiram. 20 The Canaanites become tributaries. 28 He sendeth forth a navy.

1 When Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the King's palace, and all that Solomon desired and minded to do,

2 Then the Lord appeared unto Solomon the second time, as he appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lord said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house (which thou hast built) to put my Name there forever, and mine eyes, and my heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me (as David thy father walked in pureness of heart and in righteousness) to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and keep my statutes, and my judgments,

5 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel forever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, 'Thou shalt not want a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if ye and your children turn away from me, and will not keep my Commandments, and my statutes (which I have set before you) but go and serve other gods, and worship them,

7 Then will I cut off Israel from the land, which I have given them, and the house which I have hallowed for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shall be a proverb, and a common talk among all people.

8 Even this high house shall be so: everyone that passeth by it, shall be astonished, and shall hiss, and they shall say: Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, which brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them, therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

10 And at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the King's palace, 11 (For the which Hiram the king of Tyre had brought to Solomon timber of Cedar and fir trees, and gold, and whatsoever he desired) then king Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not.

13 Therefore he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.

14 And Hiram had sent the King sixscore talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of the tribute, why King Solomon raised tribute, to wit, to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had come up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slew the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and gave it for a present unto his daughter Solomon's wife.

17 (Therefore Solomon built Gezer and Beth Horon the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness of the land,

19 And all the cities of store, that Solomon had, even cities for chariots, and cities for horsemen, and all that Solomon desired and would build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion)
20 All the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel
21 To wit, their children that were left after them in the land whom the children of Israel were not able to destroy, those did Solomon make tributaries unto this day
22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and his horsemen.
23 These were the princes of the officers, that were over Solomon’s work: even five hundred and fifty, and they ruled the people that wrought in the work.
24 ¶ And Pharaoh’s daughter came up from the city of David unto the house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.
25 And thrice a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the Lord: and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the Lord, when he had finished the house.
26 Also king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Elath, and the brink of the red sea, in the land of Edom.
27 And Hiram sent with the navy, his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and his merchants, and his ships of merchant men and of the princes of the country.
28 And they came to Ophir, and fet from thence four hundred and twenty talents of gold, and brought it to king Solomon.

10 1 The Queen of Sheba cometh to hear the wisdom of Solomon. 18 His royal throne. 23 His power and magnificence.
1  And the Queen of Sheba hearing the fame of Solomon (concerning the Name of the Lord) came to prove him with hard questions.
2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, and camels that bare sweet odors, and gold exceeding much, and precious stones: and she came to Solomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.
3 And Solomon declared unto her all her questions: nothing was hid from the king, which he expounded not unto her.
4 Then the Queen of Sheba saw all Solomon’s wisdom, and the house that he had built,
5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his drinking vessels, and his burnt offerings, that he offered in the house of the Lord, and she was greatly astonished.
6 And she said unto the King. It was a true word that I heard in mine own land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom.
7 Howbeit I believed not this report, till I came, and had seen it with mine eyes: but lo, the one half was not told me: for thou hast more wisdom and prosperity, than I have heard by report.
8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand ever before thee, and hear thy wisdom.
9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loved thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel, because the Lord loved Israel forever, and made thee king to do equity and righteousness.
10 And she gave the king six hundred talents of gold, and of sweet odors exceeding much, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of sweet odors, as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.
11 The navy also of Hiram (that carried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plenty of Almug trees from Ophir, and precious stones.
12 And the king made of the Almug trees pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the king’s palace, and made harps and psalteries for singers. There came no more such Almug trees, nor were any more seen unto this day.
13 And King Solomon gave unto the Queen of Sheba, whatsoever she would ask, besides that, which Solomon gave her of his kingliness liberality: so she returned and went to her own country, both she and her servants.
14 ¶ Also the weight of gold, that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,
15 Besides that he had of merchant men and of the merchandises of them that sold spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the princes of the country.
16 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of gold went to a target:

9:20 1 These were as bondmen and paid what was required, either labor or money.
9:23 1 The overseers of Solomon’s works, were divided into three parts: the first contained 3300, the second 300, and the third 250, which were Israelites: so here are contained the two last parts, which make 550, see 2 Chron. 8:10.
9:28 1 In 2 Chron. 8:18, is made mention of thirty more, which seem to have been employed for their charges.
10:1 1 Josephus saith, that she was Queen of Ethiopia, and that Sheba was the name of the chief city of Meroe, which is an island of Nile.
10:5 1 That is, the whole order, and trade of his house.
10:8 1 But much more happy are they, which hear the wisdom of God revealed in his word.
10:9 1 It is a chief sign of God’s favor, when godly and wise rulers sit in the throne of justice.
10:13 1 Hebrew, by the hand of the King.
10:15 1 To wit, of Arabia, which for the great abundance of all things was called Happy.
17 And three hundred shields of beaten gold, three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the King put them in the ‘house of the wood of Lebanon.
18 ¶ Then the King made a great throne of ivory, and covered it with the best gold.
19 And the throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind, and there were ‘stays on either side on the place of the throne, and two lions standing by the stays.
20 And there stood twelve lions on the six steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdom.
21 And all King Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of silver: for it was nothing esteemed in the days of Solomon.
22 For the King had on the sea the navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of ‘Tarshish, and brought gold and silver, ivory, and apes and peacocks.
23 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom.
24 And all the world sought to see Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart,
25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armor, and sweet odors, horses and mules, from year to year.
26 Then Solomon gathered together ‘chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the chariot cities, and with the King at Jerusalem.
27 And the King ‘gave silver in Jerusalem as stones, and gave cedars as the wild fig trees that grow abundantly in the plain.
28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: ‘the king’s merchants received the linen for a price.
29 There came up and went out of Egypt some chariot worth six hundred shekels of silver: that is, one horse, an hundred and fifty. And thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Hittites and to the Kings of Aram by their ‘means.

11:14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, even Hadad the Edomite, of the king’s ‘seed, which was in Edom.

1 But King Solomon loved ‘many ‘outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, and Heth,
2 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had said unto the children of Israel, ‘Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turn your hearts after their gods, to them, I say, did Solomon join in love.
3 And he had seven hundred wives, ‘that were ‘princesses, and three hundred ‘concubines, and his wives turned away his heart.
4 For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God as was the heart of David his father.
5 For Solomon followed ‘Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, and ‘Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.
6 So Solomon wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did David his father.
7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the ‘abomination of Moab, in the mountain that is over against Jerusalem, and unto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.
8 And so did he for all his outlandish wives, which burnt incense and offered unto their gods.
9 Therefore the Lord was angry with Solomon, because he had turned his heart from the Lord God of Israel, ‘which had appeared unto him twice,
10 And had given him a ‘charge concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods: but he kept not that, which the Lord had commanded him.
11 Wherefore the Lord said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as ‘this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my Covenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee) ‘I will surely rent thy kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.
12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, because of David thy father, but I will rent it out of the hand of thy son:
13 Howbeit I will not rent all the kingdom, but will give one ‘tribe to thy son, because of David my servant, and because of Jerusalem which I have chosen.
14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, even Hadad the Edomite, of the king’s ‘seed, which was in Edom.

10:19 1 As the chair bows, or places to lean upon.
10:22 1 By Tarshish is meant Cilicia, which was abundant in variety of precious things.
10:27 1 Or, he made silver as plenteous as stones.
10:28 1 Or, for the company of the King’s merchants did receive a number at a price.
10:29 1 Hebrew, hands.
11:1 1 Which were idolaters.
11:3 1 Or, Queens.
11:4 1 He served not God with a pure heart.
11:5 1 Who was also called Molech, verse 7, read 2 Kings 23:10.
11:7 1 Thus the Scripture termeth whatsoever man doth reverence and serve as God.
11:11 1 That thou hast forsaken me and worshipped idols.
11:13 1 Because the tribes of Judah and Benjamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.
11:14 1 Of the king of Edom’s stock.
1 Kings 11:15

15 ¶For when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone up to bury the slain,
16 (For six months did Joab remain there and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom.)
17 Then this Hadad fled, and certain other Edomites of his father’s servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and took men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him vittles and gave him land.
19 So Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, even the sister of Tahpenes the Queen.
20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genumath, his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh’s house: and Genumath was in Pharaoh’s house among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.
22 But Pharaoh said unto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me go.
23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.
24 And he gathered men unto him, and had been captain over the company, when David slew them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him king in Damascus.
25 Therefore was he an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon: besides the evil that Hadad did, he also abhorred Israel, and reigned over Aram.
26 ¶ And Jeroboam the son of Nebat an Ephraimite of Zereda Solomon’s servant (whose mother was called Zeruah a widow) lifted up his hand against the king.
27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king, When Solomon built Millo, he repaired the broken places of the city of David his father.
28 And this man Jeroboam was a man of strength and courage, and Solomon seeing that the young man was meet for the work, he made him overseer of all the labor of the house of Joseph.
29 And at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the Prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way, having a new garment on him, and they two were alone in the field.
30 ¶ Then Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces,
31 And said to Jeroboam, Take unto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdom out of the hands of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee.
32 But he shall have one tribe for my servant David’s sake, and for Jerusalem the city, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,
33 Because they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, and Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my ways (to do right in mine eyes, and my statutes, and my laws) as did David his father.
34 But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: for I will make him prince all his life long for David my servant’s sake, whom I have chosen, and who kept my commandments and my statutes.
35 ¶ But I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand, and will give it unto thee, even the ten tribes.
36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem the city, which I have chosen me to put my Name there.
37 ¶ And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign even as thine heart desirereth, and shalt be king over Israel.
38 And if thou hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments as David my servant did, then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built unto David, and will give Israel unto thee.
39 ¶ And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not forever.
40 ¶ Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.
41 And the rest of the words of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?
42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel, was forty years.
43 And Solomon slept with his fathers; and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

12 1 Rehoboam sUCCEEDETH Solomon. 8 He refuseth the counsel of the Ancient. 20 Jeroboam reigneth over Israel. 21 God commandeth Rehoboam not to fight. 28 Jeroboam maketh golden calves.

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem, to make him king.
2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (which was yet in Egypt, whither Jeroboam had fled from king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt.)
3 Then they sent and called him: and Jeroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,
4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.
5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.
6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, and said, What counsel give ye, that I may make an answer to these people?
7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be a servant unto this people this day, and serve them, and answer them, and speak kind words to them, they will be thy servants forever.
8 But he forsook the counsel that the old men had given him, and asked counsel of the young men that had been brought up with him, and waited on him.
9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may answer this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father hath put upon us, lighter?
10 Then the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto this people, that have spoken unto thee, and said, Thy father hath made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us: even thus shalt thou say unto them, My least part shall be bigger than my father’s loins.
11 Now whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heavier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.
12 ¶ Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.
13 And the king answered the people sharply, and left the old men’s counsel that they gave him,
14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, and I will make your yoke more grievous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.
15 And the king hearkened not unto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might perform the word by which the Lord had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 So when all Israel saw that the king regarded not the counsel of the Lord, they answered the king thus, saying, What portion have we in David? we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.
17 Howbeit over the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Judah, did Rehoboam reign still.
18 ¶ Now the king Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiver of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then the king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.
19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.
20 ¶ And when all Israel had heard that Jeroboam was come again, they sent and called him to the assembly, and made him king over all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.
21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand of chosen men (which were good warriors) to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the...
1 And behold, there came a man of God out of Judah (by the commandment of the Lord) unto Bethel, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to offer incense.

2 And he cried against the altar by the commandment of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name, and upon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and they shall burn men's bones upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign the same time, saying, This is the sign, that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the ashes that are upon it, shall fall out.

4 And when the king had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand for the altar, saying, Lay hold on him: but his hand which he put forth against him, dried up, and he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also clave asunder, and the ashes fell from the altar, according to the sign, which the man of God had given by the commandment of the Lord.

6 Then the king answered and said unto the man of God, I beseech thee, pray unto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored unto me. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the King's hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King said unto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayest dine, and I will give thee a reward.

8 But the man of God said unto the King, If thou wouldst give me half thine house, I would not go with thee, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Eat no bread nor drink water, nor return again by the same way that thou camest.
10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 ¶ And an old Prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works, that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the words which he had spoken unto the king, told they their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? and his sons showed him what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. Who saddled him the ass, and he rode thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God, that camest from Judah? And he said, Yea.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 But he answered, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou wastent.

18 And he said unto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him again with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water: but he lied unto him.

19 So he went again with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And as they sat at the table, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet, that brought him again.

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed my commandment, which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest back again, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place (whereof he did say unto thee, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink any water) thy carcass shall not come unto the sepulcher of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And when he had eaten bread and drunk, he saddled him the ass, to wit, to the Prophet whom he had brought again, 24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him, and his body was cast in the way, and the ass stood thereby: the Lion stood by the corpse also.

25 And behold, men that passed by, saw the carcass cast in the way, and the Lion standing by the corpse: and they came and told it in the town where the old Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet that brought him back again from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hath been disobedient unto the Commandment of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath delivered him unto the Lion, which hath rent him and slain him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake unto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his body cast in the way, and the ass and the Lion stood by the corpse: and the lion had not eaten the body, nor torn the ass.

29 And the Prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it again, and the old Prophet came to the city, to lament and bury him.

30 And he laid his body in his own grave, and they lamented over him, saying, Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulcher, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cried by the word of the Lord against the altar that is in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 Howbeit after this Jeroboam converted not from his wicked way, but turned again, and made of the lowest of the people priests of the high places. Who would, might consecrate himself and be of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing turned to sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to root it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

14 Jeroboam sendeth his wife disguised to Abijah the Prophet, who declareth unto him the destruction of his house. 25 Judah is punished by Shishak.

1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.
2 And Jeroboam said unto his wife, Up, I pray thee, and disguise thyself that they know not that thou art the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh: for there is Ahijah the Prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people,
3 And take with thee, ten loaves and cracknels, and a bottle of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the young man.
4 When Jeroboam’s wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah: but Ahijah could not see, for his sight was decayed for his age.
5 Then the Lord said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask of thee for her son, for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for when she cometh in, she shall feign herself to be another.
6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, Come in thou wife of Jeroboam: why feignest thou thus thyself to be another? I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.
7 Go tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I have exalted thee from among the people, and have made thee prince over my people Israel,
8 And have rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and have given it thee, and thou hast not been as my servant David, which kept my Commandments, and followed me with all his heart, and did only that which was right in mine eyes,
9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee (for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me, and hast cast me behind thy back.)
10 Therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, as well him that is shut up, as him that is left in Israel, and will sweep away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung till it be all gone.
11 The dogs shall eat him of Jeroboam’s stock that dieth in the city, and the fowls of the air shall eat him that dieth in the field: for the Lord hath said it.

25 ¶ And in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, 26 And took the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King's house, and took away all: so he carried away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made for them brazen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which waited at the door of the king's house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the guard bare them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 But for David's sake did the Lord his God give him a light in Jerusalem, and set up his son after him, and established Jerusalem.

5 Because David did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

the land of Naphtali.
21 And when Baasha heard thereof, he left building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.
22 Then king Asa 1assembled all Judah 2none excepted, and they took the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had built, and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.
23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? but in his old age he was diseased in his 1feet.
24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his 1father. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.
25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.
26 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.
27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slew him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines: for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.
28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.
29 And when he was king, he 1smote all the house of Jeroboam, he left none alive to Jeroboam, even for all the wickedness that he did, and for the sins of Jeroboam, his father.

provoked the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.
14 And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
15 ¶ In the seven and twenty years of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah, and the people was then in camp against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.
16 And the people of the host heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king. Wherefore all Israel made Omri the captain of the host, king over Israel that same day, even in the host.
17 Then Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
18 And when Zimri saw, that the city was taken, he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt himself, and the king's house with fire, and so died,
19 For his sins which he sinned, in doing that which is evil in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sins which he did, causing Israel to sin.
20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: for half the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him king, and the other half followed Omri.
22 But the people that followed Omri, prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.
23 In the one and thirty years of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years reigned he in Tirzah.
24 And he bought the mountain Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of silver, and built in the mountain, and called the name of the city, which he built, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountain, Samaria.
25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse than all that were before him.
26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin in provoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.
27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, that he did, and his strength that he showed, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.
29 Now Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, in the eight and thirty years of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria two and twenty years.
30 And Ahab the son of Omri did worse in the sight of the Lord than all that were before him.
31 For was it a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, except he took Jezebel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians to wife, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him?
32 Also he reared up an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.
33 And Ahab made a grove, and Ahab proceeded, and did provoke the Lord God of Israel more than all the kings of Israel that were before him.
34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest son, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

17 1 Elijah forewarneth of the famine to come. 4 He is fed of Ravens. 9 He is sent to Zarephath, where he restoreth his hostess's son to life.
1 And Elijah the Tishbite one of the inhabitants of Gilead said unto Ahab, 'As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.
2 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,
3 Go hence, and turn thee Eastward, and hide thyself in the 'river Cherith, that is over against Jordan,
4 And thou shalt drink of the river: and I have commanded the 'ravens to feed thee there.
5 So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the river Cherith that is over against Jordan,
6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening.
1 And after a while the river dried up, because there fell no rain upon the earth.
2 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,
3 Up, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Sidon, and remain there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain thee.
4 So he arose and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow was there gathering sticks: and he called her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.
5 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread; for, saith I, thou shalt not bring me down nor thy son with me, but make me thereof a little cake; and afterward make me thereof a little cake for thy son, and afterward eat: so did he and her house for a certain time.
6 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but even an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few sticks for to go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.
7 And as she was preparing that she might eat a little, her son came to her and said, Did I not even tell my mother, when I went out to thee, that thou hadst said, There shall be no more sustenance in the house, nor in the cruse to carry, before the rain cometh upon the earth? 8 And she said, Thy son shall eat to morrow, I will search for a morsel of bread, and then I will bring home to thee, and thy son also, and we shall eat a morsel together: but now thou hast brought my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? and he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a chamber, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.
9 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. 10 So she went, and did as Elijah said, and she did eat: so did he and her house for a certain time.
11 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meal in the barrel shall not be wasted, neither shall the oil in the cruse be diminished, unto the time that the Lord send rain upon the earth.
12 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but even an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few sticks for to go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.
13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not, come do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a little cake first of all, and bring it unto me, and afterward make me thereof a little cake for thy son, and afterward eat: so did he and her house for a certain time.
14 And as she was preparing that she might eat a little, her son came to her and said, Did I not even tell my mother, when I went out to thee, that thou hadst said, There shall be no more sustenance in the house, nor in the cruse to carry, before the rain cometh upon the earth? 15 And she said, Thy son shall eat to morrow, I will search for a morsel of bread, and then I will bring home to thee, and thy son also, and we shall eat a morsel together: but now thou hast brought my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? and he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a chamber, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.
16 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but even an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few sticks for to go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.
17 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee? art thou come unto me to paint my son's face? 18 And he said unto her, Fear not, O lady: for that the Lord hath sent me to thee shall make his servant, even thy son, alive again.
19 And she said, If thou be a man of God, bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. 20 Then he called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also this widow, with whom I sojourn, by killing her son? 21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.
22 Then the Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.
23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother, and Elijah said, Behold, thy son liveth.
24 And the woman said unto Elijah, Now I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

18 1 Elijah is sent to Ahab. 13 Obadiah hideth an hundred Prophets. 40 Elijah killeth all Baal's prophets. 45 He obtaineth rain.
1 After many days, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth.
2 And Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.
3 And Ahab called Obadiah the governor of his house: (and Obadiah feared God greatly: 4 For when Jezebel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and he fed them with bread and water,)
5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all the fountains of water, and unto all the rivers, if so be that we may find grass to save the horses and the mules alive, lest we deprive the land of the beasts.
6 And so they divided the land between them to walk through it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his knees to the ground, and said, Art thou the prophet of the Lord? 8 And he answered, I am; go, tell Ahab, that I am come unto thee. But as I was afraid, and fled, when I went to shew Ahab: and now, I am come to thee, as the Lord hath said. 9 But he said, What have I to do with you? go, stand thou by me. And the servant stood by him. 10 And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,
11 If thou hide him, thou shalt not suffer evil to come unto him, but thou shalt save his life seven times. 12 And the angel of the Lord said unto Obadiah, Go, tell Ahab, that I am in thy house. And it came to pass, as he was lying at noon, that he heard the noise of the chariots of horses, and the noise of the horses. 13 And he said unto Obadiah, Get thee, go, tell Ahab, that I am in thy house. And it came to pass, as he was lying at noon, that he heard the noise of the chariots of horses, and the noise of the horses.

8 And he answered him, Yea, go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.
9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldst deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?
10 As the Lord thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, if they had not found thee.
11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.
12 And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee into some place that I do not know: so when I come and tell Ahab, if he cannot find thee, then will he kill me: But I thy servant 1fear the Lord from my youth.
13 Was it not told my lord, what I did when Jezebel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundred men of the Lord's Prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?
14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here, that he may slay me.
15 And Elijah said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, I am none of the wicked persecutors that thou shouldest prophesy against.
16 ¶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.
17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?
18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but 1thou and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baal.
19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.
20 ¶ So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.
21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long 1halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him, but if Baal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not a word.
22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I only remain a Prophet of the Lord: but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.
23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, but put no fire under, and I will prepare the other bullock, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire under.
24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the Name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is well spoken.
25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you a bullock, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.
26 So they took the one bullock that was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning to noon, saying, O Baal, hear us: but there was no voice, nor any to answer: and they 1leapt upon the altar that was made.
27 And at noon Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a 1god: either he talketh or pursueth his enemies, or is in his journey, or it may be that he sleepleth, and must be 2awaked.
28 And they cried loud, and cut themselves as their manner was, with knives and lancers, till the blood gushed out upon them.
29 And when midday was passed, and they had prophesied until the offering of the evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor one to answer, nor any that regarded.
30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken down.
31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, (unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, 1Israel shall be thy name)
32 And with the stones he built an altar in the Name of the Lord: and then the God that answered by fire, let him be God.
33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, but put no fire under.
34 And said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it upon the burnt offering and on the wood. Again he said, Do so again. And they did so the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they 18:12 I am none of the wicked persecutors that thou shouldest procure unto me such displeasure, but serve God, and favor his children.

18:15 I By my presence I will declare that thou hast told him the truth.
18:18 I The true ministers of God ought not only not to suffer the truth to be unjustly slandered, but to reprove boldly the wicked slanderers without respect of person.

18:35 1 Hereby he declared the excellent power of God, who contrary to nature could make the fire burn even in the water, to the intent they should have no occasion to doubt that he is the only God.
18:37 1 Though God suffer his to run in blindness and error for a time, yet at the length he calleth them home to him by some notori­ous sign and work.
18:40 1 He commanded them that as they were truly persuaded to confess the only God, so they would serve him with all their power, and destroy the idolaters his enemies.

in the wind: and after the wind came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake came fire: but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire came a still and soft voice.

13 And when Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering of the cave: and behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he answered, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts, 1 because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, cast down thine altars, and slain thy Prophets with the sword, and I only am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

15 And the Lord said unto him, Go, return by the wilderness unto Damascus, and when thou comest there, anoint Hazael king over 1 Aram.

16 And Jechu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint King over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou anoint to be Prophet in thy room.

17 And him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael, shall Jechu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jechu, shall Elisha slay.

18 Yet will I leave seven thousand in Israel: even all the knees that have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth that hath not kissed him.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelfth: and Elijah went towards him, and cast his mantel upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, 1 Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. Who answered him, Go, return: for what have I done to thee?

21 And when he went back again from him, he took a couple of oxen, and slew them, and sod their flesh with the 2 instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

20:1 1 Or, Syria.
2 That is, governors and rulers of provinces.
12 And when he heard that tidings, as he was with the kings drinking in the pavilions, he said unto the servants, ‘Bring forth your engines. And they set them against the city.

13 ¶ And behold, there came a Prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, that thou mayest know, ‘that I am the Lord.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? and he said, Thus saith the Lord, By the servants of the princes of the provinces. He said again, Who shall order the battle? and he answered, Thou.

15 ¶ Then he numbered the servants of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred, two and thirty; and after them he numbered the whole people of all the children of Israel, even seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon: but Ben-Hadad did drink till he was drunken in the tents, both he and the kings; for two and thirty kings helped him.

17 So the servants of the princes of the provinces went out first: and Ben-Hadad sent out, and they showed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet alive.

19 So they came out of the city, to wit, the servants of the princes of the provinces, and the host which followed them.

20 And they slew everyone his enemy: and the Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-Hadad the king of Aram escaped on an horse with his horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and with a great slaughter slew the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the king of Israel, and had said unto him, Go, be of good courage, and consider, and take heed what thou doest: for when the year is gone about, the king of Aram will come up against thee.)

23 ¶ Then the servants of the king of Aram said unto him, Their gods are gods of the mountains, and therefore they overcame us: but let us fight against them in the plain, and doubtless we shall overcome them.

24 And this do, Take the kings away, everyone out of his place, and place captains for them.

25 And number thyself an army, like the army that thou hast lost, with such horses, and such chariots, and we will fight against them in the plain, and doubtless we shall overcome them: and he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And after the year was gone about, Ben-Hadad numbered the Aramites, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all assembled, and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids: but the Aramites filled the country.

28 And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Aramites have said, The Lord is the God of the mountains, and not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that ‘I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days, and in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Aramites an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek into the city: and there fell a wall upon seven and twenty thousand men that were left: and Ben-Hadad fled into the city, and came into a secret chamber.

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are merciful Kings: we pray thee, let us put sackcloth about our loins, and ropes about our heads, and go out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will save thy life.

32 Then they girded sackcloth about their loins, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the King of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-Hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live: and he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men took diligent heed, if they could catch anything of him, and made haste, and said, Thy brother Ben-Hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. So Ben-Hadad came out unto him, and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-Hadad said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father, I will restore, and thou shalt make streets for thee in 1Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Abah, I will let thee go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

35 ¶ Then a certain man of the children of the Prophets said unto his neighbor by the commandment of the Lord, 2Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cried unto the King, and said, Thy servant went into the midst of the battle, and behold, there went away a man, whom another man brought unto me, and said, Keep this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shall go for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant had here and there to do, he was gone: And the King of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be: thou hast given sentence.

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face: and the King of Israel knew him that he was of the Prophets:

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee.

43 And the King of Israel went to his house heavy and in displeasure, and came to 1Samaria.

8 Jezebel commandeth to kill Naboth, for the vineyard that he refused to sell to Abah. 19 Elijah reprehends Abah, and he repenteth.

1 After these things, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, 1Give me thy vineyard, that I may make me a garden of herbs thereof; because it is nearby mine house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it is: or if it please thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord keep me from giving the inheritance of my father unto thee.

4 Then Ahab came into his house heavy and in displeasure, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken unto him. For he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay upon his bed, and turned his face and would eat no bread.

5 Then Jezebel his wife came unto him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: but he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 Then Jezebel his wife said unto him, 1Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Up, eat bread, and be of good cheer; I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 ¶ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth among the chief of the people, and set two wicked men before him, and let them witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king: then carry him out, and stone him that he may die.

10 And the men of the city, even the Elders and governors which dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them: as it was written in the letters, which she had sent unto them.

11 And the men of the city, even the Elders and governors which dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them: as it was written in the letters, which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth among the chief of the people, 13 And there came two wicked men, and sat before him: and the wicked men witnessed against Naboth... in the presence of the people saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King. Then they carried him away out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead.

15 ¶ And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Up, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but is dead.

16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab King of Israel, which is in Samaria: lo, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to take possession of it.

19 Therefore shalt thou say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogs lick even thy blood also.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: for thou hast sold thyself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord.

21 ‘Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, as well him that is shut up, as him that is left in Israel, 22 And I will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of ‘Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked and made Israel to sin.

23 And also of Jezebel spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel, by the wall of Jezreel.

24 The dogs shall eat him of Ahab’s stock, that dieth in the city: and him that dieth in the fields, the dogs shall eat him of Ahab’s stock, that dieth in the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

25 (But there was none like Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness, in the sight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife provoked.

26 For he did exceeding abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.)

27 Now when Ahab heard those words, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon him, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ahab is humbled before me? because he submitted himself before me, I will not bring that evil in his days, but in his ‘sons’ days will I bring evil upon his house.

22 Jehoshaphat and Ahab fight against the King of Syria. 15 Micaiah sheweth the king what shall be the success of their enterprise. 24 Zedekiah the false prophet smiteth him. 34 Ahab is slain. 40 Ahab’s sons succeedeth. 41 The reign of Jehoshaphat, 50 and Jehoram his son.

1 And they continued three years without war between Aram and Israel.

2 And in the third year did Jehoshaphat the king of Judah come down to the king of Israel.

3 (Then the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye not that Ramoth Gilead was ours? and we stay, and take it not out of the hand of the King of Aram?)

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle against Ramoth Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ‘I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

5 Then Jehoshaphat said unto the King of Israel, Ask counsel, I pray thee, of the Lord today.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the ‘prophets upon a four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I let it alone? And they said, Go up, for the Lord shall deliver it into the hands of the King.

21:13 1 Hebrew, bless.

21:15 1 This example of monstrous cruelty the holy Ghost leaveth to us, to the intent that we should abhor all tyranny, and specially in them whom nature and kind should move to be pitiful and inclined to mercy.

21:19 1 Dost thou think to have any advantage by murdering of an innocent? 2 This was fulfilled in Jehoram his son, as 2 Kings 9:25, 26.

21:23 1 Or, fortress, or possession.

21:25 1 By the wicked counsel of his wife he became a vile idolater, and cruel murderer, as one that gave himself wholly to serve sin.

21:27 1 Hebrew, his flesh. 2 In token of mourning, or as some read, barefooted.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there here never a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Micaiah the son of Imlah) by whom we may ask counsel of the Lord, but 'I hate him: for he doth not prophesy good unto me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an Eunuch, and said, Call quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat either of them on his throne in their apparel in the void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, until thou hast consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 ¶ And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah, spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one accord, let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak thou good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the Lord liveth, whatsoever the Lord saith unto me, that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the King, and the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we leave off? And he answered him, 'Go up, and prosper: and the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How oft shall I charge thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord?

17 Then he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that had no shepherd. And the Lord said, 'These have no master, let every man return unto his house in peace.

18 (And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good unto me, but evil!)

19 Again he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the Lord. I saw the Lord sit on his throne, and all the 'host of heaven stood about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

20 And the Lord said, Who shall 'entice Ahab that he may go and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 Then there came forth a spirit, and 'stood before the Lord, and said, I will entice him. And the Lord said unto him, Wherewith?

22 And he said, I will go out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. Then he said, Thou shalt entice him, and shalt also prevail: go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath appointed evil against thee.

24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, When went the spirit of the Lord from me, to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and carry him unto Amon the governor of the city, and unto Joash the king's son.

27 And say, Thus saith the King, Put this man in the prison house, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, 'Hearken all ye people.

1 Jehoshaphat did not acknowledge the false prophets to be God's ministers, but did condemn them.

2 Whereby we see that the wicked cannot abide to hear the truth, but hate the Prophets of God and molest them.

3 Read Gen. 37:36.

4 In their kingly apparel.

5 The true Prophets of God were accustomed to use signs for the confirmation of their doctrine, Isa. 20:2; Jer. 7:2. Whereas the false Prophets did imitate them, thinking thereby to make their doctrine more commendable.

6 Hebrew, mouth.

7 This is the common argument of the wicked, who think that none should speak against a thing, if the greater part approve it, be they never so ungodly.

8 He speaketh this in dersion, because the king attributed so much to the false prophets, meaning, that by experience he should try that they were but flatterers.

9 It is better they return home than to be punished and scattered, because they take war in hand without God's counsel and approbation.

10 Meaning, his Angels.

11 Or, persuade and deceive.

12 Here we see that though the devil be ever ready to bring us to destruction, yet he hath no further power than God giveth him.

13 I will cause all his prophets to tell lies.

14 Thus the wicked would seem that none were in the favor of God, but they, and that God hath given his graces to none so much as to them.

15 Let him be pined away with hunger, and be fed with a small portion of bread and water.

16 That when ye shall see these things come to pass, ye may give God the glory, and know that I am his true Prophet.
29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.
30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will change mine apparel, and will enter into the battle, but put thou on thine apparel. And the king of Israel changed himself, and went into the battle.
31 And the king of Aram commanded his two and thirty captains over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only against the king of Israel.
32 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel: and they turned to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried.
33 And when the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from him.
34 Then a certain man drew a bow mightily, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of his brigandine. Wherefore he said unto his chariot man, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host: for I am hurt.
35 And the battle increased that day, and the king stood still in his chariot against the Aramites, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.
36 And there was a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the Sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.
37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.
38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood (and they washed his armor) according unto the word of the Lord which he spake.
39 Concerning the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.
41 ¶ And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign upon Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.
42 Jehoshaphat was five and thirty years old when he began to reign, and reigned five and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
43 And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father, and declined not there from, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered still, and burnt incense in the high places.
44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
45 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his worthy deeds that he did, and his battles which he fought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?
46 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his worthy deeds that he did, and his battles which he fought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?
Ahaziah by a fall falleth sick, and consulteth with Baal-Zebub. 3 He is reproved by Elijah. 10 The captains over fifty were sent to Elijah, whereof two were burnt with fire from heaven by his prayer. 17 Ahaziah dieth, and Jehoram his brother succeedeth him.

Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab:
2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice window in his upper chamber which was in Samaria: so he was sick: then he sent messengers, to whom he said, Go, and inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron, if I shall recover of this my disease.

Then the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, and go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron?
4 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt die the death. So Elijah departed.

5 And the messengers returned unto him, to whom he said, Why are ye now returned?
6 And they answered him, There came a man and met us, and said unto us, Go, and return unto the king which sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-Zebub the God of Ekron?

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came and met you, and told you these words?
8 And they said unto him, He was an hairy man, and girded with a girdle of leather about his loins. Then said he, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent unto him a captain over fifty with his fifty men, who went up unto him: for behold, he sat on the top of a mountain, and he said unto him, O man of God, the king hath commanded that thou come down.
10 But Elijah answered, and said to the captain over the fifty, If that I be a man of God, let fire come down from the heaven, and devour thee and thy fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain over fifty with his fifty. Who spake, and said unto him, O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come down quickly.
12 But Elijah answered, and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the heaven and devour thee and thy fifty. So fire came down from the heaven, and devoured him and his fifty.

13 Yet again he sent the third captain over fifty with his fifty. And the third captain over fifty went up, and came, and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fifty servants be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from the heaven, and devoured the two former captains over fifty with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of his presence. So he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord,
Because thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron, (was it not because there was no God in Israel to inquire of his word?) therefore thou shalt not come down off the bed, on which thou art gone up, but shalt die the death.

17. So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son.

18. Concerning the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

1. Elijah divided the waters with his cloak. 11 He is taken up into heaven. 13 Elisha taketh his cloak and divideth Jordan. 20 The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 23 The children that mock Elisha, are rent in pieces with bears.

1. And when the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2. Then Elijah said to Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hast sent me to Bethel. But Elisha said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came down to Bethel.

3. And the children of the Prophets that were at Bethel, came out to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I know it: hold ye your peace.

4. Again Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho. But he said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5. And the children of the Prophets that were at Jericho, came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou, that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I know it: hold ye your peace.

6. Moreover Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. But he said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went both together.

7. And fifty men of the sons of the Prophets went and stood on the other side a far off, and they two stood by Jordan.

8. ¶ Then Elijah took his cloak, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, and they twain went over on the dry land.

9. Now when they were passed over, Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let thy Spirit be double upon me.

10. And he said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: yet if thou see me when I am taken from thee, thou shalt have it so: and if not, it shall not be.

11. And as they went walking and talking, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and did separate them twain. So Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12. And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: and he saw him no more: and he took his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13. ¶ He took up also the cloak of Elijah, that fell from him, and returned, and stood by the bank of Jordan.

14. After, he took the cloak of Elijah, that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? And so he also, after he had stricken the waters, so that they were divided this way and that way, went over, even Elisha.

15. And when the children of the Prophets, which were at Jericho, saw him on the other side, they said, The Spirit of Elijah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to meet him, and fell to the ground before him,

16. And said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master, if so be the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. But he said, Ye shall not send.
17 Yet they were instant upon him, till he was ashamed: wherefore he said, Send. So they sent fifty men, which sought three days, but found him not.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for he tarried at Jericho) and he said unto them, Did not I say unto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, we pray thee: the situation of this city is pleasant, as thou, my lord, seest, but the water is naught, and the ground barren.

20 Then he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went unto the spring of the waters, and cast there the salt, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I have healed this water: death shall no more come thereof; neither barrenness to the ground.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the word of Elisha which he had spoken.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Bethel. And as he was going up the way, little children came out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Come up, thou bald head, come up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. And two bears came out of the forest, and tore in pieces two and forty children of them.

25 So he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

3 The reign of Jehoram.

6 He and Jehoshaphat go to war against Moab which rebelled. 13 Elisha reproves him, and giveth their hosts water. 24 The Moabites are overcome. 27 Their King sacrificeth his son.

1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat King of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he took away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless, he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, and departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ Then Mesha king of Moab had store of sheep, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand rams with the wool.

5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 Therefore King Jehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbered all Israel.

7 And went, and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me to battle against Moab? And he answered, I will go up; for I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine horses, as thine horses.

8 Then said he, What way shall we go up? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.

9 ¶ So went the king of Israel and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom, and when they had compassed the way seven days, they had no water for the host, nor for the cattle that followed them.

10 Therefore the king of Israel said, Alas, that the Lord hath called these three kings, to give them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered, and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which hath been there to see thee. And the king of Israel said unto him, Go in, and inquire of the Lord by him.

12 Then Jehoshaphat said, ¶ The word of the Lord is with him. Therefore the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, ¶ What have I to do with thee? get thee to the Prophets of thy father, and to the Prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, ¶ Nay: for the Lord hath called these three kings, to give them into the hand of Moab.

14 ¶ Then Elisha said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, the Lord is with him. Therefore the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the Lord came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches.
17 For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall neither see wind nor see rain, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 But this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he will give Moab into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every strong town, and every chief city, and shall fell every fair tree, and shall stop all the fountains of water, and mar every good field with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meat offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom: and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harness, and upward, and stood in their border.

22 And they rose early in the morning, when the Sun arose upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them, as red as blood.

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and one hath smitten another: now therefore Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the host of Israel, the Israelites arose up, and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they invaded them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field every man cast his stone, and filled them, and they stopped all the fountains of water, and mar every good field with stones.

26 And when the King of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew the sword, to break through the host of Israel: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall: so that Israel was sore grieved, and they departed from him, and returned to their country.

4 God increasest the oil to the poor widow by Elisha. 12 He obtained for the Shunammite a son at God's hand. 18 Who dying, 32 he raiseth him up again. 40 He maketh sweet the pottage. 42 and multiplied the loaves.

1 And one of the wives of the sons of the Prophets cried unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take my two sons to be his bondmen.

2 Then Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou at home? And she said, Thine handmaid hath nothing at home, save a pitcher of oil.

3 And he said, Go and borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbors, empty vessels, and spare not.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and pour out into all those vessels, and set aside those that are full.

5 So she departed from him, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons. And they brought to her, and she poured out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is no more vessels. And the oil ceased.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said unto her, There is no more vessels. And the oil ceased.

8 ¶ And on a time Elisha came to Shunem, and there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eat bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold, I know now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make him a little chamber, I pray thee, with walls, and let us set him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick, that he may turn in thither when he cometh to us.

11 ¶ And on a day, he came thither and turned into the chamber, and lay therein.

12 And said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite: and when he called her, she stood before him.

13 Then he said unto him, Say unto her now, Behold, thou hast all this great care for us, what shall we do for thee? Is there anything to be spoken for thee to the king or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 Again he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, Indeed she hath no son, and her husband is old.

15 Then said he, Call her. And he called her, and she stood in the door.

16 And he said, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 So the woman conceived, and bore a son at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elisha had said unto her.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, Mine head, mine head. Who said to his servant, Bear him to his mother.

20 And he took him and brought him to his mother, and sat on her knees till noon, and died.

21 Then she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him and went out.

22 ¶ Then she called to her husband, and said, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses: for I will haste to the man of God, and shut my handmaid.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him today? it is neither 'new moon nor Sabbath day. And she answered, All shall be well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward: stay not for me to get up, except I bid thee.

25 ¶ So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her 'over against him, he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, the Shunammite.

26 Run now, I say, to meet her, and say unto her, Art thou in health? is thine husband in health? and is the child in health? And she answered, We are in health.

27 And when she came to the man of God unto the mountain, she 'caught him by his feet: and Gehazi went to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soul is vexed within her, and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told it me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Deceive me not?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. Therefore he arose, and followed her.

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, and had laid the staff upon the face of the child, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not waken.

32 ¶ Then came Elisha into the house, and beheld, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon the child, and prayed unto the Lord.

34 After he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and stretched himself upon him, and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 And he went from him, and walked up and down in the house, and went up and spread himself upon him: then the child sneezed seven times, and opened his eyes.

36 Then he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in unto him, and told him, saying, The child is not waken.

37 And she came, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground.

38 Afterward Elisha returned to Gilgal, and a famine was in the land, and the children of the Prophets went to resort to the Prophets for doctrine and consolation.

4:13 1 Thus the servants of God are not unthankful for the benefits they receive.

2 I am content with that that God hath sent me, and can want nothing that one can do for another.

4:14 1 Which then was a reproach, and therefore he would that his master should pray to God for her that she might be fruitful.

4:19 1 His head ached sore, and therefore he cried thus.

4:23 1 For at such times the people were wont to resort to the Prophets for doctrine and consolation.

2 Hebrew, peace.

4:25 1 Or, far off.

4:27 1 In token of humility and joy that she had met with him.

4:29 1 Hebrew, her soul is in bitterness.

4:31 1 Make such speed that nothing may let thee in the way, Luke 10:4.

4:34 1 The like did Elijah to the widow’s son at Zarephath, 1 Kings 17:21 and St. Paul, Acts 2010, signifying the care that ought to be in them, that bear the word of God, and are distributors of the spiritual life.

4:35 1 Meaning, oftimes.

4:38 1 That is, in the land of Israel.
dwell with him. And he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe the pottage for the children of the Prophets.
39. And one went out into the field, to gather herbs, and found as it were a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his garment full, and came and shed them into the pot of pottage: for they knew it not.
40. So they poured out for the men to eat: and when they did eat of the pottage, they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, "death is in the pot:
and they could not eat thereof.
41. Then he said, Bring meal. And he cast it into the pot, and said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat: and there was none evil in the pot.
42. ¶ Then came a man from Baal Shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, even twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.
43. And his servant answered, How should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give it unto the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eat, and there shall remain.
44. So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left over, according to the word of the Lord.

5:1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosy. 16 Elisha refuseth his gifts. 27 Gehazi is stricken with leprosy, because he took money and raiment of Naaman.

1. Now was there one Naaman captain of the host of the King of Aram, a great man, and honorable in the sight of his lord, because that by him the Lord had delivered the Aramites. He also was a mighty man and valiant, but a leper.
2. And the Aramites had gone out by bands, and had taken a little maid of the land of Israel, and she served Naaman’s wife.
3. And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the Prophet that is in Samaria, he would soon deliver him of his leprosy.
4. And he went in, and told his lord, saying,
Thus and thus saith the maid that is of the land of Israel.
5. And the king of Aram said, Go thy way thither, and I will send a letter unto the King of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiments,
6. And brought the letter to the king of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come unto thee, understand, that I have sent thee Naaman my servant, that thou mayest heal him of his leprosy.
7. And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God to kill and to give life that he doth send to me, that I should heal a man from his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.
8. But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent unto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.
9. ¶ Then Naaman came with his horses, and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.
10. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.
11. But Naaman was wroth and went away, and said, Behold, I thought with myself, He will surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God, and put his hand on the place, and heal the leprosy.
12. Are not Abanan and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash me in them, and be cleansed? So he turned, and departed in displeasure.
13. But his servants came, and spake unto him, and said, Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?
14. Then went he down, and washed himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again, like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.
15. ¶ And he turned again to the man of God, he,
and all his company, and came and stood before him, and said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the world but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a reward of thy servant.

16 But he said, As the Lord liveth (before whom I stand) I will not receive it. And he would have constrained him to receive it, but he refused.

17 Moreover Naaman said, Shall there not be given to thy servant two mules' load of this earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering unto any other god, save unto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord be merciful unto thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I do bow down, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be merciful unto thy servant in this point.

19 Unto whom he said, Go in peace. So he departed from him about half a day's journey of ground.

20 And Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God said, Behold, my master hath spared this Aramite Naaman, receiving not those things at his hand that he brought: As the Lord liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed speedily after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?

22 And he answered, All is well: my master hath set me, saying, Behold, there be come to me, even now from mount Ephraim two young men of the children of the Prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments, and gave them unto two of his servants, that they might bear them before him.

23 And Naaman said, Yea, take two talents: and he compelled him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them unto two of his servants, that they might bear them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them out of their hands, and laid them in the house, and sent away the men: and they departed.

25 Then he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehaz? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

26 But he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receive garments, and olives, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and to thy seed forever. And he went out from his presence a leper white as snow.
6:11 And the heart of the king of Aram was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not show me which of us bewrayeth our counsel to the king of Israel?

6:12 Then one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king, but Elisha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, even the words that thou speakest in thy privy chamber.

6:13 And he said, Go, and espy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And one told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

6:14 ¶ So he sent thither horses, and chariots, and a mighty host: and they came by night, and compassed the city.

6:15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early to go out, behold, an host compassed the city with horses and chariots. Then his servant said unto him, Alas master, how shall we do?

6:16 And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

6:17 Then Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I beseech thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the servant, and he looked, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

6:18 So they came down to him, but Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite these people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

6:19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way: neither is this the city: follow me, and I will lead you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

6:20 And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, open the eyes of the servant, and they saw, and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

6:21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them?

6:22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: but set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master.

6:23 And he made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away: and they went to their master. So the bands of Aram came no more into the land of Israel.

6:24 But afterward Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his host, and went up and besieged Samaria.

6:25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for lo, they besieged it until an asses head was at four score pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove’s dung at five pieces of silver.

6:26 And as the king of Israel was going upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O King.

6:27 And he said, Seeing the Lord doth not succor thee, how should I help thee with the barn, or with the wine press?

6:28 Also the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.

6:29 ¶ So we sod my son, and did eat him: and I said to her the day after, Give thy son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.

6:30 And when the king had heard the words of the woman, he rent his clothes, (and as he went upon the wall, the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh)

6:31 And he said, God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

6:32 (Now Elisha sat in his house, and the Elders sat with him,) And the King sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the Elders, See ye not how this murderer’s son hath sent to take away mine head? take heed when the messenger cometh, and shut the door, and handle him roughly at the door: is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?

6:33 While he yet talked with them, behold, the sword of the Lord doth not succor thee, how should I help thee with the barn, or with the wine press?

6:25 1 The Hebrews write, that they burned it in the siege for lack of wood.
6:27 1 Meaning, any kind of vittle, as corn and wine, etc.
6:30 1 Or, under his clothes.

6:12 1 There is nothing so secret that thou canst go about, but he knoweth it, and discovereth it unto his king.
6:14 1 Though it had been nothing in man’s judgment to have taken Elisha, yet the wicked ever doubt, and think they are never able to prepare power enough, though it be but against one or a few.
6:16 1 For he was assured of God’s help, and that millions of Angels camped about the godly to deliver them.
6:17 1 That he may behold how thou hast prepared an army to rescue us.
6:18 1 Meaning, the Syrians his enemies, which came down, thinking themselves sure of him.
6:19 1 Thus he did being led by the Spirit of God, and not because he sought his own vengeance, but only to set forth the glory of God.
6:21 1 The wicked use reverent and grave words toward the servants of God, when they think to have any commodity by them, though in their heart they cannot abide them.
6:23 2 For this gentle entreaty and the miracle wrought by the Prophet, did more prevail for common quietness, than if they had been overcome in battle: for they returned no more at that time to fight against Israel, or in that King’s days.
6:25 1 The Hebrews write, that they burned it in the siege for lack of wood.
6:27 1 Meaning, any kind of vittle, as corn and wine, etc.
6:30 1 Or, under his clothes.

2 KINGS 6:11  382
Elisha prophesieth plenty of vittles, and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians run away and have no man following them. 7 The prince that would not believe the word of Elisha, is trodden to death.

1 Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the Lord:
thus saith the Lord, 'Tomorrow this time a measure of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a prince, on whose hand the king 1leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord would make 'windows in the heaven, could this thing come to pass? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not 'eat thereof.

3 Now there were four leprous men at the 'entering in of the gate: and they said one to another,
Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall into the camp of the Aramites: if they save our lives, we shall live: and if they kill us, we are but dead.

5 So they rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Aramites: and when they were come to the utmost part of the camp of the Aramites, lo, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the camp of the Aramites to hear a 'noise of chariots and a noise of horses, and a noise of a great army, so that they said one to another, Behold, the King of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and 1fled for their lives.

8 And when these lepers came to the utmost part of the camp, they entered into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: after, they returned, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace.
If we tarry till daylight, some 'mischief will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go, and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porters of the city, and told them, saying. We came to the camp of the Aramites, and lo, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied and asses tied: and the tents are as they were.

11 And the porters cried and declared to the king's household within.

12 Then the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, 'I will show you now, what the Aramites have done unto us. They know that we are famished, therefore they are gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered, and said, Let me take now five of the horses that remain, and are left in the city, (behold, they are even as all the multitude of Israel that are left therein: behold, I say, they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we will send to see.

14 So they took 'two chariots of horses, and the king sent after the host of the Aramites, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan, and lo, all the way was full of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 Then the people went out and spoiled the camp of the Aramites: so a measure of fine flour was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel 1ac-cording to the word of the Lord.

17 And the king gave the prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, and the people 1trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man

633 1 So the wicked fall into a rage and desperation, if they find no sudden remedy against their afflictions.
7.1 1 The godly are ever assured of God's help in their necessities, but the times and hours are only revealed by God's Spirit.
7.2 1 To whom the king gave the charge and oversight of things, as verse 17.
2 He mocked at the Prophet's words, saying, that if God rained down corn from heaven, yet this could not come to pass.
3 Thy infidelity shall be punished herein when thou shalt see this miracle, and yet not be partaker thereof.
7.3 1 For it was commanded in the law that they should dwell apart, and not among their brethren, Lev. 13:46.
7.6 1 Thus God needeth no great preparation to destroy the wicked, though they be never so many: for he can scatter them with a small noise, or shaking of a leaf.
7.7 1 The wicked need no greater enemy than their own conscience to pursue them.
7.9 1 Or, we shall be punished for our faults.
7.12 1 He mistrusted the Prophet's words, and therefore could believe nothing, as they which are more politic than godly ever cast more perils than needeth.
7.13 1 There are no more left, but they, or the rest are consumed with the famine, as the rest of the people.
7.14 1 Or, two horses of the chariot, which were accustomed to draw in the chariot.
7.16 1 Which he spake by the mouth of Elisha, verse 1.
CHAPTER 8
* 2 Kings 4:18
* 1 Chron 2:14

8
1 Elisha prophesieoth unto the Shunammite the death of seven years. 12 He prophesieoth to Hazael, that he shall be king of Syria. 15 He reigneth after Ben-Hadad. 16 Jehoram reigneth over Judah. 20 Edom falleth from Judah. 25 Ahabziah succeedeth Jehoram.

1 Then spake Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Up, and go thou, and thine house, and sojourn where thou canst sojourn: for the Lord hath called a famine, and it cometh also upon the land seven years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went both she and her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 ¶ And at the seven year's end, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call upon the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the King talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great acts, that Elisha hath done.

5 And as he told the king, how he had restored one dead to life, behold, the woman, whose son he had raised to life, called upon the king for her house and for her land. Then Gehazi said, My lord, O King, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him: so the King appointed her an Eunuch, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the fruits of her land since the day she left the land, even until this time.

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad the king of Aram wounded the king of Israel. And one told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, that thou mayest inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took the present in his hand, and of every good things of Damascus, even the burden of forty camels, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-Hadad king of Aram hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said to him, Go, and say unto him, Thou shalt recover: howbeit the Lord hath showed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he looked upon him steadfastly, till Hazael was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, because I know the evil that thou shalt do unto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their young men shalt thou slay with the sword, and shalt dash their infants against the stones, and rent in pieces their women with child.

13 Then Hazael said, What? is thy servant a dog, that I should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath showed me, that thou shalt be King of Aram.

14 ¶ So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest recover.

15 And on the morrow he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, and of Jehoshaphat King of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign.

17 He was two and thirty years old, when he began to reign: and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife.
of Ahab was his wife, and he did evil in the sight of the Lord.

19 Yet the Lord would not destroy Judah, for David his servant’s sake, ‘as he had promised him to give him a light, and to his children forever.’

20 ¶ In those days Edom ’rebelled from under the hand of Judah, and made a King over themselves.

21 Therefore Joram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him, and he arose by night, and smote the Edomites which were about him, with the captains of the chariots, and the people fled into their tents.

22 So Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah unto this day: then 1Libnah rebelled at that same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And 2Ahabiah his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab King of Israel, did Ahabiah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.

26 1Two and twenty years old was Ahabiah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Omri king of Israel.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram in 1Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Joram.

29 And king Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Aramites had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahabiah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

6 Jeu is made king of Israel. 24 And killeth Jehoram the king thereof. 27 And Ahabiah, otherwise called Jehobaz, the king of Judah. 33 And causeth Jezebel to be cast down out of a window, and the dogs did eat her.

9 1 Kings 16:3–11

8:20 1 Which had been subject from David’s time, until this time of Jehoram.

8:22 1 This was a city in Judah given to the Levites, Josh. 21:13, and after turned from King Jehoram, because of his idolatry.

8:26 1 Which is to be understood, that he was made king when his father reigned, but after his father’s death he was confirmed king when he was forty-two years old, as 2 Chron. 22.2.

8:28 1 Which was a city in the tribe of Gad beyond Jordan.

8:29 1 This is a city belonging to the tribe of Issachar.

9:1 1 Prepare thyself to go diligently about thy business: for in those countries they used long garments which they tucked up, when they went about earnest business.

9:6 1 This anointing was for Kings, Priests and Prophets, which were all figures of Messiah, in whom these three offices were accomplished.

9:11 1 That is, the rest of the army, whom he called before, his brethren, verse 2.

2 In this estimation the world hath the ministers of God: notwithstanding forasmuch as the world hath ever slandered the children of God (yea they called the Son of God a deceiver, and said he had the devil) therefore they ought not to be discouraged.
13 Then they made haste, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is King.
14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram: (Now Joram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram.
15 And king Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds, which the Aramites had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Aram) and Jehu said, If it be your minds, let no man depart and escape out of the city, to go and tell in Jezreel.
16 So Jehu got up into a chariot, and went to Jezreel: for Joram lay there, and Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.
17 And the watchman that stood in the tower in Jezreel spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Jehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meet them, that he may say, Is it peace?
18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.
19 Then he sent out another on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn behind me.
20 And the watchman told, saying, He came to them also, but cometh not again, and the marching is like the marching of Jehu the son of Nimshi: for he marcheth furiously.
21 Then Jehoram said, Make ready: and his servants carried him in a chariot to Jezreel, for his life was gone out of him.
22 And when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And Jehu answered, What peace? whiles the whoredomes of thy mother Jezebel, and her witchcrafts are yet in great number?
23 Then Jehoram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treason.
24 But Jehu took a bow in his hand, and smote Jehoram between the shoulders, that the arrow went through his heart: and he fell down in his chariot.
25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar a captain, Take, and cast him in some place of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord laid this burden upon him.
26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, said the Lord, and I will render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take and cast him in the field according to the word of the Lord.
27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house: And Jehu pursued after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot.
28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulcher with his fathers in the city of David.
29 ¶ And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.
31 And as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, which slew his master?
32 And he lift up his eyes to the window, and said, Who is on my side, who? Then two or three of her eunuchs looked unto him.
33 And he said, Cast her down: and they cast her down, and she came into a bath, and they sprinkled of her blood upon the wall, and upon the horses, and he trode her under foot.
34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Visit now yonder cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a King's daughter.
35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her, than the skull and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
36 Wherefore they came again and told him.
And he said, This is the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the field of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel.

37 And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the ground in the field of Jezreel, so that none shall say, This is Jezebel.

10 6 Jehu causeth the seventy sons of Ahab to be slain. 14 And after that forty and two of Ahaziah's brethren. 25 He killeth also all the Priests of Baal. 35 After his death his son reigneth in his stead.

1 Ahab had now seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria unto the rulers of Jezreel, and to the Elders, and to the bringers up of Ahab's children, to this effect,

2 Now when this letter cometh to you, (for ye have with you your master's sons, ye have with you both chariots and horses, and a defended city, and armor)

3 Consider therefore which of your master's sons is best and most meet, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold two kings could not stand before him, how shall we then stand?

5 And he that was governor of Ahab's house, and he that ruled the city, and the Elders, and the bringers up of the children sent to Jehu, saying. We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us: we will make no king: do what seemeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men that are your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. (Now the king's sons, even seventy persons were with the great men of the city, which brought them up)

7 And when the letter came to them, they took the King's sons, and slew the seventy persons, and laid their heads in baskets, and sent them unto him to Jezreel.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the King's sons. And he said, Let them lay them on two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And when it was day he went out, and stood and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord hath brought to pass the things that he spake by his servant Elijah.

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars, and his priests, so that he let none of his remain.

12 ¶ And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria. And as Jehu was in the way by an house where the shepherds did shear, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and go down to salute the children of the King and the children of the Queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the well beside the house where the sheep were shorn, even two and forty men, and he left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he met with Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him, and he blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart upright, as mine heart is toward thine? And Jehonadab answered, Yea, doubtless. Then give me thine hand. And when he had given him his hand, he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see the zeal that I have for the Lord: so they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake to Elijah.

18 Then Jehu assembled all the people, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him much more.

19 Now therefore call unto me all ye prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whomsoever is lacking, he shall not live. But Jehu did it by a subtlety to destroy the servants of Baal.

10:20 And Jehu said,
1  Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal, And they proclaimed it.

10:21 So Jehu sent unto all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from end to end.

10:22 Then he said unto him that had the charge of the vestry. Bring forth vestments for all the servants of Baal. And he brought them out vestments.

10:23 And when Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal, he said unto the servants of Baal, Search diligently, and look, lest there be here with you any of the ’servants of the Lord, but the servants of Baal only.

10:24 And when they went in to make sacrifice and burnt offering, Jehu appointed four score men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands, escape,
1  his soul shall be for his soul.

10:25 And when he had made an end of the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard, and to the captains, Go in, slay them, let not a man come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword. And the guard, and the captains cast them out, and went unto the ’city, where was the temple of Baal.

10:26 And they brought out the images of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

10:27 And they destroyed the image of Baal, and threw down the house of Baal, and made a jakes of it unto this day.

10:28 So Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

10:29 But from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat which made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from them, neither from the golden calves that were in Bethel and that were in Dan.

10:30 ¶ And the Lord said unto Jehu, Because thou hast diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes,
1  and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all things that were in mine heart, therefore shall thy ’sons unto the fourth generation sit on the throne of Israel.

10:31 But Jehu regarded not to walk in the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart; for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

11:1 In those days the Lord began to loathe Israel, and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel.

11:2 From Jordan Eastward, even all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and them that were of Manasseh, from Aroer (which is by the river Arnon) and Gilead and Bashan.

11:3 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his valiant deeds, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

11:4 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

11:5 And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria is eight and twenty years.

11:1 1 Athaliah puttheth to death all the King’s sons, except Joash the son of Ahaziah. 4 Joash is appointed King. 15 Jehoiada causeth Athaliah to be slain. 17 He maketh a covenant between God and the people. 18 Baal and his priests are destroyed.

11:1 Then Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah when she saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the ’King’s seed.

11:2 But Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, and sister to Ahaziah ’took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the King’s sons that should be slain,
1  both him and his nurse, keeping them in the bedchamber, and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

11:3 And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord six years, and Athaliah did reign over the land.

11:4 ¶ And the seventh year ’Jehoiada sent and took the captains over hundreds, with other captains and them of the guard, and caused them to come unto him into the house of the Lord, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the Lord, and showed them the King’s son.

11:5 And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must do, The third part of ’you, that cometh on the Sabbath, shall 2ward toward the King’s house:

11:6 And another third part in the gate of ’Sur: and 17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord, and the King and the people, that they should be the Lord's people: likewise between the King and the people.

18 Then all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it with his altars, and his images brake they down courageously, and slew Mattan the Priest of Baal before the altars: and the Priest set a guard over the house of the Lord.

19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, and the other captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land: and they brought the King from the house of the Lord, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the King's house: and he sat him down on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: for they had slain Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

12 6 Jehoash maketh provision for the repairing of the Temple. 16 He slayeth the king of Syria by a present from coming against Jerusalem. 20 He is killed by two of his servants.

1 In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign, and reigned forty years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was good in the Lord all his time that Jehoiada the Priest taught him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered yet and burnt incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the Priests, All the silver things that are brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that are under the count, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that one offereth willingly, and bringeth into the house of the Lord,

5 Let the Priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and they shall repair the broken places

2 Or, that none break his order.

119 Whose charge is ended.

119 Read verses 5 and 7.

1110 To wit, Jehoiada.

1112 That is, Joash, which had been kept secret six years.

2 Meaning, the Law of God, which is his chief charge, and whereby only his throne is established.

1114 Where the king's place was in the Temple.

1115 Or, out of the Temple.

2 To take her part.

1117 That both the King and the people should maintain the true worship of God and destroy all idolatry.

2 That he should govern and they obey in the fear of God.

1118 Even in the place where he had blasphemed God, and thought to have been helped by his idol, there God poured his vengeance upon him.

112 To wit, Jehoiada.

1120 Which by her cruelty and persecution had vexed the whole land before.

122 So long as rulers give ear to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

123 So hard a thing it is for them, that are in authority, to be brought to the perfect obedience of God.

124 That is, the money of redemption, Exod. 30:12, also the money which the Priest valued the vows at, Lev. 27:2, and their free liberality.

125 For the Temple which was built an hundred fifty and five years before, had many things decayed in it, both by the negligence of the King's predecessors, and also by the wickedness of the idolaters.
of the house, wheresoever any decay is found.

6 ¶ Yet in the three and twentieth year of King Jehoash the Priests had not mended that which was decayed in the Temple.

7 ¶ Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the ruins of the Temple? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, except ye deliver it to repair the ruins of the Temple.

8 So the Priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the decayed places of the Temple.

9 Then Jehoiada the Priest took a chest and bored an hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as every man cometh into the Temple of the Lord. And the Priests that kept the door, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they saw there was much money in the chest, the king's Secretary came up and the high Priest, and put it up after that they had told the money that was found in the house of the Lord,

11 And they gave the money made ready into the hands of them, that undertook the work, and that had the oversight of the house of the Lord: and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought upon the house of the Lord,

12 And to the masons and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone, to repair that was decayed in the house of the Lord, and for all that which was laid out for the reparation of the Temple.

13 Howbeit there was not made for the house of the Lord bowls of silver, instruments of music, basins, trumpets, nor any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gave it to the workmen, which repaired therewith the house of the Lord.

15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they delivered that money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money of the trespass offering, and the money of the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests.'

17 ¶ Then came up Hazael king of Aram, and fought against Gath, and took it, and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Aram, and he departed from Jerusalem.

19 Concerning the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 ¶ And his servants arose and wrought treason, and drew Joash in the house of Millo, when he came down to Silla.

21 Even Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer his servants smote him and he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

13 3 Jehoahaz the son of Jehu is delivered into the hands of the Syrians. 4 He prayeth unto God, and is delivered. 9 Joash his son reigneth in his stead. 20 Elisha dieth. 24 Hazael dieth.

1 In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all his days.

4 And Jehoahaz besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Aram troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gave Israel a deliverer, so that they came out from under the subjection of the Aramites. And the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as beforetime.

12:13 ¶ For these men had only the charge of the reparation of the Temple, and the rest of the money was brought to the king, who caused these afterward to be made. 2 Chron. 24:14.

12:18 ¶ After the death of Jehoiada, Joash fell to idolatry: therefore God rejected him, and stirreth up his enemy against him, whom he pacified with the treasures of the Temple: for God would not be served with those gifts, seeing the king's heart was wicked.

6 Nevertheless, they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam which made Israel sin, but walked in them, even the ‘grove also remained still in Samaria.

7 For he had left of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, because the king of Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to powder.

8 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, and his valiant deeds, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ In the seven and thirtieth year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And did evil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat that made Israel to sin, but he walked therein.

12 Concerning the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his valiant deeds, and how he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his seat: and Joash was buried in Samaria among the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ When Elisha fell sick of his sickness whereof he died, Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept upon his face, and said, ‘O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Then Elisha said unto him, Take a bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it. And Elisha put his hands upon the king’s hands, 17 And said, Open the window Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, Behold, the arrow of the Lord’s deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.

18 Again he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thrice, and ceased.

19 ‘Then the man of God was ‘angry with him, and said, ‘Thou shouldst have smitten five or six times, so thou shouldst have smitten Aram, till thou hadst consumed it, where now thou shalt smite Aram but thrice.

20 ¶ So Elisha died, and they buried him. And certain bands of the Moabites came into the land that year.

21 And as they were burying a man: behold, they saw the soldiers: therefore they cast the man into the sepulcher of Elisha. And when the man was down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he ‘revived and stood upon his feet.

22 ¶ But Hazael king of Aram vexed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 Therefore the Lord had mercy on them and pitied them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as ‘yet.

24 So Hazael the King of Aram died: and Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 Therefore Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned, and took out of the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken away by war out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father: for three times did Joash beat him, and restored the cities unto Israel.

14 2 Amaziah the king of Judah putteth to death them that slew his father. 7 and after smiteth Edom. 15 Joash dieth, and Jeroboam his son succeedeth him. 29 And after him reigneth Zechariah.

1 The second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, reigned 2Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah.

136 1 Wherein they did commit their idolatry, and which the Lord had commanded to be destroyed, Deut. 16:21.

137 1 That is, Hazael and Ben-Hadad his son, as verse 3. Read of Hazael, 2 Kings 8:12.

1310 1 His chief purpose is to describe the kingdom of Judah, and how God performed his promise made to the house of David: but by the way he showeth how Israel was afflicted and punished for their great idolatry, who though they had now degenerated, yet God both by sending them sundry Prophets and divers punishments, did call them unto him again.

1314 1 Thus they used to call the Prophets and servants of God, by whom God blesseth his people, as 2 Kings 2:12, meaning that by their prayers they did more prosper their country than by force of arms.

1317 1 That is, toward Syria: so that he did not only prophesy with words, but also confirmed him by these signs that he should have the victory.

1319 1 Because he seemed content to have victory against the enemies of God for twice or thrice, and had not a zeal to overcome them continually, and to destroy them utterly.

1321 1 By this miracle God confirmed the authority of Elisha, whose doctrine in his life they contemned, that at this sight they might return and embrace the same doctrine.

1323 1 That is, until their sins were come to a full measure, and there was no more hope of amendment.
2 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
3 And he did uprightness in the sight of the Lord, yet not like David his father, but did according to all that Joash his father had done.
4 Notwithstanding the high places were not taken away; for as yet the people did sacrifice, and burnt incense in the high places.
5 ¶ And when the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, he slew his servants which had killed the king his father.
6 But the children of those that did slay him, he slew not, according unto that which is written in the book of the Law of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying, 'The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers: but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
7 He slew also of Edom in the valley of salt, ten thousand, and took the city of Sela by war, and called the name thereof Joktheel unto this day.
8 ¶ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.
9 Then Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, went and trode down the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, 'Let us fight hand to hand, and try it by battle, and not destroy one another's cities.
10 Because thou hast smitten Edom, thine heart hath made thee proud: 1 brag of glory, and tarry at home, and envy the God of Judah.
11 But Amaziah would not hear; therefore Jehoash king of Judah went up: and he and Amaziah king of Judah saw one another in the face at Beth Shemesh which is in Judah.
12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to their tents.
13 But Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.
14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the children that were in 'hostage, and returned to Samaria.
15 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his valiant deeds, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria among the kings of Israel: and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.
17 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.
18 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?
19 But they wrought treason against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.
20 And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.
21 Then all the people of Judah took Azariah which was sixteen years old, and made him king for his father Amaziah.
22 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.
23 ¶ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, was Jeroboam the son of Joash made king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned one and forty years.
24 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.
25 He restored the coast of Israel, from the entering of Hamath, unto the sea of the wilderness, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel, which he did by the hand of his servant Jeroboam.

14:3 1 In the beginning of his reign he seemed to have an outward show of godliness; but afterward he became an idolater and worshipped the idols of the Idumeans.
14:5 1 Because they neither consented nor were partakers with their fathers in that act.
14:7 1 For the Idumeans, whom David had brought to subjection, did rebel in the time of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat.
14:8 1 Or, the tower, or rock, 2 Chron. 25:32.
14:10 1 Brag of the victory, so that thou tarry at home, and envy me not.
14:13 1 Or, brought him.
14:14 1 That is, which the Israelites had given to them of Judah for an assurance of peace.
14:19 1 Which city Rehoboam built in Judah for a fortress, 2 Chron. 11:9.
14:21 1 Who is also called Uzziah, 2 Chron. 26:1.
14:22 1 Which is also called Elnan or Eloth.
14:24 1 Because this idolatry was so vile and almost incredible, that men should forsake the living God, to worship calves, the work of man's hands, therefore the Scripture doth oftentimes repeat it in the reproach of all idolaters.
spake 1by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai the Prophet, which was of Gath Hepher.

26 For the Lord saw the exceedingly bitter affliction of Israel, so that there was none 1shut up, nor any left, neither yet any that could help Israel.

27 Yet the Lord 1had not decreed to put out the name of Israel from under the heaven: therefore he preserved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his valiant deeds, and how he fought, and how he restored Damascus, and 1Hamath to Judah in Israel, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 So Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel, and Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

1 In the 1seven and twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he, when he was made king, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did 1uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

4 But the high places were not put away; for the people yet offered, and burned incense in the high places.

5 And the Lord 1smote the king, and he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in an house apart, and Jotham the king’s son governed the house, and 1judged the people of the land.

6 Concerning the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 ¶ In the eight and thirtieth year of Azariah King of Judah, did Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six 1months, 9 And did evil in the sight of the Lord, as did his fathers; for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him, in the sight of the people, and 1killed him, and reigned in his stead.

11 Concerning the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

12 This was the 1word of the Lord, which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation after thee. And it came so to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah King of Judah: and he reigned the space of a month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 Concerning the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the treason which he wrought, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem destroyed 1Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not to him, and he smote it, and ripped up all their women with child.

17 The nine and thirtieth year of Azariah King of Judah, began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and 1reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and departed not all his days from the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.

19 ¶ Then Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand 1talents of silver, that his hand might be with him, and establish the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money in Israel that all men of substance should give the king of Assyria fifty shekels of silver a piece: so the king of Assyria returned, and tarried not there in the land.

21 Concerning the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15:10 1Zechariah was the last in Israel, that had the kingdom by succession, save only Pekahiah the son of Menahem, who reigned but two years.

15:16 1Which was a city of Israel that would not receive him to be king.

15:19 1That is, of Israel.

2 Instead of seeking help of God, he went about by money to purchase the favor of this king being an infidel, and therefore God forsook him, and Pul soon afterward brake promise, destroyed his country, and led his people away captive.
22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son did reign in his stead.
23 ¶ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, began Pekahiah the son of Menahem to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.
24 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat which made Israel to sin.
25 And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the place of the king's palace with 'Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: so he killed him, and reigned in his stead.
26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.
27 ¶ In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, began Pekah the son of Remaliah to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.
28 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat that made Israel to sin.
29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel 'came Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel Beth Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilgal, and Galilee, and all the land of Naphtali, and carried them away to Assyria.
30 And Hoshea the son of Elah wrought treason against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and slew him, and reigned in his stead in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.
31 Concerning the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.
32 ¶ In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah King of Israel, began Jotham son of 'Uzziah King of Judah to reign.
33 Five and twenty years old was he, when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.
34 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.
35 But the high places were not put away: for the people yet offered and burnt incense in the high places: he built the highest gate of the house of the Lord.
36 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?
37 In 'those days the Lord began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and 'Pekah the son of Remaliah.
38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

16 3 Ahaz King of Judah consecrateth his son in fire. 5 Jerusalem is besieged. 9 Damascus is taken, and Rezin slain. 11 Idolatry. 19 The death of Abaz. 20 Hezekiah succeedeth him.

1 The seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, 'Ahaz the son of Jotham King of Judah began to reign.
2 Twenty years old was Ahaz, when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not uprightly in the sight of the Lord his God, like David his father:
3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to 'go through the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.
4 Also he offered and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
5 ¶ Then Rezin King of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem, to fight: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome 'him.
6 At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored 'Elath to Aram, and drove the Jews from Elath: so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.
7 Then Ahaz sent 'messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and deliver me out of the hand of the king of Aram, and out of the hand of the king of Israel which rise up against me.
8 And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the 'house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king’s house, and sent a present unto the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria consented unto him: and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and when he had taken it, he carried the people away to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went unto Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria: and when king Ahaz saw the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Urijah the Priest the pattern of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Urijah the Priest made an altar 1in all points like to that which King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Urijah the Priest against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 So when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered 1thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering, and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings besides the altar.

14 And set it by the brazen altar which was before the Lord, and brought it in further before the house between the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it on the 1North side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the Priest, and said, Upon the great altar set on fire in the morning the burnt offering, and in the even the meat offering, and the king’s burnt offering and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings: and pour thereby all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the 1brazen altar shall be for me to inquire of God.

16 And Urijah the Priest did according to all that King Ahaz had commanded.

17 And King Ahaz brake the borders of the bases, and took the caldrons from off them, and took down the sea from the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the 1veil for the Sabbath (that they had made in the house) and the king’s entry without turned he to the house of the Lord, 2because of the king of Assyria.

19 Concerning the rest of the acts of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

17 3 Hoshea King of Israel is taken, 4 And he and all his realm brought to the Assyrians, 18 for their idolatry. 25 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwelt in Samaria. 29 Every one worshippeth the god of his nation. 35 Contrary to the commandment of God.

1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, and reigned nine years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, 1but not as the kings of Israel, that were before him.

3 And Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found treason in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present unto the king of Assyria, 1as he had done yearly: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and put him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went against Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 ¶ In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away unto Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the 1Medes.

7 For when the children of Israel 1sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods, 16:15 1 Here he establisheth by commandment his own wicked proceedings, and doth abolish the commandment and ordinance of God.

16:18 1 Or, tent, wherein they lay on the Sabbath, which had served their week in the Temple, and so departed home.

2  Either to flatter the King of Assyria, when he should thus see him change the ordinance of God, or else that the Temple might be a refuge for him if the King should suddenly assail his house.

17:2 1 Though he invented no new idolatry, or impiety as others did, yet he sought for help at the Egyptians, which God had forbidden.

17:4 1 For he had paid tribute for the space of eight years.

17:6 1 For at this time the Medes and Persians were subject to the Assyrians.

17:7 1 He setteth forth at length the cause of this great plague and perpetual captivity, to admonish all people, and nations to cleave to the Lord God, and only worship him for fear of like judgment.

17:9 1 Meaning, throughout all their borders.
10 And had made them images and groves upon every high hill, and under every green tree,
11 And there burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen, whom the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord,
12 And served idols: wherefore the Lord had said unto them, Ye shall do no such thing,
13 Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israel, and to Judah by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments, and my statutes, according to all the Law, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the Prophets.
14 Nevertheless they would not obey, but hardened their necks, like to the necks of their fathers, that did not believe in the Lord their God.
15 And they refused his statutes and his covenant, that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies (wherewith he witnessed unto them) and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the heathen that were round about them: concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not do like them.
16 Finally they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.
17 And they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and used witchcraft and enchantments, yea, sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to anger him.
18 Therefore the Lord was exceedingly wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Judah only.
19 Yet Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked according to the fashion of Israel, which they used.
20 Therefore the Lord cast off all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hands of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.
21 For he cut off Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat King: and Jeroboam drew Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sin a great sin.
22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam, which he did, and departed not therefrom.
23 Until the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the Prophets, and carried Israel away out of their land to Assyria unto this day.
24 And the king of Assyria brought folk from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.
25 ¶ And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew them.
26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.
27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the Priests whom ye brought from thence, and let him go and dwell there, and teach them the manner of the God of the country.
28 So one of the Priests, which they had carried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the Lord.
29 Howbeit, every nation made their gods, and put them in the houses of the high places, which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.
30 For the men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima.
31 And the Avites made Nibhaz, and Tartak: and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech, and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.
32 Thus they feared the Lord, and appointed out Priests out of themselves for the high places, who prepared for them sacrifices in the houses of the high places.
33 They feared the Lord, but served their gods after the manner of the nations whom they carried thence.
34 Unto this day they do after the old manner: they neither fear God, neither do after their ordinances, nor after their customs, nor after the Law, nor after the commandment, which the Lord commanded the children of Jacob whom he named Israel,
35 And with whom the Lord had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Fear none other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:
36 But fear the Lord which brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a stretched out arm: him fear ye, and worship him and sacrifice to him.
37 Also keep ye diligently the statutes and the ordinances and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, that ye do them continually, and fear not other gods.
38 And forget not the covenant that I have made with you, neither fear other gods, nor do after their ordinances, nor after their customs, nor after the Law, nor after the commandment, which he wrote for you, that ye do them continually, and fear not other gods.
39 But fear the Lord your God, and he will deliver you out of the hands of all your enemies.
40 Howbeit they obeyed not, but did after their custom.
41 So these nations feared the Lord, and served their images also: so did their children, and their children’s children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

18 4 Hezekiah king of Judah putteth down the brazen serpent, and destroyeth the idols. 7 and prospereth. 11 Israel is carried away captive. 30 The blasphemy of Sennacherib.

1 Now in the third year of Hoshea, son of Elah king of Israel, 2 Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.
2 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name also was Abi the daughter of Zechariah,
3 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.
4 He took away the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it, and he called it ‘Nehushtan.’
5 He trusted in the Lord God of Israel: so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, neither were there any such before him.
6 For he clave to the Lord and departed not from him, but kept his commandments, which the Lord had commanded Moses.
7 So the Lord was with him, and he prospered in all things which he took in hand, also he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.
8 He smote the Philistines unto Gaza, and the coasts thereof, from the watchtower unto the defended city.
9 ¶ And in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, (which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel) Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.
10 And after three years they took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah: that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel was Samaria taken.
11 Then the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor, by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 Because they would not obey the voice of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant: that is, all that Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded, and would neither obey nor do them.
13 ¶Moreover, in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the strong cities of Judah, and took them.
14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent unto the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended: depart from me, and what thou layest upon me, I will bear it. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.
15 Therefore Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king’s house.
16 At the same season did Hezekiah pull off the plates of the doors of the Temple of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.

17:33 1 That is, they had a certain knowledge of God, and feared him because of the punishment, but they continued still idolaters as do the Papist, which worship both God and idols: but this is not to fear God, as appeareth verse 34.
17:34 1 He meaneth this by the Israelites to whom God had given his commandments.
17:41 1 That is, these strangers which were sent into Samaria by the Assyrians.
18:3 1 Although they of Judah were given to idolatry and impiety, as they of Israel were, yet God for his promise sake was merciful unto the throne of David, and yet by his judgment toward the other, provoked to repentance.

18:4 1 That is, a piece of Brass: thus he calleth the serpent by contempt, which notwithstanding was set up by the word of God, and miracles were wrought by it: yet when it was abused to idolatry this good king destroyed it, not thinking it worthy to be called a serpent, but a piece of brass. 18:8 1 Read 2 Kings 17:9.
18:14 1 As his zeal was before praised, so his weakness is here set forth, that none should glory in himself.
2 KINGS 18:17

17 ¶ And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and Rabsaris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they went up, and came to Jerusalem, and when they were come up, they stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is by the path of the fuller’s field, 18 And called to the king. Then came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. 19 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Tell ye Hezekiah, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? 20 Thou thinkest, Surely I have eloquence, but counsel and strength are for the war. On whom then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? 21 Lo, thou trustest now in this broken staff of reed, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. 22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the Lord our God, is not that he whose high places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? 23 Now therefore give hostages to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses. If thou be able to set riders upon them, come out to me, that every man may eat of his own vine, and every man of his own fig tree, and drink every man of the water of his own well, 24 For how canst thou despise any captain of the horsemen, if thou be able to set riders upon them. 25 Am I now come up without the Lord to this land, and destroy it. 26 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah said unto Rabshakeh, Speak I pray thee, to thy servants in the Aramites’ language, for we understand it, and talk not with us in the Jews’ tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall. 27 But Rabshakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

18:25 1 The wicked always in their prosperity flatter themselves, that God doth favor them. Thus he speaketh to fear Hezekiah that by resisting him he should resist God. 18:26 1 Or, Syrians. 18:27 1 Hebrew, the water of their feet. 18:29 1 Or, by his hand. 18:31 1 Hebrew, blessing: meaning the conditions of peace. 18:32 1 He maketh himself so sure, that he will not grant them truce, except they render themselves to him to be led away captives. 18:35 1 This is an execrable blasphemy against the true God, to make him equal with the idols of other nations: therefore God did most sharply punish it.
19 6 God promiseth by Isaiah victorie to Hezekiah. 35 The Angel of the Lord killeth an hundred and fourscore and five thousand men of the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is killed of his own sons.

1 And when King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes and put on sackcloth, and came into the house of the Lord,
2 And sent Eliakim which was the steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and the Elders of the Priests clothed in sackcloth to Isaiah, the Prophet the son of Amoz.
3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.
4 If so be the Lord thy God hath heard all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to rail on the living God, and to reproach him with words which the Lord thy God hath heard, then lift thou up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.
5 ¶ So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 And Isaiah said unto them, So shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a noise, and return to his own land: and he shall be ashamed and disgraced, and his Cushites before the face of all the land.
8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 ¶ He heard also men say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed and sent other messengers unto Hezekiah, saying,
10 ¶ Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, and say, Let not thy God deceive thee in whom thou trustest, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, how they have destroyed them: and shalt thou be delivered?
12 Have the gods of the heathen delivered them which my fathers have destroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Telassar?
13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Shepharvais, Hena and Ivah?
14 ¶ So Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spread it before the Lord.
15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest between the Cherubims, thou art very God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made the heaven and the earth.
16 Lord bow down thine ear, and hear: Lord open thine eyes and behold, and hear the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the living God.
17 Truth it is, Lord, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have set fire on their gods: for they were no gods, but the work of man's hands, even wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.
19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know, that thou O Lord, art only God.
20 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have heard that which thou hast prayed me, concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria.
21 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken against him, O Virgin daughter of Zion, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn: O daughter of Jerusalem, he hath shaken his head at thee.
22 Whom hast thou railed on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high?
23 By thy messengers thou hast railed on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the top of the mountains, by the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the high cedars thereof, and the fair fir trees thereof, and I will go into the lodging of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel.

24 I have dug and drunk the waters of others, and with the plant of my feet have I dried all the floods closed in.

25 Hast thou not heard, how I have of old time made it, and have formed it long ago? and should I now bring it, that it should be destroyed, and laid on ruinous heaps, as cities defensed?

26 Whose inhabitants have small power, and are afraid, and confounded: they are like the grass of the field, and green herb, or grass on the house tops, or as corn blasted before it be grown.

27 I know thy dwelling, yea, thy going out and thy coming in, and thy fury against me.

28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come up to mine ears, I will put mine hook in thy nostrils, and my bridle in thy lips, and will bring thee back again the same way thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and the next year such as grow without sowing, and the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah, shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant, and some that shall escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not enter into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it:

33 But he shall return the way he came, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord.

34 For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for David my servant's sake.

35 ¶ And the same night the Angel of the Lord went out and smote in the camp of Assyria an hundred four score and five thousand: so when they rose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went his way, and returned and dwelt in Nineveh.

37 And as he was in the Temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sons slew him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat, and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

1 Hezekiah is sick, and receiveth the sign of his health.

2 He receiveth rewards of Berodach.

3 Showeth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isaiah.

4 He dieth, and Manasseh his son reigneth in his stead.

1 About that time was Hezekiah sick unto death: and the Prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Put thine house in an order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 ¶ And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, and seen thy tears: behold, I have healed thee, and the third day thou shalt go up to the house of the Lord,

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years, and will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and will defend this city for mine own sake, and for David my servant's sake.

19:22 1 God counteth that injury done to him, and will revenge it, which is done to any of his Saints.

19:23 1 Meaning, Jerusalem, which Isaiah calleth the height of his borders, to wit, of Judah, Isa. 37:24.

20:1 2 Or, pleasant country.

19:24 1 Or, the waters of cities besieged.

19:25 1 He declareth that forasmuch as he is the author and beginning of his Church, he will never suffer it utterly to be destroyed, as other cities and kingdoms.

19:26 1 Thus he describeth the wicked, which for a time flourish, and afterward fade and decay like flowers.

19:28 1 I will bridle thy rage, and turn thee to and fro as pleaseth me.

19:29 1 God did not only promise him the victory, but gaveth him a sign to confirm his faith.

19:30 1 The Lord will multiply in great number, that small remnant of Judah that is escaped.

19:31 1 The love, that God beareth toward his Church shall over­come the counsels and enterprises of men.

19:37 1 This was the just judgment of God for his blasphemy, that he should be slain before that idol, whom he preferred to the living God, and by them, by whom ought by nature to have been defended.

20:2 1 That his mind might not be troubled.

20:3 1 Meaning, without all hypocrisy.

20:5 1 Because of his unfaine repentance and prayer, God turned away his wrath.

2 1 To give thanks for thy deliverance.
7 Then Isaiah said, Take a lump of dry figs. And they took it, and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.
8 ¶ For Hezekiah had said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the Lord the third day?
9 And Isaiah answered, This sign shalt thou have of the Lord, that the Lord will do that he hath spoken, Wilt thou that the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?
10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to pass forward ten degrees: not so then, but let the shadow 'go back ten degrees.
11 And Isaiah the Prophet called unto the Lord, and he brought again the shadow ten degrees back by the degrees whereby it had gone down in the 'dia of Ahaz.
12 'The same season Berodach-Baladan the son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and a 'present to Hezekiah: for he had heard how that Hezekiah was sick.
13 And Hezekiah heard them, and showed them all his treasure house, to wit, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his 'realm, that Hezekiah showed them not.
14 Then Isaiah the Prophet came unto King Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They be come from a far country, even from Babylon.
15 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures, that I have not showed them.
16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord.
17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoever thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: Nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.
18 And of thy sons, that shall proceed out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.
19 Then Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, The word of the Lord, which thou hast 'spoken, is good: for said he, Shall it not be good if 'peace and truth be in my days?
20 Concerning the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his valiant deeds, and how he made a pool and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?
21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21 3 King Manasseh restoreth idolatry. 16 And useth great cruelty. 18 He dieth and Amon his son succeeds. 23 Who is killed of his own servants. 26 After him reigneth Josiah.

1 Manasseh "was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Hephzibah.
2 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord after the abomination of the heathen, whom the "Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.
3 For he went back and built the high places, 'which Hezekiah his father had destroyed: and he erected up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.
4 Also he "built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord said, 'In Jerusalem will I put my Name.
5 And he built altars for all the host of the heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord.
6 And he caused his sons to pass through the fire, and gave himself to witchcraft and sorcery, and he used them that had familiar spirits and were soothsayers, and did much evil in the sight of the Lord to anger him.
7 And he set the image of the grove, that he had made in the house, whereof the Lord had said to David and to Solomon his son, 'In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name forever.
8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move anymore out of the land, which I gave their fathers: so that they will 'observe and do all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that my servant Moses commanded them.
9 Yet they obeyed not, but Manasseh led them out of the way, to do more wickedly than did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.
10 Therefore the Lord spake by his servants the Prophets, saying,
11 ‘Because that Manasseh king of Judah hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly than all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Judah sin also with his idols.
12 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will bring an evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that who so heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.
13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth, and turneth it upside down.
14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall be robbed and spoiled of all their adversaries,
15 Because they have done evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the time their fathers came out of Egypt until this day.
16 Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood exceedingly much, till he replenished Jerusalem from corner to corner, beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord.
17 Concerning the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?
18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, even in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
19 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: his mother’s name also was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
20 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasseh did.
21 For he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them.
the chancellor, I have found the book of the Law in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 So Shaphan the chancellor came to the king, and brought him word again, and said, ‘Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it unto the hands of them that do the work, and have the oversight of the house of the Lord.

10 Also Shaphan the chancellor showed the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the King.

11 And when the king had heard the words of the book of the Law, he rent his clothes.

12 Therefore the king commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asahiah the king’s servant, saying,

13 Go ye and inquire of the Lord for me and for the people, and for all Judah concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written therein for us.

14 ¶ So Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah went unto Huldah the Prophetess the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college) and they communed with her.

15 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read,

17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, to anger me with all the works of their hands: my wrath also shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched:

18 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words that thou hast heard, shall come to pass.

19 But because thine heart did melt, and thou hast humbled thyself before the Lord when thou hearest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, to wit, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I have also heard it, saith the Lord.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy grave in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. Thus they brought the king word again.

23 2 Josiah readeth the Law before the people. 3 He maketh a covenant with the Lord. 4 He putteth down the idols, after he had killed their Priests. 22 He keepeth Passover. 24 He destroyeth the conjurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his son Jehoahaz reigneth in his stead. 33 After he was taken, his son Jehoiakim was made King.

1 Then ‘the King’ sent, and there gathered unto him all the Elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, which was found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, that they should walk after the Lord, and keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart, and with all their soul, that they might accomplish the words of this covenant written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high Priest, and the Priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven, and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the powder of them into Bethel.

22:8 1 This was the copy that Moses left them, as appeareth, 2 Chron. 34:14, which either by the negligence of the Priests had been lost, or else by the wickedness of idolatrous kings had been abolished.

22:9 1 Hebrew, melted.

22:13 1 Meaning, to some Prophet whom God revealed the knowledge of things unto, as Jer. 21:8, though at other times they inquired the Lord by Urim and Thummim.

22:14 1 Or the house of doctrine, which was near to the Temple, and where the learned assembled to entertain the Scriptures, and the doctrine of the Prophets.

22:17 1 The [works] of man’s hand here signify all that man inventeth beside the word of God, which are abominable in God’s service.

22:19 1 Meaning, that he did repent, as they that do not repent, are said to harden their heart, Ps. 95:8.

22:20 1 Whereupon we may gather that the anger of God is ready against the wicked, when God taketh his servants out of this world.

23:1 1 Because he saw the great plagues of God that were threatened, he knew no more speedy way to avoid them, than to turn to God by repentance which cannot come but of faith, and faith by hearing of the word of God.

23:3 1 Where the king had his place, 2 Kings 11:14.

23:4 1 Meaning, them which were next in dignity to the high Priest.

24 1 As Joshua did, Josh. 24:22, 25.
And he put down the Chemarims, whom the kings of Judah had founded to burn incense in the high places, and in the cities of Judah and about Jerusalem, and also them that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

And he brought out the grove from the Temple of the Lord, without Jerusalem unto the valley of Kidron, and burnt it in the valley Kidron, and stamped it to powder, and cast the dust thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

And he brake down the houses of the Sodomites, that were in the house of the Lord, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

Also he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the Priests had burnt incense, even from Geba to Beersheba, and destroyed the high places of the gates, that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which was at the left hand of the gate of the city.

Nevertheless the Priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, save only they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

He defiled also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molech.

He put down also the horses that the Kings of Judah had given to the sun at the entering in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech the eunuch, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire.

And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord did the king break down, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the brook Kidron.

Moreover the King defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, and on the right hand of the mount of corruption (which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the idol of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the idol of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon)

And he brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

Furthermore the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place made by Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, both this altar and also the high place, brake he down, and burnt the high place, and stamped it to powder and burnt the grove.

And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the graves that were in the mount, and sent and took the bones out of the graves, and burnt them upon the altar and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord, that the man of God proclaimed, which cried the same words.

Then he said, What title is that which I see? And the men of the city said unto him, It is the sepulcher of the man of God, which came from Judah, and told these things that thou hast done to the altar of Bethel.

Then said he, Let him alone: let none remove his bones. So his bones were saved with the bones of the Prophet that came from Samaria.

Josiah also took away all the houses of the high places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the facts that he had done in Bethel.

And he sacrificed all the Priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

¶ Then the king commanded all the people, saying, 'Keep the Passover unto the Lord your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.

And there was no Passover holden like that from the days of the Judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah.

23 And in the eighteenth year of King Josiah was this Passover celebrated to the Lord in Jerusalem.

24 Josiah also took away them that had familiar spirits, and the soothsayers, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were espied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, to perform the words of the Law, which were written in the book that Hilkiah the Priest found in the house of the Lord.

25 Like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might according to all the Law of Moses, neither after him arose there any like him.

26 Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath wherewith he was angry against Judah, because of all the provocations wherewith Manasseh had provoked him.

27 Therefore the Lord said, I will put Judah also out of my sight, as I have put away Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem, which I have chosen, and the house whereof I said, My name shall be there.

28 Concerning the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Perath. And king Josiah went against him, whom when Pharaoh saw, he slew him at Megiddo.

30 Then his servants carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulcher. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 Jehoahaz was three and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, while he reigned in Jerusalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king instead of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away, which when he came to Egypt, died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to give the money, according to the commandment of Pharaoh; he levied of every man of the people of the land, according to his value, silver and gold to give unto Pharaoh Necho.

36 Jehoiakim was five and twenty years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

1 Jehoiakim made subject to Nebuchadnezzar, rebelleth.
2 The cause of his ruin and all Judah.
3 Jehoiachin reigneth. 15 He, and his people are carried unto Babylon. 17 Zedekiah is made king.

1 In his days came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: afterward he turned, and rebelled against him.

2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Arameans, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and he sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servants the Prophets.

3 Surely by the commandment of the Lord came this upon Judah, that he might put them out of his sight for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did,

4 And for the innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord would not pardon it.

5 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim 1slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came no more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt, unto the river 1Perath, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old, when he began to reign, and reigned in Jerusalem three 23:26 Because of the wicked heart of the people, which would not turn unto him by repentance.

23:29 Because he passed through his country, he feared lest he would have done him harm, and therefore would have stayed him, yet he consulted not with the Lord, and therefore was slain.
23:32 Meaning, the wicked kings before.

25:6 1 Or, condemned him for his perjury and treason, 2 Chron. 36:13.

25:8 1 Jeremiah writeth, Jer. 52:12, the tenth day, because the fire continued from the seventh day to the tenth.

2 Or, captain of the guard.

25:11 1 While the siege endured.
was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldeans break, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 The pots also and the besoms, and the instruments of music, and the incense dishes, and all the vessels of brass that they ministered in, took they away.

15 And the ash pans, and the basins, and all that was of gold, and that was of silver, took the chief steward away.

16 With the two pillars, one Sea and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter thereon was brass, and the height of the chapiter was with network three cubits, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and likewise was the second pillar with the network.

18 And the chief steward took Seraiah the chief Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the door.

19 And out of the city he took an Eunuch that had the oversight of the men of war, and five men of them that were in the King's presence, which were found in the city, and Sopher captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the city.

20 And Nebuzaradan the chief steward took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

22 Howbeit, there remained people in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon left, and made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan ruler over them.

23 Then when all the captains of the host and their men heard, that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, to wit, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of Maachath, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and ye shall be well.

25 But in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the king's seed, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, and he died, and so did he the Jews, and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah.

26 Then all the people both small and great, and the captains of the army arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

27 Notwithstanding in the seventh and thirtieth year after Jehoiachin King of Judah was carried away, in the twelfth month and the seven and twentieth day of the month, Evil-Merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of the prison,

28 And spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 29 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him, all the days of his life.

30 And his portion was a continual portion given him by the king, every day a certain, all the days of his life.

18 Also his wife Jehudijah bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah: and these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh 1\(\text{a}\) which Mered took.
19 And the sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Shimei, 2 were Jediael, and蝤hod, and Jochanan.
20 And the sons of Shimon were Amnon and Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth, and Ben-Zoheth.
21 ¶ The sons of Shelah, the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Lehem. These also are ancient things.
22 And Jokim, and the men of Chozeba and Joash, and Sarah, which had the dominion in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. These also are ancient things.
23 These were porters, and dwelt among plants and hedges: 3 there they dwelt with the king for his work.
24 ¶ The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and 'Shaul.
25 Whose son was Shullam, and his son Mibsam, and his son Mishma.
26 And the sons of Mishma, Hamuel was his son, Zaccur his son, and Shimei his son.
27 And Shimei had sixteen sons, and six daughters, but his brethren had not many children, neither the families of their fathers were like to the children of Judah in multitude.
28 And they dwelt at 'Beersheba, and at Moladah, and at Hazar Shual, and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, and at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Zikhah, and at Zayit. And at Beth Marcaboth, and at Hazar Susim, and at Beth Birim, and at Shaaraim: these were their cities unto the reign of 'David.
32 And their towns were Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities.
33 And all their towns that were round about these cities unto Baal, these are their habitations and the declaration of their genealogy.
34 And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, 35 And Joel and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, 36 And Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benahiah, 37 And Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.
38 These were famous Princes in their families, and increased greatly their father's houses.
39 And they went to the entering in of Gedor, even unto the East side of the valley, to seek pasture for their sheep.
40 And they found fat pasture and good, and a wide land both quiet and fruitful: for they of Ham had dwelt there before.
41 And these described by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the inhabitants that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their room, because there was pasture there for their sheep.
42 And besides these, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon went to mount Seir, and Pelatiah, and Nearsia, and Rephaiah, and Uzziah the sons of Ishi were their captains.
43 And they smote the rest of Amalek that had escaped, and they dwelt there unto this day.

5 1 The birthright taken from Reuben and given to the sons of Joseph. 3 The genealogy of Reuben. 11 and Gad. 23 and of the half tribe of Manasseh.

1 The sons also of Reuben the eldest son of Israel (for he was the eldest, 'but had defiled his father's bed, therefore his birthright was given unto the 'sons of Joseph the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not reckoned after his birthright.
2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came 'the prince, but the birthright was Joseph's)

4:14 1 The Lord of that valley where the artificers did work.
4:15 1 Called also Esnon.
4:18 1 Or, she bare, meaning the second wife of Ezra.
4:22 1 Or, of the inhabitants of Lehem.
4:23 1 They were king David's gardeners, and served him in his works.
4:24 1 His son Ohad is here omitted.
4:28 1 These cities belonged of Judah, Josh. 19,2, and were given to the tribe of Simeon.
4:31 1 Then David restored them to the tribe of Judah.
4:39 1 For the tribe of Simeon was so great in number, that in the time of Hezekiah they sought new dwellings unto Gedor, which is in the tribe of Dan.
4:43 1 And were not slain by Saul and David.
5:1 1 Because they were made two tribes, they had a double portion.
5:2 1 That is, he was the chiefest of all the tribes according to Jacob's prophecy, Gen. 49,8, and because Christ should come of him.
3 The sons of Reuben the eldest son of Israel, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.
4 The sons of Joel, Shemahiah his son, Gog his son, and Shimehi his son,
5 Micah his son, Reiah his son, and Baal his son,
6 Beerah his son: whom Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria 1carried away; he was a prince of the Reubenites.
7 And when his brethren in their families reckoned the genealogy of their generations, Jeiel and Zechariah were the chief,
8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, which dwelt in 1Aroer even unto Nebo and Baal Meon.
9 Also Eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river 1Perath: for they had much cattle in the land of Gilead.
10 And in the days of Saul they warred with the 1Hagrites, which fell by their hands: and they dwelt in their tents in all the East parts of Gilead.
11 ¶ And the children of Gad dwelt over against them in the land of Bashan, unto Salcah.
12 Joel was the chiefest, and Shapham the second, but Jaanai and Shaphat were in Bashan.
13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia and Eber, seven.
14 These are the children of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.
15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni was chief of the household of their fathers.
16 And they dwelt in Gilead in 1Bashan, and in the towns thereof, and in all the suburbs of Sharon by their borders.
17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham King of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.
18 ¶ The sons of Reuben and of Gad, and of half the tribe of Manasseh of those that were valiant men, able to bear shield and sword, and to draw a bow exercised in war, were four and forty thousand, seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.
19 And they made war with the Hagrites, with Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab.
20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he heard them, because they trusted in him.
21 And they led away their cattle, even their camels fifty thousand, and two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, and two thousand asses, and of persons an hundred thousand.
22 For many fell down wounded, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steads until the captivity.
23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land, from Bashan unto 1Baal Hermon, and Senir, and unto mount Hermon: for they increased.
24 And these were the heads of the households of their fathers, even Epher and Ishi, and Eliel and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, strong men, valiant and famous, heads of the households of their fathers.
25 But they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.
26 And the God of Israel 1stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and he carried them away: even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto 1Halah and Habor, and Harar, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

6 The genealogy of the sons of Levi. 31 Their order in the ministry of the Tabernacle. 49 Aaron and his sons Priests. 54, 57 Their habitations.
1 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
2 ¶ And the sons of Kohath, Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.
3 And the children of Amram, Aaron, and Moses and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron, 1Nadab, and Abihu, and 1Eleazar, and Ithamar.
4 Eleazar begat Phinehas, Phinehas begat Abishua,
5 And Abishua begat Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi,
6 And Uzzi begat Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begat Meraioth.
7 Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub,
8 And Ahitub begat 1Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaz,
9 And Ahimaaz begat Azariah, two thousand five hundred, and a chief of thousands of Judah.
10 And these were the chief of the thousands of Judah, which David put over those that do war in the service of the shield and spear.
11 ¶ These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites: Amram, Ishmael, and Imram,等等。
9 And Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan,
10 And Johanan begat Azariah (it was he that was 1Priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem.)
11 And Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Johanan,
12  And Johanan begat Azariah (it was he that was 1Priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem.)
13 And Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub, 14  And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum,
15  And Shallum begat Hilikiah, and Hilikiah begat Azariah,
16  And 1Jehozadak departed when the Lord carried away into captivity Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.
17 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
18 And these be the names of the sons of Gershon, Libni, and Shimei.
19 The sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron and Uzziel.
20 The sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi: and these are the families of Levi concerning their fathers.
21 Of Gershon, Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,
22  And the sons of Kohath, 1Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son,
23  Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son,
24  Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son,
25 And the sons of Elkanah, Amasai, and Ahimoth.
26 Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah, Zophai his son, and Nahath his son,
27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son,
28  And the sons of Samuel, the eldest 1Vasheni, then Abijah.
29  ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, 30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.
31 And these be they whom David set for to sing in the house of the Lord, after that the Ark had 1rest.
32 And they ministered before the Tabernacle, even the Tabernacle of the Congregation with 1singing, until Solomon had built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem: then they continued in their office, according to their custom.
33 And these ministered with their children: of the sons of Kohath, Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,
34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35 The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37 The son of Tahath, the 1son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel,
39 And his 1brother 2Asaph stood on his right hand: and Asaph was the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, 40 The son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,
41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,
42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,
43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.
44 And their 1brethren the Levites were 2appointed unto all the service of the Tabernacle of the house of God,
45 But Aaron and his sons burnt incense upon the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all that was to do in the most holy place, and to make an atonement for Israel according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

6:10 1 And did valiantly resist king Uzziah, who would have usurped the Priest's office, 2 Chron. 26:17, 18.
6:15 1 That is, he was led into captivity with his father Seraiah the high Priest, 2 Kings 25:18.
6:22 1 Who seemeth to be called Izhar, Exod. 6:21.
6:28 1 Who is also called Joel, 1 Sam. 8:2 and 1 Chron. 6:33.
6:31 1 After it was brought to that place where the Temple should be built and was no more carried to and fro.
6:32 1 Read Exod. 27:21.
6:37 1 Or, nephews.
6:39 1 Or, cousin.
6:48 1 The Levites are called the singers brethen because they came of the same stock.
2 Read Num. 4:4.
50. These are also the sons of Aaron, Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

51. And these are the dwelling places of them throughout their towns and coasts, even of the sons of Aaron for the family of the Kohathites, for the lot was theirs.

52. So they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah and the suburbs thereof round about it.

53. But the field of the city, and the villages thereof they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

54. And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, even Hebron and Libnah with their suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with their suburbs.

55. And 1Hilen with her suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with their suburbs, and their suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with their suburbs,

56. And of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba and her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs: all their cities were thirteen cities by their families.

57. And unto the sons of Kohath the remnant of the family of the tribe, even of the half tribe of the half of Manasseh, by lot ten cities.

58. And 1Helen with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs, and Ashan and her suburbs, and Beth Shemesh and her suburbs.

59. And of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba and her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs: all their cities were thirteen cities by their families.

60. And unto the sons of Gershon according to their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

61. Unto the sons of Kohath the remnant of the family of the tribe, even of the half tribe of the half of Manasseh, by lot ten cities.

62. And to the sons of Gershon according to their families out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, by lot twelve cities.

63. Thus the children of Israel gave to the Levites cities with their suburbs.

64. And they gave by lot twelve cities.

65. And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the sons of Levi, out of the half tribe of Manasseh and out of the tribe of the sons of Kohath, had cities and their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim.

66. And they of the families of the sons of Kohath, had cities and their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim.

67. And they gave unto them cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim, and her suburbs, and Gezer and her suburbs.

68. And out of the tribe of Manasseh, 1Aner and her suburbs, and 2Bileam and her suburbs, for the families of the remnant of the sons of Kohath.

69. And Aijalon and her suburbs, and Gath Rimmon and her suburbs.

70. And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, 1Aner and her suburbs, and 2Bileam and her suburbs.

71. Unto the sons of Gershon out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan, and her suburbs, and 2Asharoth with her suburbs.

72. And out of the tribe of Issachar, 1Kedesh and her suburbs, Daberath and her suburbs, 1Ramoth and her suburbs, and 2Anem with her suburbs.

73. And out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal and her suburbs, and Abdon and her suburbs.

74. And out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal and her suburbs, and Abdon and her suburbs.

75. And 1Hukok and her suburbs, and 2Kedesh and her suburbs, and 1Hukok and her suburbs, and 2Kedesh and her suburbs.

76. And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee and her suburbs, and 1Hammon and her suburbs, and 2Kirjathaim and her suburbs.

77. Unto the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun 1Rimmon and her suburbs, and 2Tabor and her suburbs.

78. And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, even on the Eastside of Jordan, out of the tribe of Reuben, 1Bezer in the wilderness with her suburbs, and Jahzah with her suburbs.

79. And Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs.

80. And out of the tribe of Gad Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs.

81. And Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs.

7. The genealogy of Issachar, Benjamin, Naphtali, Manassah, Ephraim, and Asher.
1 And the sons of Issachar were Tola and Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four, 2 And the sons of Tola, Uzzi, and Rephaiah and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads in the households of their fathers. Of Tola were valiant men of war in their generations, whose number was in the days of David two and twenty thousand, and six hundred. 3 And the son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah, Micah, and Obadiah, and Joel, and Ishiah, five men all princes. 4 And with them in their generations after the household of their fathers were bands of men of war for battle six and thirty thousand: for they had many wives and children. 5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of war, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand. 6 ¶ The sons of Benjamin were Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three. 7 And the sons of Bela, Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Tubal, and Ahibah, and Shelah, and Jeraish, and Heber, and Jachin, and Zichri, and Zab ControllerBase, and Shuppim, and Huppim were the sons of Bilhah, the handmaid of Laban, the son of Nahor, the son of the ha 8 And the sons of Becher, Zemirah, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Eleoenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abijah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth: all these were the sons of Becher. 9 And they were numbered by their genealogies according to their generations, and the chief of the houses of their fathers, valiant men of war, twenty thousand and two hundred. 10 And the son of Jedediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan, Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar. 11 All these were the sons of Jedediael, chief of the fathers, valiant men of war seventeen thousand and two hundred, marching in battle array to the war. 12 And Shuppim, and Huppim were the sons of 1Ir, but Hushim was the son of another. 13 ¶ The sons of Naphtali, Jahziel, and Guni, and Jozale, and Jotham were sons of Benjamin 14 The son of Manasseh was Asriel whom she bare unto him, but his concubine of Aram bare Machir the father of Gilead. 15 And Machir took to wife the sister of Shuppi 16 And Machah the wife of Machir bare a son, and called his name Peresh, and the name of his brother was Sheresh: and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. 17 And the son of Ulam was Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. 18 And his 1sister Hamnokeleth bare Ishbod, and Abiezer, and Mahlah. 19 And the sons of Shemida were Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam. 20 ¶ The sons also of Ephraim were Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and his son Eladah, and Tahath his son. 21 And Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead: and the men of Gath that were born in the land, slew them, because they came down to take away their cattle. 22 Therefore Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. 23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived, and bare him a son, and he called his name Beriah, because affliction was in his house. 24 And his daughter was Sheerah, which built Beth Horon the nether, and the upper, and Uzzen Sheerah. 25 And Rephah was his son, and Resheph, and Eladah, and Tahath his son. 26 And their possessions and their habitations were Bethel, and the villages thereof, and Eastward Naaran, and Westward Gezer with the villages thereof, Shechem also and the villages thereof, unto Ayyah, and the villages thereof. 27 Nun his son, Joshua his son. 28 And his possessions and their habitations were Bethel, and the villages thereof, and Eastward Naaran, and Westward Gezer with the villages thereof, Shechem also and the villages thereof, unto Ayyah, and the villages thereof. 29 And by the places of the children of Manasseh, Beth Shean and her villages, Taanach and her villages, Megiddo and her villages, Dor and her villages. In those dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

30 ¶

The sons of Asher were Imnah, and Ishvah, and Ishvi, and Beriah, and Serah their sister.

31 And the sons of Beriah, Heber, and Malchiel, which is the father of Birzaith.

32 And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister.

33 And the sons of Japhlet were Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath: these were the children of Japhlet.

34 And the sons of Shemer, Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.

35 And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal.

36 The sons of Zophah, Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, 37 Bezer and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Jithran, and Beera.

38 And the sons of Jether, Jephunneh, and Pispah and Ara.

39 And the sons of Ulla, Arah, and Haniel, and Rizia.

40 All these were the children of Asher, the heads of their father’s houses, noble men, valiant men of war and chief princes, and they were reckoned by their genealogies for war and for battle to the number of six and twenty thousand men.

8

The sons of Benjamin. 33 And race of Saul.

1 Benjamin also begat Bela his eldest son, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third,

2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3 And the sons of Bela were Addar, and Gera, and Abihud,

4 And Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah,

5 And Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.

6 ¶ These are the sons of Ehud: these were the chief fathers of those that inhabited Geba: and they were carried away captives to Manahath, and Naaman, and Ahijah, and Gera, he carried them away captives: and he begat Uzza, and Ahihud.

7 And Naaman, and Ahijah, and Gera, he carried them away captives: and he begat Uzza, and Ahihud.

8 And Shaharaim begat certain in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

9 He begat, I say, of Hodesh his wife, Jobab and Zibia, and Mesha and Malcam, 7:33 Or, Kimball.

8:1 He continueth in the description of the tribe of Benjamin, because his purpose is to set forth the genealogy of Saul.

8:6 Meaning, the inhabitants of the city of Geba.

8:7 Or, Epid.

8:8 After he had put away his two wives.
And Moza begat Binea, whose son was Raphah, and his son Eleasah, and his son Azel.

And Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; all these were the sons of Azel.

And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his eldest son, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

And the sons of Ulam were valiant men of war which shot with the bow, and had many sons and nephews, an hundred and fifty: all these were of the sons of Benjamin.

Thus all Israel were numbered by their genealogies: and behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah, and they were carried away to Babel for their transgression.

And the chief inhabitants that dwelt in their own possessions, and in their own cities, even Israel, the Priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim.

And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh.

Uthai the son of Ammihud the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez, the son of Judah.

And of Shiloni, Asaiah the eldest, and his sons.

And the sons of Zerah, Jeuel, and their brethren two hundred and twelve, which were numbered according to their genealogies by their towns. David established these, and Samuel the Seer in their aggregation.

All Israel and Judah numbered. Of the Priests and Levites, And of their offices. And the chief of the families.

And of the Priests, Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jedaiah the son of Jedaiah, the son of Jachin,

And Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immmer.

And their brethren the chief of the households of their fathers, a thousand seven hundred and threescore valiant men, for the 1work of the service of the house of God.

And of the Levites, Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari.

And Bakbakkar, Heresh and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph.

And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

And the porters were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief.

For they were porters to this time by companies of the children of Levi unto the King's gate Eastward.

And Shallum the son of Kore the son of Ebiaash the son of Korah, and his brethren the Korahites (of the house of their father) were over the work, and office to keep the gates of the Tabernacle: so their families were over the host of the Lord keeping the entry.

And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was their guide, and the Lord was with him.

Zecharias the son of Meshelemiah was the porter of the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

All these were chosen for porters of the gates, two hundred and twelve, which were numbered according to their genealogies by their towns. David established these, and Samuel the Seer in their perpetual office.

So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, even of the house of the Tabernacle by wards.

The porters were in four quarters Eastward, Westward, Northward and Southward.

And their brethren, which were in their towns, came at seven days from time to time with them.

For these four chief porters were in perpetual office, and were of the Levites, and had charge of the chambers, and of the treasures in the house of God.

1 All Israel and Judah numbered. 10 Of the Priests and Levites. 11, 18 And of their offices.

1 And the family of the priests.

2 ¶ And the chief of the families.

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh.

4 And the family of the Levites.

5 And of Shiloni, Asaiah the eldest, and his sons.

6 And the family of the Nethinim.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin, Sallu, the son of Hogabiah, the son of Hasenuah.

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez, the son of Judah.

9 And their brethren according to their genealogies by their towns. David established these, and Samuel the Seer in their perpetual office.

10 ¶ And of the Priests, Jedaiath, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin.

11 And Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub the chief of the house of God, 12 And Adaiath the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immmer.

13 And their brethren the chief of the households of their fathers, a thousand seven hundred and threescore valiant men, for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 ¶ And of the Levites, Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari,

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph,

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief.

18 For they were porters to this time by companies of the children of Levi unto the King's gate Eastward.

19 And Shallum the son of Korah the son of Ebiasaph the son of Korah, and his brethren the Korahites (of the house of their father) were over the work, and office to keep the gates of the Tabernacle: so their families were over the host of the Lord keeping the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was their guide, and the Lord was with him.

21 Zecharias the son of Meshelemiah was the porter of the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

22 All these were chosen for porters of the gates, two hundred and twelve, which were numbered according to their genealogies by their towns. David established these, and Samuel the Seer in their perpetual office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, even of the house of the Tabernacle by wards.

24 The porters were in four quarters Eastward, Westward, Northward and Southward.

25 And their brethren, which were in their towns, came at seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these four chief porters were in perpetual office, and were of the Levites, and had charge of the chambers, and of the treasures in the house of God.
27 And they lay round about the house of God, because the charge was theirs, and they caused it to be opened every morning.

28 And certain of them had the rule of the ministering vessels: for they brought them in by tally, and brought them out by tally;

29 Some of them also were appointed over the instruments, and over all the vessels of the Sanctuary, and of the 4flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the incense, and the sweet odors.

30 And certain of the sons of the Priests made ointments of sweet odors.

31 And Matritthiah one of the Levites which was the eldest son of Shallum the Korahite, had the charge of the things that were made in the fying pan.

32 And other of their brethren the sons of Kohath had the oversight of the 4showbread to prepare it every Sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, the chief fathers of the Levites, which dwelt in the chambers, and had none other charge: for they had to do in that business day and night.

34 These were the chief fathers of the Levites according to their generations, and the principal which dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, and the name of his wife was Maachah.

36 And his eldest son was Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam: they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, even by their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and his son 4Eleasah, and his son 4Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech and Tahrea.

42 And Ahaz begat 4Jarah, and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri begat Moza.

43 And Moza begat Binea, whose son was Rephaiah, and his son was Elasah, and his son Azel.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ismael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these are the sons of Azel.

419 1 CHRONICLES 9:29 4 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, and the name of his wife was Maachah. 5 And his eldest son was Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 6 And his sons also. 7 The battle of Saul against the Philistines. 10 Then the Philistines pursued after Saul and after his sons, and the Philistines smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua the sons of Saul.

10:8 4 Or, Abi Gibeon.

10:10 4 Or, witch, and sorceress.
1 Chronicles 11:1

Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

And in time past, even when Saul was king, thou ledest Israel out and in: and the Lord thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be captain over my people Israel.

So came all the Elders of Israel to the King to Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord, by the hand of Samuel.

And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem: which is Jebus, where were the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land.

And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come in hither. Nevertheless David took the tower of Zion, which is the city of David.

And David said, Whosoever smitteth the Jebusites first, shall be the chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was captain.

And David dwelt in the tower: therefore they called it the city of David.

And he built the city on every side, from Millo even round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

And David prospered and grew: for the Lord prospered him.

And this is the number of the valiant men whom David had, Jashobeam the son of Hachmoni, the chief among thirty: he lift up his spear against thirty men, whom he slew at one time.

And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, which was one of the three valiant men.

He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle: and there was a parcel of ground full of barley, and the people fled before the Philistines.

And they stood in the midst of the field, and saved it, and slew the Philistines: so the Lord gave a great victory.

And three of the thirty captains went to a rock to David, into the cave of Adullam. And the army of the Philistines camped in the valley of Rephaim.

And when David was in the hold, the Philistines garrison was at Bethlehem.

And David longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem that is at the gate.

Then these three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it for an oblation to the Lord.

And said, Let not my God suffer me to do this: should I drink the blood of these men's lives? for they have brought it with the jeopardy of their lives: therefore he would not drink it: these things did these three mighty men.

And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three, and he lift up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among the three.

And the three he was more honorable than the two, and he was their captain: but he attained not unto the first three.

Benaiah the son of Jehoiada (the son of a valiant man) which had done many acts, and was of Kabzeel, he slew two strong men of Moab, he went down also and slew a Lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.

And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, even five cubits long, and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam: and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

Behold, he was honorable among thirty, but he attained not unto the first three. And David made him of his counsel.

These also were valiant men of war, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

Shammah the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,

Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

¶ This was after the death of Ishboseth Saul's son, when David had reigned over Judah seven years and six months in Hebron, 2 Sam. 5:5.

11:11 / Meaning, the most excellent and best esteemed for his valiantness: some read, the chief of the princes.

11:12 / Or, his uncle.

11:14 / This act is referred to Shammah, 2 Sam. 23:11, which seem-eth was the chiefest of these.

11:15 / That is, Eleazar and his two companions.

11:19 / That is, this water, for which they ventured their blood.

11:22 / Or, lions.

11:25 / Meaning, those three which brought the water to David.

11:27 / Called also Shammah, 2 Sam. 23:25.

11:29 / He is also called Mebunnai, 2 Sam. 23:27.
CHAPTER 12

3  Who they were that went with David when he fled from Saul. 14 Their valiantness. 23 They that came unto him unto Hebron out of every tribe to make him King.

1  These also are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he was yet kept close, because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the valiant and helpers of the battle.

2  They were weaponed with bows, and could use the right and the left hand with stones, and with arrows and with bows, and were of Saul’s brethren, even of Benjamin.

3  The chief were Ahiezer, and Joash the sons of Shemaah a Gibeathite, and Zeziel, and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth, Berachah and Jehu the Anathothite,

4  And Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a valiant man among thirty, and above the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite,

5  Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemaiah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6  Elkanah, and Jissiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, Jashobeam of Korah,

7  And Joelah, and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor,

8  And of the Gadites there separated themselves some unto David into the hold of the wilderness, valiant men of war, and men of arms, and apt for battle, which could handle spear and shield, and their faces were like the faces of lions, and were like the roes in the mountains in swiftness,

9  Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10  Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11  Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12  Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13  Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14  These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when he had filled over all his banks, and put to flight all them of the valley, toward the East and the West.

15  And there came of the children of Benjamin, and Judah to the hold unto David,

16  And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye come to betray me to mine adversaries, seeing there is no wickedness in mine hands, the God of our fathers behold it, and rebuke it.

17  And the spirit came upon Amasai, which was the chief of thirty, and he said, Thine heart, David, is the heart of a king.

18  And the spirit cried, and said, Peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be unto thine helpers: for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the garrison.

19  ¶ And of Manasseh, some fell to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle, but they helped them not: for the Princes of the Philistines by advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul for our heads.

20  As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite.

12:11 1 To take his part against Saul, who persecuted him.

12:2 1 That is, of the tribe of Benjamin, whereof Saul was, and wherein were excellent throwers with slings, Judg. 20:16.

12:7 1 Or, Gedua.

12:8 1 Or, buckler.

2  Meaning, fierce and terrible.

12:10 1 Or, Mashmannah.

12:15 1 Which the Hebrews called Nisan, or Abib, containing half March, and half April, when Jordan was wont to overflow his banks, read Josh. 3:15.

12:18 1 The spirit of boldness and courage moved him to speak thus.

12:19 1 They came only to help David, and not to succor the Philistines, which were enemies to their country.

2  Or, on the jeopardy of our heads.
Michael, and Jozabah, and Elihu, and Zillethai, heads of the thousands that were of Manasseh.
21 And they helped David against 1that band: for they were all valiant men, and were captains in the host.
22 For at that time day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of 2God.
23 And these are the numbers of the captains that were armed to battle, and came to David to Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.
24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear, were six thousand and eight hundred armed to the war.
25 Of the children of Simeon valiant men of war, seven thousand and an hundred.
26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.
27 And Jehoiada was the chief of them of 1Aaron: and with him three thousand and seven hundred.
28 And Zadok a young man very valiant, and of his father's household came two and twenty captains.
29 And of the children of Benjamin the brethren of Saul three thousand: for a great part of them unto that time kept the ward of the house of Saul.
30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand, and eight hundred valiant men in the household of their fathers.
31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were appointed by name to come and make David King.
32 And of the children of Issachar which were men that had understanding of the 1times, to know what Israel ought to do: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment.
33 Of Zebulun that went out to battle, expert in war, and in all instruments of war, fifty thousand which could set the battle in array: they were not of a double heart.
34 And of Naphthali thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear seven and thirty thousand.
35 And of Dan expert in battle, eight and twenty thousand and six hundred.
36 And of Asher that went out to the battle and were trained in the wars, forty thousand.
37 And of the other side of Jordan of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh with all instruments of war to fight with, an hundred and twenty thousand.
38 1All these men of war that could lead an army, came with upright heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accord to make David King.
39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.
40 Moreover, they that were near them until Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphthali brought bread upon asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, even meat, flour, figs, and raisins, and wine and oil, and beeves and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

13 6 The Ark is brought again from Kirjath Jearim to Jerusalem. 10 Uzza dieth because he toucheth it.

1 And David counselled with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and with all the governors.
2 And David said to all the Congregation of Israel, If it seem good to you, and that it proceedeth of the Lord our God, we will send to and fro unto our brethren, that are left in all the land of Israel (for with them are the Priests and the Levites in the cities and their suburbs) that they may assemble themselves unto us.
3 And we will bring again the 1Ark of our God to us: for we sought not unto it in the days of Saul.
4 And all the Congregation answered, Let us do so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people.
5 ¶ So David gathered all Israel together from Shihor in Egypt, even unto the entering of Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from Kirjath Jearim.
6 And David went up and all Israel to Baalah in Kirjath Jearim, that was in Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God the Lord that dwelleth between the Cherubims, where his Name is called on.
7 And they carried the Ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio 'guided the cart.
8 And David and all Israel played before 'God with all their might, both with songs and with harps, and with viols, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.
9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshingfloor of 'Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark, for the oxen did shake it.
10 But the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he laid his hand upon the Ark: so he died there 'before God.
11 And David was angry, because the Lord had made a breach in Uzza, and he called the name of that place, Perez Uzza unto this day.
12 And David feared God that day, saying, How shall I bring in to me the Ark of God?
13 Therefore David brought not the Ark to him that day.
14 So the Ark of God remained in the house of 'Obed-Edom, all the Philistines came to seek David. And when David heard, he went out against them.
15 And the Philistines came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
16 Then David asked counsel at God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord said unto him, Go up: for I will deliver them into thine hand.
17 So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David smote them there: and David said, God hath divided mine enemies with mine hand, as waters are divided: therefore they called the name of that place, 'Baal Perazim.
18 And there they had left their gods: and David said, Let them even be burnt with fire.
19 Again the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley.
20 And when David asked again counsel at God, God said to him, Thou shalt not go up after them, but turn away from them, that thou mayest come upon them over against the mulberry trees.
21 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberry trees, then go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.
22 So David did as God had commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer.
23 And the fame of David went out into all lands: and the Lord brought the fear of him upon all nations.

14 Then sent Hiram the King of 'Tyrre messengers to David, and Cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to build him an house.
1 And Hiram senteth wood and workmen to David.

4 The names of his children. 8, 14 By the counsel of God he goeth against the Philistines, and overcometh them. 15 God fighteth for him.

1 Then sent Hiram the King of 'Tyrre messengers to David, and Cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to build him an house.
2 Therefore David knew that the Lord had confirmed him King over Israel, and that his kingdom was lift up on high, because of his 'people Israel.
3 ¶ Also David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David begat more sons and daughters.
4 And these are the names of the children which he had at Jerusalem, Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,
5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and 'Elpelet,
6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,
7 And Elishama, and 'Beeliada, and Eliphelet.
8 But when the Philistines heard that David was anointed King over Israel, all the Philistines came upon the Ark: so he died there 'before God.
9 And David was angry, because the Lord had made a breach in Uzza, and he called the name of that place, Perez Uzza unto this day.
10 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of 'Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark, for the oxen did shake it.
11 But the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he laid his hand upon the Ark, for the oxen did shake it.
12 And David was angry, because the Lord had made a breach in Uzza, and he called the name of that place, Perez Uzza unto this day.
13 And David feared God that day, saying, How shall I bring in to me the Ark of God?
14 Therefore David brought not the Ark to him that day.
15 So the Ark of God remained in the house of 'Obed-Edom, all the Philistines came to seek David. And when David heard, he went out against them.
16 And the Philistines came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
17 Then David asked counsel at God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord said unto him, Go up: for I will deliver them into thine hand.
18 So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David smote them there: and David said, God hath divided mine enemies with mine hand, as waters are divided: therefore they called the name of that place, 'Baal Perazim.
19 And there they had left their gods: and David said, Let them even be burnt with fire.
20 Again the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley.
21 And when David asked again counsel at God, God said to him, Thou shalt not go up after them, but turn away from them, that thou mayest come upon them over against the mulberry trees.
22 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberry trees, then go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.
23 So David did as God had commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer.
24 And the fame of David went out into all lands: and the Lord brought the fear of him upon all nations.
place, which he had ordained for it.
4 And David assembled the sons of Aaron, and the Levites.
5 Of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brethren six score.
6 Of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty.
7 Of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty.
8 Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred.
9 Of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore.
10 Of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.
11 ¶ And David called Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, and of the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah and Joel, Shemaiah and Eliel, and Amminadab.
12 And he said unto them, Ye are the chief fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, and your brethren, and bring up the Ark of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.
13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lord our God made a breach among us: for we sought him not after due order.
14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of the Lord God of Israel.
15 ¶ And the sons of the Levites bare the Ark of God upon their shoulders with the bars as Moses had commanded, according to the word of the Lord,
16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites, that they should appoint certain of their brethren to sing with instruments of music, with viols and harps, and cymbals, that they might make a sound, and lift up their voice with joy.
17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and of his brethren Asaph the son of Berechiah, and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah, 18 And with them their brethren in the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Benaijah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel the porters.
19 So Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were singers to make a sound with cymbals of brass,
20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaijah with viols on Alamoth, 21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps upon Sheminith Jenazzeah.
22 But Chenaniah the chief of the Levites had the charge bearing the burden in the charge, for he was able to instruct.
23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were porters for the Ark.
24 And Shebanyah, and Josiahphat and Nethanel and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaijah, and Eliezer the Priests did blow with trumpets before the Ark of God, and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were porters for the Ark.
25 ¶ So David and the Elders of Israel and the captains of thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.
26 And because that God helped the Levites that bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.
27 ¶ And David had on him a linen garment, as all the Levites that bare the Ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah that had the chief charge of the singers: and upon David was a linen Ephod.
28 Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Lord's covenant with shouting, and sound of cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a sound with viols and with harps.
29 And when the Ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at a window, and saw king David dancing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.

16 1 The Ark being placed, they offer sacrifices. 4 David ordaineth Asaph and his brethren to minister before the Lord. 8 He appointeth a notable Psalm to be sung in praise of the Lord.
1 So when they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel both man and woman, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottle of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the Lord, and to rehearse and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, even Jeiel with instruments, viols, and harps, and Asaph to make a sound with cymbals,

6 And Benaiah and Jahaziel Priests, with trumpets continually before the Ark of the covenant of God.

7 Then at that time David did appoint at the beginning to give thanks to the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Praise the Lord and call upon his Name: declare his works among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing praise unto him, and talk of all his wonderful works.

10 Rejoice in his holy Name: let the hearts of them that seek the Lord, rejoice.

11 Seek the Lord and his strength: seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvelous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth, 13 O seed of Israel his servant, O the children of Israel his chosen.

14 He is the Lord our God: his judgments are throughout all the earth.

15 Remember his Covenant forever, and the word, which he commanded to a thousand generations:

16 Which he made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac:

17 And hath confirmed it to Jacob for a Law, and to Israel for an everlasting Covenant, 18 Saying, To thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.

19 When ye were few in number, yea, a very few, and strangers therein,

20 And walked about from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people,

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong, but rebuked Kings for their sakes, saying, 22 Touch not mine anointed, and do my Prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the Lord all the earth: declare his salvation from day to day.

24 Declare his glory among the nations, and his wonderful works among all people.

25 For the Lord is great and much to be praised, and he is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols, but the Lord made the heavens.

27 Praise and glory are before him: power and beauty are in his place.

28 Give unto the Lord, ye families of the people: give unto the Lord glory and power.

29 Give unto the Lord the glory of his Name: bring an offering and come before him, and worship the Lord in the glorious Sanctuary.

30 Tremble ye before him all the earth, surely the world shall be, and not move.

31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad, and let them say among the nations, The Lord reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and all that therein is: let the floods roar, and let all that is in them

33 Let the trees of the wood then rejoice at the presence of the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth.

34 Praise the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth forever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God, our salvation, and gather us, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may praise thine holy Name, and thy praise.

162 1 He called upon the Name of God, desiring him to prosper the people, and give good success to their beginnings.

164 1 To wit, God's benefits toward his people.

167 1 David gave them this Psalm to praise the Lord, signifying, that in all our enterprises the Name of God ought to be praised and called upon.

168 1 Whereof this is the chiefest, that he hath chosen himself a Church to call upon his Name.

169 1 Who of his wonderful providence hath chosen a few of the stock of Abraham to be his children.

1612 1 In overcoming Pharaoh, which judgments were declared by God's mouth to Moses.

1613 1 Meaning hereby that the promise of adoption only appertaineth to the Church.

1618 1 Hebrew, cord, whereby parcels of land were measured.

1619 1 Meaning, from the time that Abraham entered, unto the time that Jacob went into Egypt for famine.

1621 1 As Pharaoh and Abimelech.

1622 1 Mine elect people and them whom I have sanctified.

2 To whom God declared his word, and they declared it to their posterity.

1626 1 His strong faith appeareth herein, though all the world would follow idols, yet he would cleave to the living God.

1630 1 Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God.

1631 1 He exhorteth the dumb creatures to rejoice with him in considering the greatness of the grace of God.

1633 1 To restore all things to their estate.

1635 1 He esteemeth this to be the chiefest felicity of man.
36 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel forever and ever: and let all people say, ‘So be it, and praise the Lord.’

37 ¶ Then he left there before the Ark of the Lord’s Covenant Asaph and his brethren to minister continually before the Ark, that which was to be done every day:

38 And Obed-Edom and his brethren, threescore and eight: and Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were porters.

39 And Zadok the Priest and his brethren the Priests were before the Tabernacle of the Lord, in the high place that was at Gibeon.

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the Lord, upon the burnt offering altar continually, in the morning and in the evening, even according unto all that is written in the Law of the Lord, which he commanded Israel.

41 And with them were Heman, and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen (which were appointed by names) to praise the Lord, because his mercy endureth forever.

42 Even with them were Heman and Jeduthun, to make a sound with the cornets and with the cymbals, with excellent instruments of music: and the sons of Jeduthun were at the gate.

43 And all the people departed, every man to his house: and David returned to ‘bless his house.’

17 David is forbidden to build an house unto the Lord. 12 Christ is promised under the figure of Solomon. 18 David giveth thanks, 23 and prayeth unto God.

1 Now afterward when David dwelt in his house, he said to Nathan the Prophet, Behold, I dwell in an house of ‘cedar trees, but the Ark of the Lord’s Covenant remaineth under ‘curtains.

2 Then Nathan said to David, Do ‘all that is in thine heart: for God is with thee.

3 And the same ‘night even the word of God spake what he thought.

4 Go, and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have dwelt in no house since the day that I brought out the children of Israel unto this day, but I have been from tent to ‘tent, and from habitation to habitation.

6 Wherefore I have ‘walked with all Israel, spake one word to any of the Judges of Israel (whom I commanded to feed my people) saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedar trees?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote ‘and from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be a prince over my people Israel.

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have ‘made thee a name, like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 (Also I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will ‘plant it, that they may dwell in their place, and move no more: neither shall the ‘wicked people vex them anymore, as at the beginning.

10 And since the time that I commanded judges over my people Israel) And I will subdue all thine enemies: therefore I say unto thee, that the Lord will ‘build thee an house.

11 And when thy days shall be fulfilled to go with thy fathers, then will I raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons, and will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne ‘forever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son, and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before ‘thee.

14 But I will establish him in mine house, and in my kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever, 15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision. So Nathan spake to David.

16 ¶ And David the king ‘went in and ‘sat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me ‘hitherto?

16:36 1 He willeth all the people both in heart and mouth to consent to these praises.

16:41 1 With Zadok and the rest of the Priests.

16:43 1 Declaring that after our duty to God we are chiefly bound to our own house, for the which as for all other things we ought to pray unto God, and instruct our families to praise his Name.

17:1 1 Well built and fair.

2 That is, in tents covered with skin.

17:2 1 As yet God had not revealed to the Prophet what he purposed concerning David: therefore seeing God favored David, he spake what he thought.

17:3 1 After that Nathan had spoken to David.

17:5 1 That is, in a tent which removed to and fro.

17:6 1 Meaning, wheresoever his Ark went, which was a sign of his presence.

17:7 1 Of a shepherd of sheep I made thee a shepherd of men: so that thou camest not to this dignity through thine own merits, but by my pure grace.

17:8 1 Or, gotten thee fame.

17:9 1 Make them sure that they shall not remove.

2 Hebrew, sons of iniquity.

1 Or, consume.

17:10 1 Will give thee great posterity.

17:12 1 That is, unto the coming of Christ: for then these figures should cease.

17:13 1 Which was Saul.

17:16 1 He went into the tent where the Ark was, showing what we ought to do when we receive any benefits of the Lord.

2 Or, remained.

3 Meaning to this kingly estate.
17 Yet thou esteeming this a small thing, O God, hast also spoken concerning the house of thy servant for a great while, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.
18 What can David desire more of thee for the honor of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.
19 O Lord, for thy servant’s sake, even according to thine heart hast thou done all this great thing to declare all magnificence.
20 Lord, there is none like thee, neither any God besides thee according to all that we have heard with our ears.
21 Moreover what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whose God went to redeem them to be his people, and to make thyself a Name, and to do great and terrible things by casting out Nations from before thy people, whom thou hast delivered out of Egypt?
22 For thou hast ordained thy people Israel to be thine own people forever, and thou Lord art become their God.
23 Therefore now Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning the house of thy servant, be confirmed forever, and do as thou hast said,
24 And let thy Name be stable and magnified forever, that it may be said, The Lord of hosts, God of Israel, is the God of Israel, and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.
25 For thou, O my God, hast revealed unto the ear of thy servant, that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath been bold to pray before thee.
26 Therefore now Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be confirmed forever, and do as thou hast said,
27 Now therefore it hath pleased thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee forever: for thou, O Lord, hast blessed it, and it shall be blessed forever.

18 1 The battle of David against the Philistines. 2 And against Moab, 3 Zobah, 5 Aram. 12 And Edom.

1 And after this, David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath, and the villages thereof out of the hand of the Philistines.
2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became David’s servants, and brought gifts.
3 ¶ And David smote Hadadezer King of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his border by the river Perath.
4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and destroyed all the chariots, but he reserved of them an hundred chariots.
5 ¶ Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succor Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David slew of the Aramites two and twenty thousand.
6 And David put a garrison in Aram of Damascus, and the Aramites became David’s servants, and brought gifts: and the Lord preserved David wheresoever he went.
7 And David took the shields of gold that were of the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
8 And from Tibhath, and from Chun (cities of Hadadezer) brought David exceeding much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brazen Sea, and the pillars and the vessels of brass.
9 ¶ Then Thou King of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer king of Zobah:
10 Therefore he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to salute him, and to rejoice with him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Thou had war with Hadadezer) who brought all vessels of gold and silver and brass.
11 And king David did dedicate them unto the Lord, with the silver and gold that he brought from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.
12 ¶ And Abishai the son of Zeruiah smote of Edom in the salt valley eighteen thousand,
13 And he put a garrison in Edom, and all the Edomites became David’s servants: and the Lord preserved David wheresoever he went.
14 So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice to all his people.
15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud Recorder, 16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the Priests, and Shavsha the Scribe.
17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites: and the sons of David were chief of the King.

19 4 Hanun King of the children of Ammon doeth great injuries to the servants of David. 6 He prepareth an array against David. 15 and is overcome.
1  After this also Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.
2 And David said, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent messengers to comfort him for his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? Are not his servants come to thee to search, to seek and to spy out the land?
4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the half of their beards, and cut off their garments by the half unto the buttocks, and sent them away.
5 And there went certain and told David concerning the men: and he sent to meet them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King said, Tarry at Jericho, until your beards be grown:
6 When the children of Ammon saw that they stank in the sight of David, then sentHanun and the children of Ammon a thousand talents of silver, to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Zobah.
7 And they hired them two and thirty thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to the battle.
8 And when David heard it, he sent Joab and all the host of the valiant men.

20 1 Rabbah destroyed. 3 The Ammonites trembled. 4 The Philistines are thrice overcome with their giants.

CHAPTER 20

1 And when the year was expired, in the time that kings go out a warfare, Joab carried out the strength of the army, and destroyed the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but David tarried at Jerusalem) and Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 ¶ Then David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it the weight of a talent of gold with precious stones in it: and it was set on David's head, and he brought away the spoil of the city exceeding much.

3 And he carried away the people that were in it, and cut them with saws and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even thus did David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people came again to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And after this also there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai of the children of Haraphah, and they were subdued.

5 And there was yet another battle with the Philistines: and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was a battle at Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and his fingers were by sixes, even four and twenty, and was also the son of Haraphah.

7 ¶ And when he reviled Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother did slay him.

8 These were born unto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hands of his servants.

21 And David causeth the people to be numbered. 14 and there died seventy thousand men of the pestilence.

1 And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 ¶ Therefore David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, and number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, and bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Joab answered, The Lord increased his people an hundred times so many as they be, O my lord the king: are they not all my lord's servants? wherefore doeth my lord require this thing? why should he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 ¶ Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab. And Joab departed and went through all Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the number and sum of the people unto David: and all Israel were eleven hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred and seventy thousand men that drew sword.

6 ¶ But the Levites and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the King's word was abominable to Joab.

7 ¶ And God was displeased with this thing: therefore he smote Israel.

8 ¶ Then David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, remove the iniquity of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Gad David's Seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Take to thee, either three years famine, or three months to be destroyed before thine adversaries, and the sword of thine enemies to take thee, or else the sword of the Lord and pestilence in the land three days, that the Angel of the Lord may destroy throughout all the coasts of Israel: now therefore advise thee, what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

12 ¶ And David said unto Gad, I am in a wonderful strait, let me now fall into the hand of the Lord: for his mercies exceedingly great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a wonderful strait, let me now fall into the hand of the Lord: for his mercies exceedingly great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 ¶ And God sent the Angel into Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and he repented of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is now enough, let thine hand cease. Then the Angel of the Lord stood by the threshing 16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the Angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, with his sword drawn in his hand and stretched out toward Jerusalem. Then David and the Elders of Israel which were clothed in sack, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded to number the people? It is even I that have sinned and have committed evil, but these sheep, what have they done? O Lord my God, I beseech thee, let thine hand be on me and on my father's house, and not on thy people for their destruction.

18 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the Lord in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went up according to the saying of Gad, which he had spoken in the Name of the Lord.

20 And Ornan turned about and saw the Angel, and his four sons that were with him, hid themselves, and Ornan threshed wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 And David said to Ornan, Give me the place of thy threshing floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the Lord; give it me for sufficient money, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 Then Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which seemeth him good; lo, I give thee bullocks for burnt offerings, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheat for meat offering, I give it all.

24 And King David said to Ornan, Not so: but I will buy it for sufficient money: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for that place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings, and called upon the Lord, and he answered him by fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And when the Lord had spoken to the Angel, he put up his sword again into his sheath.

28 At that time when David saw that the Lord had heard him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 (But the Tabernacle of the Lord which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.

30 And David could not go before it to ask counsel at God: for he was afraid of the sword of the Angel of the Lord.)

22 2 David prepareth things necessary for the building of the Temple. 6 He commandeth his son Solomon to build the Temple of the Lord, which thing he himself was forbidden to do. 9 Under the figure of Solomon Christ is promised.

1 2 And David said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for the burnt offering of Israel.

2 2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set masons to hew and polish stones to build the house of God.

3 3 David also prepared much iron for the nails of the doors and of the gates, and for the joinings, and abundance of brass passing weight.

4 4 And cedar trees without number: for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and we must build an house for the Lord, magnifical, excellent and of great fame and dignity throughout all countries: I will therefore now prepare for him. So David prepared very much before his death.

6 6 Then he called Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 7 And David said to Solomon, My son, I purposed with myself to build an house to the Name of the Lord my God,

8 8 But the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
1. Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battles: thou shalt not build an house unto my name: for thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9. Behold, a son is born to thee, which shall be a man of rest, for I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: therefore his name is Solomon: and I will send peace and quietness upon Israel in his days.

10. He shall build an house for my Name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom upon Israel forever.

11. Now therefore my son, the Lord shall be with thee, and thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt build an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken of thee.

12. Only the Lord give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge over Israel, even to keep the Law of the Lord thy God.

13. Then thou shalt prosper, if thou take heed to observe the statutes and the judgments which the Lord commanded Moses for Israel: be strong and of good courage: fear not, neither be afraid.

14. For behold, according to my poverty have I prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and of iron passing weight: for I have also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest provide more thereto. And there was abundance. I have also prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and of iron passing weight: for I have also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest provide more thereto. And there was abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest provide more thereto.

15. Moreover thou hast workmen with thee enough, hewers of stone, and workmen of timber, and all men expert in every work.

16. Of gold, of silver, and of brass, and of iron there is no number: Up therefore, and be doing, and the Lord will be with thee.

17. David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18. Is not the Lord your God with you, and hath given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19. Now set your hearts and your souls to seek the Lord your God, and arise, and build the Sanctuary of the Lord, to bring the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God into the house built for the Name of the Lord.

23:1 David being old, ordained Solomon King. 3 He causeth the Levites to be numbered. 4 And assigned them to their offices. 13 Aaron and his sons are for the high Priest. 14 The sons of Moses.

1. So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son King over Israel.

2. And he gathered together all the princes of Israel with the Priests and the Levites.

3. And the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above, and their number according to their sum was eight and thirty thousand men.

4. Of these four and twenty thousand were set to advance the work of the house of the Lord, and six thousand were overseers and judges.

5. And four thousand were porters, and four thousand praised the Lord with instruments which he made to praise the Lord.

6. So David divided offices unto them, to wit, to the sons of Levi, to 7Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

7. Of the Gershonites were Laadan and Shimei.

8. The sons of Shimei, the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham and Joel, three.

9. The Sons of Shimei, Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three: these were the chief fathers of Laadan.

10. Also the sons of Shimei were Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah: these four were the sons of Shimei.

11. And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons: therefore they were in the families of their father, counted but as one.

12. The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel, four.

13. The sons of Amram, Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated to sanctify the most holy place, he and his sons forever to burn incense before the Lord, to minister to him, and to bless in his Name forever.

14. Moses also the man of God and his children were named with the 5tribe of Levi.

15. The sons of Moses were Gershom, and Eliezer.

16. Of the sons of Gershom was Shebuel the chief.
17 And the son of Eliezer was Rebahiah the chief; for Eliezer had none other sons: but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.
18 The son of Isher was Shelomith the chief.
19 The sons of Hebron were Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
20 The sons of Uzziel were Michah the first, and Jessiah the second.
21 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli, Eleazar and Kish.
22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters, and their brethren the sons of Kish took them.
23 The sons of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.
24 These were the sons of Levi according to the house of their fathers, even the chief fathers according to their offices, according to the number of names, and their sum that did the work for the service of the house of the Lord from the age of twenty years and above.
25 For David said, The Lord God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever.
26 And also the Levites shall have no more bear the Tabernacle and all the vessels for the service thereof.
27 Therefore according to the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years and above,
28 And their office was under the hand of the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord in the courts, and chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and in the work of the service of the house of God,
29 Both for the showbread, and for the fine flour, for the meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the fried things, and for that which was roasted, and for all measures and size,
30 And for to stand every morning, to give thanks and praise to the Lord, and likewise at even,
31 And to offer all burnt offerings unto the Lord in the Sabbaths, in the months, and at the appointed times, according to the number and according to their custom, continually before the Lord,
32 And that they should keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the service of the house of the Lord.

23:21 [¶] The Scripture useth to call chief or the firstborn, although he be alone and there be none born after, Matt. 1:25.
23:22 [¶] Meaning, their cousins.
23:24 [¶] David did choose the Levites twice, first at the age of thirty, as verse 3 and again afterward at 20, as the necessity of the office did require: at the beginning they had no charge in the Temple, before they were five and twenty years old, and had none after fifty, Num. 4:3.
23:28 [¶] In washing and cleansing all the holy vessels.

24 3 David assigneth offices to the sons of Aaron.

1 These are also the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the Priest's office.
3 And David distributed them, even Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar according to their offices in their ministration.
4 And there were found more of the sons of Eleazar by the number of men, than of the sons of Ithamar, and they divided them, to wit, among the sons of Eleazar, sixteen heads, according to the household of their fathers, and among the sons of Ithamar, according to the household of their fathers, eight.
5 Thus they distributed them by lot the one from the other, and so the rulers of the Sanctuary and the rulers of the house of God were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.
6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaniel the Scribe of the Levites, wrote them before the king and the princes, and Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief fathers of the Priests and of the Levites, one family being reserved for Eleazar, and another reserved for Ithamar.
7 And the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, and the second to Jediaiah,
8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,
9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,
10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eight to Abijah,
11 The ninth to Jeshaia, the tenth to Shecaniah,
12 The eleventh to Eliaishib, the twelfth to Jakim,
13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,
15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,
16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Hezekel,
17 The one and twenty to Jachin, the two and twenty to Gamul,
18 The three and twenty to Delaiah, the four and twenty to Maaziah.
19 These were their orders according to their offices, when they entered into the house of the Lord according to their custom under the hand of} 24:2 [¶] While their father yet lived.

24:3 [¶] Or, cousins.
24:4 [¶] Hebrew, heads.
24:7 [¶] This lot was ordained to take away all occasion of envy or grudging of one against another.
24:10 [¶] Zacharias the father of John the Baptist was of this course or lot of Abia, Luke 1:5.
24:19 [¶] By the dignity that God gave to Aaron.
Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded him.
20 ¶ And of the sons of Levi that remained of the sons of Amram, was Shubael, of the sons of Shubael, Jedelein.
21 Of Rehabiah, even of the sons of Rehabiah, the first Isshiah,
22 Of Izhar, Shelomoth, of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath,
23 And his sons, Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth,
24 The son of Uzziel was Michah, the son of Michah was Shamir,
25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah, the son of Isshiah, Zechariah, 26 The sons of Merari, were Mahli and Mushi, the son of Jaaziah was Beno, 27 The sons of Merari, of Jaaziah were Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur and Ibed.
28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, which had no sons.
29 Of Kish: the son of Kish was Jeremiah,
30 And the sons of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth: these were sons of the Levites after the household of their fathers.
31 And these also cast lots with their brethren the sons of Aaron before King David, and Zadok and Ahimelech and the chief fathers of the Priests, and of the Levites, even the chief of the families against their younger brethren.

25 The singers are appointed with their places and lots.
1 So David and the captains of the army separated for the ministry the sons of Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, who should sing prophecies with harps, with viols, and with cymbals, and their number was even of the men for the office of their ministry, to wit,
2 Of the sons of Asaph, Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelah the sons of Asaph were under the hand of Asaph, which sang prophecies by the commission of the King.
3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun, Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father: Jeduthun sang prophecies with an harp, for to give thanks and to praise the Lord.

25:11 1 Or, Prophet.
25:23 1 Or, power, meaning of the king.
25:26 1 Or, government.
25:27 2 Hebrew, hand.
25:28 1 Who should be in every company and course.
25:30 1 Which was the second son of Merari.
25:31 1 That is, every one had that dignity, which fell unto him by lot.
24:30 1 Or, the Zerites.
25:4 1 Or, the sons of Heman, Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.
25:5 5 All these were the sons of Heman, the King's Seer in the words of God to lift up the horn: and God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.
25:6 6 All these were under the hand of their father singing in the house of the Lord with cymbals, viols and harps, for the service of the house of God, and Asaph, and Jeduthun, and Heman were at the King's commandment.
25:7 7 So was their number with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the Lord, even of all that were cunning, two hundred fourscore and eight.
25:8 8 And they cast lots, charge against charge, as well small as great, the cunning man as the scholar.
25:9 9 And the first lot fell to Joseph, which was of Asaph, the second, to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and his sons were twelve.
25:10 10 The third, to Zaccur, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve.
25:11 11 The fourth, to Jizri, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:12 12 The fifth, to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:13 13 The sixth, to Bukkiah, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:14 14 The seventh, to Jesharelah, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:15 15 The eighth to Jeshahiah, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:16 16 The ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.
25:17 17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons and his brethren twelve.

27 Of the princes and rulers that ministered unto the King.

1 The children of Israel also after their number, even the chief fathers and captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers that served the king by divers courses, which came in and went out, month by month throughout all the months of the year: in every course were four and twenty thousand.

2 Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were four and twenty thousand.

3 Of the sons of Perez was Jerijah the chiefest, even the Hebronites by his generations according to the king.

4 And over the course of the second month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were forty and twenty thousand.

5 The captain of the third host for the third month was Ammizabad his son.

6 This Beniah was mighty among thirty and above the thirty, and in his course was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asael the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were four and twenty thousand.

8 The fifth for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Zarhite: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

10 The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

11 The eight for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite of the Zarhites: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

12 The ninth for the ninth month was Othniel the Netophathite of the Zarhites: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaijah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ezrah: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course four and twenty thousand.

16 ¶ Moreover the rulers over the tribes of Israel were these: over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

17 Over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: over them was Aaron, and Zadok:

18 Over Judah, Elihu of the brethren of David: over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

19 Over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: over Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel:

20 Over the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: over the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah:

21 Over the other half of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

22 Over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These are the princes of the tribes of Israel.

26:26 1 According as the Lord commanded; Num. 31:28.
26:29 1 Meaning, of things that were out of the city.
26:30 1 That is, for the king’s house.
26:32 1 To wit, the cousins of Jerijah.
27:1 1 Hebrew, divisions, or bands.
27:4 1 That is, Dodai’s lieutenant.
27:12 1 Or, Benjamin.
27:16 1 Meaning, besides these twelve captains.
27:21 1 Which is beyond Jordan, in respect of Judah: also one captain was over the Reubenites and the Gadites.
23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under, because the Lord had said that he would increase Israel like unto the stars of the heavens.

24 And Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number: but he finished it not, because there came wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put into the Chronicles of king David.

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities and in the villages, and in the towers was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

26 And over the workmen in the field that tilleth the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And over them that dressed the vines, was Shimei the Ramathite: and over that which appertained to the vines, and over the store of the wine was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive trees and mulberry trees that were in the valleys, was Baal-Hanan the Gederite: and over the store of the oil was Joash:

29 And over the oxen that fed in Sharon, was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the oxen in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 And over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the sheep was Jaziz the Hagrite: all these were the rulers of the substance that was king David's.

32 And Jehonathan David's uncle a man of counsel and understanding (for he was a scribe) and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni were with the King's sons.

33 And Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Archite the king's friend.

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and Abiathar: and captain of the King's army was Joab.

28 3 Because David was forbidden to build the Temple, he willeth Solomon and the people to perform it. 8 Exhorting him to fear the Lord.

1 Now David assembled all the princes of Israel: the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the bands that served the King, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers of all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the eunuchs, and the mighty, and all the men of power, unto Jerusalem.

2 And King David stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear ye me, my brethren and my people: I purposed to have built an house for the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for a footstool of our God, and have made ready for the building.

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my Name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Yet as the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be King over Israel forever (for in Judah would he choose a prince, and of the house of Judah is the house of my father, and among the sons of my father he delighted in me to make me king over all Israel)

5 So of all my sons (for the Lord hath given me many sons) he hath even chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build mine house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 I will establish therefore his kingdom forever, if he endeavor himself to do my commandments, and my judgments, as this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God, that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you forever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and understandeth all the imaginations of thoughts: with a willing mind:

10 Take heed now, for the Lord hath chosen thee to build the house of the Sanctuary: be strong therefore and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch and of the houses thereof, and of the closets thereof, and of the galleries thereof, and of the chambers thereof that are within, and of 12 And the pattern of all that he had in his mind for the courts of the house of the Lord, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasures of the house of God, and for the treasures of the dedicated things, 13 And for the courses of the Priests, and of the Levites, and for all the work for the service of the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of the ministry of the house of the Lord.

14 He gave of gold by weight, for the vessels of gold, for all the vessels of all manner of service, and all the vessels of silver by weight, for all manner vessels of all manner of service.
15 The weight also of gold for the candlesticks, and gold for their lamps, with the weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof, and for the candlesticks of silver by the weight of the candlestick, and the lamps thereof according to the use of every candlestick,
16 And the weight of the gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table, and silver for the tables of silver,
17 And pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and plates, and for basins, gold in weight for every basin, and for silver basins, by weight for every basin,
18 And for the altar of incense, pure gold by weight, and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the Cherubs that spread themselves, and covered the Ark of the covenant of the Lord:
19 All, said he, by writing sent to me by the hand of the Lord, which made me understand all the workmanship of the pattern.
20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of a valiant courage, and do it: fear not, nor be afraid: for the Lord God, even my God is with thee:
21 Behold also, the companies of the Priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, even they shall be with thee for the whole work, with every free heart that is skillful in any manner of service. The princes also and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

28:17 1 Or, coverings.
28:18 1 Meaning, of the mercy seat which covered the Ark, which was called the chariot, because the Lord declared himself there.
28:19 1 For all this was left in writing in the book of the Law, Exod. 25:40, which book the king was bound to put in execution, Deut. 17:19.
28:21 1 That is, everyone will be ready to help thee with those gifts that God hath given him.
2 Hebrew, at all thy words.
29:1 1 And therefore is taught to be excellent in all points.
29:3 1 His great zeal toward the furtherance of the Temple made him to spare no expenses, but to bestow his own peculiar treasure.
29:4 1 He showeth what he had of his own store for the Lord's house.
29:5 1 He was not only liberal himself, but provoked others to set forth the works of God.
2 Or, to offer.
29:8 1 Meaning, them that had any.
29:9 1 That is, with a good courage and without hypocrisy.
29:10 1 Which didst reveal thyself to our father Jacob.

CHAPTER 29

2 The offering of David and of the princes for the building of the Temple. 10 David giveth thanks to the Lord. 20 He exhorteth the people to do the same. 22 Solomon is created king. 28 David dieth, and Solomon his son reigneth in his stead.

1 Moreover, David the King said unto all the Congregation, God hath chosen Solomon mine only son, young and tender, and the work is great: for this house is not for man, but for the Lord God.
2 Now I have prepared with all my power for the house of my God, gold for vessels of gold, and silver for them of silver, and brass for things of brass, iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood, and onyx stones, and stones to be set, and carbuncle stones, and of divers colors, and all precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.
3 Moreover, because I have delight in the house of my God, I have of mine own gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, beside all that I have prepared for the house of the Sanctuary,
4 Even three thousand talents of gold of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of fined silver to overlay the walls of the houses.
5 The gold for the things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all the work by the hands of artificers: and who is willing to fill his hand today unto the Lord?
6 So the princes of the families, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of hundreds and of thousands, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,
7 And they gave for the service of the house of God, five thousand talents of gold, and ten thousand pieces, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershomite.
9 And the people rejoiced when they offered willingly: for they offered willingly unto the Lord, with a perfect heart. And David the king also rejoiced with great joy.
10 Therefore David blessed the Lord before all the Congregation, and David said, Blessed be thou, O Lord God of Israel our father, forever and ever.
11 Thine, O Lord, is greatness and power, and glory and victory, and praise: for all that is in heaven and in earth is thine: thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou excellest as head over all.

12 Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious Name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee: and of thine own hand we have given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners like all our fathers: our days are like the shadow upon the earth, and there is none abiding.

16 O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy Name, is of thine hand, and all is thine.

17 I know also my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in righteousness: I have offered willingly in the uprightness of mine heart all these things: now also have I seen thy people which are found here, to offer unto thee willingly with joy.

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel our fathers, keep this forever in the purpose, and the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their hearts unto thee.

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all things, and to build the house which I have prepared.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the Lord your God. And all the Congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Lord and the ‘king.

21 And they offered sacrifices unto the Lord, and on the morrow after that day, they offered burnt offerings unto the Lord, even a thousand young bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand sheep, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 And they did eat and drink before the Lord the same day with great joy, and they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him prince before the Lord, and Zadok for the high Priest.

23 So Solomon sat on the ‘throne of the Lord, as king instead of David his father, and prospered: and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes and men of power, and all the sons of king David submitted themselves under king Solomon.

25 And the Lord magnified Solomon in dignity, in the sight of all Israel, and gave him so glorious a kingdom, as no king had before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the space that he reigned over Israel, was forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and three and thirty years reigned he in Jerusalem:

28 And he died in a good age, full of days, riches and honor, and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Concerning the acts of David the king, first and last, behold they are written in the book of Samuel the Seer, and in the book of ‘Nathan the Prophet, and in the book of Gad the Seer, 30 With all his reign and his power, and times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the earth.

29:14 1 We gave thee nothing of our own, but that which we have received of thee: for whether the gifts be corporal or spiritual, we receive them all of God, and therefore must give him the glory.

29:15 1 And therefore have this land but lent to us for a time.

29:18 1 Continue them in his good mind, that they may serve thee willingly.

29:20 1 That is, did reverence the king.

29:21 1 Meaning, all kind of liquor which they mingled with their sacrifices, as wine, oil, etc.

29:23 1 This declareth that the Kings of Judah were figures of Christ, who was the true anointed, and to whom God gave the chief government of all things.

29:24 1 Hebrew, gave the hand.

29:29 1 The books of Nathan and Gad are thought to have been lost in the captivity.

29:30 1 Meaning, the troubles and grieves.
1 Then Solomon the son of David was confirmed in his kingdom: and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him highly.

2 And Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to all the governors in all Israel, even the chief fathers.

3 So Solomon and all the Congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon: for there was the Tabernacle of the Congregation of God which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 But the Ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath Jearim, when David had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, the brazen altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur had made, did he set before the Tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the Congregation sought it.

6 And Solomon offered there before the Lord upon the brazen altar that was in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: even a thousand burnt offerings offered he upon it.

7 ¶ The same night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast showed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now therefore, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be true: for thou hast made me King over a great people, like to the dust of the earth.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and go in before this people: for who can judge this thy great people?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, treasures nor honor, nor the lives of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life, but hast asked for thee wisdom and knowledge, that thou mightest judge my people, over whom I have made thee King.

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches and treasures and honor, so that there hath not been the like among the kings which were before thee, neither after thee shall there be the like.

13 Then Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, to Jerusalem from before the Tabernacle, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered the chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the chariot cities, and with the King at Jerusalem.

15 And the king gave gold and silver at Jerusalem as stone, and gave cedar trees as the wild fig trees, that are abundantly in the plain.

16 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: the King’s merchants received the fine linen for a price.

17 They came up also and brought out of Egypt some chariot, worth six hundred shekels of silver, that is an horse for an hundred and fifty: and thus they brought horses to all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Aram by their means.

2 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, treasures nor honor, nor the lives of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life, but hast asked for thee wisdom and knowledge, that thou mightest judge my people, over whom I have made thee King.

3 Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.
And Solomon told out seventy thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand men to hew stones in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou hast done to David my father, and didst send him cedar trees to build him an house to dwell in so do to me.

Behold, I build an house unto the Name of the Lord my God, to set there unto him a Name: and to burn sweet incense before him, and for the continual burnt offerings of the morning and evening, on the Sabbath days, and in the new moons, and in the solemn feasts of the Lord our God; this is a perpetual thing for Israel.

And the house which I build, is great: for great is our God above all gods.

Who is he then that can be able to build him an house, when the heaven and the heaven of heavens can not contain him? who am I then that I should build him an house? but I do it to burn incense before him.

Send me now therefore a cunning man that can work in gold, in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson and blue silk, and that can grave in all graven works, and brodier in all brodiered work that shall be given him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants.

And we will cut wood in Lebanon as much as thou shalt need, and will bring it to thee in rafts by the sea to Japho, so thou mayest carry them to Jerusalem.

And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering that his father David had numbered them: and they were found an hundred and three and fifty thousand, which were in the land.

And he set seventy thousand of them to the burden, and fourscore thousand to hew stones in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to cause the people to work.

The Temple of the Lord, and the porch are built, with other things thereto belonging.

So Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, in mount Moriah which had been declared unto David his father, in the place that David prepared in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

And he began to build in the second month and the second day, in the fourth year of his reign.

And these are the measures wherein Solomon grounded to build the house of God: the length of cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits:

4 And the porch that was before the length in the front of the breadth was twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty, and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he ceiled with fir tree which he overlaid with good gold, and graved thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he overlaid the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 The house, I say, the beams, posts, and walls thereof and the doors thereof overlaid he with gold, and graved Cherubims upon the walls.

8 ¶ He made also the house of the most holy place: the length thereof was in the front of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with the best gold, of six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold, and he overlaid the chambers with gold.

10 ¶ And in the house of the most holy place he made two Cherubims wrought like children, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the Cherubims were twenty cubits long: the one wing was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub.

12 Likewise the wing of the other Cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing five cubits, joining to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 The wings of these Cherubims were spread abroad twenty cubits, they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.

14 ¶ He made also the veil of blue silk and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought Cherubims thereon.

15 ¶ And he made before the house two pillars of five and thirty cubits high: and the chapter that was upon the top of each of them, was five cubits.

16 He made also chains for the Oracle, and put them among the chains.

17 And he set up the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left, and called that on the right hand Jachin, and that on the left hand Boaz.

4 ¶ He made also ten candlesticks of gold (according to their form) and put them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 ¶ And he made ten tables, and put them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basins of gold.

9 And he made the court of the Priests, and the great court and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors thereof with brass.

10 And he set the Sea on the right side Eastward toward the South.

11 And Huram made pots and besoms and basins, and Huram finished the work that he should make for King Solomon for the house of God.

12 ¶ To wit, two pillars, and the bowls and the chapiters on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were called the porch of Solomon, Act 3:11. It is also taken for the Temple where Christ preached, Matt. 21:23.

1 Kings 6:14

1 Kings 6:14

1 The altar of brass. 2 The molten sea. 6 The candlesticks, etc.

1 And he made an altar of brass twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and ten cubits high.

2 And he made a molten Sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits high:

3 And under it was the fashion of oxen, which did compass it round about, and the half cubit was over the Sea about: two rows of oxen were cast when it was molten.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen: three looked toward the North, and three looked toward the West, and three looked toward the South, and three looked toward the East, and the Sea stood above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness thereof was an hand breadth, and the brim thereof was like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained three thousand baths.

6 ¶ He made also ten caldrons, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them, and to cleanse in them that which appertained to the burnt offerings: but the Sea was for the Priests to wash in.

7 ¶ And he made ten candlesticks of gold (according to their form) and put them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 ¶ And he made ten tables, and put them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basins of gold.

9 And he made the court of the Priests, and the great court and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors thereof with brass.

10 And he set the Sea on the right side Eastward toward the South.

11 And Huram made pots and besoms and basins, and Huram finished the work that he should make for King Solomon for the house of God.

12 ¶ To wit, two pillars, and the bowls and the chapiters on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were called the porch of Solomon, Act 3:11. It is also taken for the Temple where Christ preached, Matt. 21:23.

4:11 ¶ Or, cauldrons.
upon the top of the pillars:
13 And four hundred pomegranates for the two grates, two rows of pomegranates for every grate to cover the two bowls of the chapters, that were upon the pillars.
14 He made also bases, and made caldrons upon the bases:
15 And a Sea, and twelve bulls under it:
16 Pots also and besoms, and flesh hooks, and all these vessels made Hiram his father to King Solomon for the house of the Lord of shining brass.
17 In the plain of Jordan did the King cast them in clay between Succoth and Zeredathah.
18 And Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of brass could not be reckoned.
19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God: the golden altar also and the tables, whereon the shewbread stood.
20 Moreover, the candlesticks with their lamps, to burn them after the manner before the Oracle, of pure gold.
21 And the flowers and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold, which was fine gold.
22 And the hooks, and the basins, and the spoons, and the ash pans of pure gold: the entry also of the house and doors thereof within, even of the most holy place: and the doors of the house, to wit, of the Temple were of gold.

1 The things dedicated by David are put in the Temple. 2 The Ark is brought into the Temple. 10 What was within it. 12 They sing praise to the Lord.

4:16 1 Whom Solomon reverenced for the gifts that God had given him, as a father: he had the same name also that Huram the king of Tyre had, his mother was a Jewess, and his father a Tyrian. Some read for his father, the author of this work.
4:19 1 In Hebrew, the bread of the faces, because they were set before the Ark, where the Lord showed his presence.

3 Solomon blesseth the people. 4 He praiseth the Lord. 14 He prayeth unto God for those that shall pray in the Temple.

1 Then Solomon said, The Lord hath said that he would dwell in the dark cloud:
2 And I have built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to dwell in for ever.
3 And the King turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel (for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.)
4 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,
5 Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my Name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:
6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my Name might be there, and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.
7 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house unto the Name of the Lord God of Israel.
8 But the Lord said to David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my Name, thou diddest well, that thou wast so minded.
9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house, but thy son, which shall come out of thy loins, he shall build an house unto my Name.
10 And the Lord hath performed his word that he spake: and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and have built an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.
11 And I have set the Ark there, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.
12 And the king stood before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands,
13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, and set it in the midst of the court, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits of height, and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heaven.
14 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven nor in earth, which keepeth covenant and mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart.
15 Thou that hast kept with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeared this day.
16 Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight, that shall sit upon the throne of Israel, so that thy sons take heed to their ways to walk in my Law, as thou hast walked before me.
17 And now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David.
18 (Is it true indeed that God will dwell with man on earth? behold, the heavens, and the heavens of heavens are not able to contain thee: how much more unable is this house which I have built?)
19 But have thou respect to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hear the cry and prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee.
20 That thine eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place, whereof thou hast said, that thou wouldest put thy Name there, that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer, which thy servant prayeth in this place.
21 Hear thou therefore the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they pray in this place: and hear thou in the place of thine habitation, even in heaven, and when thou hearest, be merciful.
22 ¶ When a man shall sin against his neighbor, and he lay upon him an oath to cause him to swear, and the swearer shall come before thine altar in this house,
23 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, in recompensing the wicked to bring his way upon his head, and in justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
24 ¶ And when thy people Israel shall be overthrown before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and turn again, and confess thy Name, and pray, and make supplication before thee in this house,
25 Then hear thou in heaven, and be merciful unto the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.
26 When heaven shall be shut up, and there shall be no rain, because they have sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place and confess thy Name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them,
27 Then hear thou in heaven, and pardon the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walk) and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.
28 ¶ When there shall be famine in the land, when there shall be pestilence, blasting, or mildew, when there shall be grasshopper, or caterpillar, when their enemy shall besiege them in the cities of their land, or any plague or any sickness,
29 Then what prayer and supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own plague, and his own disease, and shall stretch forth his hands toward this house,
30 Hear thou then in heaven, thy dwelling place, and be merciful, and give every man according unto all his ways, as thou dost know his heart (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men)
31 That they may fear thee, and walk in thy ways, as long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
32 ¶ Moreover, as touching the stranger which is not of thy people Israel, who shall come out of a far country for thy great Name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm: when they shall come and pray in this house,
33 Hear thou in heaven, thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth for unto thee, that all the people of the earth may know thy Name, and fear thee like thy people Israel, and that they may know that thy Name is called upon in this house which I have built.
34 ¶ When thy people shall go out to battle against their enemies, by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee, in the way toward this city, which thou hast chosen, even toward the house which I have built to thy Name, which I love,
35 Then hear thou in heaven thy prayer and their supplication, and judge their cause.
36 If they sin against thee (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them unto the enemies, and they take them and carry them away captive into a land far or near,
37 If they turn again to their heart in the land whither they be carried in captivity, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have transgressed and have done wickedly,
38 If they turn again to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy Name,
39 Then hear thou in heaven, in the place of thine habitation, their prayer and their supplication, and judge their cause, and be merciful unto thy people, which have sinned against thee.
40 Now my God, I beseech thee, let thine ears be open, and thine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place.
41 Now therefore arise, O Lord God, to come into thy rest, thou, and the Ark of thy strength: O Lord God, let thy Priests be clothed with salvation, and let thy Saints rejoice in goodness.
42 O Lord God, refuse not the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies promised to David thy servant.

7 1 The fire consumeth the sacrifice. 2 The glory of the Lord filleth the Temple. 12 He heareth his prayer, and promised to exalt him and his throne.
1 And when Solomon had made an end of prayer, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices: and the glory of the Lord filled the house,
2 So that the Priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house.
3 And when all the children of Israel saw the fire, and the glory of the Lord come down upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the earth upon the pavement, and worshipped and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, because his mercy lasteth forever.

4 "Then the King and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of two and twenty thousand bullocks, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the Priests waited on their offices, and the Levites with the instruments of music of the Lord, which king David had made to praise the Lord, because his mercy lasteth forever: when David praised God by them, the Priests also blew trumpets over against them: and all they of Israel stood by.

7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he had prepared burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meat offering, and the fat.

8 And Solomon made a feast at that time of seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, from the entering in of Hamath, unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eight day they made a solemn assembly: for they had made the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And the third and twentieth day of the seventh month, he sent the people away into their tents, joyous and with glad heart, because of the goodness that the Lord had done for David and for Solomon, and for Israel his people.

11 So Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the Lord: and he prospered in his house.

12 ¶ And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place for myself to be an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut the heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people,

14 If my people, among whom my Name is called upon, do humble themselves, and pray and seek my presence, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear in heaven and be merciful to their sin, and will heal their land:

15 Then mine eyes shall be open and mine ears attent unto the prayer made in this place.

16 For I have now chosen and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there forever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, to do according unto all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments,

18 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I made the covenant with David thy father, saying, 'Thou shalt not want a man to be ruler in Israel.'

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them,

20 Then will I pluck them up out of my land, which I have given them, and this house which I have sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a common talk among all people.

21 And this house which is most high, shall be an astonishment to everyone that passeth by it, so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus to this land, and to this house?

22 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold on other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them, therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

8 2 The cities that Solomon built. 7 People that were made tribute unto him. 12 His sacrifices. 17 He sendeth to Ophir.

1 And after twenty years when Solomon had built the house of the Lord, and his own house,

2 Then Solomon built the cities that Huram gave to Solomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and overcame it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and repaired all the cities of store which he built in Hamath.
5 And he built Beth Horon the upper, and Beth Horon the nether, cities defensed with walls, gates and bars:
6 Also Baalath, and all the cities of store that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and every pleasant place that Solomon had a mind to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
7 And all the people that were left were left to the Hittites, and the Amorites, and Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,
8 But of the children which were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not consumed, even them did Solomon make tributaries until this day.
9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: for they were men of war, and his chief princes, and the captains of his chariots and of his horsemen.
10 So these were the chief, of the officers which Solomon had, even two hundred and fifty that bare rule over the people.
11 ¶ Then Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David, into the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel: for it is holy, because that the Ark of the Lord came unto it.
12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the Lord, on the altar of the Lord, which he had built before the porch,
13 To offer according to the commandment of Moses every day, in the Sabbaths, and in the new moons, and in the solemn feasts, three times in the year, that is, in the feast of the Unleavened bread, and in the feast of the Weeks, and in the feast of the Tabernacles.
14 And he set the courses of the Priests to their offices according to the order of David his father, and the Levites in their watches, for to praise and minister before the Priests every day, and the porters by their courses, at every gate: for so was the commandment of David the man of God.
15 And they declined not from the commandment of the king, concerning the Priests and the Levites, touching all things, and touching the treasures.
of the Lord thy God: because thy God loveth Israel, to establish it forever, therefore hath he made thee king over them, to execute judgments and justice.

9 Then she gave the King sixscore talents of gold, and of sweet odors exceedingly much, and precious stones: neither was there such sweet odors since, as the Queen of Sheba gave unto King Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon which brought gold from Ophir, brought 1Algummim wood and precious stones.

11 And the King made of the Algummim wood 1stairs in the house of the Lord, and in the king’s house, and harps and viols for singers: and there was no such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba every pleasant thing that she asked, besides for that which she had brought unto the king: so she returned and went to her own country, both she, and her servants.

13 ¶ Also the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred three-score and six talents of gold, 14 Besides that which chapmen and merchants brought: and all the Kings of Arabia, and the princes of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold, and six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield, and the king put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

17 And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And the throne had six steps, with a footstool to the throne, and stays on either side on the place of the seats, and two lions standing by the “stays.”

19 And twelve lions stood there on the six steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 And all King Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold: for silver was nothing esteemed in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king’s ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram, every three years once came the ships of 1Tarshish, and brought gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 So king Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the Kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, armor, and sweet odors, horses, and mules, from year to year.

25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls of horses, and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 And he reigned over all the kings from the 1River even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king gave silver in Jerusalem, as stones, and gave cedar trees as the wild fig trees, that are abundant in the plain.

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Concerning the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of 1Iddo the Seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon 1slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

10 4, 14 The rigor of Rehoboam. 13 He followeth lewd counsel. 16 The people rebel.

1 Then 1Rehoboam 1went to Shechem: for to Shechem came all Israel to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (which was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so came Jeroboam.
and all Israel, and communed with Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke that he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said to them, Depart yet three days, then come again unto me. And the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak loving words to them, they will be thy servants forever.

8 But he left the counsel of the ancient men that they had given him, and took counsel of the young men that were brought up with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may answer this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us, lighter?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter for us: thus shalt thou say unto them, My least part shall be bigger than my father's loins.

11 Now whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet increase your yoke: my father chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 ¶ Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come again to me the third day.

13 And the king answered them sharply: and king Rehoboam left the counsel of the ancient men, 14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, but I will increase it: my father chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 16 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his own house: for this thing is done of me. They obeyed the word of the Lord, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

17 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

11 4 Rehoboam is forbidden to fight against Jeroboam.

5 Cities which he built.

21 He hath eighteen wives, and threescore concubines, and by them eight and twenty sons, and threescore daughters.

1 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin ninscore thousand chosen men of war to fight against Israel, and to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon King of Judah, and to all Israel that are in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built strong cities in Judah.

6 He built also Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth Zur, and Sochoh, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which were in Judah and Benjamin strong cities.

11 And he repaired the strongholds and put captains in them, and store of vittles, and oil and wine.
12 And in all cities he put shields and spears and made them exceedingly strong: so Judah and Benjamin were his.

13 ¶ And the Priests and the Levites that were in all Israel, resorted unto him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possessions, and came to Judah and to Jerusalem:

15 ¶ And he ordained him Priests for the high places, and for the devils and for the calves which he had made.

16 And after the Levites there came to Jerusalem of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel, to offer unto the Lord the way of David and Solomon.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon mighty, three years long: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse.

19 Which bare him sons Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zedekiah, and Jeroham.

20 And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: for he took eighteen wives and threescore concubines, and begat eight and twenty sons, and threescore daughters.

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him King.

23 And he taught him: and dispersed all his sons throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin unto every strong city: and he gave them abundance of vittles, and desired many wives.

12 1 Rehoboam forsaketh the Lord, and is punished by Shishak. 5 Shemaiah reproveth him. 6 He humbleth himself. 7 God sendeth him succor. 9 Shishak taketh his treasures. 13 His reign and death. 16 Abijah his son succeedeth him.

1 And when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and made it strong, he forsook the Law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 Thereinfore in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem (because they had transgressed against the Lord)

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen, and the people were without number, that came with him from Egypt, even the Lubim, Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the strong cities which were of Judah, and came unto Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together in Jerusalem, because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hands of Shishak.

6 Then the princes of Israel, and the King humbled themselves, and said, The Lord is just.

7 And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will send them deliverance shortly, and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants: so shall they know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the earth.

9 ¶ Then Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King's house: he took even all, and he carried away the shields of gold, which Solomon had made.

10 In stead whereof King Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that waited at the door of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and bare them and brought them again unto the guard chamber.

12 And because he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not 13:1  Abijah maketh war against Jeroboam.  4 He sheweth the occasion.  12 He trusteth in the Lord and overcometh Jeroboam.  21 Of his wives and children.

1  In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, began Abijah to reign over Judah.
2  He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother’s name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
3  And Abijah set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam also set the battle in array with the army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men which were strong and valiant.
4  And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, O Jeroboam, and all Israel, hear ye me,
5  Ought you not to know that the Lord God of Israel hath given the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?
6  And Jeroboam the son of Nebat the servant of Solomon the son of David is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord:
7  And there are gathered to him vain men and wicked, and made themselves strong against Rehoboam the son of Solomon: for Rehoboam was but a child and tender hearted, and could not resist them.
8  Now therefore ye think that ye be able to resist against the kingdom of the Lord, which is in the hands of the sons of David, and ye be a great multitude, and the golden calves are with you which Jeroboam made you for gods.
9  ‘Have ye not driven away the Priests of the Lord the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and have made you Priests like the people of other countries? whosoever cometh to consecrate with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a Priest of them that are no gods.
10  But we belong unto the Lord our God, and have not forsaken him, and the Priests the sons of Aaron minister unto the Lord, and the Levites in their office.
11  And they burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense, and the bread is set in order upon the pure table, and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the watch of the Lord our God: but ye have forsaken him.
12  And behold, this God is with us as a captain, and his Priests with the sounding trumpets to cry an alarm against you. O ye children of Israel, fight against the kingdom of the Lord, and ye be a great multitude, against the kingdom of the Lord, and ye be a great multitude.
13  ¶ But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to compass, and come behind them, when they were before Judah, and the ambushment behind them.
14  Then Judah looked, and behold, the battle was before and behind them, and they cried unto the Lord, and the Priests blew with the trumpets, 15  And the men of Judah gave a shout: and even as the men of Judah shouted, God smote Jeroboam and also Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew a great slaughter of them, so that there fell down wounded of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 So the children of Israel were brought under at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they stayed upon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, even Bethel and the villages thereof, and Jeshanah with her villages, and Ephron with her villages.

20 And Jeroboam recovered no strength again in the days of Abijah, but the Lord plagued him, and he died.

21 So Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat two and twenty sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his manners and his sayings, are written in the story of the Prophet Iddo.

3 Asa destroyeth idolatry, and commandeth his people to serve the true God. 11 He prayed unto God when he should go to fight. 12 He obtained the victory.

1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and Asa his son reigned in his stead: in whose days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God.

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the groves,

4 And commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do according to the Law and the Commandment.

5 And he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places, and the images: therefore the Kingdom was quiet before him.

6 He built also strong cities in Judah, because the land was in rest, and he had no war in those years: for the Lord had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and make walls about, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is quiet before us: because we have sought the Lord our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side: so they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of Judah, that bare shields and spears, three hundred thousand, and of Benjamin that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were valiant men.

9 ¶ And there came out against him Zerah of Ethiopia with an host of ten thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out before him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah, beside Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help with many, or with no power: help us, O Lord our God: for we rest on thee, and in thy Name are we come against this multitude: O Lord, thou art our God: let not man prevail against thee.

12 ¶ So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that was with him, pursued them unto Gerar. And the Ethiopians’ host was overthrown, so that there was no life in them: for they were destroyed before the Lord and before his host: and they carried away a mighty great spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the fear of the Lord came upon them, and they spoiled all the cities, for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 Yea, and they smote the tents of cattle, and carried away plenty of sheep and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

2 The exhortation of Azariah. 8 Asa purgeth his country of idolatry. 11 He sacrificeth with the people. 14 They swear together to serve the Lord. 16 He deposeth his mother for her idolatry.

1 Then the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Obed.

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, O Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin, hear ye me, The Lord is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye 15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn unto the Lord with all their heart, and sought him with a whole desire, and he was found of them. And the Lord gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And King Asa deposed ‘Maachah his mother from her regency, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa brake down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not ‘taken away out of Israel: yet the heart of Asa was ‘perfect all his days.

18 Also he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

16 2 Asa for fear of Baasha king of Israel, maketh a covenant with Ben-Hadad king of Aram. 7 He is reproved by the Prophet. 10 Whom he putteth in prison. 12 He putteth his trust in the Physicians. 13 His death.

1  In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa came ‘Baasha king of Israel up against Judah, and built ‘Ramah, to let none pass out or go in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the Lord, and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Aram that dwelt at ‘Damascus, saying,

3 There is a covenant between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold: come, 1break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-Hadad heartened unto King Asa, and sent the captains of the army which he had, against the cities of Israel. And they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And when Baasha heard it, he left building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah, and carried away the stones of Ramah and the timber thereof,
And at that same time Hanani the ‘Seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast rested upon the king of Aram, and not rested in the Lord thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Aram escaped out of thine hand.

7 And at that same time Hanani the ‘Seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast rested upon the king of Aram, and not rested in the Lord thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Aram escaped out of thine hand.

8 The Ethiopians and the Lubim, were they not a great host with chariots and horsemen, exceedingly many? yet because thou didst rest upon the Lord, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For the eyes of the Lord behold all the earth, to show himself strong with them that are of perfect heart toward him: thou hast then done foolishly in this: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put him into a ‘prison: for he was displeased with him, because of this thing. And Asa oppressed certain of the people at the same time.

11 And behold, the acts of Asa first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the nine and thirtieth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, and his disease was extremely: yet he sought not the Lord in his disease, but to the Physicians.

13 So Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in one of his sepulchers, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed, which they had filled with sweet odors and divers kinds of spices made by the art of the Apothecary: and they burnt odors for him with an exceeding great fire.

17 5 Jehoshaphat trusting in the Lord, prospereth in riches and honor. 6 He aboliseth idolatry, 7 and causeth the people to be taught. 11 He receiveth tribute of strangers. 13 His munitons, and men of war.

1 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and prevailed against Israel.

2 And he put garrisons in all the strong cities of Judah, and set bands in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not Baalim.

4 But sought the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandment, and not after the trade of Israel.

5 Therefore the Lord established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought presents to Jehoshaphat, so that he had of riches and honor in abundance.

6 And he lifted up his heart unto the ways of the Lord, and he took away moreover the high places and the groves out of Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, Ben-Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Michaiah, that they should teach in the cities of Judah,

8 And with them Levites, Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, Levites, and with them Elishama and Jehoram, Priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the Law of the Lord with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, and they fought not against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and tribute silver, and the Arabs brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

12 So Jehoshaphat prospered and grew up on high, and he built in Judah palaces and cities of store.

13 And he had great works in the cities of Judah, and men of war, and valiant men in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them after the house of their fathers, In Judah were captains of thousands, Adnah the captain, and with him of valiant men three hundred thousand.

15 And at his hand Jehohanan a captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

162 1 Or, Prophet.

1610 1 Hebrew, prison house.

2 Thus instead of turning to God by repentance, he disdained the admonition of the Prophet, and punished him, as the wicked do when they be told of their faults.

1612 1 Or, gouty, or swollen.

2 Or, to the top of his head.

3 God plagued his rebellion, and hereby declareth that it is nothing to begin well, except we so continue to the end, that is, zealous of God’s glory, and put our whole trust in him.

4 He showeth that it is in vain to seek to the Physicians, except we first seek to God to purge our sins, which are the chief cause of all our diseases, and after use the help of the Physician, as a means by whom God worketh.

173 1 That is, his virtues: meaning before he had committed with Bathsheba, and against Uriah.

2 Sought not help at strange Gods.

174 1 Hebrew, work.

176 1 He gave himself wholly to serve the Lord.

177 1 He knew it was in vain to profess religion, except such were appointed who could instruct the people in the same, and had authority to put away all idolatry.

1710 1 Thus God prospereth all such that with a pure heart seek his glory, and keepeth their enemies in fear, that they cannot be able to execute their rage against them.

1714 1 Hebrew, in his hand.

1715 1 Or, next to him.
16 And at his hand Amasiah the son of Zichri, which willingly offered himself unto the Lord, and with him two hundred thousand valiant men.
17 And of Benjamin, Eliada a valiant man, and with him armed men with bow and shield, two hundred thousand.
18 And at his hand Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand armed to the war.
19 These waited on the king, besides those which the king put in the strong cities throughout all Judah.

18 Jehoshaphat maketh affinity with Ahab.
10 Four hundred Prophets counsel Ahab to go to war.
16 Michaiah is against them.
23 Zedekiah smiteth him.
25 The king putteth him in prison.

1 And Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance, but he was joined in ‘affinity with Ahab.
2 And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab slew sheep and oxen for him in great number, and for the people that he had with him, and enticed him to go up unto Ramoth Gilead.
3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth Gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and we will join with thee in the war.
4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Ask counsel, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord this day.
5 Therefore the King of Israel gathered of Prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I leave off? And they said, Go up: for God shall deliver it into the king’s hand.
6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there here never a Prophet more of the Lord that we might inquire of him?
7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may ask counsel of the Lord: but I hate him: for he doth not prophesy good unto me, but always evil: it is Michaiah the son of Imla. Then Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say ‘so.
8 And the king of Israel called an eunuch, and said, Call quickly Michaiah the son of Imla.

9 ¶ And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat King of Judah sat either of them on his throne clothed in their apparel: they sat even in the threshing floor at the entering in of the gate of Samaria: and all the Prophets prophesied before them.
10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites until thou hast consumed them.
11 And all the Prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up in Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it unto the hand of the king.
12 ¶ And the messenger that went to call Michaiah, spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the Prophets declare good to the king with one accord: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.
13 And Michaiah said, As the Lord liveth, whatsoever my God saith, that will I speak.
14 ¶ So he came to the king, and the King said unto him, Michaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I leave off? And he said, ‘Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.
15 And the King said to him, How oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of the Lord?
16 Then he said, I saw all Israel scattered in the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the Lord said, ‘These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.
17 And the King of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?
18 Again he said, Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sit upon his throne, and all the ‘host of heaven standing at his right hand, and at his left.
19 And the Lord said, Who shall ‘persuade Ahab King of Israel, that he may go up, and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one spake and said thus, and another said that.
20 Then there came forth a spirit and stood before the King; and the King said, ‘What sayest thou?
21 And he said, ‘Thus saith the Lord, ‘Yet will I bring again the captivity of My people Israel: and ye shall return to this place.
22 But Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, ‘There is good truth in the thing that thou sayest.
23 And Jehoshaphat said, ‘Is there no other way, whereof the Lord may bid us prosper, and that we may return again to him with our heart?
24 Then the King of Israel gathered of the prophets four hundred, and said unto them, ‘Thus saith the Lord God of hosts; ‘How say ye?
25 And they said, ‘Thus saith the Lord God of hosts; ‘I will return to Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah, and will smite him with the sword, and with the bow, and with all the houses of Jerusalem, in whom I have set my trust.
26 And I will cast out the remains of the house of Judah, and I will give them into the hand of Ahab king of Israel, and will take him away out of his land, according as I pleasures.
27 Then Zedekiah said unto the king, ‘What shall I say unto this people? for in thine hand is the question, and in thine hand also the answer.
28 Then the king said unto him, ‘Speak to me what cometh into thine heart.
29 And he said, ‘Thou hast surely used mischievous counsels against me: therefore thou hast caused mine end to come in mine days.
30 And Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, ‘Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth Gilead? And he said, ‘I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and we will join with thee in the war.
31 And Jehoshaphat said, ‘Wilt thou persuade Ahab king of Israel? I pray thee, let me know, that I may know the way that I shall go. And Ahab said, ‘Wilt thou persuade me? ¶ Then Jehoshaphat said, ‘Thou art the one man, in least estimation, that I have found in all Israel: for the Spirit of the Lord is upon thee.
32 ¶ And he came to the king, and the King said unto him, ‘What seest thou? And he said, ‘I see a band of prophets coming down from above, having four hundred men, each having his staff girt with a sheath of wood.
33 And he said, ‘What shall we do to the king? And the king said unto Jehoshaphat, ‘What seest thou? And he said, ‘I see a band of prophets coming down from above, having four hundred men, each having his staff girt with a sheath of wood.
34 And he said, ‘Prophesy therefore to us of the king. And one of them said, ‘Thus saith the Lord, ‘One half shall surely fall in one place, and the other half in another place. And all they that are in it shall fall into the hand of the king.
35 And one said, ‘Thus saith the Lord, ‘The word shall fall upon thee. And he said, ‘The word shall fall upon thee.

22 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a false spirit in the mouth of these thy Prophets, and the Lord hath determined evil against thee. 23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Michaiah upon the cheek, and said, By what way went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speak with thee? 24 And Michaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see that day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hide thee. 25 And the King of Israel said, Take ye Michaiah, and carry him to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son, 26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. 27 And Michaiah said, If thou return in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, all ye people. 28 So the King of Israel and Jehoshaphat the King of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 29 And the King of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will change myself, and enter into the battle: but put thou on thine apparel. So the king of Israel changed himself, and they went into the battle. 30 And the king of Aram had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight you not with small nor great, but against the king of Israel only.

31 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel: and they compassed about him to fight. But Jehoshaphat cried, and the Lord helped him and moved them to depart from him. 32 For when the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the King of Israel, they turned back from him.

33 Then a certain man drew a bow mightily, and smote the King of Israel between the joints of his brigandine: Therefore he said to his chariotean, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host: for I am hurt. 34 And the battle increased that day: and the king of Israel stood still in his chariot against the Aramites until even, and died at the time of the sun going down.

19 After Jehoshaphat was rebuked by the Prophet, he called again the people to the honoring of the Lord. 5 He appointed Judges and ministers, 9 and exhorted them to fear God.

1 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safe to his house in Jerusalem. 2 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned and went through the people from Beersheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them again unto the Lord God of their fathers. 3 And he set judges in the land throughout all the strong cities of Judah, city by city. 6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye execute not the judgments of man, but of the Lord, and he will be with you in the cause and judgment.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the Lord be upon you: take heed, and do it: for there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, neither respect of persons, nor receiving of reward. 8 Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the Priests and of the chief of the families of Israel, for the judgment and cause of the Hebrew, wrath from the Lord.

21 So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem, and returned and went through the people from Beersheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them again unto the Lord God of their fathers.

4 Or, between the habergeon.

18:21 1 That is, the Lord.

18:22 1 To them that will not believe the truth, God sendeth strong delusion that they should believe lies, 2 Thess. 2:10.

18:23 1 By this cruelty, his ambition and hypocrisy was discovered: thus the hypocrites boast of the Spirit which they have not, and declare their malice against them in whom the true Spirit is.

18:25 1 Keep him straitly in prison, and let him feel hunger and thirst.

18:27 2 Or, Micaiah.

18:29 1 Thus the wicked think by their own subtlety to escape God’s judgments which he threatened by his word.

18:31 1 He cried to the Lord by acknowledging his fault in going with this wicked king to war against the word of the Lord by his Prophet, and also by desiring mercy for the same.

18:32 1 Hebrew, in his simplicity, or ignorantly.

18:34 1 He dissembled his hurt that his soldiers might fight more courageously.
Lord: and they returned to Jerusalem.
9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord faithfully and with a perfect heart.
10 And in every cause that shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in your cities, between blood and blood, between law and precept, statutes and judgments, ye shall judge them and admonish them that they trespass not against the Lord, that wrath come not upon you and upon your brethren. This shall ye do and trespass not.
11 And behold, Amariah the Priest shall be the chief over you in all matters of the Lord, and Zebediah the son of Ishmael, a ruler of the house of Judah, shall he for all the King's affairs, and the Levites shall be officers before you. Be of courage, and do it, and the Lord shall be with the good.

20 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.
4 And Judah gathered themselves together to ask counsel of the Lord: they came even out of all the cities of Judah to inquire of the Lord.
5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the Congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the house of the Lord before the new court.
6 And said, O Lord God of our fathers, art thou not our God, and shewest thyself in judgment, and dost make a separation between good and bad, so that they that forsake thee turn unto thee again?
7 Didst not our God cast out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend forever?
8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a Sanctuary therein for thy Name, saying,
9 ‘If evil come upon us, as the sword of judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and in thy presence (for thy name is in this house) and will cry unto thee in our tribulation, and thou wilt hear and help.
10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whom thou wouldest not let Israel go, when they came out of the land of Egypt: but they turned aside from them, and destroyed them not:
11 Behold, I say, they reward us, in coming to cast us out of thine inheritance, which thou hast caused us to inherit:
12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for there is no strength in us to stand before this great multitude that cometh against us, neither do we know what to do: but our eyes are toward thee.
13 And all Judah stood before the Lord with their young ones, their wives, and their children.
14 And Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, was there, upon whom came the Spirit of the Lord, in the midst of the Congregation.
15 And he said, Hearken ye all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou, King Jehoshaphat: thus saith the Lord unto you, Fear you not, neither be afraid for this great multitude: for the battle is not yours, but God's.
16 Tomorrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cleft of Ziz, and ye shall find them at the end of the brook before the wilderness of Jeruel.
17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: stand still, move not, and behold the salvation of the Lord.
towards you: O Judah, and Jerusalem, fear ye not, neither be afraid: tomorrow go out against them, and the Lord will be with you.

18 ¶ Then Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the earth, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.

19 ¶ And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 And when they arose early in the morning, they went forth to the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they departed, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear ye me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: put your trust in the Lord your God, and ye shall be assured: believe his Prophets, and ye shall prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, and appointed singers unto the Lord, and them that should praise him that is in the beautiful Sanctuary, in going forth before the men of arms, and saying,
Praise ye the Lord, for his mercy is forever.

22 And when they began to shout, and to praise, the Lord laid ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah, and they slew one another.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab rose against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to slay and to destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward Mizpah in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude: and behold, the carcases were fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both of substance and also of bodies laden with precious jewels, which they took for themselves, till they could carry no more: they were three days in gathering of the spoil: for it was much.

26 And in the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah: for there they blessed the Lord: therefore they called the name of that place, The valley of Berachah unto this day.

27 Then every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat their head to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with viols, and with harps, and with trumpets, even unto the house of the Lord.

29 And the fear of God was upon all the kingdoms of the earth, when they had heard that the Lord had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gave him rest on every side.

31 ¶ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, and was five and thirty years old, when he began to reign: and reigned five and twenty years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not there from, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jeth the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 ¶ Yet after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who was given to do evil.

36 And he joined with him, to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy works: and the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Jehoshaphat died. 3 Jehoram succeedeth him. 4 Which killeth his brethren. 6 He was brought to idolatry. 11 And succeedeth the people. 16 He is oppressed of the Philistines. 18 His miserable end.
1 Jehoshaphat then slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of gold, and of precious things, with strong cities in Judah, but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram: for he was the eldest.

4 “And Jehoram rose up upon the kingdom of his father, and made himself strong, and 1slew all his brethren with the sword, and also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was two and thirty years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done: for he had the daughter of Ahab to 1wife, and he wrought evil in the eyes of the Lord.

7 Howbeit the Lord would not destroy the house of David, because of the 2covenant that he had made with David, and because he had promised to give a light to him, and to his sons forever.

8 ¶ In his days Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over them.

9 And Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote Edom, which had compassed him in, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also, and his wives, so that there was not a son left him, save 1Jehoahaz the youngest of his sons.

10 But Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then did 1Libnah rebel at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers.

11 ¶ Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit 1fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from 1Elijah the Prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, as the house of Ahab went a whoring, and hast also slain thy brethren of thy father’s house, which were better than thou.

14 Behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy substance, 15 And thou shalt be in great diseases in the disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out for the disease, day by day.

16 ¶ So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and the Arabians that were beside the 1Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also, and his wives, so that there was not a son left him, save 1Jehoahaz the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this, the Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And in process of time, even after the end of two years, his guts fell out with his disease: so he died of sore diseases: and his people made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers.

20 When he began to reign, he was two and thirty years old, and reigned in Jerusalem eight years, 1and lived without being desired: yet they buried him in the city of David, but not among the sepulchers of the Kings.

22 Abaziah reigneth after Jehoram. 9 Jehu king of Israel killeth Ahaziah. 10 Athaliah putteth to death all the King’s lineage. 11 Joash escapeth.

1 And 1the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son King in his stead: for the army that came with 1the Arabians to the camp, had slain all the eldest: therefore Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Two and 2fourty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned 3one year in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Athaliah.

21:2 1 Read 2 Chron. 15:17, how by Israel he meant Judah.

the daughter 3of Omri.
3 He walked also in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother counseled him to do wickedly.
4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for they were his 3counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.
5 And he walked after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead: and the Aramites smote Joram.
6 ¶ And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds wherewith they had wounded him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Aram. Now Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was diseased.
7 And the destruction of Ahaziah 3came of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he was come, he went forth with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, 3whom the Lord had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.
8 Therefore when Jehu 3executed judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah that waited on Ahaziah, he slew them also.
9 And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him where he was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Jezreel, and slew him and buried him, because said they, he is the son of 3Jehoshaphat, which sought the Lord with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah was not able to retain the kingdom.
10 ¶ Therefore when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and 3destroyed all the king's seed of the house of Judah.
11 But Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons, that should be slain, and put him and his nurse in the bed chamber: so Jehoshabeath the daughter of king Jehoram the wife of Jehoada the Priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah: so she slew him not.
12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years, while Athaliah reigned over the 3land.

23:8 Joash the son of Ahaziah is made king. 15 Athaliah is put to death. 17 The temple of Baal is destroyed. 16 Jehoiada appointeth ministers in the Temple.

1 And 4in the seventh year Jehoiada waxed bold, and took the captains of hundreds, to wit, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obad, and Maaseiah the son of Adiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri in covenant with him.
2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the 'chief fathers of Israel: and they came to Jerusalem.
3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the King in the house of God: and he said unto them, Behold, the King's son must reign, 4as the Lord hath said of the sons of David.
4 This is it that ye shall do, The third part of you that come on the Sabbath of the Priests, and the Levites, shall 4be porters of the doors.
5 And another third part toward the King's house, and another third part at the 'gate of the 'foundation, and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the Lord.
6 But let no man come into the house of the Lord, save the Priests, and the Levites that minister, they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord.
7 And the Levites shall compass the King round about, and every man with his weapon in his hand, and he that entereth 4into the house, shall be slain, and be you with the king, when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.
8 ¶ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest had commanded, and took every man his men that came on the Sabbath, with them that 4went out on the Sabbath: for Jehoiada the Priest did not discharge the courses.
9 And Jehoiada the Priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and shields, and bucklers which had been King David's, and were in the house of God.
10 And he caused all the people to stand (every man with his weapon in his hand) from the right side of the house, to the left side of the house by the altar and by the 4house round about the king.

3 She was Ahab's daughter, who was the son of Omri.
4 He sheweth that it must needs follow that the rulers are such as their counselors be, and that there cannot be a good King, that suffereth wicked counselors.
5 Hereby we see how nothing can come to any but by God's providence and as he hath appointed, and therefore he causeth all means to serve to his will.
6 Or, took vengeance.
7 This was the just plague of God, because he joined himself with God's enemies: yet God to declare the worthiness of Jehoshaphat his grandfather, moved them to give him the honor of burial.
8 To the intent that there should be none to make title to the crown, and so she might usurp the government.

16 Meaning, the most holy place where the Ark stood.
11 Then they brought out the king’s son, and put upon him the crown and gave him the ‘testimony, and made him King. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and God save the king.

12 ¶ But when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the King, she came to the people into the house of the Lord.

13 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the King, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew the trumpets, and the singers were with instruments of music, and they that could sing praise: then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, "Treason, treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the Priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were governors of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges, and he that followeth her, let him die by the sword: for the Priest had said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king’s house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him and all the people, and the king, that they would be the Lord’s people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and destroyed, and brake his altars and his images, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 And Jehoiada appointed officers for the house of the Lord, under the hands of the Priests and Levites, whom David had distributed for the house of the Lord, to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing by the appointment of David.

19 And he set porters by the gates of the house of the Lord, that none that was unclean in anything, should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the noble men, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and he caused the king to come down out of the house of the Lord, and they went through the high gate of the king’s house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 Then all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 Joash repaireth the house of the Lord. 17 After the death of Jehoiada be falleth to idolatry. 21 He stoneth to death Zechariah the Prophet. 24 Joash is killed of his own servants. 27 After him reigneth Amaziah.

1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Joash did uprightly in the sight of the Lord all the days of Jehoiada the Priest.

3 And Jehoiada took him two wives, and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And afterward it came into Joash’s mind to renew the house of the Lord.

5 And he assembled the Priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God, from year to year, and haste the thing, but the Levites hasted not.

6 Therefore the king called Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of God, from year to year, and renew the house of the Lord?

7 For wicked Athaliah, and her children brake up the house of God: and all the things that were dedicated for the house of the Lord, did they bestow upon Baal.

8 Therefore the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it at the gate of the house of the Lord without.

9 And they made proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring unto the Lord the tax of Moses the servant of God, laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had finished.

11 And when it was time, they brought the chest of all the people.
unto the King's officer by the hand of the Levites: and when they saw that there was much silver, then the King's Scribe (and one appointed by the high Priest) came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again: thus they did day by day, and gathered silver in abundance.

12 And the King and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the labor and work in the house of the Lord, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord: they gave it also to workers of iron and brass, to repair the house of the Lord.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the work amended through their hands: and they restored the house of God to his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the silver before the king and Jehoiada, and he made thereof vessels for the house of the Lord, even vessels to minister, both mortars and incense cups, and vessels of gold, and of silver: and they offered burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old and was full of days, and died. An hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.

17 ¶ And after the death of Jehoiada, came the princes of Judah, and did reverence to the king, and the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem, because of this their trespass.

19 And God sent Prophets among them, to bring them again unto the Lord: and they made protestation among them, but they would not hear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the Priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord? surely ye shall not prosper: because ye have forsaken the Lord, he also hath forsaken you.

21 Then they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the Lord.

22 ¶ Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it and require it.

23 ¶ And when the year was out, the host of Aram came up against him, and they came against Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 ¶ Though the army of Aram came with a small company of men, yet the Lord delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gave sentence against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the children of Jehoiada the Priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died, and they buried him in the city of David: but they buried him not in the sepulchers of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him, Zabad the son of Shimrath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 But his sons, and the sum of the tax gathered by him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the Kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 Amaziah putteth him to death which slew his father. 10 He sendeth back them of Israel. 11 He overcometh the Edomites. 14 He falleth to idolatry. 17 And Joash king of Israel overcometh Amaziah. 27 He is slain by a conspiracy.

1 Amaziah was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did uprightly in the eyes of the Lord, but not with a perfect heart.

3 And when the kingdom was established unto him, he slew his servants, that had slain the king his father.

4 But he sloveth not their children, but did as it is written in the Law, and in the book of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying, ‘The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ And Amaziah assembled Judah, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found among them three hundred thousand chosen men, to go forth to the war, and to handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand valiant men out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But a man of God came to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee: for the Lord hath power to help, and to cast down.

8 If not, go thou on, do it, make thyself strong to the battle, but God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of GOD, What shall we do then for the hundred talents, which I have given to the host of Israel? Then the man of God answered, The Lord is able to give thee more than this.

10 So Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to return to their place: wherefore their wrath was kindled greatly against Judah, and they returned to their places with great anger.

11 Then Amaziah was encouraged, and led forth his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand did the children of Judah take alive, and carried them to the top of a rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, and they all burst to pieces.

13 But the men of the army, which Amaziah sent away, that they should not go with his people to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah from Samaria unto Beth Horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 Now after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and worshipped them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the Lord was wroth with Amaziah, and sent unto him a Prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which were not able to deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And as he talked with him, he said unto him, Have they made thee the King's counselor? cease thou: why should they smite thee? And the Prophet ceased, but said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not obeyed my counsel.

17 ¶ Then Amaziah King of Judah took counsel, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 But Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and the wild beast that was in Lebanon went and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou thinkest: lo, thou hast smitten Edom, and thine heart lifteth thee up to brag: abide now at home: why dost thou provoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, and Judah with thee?
20 But Amaziah would not hear: for it was of God, that he might deliver them into his hand, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up: and he and Amaziah king of Judah saw one another in the face at Bethshemesh, which is in Judah.

22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tents.

23 But Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, in Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with 1Obed Edom, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah first and last, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from the Lord, 1they wrought treason against him in Jerusalem: and when he was felled to Lachish, they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

26 1, 5 Uzziah obeying the Lord, prospereth in his enterprises. 16 He waxeth proud and usurpeth the Priests' office. 19 The Lord plagueth him. 20 The Priests drive him out of the Temple, and exclude him out of the Lord's house. 23 His burial, and his successor.

1 Then all the 'people of Judah took 1Uzziah which was sixteen years old, and made him king in the stead of his father Amaziah.

2 He built 1Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah, when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of 1Zechariah (which understood the visions of God) and when as 2he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper.

6 For he went forth and fought against the Philistines and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur Baal and Hammeunim.

8 And the Ammonites gave 1gifts to Uzziah, and his name spread to the entering in of Egypt: for he did most valiantly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning, and made them strong.

10 And he built towers in the wilderness, and dug many 1cisterns: for he had much cattle both in the valleys and plains, plowmen, and dressers of vines in the mountains, and in 1Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Uzziah also had an host of fighting men that went out to war by bands, according to the count of their number under the hand of Jeiel the Scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, and under the hand of Hananiah, one of the King's captains.

12 The whole 1number of the chief of the families of the valiant men were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was the army for war, three hundred and seven thousand, and five hundred that fought valiantly to help the King against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared them throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and brigandines, and bows, and stones to sling.

15 He made also very 1artificial engines in Jerusalem, to be upon the towers and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones: and his name spread far abroad, because God did help him marvelously till he was mighty.

25:20 1 This is God oft times plagueth by those means wherein men most trust, to teach them to have their recourse only to him, and to show his judgments, moveth their hearts to follow that which shall be their destruction.

25:24 1 Meaning, the successors of Obed Edom: for the house bare the name of the chief father.

26:1 1 Called also Azariah.

26:2 1 He fortified it and made it strong: this city was also called Elath and Elanon near to the red Sea.

26:5 1 This was not that Zechariah that was the son of Jehoada, but some other Prophet of that name.

26:15 1 Hebrew, engines by the invention of an inventive man.
But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the Temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him fourscore Priests of the Lord, valiant men.

And they withstood Uzziah the King, and said unto him, ‘It pertaineth not to thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the Priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: go forth of the Sanctuary: for thou hast transgressed, and thou shalt have none honor of the Lord God.

Then Uzziah was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burn it: and while he was wroth with the Priests, the leprosy rose up in his forehead before the Priests in the house of the Lord beside the incense altar.

And when Azariah the chief Priest with all the Priests looked upon him, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they caused him hastily to depart thence: and he was even compelled to go out, because the Lord had smitten him.

And Uzziah the King was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt as a leper in an house apart, because he was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Jotham his son ruled over the King’s house, and judged the people of the land.

Concerning the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz write.

So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

Jotham reigned, and overcometh the Ammonites. 8 His reign and death. 9 Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

1 Jotham was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Uzziah did, save that he entered not into the Temple of the Lord, and the people did yet corrupt their ways.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the Lord, and he built very much on the wall of the castle.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built palaces and towers.

5 And he fought with the kings of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley: this did the children of Ammon give him both in the second year and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he directed his way before the Lord his God.

7 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel, and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old, when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

1 Ahaz an idolater is given into the hands of the Syrians and the king of Israel. 9 The Prophet reproveth the Israelites’ cruelty. 18 Judah is molested with enemies. 23 Ahaz increaseth his idolatry. 26 His death and successor.

1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not uprightly in the sight of the Lord, like David his father.

2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made even molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom, and burnt his sons with fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the Lord his God delivered him into the hand of the king of the Aramites, and they smote... him, and took of his many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah sixscore thousand in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri a mighty man of Ephraim slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah the second after the king.

8 And the children of Israel took prisoners of their brethren, two hundred thousand of women, sons and daughters, and carried away much spoil of them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 ¶ But there was a Prophet of the Lord, (whose name was Oded) and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage, that reacheth up to heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem, as servants and handmaids unto you, but are not you such that sins are with you before the Lord your God?

11 Now therefore hear me, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken prisoners of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lord is toward you.

12 Wherefore certain of the chiefs of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said unto them, Bring not in the captives hither: for this shall be a sin upon us against the Lord: ye intended to add more to our sins and to our trespass, though our trespass be great, and the fierce wrath of God is against Israel.

14 So the army left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the Congregation.

15 And the men that were named by name, rose up and took the prisoners, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them meat, and gave them drink, and anointed them, and carried all that were feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho the city of Palm trees to their brethren: so they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ At that time did King Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 (For the Edomites came moreover, and slew of Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also invaded the cities in the low country, and toward the South of Judah, and took Beth Shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth and Sochoh, with the villages thereof, and Timnah, with her villages, and Gimzo, with her villages, and they dwelt there.

19 For the Lord had humbled Judah, because of Ahaz king of Israel: for he had brought vengeance upon Judah, and had grievously transgressed against the Lord.

20 And Tilgath-Pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, who troubled him and did not strengthen him.

21 For Ahaz took a portion out of the house of the Lord and out of the king's house and of the princes, and gave unto the king of Assyria: yet it helped him not.

22 And in the time of his tribulation did he yet trespass more against the Lord, (this is king Ahaz)

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which plagued him, and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice unto them, and they will help me: yet they were his ruin, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered the vessels of the house of God, and brake the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the Lord, and made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every city of Judah he made high places, to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers.

26 Concerning the rest of his acts, and all his ways and his doings, be they written in the book of the Kings of Judah, and Israel.

10 Or, Judah and Benjamin.
29 3, 5 Hezekiah repaired the Temple, and advertised the Levites of the corruption of religion. 12 The Levites prepare the Temple. 20 The king and his princes sacrifice in the Temple. 25 The Levites sing praises. 31 The oblation of the people.

1 Hezekiah began to reign, when he was five and twenty years old, and reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He opened the doors of the house of the Lord in the first year, and in the first month of his reign, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the Priests and the Levites, and gathered them into the East street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites: sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the Sanctuary.

6 For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and turned away their faces from the Tabernacle of the Lord, and turned their backs.

7 They have also shut the doors of the porch, and quenched the lamps, and have neither burnt incense, nor offered burnt offerings in the Sanctuary unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord hath been on Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath made them a scattering, a desolation, and an hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For lo, our fathers are fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for the same cause.

10 Now I purpose to make a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that he may turn away his fierce wrath from us.

11 Now my sons, be not deceived: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and to be his ministers, and to burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Abi, and Zechariah the son of Jeiel, and Shemaiah and Uzziel, and were of the Levites in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

13 And of the sons of Heman, Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzzie.

14 And they said unto the king, ‘Or, in Jerusalem.

15 And they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, ‘Or, table where the bread was set in order.

16 And the Priests went into the inner parts of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it and brought out all the uncleanliness that they found in the Temple of the Lord, into the court of the house of the Lord: and the Levites took it, to carry it out unto the brook Kidron.

17 They began the first day of the first month to sanctify it, and the eight day of the month came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month, they made an end.

18 ¶ Then they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, ‘Or, concerning the things of the Lord.

19 And all the vessels which King Ahaz had cast aside when he reigned, and transgressed, have we prepared and sanctified: and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

20 ¶ And Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of the Lord.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the Priests the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the Lord.

22 So they slew the bullocks, and the Priests... received the blood, and sprinkled it upon the altar: they slew also the rams, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar, and they slew the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 Then they brought the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the Congregation, and they laid their hands upon them.

24 And the Priests slew them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the altar to reconcile all Israel: for the king had commanded for all Israel the burnt offering, and the sin offering.

25 He appointed also the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals, with viols, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and Gad the King's Seer, and Nathan the Prophet: for the commandment was by the hand of the Lord, and by the hand of his Prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar: and when the burnt offering began, the song of the Lord began with the trumpets, and the instruments of David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, singing a song, and they blew the trumpets: all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to praise the Lord with the words of David, and of Asaph the Seer. So they praised with joy, and they bowed themselves, and worshipped.

31 And Hezekiah spake, and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves to the Lord: come near and bring the sacrifices and offerings of praise into the house of the Lord. And the Congregation brought sacrifices and offerings of praises, and every man that was willing in heart offered burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the Congregation brought, was seventy bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord:

33 And for sanctification six hundred bullocks, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the Priests were too few, and were not able to flay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till they had ended the work, and until other Priests were sanctified: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the Priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were many, with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for the burnt offering: so the service of the house of the Lord was set in order.

36 Then Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had made the people so ready: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 1, 13 The keeping of the Passover by the king's commandment. 6 He exhorted Israel to turn to the Lord. 18 He prayeth for the people. 24 His oblation and the princes. 27 The Levites bless the people.

1 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 And the king and his princes and all the Congregation had taken counsel in Jerusalem to keep the Passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at this time, because there were not Priests enough sanctified, neither was the people gathered to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king, and all the Congregation.

5 And they decreed to make proclamation throughout all Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a great time, as it was written.

6 ¶ So the posts went with letters by the commission of the King, and his princes, throughout all Israel and Judah, and with the commandment of the King, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant that are 29:22 1 For without sprinkling of blood nothing could be sanctified, Heb. 9:21; Exod. 24:8.

29:23 1 That is, the King and the Elders, as Lev. 4:15, for they that offered a sin offering, must lay their hands upon it, to signify that they had deserved that death, and also that they did consecrate it to God to be thereby sanctified, Exod. 29:10.
29:25 1 This thing was not appointed of man, but it was the commandment of God.
29:27 1 The Psalm which David had appointed to be sung for thanksgiving.
29:30 1 With that Psalm whereof mention is made, 1 Chron. 16:7.
29:31 1 Hebrew, filled your hands.
29:33 1 That is, for the holy offerings.
29:34 1 Meaning, were more zealous to set forward the religion.
29:36 1 He sheweth that religion cannot proceed except God touch the heart of the people.
30:1 1 Meaning, all Israel, whom Tiglath-Pileser had not taken away into the captivity, 2 Kings 15:29.
30:2 1 Though they ought to have done it in the first month, as Exod. 12:18; Num. 9:3, yet if any were not clean, or else had a long journey, they might defer it unto the second month, as Num. 9:10, 11.
30:5 1 From one end of the land to the other, North and South.
30:6 1 In such sort and perfection as God had appointed.
escaped of you, out of the hands of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers: and therefore he made them desolate, as ye see.

8 Be not ye now stiff-necked like your fathers, but give the hand to the Lord, and come into his Sanctuary, which he hath sanctified forever, and serve the Lord your God, and the fierceness of his wrath shall turn away from you.

9 For if ye return unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall find mercy before them that led them captives, and they shall return unto this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye convert unto him.

10 ¶ So the posts went from city to city through the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, divers of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun, submitted themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 And the hand of God was in Judah, so that he gave them one heart to do the commandment of the king, and of the rulers, according to the word of the Lord.

13 And there assembled to Jerusalem much people, to keep the feast of the unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly.

14 ¶ And they arose, and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all those for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Afterward they slew the Passover the fourteenth day of the second month: and the Priests and Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the Law of Moses the man of God: and the Priests sprinkled the blood returned of the hands of the Levites.

17 Because there were many in the Congregation that were not sanctified, therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the Passover for all that were not clean, to sanctify it to the Lord.

18 For a multitude of the people, even a multitude of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not cleansed themselves, yet did eat the Passover, but not as it was written: wherefore Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Lord be merciful toward him.

19 That prepareth his whole heart to seek the Lord God, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed, according to the purification of the Sanctuary.

20 And the Lord heard Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem, kept the feast of the unleavened bread seven days with great joy, and the Levites, and the priests praised the Lord day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the Lord.

22 And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that had good knowledge to sing unto the Lord: and they did eat in that feast seven days, and offered peace offerings, and praised the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep it another seven days. So they kept it seven days with joy.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah had given to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and seven thousand sheep. And the princes had given to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheep: and many Priests were sanctified.

25 And all the Congregation of Judah rejoiced with the Priests and the Levites, and all the Congregation that came out of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like thing in Jerusalem.

27 Then the Priests and the Levites arose, and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up unto heaven, to his holy habitation.

1 And when all these things were finished, all Israel, that were found in the cities of Judah, went out and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake down the high places, and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had made an end: afterward all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the Priests and Levites by their turns, every man according to his office, both Priests and Levites for the burnt offering and peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the Lord.

3 And when the commandment was spread, the people destroyed idolatry.

4 He commanded also the people that dwelt in Jerusalem, to give a part to the Priests, and Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the Lord.

5 ¶ And when the commandment was spread, the children of Israel brought abundance of firstfruits, of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field, and the tithes of all things brought they abundantly.

6 And the children of Israel and Judah that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought the tithes of bullock and sheep, and the holy tithes which were consecrated unto the Lord their God, and laid them on many heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 ¶ And when Hezekiah and the princes came, and saw the heaps, they blessed the Lord and his people Israel.

9 And Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief Priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the Lord, we have eaten, and have been satisfied, and there is left in abundance: for the Lord hath blessed his people, and this abundance that is left.

11 ¶ And Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord: and they prepared them.

12 And brought in the firstfruits, and the tithes, and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them was Conaniah the Levite the chief, and Shimei his brother the second.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jeremoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers by the appointment of Conaniah, and Shimei his brother, and by the commandment of Hezekiah the King, and of Azariah the chief of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, porter toward the East, was over the things that were willingly offered unto God, to distribute the oblations of the Lord, and the holy things that were consecrated.

15 And at his hand were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shechaniah, in the cities of the Priests, to distribute with fidelity to their brethren by courses, both to the great and small.

16 Their daily portion: beside their generation, being males from three years old and above, even to all that entered into the house of the Lord to their office in their charge, according to their courses:

17 Both to the generation of all their children, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters throughout all the Congregation: for by their fidelity are they partakers of the holy things.

18 And to the sons of Aaron, the Priests, who were in the fields and suburbs of their cities, in every city the men that were appointed by names, should give portions to all the males of the Priests, and to all the generation of the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and did well, and uprightly, and truly before the Lord his God.

21 And in all the works that he began for the service of the house of God, both in the Law and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah.  3 Hezekiah prepareth for the war.  7 He exhorteth the people to put their trust in the Lord.  9 Sennacherib blasphemeth God.  20 Hezekiah prayeth.  21 The Angel destroyeth the Assyrians and the king is slain.  25 Hezekiah is not thankful toward the Lord.  33 His death.

1 After these things faithfully described, “Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered into Judah, and besieged the strong cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that his purpose was to fight against Jerusalem,

3 Then he took counsel with his princes and his nobles, to stop the water of the fountains without the city: and they did help him.

4 So many of the people assembled themselves, and stopped all the fountains, and the river that ran through the midst of the country, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 And he took courage, and built all the broken wall, and made up the towers, and another wall without, and repaired 2Millo in the 3city of David, and made many 4darts and shields.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and assembled them to him in the broad place of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably unto them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous: fear not, neither be afraid for the king of Assyria, neither for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us, than is with him.

8 With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the 3Lord our God for to help us, and to fight our battles. Then the people were confirmed by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ‘After this, did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (while he was against Lachish, and all his dominion with him) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 ‘Thus saith Sennacherib the king of Assyria, Wherein do ye trust, that ye will remain in Jerusalem, during the siege?

11 Doth not Hezekiah entice you to give over yourselves unto death by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Judah, and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other countries? were the gods of the nations of other lands able to deliver their land out of mine hand?

14 Who is he of all the gods of those nations (that my fathers have destroyed) that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor seduce you after this sort, neither believe ye him: for none of all the gods of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your gods deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the Lord God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters, blaspheming the Lord God of Israel, and speaking against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other countries could not deliver their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to fear them and to astonish them, that they might take the city.

19 Thus they spake against the God of Jerusalem, 25  But Hezekiah did not render according to the dangers.

26  Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself (after that his heart was lifted up) he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the wrath of the Lord came upon them, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

27  Hezekiah also had exceeding much riches and honor, and he got him treasures of silver, and of gold, and of precious stones, and of sweet odors, and of honor, and he got him treasures of silver, and of gold, and of precious stones, and of sweet odors, and of shields, and of all pleasant vessels: And of store houses for the increase of wheat and wine and oil, and stalls for all beasts, and rows for the stables.

28  And of store houses for the increase of wheat and wine and oil, and stalls for all beasts, and rows for the stables.

29  And he made him cities, and had possession of sheep and oxen in abundance: for God had given him substance exceeding much.

30  This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water springs of Gihon, and led them straight underneath toward the city of David Westward: so Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31  But because of the ambassadors of the princes of Babel, which sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, and to know all that was in his heart.

32  Concerning the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33  So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest sepulcher of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death, and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

Manasseh an idolater. 9 He causeth Judah to err. 11 He is led away prisoner into Babylon. 12 He prayeth to the Lord, and is delivered. 14 He abolisheth idolatry. 16 and setteth up true religion. 20 He dieth, and Amon his son succeedeth. 24 Whom his own servants slay.

1 Manasseh was twelve years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned and fifty years in Jerusalem:

2 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went back and built the high places, which Hezekiah his father had broken down: and he set up altars for Baal, and made groves and worshipped the abominations of the heathen, which also was called Shiloah [Siloam], whereof mention is made, Isa. 8:6; John 9:7.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said, 'In Jerusalem shall my Name be forever.

7 He put also the carved image, which he had made, in the house of God: whereof the Lord had said, 'In Jerusalem shall my Name be forever.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the Lord spake to 11 Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh and put him in fetters, and bound him in chains, and carried him to Babel.

12 And when he was in tribulation, he prayed to the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and God was entreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom; then Manasseh knew that the Lord was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the West side of 15 And he took away the strange gods and the image out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 Also he prepared the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and of thanks, and took away the strange gods and the image out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that Manasseh his father had made, and served them.

17 And he humbled not himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself: but this Amon trespassed more and more.

18 ¶ Concerning the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the Seers, that spake to him in the Name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old, when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did evil in the sight of the Lord, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the images, which Manasseh his father had made, and served them.

23 And he humbled not himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself: but this Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against King Amon: and the people of the land made Josiah his son King in his stead.

34 1 Josiah destroyeth the idols. 8 And restoreth the Temple. 14 The book of the Law is found. 21 He sendeth to Huldah the Prophetess for counsel. 27 God heareth his prayer. 31 He maketh a covenant with God.

3 And in the eighth year of his reign (when he was yet a child) he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah, and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and molten images.

4 And they brake down in his sight the altars of Baal, and he caused to cut down the images that were on high upon them: he brake also the groves, and the carved images and the molten images, and stamped them to powder, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 Also he burnt the bones of the Priests upon because it is here mentioned and is written in the Greek, we have placed it in the end of this book.

33:19 ¶ Or, Hozai.

33:20 Because he had so horribly offended against the Lord, they did not bury him in the sepulchers of the Kings, but in the garden of the King's house.

34:2 ¶ He followed David in all points that he followed the Lord.

34:3 ¶ When he was but sixteen years old he showed himself zealous of God's glory, and at twenty years old he abolished idolatry, and restored the true religion.

their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.
6 And in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mauls they brake all round about.
7 And when he had destroyed the altars, and the groves, and had broken and stamped to powder the images, and had cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.
8 ¶ Then in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the Recorder to repair the house of the Lord his God.
9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high Priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the door, had gathered at the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and of all the residue of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
10 And they put it in the hands of them that should do the work, and had the oversight in the house of the Lord: and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the Lord to repair and amend the house.
11 Even to the workmen and to the builders gave they it to buy hewed stone and timber for couples, and for beams of the houses, which the kings of Judah had destroyed.
12 And the men did the work faithfully, and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the children of Merari, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the children of the Kohathites to set it forward: and of the Levites all that could skill of instruments of music.
13 And they were over the bearers of burdens, and them that set forward all the workmen in every work: and of the Levites were scribes, and officers and porters.
14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the Priest found the book of the Law of the Lord given by the hand of Moses.
15 Therefore Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the chancellor, I have found the book of the Law in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.
16 And Shaphan carried the book to the King, and brought the King word again, saying, All that is committed to the hand of thy servants, that do they.
17 For they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hands of the overseers, and to the hands of the workmen.
18 Also Shaphan the chancellor declared to the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath given me a book, and Shaphan read it before the King.
19 And when the King had heard the words of the Law, he tare his clothes.
20 And the King commanded Hilkiah and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,
21 Go and inquire of the Lord for me, and for the rest in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this book.
22 Then Hilkiah and they that the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvath, the son of Harah keeper of the wardrobe (and she dwelt in Jerusalem within the college) and they communed hereof with her.
23 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,
24 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses, that are written in the book which they have read before the King of Judah:
25 Because they have forsaken me, and burnt incense unto other gods, to anger me with all the works of their hands, therefore shall my wrath fall upon this place, and shall not be quenched.
26 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words which thou 34:9 Or, they returned to Jerusalem.

34:10 Meaning Shaphan, etc.
34:11 For there were many portions and pieces annexed to the Temple.
34:12 Meaning, that they were in such credit for their fidelity, that they made none accounts of that which they received, 2 Kings 22:7, 9.
34:14 Read 2 Kings 22:8.
34:16 For the king was commanded to have continually a copy of this book, and to read therein day and night, Deut. 17:18.
34:19 For sorrow that the word of God had been so long suppressed and the people kept in ignorance, considering also the curses contained therein against the transgressors.
34:21 Thus the godly do not only lament their own sins, but also that their fathers and predecessors have offended God.
34:22 Or, Tikvath.
34:23 Or, Harhas.

hast heard, shall come to pass.

27 But because thine heart did melt, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and testest thy clothes, and weptest before me, I have also heard it, saith the Lord.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy grave in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the evil, which I will bring upon this place and upon the inhabitants of the same. Thus they brought the King word again.

29 ¶ Then the King sent and gathered all the Elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the King went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the Priests and the Levites, and all the people from the greatest to the smallest, and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the Covenant that was found in the house of the Lord.

31 And the King stood by his pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all his heart, and with all his soul, and that he would accomplish the words of the Covenant written in the same book.

32 And he caused all that were found in Jerusalem, and Benjamin to stand to it: and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the Covenant of God, even the God of their fathers.

33 So Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and compelled all that were found in Israel, to serve the Lord their God: so all his days they turned not back from the Lord God of their fathers.

35 1 Josiah keepeth the Passover. 2 He setteth forth God's service. 20 He fighteth against the king of Egypt, and dieth. 24 The people bewail him.

1 Moreover, Josiah kept a Passover unto the Lord in Jerusalem, and they slew the Passover in the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he appointed the Priests to their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the Lord,

3 And he said unto the Levites that taught all Israel and were sanctified unto the Lord, Put the holy Ark in the house which Solomon the son of David King of Israel did build: it shall be no more a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the Lord your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers according to your courses, as David the king of Israel hath written, and according to the writing of Solomon his son,

5 And stand in the Sanctuary according to the division of the families of your brethren the children of the people, and after the division of the family of the Levites:

6 So kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren that they may do according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

7 Josiah also gave to the people sheep, lambs and kids, all for the Passover, even to all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes offered willingly unto the people, to the Priests and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God gave unto the Priests for the Passover, even two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred bullocks.

9 Conaniah also and Shemaiah and Nethanel his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel, and Jozabad, chief of the Levites gave unto the Levites for the Passover, five thousand sheep, and five hundred bullocks.

10 Thus the service was prepared, and the Priests stood in their places, also the Levites in their orders, according to the king's commandment:

11 And they slew the Passover, and the Priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, and the Levites flayed them.
12 And they took away from the burnt offering to give it according to the divisions of the families of the children of the people, to offer unto the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses, and so of the bullocks.

13 And they roasted the Passover with fire, according to the custom, but the sacred things they sod in pots, pans, and cauldrons, and distributed them quickly to all the people.

14 Afterward also they prepared for themselves and for the Priests: for the Priests the sons of Aaron were occupied in offering of burnt offerings, and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the Priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph stood in their standing according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king’s Seer: and the porters at every gate, who might not depart from their service: therefore their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the Lord was prepared the same day to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of King Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the Passover the same time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was no Passover kept like that in Israel, from the days of Samuel the Prophet: neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the Priests and the Levites, and all Judah, and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 This Passover was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

20 ¶ After this, when Josiah had prepared the Temple Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Perath and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent messengers to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house of mine enemy, and God commanded me to make haste: leave off to come against God, which is with me, lest he destroy thee.

22 But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but changed his apparel to fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho, which were of the mouth of God, but came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the shooters shot at king Josiah: then the king said to his servants, Carry me away, for I am very sick.

24 So his servants took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot which he had, and when they had brought him to Jerusalem, he died, and was buried in the sepulchers of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented Josiah, and all singing men and singing women mourned for Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made the same for an ordinance unto Israel: and behold, they be written in the Lamentations.

26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, doing as it was written in the Law of the Lord, and his deeds first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel, and Judah.

36 After Josiah reigned Jehoaaz. 4 After Jehoaaz, Jehoiakim. 8 After him Jehoiachin. 11 After him Zedekia. 14, 17 In whose time all the people were carried away to Babel for contemning the Admonition of the Prophets. 22 And were restored again the seventieth year after by king Cyrus.

1 Then the people of the land took Jehoaaz the son of Josiah, and made him King in his father’s stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoaaz was three and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt took him away at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 ¶ And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim: and Necho took Jehoaaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Jehoiakim was five and twenty years old when... he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and did evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babel, and bound him with chains to carry him to Babel.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babel, and put them in his temple at Babel.

8 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found upon him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and did evil in the sight of the Lord.

10 And when the year was out, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babel, with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the Prophet at the commandment of the Lord.

13 But he rebelled moreover against Nebuchadnezzar, which had caused him to swear by God: and he hardened his neck and made his heart obstinate, that he might not return to the Lord God of Israel.

14 All the chief of the Priests also and of the people trespassed wonderfull, according to all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the houses of the Lord which he had sanctified in Jerusalem.

15 Therefore the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising early and sending:

for he had compassion on his people, and on his habitation.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his Prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, and till there was no remedy.

17 For he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their Sanctuary, and spared neither young man nor virgin, ancient, nor aged. God gave all into his hand, 18 And all the vessels of the house of God great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes: all these carried he to Babel.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and all the precious vessels thereof, to destroy all.

20 And they that were left by the sword, carried he away to Babel, and they were servants to him, and to his sons, until the kingdom of the Persians had rule, 21 To fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had her fill of her Sabbaths: for all the days that she lay desolate, she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

22 ¶ But in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia (when the word of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, was finished) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he made a proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and hath commanded me to build him an house in Jerusalem, that is in Judah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is? let him go up.

365 1 Because he and the people turned not to God by his first plague, he brought a new upon him, and at length rooted them out.

366 1 He meaneth superstitious marks which were found upon his body, when he was dead, which thing declared how deeply idolatry was rooted in his heart, seeing he bare the marks in his flesh.

369 1 That is, he began his reign at eight years old, and reigned ten years when his father was alive, and after his father's death, which was the eighteenth year of his age, he reigned alone three months and ten days.

3610 1 Or, uncle.

3615 1 Hebrew, by the hand of his.

2 By this phrase the Scripture meaneth, oftentimes, and diligently, as Jer. 11:7 and 25:3 and 26:5 and 32:33.

3616 1 Till God could no longer suffer their sins, but must needs punish them.

3617 1 Whither they fled, thinking to have been saved for the holiness thereof.

2  Which is not because God approveth him, which yet is the minister of his justice, but because God would by his just judgment punish this people: for this king was led with ambition and vain glory, whereunto were joined fury and cruelty; therefore his work was condemnable, notwithstanding it was just and holy on God's part, who used this wicked instrument to declare his justice.

3620 1 When Cyrus King of Persia had made the Babylonians subject.

3621 1 Who threatened the vengeance of God and seventy years captivity, which he calleth the Sabbaths or rest of the land, Jer. 25:11.

3622 1 In the first year that he reigned over the Chaldeans, Ezra 1:1.

3623 1 God had so forewarned by his Prophet above an hundred years before Cyrus was born, Isa. 44:28, that Jerusalem and the Temple should be built again by Cyrus his anointed: so called, because God used his service for a time to deliver his Church.
1 Cyrus sendeth again the people that was in captivity.  8 and restoreth them their holy vessels.

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus King of Persia (that the word of the LORD, spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, might be accomplished) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, and he made a proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus King of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he hath commanded me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is he among you of all his people with whom his God is? let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel: he is the God, which is in Jerusalem.

4 And everyone that remaineth in any place (where he sojourneth) let the men of his place relieve him with silver and with gold, and with substance, and with cattle, and with a willing offering, for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then the chief fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the Priests and the Levites rose up, with all them whose spirit God had raised to go up, to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them, strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with substance and with cattle, besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also the king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his god.

8 Even them did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them unto Sheshbazzar the Prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them, thirty basins of gold, a thousand basins of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty bowls of gold, and of silver bowls of the second sort, four hundred and ten, and of other vessels, a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and silver were five thousand and four hundred. Sheshbazzar brought up all with them of the captivity that came up from Babel to Jerusalem.

The number of them that returned from the captivity.

1 These also are the sons of the province that went up out of the captivity (whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babel had carried away unto Babel) and returned to Jerusalem, and to Judah, everyone unto his city,

2 Which came up with Zerubbabel, to wit, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel was,

3 The sons of Parosh, two thousand, an hundred seventy and two:

4 The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred, seventy and two:

5 The sons of Arah, seven hundred, and seventy and five:

6 The sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua, and Joab, two thousand, eight hundred and twelve:

7 The sons of Elam, a thousand, two hundred and forty:

8 The sons of Zattu, nine hundred and five and forty:

1:1 1 After that he and Darius had won Babylon.
2 2 Who promised them deliverance after that seventy years were past, Jer. 25:12.
3 3 That is, moved him, and gave him heart.
1:2 1 For he was chief Monarch, and had many nations under his dominion, which this heathen king confesseth to have received of the living God.
1:4 1 If any through poverty were not able to return, the king's commission was that he should be furnished with necessaries.
2:1 1 Meaning, Judaea, which was a province, that is, a country which was in subjection.
2:2 1 Zerubbabel was chief captain, and Jeshua the high Priest: but Nehemiah a man of great authority went not now, but came after 64 years.
2:6 1 Or, of the Duke of Moab.
9 The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and three-score:
10 The sons of Bani, six hundred and two and forty:
11 The sons of Bebai, six hundred, and three and twenty:
12 The sons of Azgad, a thousand, two hundred and two and twenty:
13 The sons of Adonikam, six hundred, three score and six:
14 The sons of Bigvai, two thousand, and six and fifty:
15 The sons of Adin, four hundred and four and fifty:
16 The sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight:
17 The sons of Bezai, three hundred and three and twenty:
18 The sons of Jorah, an hundred and twelve:
19 The sons of Hashum, two hundred and three and twenty:
20 The sons of Gibbar, ninety and five:
21 The sons of Bethlehem, an hundred and three and twenty:
22 The men of Netophah, six and fifty:
23 The men of Anothoth, an hundred and eight and twenty:
24 The sons of Azmaveth, two and forty:
25 The sons of Kirjath Arim, of Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and three and forty:
26 The sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and one and twenty:
27 The men of Michmas, an hundred and two and twenty:
28 The sons of Bethel, and Ai, two hundred and three and twenty:
29 The sons of Nebo, two and fifty:
30 The sons of Magbish, an hundred and six and fifty:
31 The sons of the other Elam, a thousand, and two hundred and four and fifty:
32 The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty:
33 The sons of Lod, Haddid, and Ono, seven hundred and five and twenty:
34 The sons of Jericho, three hundred and five and forty:
35 The sons of Senaa, three thousand six hundred and thirty:
36 The Priests: of the sons of Jedediah of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three:
37 The sons of Immer, a thousand and two and fifty:
38 The sons of Pashur, a thousand, two hundred and seven and forty:
39 The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
40 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, and Kadmiel of the sons of Hodaviah, seventy and four.
41 The Singers: the sons of Asaph, an hundred and eight and twenty.
42 The sons of the porters: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai: all were an hundred and nine and thirty.
43 The Nethinim: the sons of Ziaha, the sons of Hassapha, the sons of Tabbaoth, 44 The sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon,
45 The sons of Lebanon, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub,
46 The sons of Hagab, the sons of Shamlai, the sons of Hanan,
47 The sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,
48 The sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, 49 The sons of Uza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai,
50 The sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim,
51 The sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhar, 52 The sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
53 The sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Thamah,
54 The sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha,
55 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, 56 The sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 57 The sons of Shephatia, the sons of Hartil, the sons of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the sons of Ami.
58 All the Nethinim, and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred ninety and two.
59 And these went up from Tel Melah, and from Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they could not discern their father's house and their seed, whether they were of Israel.
60 The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the

2:21 That is, inhabitants, for so this word (some) signifieth when it is joined with the names of places.
2:26 Before he hath declared the two tribes of Judah and Benjamin, and now cometh to the tribe of Levi, and beginneth at the Priests.
2:43 So called, because they were given to the Temple, to cut wood and bear water for the use of the sacrifices, and came of the Gibeonites, which were appointed to this use by Joshua, Josh. 9:23.
2:55 Which came of them that Solomon had appointed for the work of the Temple.
sons of Nekoda, six hundred and two and fifty.

61 And of the sons of the Priests, the sons of Habaijah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzilai: which took of the daughters of Barzilai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

62 These sought their writing of the genealogies, but they were not found: therefore were they put from the Priesthood.

63 And Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy thing, till there rose up a Priest with Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole Congregation together was two and forty thousand, three hundred and three-score, 65 Beside their servants and their maids: of whom were seven thousand, three hundred and seven and thirty; and among them were two hundred singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred, and six and thirty: their mules, two hundred, and five and forty:

67 Their camels four hundred, and five and thirty: their asses, six thousand, seven hundred and twenty,

68 And certain of the chief fathers, when they came to the house of the Lord, which was in Jerusalem, they offered willingly for the house of God, to set it up upon his foundation.

69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work, even one and threescore thousand 1drams of gold, and five thousand 2pieces of silver, and an hundred Priests' garments.

70 So the Priests and the Levites, and a certain of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3:2 2 They build the Altar of God.  6 They offer to the Lord.  7 They prepare for the Temple.  11 And they sing unto the Lord.

1 And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in their cities, the people assembled themselves as one man unto Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the Altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God,

3 And they set the Altar upon his bases (for fear was among them, because of the people of those countries) therefore they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt offerings in the morning, and at even.

4 They kept also the feast of the Tabernacles, as it is written, and they burnt offering daily, by number according to the custom day by day.

5 And afterward the continual burnt offering, both in the new months and in all the feast days that were consecrated unto the Lord, and in all the oblations willingly offered unto the Lord.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord: but the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the workmen, and meat and drink, and oil unto them of Zidon and of Tyre, to bring them cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea unto Japho, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 And in the second year of their coming unto the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come out of captivity unto Jerusalem, and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord.

9 And Jeshua stood with his sons, and his brethren, and Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God, and the sons of Henadad with their sons, and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they appointed the Priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 Thus they sang when they gave praise, and when they gave thanks unto the Lord, For he is good, for his mercy endureth forever toward Israel.
And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.

12 Many also of the Priests and the Levites and the chief of the fathers, ancient men which had seen the first house, (when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes) wept with a loud voice, and many shouted aloud for joy.

13 So that the people could not discern the sound of the shout for joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud cry, and the noise was heard far off.

4 2 The building of the Temple is hindered, and bow.
11 Letters to Artaxerxes, and the answer.

1 But the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard, that the children of the captivity built the Temple unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief fathers, and said unto them, We will build with you: for we seek the Lord your God as ye do, and we have sacrificed unto him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, which brought us up hither.

3 Then Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief fathers of Israel said unto them, It is not for you, but for us to build the house unto our God: for we ourselves together will build it unto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Wherefore the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And they hired counselors against them, to hinder their devise all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus (in the beginning of his reign) wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Mithredath, Tabed, and the rest of their companions wrote, when it was peace, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was the Aramites writing, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites.

8 Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king, in this sort.

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions Dinai, and Apharsathcai, Tarpelai, Persia, Bablai, Shushanchai, Dehave, Elamai,

10 And the rest of the people whom the great and noble Osnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are beyond the River and Cheeneth.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto King Artaxerxes, THY SERVANTS the men beyond the River and Cheeneth, salute thee.

12 Be it known unto the King that the Jews, which came up from thee to us, are come unto Jerusalem (a city rebellious and wicked) and build, and lay the foundations of the walls, and have joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be built, and the foundations of the walls laid, they will not give toll, tribute, nor custom: so shalt thou hinder the king's tribute.

14 ¶ Now therefore because we have been brought up in the King's palace, it was not meet for us to see the King's dishonor: for this cause have we sent and certified the King.

15 That one may search in the book of the Chronicles of thy fathers, and thou shalt find in the book of the Chronicles, and perceive that this city is rebellious and noisome unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition of old time, for which cause this city was destroyed.

16 We certify the king therefore, that if this city be built, and the foundation of the walls laid, by this means the portion beyond the River shall not be thine.

17 ¶ The King sent an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwelt in Samaria, and unto the other beyond the River, Shelah and Cheeeth.

3:12 1 Because they saw that it was nothing so glorious as that Temple, which Solomon had built, notwithstanding Aggeus comforteth them, and prophesieth that it shall be more beautiful than the first: meaning the spiritual Temple, which are the members of Christ's body.

4:1 1 Meaning, the inhabitants of Samaria, whom the king of Assyria had placed in the stead of the ten tribes, 2 Kings 17:24 and 19:37. These professed God, but worshipped idols also, and therefore were the greatest enemies to the true servants of God.

4:3 1 For they perceived what their pretense was, to wit, to erect idolatry instead of true religion.

4:4 1 Hebrew, made their hands weak.

4:5 1 They bribed the governors under the king to hinder their work: Thus they that halt, cannot abide that God should be purely served.

4:6 1 He was also called Artaxerxes, which is a Persian name, some think it was Cambises Cyrus' son, or Darius, as verse 5.

4:7 1 Called Artaxerxes, which signifieth in the Persian tongue, an excellent warrior.

4:8 1 Or, counselor.

4:9 1 These were certain people which the Assyrians placed in the cities of Samaria instead of the ten tribes.

4:10 1 Some think it was Sennacherib, but rather Shalmaneser.

4:12 1 To wit, Euphrates: and he meaneth in respect of Babel that they dwelt beyond it.

4:13 1 Meaning, the gifts that are wont to be given to kings when they pass by any country.

4:14 1 Hebrew, in the Chaldea, we have eaten the salt of the palace.

4:17 1 Some read for Shalom, salutation or greeting.

2 Called also Cheeneth, as verse 11.
18 ¶ The letter which ye sent unto us, hath been openly read before me, 19 And I have commanded and they have searched, and found, that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and hath rebelled, and rebellion hath been committed therein.
20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all beyond the River, and toll, tribute and custom was given unto them.
21 Make ye now a decree that those men may cease, and that the city be not built, till I have given another commandment.
22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to hurt the king?
23 When the copy of king Artaxerxes's letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in all the haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and caused them to cease by force and power.
24 Then ceased the work of the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, and did stay unto the second year of Darius king of Persia.

5 1 Haggai and Zechariah do prophecy. 3 The work of the Temple goeth forward contrary to the mind of Tattenai. 6 His letters to Darius.
1 Then ^{1}Haggai a Prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo a Prophet prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah, and Jerusalem, in the Name of the God of Israel, even unto them.
2 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jozadak arose, and began to build the house of God at Jerusalem, and with them were the Prophets of God, which ^{1}helped them.
3 ¶ At the same time came to them Tattenai which was captain beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, What hath given you commandment to build this house, and to lay the foundations of these walls?
4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that build this building?
5 But the ^{1}eye of their God was upon the Elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they answered by letters thereunto.
6 The copy of the letter, that Tattenai captain beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai and his companions, Persians, (which were beyond the river) sent unto King Darius.
7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein it was written thus, UNTO DARIUS the king, all peace.
8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is built with ^{1}great stones, and beams are laid in the walls, and this work is wrought speedily, and prospereth in their hands.
9 Then asked we those Elders, and said unto them thus, Who hath given you commandment to build this house, and to lay the foundation of these walls?
10 We asked their names also that we might certify thee, and that we might write the names of the men that were their rulers.
11 But they answered us thus, and said, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was built of old and many years ago, which a ^{1}great king of Israel ^{1}built, and founded it.
12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them over into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babel the Chaldean, and he destroyed this house, and carried the people away captive unto Babel.
13 But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babel, King Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.
14 And the vessels of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the Temple, that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the Temple of Babel, those did Cyrus the king take out of the Temple of Babel, and they gave them unto one ^{1}Sheshbazzar by his name, whom he had made captain.
15 And he said unto him, Take these vessels and go thy way, and put them in the Temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in his place.
16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar and laid the foundation of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem, and since that time even until now, hath it been in building, yet is it not finished.
17 Now therefore if it please the king, let there be search made in the house of the king's ^{1}treasures, which is there in Babel, whether a decree hath been made by king Cyrus, to build this house of God in Jerusalem, and let the King send his mind concerning this.

6 At the commandment of Darius king of Persia, after the Temple was built and dedicated, the children of Israel keep the feast of unleavened bread.
1 Then king Darius gave commandment, and they made search in the library of the treasures, which were there laid up in Babel.

2 And there was found in a coffer (in the palace that was in the province of the Medes) a volume, and therein was it thus written, as a memorial,

3 IN THE FIRST year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus made a decree for the house of God in Jerusalem. Let the house be built, even the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the walls thereof be joined together: let the height thereof be threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits, 4 Three orders of great stones, and one order of timber, and let the expenses be given of the king's house.

5 And also let them render the vessels of the house of God (of gold and silver, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the Temple, which was in Jerusalem, and brought unto Babel) and let him go unto the Temple that is in Jerusalem to his place, and put them in the house of God.

6 Therefore Tattenai captain beyond the river, and Shethar-Boznai, (and their companions Aphas-secai, which are beyond the River) be ye far from hence.

7 Suffer ye the work of this house of God, that the captain of the Jews and the Elders of the Jews may build this house of God in his place.

8 For I have given a commandment what ye shall do to the Elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God, that of the revenues of the King, which is of the tribute beyond the River, there be incontinently expenses given unto these men that they cease not.

9 And that which they shall have need of, let it be given unto them day by day, whether it be young bullocks, or rams, or lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the Priests that are in Jerusalem, that there be no fault.

10 That they may have to offer sweet odors unto the God of heaven, and pray for the king's life, and for his sons.

11 And I have made a decree, that whatsoever shall alter this sentence, the wood shall be pulled down from his house, and shall be set up, and he shall be hanged thereon, and his house shall be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his Name to dwell there, destroy all kings and people that put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God, which is in Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree, let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tattenai the Captain beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai and their companions, according to that which Darius had sent, so they did speedily.

14 So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered by the prophesying of Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, and they built and finished it, by the appointment of the God of Israel, and by the commandment of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished the third day of the month Adar, which was the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the Priests, and the Levites, and the residue of the children of the captivity kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and twelve goats, for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the Priests in their order, and the Levites in their courses over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 (For the Priests and the Levites were purified altogether) and they killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselves.

21 So the children of Israel which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them, from the filthiness of the Heathen of the land to seek the Lord God of Israel, did eat,

22 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the Lord had made them glad, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to encourage them in the work of the house of God, even the God of Israel.

7 13 By the commandment of the king, Ezra and his companions come to Jerusalem. 27 He giveth thanks to God.

1 Now after these things, in the reign of 1Artaxerxes king of Persia, was Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,
2 The son of Shallam, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,
3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,
4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,
5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of 1Aaron, the chief Priest.
6 This Ezra came up from Babel, and was a 1Scribe, prompt in the Law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given, and the king gave him all his request according to the hand of the Lord his God, which was upon him.
7 And there went up certain of the children of Israel, and of the Priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of king Artaxerxes.
8 And he came to Jerusalem in the 1fifth month, which was in the seventh year 2of the king.
9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babel, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem according to the good hand of his God that was upon him.
10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach the precepts and judgments in Israel.
11 And this is the copy of the letter that king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the Priest and Scribe, even a writer of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of his statutes over Israel.
12 ARTAXERXES king of kings, to Ezra the Priest and perfect Scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, and to 1Cheeneth.
13 I have given commandment, that everyone that is willing in my kingdom of the people of Israel, and of the Priests, and Levites, to go to Jerusalem with thee, shall go.
14 Therefore art thou sent of the king and his seven counselors, to enquire in Judah and Jerusalem, according to the Law of thy God, which is in thine hand,
15 And to carry the silver and the gold, which the king and his counselors willingly offer unto the God of Israel (whose habitation is in Jerusalem)
16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babel, with the free offering of the people, and that which the Priests offer willingly to the house of their God which is in Jerusalem.
17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this silver, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings, and their drink offerings: and thou shalt offer them upon the Altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem.
18 And whatsoever it pleaseth thee and thy brethren to do with the rest of the silver and gold, do ye it according to the will of your 1God.
19 And the vessels that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before God in Jerusalem.
20 And the residue that shall be needful for the house of thy God, which shall be meet for thee to bestow, thou shalt bestow it out of the King's treasure house,
21 And I king Artaxerxes have given commandment to all the treasurers which are beyond the River, that whatsoever Ezra the Priest and Scribe of the Law of the God of heaven shall require of you, that it be done incontinently.
22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, unto an hundred 1measures of wheat, and unto an hundred 2baths of wine, and unto an hundred baths of oil, and salt without writing.
23 whatsoever is by the commandment of the God of heaven, let it be done speedily for the house of the God of heaven: for why should he be wroth against the realm of the King and his children?
24 And we certify you, that upon any of the Priests, Levites, singers, porters, Nethinim, or Ministers in
